Mark was on the phone with a dispatcher and I asked Jason if he was okay. He replied that he thought his arm was broken. Jason appeared to be in shock and remained subdued and crouched over as he sat on the edge of sidewalk. He held his left elbow with his right hand and winced with pain. It was during this time, before the police arrived, that Jason said that the man who had attacked him had nearly run into him twice during his commute that morning. He also told us that he hit the Attacker's side mirror. He did not give us anymore information because by this time, other co-workers had started to drive by and notice what had happened and others had come out of the building to see what the commotion was about. The police arrived about ten minutes after our call and the ambulance a few minutes later. Mark and I stood by the police officer and Jason. The police officer asked for the license plate number and it was given to him by either Mark or myself. He returned to his car and checked the plate number and said to Mark that it "was good." We were under the impression that the plate matched our description of the car. I gave my name and contact information to the officer. I was not asked to give a statement at that time. I was told that someone would contact me.

I did not say anything to Jason except asking him if he was okay, but I stood near him, to his right, about 2-3' away. I noticed that he had two red areas on his face. One red mark was by his eye and another by the corner of his lip. When the paramedics tried to adjust his sleeve to assist his arm, I noticed that his elbow was swollen.

It was at this time that I stepped away from the paramedics and returned to the sidewalk to stand with my co-workers who had now assembled. A few minutes later, Jason was still being tended by the paramedics and I went to work.

Re: Jason Switchtenberg incident 2/24/09

At approximately ±9:00 am on 2/24/09 I witnessed the assault of Jason Switchtenberg by a man driving a late model Dodge Magnum station wagon, license number GA 2123-AWC, dark color - blue or purple. I remember the windows being tinted. There was a decorative chrome license plate surround so the county was not visible. The assailant was an African-American man, approximately 6-2, 220 lbs, short hair, clean appearance, I believe wearing a sweatshirt and sweat pants, late 30's to 40's. I saw the assailant from the back and from the side but was mostly focused on getting the license plate number since Natalie Martinez and Jason were engaged with the assailant.

The assault occurred on the south side sidewalk of Simpson Street about 15-20 feet west of West Peachtree Street.

I was about 25 feet south of Jason on West Peachtree Street, west sidewalk, walking toward Jason when I heard Natalie Martinez shouting at the man who ultimately returned to the car mentioned above. I could see Jason on the sidewalk, on his left side with his bicycle still between his legs. The assailant was punching him around the head and upper body. Jason was not able to move and was trying to hold his left arm while using his right arm to block the attack. The assailant continued to punch Jason as I came around the corner. Jason was yelling, "you broke my arm, you broke my arm!" The assailant didn't stop punching Jason even with Natalie yelling at the assailant "what are you doing, stop!" and me calling out his license number.

When I came around the corner I started shouting the license number "2123-AWC, 2123-AWC, 2123-AWC". Natalie continued yelling at the assailant trying to get him to stop punching Jason. Between her yelling and my yelling his tag number the assailant stood up from Jason and quickly returned to the open door of his car that was stopped in the middle of Simpson Street and drove off squealing his tires. He headed west on Simpson Street – I didn't see which way he turned.

Jason remained sitting on the sidewalk. His left elbow was badly deformed, blood was visible and he was clearly in a lot of pain.

I stayed with Jason & Natalie until the police came and then the ambulance arrived.

INCIDENT INVESTIGATION STATEMENT

Tuesday, February 24, 2009

I was cycling northbound on Peachtree Street. Before the stoplight at Ellis Street, a dark blue/ purple Dodge Magnum passed very closely on my left. I caught up to the car at the stoplight. Immediately after the light turned green, the Dodge passed me even closer. Again, I caught up and pulled in front of the car by Harris Street, and again, after the light turned green, the Dodge passed me closely. At Peachtree Street and West Peachtree Street, the Dodge was waiting at the stoplight in the right lane; I was merging into the left lane to turn left at the light and continue to my workplace a couple blocks away. As I neared the stoplight, the Dodge crept to the left of the lane, closer to me. As I passed the car, my hand hit the driver's side rearview mirror. I noticed something fall to the pavement; at first I thought it was a light on my bike (it tends to come loose), but also recognize it could have been part of his mirror. I turned left onto West Peachtree, and I heard the Dodge then squeal its tires as it swerved left to chase me from the right lane. The car caught up, and then passed me one block later, at West Peachtree and Simpson Streets. The driver exited the vehicle, took several quick steps towards me as I attempted to turn to elude him, and he pushed me in the back, forcing me to the curb/ sidewalk. Because I wear cycling shoes that clip to the pedals, the bike fell with me as I hit the sidewalk. While I was lying on the ground, with the bike on top of me, the driver crouched over me and punched me at least two times on the left cheek. During the punching, I heard a woman shouting (who I later discovered was a co-worker and a witness to the incident), which drew attention to the scene. The driver stood up, walked back to his vehicle, got in and drove away.

The driver was a black male, medium skin-tone, around 6 feet in height, 200 pounds (large, but muscular). He was wearing a grey hooded sweatshirt and matching sweat pants.

I quickly realized a tremendous pain in my left arm; I thought my elbow and/ or shoulder were broken or dislocated. I was transported by ambulance to Emory University Hospital Midtown (formerly Crawford Long Hospital) and admitted to the ER. The doctors stated my elbow was severely broken (from the fall on the sidewalk) and required surgery as soon as possible. I received an operation the evening of the 24th, in which a plate and several screws were inserted into my arm at the elbow.

I was released from the hospital the evening of Thursday, February 26, 2009. I have been receiving treatment from an occupational therapist three days per week to help return mobility in my arm. I am not able to place any weight on my arm for at least six weeks after surgery, and it could take several months to recover completely. The plate and screws will remain in my arm indefinitely.

N/A

If I have been asked to sign this form in order to authorize the disclosure of my health information for purposes related to research, or for other reasons, I understand that Emory Healthcare may decline to treat me if I refuse to sign this authorization (unless (1) the treatment would be related to a research project and this authorization is for the use or disclosure of my health information for such research; or (2) the treatment would be for the sole purpose of creating health information for disclosure to a third party (such as a workers compensation examination).

10. RELEASE AND WAIVER

If the health information that I have requested Emory Healthcare to disclose contains any privileged psychiatric or psychological information related to the treatment of physical and/or mental illness, chemical dependency or alcohol abuse, or testing or treatment of any communicable or infectious disease such as acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS), Immunodeficiency Syndrome Related Complex (ARC), human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), Venereal Disease, Tuberculosis, or Hepatitis, I hereby waive any privilege concerning such information for the purpose(s) of releasing it to the party or parties authorized above. I also release Emory Healthcare, each of the Emory Healthcare facilities checked above, and their officers, trustees, agents and employees from any and all liabilities, damages and claims, which might arise from the release of the health information authorized by me above.

REFERRING PHYSICIAN:	Jonathan J Mason, MD

PROCEDURES: Debridement of left distal humerus and elbow/olecranon osteotomy/open reduction, internal fixation, left distal humerus and elbow supracondylar/intracondylar fracture, complex, 02/24/2009.

SUMMARY: The patient returns to the clinic today. He is stating that he has been working in physical therapy to try to regain most of the range of motion of his elbow. He feels that he has gained 19 degrees on the flexion part of his elbow but has lost a few degrees on his extension. He has not had any fevers, chills, anorexia or unintended weight loss. He continues to take Vicodin 1 every 6 to 8 hours as needed for pain.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION: General appearance: This is a well-nourished, well-adjusted male who is alert and oriented x3, in no apparent distress. The patient demonstrates an incision line that is healing well. Steri-Strips remains intact. His range of motion of his elbow shows 10 degrees of flexion contracture with flexion of 90 degrees. Supination is restricted slightly.

Pronation is full.

STAGING STUDIES: Executive Park radiographs, 03/19/2009. Left elbow, 2 views, demonstrates plate and screw devices are in satisfactory position without evidence of loosening or complication. Early evidence to suggest callus formation with healing of fracture is noted.

RECOMMENDATIONS: The patient needs to continue to work diligently with physical therapy to regain his range of motion. I am concerned that at this point he might not gain full range of motion. I would like to see him back to the clinic in 3 to 4 weeks to check on his range of motion.

SUMMARY: The patient returns to the clinic today for followup visit and wound check. He states he has been working with physical therapy for some exercise routines. He states that he has not really worked on flexion and extension of his elbow and has not had any fevers, chills, anorexia, or unintended weight loss.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION: General appearance: This is a well-nourished, well-adjusted male who is alert and oriented x3, in no apparent distress. The patient demonstrates an incision line that is healing. The staples remain intact. pronation are impaired at this point. He does have some mild swelling to his hand and some bruising on the volar aspect of his wrist.

RECOMMENDATIONS: I had a long and detailed discussion with the patient and his wife, who was present in the office today. At this point I informed him that he really needs to work hard on range of motion of his elbow. I have given him a note to bring down to physical therapy with him for aggressive range of motion of his elbow. I informed him that the first 14 days of his surgery are the most important part to regain motion of that elbow; therefore, he is to work extensively in that respect. I would like to see him back on his followup appointment next Tuesday or sooner if the need arises.

Operative Report

SWICHTENBERG, JASON W - CLH_001592207

* Final Report *

INDICATIONS: The patient is a 33-year-old gentleman who was assaulted earlier in the day and sustained an open comminuted supracondylar/intercondylar fracture of his left elbow and distal humerus. He was brought to the operating room for debridement and irrigation with operative fixation.

SUMMARY: The patient was brought to the operating room and placed in the supine position. After induction of satisfactory general anesthesia, the entire left upper extremity, shoulder, and axilla were prepped and draped free in the usual sterile manner. A sterile tourniquet was placed high on the left arm. The wound was exsanguinated by gravity drainage and the tourniquet inflated. A small skin defect where the open fracture occurred was present over the lateral aspect of the left arm distally. There were surrounding abrasions.

A longitudinal incision was made over the posterior aspect of the triceps extending distally over the olecranon fossa in the proximal portion over the olecranon and over the proximal portion of the ulna. Dissection carried sharply through skin and subcutaneous tissues down to deep fascia. Hematoma was present within the subcutaneous tissues laterally. This area was opened and the hematoma was evacuated and the tissues debrided where the open puncture wound was present.

Attention was redirected to the proximal ulna and olecranon. A transversely oriented periosteal incision was made 2-3 cm distal to the olecranon tip. Osteotomy of the olecranon was then performed with an osteotome and the olecranon was reflected superiorly. The entire triceps mechanism was then released medially and laterally and mobilized from the posterior aspect of the distal humerus and elbow. The ulnar nerve was dissected out, protected completely throughout the procedure. This was a complex comminuted fracture. There was a fracture line in the supracondylar area. The medial and lateral condyles were separate with a vertical fracture between the pillars of both of them into the olecranon fossa. The central portion of the articular surface between the medial and lateral epicondyles was a separate fracture segment. There were marked areas of comminution with small bony areas of debris. These were all debrided away/excised as they were devascularized.

Attention was directed towards reestablishment of the articular surface. The central trochlear area of the distal humerus was reduced to the lateral condyle as a first step and fixed with two 4.0 mm cancellous screws directed from medial to lateral. Subsequently the medial condylar segment was reduced to the articular segment of the joint and an additional 4.0 mm cancellous screw was inserted from medial to lateral across the entire length between the medial epicondyle and the lateral epicondyle. At this point, an interfragmentary screw was directed from lateral to medial across the pillars of the medial and lateral condyles proximal to the olecranon fossa. A 3.5 cortical screw was utilized for this fixation to complete the rigid fixation of the medial condyle, lateral condyle, and the mid articular segment of the distal humerus. We then proceeded with fixation of this distal construct to the humeral diaphysis more proximally utilizing a seven hole posterolateral humeral condyle 3.5 mm LCP plate from Synthes. This was fixed primarily with locking screws with the exception of one standard 3.5 mm cortical screw in the distal lateral condyle segment. This provided rigid fixation of the three part distal humeral complex with the humeral diaphysis more proximally. Fifteen cc of crushed cancellous bone was then grafted at the level of the diametaphyseal fracture and applied anteriorly. Tourniquet was deflated with prompt perfusion. At this time, the triceps mechanism was reapplied to the posterior portion of the humerus. Intraoperative fluoroscopic images have confirmed satisfactory reduction and hardware placement. The olecranon segment was reduced and then internally fixed with a 100-mm long, 6.5 mm cancellous screw directed down the medullary canal of the ulna to complete an anatomic reduction of the osteotomy site and placed it in compression. The elbow was placed through a range of motion with full extension and flexion of the elbow. The wound was irrigated. Satisfactory hemostasis was confirmed. Ulnar nerve was returned to the cubital tunnel location and the roof over it repaired with interrupted figure-of-eight 2-0 Vicryl. The nerve remained without any evidence of impingement or compression.

The deep fascia overlying the triceps muscle and olecranon was then closed with a running 2-0 Vicryl. The skin was closed with staples. Sterile dressings were applied and a posterior long-arm splint was placed with the elbow in approximately 30-45 degrees of flexion. Total operative time was 3 hours and 40 minutes of the patient in the operating room. Actual surgical incision time was approximately 3 hours. Blood loss was minimal. The patient awakened and returned to the recovery room in satisfactory condition.

III: INVESTIGATIVE SUMMARY:

A. COMPLAINT ALLEGATION:

The department requires an investigation into the allegations that several APD employees violated department policies and procedures while working as narcotics investigators and during specific narcotics investigations. These allegations were uncovered during FBI interviews following the Neal Street Shooting on November 21, 2006. After many interviews, conducted by FBI Special Agents, the investigation concluded that the Atlanta Police Department needed to address a series of issues relating to our current policies and procedures.

These issues were training regarding the writing of search warrants, evidence handling and particularly the use of confidential informants. The interviews also pointed out the need to address issues such as "Padding Vouchers", signing blank vouchers and allowing confidential informants to go and make drug purchases on their own without any supervision from the controlling officer or investigator. "Padding Vouchers" is described as an officer or investigator inflating the cost of expenditures or drug amounts and keeping the remainder of the money for their own personal use. For example, an informant buys $10 worth of crack cocaine, but the investigator indicates on the voucher that the crack cocaine cost $30. The investigator would turn the voucher in and receive the $30 and keep $20 to do whatever he wanted to with it. According to statements made in the FBI report by investigators, this was a common occurrence among the narcotics unit and was tolerated and taught by supervisors. Investigators also said that having the confidential informants sign blank vouchers was common among the narcotics unit and some even said that they allowed informants to go and make drug buys on their own without any supervision.

A large portion of the FBI report focused on officers and investigators involved in a practice known as "Hand-Offs". This is defined as having one investigator to make a drug buy and give the information to another investigator so they could draft the affidavit and search warrant as if they conducted the drug buy. The FBI report indicated that several members of the narcotics unit said that this was a common practice and it was encouraged and tolerated by their supervisors. Investigators would also falsify other areas of the warrant affidavit in order to obtain a search warrant. For instance, saying that you searched an informant before a drug buy, when you know that you didn't or saying that an informant made a drug buy, when you know that they didn't. These were blatant areas of deception and cause to question the integrity of the narcotics unit.

Interviews from the FBI report also brought about questions of whether our narcotics teams used tactics such as "Knock and Talks" and "Freezing the Scene" as methods to enter someone's residence and do drug searches without consent, probable cause, or a search warrant.

Other issues of concerns were that investigators had to use their personal vehicles to go out and make drug buys due to a lack of equipment and resources. Investigators also used city vehicles to go and work their extra jobs and some investigators were allowed to work their extra jobs while they were on-duty. During the interview, investigators alleged that this information was known by supervisors and allowed to continue. The report also said that investigators routinely confiscated DVD movies, CD discs, and other valuables from search warrants and used the items for their own personal use and enjoyment.

The last item of concern in the FBI report was the implementation of a unit wide quota known as the "Nine and Two" system. This system indicated that investigators were compelled to make at least 9 arrests and execute at least 2 search warrants each month. The report said that the investigators were threatened with transfers, loss of off days, and loss of privilege to work extra jobs if they didn't meet the requirements of the "Nine and Two" system.

B. ACCUSED EMPLOYEE'S RESPONSE:

Inv. Cary Bond

Investigator Cary Bond said that he was trained in the areas of police report writing, arrest warrants, evidence handling, and police integrity prior to his narcotics assignment. He said that his training on writing search warrants was minimal during his two week detective training and he learned most of what he knew from investigators Gregg Junnier and Paul Vignola once he became a narcotics investigator. Inv. Bond said that he did attend training that was related to his job description after he was assigned to the narcotics division. He said that he didn't recall having any training using confidential informants, other than Sgt. Keeble giving a one hour instruction on how to pay the informant. Inv. Cary Bond said that he didn't think that he was adequately trained to be a narcotics investigator.

Inv. Bond said that he never searched informants before or after they made drug buys for him. He said that he knew that searching was required for the purposes of getting a search warrant, but he didn't do it. Inv. Bond admitted to falsifying information on drug search warrants and affidavits by saying that he searched the informant before and after the buy, when he really didn't search them at all. He said that he was taught not to search the informants by Inv. Junnier and that he was just going along with the common practices during that time. Inv. Bond said that he also allowed informant Alex White to go out and make drug buys without any supervision at all. He said that he also learned this from Inv. Junnier and Sgt. Stallings was aware of the practices.

Inv. Bond said that he also allowed informant Alex White to sign blank vouchers and he said that he did it because it was easier to get the informant paid. He said that he padded vouchers so that he could give the informant extra money for gas or to buy the informant lunch. He said that he always padded vouchers and used the money for something involving the department. Inv. Bond said that he never used his personal vehicle to go out and make drug buys but he knew of other supervisors and investigators that did. He said that Sgt. Stallings, Gregg Junnier, Gary Smith, and Curtis Davenport all used their personal vehicles to make narcotics buys and they did it due to a lack of resources from the department. Inv. Bond said that they only had two undercover cars at the time.

Inv. Bond admitted to accepting hand-offs from Inv. Junnier. Some of the locations in questions were from [redacted], and [redacted] Inv. Bond said that these were garden variety type of search warrants where Inv. Junnier would take the informant, usually Alex White, and make drug buys without him and just provide him with the information. Inv. Bond said that he would appear before the magistrate and swear that he took the informant and made the drug buy and not Junnier or any other investigator. Inv. Bond said that he knew that this wasn't the right thing to do, but he was taught by Junnier and Vignola not to put multiple officers' name in the affidavit so they didn't have to appear in court to testify. Inv. Bond said that he would sometimes tell Inv. Junnier that this wasn't a good practice and they needed to stop it, but it never did.

In one warrant package from [redacted] Inv. Bond listed Inv. Maurice Guerin as being present with him and informant Alex White when a drug purchase was made. According to the FBI report, Alex White said that he never made the buy from that location and an interview with Inv. Maurice Guerin stated that he has never been on a drug investigation with Inv. Bond and Alex White. Inv. Bond admitted that he lied on the warrant application and later said that Inv. Guerin was never present. He said that he lied because he knew that it was policy to have another investigator or officer present during all drug buys.

Inv. Bond said that the "Nine and Two" quota system did exist within the narcotics division. He said that investigators would sometime scramble at the end of the month trying to meet the numbers. He said that he didn't recall if there were any consequences for not making the numbers, but he did think that if you were not doing a good job, they would reassign you somewhere else. Inv. Bond said that he didn't know of any instances where he or his team members would use the "Knock and Talk" system as a mean to enter a person's resident and do an illegal search. He also said that he has never taken DVD movies from a person's home and kept them for his own personal use.

Major Robert Browning

Major Robert Browning said that he served as the commander of the narcotics division from August of 2003 until November of 2005. He said that during his tenure as the unit commander there was never a sergeant or investigator under his command that he didn't trust. He felt that all of his sergeants and investigators were adequately trained in the areas of police report writing, arrests warrants, search warrants, evidence handling, confidential informants and police integrity. Major Browning said that he gave a specific training concerning confidential informants on January 6, 2005, during a unit staff meeting. He said that investigators were reminded not to pay or meet informants alone and definitely not to date your informant. Major Browning said that he told the investigators to review the SOP regarding informants and he had everyone to sign an attendance sheet acknowledging the training. Major Browning said that he never had any issues involving police integrity while he was the narcotics unit commander.

Major Browning said that he felt that his sergeants and investigators were adequately trained to carryout narcotics investigations and he never denied anyone training that was applicable to their job description. He said that most of the training was provided in-house. Major Browning said that there times when investigators complained about the lack of undercover cars and ballistic shields. Major Browning said that his solution to their issues was to share cars with other undercover units and to share the ballistic shields until the department could purchase some more. He said that eventually the department did buy enough ballistic shields for the entire unit.

Major Browning said that he has never encouraged nor suggested that a sergeant or an investigator pad vouchers or have informants to sign blank vouchers. He said that he had no knowledge that padding vouchers and the signing of blank vouchers were taking place during his command. Major Browning said that he never suggested to any sergeant or investigator to allow informants to go out and make drug purchases on their own and never allowed investigators to make drug buys or conduct narcotics investigations in their personal vehicle. He said that he has never encouraged any sergeant or investigator to make false statements on affidavits or police reports in order to obtain arrest or search warrants. Major Browning said that he had no personal knowledge of investigators using the "Hand-Off" method to obtain search warrants during his tenure as the unit commander. Major Browning said that he considered himself as a hands-on type of unit commander and he would frequently attend pre-raid briefings and participate in the narcotics warrant entries.

Major Browning said that he was familiar with the term "Nine and Two" and he learned about it when arrived to the narcotics unit in August of 2003. He said that he was advised by Sgt. Keeble that the previous unit commander, Ernest Finley, required the investigators to have a certain number of arrests and a certain number of search warrants per month. Major Browning said that he was handed a copy of a memorandum, written by Ernest Finley, detailing that each narcotics and weed and seed team have at least 20 arrests and a minimum of 2 search warrants a week. Major Browning said that he didn't adopt this policy, but instead encouraged his supervisors not to be numbers driven, but make quality narcotics cases. He said that he implemented his agenda during a staff meeting on September 3, 2003, and documented his plan in writing. Major Browning produced a copy of his staff meetings notes for September 3, 2003.

Major Browning said that he never used the "Nine and Two" system as a form of evaluation and he never threatened to transfer anybody or suspend their extra job privileges for not making enough arrests. He said that he had no personal knowledge of instances where sergeants or investigators would use the "Knock and Talk" system to enter someone's home and perform a narcotics search without probable cause or a valid search warrant. Major Browning said that he had no knowledge of any sergeant or investigator working extra jobs while on duty and he never received any money from Inv. Junnier or Sgt. Stallings. Major Browning said that he had no knowledge of sergeants or investigators taking money, DVD movies, CD discs, or any other valuables during search warrants and using the items for their own personal use and enjoyment. He said that he never had to discipline anyone for issues concerning police corruption or police integrity during his tenure as the narcotics unit commander.

Inv. Holly Buchanan

Inv. Holly Buchanan said that prior to or during her narcotics assignment she was trained in the areas of police report writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, evidence handling, police integrity, and the use of confidential informants. She also said that she felt that she needed more guidance from her team leader and supervisor, before executing her first search warrant. Inv. Buchanan said that her first search warrant was given to her by her team leader, Inv. Junnier, and she wrote it word for word based on what he told her to write.

Inv. Buchanan said that she did search informants before and after they made drugs buys for her and she never allowed an informant to go out and make drug purchases on their own. She said that she never allowed informants to sign blank vouchers, but she knows from this investigation that it did happen with other team members.

Inv. Buchanan admits to using an un-registered informant, [redacted], and paying him for making drug buys. She said that she was introduced to [redacted] by her supervisor, Sgt. Stallings, and he encouraged her to use him. Inv. Buchanan also said that Sgt. Stallings once asked her to pad a voucher by raising the actual amount of a drug purchase by $20 and give the money to him. She said that Sgt. Stallings wanted her to do this because [redacted] owed him $20 and this was the way that he wanted to get his money back. Inv. Buchanan said that she didn't do it, but instead she gave Sgt. Stallings $20 of her own money. She said that Sgt. Stallings may have thought that she padded the voucher, but she didn't.

Inv. Buchanan said that she has never used her personal vehicle to buy drugs while on duty and she has no knowledge of any other team members using their personal vehicle to buy drugs.

Inv. Holly Buchanan did accept hand-offs from Inv. Junnier on several warrant locations. She believes that [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and possibly [redacted] were all locations where Inv. Junnier made drug buys with an informant and just gave the information to her. Inv. Buchanan said that she wrote the warrant applications as if she took the informant to get the buy, because she didn't know that it was wrong. She said that she may have not been in the vicinity on these warrants and she wrote them based on what Inv. Junnier told her to write. Inv. Buchanan said that she didn't know that she was supposed to put the phrase that "Information below provided by Gregg Junnier" in the warrant affidavit. She said that if she had known that, then she would have put it in the warrant affidavit and this was a mistake on her part. When asked what did she say when the judge asked if the information in the warrant was true and accurate, Inv. Buchanan said that she swore that it was because Inv. Junnier was well known and she had no reason to doubt what he was telling her. Inv. Buchanan said that it was never her intention to deceive or lead anybody the wrong way; she said that her wrong doings were rookie mistakes.

Inv. Holly Buchanan said that hand-offs may have not been practiced unit wide, but they were common among her team members especially when someone was trying to make "Nine and Two" for the month. She said that Sgt. Stallings was familiar with hand-offs, but she didn't know beyond him. Inv. Buchanan said that Inv. Junnier was the only person that she received hand-offs from. Inv. Buchanan also said that the "Nine and Two" quota system did exist within the unit, but she didn't think anything happened to investigators that didn't meet the standard. She said that her sergeant and team leader were definitely aware of the quota system.

Inv. Buchanan said that she was not aware of instances where a "Knock and Talks" or "Freezing the Scene" were used to gain entry into somebody's house and conduct a search without probable cause or a search warrant.

Officer Brad Burchfield

Officer Brad Burchfield resigned when ordered to appear for a compelled statement.

Inv. Bryant Burns

Inv. Burns indicated that prior to or during his narcotics assignment, he was trained in the areas of police writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, handling evidence, police integrity and the use of confidential informants. Inv. Burns stated that during his tenure in narcotics, he always searched informants before and after a drug purchase was made. Inv. Burns stated that he had no knowledge of informants signing blank vouchers. Inv. Burns advised that if the purchase was successful in the presence of himself and or a partner, the informant would acknowledge payment by signing a voucher. Inv. Burns stated that he was not familiar with term "Padding Vouchers". Inv. Burns stated that he has never padded a voucher, nor has he been instructed or encouraged to do so by supervisors.

Inv. Burns advised that he has never made false statements on an affidavit or police report to obtain a search warrant. Inv Burns further advised that it was not common practice for an investigator to receive information and draft an affidavit as if they conducted the drug buy (Hand-Off). Inv Burns stated that he has never participated in a "Hand-Off" nor has he taught or encouraged other investigators to do so. Inv. Burns indicated that he is familiar with the term "Nine and Two" and indicated that it required investigators to have nine arrest and two search warrants. Inv. Burns stated that he believed it to be the minimum requirements, but there were times when he did not meet the requirement. Inv. Burns stated that he is not sure where the "Nine and Two" term originated, nor is he sure what happened if investigators failed to meet the requirement. Inv. Burns advised that he has never used his personal vehicle to make a drug buy, nor does he have any knowledge of other investigators using their personal vehicles to make drug buys.

Officer Alex Crawford

Officer Alex Crawford said that he has been an Atlanta Police Officer for six years but he has never worked as a narcotic investigator. He said that he worked an extra job at the A.K. Food Store on 1981 Simpson Road, but he worked the job for himself and never for Inv. Junnier. Officer Crawford said that he had a valid permit to work the job and he never worked the job while he was on-duty or using a city vehicle. Officer Crawford said that he was always paid by the store manager and he was paid in cash. He said that he has no knowledge of any narcotics investigator or officer working extra jobs while on duty or using a city vehicle while working.

Sergeant Curtis Davenport

Sergeant Curtis Davenport stated that prior to or during his narcotics assignment he was trained in the areas of police report writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, handling evidence, police integrity and the use of a confidential informant. Sergeant Davenport stated that during his time in narcotics it was a practice to always search informants before and after a drug purchase and that he made it a practice to never let an informant out of his sight when they made a drug purchase. He also stated that he never let informants sign blank vouchers, he never padded vouchers. He also stated that he has never pocketed city money for reasons other than city business.

Sergeant Davenport stated that he has never made a false statement on an affidavit to obtain a search warrant. Sergeant Davenport stated that it was not a common practice for an investigator to receive information from another investigator and draft an affidavit as if they conducted the drug buy themselves or encourage other investigators to do so. Sergeant Davenport stated that he was familiar with the term nine and two and that was the quota that his team tried to meet. He said that he felt if you didn't meet the requirements you could lose your extra jobs. Sergeant Davenport stated that he never used his personal vehicle to make drug buys nor does he have any knowledge of any other officers using their personal vehicle to make drug buys.

Major Ernest Finley

Major Ernest Finley said that he was the narcotics commander from January 2001, until August of 2003. He said that he supervised about five or six teams during that time frame and the only sergeants that he didn't trust were Sgt. Mills and Sgt. Stallings. Major Finley said that Sgt. Mills was a good worker, but his only issue with her was a trust factor. He said that he didn't trust Sgt. Stallings because Sgt. Stallings would never have his team to work the areas that he was supposed to. Major Finley said that Sgt. Stallings and his team were assigned to zone 4, but they were always making drug arrests in zone 1. Major Finley said that he never detected that there were corruption type issues, he just thought that Sgt. Stallings was soft and easy going and just too nice for the assignment. Major Finley said that he tried to get rid of Sgt. Stallings several times but it never happened. Major Finley said that he never had issues with trusting any investigators that he supervised.

Major Finley said that during his tenure as the narcotics commander, he felt that his sergeants and investigators were adequately trained to do their jobs. He said that there was in-house training and opportunities to go outside for training. Major Finley said that he has never denied any investigator the opportunity to attend training that was available. He said that some investigators would rather go and work extra jobs, than go to training.

When asked about resources and equipment, Major Finley said that he did the best that he could and made the best of the situation. He said that when it came to cars, they used the barter system and he encouraged the guys to be creative, as long as it didn't violate policies. Major Finley said that officers would complain about the cars, but he never suggested that anyone use their personal vehicle. Major Finley described himself as being a hands-on type of manager and he said that he has never encouraged a supervisor or investigator to pad vouchers or allow informants to sign blank vouchers. He said that he had no personal knowledge of investigators allowing informants to go out and make drug buys on their own or investigators making false statements on their warrants.

Major Finley said that he has never encouraged supervisors or investigators to receive or give hand-offs to fellow team members. He did say that he once tried to create a buy team by allowing investigators who were good at blending-in to come to narcotics and buy illegal drugs. Major Finley said that he recommended using the investigators for a six month period, but his idea was shot down by his superiors and the project never happened.

Major Finley said that he created the "Nine and Two" principle but it was never written and it never went into policy. He said that his intentions were to motivate the unit based on a lack of productivity and enforcement. Major Finley said that the unit was getting beat up when it came to enforcing lead sheets and the unit was not addressing quality of life issues. Major Finley said that he did write a memo on July 30, 2003, explaining to his chain of command what he was trying to do. He said that the memorandum was recanted on the next day by Chief Brooks. Major Finley said that he wrote a follow-up memorandum on August 5, 2003 and was promoted to major shortly after that. Major Finley said that the memorandum was never intended to establish a quota system, but to motivate the investigators. He said that looking back and seeing it from his position now; he can see how it was viewed as a quota system. Major Finley said that no one was ever disciplined and the memo was never acted upon. He said that he came up with the numbers of 9 arrests from studying the two previous years of arrests made by narcotics investigators. He said that the 2 search warrant minimum was already in place and has been in effect since the early 1990's. Major Finley said the 9 arrests and 2 search warrants were actually a modest number compared to the statistics from the previous two years. He said that most investigators generated arrest numbers above and beyond that. Major Finley said that his superiors were aware of his philosophy because he forwarded everything that he did to them in writing.

Major Finley said that the "Nine and Two", system was used as a form of evaluation for narcotics investigators during his tenure as the unit commander, but there was never punishment to those who didn't meet the standard. He said that they were never threats of taking their extra jobs or being transferred out of the narcotics unit. Major Finley said that he never had complaints of narcotics investigators using the "Knock and Talk" system to enter a person's home and perform illegal searches. He said that he never had complaints of sergeants or investigators working extra jobs while on duty or using city vehicles while working extra jobs. Major Finley said that he had no knowledge of narcotics investigators taking DVD movies, CD discs, or other valuables during search warrants and keeping the items for their own personal use.

Lieutenant Stacie Gibbs

Lieutenant Stacie Gibbs said that she was the narcotics commander from January of 2006 until June of 2007 and she supervised two teams. She said that she trusted all of her sergeants and investigators and felt that every one of them was adequately trained to do their assignments. Lt. Gibbs said that there were never instances where she felt that she needed to address issues concerning police integrity. Lt. Gibbs said within the ten months that she was there; she never received an anonymous phone call from a citizen or officer saying that her investigators were involved in any allegations of wrong doing. She said that she believed that her investigators were adequately trained in the area of handling informants and she never received a complaint from an informant or supervisor concerning an investigator.

Lt. Gibbs said that she never denied any of her investigators or supervisors training in the areas of report writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, evidence handling, or police integrity. She said that during her tenure as the narcotics commander, she went out on about fifty search warrants and she felt that the teams knew what they were doing in regards to narcotics investigations. Lt. Gibbs said that she considered herself as a hands-on type commander.

Lt. Gibbs said that she rarely had complaints about equipment or resources. She said that the only thing that she could remember being asked for was a marked patrol car and Inv. Junnier wanted that. Lt. Gibbs said that padding vouchers was not a common practice while she was the commander and the signing of blank vouchers was not common either. She said that she believed if investigators were padding vouchers, they were stealing the money instead of buying equipment for the unit, but she was never aware that padding vouchers were occurring. Lt. Gibbs said that she never knew that investigators allowed informants to go out and make drug purchases on their own and this was not a common practice. Lt. Gibbs said that she was asked on one occasion about an investigator using his personal vehicle to make a drug buy, and she said that she was completely opposed to the idea. She said that she doesn't know for sure if it happened but she was opposed to it. Lt. Gibbs said that investigators complained about the under covers all the time, saying that they were burnt.

Lt. Gibbs said that she has never encouraged a sergeant or investigator to participate in hand-offs nor has she encouraged an investigator to make a false statement on a warrant or affidavit. She said that hand-offs were not a common practice within her unit and she had no knowledge that they were occurring. Lt. Gibbs said that she did participate in drug raid briefings and she did question investigators about the affidavit portions of their search warrants. Lt. Gibbs said that she was familiar with the term "Nine and Two" and she said that it was more of an old wise tale that started a long time ago, but it doesn't exist and she has never seen it in writing. Lt. Gibbs said that she has never punished anyone in the form of a counseling form or written reprimand in regards to productivity. She said that she never threatened anyone with transfers or suspending their extra job privileges because of lack of arrests or search warrants.

Lt. Gibbs said that she was familiar with the term "Knock and Talk", and she wasn't aware of any investigators using the tactic to search someone's home without probable cause or a search warrant. She said that she had no knowledge of investigators working extra jobs while on duty or using city vehicles while working extra jobs. Lt. Gibbs said that she had no knowledge of any of her sergeants or investigators taking DVD movies, CD discs or any other valuables during search warrants and keeping the items for their own personal enjoyment. She said that she never discipline any sergeant or investigator for padding vouchers, accepting hand-offs, writing bad warrants, improper handling of informants, or working extra jobs while on duty because she didn't know that this behavior was taking place. Lt. Gibbs said that she never disciplined a sergeant or investigator for anything other than maybe a traffic accident.

Inv. Maurice Guerin

Inv. Maurice Guerin said that prior to or during his narcotics assignment he was trained in the areas of police report writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, evidence handling, and police integrity. He said that he was also trained how to use confidential informants and he felt that he was adequately trained to be a narcotics investigator. Inv. Guerin said that he felt that other team members could have had more training in undercover work.

Inv. Guerin said that most of the time he would search or check the informant before and after they made a drug buy. He said that he has never allowed an informant to go and make a drug buy on his own, but he has heard of Junnier, Tesler, J.R. Smith, and Bond allowing informant Alex White to go out and make drug buys on his own. Inv. Guerin said that he has allowed informants to sign blank vouchers before a drug buys and he did this so they didn't have to slow or stop and signing papers while in an undercover role. Inv. Guerin said that if he had blank vouchers and he was not able to make a buy that day, he would just hold on to the voucher until the next time. Inv. Guerin said that this practice was not common among his team members, but it happen.

Inv. Guerin said that he has never padded a voucher, but he has put extra money on the voucher to cover food or gas expenses for informants. He said that he would put the extra costs on the line marked as expenditures. Inv. Guerin said that he learned to write the voucher like that on the job and in training. He said that he has never padded a voucher for the purpose of buying equipment for the unit or pocketing the money for himself.

Inv. Guerin said that he has never used his personal vehicle to make drug buys while on duty but he believed that Inv. Junnier did that and Sgt. Stallings knew about it. Inv. Guerin said that he has only been with informant Alex White once during a drug investigation and he was with Inv. Gary Smith. He said that he has never been on an investigation with Alex White and Inv. Cary Bond. Inv. Guerin said that he has never received a hand-off from another officer or investigator and he has never made a false statement on an affidavit or a warrant.

Inv. Guerin said that the "Nine and Two" quota system did exist and it started when Lieutenant Finley was in narcotics. He said that the quota system stayed in narcotics even after Lieutenant left the unit. Inv. Guerin said that the system was a part of his evaluation and his sergeant once told him that a poor evaluation could affect his extra jobs. Inv. Guerin said that he didn't always make the "Nine and Two" quota, but he was never punished or demoted.

Inv. Guerin said that he has heard of the "Knock and Talk" and "Freezing the Scene", but he had no knowledge where anyone used these situations to enter a person's house and search for drugs without consent or probable cause, absent a valid warrant. Inv. Guerin said that he has never worked extra jobs for Inv. Junnier, but he believed that investigators Tesler and J.R. Smith did. Inv. Guerin said that he believed that they were on duty at the time and the sergeant knew about it.

Investigator Kelton Hill

Investigator Kelton Hill stated that during his narcotics assignment the only training he received was how to conduct a search warrant. He stated that he did receive training in the areas of police writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, handling evidence, and police integrity. Investigator Hill stated that during his time in narcotics it was a practice to always search informants before and after they made drug buys and always get in a position so that he could see the informants make buys. Inv. Hill stated that he never allowed informants to sign blank pay vouchers, he never padded vouchers and he never cushioned his buys or pocketed city funds for personal reasons. Inv. Hill stated that he has never obtained or known any officer to obtain a search warrant from a buy that he received from another investigator without knowledge of the actual buy. He also stated that he has never made a false statement on an affidavit.

Investigator Hill stated that he felt that he felt pressured to produce numbers and that he felt that some of the warrants he served were unsafe. Investigator Hill stated that he remembered hearing the nine and two term and that he knew what it meant and that it became common practice as to being a requirement. He stated he doesn't recall any supervisor saying you got to have nine and two and that he never seen any document that referred to the nine and two standards. Inv. Hill stated that has never used his personal vehicle to work extra jobs or to make drug buys. He also stated that he has no knowledge of any narcotics investigators working extra jobs on duty.

Sergeant Steve Keeble

Sergeant Keeble stated that he was a supervisor over the narcotics buy fund as well as several other duties. However, he was not trained on how to handle the responsibilities he had in the Narcotics buy fund section. He stated that he learned how to operate this section based on his use of the fund as an investigator and was some what familiar with how it operated. He received hands on training in narcotics for about two weeks as a Narcotics investigator and it was follow by narcotic training in Forsyth at the Law Enforcement training center for Georgia law enforcement officers for about three weeks. He was later assigned to the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) and continued narcotic training through out that time as well. Sergeant Keeble stated that he learned how the pay voucher system worked while he was an investigator and his use of the fund as an investigator. He said that he did not recall any integrity training and basic supervisors training once he was promoted to Sergeant. But he doesn't recall and supervisors training that dealt specifically with Narcotics.

Sergeant Keeble stated that he also received training in how to handle and register informants and also make drug buys but he did not receive any training on how to distribute money. Sergeant Keeble stated that he is not familiar with investigators allowing informants to sign blank pay vouchers. He also stated that not to his knowledge investigators were pressured to produce numbers. He also stated that while he did not recall ever hearing about the term nine and two until after Neal Street. He located a memorandum from Major Finley who was the commander of the unit and that he wanted to increase the number of arrest and that the memorandum referred to the nine and two term. Nine bodies and two search warrants however, within a few days Major Perlene Williams generated a memorandum to then Lieutenant Finley stating more or less not to implement the program until it was discussed with Deputy Chief Brooks.

Sergeant Keeble stated that he is also familiar with freezing the scene and how a Knock and Talk is conducted and was able to explain investigative these techniques which were used. But he is not familiar with any investigator using these techniques in an illegal manner. He stated that he trusted his team members while working in Narcotics. However, he began to lose trust in Greg Junnier who he worked with his whole career when Greg Junnier was using an informant who was assigned to another investigator prior to Neal Street. Sergeant Keeble checked the background of the informant and found that the informant was arrested and did not report it to his controlling agent. Sergeant Keeble saw a problem with this because his credibility would be shot in court and he was in violation of his agreement. They ultimately used him again anyway.

Sergeant Keeble stated that he has never known of an investigator or supervisor to not follow proper procedure. He also stated that he has never known of any investigator or supervisor to take handoffs, pocket city funds, or enter false information on a payment voucher or inflate expenditures on a payment voucher or sign blank payment vouchers. Sergeant Keeble stated that he has never used his personal vehicle to make drug buys, nor does he have any knowledge of investigators using their personal vehicles for drug buys. Sergeant Keeble stated that he has no knowledge of officers working extra jobs on duty and that he doesn't work extra jobs. Sergeant Keeble said that he is unfamiliar with officers making false statements on warrants and that he did not work with the teams while they conducted their investigations. He also stated that he felt that the Narcotics unit wasn't adequately trained. He compared the narcotics unit's investigations to the Drug Enforcement Agencies' way of conducting investigations and he felt as if their way of conducting investigations was more thorough.

Lt. Douglas Little

Lt. Douglas Little said that he worked as a narcotics investigator from 1995 to 2001, and at some point he did work with Inv. Gregg Junnier. He said that he was trained in the areas of police report writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, evidence handling, police integrity, and the use of confidential informants. Lt. Little said that he was adequately trained to be a narcotics investigator and so were other members of his team.

Lt. Little said that he always searched informants before and after they made drug buys and he never allowed an informant to go out and make drug purchases on their own. He said that he never padded a drug voucher for the purpose of pocketing money but there were places on the voucher to pay informants for food or gas. Lt. Little said that he has made drug purchases using his own personal vehicle and he did this when there was a lack of undercover drug cars. He said that his supervisor was aware of this practice but he can't remember who his supervisor was at the time.

Lt. Little said that he has never made a false statement on a police report or affidavit in order to obtain a search warrant. He said that he has never received, given, taught, or participated in a "Hand Off". Lt. Little said that he was familiar with the term "Nine and Two" but the term didn't apply to him when he worked in the narcotics unit.

Lt. Little said that "Knock and Talks" and "Freezing the Scene" were not tactics that were used to enter someone's home without probable cause and perform illegal search warrants. He said that he has worked extra jobs for Inv. Junnier and he worked a job at a convenience store at Simpson Road and Lanier Street. Lt. Little said that he had a valid permit to work the job and he never worked while on duty. He said that he always wore his police uniform and he never used a city vehicle to work the job. Lt. Little said that he never taught Gregg Junnier how to work high crime drug areas while on duty.

Investigator Nathan Lucas

Investigator Nathan Lucas said that he did receive training in the areas of report writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, evidence handling, police integrity, and the use of confidential informants. He said that he was adequately trained to be a narcotics investigator and he felt that the rest of his team was also. Inv. Lucas said that he always searched informants before and after they made drug buys and he never allowed Alex White or any other informant to go out and make drugs buys on their own. Inv. Lucas said that he has never padded a voucher and he never allowed informants to sign blank vouchers.

Inv. Lucas said that he has conducted drug investigations and made drug buys in his personal vehicle under the direction of his supervisor, Sgt. Stallings. He said that this occurred during a time when the narcotics unit had one undercover car for nine investigators. Inv. Lucas said that that he has never made a false statement on an affidavit or police report in order to obtain a search warrant, but he has seen the practice of "Hand-Offs" take place within his narcotics team. He said that it was done by Sgt. Stallings and it was up to the investigator to verify the information that was provided.

Inv. Lucas said that the "Nine and Two" system did apply to his team and it was implemented before he got there in 2004. He said that the standard was a part of his QPAI, but he doesn't remember anything happening to investigators that didn't meet the standards. He said that they were never punished or threatened to be transferred from the unit or off days taken from them. Inv. Lucas said that there were times when he didn't meet the "Nine and Two" standard.

Inv. Lucas said that "Knock and Talks" and "Freezing the Scene" were not tactics that were used to enter someone's home without probable cause and perform illegal search warrants. He said that he has worked extra jobs for Inv. Junnier but he never worked them while on duty and he always had a work permit. Inv. Lucas said that he never used a city vehicle to work an extra job and he always wore his APD uniform. Inv. Lucas said that he always suspected investigators, Junnier, J. R. Smith, and Tessler of working extra jobs while on duty in their assigned narcotics area.

Sgt. Richard Mason

Sgt. Mason stated that although he was assigned to Gangs and Gun Unit, he was asked by Lt. Finley to assist narcotics in purchasing drugs, working with informants, writing and securing search warrants. Sgt. Mason stated that while assisting narcotics, he completed approximately nine search warrants packages. Sgt Mason advised prior to assisting narcotics he was trained in the areas of police report writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, evidence handling, police integrity and the use of confidential informants. Sgt. Mason stated that he always search the informant prior to and after a drug purchase. Sgt. Mason further stated that he always observed the informant go the targeted location and return. Sgt. Mason advised that he has never used Alex White as a confidential informant.

Sgt. Mason stated that it was never common practice to allow informants to sign blank vouchers. Sgt. Mason stated that informants were paid from city money after the voucher had been filled out by the investigator. Sgt. Mason advised he has never padded voucher, nor was he encouraged to do by supervisors. Sgt. Mason stated that he never used his personal vehicle to make drug buys, nor does he have knowledge of any investigator using their personal vehicle for drug buys. Sgt Mason stated that he has never made false statements on an affidavit or police report to obtain a search warrant or arrest warrant. Sgt. Mason indicated that it was not common practice for investigators to make a drug buy and give the information to another investigator so that investigator could draft affidavits or search warrants as if they conducted the drug buy (Hand-offs).

Sgt. Mason stated that he made drug purchases and gave the evidence to another individual, who would write the report or search warrant describing him (Sgt. Mason) as the person who purchased the drugs, but never as if they conducted the buy themselves. Sgt. Mason advised that he has never participated in the practice of "Hand-Offs", nor has he ever taught any investigator the practice. Sgt. Mason stated that he was familiar with the term "Nine and Two" and his interpretation was nine bodies and two warrants per month, but the standard did not apply to him.

Sgt. James Postell

Sgt Postell stated that prior to or during his tenure in the narcotics unit, he was trained in the areas of police report writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, evidence handling, police integrity and the use of confidential informants. Sgt. Postell indicated that he was adequately trained and so were his team members, while in narcotics. Sgt. Postell advised that he always searched informants prior to them making a drug purchase and always observed the informant go to the targeted address. Sgt. Postell stated that he has never allowed informants to go out and make buys, on their own, nor was it common for informants to sign blank vouchers. Sgt. Postell advised that he was not familiar with the term "Padding Vouchers". After hearing the meaning of the term "Padding Voucher", Sgt

Postell stated that he never padded vouchers nor was he ever encouraged by supervisors to do so.

Sgt. Postell stated that he never used his personal vehicle to make drug buys, nor does he have any knowledge of investigators using their personal vehicle for drug buys. Sgt. Postell stated that he has never made false statements on an affidavit or police report to obtain a search warrant or an arrest warrant. Sgt. Postell advised that it was not common practice to have one investigator make a drug buy and give the information to another investigator, so that they could draft affidavits and search warrants as if they conducted the drug buy (Hand-Off). Sgt. Postell stated that he has never participated in a "Hand-Off", nor has he taught other investigators this practice.

Inv. Gary Smith

Inv. Gary Smith said that prior to or during his narcotics assignment he was trained in the area of police report writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, evidence handling, and police integrity. He said that he felt that he was adequately trained to be a narcotics investigator but he didn't fell that way about all of his team members.

Inv. Smith said that he always searched informants before and after they made drug buys and he never allowed an informant to go out and make drug buys on their own. He said that he was always in the vicinity. Inv. Smith said that he has never allowed informants to sign blank vouchers, but he has seen this practice done by other team members. He said that he has seen Inv. Junnier with informant's signature on blank vouchers before. Inv. Smith said that he has never padded a voucher for any reason and he has never been encouraged by a supervisor to pad a voucher.

Inv. Smith said that he has conducted surveillance while using his personal vehicle. He said that he was asked to do it by his supervisor, Sgt. Stallings, during a period when they only had two undercover cars in the narcotics unit.

Inv. Smith said that he has never received a hand-off from another officer or investigator and he has never wrote or created false statements on a warrant application. Inv, Smith said that the "Nine and Two" quota system did exist and he never knew of situations where an investigator didn't make the numbers. He said that his supervisors up to the rank of Lieutenant were aware of the quota system.

Investigator Paul Vignola

Inv. Paul Vignola said that he was assigned to the narcotics unit prior to 2005. He said that Sgt. Stallings was his supervisor and Lt. Finley was the unit commander. Inv. Vignola said that a lot of his training during his narcotics assignment took place on the job. He said that he learned about arrest warrants and search warrants on the job and received outside training when it came to confidential informants. Inv. Vignola said that he felt that he was trained to be an investigator, but he said that he wouldn't go so far as saying that the training was adequate, especially for new investigators.

Inv. Vignola said that he always searched the informant before and after the drug buy was made and he never allowed an informant to go out and make drug buys on their own. He said that he never allowed informants to sign blank vouchers and he has never padded a voucher for the purpose of getting extra money and using it for personal reasons.

Inv. Vignola said that he has purchased illegal drugs using his personal vehicle. When asked if his supervisors were aware, Inv. Vignola said "Probably not". He said that he only did it once or twice and he never required an immediate takedown at the time of the drug purchase. When asked if any other investigators used their personal vehicle to make drug buys, Inv. Vignola said that Inv. Junnier was the only one that he knew for sure.

Inv. Vignola said that he has never made a false statement on a warrant affidavit and he has never received a hand-off from another officer or investigator. He said that he has never given or trained another investigator on how to do a hand-off. Inv. Vignola said that the legal way to use information provided by another officer or investigator is to write the warrant as a "Third Party" or an "Other Party Clause". Inv. Vignola said that he has done those in the past, but never provided anyone information on how to illegally write a search warrant. When asked why Inv. Junnier would say that he taught him how to do hand-offs, Inv. Vignola said that he didn't know because Junnier was already on the team when he got there.

Inv. Vignola said that he has used informant Alex White to make drug purchases for him, but Alex White was not his main informant. Inv. Vignola said that Inv. Junnier has never provided hand-offs locations to him and he has never falsified information on a warrant that was provided by Gregg Junnier. When asked why Inv. Junnier would say that he and Alex White alone made a drug buy from [redacted] on January 20, 2004, and Inv. Vignola was never present, Inv. Vignola pointed out that Inv. Junnier's information can't be correct. Inv. Vignola went on to explain that the affidavit portion of this particular warrant indicated that the informant had been registered at least two years prior to the date of the drug purchase which was January 20, 2004. He said that this informant couldn't have been Alex White because Alex was only registered as an informant in 2004, and the CI # for the informant was (02-0002). Inv. Vignola said that this could be the same case for the drug warrant from [redacted] on August 24, 2004, although there was not a CI voucher for this particular warrant package.

C. WITNESSES:

Inv. Nathan Deaton

Investigator Nathan Deaton said that he was assigned to narcotics in 2006, until May of 2007. He said that he did receive training in the areas of report writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, evidence handling, police integrity, and confidential informants either during his narcotics assignment or before. Inv. Deaton said that he felt that he wasn't adequately trained to be a narcotics investigator and neither were other members of his team.

Inv. Deaton said that he never used Alex White as an informant and he always searched informants before and after they made drug buys and he never allowed informants to go out and make drug buys on their own. He said that he never allowed informants to sign blank vouchers and he never padded a drug voucher for any reason. Inv. Deaton said that he never used his personal vehicle to conduct drug investigations and he never saw that happen with his team members.

Inv. Deaton said that the practice of giving or receiving "Hand-Offs" was not common with him and he has never falsified statements on an affidavit in order to obtain a search warrant. He said that he was familiar with the term "Nine and Two" and the term applied to 9 arrests and 2 search warrants a month but he didn't know what happened to investigators who didn't make the numbers.

Inv. Deaton said that "Knock and Talks" and "Freezing the Scene" were not tactics that were used to enter someone's home without probable cause and perform illegal search warrants. He said that he never worked extra jobs for Inv. Junnier and he had no knowledge of any of his team members working extra jobs for Inv. Junnier while they were on duty.

Inv. Andrew Griffin

Investigator Andrew Griffin said that he was assigned to narcotics from June 2005, until May of 2007. He said that he did receive training in the areas of report writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, evidence handling, police integrity, and confidential informants either during his narcotics assignment or before. Inv. Griffin felt that he was adequately trained to be a narcotics investigator and so were other members of his team.

Inv. Griffin said that he has used Alex White and other informants and he always searched them before and after they made drug buys and he never allowed informants to go out and make drug buys on their own. He said that he never allowed informants to sign blank vouchers and he never padded a drug voucher for any reason. Inv. Griffin said that he never used his personal vehicle to conduct drug investigations and he never saw that happen with his team members.

Inv. Griffin said that the practice of giving or receiving "Hand-Offs" was not common with him and he has never falsified statements on an affidavit in order to obtain a search warrant. He said that he was familiar with the term "Nine and Two" and he heard it from the older guys who were assigned to narcotics before he arrived. Inv. Griffin said that he knew that the term applied to 9 arrests and 2 search warrants a month but he didn't know what happened to investigators who didn't make the numbers.

Inv. Griffin said that "Knock and Talks" and "Freezing the Scene" were not tactics that were used to enter someone's home without probable cause and perform illegal search warrants. He said that he never worked extra jobs for Inv. Junnier and he had no knowledge of any of his team members working extra jobs for Inv. Junnier while they were on duty.

Inv. Eric Henry

Investigator Eric Henry said that he was assigned to narcotics in 2005, team 2, until May of 2007. He said that he did receive training in the areas of report writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, evidence handling, police integrity, and confidential informants either during his narcotics assignment or before. Inv. Henry felt that he was adequately trained to be a narcotics investigator and so were other members of his team.

Inv. Henry said that he never used Alex White as an informant but he always searched informants before and after they made drug buys and he never allowed informants to go out and make drug buys on their own. He said that he never allowed informants to sign blank vouchers and he never padded a drug voucher for any reason. Inv. Henry said that he never used his personal vehicle to conduct drug investigations and he never saw that happen with his team members.

Inv. Henry said that the practice of giving or receiving "Hand-Offs" was not common with him and he has never falsified statements on an affidavit in order to obtain a search warrant. He said that he was familiar with the term "Nine and Two" and it meant that investigators would have 9 arrests and 2 search warrants a month. Inv. Henry said that he failed to make those numbers on several occasions but nothing ever happened to him in the form of punishment.

Inv. Henry said that "Knock and Talks" and "Freezing the Scene" were not tactics that were used to enter someone's home without probable cause and perform illegal search warrants. He said that he never worked extra jobs for Inv. Junnier and he had no knowledge of any of his team members working extra jobs for Inv. Junnier while they were on duty.

Officer James Hines

Officer Hines stated that he was never been assigned to the Narcotics Unit. Officer Hines stated that he never worked an extra job for Investigator Greg Junnier, but he has worked an extra job at 1981 Simpson Road (AK Food Store). Officer Hines advised that he was asked by Officer Alex Crawford to fill in for him at AK Food Store, when Officer Crawford injured his arm. Officer Hines stated that he worked the extra job for a short period and he was always paid by a representative of the store or the apartment complex directly behind the store. Officer Hines stated that AK Food Store was the only extra job he worked for Officer Crawford. Officer Hines further stated that he did not have a valid extra job permit during the times that he worked AK Food Store at 1981 Simpson Road.

Inv. Timothy Hunnicutt

Investigator Timothy Hunnicutt said that he was assigned to narcotics from January 1995, until May of 2007, which was twelve years. He said that he did receive training in the areas of report writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, evidence handling, police integrity, and confidential informants either during his narcotics assignment or before. Inv. Hunnicutt felt that he was adequately trained to be a narcotics investigator and so were other members of his team. Inv. Hunnicutt said that he was denied training maybe once during his tenure as a narcotics investigator. He said that he didn't recall what the training was, but he knew that it was out of state.

Inv. Hunnicutt said that he has never used Alex White as an informant but he was assigned to watch him during a case for members of team one. Inv. Hunnicutt said that he always searched informants before and after they made drug buys and he never allowed informants to go out and make drug buys on their own. He said that he never allowed informants to sign blank vouchers and he never padded a drug voucher for any reason. Inv. Hunnicutt said that he never used his personal vehicle to conduct drug investigations and he never saw that happen with any of his team members.

Inv. Hunnicutt said that the practice of giving or receiving "Hand-Offs" was not common with him and he has never falsified statements on an affidavit in order to obtain a search warrant. He said that he was familiar with the term "Nine and Two" and it meant 9 arrests and 2 search warrants a month but nothing happened to investigators who didn't make the numbers.

Inv. Hunnicutt said that "Knock and Talks" and "Freezing the Scene" were not tactics that were used to enter someone's home without probable cause and perform illegal search warrants. He said that he never worked extra jobs for Inv. Junnier and he had no knowledge of any of his team members working extra jobs for Inv. Junnier while they were on duty.

Investigator Thomas Jackson

Investigator Jackson stated that prior to or during his narcotics assignment, he was trained in the areas of police writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, handling evidence, police integrity and the use of confidential informants. Inv. Jackson stated, during his tenure in narcotics, he felt that he was adequately trained and so were the other members of his team. Inv. Jackson stated while assigned to narcotics he always searched informants before and after a drug purchase was made. Inv. Jackson stated that he had no knowledge of informants signing blank vouchers. Inv. Jackson advised that he was familiar with the term "Padding Vouchers", but he has never done so.

Inv. Jackson stated that he has never used his personal vehicle to make a drug buy, nor does he have any knowledge of other investigators using their personal vehicles to make drug buys. Inv. Jackson stated he has never made false statements on an affidavit or police report to obtain a search warrant. Inv. Jackson further advised that it was not common practice for investigators to receive information and draft an affidavit as if they conducted the drug buy (Hand-Off). Inv. Jackson advised that he has never participated in a "Hand-Off", nor has he taught or encouraged other investigators to do so. Inv. Jackson stated that he was familiar with the term "Nine and Two", but the standard was "Ten and Two", when he was assigned to the narcotics unit. Inv. Jackson indicated that he believed the standard was one of the performance evaluators, but he went to indicate that he did always meet the standard and he never received a bad evaluation.

Inv. William Murdock

Inv. William Murdock indicated that prior to or during his narcotics assignment, he was trained in the areas of police writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, handling evidence, police integrity and the use of confidential informants. He stated that during his tenure in narcotics, he always searched informants before and after a drug purchase was made. Inv. Murdock stated that he had no knowledge of informants signing blank vouchers and he was not familiar with term "Padding Vouchers". He said that he never padded vouchers, and he was never instructed or encouraged by supervisors to do so.

Inv. Murdock advised that he has never made false statements on an affidavit or police report to obtain a search warrant and it was not a common practice for an investigator to receive information and draft an affidavit as if they conducted the drug buy (Hand-Off). Inv Murdock stated that he has never participated in a "Hand-Off" nor has he taught or encouraged other investigators to do so. Inv. Murdock indicated that he is not familiar with the term "Nine and Two" and he did not know if the standard was used as a form of evaluation. Inv. Murdock advised that he has never used his personal vehicle to make a drug buy, nor does he have any knowledge of other investigators using their personal vehicles to make drug buys.

Inv. Phillip Roberson

Investigator Phillip Roberson stated that prior to or during his narcotics assignment he was trained in the areas of police report writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, handling evidence, police integrity and the use of a confidential informant. Investigator Roberson stated that during his time in narcotics it was his practice to always search informants before and after a drug purchase and that he made it a practice to never let an informant out of his sight when they made a drug purchase. He also stated that he never let informants sign blank vouchers, he never padded vouchers and he never cushioned his buys. He also stated that he has never pocketed city money for any reasons other than city business.

Investigator Roberson said that he has never made a false statement on an affidavit in order to obtain a search warrant. Investigator Roberson stated that it was not common practice for an investigator to receive information from another investigator and draft an affidavit as if they conducted the drug buy themselves or encourage other investigators to do so. Investigator Roberson stated that he is not familiar with the term nine and two but he heard it after the Neal St. incident and he has never seen anything in writing regarding the "Nine and Two" standards. He also stated that there was no quota and no one was disciplined for lack of productivity. Investigator Roberson stated that he never used his personal vehicle to make drug buys nor does he have any knowledge of any other officers or investigators using their personal vehicle to make drug buys. He said that he has never worked an extra job for Greg Junior and that he has never worked an extra job on duty and does not have any knowledge of any officers working extra jobs while on duty.

Sergeant Brian Schiffbauer

Sergeant Brian Schiffbauer stated that prior to or during his narcotics assignment he was trained in the areas of handling payment vouchers, arrest warrants, search warrants, handling evidence, police integrity and the use of a confidential informant. He also stated that he never let informants sign blank vouchers, and he never padded vouchers. He also stated that he has never used city money for any reasons other than city business.

Sgt. Schiffbauer stated that he has never made a false statement on an affidavit to obtain a search warrant, and it was not a common practice for an investigator to receive information from another investigator and draft an affidavit as if they conducted the drug buy themselves or encourage other investigators to do so. He is familiar with the term nine and two and that he heard it once or twice but he never seen it in writing and he never had a supervisor say that he had to meet the nine and two standard. Sgt.

Shiffbauer said that he did feel that if you didn't meet the requirements you could lose your extra jobs. Sgt. Schiffbauer said that he was familiar with the knock and talk method and freezing the scene method. He stated never worked any extra jobs on duty and has no knowledge of any officers or investigators working extra jobs on duty. He said that he has never used city funds for personal gains and doesn't have any knowledge of any officer or investigator that has.

Sgt. Schiffbauer stated that he has never taken short cuts and or used false information to write up warrants or to make and arrest. He said that he has never searched citizens without probable cause and has never entered into a person's home without consent or probable cause.

Sergeant Paul Sparwath

Sergeant Sparwath stated that prior to or during his narcotics assignment, he was trained in the areas of police writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, handling of evidence, police integrity and the use of confidential informants. Sergeant Sparwath advised that during his tenure in narcotics he and his team were adequately trained. Sergeant Sparwath stated that he has never used Alex White as an informant. Sergeant Sparwath stated that he always searched the informant prior to and after a drug purchase was made.

Sergeant Sparwath advised that prior to the Neal Street incident he was not familiar with term Padding Vouchers. Sergeant Sparwath stated that he has never written a voucher in a way that he could receive extra money, nor has he ever allowed an informant to fill out a blank voucher. Sergeant Sparwath stated he has never made false statements on an affidavit or police report to obtain a search warrant. Sergeant Sparwath further advised that it was not common practice for an investigator to receive information and draft an affidavit as if they conducted the drug buy (Hand-Off). Sergeant Sparwath stated he has never participated in a "Hand-Off" nor has he taught or encouraged other investigators to do so.

Sergeant Sparwath stated that he has heard of the "Nine and Two" term, but indicated that he has never seen the standard in writing. Sergeant Sparwath stated that he believed the standard referred to nine arrest and two warrants per month. Sergeant Sparwath stated that numerous investigators did not meet the standard each month and to his knowledge, no investigators were reprimanded for not meeting the standard. Sergeant Sparwath stated he has never used his personal vehicle to make drug buys, nor is he familiar with any investigator using their personal vehicle to make drug buys.

Inv. Michael Wiskemann

Investigator Michael Wiskemann said that he was assigned to the narcotics squad; team 2, from March 2004, until May of 2007 and he served under the leadership of Sgt. Sparwath and the command of Lt. Gibbs. Inv. Wikemann said that he was trained in the areas of police reports, arrest warrants, search warrants, evidence handling, police integrity, and the use of confidential informants prior to or during his narcotics assignment, but he doesn't feel that he was adequately trained to be a narcotics investigator. He said that he didn't feel that other members of his team were adequately trained either and he did make a request to Sgt. Sparwath that they work on their entry, but nothing never happened.

Inv. Wiskemann said that he was once denied training by Lt. Gibbs because he didn't have enough search warrants for the month. He said that she denied him training for a terrorism-suicide course and he believed that he requested the training in August or September of 2006. Inv. Wiskemann said that he has used confidential informants before, including Alex White, and he has never allowed informants to go out and make drug buys on their own. He said that he as never allowed informants to sign blank vouchers and he always searched them before and after they made drug purchases. Inv. Wikemann said that he has never padded a voucher for extra money and he never used his personal vehicle to conduct drug investigations. He said that he had no knowledge of other members of his team doing these tactics.

Inv. Wiskemann said that he has never given or received a "Hand-Off" and he has never made a false statement on a police report or affidavit in order to obtain a search warrant. He said that he has no knowledge of other team members participating in this type behavior and it was not a common practice. Inv. Wiskemann said that the "Nine and Two" system did exist and it was a common practice among narcotics investigators when he got there. He said that the system was a part of his performance evaluation and he was once denied a training opportunity by Lt. Gibbs because he didn't have enough search warrants.

Inv. Wiskemann said that "Knock and Talks" and "Freezing the Scene" were not tactics that were used to enter someone's home without probable cause and perform illegal search warrants. He said that he never worked extra jobs for Inv. Junnier and he had no knowledge of any of his team members working extra jobs for Inv. Junnier while they were on duty.

D. PHYSICAL EVIDENCE:

N/A

INVESTIGATIVE FINDINGS:

This investigation revealed that prior to November 21, 2006, Atlanta Police narcotics investigators were trained in the areas of report writing, arrest warrants, search warrants, evidence handling, and police integrity prior to or during their narcotics assignment.

Narcotics investigators were trained how to use a confidential informant prior to or during their narcotics assignment. The training was available within the department or outside training and no one was ever denied the opportunity to attend training.

The practice of not searching informants before and after they made drug buys was not a common practice in the narcotics unit and unit commanders were unaware that this was taking place.

Investigator Cary Bond didn't search informants before or after making drug buys, but he falsified information in warrant affidavits by saying that he did.

The practice of allowing confidential informants to go out and make drug purchases on their own was not a common practice and unit commanders were not aware of this happening.

Investigator Cary Bond allowed informants to go out and make drug buys with no supervision.

The practice of allowing informants to sign blank vouchers was not common within the narcotics unit and commanders were not aware of this happening.

Investigators Cary Bond and Maurice Geurin allowed informants to sign blank vouchers. Inv. Bond allowed informants to sign blank vouchers because it was easier to get informants paid and Inv. Geurin had informants to sign blank vouchers so he could save time.

The practice of "Padding Vouchers" was not a common practice among the narcotics unit and the unit commanders were not aware of this taking place.

Investigators Cary Bond and Maurice Guerin padded vouchers for the purpose of providing gas money and lunch money to informants.

The practice of providing and receiving "Hand-Offs" was not common within the narcotics unit and commanders were not aware that certain investigators were participating in this practice. Investigators Cary Bond and Holly Buchanan both received "Hand-Offs" from Inv. Gregg Junnier.

Investigator Cary Bond did receive "Hand-Offs" from Inv. Junnier. According to FBI report, Inv Bond was accused of receiving hand-offs from the following locations.

1. [redacted] on January 04, 2006
2. [redacted] on March 30, 2005
3. [redacted] on March 30, 2005

Investigator Holly Buchanan received "Hand-Offs" from Inv. Junnier from the following locations.

1. [redacted] on August 05, 2005
2. [redacted] on September 07, 2005
3. [redacted] on October 11, 2005

Unit commanders did not allow or encourage investigators to falsify information on warrant affidavits in order to obtain search warrants.

Investigator Cary Bond made a false statement in a warrant package from [redacted] on December 10, 2004, by saying that Inv. Maurice Geurin accompanied both he and informant Alex White to that location for a drug buy. Inv. Geurin was never present.

Unit commanders never encouraged or gave investigators permission to use their personal vehicle to conduct drug surveillance or drug buys while working a narcotics investigation.

Investigators Nathan Lucas, Gary Smith, Paul Vignola, and Lieutenant Douglas Little have all used their personal vehicles to conduct narcotics investigations while on-duty. The narcotics unit has experienced times when there was a shortage of undercover cars and the issue was brought to the attention of the commanders.

The practice of using a "Knock and Talk" to enter someone's residence and perform a search without consent or probable cause was not common and unit commanders were not aware of this practice.

Unit commanders were not aware and never encouraged investigators to use un-registered informants and pay them for conducting drug investigations.

Investigator Holly Buchanan used an un-registered informant, [redacted], during drug investigations and paid him for making drug buys.

The practice of "Freezing the Scene" to enter someone's residence and search their home without probable cause was not a common practice and unit commanders never encouraged investigators to use this tactic.

Unit commanders were not aware of investigators taking DVD movies, CD discs, or any other valuables from search warrant locations and keeping the items for their own personal use and enjoyment. This was not a common practice within the narcotics unit.

The term "Nine and Two" did exist within the narcotics division and was a quota system which meant that investigators were responsible for (9) arrests and (2) executed search warrants every month.

The "Nine and Two" system was created by Major Finley during his tenure as the narcotics unit commander between the years of 2001 and 2003. The arrest numbers were compiled by comparing narcotics arrests from the previous two years.

No investigators was ever threatened, disciplined, or demoted for not meeting the standards of the "Nine and Two" system.

Only one investigator, Inv. Michael Wiskemann, was denied training by Lt. Stacie Gibbs because he didn't have enough warrants for the month. The training was a course on terrorism-suicide.

The practice of working extra jobs while on-duty was not a common practice within the narcotics unit and commanders were not aware of any investigators that worked extra jobs while they were on-duty.

The practice of using department vehicles to work extra jobs was not a common practice in the narcotics unit and commanders did not encourage or allow investigators to use city vehicles to work extra jobs.

Officer James Hines did not have a valid extra job permit during the time period he worked the AK Food Store at 1981 Simpson Road.

Officer Daniel Betts was indicted by the Federal Government and pled guilty prior to the opening of this file. The evidence would have shown that Officer Betts extorted money from convenience store owners along the Simpson Road corridor while working as an Atlanta Police Officer.

Officer Betts pleaded guilty to one count of interfering with interstate commerce by means of extortion under the color of official right and taking payoffs to perform his normal duties as a police officer while on duty.

This file is submitted for your review and recommendations.

NARRATIVE (REASONS FOR EMERGENCY ACTION)

GENERALLY: You are charged with violating Rule 4.2.33 of the Employee Work Rules of this Department. Said Rules states:

Conformance to Directives

Employees are required to familiarize themselves with, and conform to, the rules, regulations, directives, and standard operating procedures of the Department.

SPECIFICALLY: During your July 1, 2009, statement given to OPS, you were asked was it common to have Alexis White (an APD Confidential Source), or any other informant, to sign blank vouchers. You responded, 'sometimes yes.' You further stated, "my purpose was strictly making it easier to get them paid. Say we served a search warrant and recovered drugs and I had to get him paid. That way, I didn't have to go meet them if I didn't have vouchers or whatever. It helped me to clear my paperwork when I had to clear it." Subsequently, you failed to complete the required fields of the Confidential Source Payment Voucher, prior to getting the confidential source's signature. I.e. voucher use section to include file number, Confidential Source payment dollar amount, purchase of evidence dollar amount, Expenditures and Certification of Cooperating Individual information; thereby, leaving the required fields blank to be completed by you at a later date. You also failed to have two officers/investigators and supervisors witness the CS signature.

Your actions and/or inaction as described above are in violation of work rule, 4.2.33 / APD.SOP. 5160 (Confidential Source) Section 4.7.4, which specifically states: Upon receiving payment, the Confidential Source (CS) will sign a Confidential Source Payment Voucher (Form APD 346) with two officers /investigators and a supervisor witnessing the signature. Although the CS may use a "street name" for signing receipts for compensation, his or her identifying file number must be on the receipt.

NARRATIVE (REASONS FOR EMERGENCY ACTION)

GENERALLY: You are charged with violating Rule 4.1.03 of the Employee Work Rules of this Department. Said Rules states:

Truthfulness

Employees will be truthful in their written and spoken words at all times.

SPECIFICALLY: During your July 1, 2009, statement given to OPS, you were asked whether you ever made a false statement on an affidavit or police report to obtain a search warrant or an arrest warrant. You replied, "yes." When asked by OPS, how many times you did so, you responded, "I couldn't tell".

Your actions and/or inaction as described above are in violation of said listed work rule.

NARRATIVE (REASONS FOR EMERGENCY ACTION)

GENERALLY: You are charged with violating Rule 4.1.03 of the Employee Work Rules of this Department. Said Rules states:

Truthfulness

Employees will be truthful in their written and spoken words at all times.

SPECIFICALLY: On July 1, 2009, you gave a sworn statement to OPS, and admitted that on December 10, 2004, you used Confidential Source, Alexis White to make a drug purchase at [redacted], Atlanta, Georgia. During your July 1, 2009, OPS statement, you admitted that no other persons were present at the time of the December 10, 2004, drug buy, other than yourself and Alexis White. However, in a sworn affidavit for a warrant, dated December 14, 2004, you set forth that Investigator Maurice Guerin was present, along with yourself and Alexis White at the time of the December 10, 2004 drug buy. By your own admission, your sworn statement contained in your December 14, 2004 warrant application was not accurate.

Your actions and/or inaction as described above are in violation of said listed work rule.

NARRATIVE (REASONS FOR EMERGENCY ACTION)

GENERALLY: You are charged with violating Rule 4.1.03 of the Employee Work Rules of this Department. Said Rules states:

Truthfulness

Employees will be truthful in their written and spoken words at all times.

SPECIFICALLY: During your June 3, 2009, statement to OPS, you set forth that you did not personally use informant, Alexis White, to purchase drugs from [redacted] on August 5, 2005. During your June 3, 2009, statement to OPS, you admitted that this purchase was made by Investigator Gregg Junnier.

This is contrary to your written words contained in an APD incident report, which you signed and was dated August 5, 2005. In this incident report, you described how on August 5, 2005, you "met with a city registered confidential source …searched the confidential source for money and drugs and found nothing." In your August 5, 2005, incident report, you described how the confidential source was given five dollars of City issued funds and was taken to [redacted] where he made the purchase of one bag of marijuana. Your further described how after the confidential source purchased the drugs; you searched him and paid the confidential source twenty dollars in City funds.

In an APD confidential source payment voucher, which you signed on August 5, 2005, you identify the confidential source, referenced in the August 5, 2005, incident report as Alexis White.

Your actions and/or inaction as described above are in violation of said listed work rule.

NARRATIVE (REASONS FOR EMERGENCY ACTION)

GENERALLY: You are charged with violating Rule 4.2.33 of the Employee Work Rules of this Department. Said Rules states:

Conformance to Directives

Employees are required to familiarize themselves with, and conform to, the rules, regulations, directives, and standard operating procedures of the Department.

SPECIFICALLY: On June 3, 2009, you gave a statement to the Atlanta Police Department's Office of Professional Standards (OPS). You were asked by OPS, "Have you ever heard the term "Cushion your Buy," and you responded, "yes," I heard it from Sgt. Stallings. You were subsequently asked, What Sergeant Stallings meant by saying "cushion your buy?" You responded, "He wanted me to mark up the amount of the dope. For instance, if the dope was a $30 hit, he wanted me to say that it was $50 hit. OPS then asked you, "what would you do with the other $20? You responded, "Give it to him." OPS asked to whom? You stated, "Sergeant Stallings, but I wasn't comfortable doing that and when he told me to do it I was like "what for." Apparently, he had given [redacted] (an unreliable source) some money out of his pocket and he wanted it back. I mean I felt like that was stealing, so I didn't do it. I took $20 out of my own pocket and handed it to him. It was my money, now whether he thinks that I padded it or cushioned it, I don't know, but I handed him $20 of my money. He never asked me to do it again."

Your actions and/or inaction as described above are in violation of work rule 4.2.33. / APD.SOP. 5150. Sec 4.2.5 (Confidential Fund), which states: No personal funds will be used in conjunction with a criminal investigation.

GENERALLY: You are charged with violating Rule 4.2.33 of the Employee Work Rules of this Department. Said Rules states:

Conformance to Directives

Employees are required to familiarize themselves with, and conform to, the rules, regulations, directives, and standard operating procedures of the Department.

SPECIFICALLY: During your June 11, 2009, statement given to OPS, you were asked was it common to have informants to sign blank vouchers. You responded, 'yea, it happened.' OPS then asked you, 'Did it happen with you?" You responded, "Yes, I've done it before" …OPS then asked you, how many times would you say that you have done it? Your responded, "maybe more than five."

While you were assigned to the Narcotics unit from 2003 to 2006, you by your own admission, failed to complete the required fields of the Confidential Source Payment Voucher, prior to getting the informant's signature. I.e. voucher use section to include file number, Confidential Source payment dollar amount, purchase of evidence dollar amount, Expenditures and Certification of Cooperating Individual information, etc.; thereby, leaving the required fields blank to be completed by you at a later time/date. You also failed to have two officers/investigators and supervisors witness the informant's signature.

Your actions and/or inaction as described above are in violation of work rule, 4.2.33 / APD.SOP. 5160 (Confidential Source) Section 4.7.4, which specifically states: Upon receiving payment, the Confidential Source (CS) will sign a Confidential Source Payment Voucher (Form APD 346) with two officers /investigators and a supervisor witnessing the signature. Although the CS may use a "street name" for signing receipts for compensation, his or her identifying file number must be on the receipt.

Truthfulness

Employees will be truthful in their written and spoken words at all times.

SPECIFICALLY: On July 1, 2009, you gave a sworn statement to OPS, and admitted that on December 10, 2004, you used Confidential Source, Alexis White to make a drug purchase at [redacted], Atlanta, Georgia. During your July 1, 2009, OPS statement, you admitted that no other persons were present at the time of the December 10, 2004, drug buy, other than yourself and Alexis White. However, in a sworn affidavit for a warrant, dated December 14, 2004, you set forth that Investigator Maurice Guerin was present, along with yourself and Alexis White at the time of the December 10, 2004 drug buy. By your own admission, your sworn statement contained in your December 14, 2004 warrant application was not accurate.

BUCHANAN, HOLLY C.	2283		INVESTIGATOR

NARRATIVE (REASONS FOR EMERGENCY ACTION)

GENERALLY: You are charged with violating Rule 4.2.33 of the Employee Work Rules of this Department. Said Rules states:

Conformance to Directives

Employees are required to familiarize themselves with, and conform to, the rules, regulations, directives, and standard operating procedures of the Department.

SPECIFICALLY: On June 3, 2009, you gave a statement to the Atlanta Police Department's Office of Professional Standards (OPS). You were asked by OPS, "Have you ever heard the term "Cushion your Buy," and you responded, "yes," I heard it from Sgt. Stallings. You were subsequently asked, What Sergeant Stallings meant by saying "cushion your buy?" You responded, "He wanted me to mark up the amount of the dope. For instance, if the dope was a $30 hit, he wanted me to say that it was $50 hit. OPS then asked you, "what would you do with the other $20? You responded, "Give it to him." OPS asked to whom? You stated, "Sergeant Stallings, but I wasn't comfortable doing that and when he told me to do it I was like "what for." Apparently, he had given Curt (an unreliable source) some money out of his pocket and he wanted it back. I mean I felt like that was stealing, so I didn't do it. I took $20 out of my own pocket and handed it to him. It was my money, now whether he thinks that I padded it or cushioned it, I don't know, but I handed him $20 of my money. He never asked me to do it again."

Your actions and/or inaction as described above are in violation of work rule 4.2.33. / APD.SOP. 5150. Sec 4.2.5 (Confidential Fund), which states: No personal funds will be used in conjunction with a criminal investigation.

GENERALLY: You are charged with violating Rule 4.2.33 of the Employee Work Rules of this Department. Said Rules states:

Conformance to Directives

Employees are required to familiarize themselves with, and conform to, the rules, regulations, directives, and standard operating procedures of the Department.

SPECIFICALLY: During your June 11, 2009, statement given to OPS, you were asked was it common to have informants to sign blank vouchers. You responded, 'yea, it happened.' OPS then asked you, 'Did it happen with you?" You responded, "Yes, I've done it before" …OPS then asked you, how many times would you say that you have done it? Your responded, "maybe more than five."

While you were assigned to the Narcotics unit from 2003 to 2006, you by your own admission, failed to complete the required fields of the Confidential Source Payment Voucher, prior to getting the informant's signature. I.e. voucher use section to include file number, Confidential Source payment dollar amount, purchase of evidence dollar amount, Expenditures and Certification of Cooperating Individual information, etc.; thereby, leaving the required fields blank to be completed by you at a later time/date. You also failed to have two officers/investigators and supervisors witness the informant's signature.

Your actions and/or inaction as described above are in violation of work rule, 4.2.33 / APD.SOP. 5160 (Confidential Source) Section 4.7.4, which specifically states: Upon receiving payment, the Confidential Source (CS) will sign a Confidential Source Payment Voucher (Form APD 346) with two officers /investigators and a supervisor witnessing the signature. Although the CS may use a "street name" for signing receipts for compensation, his or her identifying file number must be on the receipt.

RE: Investigator Holly Buchanan

Investigator Holly Buchanan turned in her City equipment today at 1145 hours. I wanted to forward this memorandum to you regarding the items we already have in custody in the Property Control Unit.

According to the Relief From Duty form issued by Sergeant A. L. Lewis on June 28, 2007 the equipment taken from Investigator Buchanan at that time was a S&W . 40 caliber Model 4003 TSW and a City issued second weapon, which is a S&W .9mm Model 6906. An ASP baton, a radio, OC Gas, hat and breast badges, two identification cards with a wallet and a Detective badge. Additionally, there are 3 clips for the .40 caliber and 1 clip for the .9mm, thrity-four rounds of .40 caliber ammunition and thirteen rounds of .9mm ammunition.

The uniforms and gun belt were turned into the Pressing Club and signed off on by PMT Shirley Morris. Officer Evans signed off on the weapons, ammunition, and ASP baton once we pulled them out of the OPS storage room.

The OC Gas was retrieved from the OPS room and turned into Ms. Morris as well.

The Motorola radio and Kronos swipe badge were returned to Investigator Buchanan on August 31, 2009 by Sergeant Keeble, under the direction of OPS Sergeant T. Griffin. The Motorola radio was turned into the Electronic Maintenance Shop. I collected the Kronos swipe badge and the office key on June 3, 2010, upon her suspension from duty.

The box that contained Investigator Buchanan's equipment had a barcode of APD000280949 and when ran through FileOnQ, the equipment listing came back to Investigator Paul Vignola. Investigator Vignola received his equipment back several months ago, but all the items were in the same box. To the best of my knowledge, the box itself was labeled with Investigator Buchanan's name but had both employees' equipment inside. Attached, you will find copies of the original Relief From Duty form and the memorandum from Sergeant Keeble regarding the return of the aforementioned listed equipment.

If you have any further questions, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Date of transcription 01/04/2007

An individual, who is in a position to testify, provided the following information:

On either October 8 or October 9, 2006, ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) Officer GREGG JUNNIER called individual and stated he needed individual's assistance to purchase illegal drugs.

APD Officer BRUCE TESLER picked up individual at the BP station on the corner of Boulevard and Ralph McGill Boulevard. At the direction of APD, individual purchased drugs from three or four locations.

After the buys, TESLER paid individual while they were at East Atlanta City Hall. When APD Officer CARY BOND arrived, BOND stated he had been watching individual during the drug buys. BOND asked individual where he had purchased the drugs that were about to be turned in to APD property. BOND stated he needed to know what was on the other side of the doors of the houses from which individual purchased drugs for the APD. BOND also stated he needed a good description of each subject and whether or not he possessed a gun. BOND further stated that he did not care what individual did while working with JUNNIER. TESLER and APD Officer HOLLY BUCHANAN were also present during the conversation.

An individual, who is in a position to testify, provided the following information:

Individual confirmed that he purchased drugs from [redacted], Atlanta, Georgia, for the ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD). Individual knew three people - DERRICK Last Name Unknown (LNU), TONIO LNU, and a person known as Pie - at that address.

Individual was directed by an APD officer to purchase drugs from [redacted] Atlanta, Georgia. When individual approached the apartment, FIRST NAME UNKNOWN (FNU) DAY was outside the apartment with other people. Individual gave cash to DAY, and DAY went into a downstairs apartment. DAY came out of the downstairs apartment with drugs in his hand, went into an apartment upstairs, came out of the apartment upstairs and gave the drugs to individual. Individual never purchased drugs for himself from [redacted] and only purchased drugs one time from [redacted].

Individual recalled that [redacted] is an apartment complex with English in its name. MARCO LNU sold drugs out of an apartment in that complex. MARCO LNU sold to people who sold drugs on the street. Individual told APD officer GREGG JUNNIER about MARCO LNU's drug activity but told JUNNIER that he could not purchase drugs from MARCO LNU. Individual did not purchase drugs from MARCO LNU at [redacted].

Individual did not purchased drugs from PATRICIA HANDSPIKE at [redacted], Atlanta, Georgia. Individual sat in a car with JUNNIER and watched the residence, and it was obvious that drugs were being sold in the house. JUNNIER asked individual whether or not individual could purchase drugs from PATRICIA HANDSPIKE, but individual was not comfortable purchasing from her because individual did not know PATRICIA HANDSPIKE, who is the mother of an acquaintance, TELLIE HANDSPIKE.

APD officer CARY BOND directed individual to purchase drugs from [redacted], Atlanta, Georgia. BOND drove individual to a street near [redacted], and individual walked to the residence. Individual knocked on the door, talked to someone at the residence, but the drug requested by the individual was not

ALEXIS A. WHITE was interviewed in Atlanta, Georgia. During a previous interview, WHITE stated he attempted, at the direction of an ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) officer, but did not purchase drugs from a residence on Wood Street, Atlanta, Georgia; WHITE believes the officer submitted a piece of crack purchased from another residence as evidence that drugs were being sold from the residence on Wood Street, and WHITE was interviewed to provide further information. WHITE was aware of the identities of the interviewing agents, and after being advised of the nature of the interview, WHITE provided the following information:

WHITE first met APD Officer BRAD BURCHFIELD at an apartment complex at 3762 Martin Luther King, Junior, (MLK) Drive. WHITE had gone there to hang out because he knew people in the complex because he had lived nearby. WHITE parked the car, a white Pontiac Grand Prix, he was driving, popped the hood, and got out. While WHITE was standing by the car, BURCHFIELD drove up in a patrol car. While in the parking lot of 3762 MLK Drive, BURCHFIELD put WHITE in handcuffs, put him in the patrol car, and then drove out of the complex. WHITE asked for the reason he was being detained, and BURCHFIELD did not respond. While in the patrol car, WHITE told BURCHFIELD that he worked as a confidential informant (CI) for APD Officer GREGG JUNNIER. After talking with JUNNIER, BURCHFIELD returned to 3762 MLK and released WHITE.

WHITE does not recall how he started working as a CI for BURCHFIELD.

BURCHFIELD told WHITE there was a residence at [redacted] ([redacted]) from which guns and drugs were sold, and when a warrant was obtained, the BUREAU OF ALCOHOL, TOBACCO, AND FIREARMS (ATF) would participate in the search. In late October or early November, 2006, BURCHFIELD dropped off WHITE on Mildred Place, and WHITE walked through a parking lot toward Wood Street. As WHITE walked through the gate between the parking lot and Wood Street, a white Dodge Stratus was leaving [redacted]. When WHITE saw the car leave, he called BURCHFIELD, who was driving on Wood Street toward Hollowell Parkway, and then started walking in the same direction. BURCHFIELD picked up WHITE at the end of Wood Street near its intersection with Hollowell Parkway. BURCHFIELD stated that they

WHITE advised that in 2004 or 2005 he made a drug purchase under the direction of BUCHANAN and another officer. The other officer could have been CARY BOND, but WHITE was unsure. WHITE rode with BUCHANAN and the other officer in an undercover car. BUCHANAN first dropped WHITE off on Delmar Lane to make a drug purchase. She then took WHITE near [redacted] and dropped him off on a side street. WHITE walked to the address and encountered two dark skinned, black males outside in the yard. WHITE then asked to purchase some illegal narcotics. He was unsure what type of narcotics BUCHANAN directed him to buy. One of the males went inside the residence and returned with the requested drugs. WHITE then met BUCHANAN up the street where she dropped him off. WHITE gave the drugs to BUCHANAN. He could not remember if she ever patted him down before or after the purchase. BUCHANAN did have WHITE sign a blank voucher form, and she paid him for the purchase.

Kim Warden, Fulton County Magistrate, was interviewed on November 28, 2006, at her office. Her office is located in Room 1605, behind Court Room #1A, in the Fulton County Justice Center, 185 Central Avenue SW, Atlanta, Georgia. Her office telephone number is (404)730-5396. She can also be reached on her Blackberry at [redacted] or her personal cellular telephone at [redacted]. She provided the following information:

The warrant applied for by Atlanta Police Department Officer Jason R. Smith on November 21, 2006, with Docket Number E001232, was applied for electronically. Officer Smith used a computer at the Fulton County Jail and filled out an electronic form. He then connected on-line to the Fulton County Magistrate Office and telephoned the Magistrate Office to let the office know that he was making application. Judge Warden arrived fifteen minutes early for her regular 6:00 p.m. shift and, because the duty Magistrate was busy, she went to the computer in the Magistrate Office to rule on Officer Smith's application. The electronic warrant system has the capability for an electronic conference between the applying officer and the magistrate. It is similar to a teleconference. The Magistrate can read the affidavit and application on-line and then can speak to and see the officer.

After Judge Warden read Officer Smith's affidavit and application, she swore him in and asked him a few preliminary questions like what was his name and who was he employed by. She always also asks if there is any other information that she needs to know in addition to what is in the affidavit. Typically, if an officer provides relevant additional information verbally, she will tell them to add the additional information to the written affidavit. She does not recall any additional information that Officer Smith provided verbally except some information that relates to the no-knock approval. She recalls asking Officer Smith if the no-knock was for officer safety and he said no that it was to protect the drug evidence.

Specifically, Officer Smith did not say that the confidential informant was actually observed while making the drug buy at 933 Neal St. It is police policy that the confidential informant is under surveillance at least until the door of the residence where the drugs are purchased. Judge Warden assumed, based on how the warrant was written, that police policy had been complied with. Regarding the no-knock request in the application, Judge Warden did not inquire as to how the confidential informant would have been in a position, based on the facts set forth in the affidavit, to know that "Sam," the individual allegedly selling drugs at 933 Neal St., carefully monitored his surveillance cameras. Judge Warden's opinion is that the request for no-knock is sufficient on its face without further inquiry.

Officer Smith and his teammates from the narcotics team have applied for many warrants from Judge Warden, probably more than twenty and possibly as many as fifty. She has never seen a hint of any false information in an affidavit and has not heard any rumors to that effect. There was nothing about the particular affidavit in question that made her suspicious when she was ruling on it. She is aware that false affidavits are a possibility, because years ago the REDDOG team had a bad reputation regarding their affidavits. None of the people on Officer Smith's team were on that REDDOG team.

When evaluating warrant affidavits and applications, Judge Warden considers things like: is the confidential informant reliable, how recent was the undercover drug buy, what was obtained through the undercover buy, what is the experience of the officer and why should she rely on him. In her opinion, Officer Smith's warrant was textbook.

Judge Warden has only a professional relationship with Officer Smith and his teammates. She does not know any of them socially. She has been a Fulton County Magistrate, part-time and full-time, for about ten years. She was appointed by the State Court Judges.

Judge Warden never saw a hard-copy of the affidavit, application and warrant until after the shooting at 933 Neal St. There should be a copy of the electronic application including the electronic hearing in the Court Administrators Office. Stefani Searcy is the Court Administrator.

Judge Warden pointed out that she recently heard Paul Howard in the news media say that citizens from the neighborhood around 933 Neal St. had just complained at a neighborhood meeting before the shooting that something had to be done about the drug activity in the neighborhood.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 11/26/2006

An individual, who is in a position to testify, provided the following information:

Individual began working as a source for ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) Officer CARY BOND approximately four years ago. APD Officer GREGG JUNNIER and BOND arrested individual on Martin Luther King, Junior, (MLK) Drive. Individual lived in an apartment on MLK Drive, and BOND and JUNNIER approached individual when he was outside of his apartment. Individual threw his marijuana under a car. JUNNIER took individual's keys and started trying the keys in different apartments. Individual was told he could either sign a consent to search for his apartment or the officers would search anyway because they smelled weed. Individual signed the consent because he knew there were no drugs in the house. A K-9 unit went through the house, and individual was told that the dog smelled drugs. JUNNIER said he found weed in the house, and individual knew that it was not his because he had thrown his marijuana under a car. When individual was arrested, BOND gave his telephone number to individual, and after individual's release, he contacted BOND. Individual met BOND at an APD office. BOND asked individual some questions, and he signed some paperwork. As an APD source, individual did not work with just one officer.

Individual is the source who, according to the affidavit, purchased drugs from an unidentified individual at 933 Neal Street, Atlanta, Georgia, but individual did not purchase any drugs from an individual known as SAM at that residence. Additionally, JUNNIER previously used individual in warrant affidavits when individual has not purchased drugs from either the individual or the residence named in the warrant, and APD Officer BRUCE TESLER, APD Officer J.R. SMITH, and BOND are aware of this. Individual is unsure whether or not the following APD officers were aware: First Name Unknown (FNU) DAVENPORT, FNU LUCAS, Sergeant FNU STALLINGS, an officer known as HOLLY, FNU GRIFFIN, and FNU MILLER, a K-9 handler. Individual believes MILLER is aware because JUNNIER regularly contacts MILLER to conduct K-9 searches.

On November 21, 2006, individual spoke with BOND about making drug purchases. BOND told individual that they would do drug purchases after 6 p.m.

At 5:05 p.m., individual received a telephone call from JUNNIER, who asked individual whether or not he was available to make a drug purchase. Individual told JUNNIER that individual was available. JUNNIER stated that he would call back the individual soon, but JUNNIER never called. Approximately one hour later, individual called JUNNIER and asked him whether he was still coming. JUNNIER responded don't about it; we have you covered.

At approximately 6:40 p.m., individual received a telephone call from SMITH, who said we need you to cover our asses; we fucked up; it wasn't the right house. Then SMITH told individual that it was really important that individual listened to SMITH. SMITH told individual that TESLER and SMITH met individual at a car wash at 1125 Bankhead Highway, left their car there, and rode in individual's car. SMITH told individual that SMITH sat in the back seat on the passenger side, and TESLER sat in the backseat behind the driver. SMITH told individual that he had purchased drugs from an individual named SAM at 933 Neal Street. SMITH described SAM as approximately 6'1" - 6'2", 30 - 35 years old. SMITH told individual that he went up to the house, and SAM was in the house; then SMITH said no, no, SAM was in the yard. SMITH stated SAM walked individual to the back of the house to the basement, and the door to the basement was already open. SMITH then stated SAM went in and got the bags of crack. SMITH told individual to say he bought two $25 bags of crack. Individual described SMITH as not calm during the telephone call, and SMITH did not say anything about anyone getting shot.

During individual's telephone conversation with SMITH, individual received a telephone call from APD Officer BRAD BURCHFIELD, and individual called him back. BURCHFIELD asked individual where he was, and individual stated he was at home. BURCHFIELD asked aren't you with JUNNIER, and individual responded no. BURCHFIELD asked whether individual had been with JUNNIER, and individual replied yes. BURCHFIELD asked when individual had been with JUNNIER, and individual responded six something, no, might have been close to five. BURCHFIELD told individual about the shooting.

SMITH called individual a second time to ask whether they were clear and whether individual got it. During a third telephone call from SMITH, individual asked whether SMITH was alright. SMITH stated that they had screwed up.

Individual became nervous and jumped out of DUNCAN's car, ran into and out of the VARSITY, and ran into the BP gas station near the intersection of Spring Street and North Avenue. During this time, individual lost DUNCAN and his partner. While he was in the BP gas station, individual called 911 and DEGREE, who came to the BP gas station and then took individual to the ATF office. Individual was at the ATF office for approximately one hour, and then two APD officers took individual to APD Internal Affairs. While at APD Internal Affairs, individual was interviewed, made consensually-monitored telephone calls, and submitted to a voice-stress test.

Individual received calls from JUNNIER that night, and individual called the FBI at approximately 1:00 a.m. Individual received a call from TESLER, who asked individual if he was okay and whether he knew what was going on.

SMITH picked up individual on November 23, 2006, at approximately 11 a.m. SMITH was driving a white truck. SMITH stated that they were going to the office to look at photographs, but they did not look at any pictures. SMITH went into his office, paid individual $100, took him by 933 Neal Street, and talked to him about the story. They went to a store on MLK Drive owned by EDDIE LNU, where JUNNIER works a second job. EDDIE LNU gave individual $100 that was from JUNNIER. At approximately 1:00 to 2:00 p.m., SMITH dropped individual at a cousin's house on Six Flags Parkway, where he ate Thanksgiving dinner.

On November 24, 2006, individual was interviewed by NICOLE ALLSHOUSE, FOX 5 NEWS, and called JUNNIER, SMITH, TESLER, STALLINGS, and BOND. The conversations with JUNNIER, TESLER, STALLINGS, and BOND were recorded; individual did not speak to SMITH.

Approximately two weeks ago, individual went to a residence at [redacted] and asked for an individual named MARIO. An unidentified individual at the residence stated MARIO did not stay there. SMITH stated he smelled weed and so did individual.

JUNNIER sent individual to a residence on Brent Creek Way, and individual purchased drugs from an unidentified individual who had access to two apartments. JUNNIER obtained search warrants for both apartments. Individual could not recall the date.

BURCHFIELD finished his shift and was headed home when WHITE called at about 11:20 p.m. WHITE said he was on his way when BURCHFIELD told him he wasn't there (at PUBLIX) and that it was Thanksgiving. He told WHITE that he (BURCHFIELD) was off Thursday and Friday. He told him he would call Friday to arrange a time to meet on Saturday. BURCHFIELD called Sergeant KREHER and told him about his plan to meet WHITE on Saturday to show him the line-up. Thursday was Thanksgiving and uneventful for BURCHFIELD who received no calls regarding the case.

On Friday, 11/24/2006, BURCHFIELD went to his job at PUBLIX. He called WHITE at about 6:00 p.m. and WHITE seemed irritated. BURCHFIELD asked him to pick a time to meet the following day. WHITE said that they were fucking him now and to tell your boys to stop looking for him or he was going to tell everyone that they had told him to lie and that he had never went to the house. BURCHFIELD tried to calm him down and told WHITE that he didn't have to look at the line-up.

BURCHFIELD called Sergeant KREHR and left a message. KREHR called a few minutes later and BURCHFIELD relayed the above information. KREHR told him not to call WHITE anymore.

Procedural Issues

BURCHFIELD said that there was a certain amount of money available, he believed around $1,500 with which narcotics officers could do buys. The going rate for a crack buy was $35-40 and $20 for marijuana. The informant would get a bonus based upon the weight of drugs found in a later arrest or search. One to ten grams of cocaine got a certain amount of money with one kilo getting more. The informant is not always paid at the time he makes a buy, but often later in the month or the following month.

The informant has to sign a voucher to get paid and two people are supposed to witness the payment. The control officer does not have to be one of the witnessing officers.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

Individual called SMITH to ask for details about 933 Neal Street. SMITH told him the house had shutters, and there was a grill and a couple of chairs in the back yard. SMITH reminded individual that the back door had been open.

During one of their conversations, SMITH asked individual the type of vehicle he drove during the purchase at 933 Neal Street, and individual stated it was a green Lumina. Individual does not own a green Lumina. Individual previously purchased drugs at a house on Neal, but individual has never been to 933 Neal Street. Individual has never pulled up to a residence from which he purchased drugs with APD officers in his car.

On November 22, 2006, individual called ALCOHOL, TOBACCO, AND FIREARMS (ATF) Special Agent (SA) ERIC DEGREE. Individual asked whether DEGREE knew JUNNIER had been shot and told him that it had not occurred as described. DEGREE then said that he would be right over. DEGREE and ATF SA AARON LAST NAME UNKNOWN (LNU) picked up individual, pulled over the car, and talked to him for approximately 30 minutes. DEGREE dropped him off and told him not to go anywhere.

Individual received a telephone call from JUNNIER who told individual about the shooting and then reminded individual of what SMITH had told individual.

APD Officer FNU DUNCAN and an unidentified officer, described as a slim male with glasses, picked up individual from his mother's residence. DUNCAN asked individual questions, including the following:

Did he make the buy?
What did the house look like?
How many ways were there to get on the porch?
Who did he buy from?
How would he describe the individual he bought from?
What did the back of the residence look like?

DUNCAN then stated that they would drive by 933 Neal Street to look for SAM. Individual called DEGREE approximately five times while individual was with DUNCAN. During one conversation, DEGREE stated that he would come pick up individual, and DUNCAN stated that he had individual at the time, and DEGREE would have to wait.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

BURCHFIELD then called Investigator DEATON who told him that JUNNIER's team had been involved in the shooting. JUNNIER and SMITH had been shot, but their injuries were not life threatening. BURCHFIELD relayed this information to COOPER. BURCHFIELD then went to his mother-in-law's house.

Wednesday, 11/22/2006

On Wednesday, November 22, 2006, BURCHFIELD went to work and worked the area around Neal Street for information regarding "Sam." BURCHFIELD spoke with JUNNIER and SMITH the following day on his cell phone regarding their condition. They did not discuss any details regarding the shooting or BURCHFIELD's contact with WHITE.

BURCHFIELD finished his shift and went to PUBLIX located at 100 Ponce De Leon where he was working a part-time security job. His shift was from 6:00 p.m. until 11:00 p.m. Early in the shift, ZYGI called and asked him "What's up with your boy?" He said that he was riding with Detective DUNCAN when he jumped out of the car and took off. He told BURCHFIELD the fugitive investigators were looking for him. BURCHFIELD talked to one of the investigators (name unrecalled) and told him where WHITE's mother's house was over near the Federal Penitentiary. BURCHFIELD knew this information because he had picked up WHITE from the location. The investigator told BURCHFIELD that they had put together a line-up and wanted WHITE to look at it. He asked BURCHFIELD to call WHITE. BURCHFIELD called WHITE and left a message. WHITE called back later on and BURCHFIELD told him that they just wanted him to look at some pictures. WHITE said he had been scared and didn't know (DUNCAN) so that was why he had run. He agreed to come down to the PUBLIX to meet with BURCHFIELD but that he had to drop off his girlfriend in Hiram, Georgia first. BURCHFIELD told him he was there until 11:00 p.m. At about 8:00 p.m., JR SMITH called BURCHFIELD and asked if WHITE was coming to PUBLIX. SMITH said he needed to pay WHITE for work he had done previously, about $35-40.

The fugitive investigator brought by the line-up to BURCHFIELD at about 8:00 or 8:30 p.m. and left it with BURCHFIELD. JR SMITH arrived at about 8:45 p.m. and met with BURCHFIELD. He told BURCHFIELD that he "felt like shit" when asked how he was doing. He had small cuts on him. They both took a look at the line-up, but didn't recognize anyone. SMITH stayed around twenty to thirty minutes, calling WHITE two or three times during this period with no answer, after which SMITH left.

ALEX WHITE

BURCHFIELD explained that he had dealt with WHITE numerous times in the past and that he had been a reliable informant. WHITE was operated by BOND, but any of the investigators could work with him. BURCHFIELD had never worked with WHITE regarding any Neal Street address.

BURCHFIELD stated that over the 1 ½ to two years that he has worked with WHITE, he has probably paid him about $2,000. The biggest bust with WHITE was about four pounds of marijuana.

BURCHFIELD stated that WHITE had different vehicles which he had rented. BURCHFIELD stated that he knew WHITE had driven a green Lumina, a white Dodge Charger and a blue car of some sort.

BURCHFIELD stated that WHITE had ridden with him in his car on several occasions and that it is a common practice to let the informant out near the target house. He stated that his last buy with WHITE was about a week before on 1st Street. BURCHFIELD said he had also been watching a place on Wood Street. He let WHITE out to make a buy at the house, but a guy in a white car pulled out at the address at the same time. WHITE never made the buy. BURCHFIELD described the residence as a yellow house with green shutters. It is located near the Food Giant on Howell Road.

Regarding drug dealing in the vicinity of 133 Neal Street, BURCHFIELD advised that there had been drug arrests made of a group of people coming out of a large white apartment complex located south of Joseph Lowery Boulevard. BURCHFIELD has also heard, but has not verified, that there was dope being sold from a house located at the end of Neal Street.

BURCHFIELD said that he had seen the search warrant affidavit regarding 933 Neal Street on 11/30/2006 at the precinct. He said that it matched up with what WHITE had told him the first night. He had also seen WHITE on the Fox 5 News report on Monday claiming that the officers had told him to lie. BURCHFIELD did not believe this to be true based on his initial call to WHITE. BURCHFIELD normally knows Team 1 narcotics officers to do good searches. BURCHFIELD had not been directed by anyone on the team to tell a certain story to investigators.

Officer BRAD BURCHFIELD, ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) was telephonically contacted at [redacted]. BURCHFIELD advised that after reviewing his cellular telephone records he recalled the following:

BURCHFIELD called ALEX WHITE on Friday, 11/24/2006 at 8:48pm. After talking with WHITE, BURCHFIELD called GREGG JUNNIER at 8:51pm. BURCHFIELD called JUNNIER to see how his injury was doing. JUNNIER asked BURCHFIELD to work his second job as an apartment security officer. BURCHFIELD said yes. BURCHFIELD also told JUNNIER about WHITE's comment stating that everybody needs to leave him alone or he will tell that they told him to lie and say that he made a drug buy on Neal Street.

BURCHFIELD also advised that it was 7:21pm when he talked with WHITE on Tuesday, 11/21/2006. It was during this conversation that WHITE told BURCHFIELD that he did do a drug buy on Neal Street.

Officer BRAD BURCHFIELD Atlanta Police Department, FIT team, contacted the interviewing Agent telephonically at about 4:30 p.m. and inquired about ALEX WHITE being in Federal protective custody. Writer did not inform BURCHFIELD of WHITE's current status. BURCHFIELD stated that he had just been called by ALEX WHITE who was attempting to get paid for information he had given BURCHFIELD previously. BURCHFIELD informed WHITE that no warrants based upon WHITE's information would be executed in the near future. WHITE stated during the conversation that JR SMITH had been the one who told him to lie. BURCHFIELD had put the conversation on speaker-phone so that others, including his Sergeant, would hear the conversation.

BURCHFIELD also stated that he had been contacted for interview by PBA (Police Union) attorneys or investigators and asked writer whether or not to speak with them. BURCHFIELD agreed to meet with writer at his employment at PUBLIX on Spring Street, Atlanta, Georgia later in the evening and provide billing records from his cell phone.

BURCHFIELD was contacted at his employment as a security officer for PUBLIX Supermarket located on Spring Street, Atlanta, Georgia at 11:15 p.m. He advised that ALEX WHITE had telephonically contacted him at 4:08 p.m. from a blocked number which BURCHFIELD displayed on his telephone for the interviewing Agent.

Regarding meeting with PBA lawyers or investigators, writer informed BURCHFIELD that while the FBI could not direct him not to speak with these individuals, it would not help the FBI and would create additional statements from him. BURCHFIELD stated that he really didn't want to talk to these individuals.

BURCHFIELD supplied a billing record for his cell-phone [redacted] for November 20, 2006 through 10:48 a.m. on November 30, 2006. He had delineated his first telephonic contact with Officer Cooper regarding the shooting. This call had taken place at 6:59 p.m. on 11/21/2006. BURCHFIELD had marked the telephone numbers with the associated name for most subsequent calls which he could identify. A copy of this billing record is attached and made a part of this report.

TONY TORRANCE was interviewed on the corner of Neal Street and Joseph Lowery Blvd, Atlanta, Georgia. Also present during the interview was TRACY BRUMFIELD, Investigator, Office of the Fulton County District Attorney. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview, TORRANCE provided the following information:

TORRANCE, a black male, provided his date of birth as [redacted]. TORRANCE currently resides at [redacted], [redacted]. TORRANCE has a cellular telephone number of [redacted]. TORRANCE is the on-site builder for 435 Joseph Lowery Blvd, Atlanta, Georgia, 432 Joseph Lowery Blvd, Atlanta, Georgia, and 912 Neal Street, Atlanta, Georgia.

On 11/21/2006, at approximately 6:55pm, TORRANCE walked out of the front door of 435 Joseph Lowery Blvd. As TORRANCE began to lock the front door, he heard the gears change on a black flat bed tow truck. The tow truck was traveling on Joseph Lowery Blvd towards Bankhead Highway. A marked white ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) vehicle, with no top blue lights, was traveling in front of the tow truck. The marked APD vehicle and the tow truck made a left turn onto Neal Street. Both vehicles stopped in front of 929 Neal Street. TORRANCE, looking between two houses, observed three APD Officers jump out of the marked APD vehicle and run onto the front porch of 933 Neal Street, KATHRYN JOHNSTON's residence. The APD Officers began banging on JOHNSTON's front door. TORRANCE did not hear any of the APD Officers identify themselves as the police officers.

The APD Officers could not get the front door burglar bars open, therefore one of the APD Officers went back to the patrol car and retrieved a crowbar. TORRANCE walked to the corner of Neal Street and Joseph Lowery Blvd so that he could get a better view of Neal Street and the front of JOHNSTON's residence. TORRANCE observed 8 - 9 additional APD Officers who were beginning to approach JOHNSTON's residence. The APD Officers pried open the burglar bars and entered the house. TORRANCE immediately heard gun fire which sounded like a machine gun. The shooting stopped for a couple of seconds before TORRANCE heard a second set of gunshots. Shortly afterwards, several of the APD Officers casually walked out of the house. Other APD units also began arriving to the scene of the shooting.

One of the initial three APD Officers TORRANCE observed approach JOHNSTON's residence wore a mask. The other two APD Officers did not have on a mask. One of the APD Officers not wearing a mask was a white male.

While the APD Officers began to place crime scene tape around Neal Street, an APD Sargent (black male) approached TORRANCE and the other neighbors who were beginning to gather on the corner of Neal Street and Joseph Lowery Blvd. The APD Sargent was rude and told everybody to get back. TORRANCE tried to tell the APD Sargent that he was standing on the corner of Neal Street and Joseph Lowery Blvd when the shooting occurred but the APD Sargent seemed disinterested.

TORRANCE walked back to 435 Joseph Lowery Blvd and telephoned State Representative and Community Activist ABLE MABLE to inform her of the shooting.

CLARENCE WILLINGHAM who resides at [redacted], was walking on Joseph Lowery Blvd at the same time of the shooting.

TORRANCE knows JOHNSTON and most of the other neighbors in the area because he has completed construction projects and other odd jobs for them. JOHNSTON lives on the side of Neal Street that is quiet and not known for drug activity. However, the other side of Neal Street (after crossing Joseph Lowery Blvd), is well known for drug activity.

Earlier in the day on 11/21/2006, between 11:00am and 12:00 noon, TORRANCE observed three APD Officers from the Zone 1 Drug Unit patrolling on Neal Street.

TORRANCE has given interviews regarding what he witnessed to news reporters from Channel 2, Channel 5, and Channel 11.

GARY ANTHONY SMITH, a black male, Date of Birth, [redacted], an Atlanta Police Department (APD) Investigator, telephone number [redacted], currently assigned to Narcotics Unit Team 1, was advised of the purpose of the interview and the identity of the interviewing agent. He was interviewed at the Atlanta FBI office. Also present for the interview was Pamela Johnson, a Staff Attorney for the International Brotherhood of Police Officers, 581 Simpson Street, NW, Atlanta, Georgia, telephone number (404) 521-9043, and APD Investigator Bobby Render. SMITH voluntarily agreed to be interviewed and signed a consent form regarding a statement that he had given to APD. He provided the following information:

He advised he has been a APD Police Officer for fourteen years and in the Narcotics Unit since 2001. His normal work schedule is 12 to 8 pm. Team 1 consist of the following Investigators; Sergeant STALLINGS, GREGG JUNNIER, CARY BOND, NATHAN LUCAS, JASON SMITH (JR), BRUCE TESLER, HOLLY BUCHANAN, and SMITH.

SMITH explained that on November 21, 2006, he was out of the office working on another case when he was called by Sergeant STALLINGS at or about 4:30 or 5:00 pm, to come back to City Hall East and meet up with some other team members to assist in serving a search warrant that JR and TESLER had obtained. When he returned to City Hall East he geared up and jumped in the APD black van with STALLINGS and CARY BOND. All the other guys on Team 1 had already left for the rally point, which was the firestation at Simpson Road and Flowers Road.

When they arrived at the firestation JR, TESLER, and GREGG JUNNIER were already there, and in addition he noticed that they had a subject in custody. They arrived at about 6:00 pm, or just after, and it was already dark. STALLINGS instructed that the perp get in the APD van, and SMITH got in the van to watch him.

SMITH stated that he talked with the perp. The perp did not seem nervous. They talked about how the perp can protect his identity after cooperating with the police. SMITH never learned the name of this person. Also at about this time GEURIN and LUCAS arrived at the firestation.

The van's side door was opened and everyone stood around the doorway as JR gave the search warrant briefing. He recalled JR showed warrant to Sergeant STALLINGS, and then JR briefed the details of the warrant; however, SMITH does not specifics, other than that there was surveillance cameras and how the team was going to approach the house. JR gave the warrant location as being 933 Neal Street and gave specific descriptions of the house. JR was reading from the warrant as he gave the briefing, such as the background on how they got on the 933 Neal Street address. As well as, that a "kilo of cocaine" had been seen in the house at around 3:00 pm. SMITH assumed that this information had been obtained from the perp in the van. SMITH advised that he has never seen the search warrant affidavit.

The briefing that JR gave also included the assignments for each team member. SMITH explained that JR is person that is somewhat detailed when he gives his briefings. JR would usually read from the warrant and was sharp on his operation plans. He characterized JR as being methodical and did not want to make any mistakes. JR's briefing also were detailed because he was looking out for the safety of the team.

SMITH explained that it was not unusual to have the perp at the location of the briefing. In addition, during the time of the briefing the perp was in the van and in a position to overhear the briefing.

At the time of the execution of the search warrant SMITH was not aware exactly who provided information for JR to obtain the warrant. He thought it was the perp that was put in the van at the time of the briefing.

SMITH explained that he provided a statement to APD regarding the execution of the search warrant on 933 Neal Street. His assignment was to be the shield man. He stated that he recalled that it took the team a longer period of time to open the burglar bar door and due to that, before breaching the front door they were yelling "Police Search Warrant. " After breaching the front door they again were yelling "Police Search Warrant." He explained that his APD statement provides more specific details. SMITH added that he yelled subject down, and he is the one that kicked the weapon away from the subjects hand.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

He is familiar with ALEX WHITE. He knows him to be a confidential source for APD. When ALEX for first signed up as a source, SMITH went out with ALEX and some of the team members a few times, but SMITH did not have a good opinion of ALEX. He felt that ALEX is shady. ALEX primarily worked with JR, TESLER, and JUNNIER.

SMITH advised that he sometimes worked with JR, TESLER, and JUNNIER. He would do some of the spotting, as well as operate as a undercover officer and make drug purchases. After he would do sit on a location and spot a drug transaction or make a buy the other team members would come in to make the takedown.

FABAIN SHEATS, Inmate, was interviewed at the FULTON COUNTY JAIL, 901 Rice Street, Atlanta, Georgia, 30381. Also present during the interview were YONNETTE BUCHANAN, Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA), JON-PETER KELLY, AUSA, SHUKURA INGRAM, Senior Assistant District Attorney, Fulton County, TRACY BRUMFIELD, Investigator, Office of the Fulton County District Attorney, CAMERON CRANDALL, Investigator, Office of the Fulton County District Attorney, and ELIZABETH MARKOWITZ, Attorney, Fulton County Public Defenders Office. Prior to the interview, SHEATS signed and dated a Proffer Agreement. After being advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the interview, SHEATS provided the following information:

SHEATS, a black male, provided his date of birth (DOB) as [redacted]. SHEATS resides with his grandfather, [redacted], at [redacted], telephone number [redacted]. SHEATS dropped out of school after the 9th grade.

On Tuesday, 11/21/2006, at approximately 4:00pm, SHEATS was arrested by ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) Narcotics Officers. SHEATS was standing on the street near [redacted] when three APD Narcotics Officers drove up, jumped out of their marked APD vehicle and approached him. SHEATS immediately hid the estimated two grams of crack cocaine he had with him underneath his tongue. APD Officer TESLER grabbed SHEATS by the neck and told him to open his mouth. TESLER also banged SHEATS' head against the security bars causing him to bleed. SHEATS accidentally swallowed the crack cocaine when TESLER grabbed his neck. The other two APD Officers with TESLER were Officer JUNNIER, and Officer SMITH. All three APD Officers are white males.

SHEATS was alone on Simpson Road selling crack cocaine for approximately 30 minutes prior to being arrested by the TESLER, JUNNIER, and SMITH. SHEATS had only made two sales of crack cocaine prior to his arrest. SHEATS was standing on the side of the street when the APD Officers arrested him. SHEATS was not making a sale when the APD Officers approached him. One APD Officer was wearing a jumpsuit while the other two Officers were wearing blue uniforms. None of the three APD Officers drew their weapons during the arrest.

SHEATS did not know the names of the three APD Officers at the time of his arrest. However, SHEATS recognized their faces because the same three APD Officers arrested him on two previous occasions. SHEATS learned the names of the three APD Officers when he identified their photographs to APD Internal Affairs Investigators on Monday, 11/27/2006.

SHEATS was being detained by TESLER, JUNNIER, and SMITH when an APD K-9 unit arrived. TESLER and JUNNIER stayed with SHEATS while the K-9 Officer and SMITH searched a wooded area 40 to 50 feet away. SMITH came back from the wooded area holding a plastic sandwich bag of marijuana. SHEATS told SMITH that the marijuana was not his. SMITH replied, "Today it is". SMITH told SHEATS that he was going to be charged with the marijuana. SMITH went back into the wooded area and again came out with another plastic sandwich bag of marijuana. The marijuana in this bag was divided into several smaller bags of marijuana. SMITH also pulled a bag of marijuana from his pants pocket and told SHEATS that this was dope from the previous day. SHEATS felt that SMITH was implying that he was going to also charge SHEATS with the marijuana SMITH had in his pocket.

SMITH also stopped two males who were walking on the opposite side of Simpson Road. SMITH checked their identification and let them go.

At approximately 5:00pm, SHEATS was placed in the marked APD vehicle. JUNNIER drove the APD vehicle with TESLER sitting in the front passenger seat. SHEATS sat behind JUNNIER and SMITH sat behind TESLER. JUNNIER proceeded to drive on Simpson Road for approximately 5 - 6 minutes. TESLER asked JUNNIER and SMITH if either of them had a camera so that they could take photographs of the marijuana. JUNNIER pulled into the parking lot of a gay club, THE MARQUETTE, where SMITH got out and searched the trunk of the vehicle for a camera. SMITH returned to the car with no camera but stated that he could take the photographs with his cellular telephone. SMITH took the small bags of marijuana out of the plastic sandwich bag and began to photograph them with his cellular telephone camera.

While sitting in the club parking lot, TESLER told SHEATS that he needed medical attention for the cut on his face. SHEATS told TESLER that he did not want any medical assistance. JUNNIER was on his cellular telephone most of the time talking in code.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

As it was beginning to get dark outside, JUNNIER, TESLER, and SMITH drove SHEATS from the club parking lot the FULTON COUNTY JAIL (FCJ) on Rice Street. JUNNIER drove to the back of the jail and parked along the side of the entry gate. SMITH got out of the vehicle and went into the jail while JUNNIER and TESLER remained in the vehicle with SHEATS. JUNNIER told SMITH that he would give him 10 minutes. TESLER said that SMITH would be back at 6:18pm and JUNNIER said that SMITH would be back at 6:03pm. TESLER and JUNNIER seemed to be making a friendly bet as to how long SMITH would be in the jail. SMITH returned to the vehicle at approximately 6:07pm carrying a folder and/or documents. When SMITH returned he told JUNNIER and TESLER, " I told you I would get it." SMITH also stated, " a person popped up on the screen and after talking with them I got it".

JUNNIER told SHEATS that he was being arrested for possession of marijuana. JUNNIER stated that he observed SHEATS repeatedly go back and forth to a wooded area to retrieve dope. Neither JUNNIER, TESLER nor SMITH read SHEATS his Miranda Rights after they arrested him.

JUNNIER, TESLER, and SMITH left the jail with SHEATS and drove to the fire station on Flower Street. The Flower Street fire station is approximately eight minutes from the FCJ. By this time it was completely dark and the street lights were on (approximately 6:15pm). JUNNIER drove to the back of the fire station and parked. Shortly afterwards, a black van carrying four or five other APD Officers pulled into the parking lot. The APD Officers from the black van were wearing masks. An APD K-9 unit also arrived.

JUNNIER, TESLER, SMITH and the other APD Officers huddled together (stood in a circle) in the parking lot and had a meeting. SHEATS remained in the APD vehicle. After the meeting, JUNNIER and one of the APD Officers from the black van took SHEATS out of the APD marked vehicle and placed him in the back of the black van. While in the back of the van, SHEATS had his legs secured with plastic leg cuffs and was told to lay down. The APD Officers took SHEATS' boots off in order to put the cuffs on his legs. SHEATS advised that they were at the fire station for approximately 20 minutes.

While sitting in the fire station parking lot, SHEATS heard JUNNIER tell someone on his cellular telephone that, "we were going to send him in to make a buy". SHEATS does not know who was going to make a buy or where the buy was to occur. SHEATS also recalled SMITH going inside the fire station to use the restroom.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

The black van left the fire station parking lot with SHEATS laying on the floor and SMITH sitting in the back. There were also four black APD Officers wearing masks in the black van. All of the APD Officers had handguns. The black van traveled approximately five minutes before stopping. When the black van stopped, all of the APD Officers jumped out. After approximately two minutes SHEATS heard a rapid group of gunshots. SHEATS did not know where the gunshots were coming from so he began to pray. As SHEATS began to pray he heard another rapid group of gunshots. SHEATS then heard two or three individual shots.

Approximately 30 - 45 minutes after the gunshots stopped, SHEATS stood up in the van and looked through the front windshield and observed uniformed APD Officers displaying the yellow crime scene tape. Finally, an APD Officer (white/male) carrying a long gun and a flashlight opened the backdoor of the van. The APD Officer shined the flashlight on SHEATS to make sure SHEATS was still cuffed. Once the APD Officer confirmed that SHEATS was secure, he closed the door leaving SHEATS in the van alone.

Approximately 30 minutes later, APD Officers opened the van door, took SHEATS out, and searched him. One APD Officer put SHEATS over his shoulder and carried SHEATS to a white mini-van. SHEATS was placed in the white mini-van with three white male APD Officers and one black male APD Officer. SHEATS sat in the mini-van for approximately 2 - 3 hours. While sitting in the mini-van SHEATS heard one of APD Officers ask their Chief, "What do we do with him?" The Chief replied, "Don't let him leave until you get a statement from him." SHEATS also heard one of the APD Officers radio for a paddy wagon.

SHEATS did not know the name of the street he was on but he knew that he was near Joseph Lowery Blvd and Simpson Road. The mini-van was parked approximately three houses, on the opposite side of the street, from the house with the crime scene tape. The black van was parked two houses from the house with the crime scene tape.

SHEATS was transferred to the paddy wagon once it arrived. SHEATS was originally transported to the ATLANTA DETENTION CENTER (ADC), downtown Atlanta. However, it was determined that SHEATS was arrested for possession of marijuana, a felony, so he was transported from the ADC to the FCJ on Rice Street.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

SHEATS has never made a drug buy for the APD. SHEATS has never made a drug buy for APD Officers JUNNIER, TESLER, or SMITH. SHEATS does not like APD Officers JUNNIER, TESLER, or SMITH because they arrested him before. SHEATS has never done any type of informant work for APD Officers JUNNIER, TESLER, or SMITH.

SHEATS was not interviewed by APD Officers on the day or evening of his arrest, 11/21/2006.

APD Officers JUNNIER, TESLER, and SMITH did not ask SHEATS where he purchased the marijuana from because they knew the marijuana was not his. SHEATS never volunteered any information to APD Officers JUNNIER, TESLER, or SMITH regarding drugs being located in any house.

SHEATS knows where Neal Street is located. SHEATS' grandfathers house on [redacted] is close to Neal Street. SHEATS has never sold drugs on Neal Street. SHEATS only sells drugs in known drug areas on Simpson Road. Neal Street is not known to be a drug area. SHEATS does not know anyone who lives on Neal Street. SHEATS does not know anyone who has a stash of drugs on Neal Street.

SHEATS sells crack cocaine and smokes marijuana. SHEATS does not smoke crack. SHEATS purchases his crack in Dekalb County. SHEATS pays for the crack up front. SHEATS does not purchase any dope from people in the Simpson Road area.

SHEATS did not smoke any marijuana on the day he was arrested, 11/21/2006. After SHEATS swallowed the crack on 11/21/2006, he began to sweat and feel a little light headed. SHEATS did not loose consciousness.

SHEATS knows an older black male named SAM. SAM is in his 60's and lives in the Simpson Road area. SAM smokes crack.

SHEATS does not know of any drug stash house or drug weight house in the Simpson Road area.

SHEATS does not know any snitch or informant working for APD Officers JUNNIER, TESLER, or SMITH.

SHEATS did not have any food while he was in APD's custody. SHEATS did not use the restroom or make any telephone calls while he was in APD's custody.

SHEATS was shown a copy of a photograph of a black male. After reviewing the photograph SHEATS advised that he does not know the individual in the photograph nor has he ever seen the individual in the photograph (see FD-340).

SHEATS was transported to CITY HALL EAST and interviewed by Investigator WILSON (white/male), APD Homicide and another APD Investigator (black/male), on Sunday evening, 11/26/2006. WILSON typed SHEATS' statement on a computer. SHEATS signed the statement typed by WILSON.

SHEATS was interviewed again on Monday afternoon, 11/27/2006, by APD Internal Affairs Investigators LESTER (black/male), and another Investigator (black/male/bald). This interview was video recorded. SHEATS also signed a typed statement.

LATISHA MICHELLE COLBERT, date of birth, [redacted], social security account number [redacted]. COLBERT was interviewed at her residence [redacted], cellular telephone [redacted], home telephone number [redacted]. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview, COLBERT, provided the following information.

COLBERT stated on 11/11/2006, after leaving her house to run a few errands she and her boyfriend DURIC BAKER had returned to their residence located at [redacted], Atlanta, Georgia, [redacted]. When they arrived they noticed a black male wearing baggy clothing standing in the front yard. The subject asked if "MARIO" was home. COLBERT stated she did not know a "MARIO" and the subject walked to a gray four door car with one passenger inside and left the area.

COLBERT advised on 11/16/2006, at approximately 8:45pm, a group of police officers busted into her house. The officers repeatedly asked for her boy friend's name. COLBERT repeatedly told the officer her boy friend's name was DURIC BAKER and the police officers repeatedly told COLBERT she was lying.

COLBERT asked to see the search warrant for her house but, the police officers refused to read the search warrant or leave a copy at her house. COLBERT stated she had only recently viewed the search warrant when she attended her court date. COLBERT also advised her case has been classified as dead docket.

COLBERT advised the police officers trashed her house during the search and punched a hole in one of her walls. The police officers found COLBERT'S marijuana on her night stand. According to COLBERT it was enough marijuana to roll two joints. COLBERT also stated that she had approximately $1,300.00 in her other night stand. COLBERT advised that $800.00 was for her house rent and the remaining $500.00 was for miscellaneous bills. According to COLBERT the police officers seized the $1,300.00 and gave COLBERT a receipt for approximately $489.00.

RICHARD JOHN SPERL, K-9 Officer, Atlanta Police Department RED DOG unit, East City Hall, Atlanta, Georgia, telephone [redacted] was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents by a display of credentials. He was accompanied by attorney DON ENGLISH. SPERL then provided the following information:

SPERL has been assigned to the RED DOG unit for the last three years and has been a K-9 officer for the last year. On November 21, 2006, he was working a four to twelve-shift from East City Hall. Shortly after roll call at 4:00 p.m., Officer CARSON received a call to 1143 Simpson Avenue. SPERL believed that this was about 4:30 p.m. He followed CARSON in his own vehicle with his drug dog "Arna" to the address to observe CARSON conduct a drug search. SPERL stated that JR. SMITH did a quick briefing when he and CARSON arrived informing them of the general area that he wanted searched, which included a pathway located near a wooden fence. During the course of the search, CARSON's dog "Chad" alerted on a rock/piece of concrete near the path. SMITH checked under the rock/concrete and recovered a plastic bag containing several small blue bags of what appeared to be marijuana. SMITH walked back to the marked vehicle where Detectives TESLER and JUNNIER waited.

CARSON continued to search the general area and SPERL returned to his truck. He heard "Chad" bark and walked over to the area where they were searching. CARSON had located a second bag of drugs beneath a board or door. She handed the drugs to SPERL to take to SMITH. SPERL observed that the second bag contained yellow or orange bags of marijuana and a small quantity of crack. SPERLE could not recall whether the crack was in individual bags or loose. JR. SMITH returned to the area and SPERL gave him the bag of drugs. CARSON explained where they had been located. CARSON continued to search the area with negative results.

When CARSON finished searching, she went over to a store located nearby. SPERL walked over to the marked white patrol car to speak with officers JUNNIER and TESLER. SPERL spoke with JUNNIER who told him that the suspect in the back possibly knew of a location with a large amount of drugs. SPERL told him that he would be on duty until midnight. He understood that JUNNIER was indicating that the narcotics officers may need him for a search. CARSON returned from the store and SPERL told her about the potential search. SPERL left at about the same time as CARSON.

SPERL drove around the Zone 1 area until 6:00 p.m. when he spoke with TESLER. TESLER informed SPERL that they were getting a warrant and that they would meet for a briefing at the fire station located on Simpson and Tiger at 6:30 p.m. SPERL stated that he was in the vicinity of 1575 Simpson Road where the RED DOG team was located. He took his dog out to run in the area.

SPERL attended the briefing at the fire station which took place near the narcotics van. TESLER and JUNNIER were there along with the suspect that had been in their car earlier. JR. SMITH gave the briefing, noting the address on Neal Street and that there was a handicap ramp in front. SMITH described the color of the house and noted the presence of surveillance cameras. SPERL noted that SMITH briefed the team not to enter by the handicap ramp, but to go up a side set of stairs. He was concerned about the noise that the team might generate walking up a wooden ramp. SMITH stated that there was supposed to be a large amount of cocaine in the house and that the target was a man named "Sam." SPERL recalled nothing in the briefing concerning the back door. After the briefing, Sergeant STALLINGS asked SPERL if he would stay near the narcotics van while the team executed the warrant. He wanted SPERL to keep an eye on the subject. They then formed a small line of cars and drove to the search address. SPERL was the last in line.

SPERL stayed near the van waiting outside while the team went to the front. He did not ever speak with the subject in the van. He could see the handicap ramp, but could not see the front or rear doors. Shortly after the team went to the front door, SPERL heard shots fired. He took cover near a vehicle located in a neighbor's yard and waited. SPERL then moved to a position near the driveway and saw investigators coming out. He observed one person jump from the porch. He later learned that this was GUERIN. He saw that BOND and JUNNIER were bleeding. SPERL stated that an officer, probably Sergeant STALLINGS, calling a C-3 (officer down) on the radio. SPERL then called in a 25 (shots fired) and requested paramedics and a crime scene unit.

The RED DOG unit that was at 1575 Simpson Road responded within a few minutes. SPERL believed that officers HAMBURGER and RIVERS were part of the team which included four or five officers.

Someone (identity unknown) asked whether anyone had cleared the basement. TESLER, GUERIN and SPERL, along with RED DOG officer HAMBURGER and other RED DOG team members created a "stack" to enter the back door. SPERL had obtained the ram and HAMBURGER had the Halligan tool to force entry. SPERL believed that these were the tools used on the initial entry. There was a metal security door on the outside which was difficult to breach. SPERL used the ram to help seat the Halligan tool and they made entry. He also was called once the team had entered to breach an internal door. The interior was cluttered and it was difficult to walk through the basement. The team was able to clear the basement quickly.

Once the basement was cleared, SPERL went back to the front of the house. He did not observe anything further in back. He saw that the wounded officers were walking to an ambulance that had arrived. SPERL spoke with Homicide Detective WILSON and gave him his statement. He also was photographed at the crime scene van. He assisted with an ID tech who fell into a hole in the yard. She injured her leg and a ambulance was called to transport. SPERL never entered the main section of the house. SPERL left the scene at about 8:45 p.m. He handled another call for a K-9 unit. He then went to the hospital to check on the well-being of injured officers SMITH, BOND and JUNNIER, but did not discuss the facts of the shooting. He has since seen officers BOND and SMITH and inquired about their injuries, but has not discussed the shooting itself with them.

TIA CARTER, date of birth, [redacted], social security account number [redacted]. CARTER was interviewed at her Attorney's office located at the HEALEY BUILDING, suite 240-G BALCONY, 57 Forsyth Street N.W., Atlanta, Georgia, 30303. Also present during the meeting was Attorney RANDALL STROZIER, Attorney BRADLEY MCMILLIAN and paralegal JAMES MERCIER. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview, CARTER provided the following information.

On approximately March 2, 2005, CARTER had gone to sleep with her boyfriend ALPHONSO HOWARD at their residence located at [redacted]. CARTER heard a loud noise in her house but, stayed in her bed while HOWARD went to investigate. CARTER stated that four police officers entered her room. CARTER stated one of the police officers that entered her room was named JUNNIER.

The police officers at first told CARTER to get out of bed because she was going to jail. CARTER stated that she had been sleeping naked. CARTER stood up and quickly sat back down and told the officers that she had not done anything wrong. The officers then searched CARTER'S clothes and allowed her to put on her clothes.

The police officers brought CARTER'S children into her room. JUNNIER told CARTER that he would have to take her to jail and place her kids in DFACS. JUNNIER kept asking CARTER how long she had known HOWARD.

The police officers searched CARTER'S room and then eventually took her down stairs with HOWARD. HOWARD was still in handcuffs when CARTER came downstairs. The police officers search lasted approximately over three hours.

CARTER recognized JUNNIER from seeing him on the news in reference to a police shooting in Atlanta.

After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview, TORRES provided the following information:

TORRES has been working as a Police Officer with the Atlanta Police Department since September 24, 2002, and is currently assigned to the Auto Theft Task Force.

TORRES stated that she had met ALEX WHITE an informant of the Atlanta Police Department on at least two occasions. WHITE provided TORRES with information in reference to possible drug dealers in Zone 3. However, White did not feel like he (WHITE) was able to buy drugs from these possible drug dealers.

TORRES stated that the Zone 3 FIT team would watch the houses that WHITE had pointed out but, were never able to build enough probable cause to receive a search warrant for the houses.

TORRES stated that she never fully trusted WHITE as an informant because, WHITE was not willing to buy drugs from the houses he (WHITE) had pointed out.

PHILLIP J. ROBERSON, Atlanta Police Department (APD) Narcotics Investigator assigned to Team II, was interviewed at the Atlanta Police Department located at 675 Ponce De Leon Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia, 30308. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview, ROBERSON provided the following information.

ROBERSON was hired by APD in 1989 and has been on the Narcotics Team II since 1995. On November 21, 2006, ROBERSON responded to 933 Neal Street, Atlanta, Georgia, for a possible police shooting. ROBERSON stated Narcotics Team II drove two vans to the shooting scene. Sergeant SPARWOTH and Lieutenant GIBBS also responded to the shooting scene.

ROBERSON helped collect the weapons of the investigators that were involved in the shooting. ROBERSON secured the weapons in the Team II black van.

ROBERSON helped, Narcotics Team I Investigators J.R. SMITH and Investigator ARTHUR TESLER, finish their paper work regarding their earlier arrest of FABIAN SHEATS. ROBERSON finished filling out the citation for possession of marijuana with intent to distribute. ROBERSON helped the investigators because they had just been involved in a shooting incident. ROBERSON stated that he saw the marijuana sitting on the hood of the car. ROBERSON described the marijuana being stored in bags containing approximately "$20.00" worth of marijuana. The small bags were contained in a larger clear bag. ROBERSON never saw any more drugs other than the marijuana contained in the clear bags. ROBERSON never heard anyone mention cocaine was seized from SHEATS.

ROBERSON later saw SHEATS handcuffed in the back of the van of Team I. SHEATS was handcuffed and did not speak while ROBERSON sat in the van to make a phone call.

ROBERSON went to the hospital to check on the wounded investigators and then returned to Neal street to assist in searching the house. ROBERSON collected paper work from inside the house to help show ownership but, did not find any drugs or drug paraphernalia.

After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview, JUHLS provided the following information:

JUHLS has been employed by the APD for approximately 13 years. In approximately 2005, JUHLS was introduced to an APD informant ALEX WHITE. JUHLS was advised by Investigators JUNNIER and Investigator BOND, that WHITE was a very reliable informant.

JUHLS stated that he used WHITE on a least two drug buys. JUHLS was able to receive a search warrant from one of WHITE'S drug buys which lead to the seizure of guns, drugs and money. ATF adopted the case and prosecuted the subject in a Federal court. On the second drug buy WHITE was able to buy drugs from a female in Zone 4 that was moving a lot of drugs.

JUHLS paid WHITE for his work as an informant. WHITE'S information was very reliable and detailed.

JUHLS quit using WHITE when he (JUHLS) received a call from Investigator BOND stating that WHITE had been arrested.

Officer BRAD BURCHFIELD, Atlanta Police Department (APD) Field Inspection Team FIT was interviewed at his precinct located at 676 Fair Street, Atlanta, Georgia.. Also present during the interview was attorney GRADY DUKES, SOUTHERN STATES POLICE BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION, 1900 Brannan Road, McDonough, Georgia 30253, telephone 770/389-5391, extension 385. DUKES and BURCHFIELD were advised of the respective identity of the interviewing Agents and informed of the nature of the interview. BURCHFIELD then provided the following information:

BURCHFIELD met ALEX WHITE about one and one-half years ago when WHITE flagged down BURCHFIELD at 3775 MLK (Martin Luther King) an apartment complex consisting of three buildings. WHITE introduced himself to BURCHFIELD and informed BURCHFIELD that he was working for APD officers CAREY BOND and GREG JUNNIER and told BURCHFIELD what he could do (as a drug informant). BURCHFIELD did not know BOND or JUNNIER at that time, but called BOND about a day later. BOND confirmed that WHITE worked for him and that WHITE could work for BURCHFIELD also. He asked that BURCHFIELD inform him when he was going to use WHITE. BOND told BURCHFIELD that WHITE had been a reliable informant. BURCHFIELD did not have access to money to pay WHITE, so after he first used WHITE to obtain information, BURCHFIELD went to BOND with his report. BOND obtained the money to pay WHITE.

BURCHFIELD didn't meet GREG JUNNIER until some time after meeting BOND. BURCHFIELD, as part of the FIT team, did not work on a regular basis with Narcotics Team 1. There were times, however, when the FIT team would assist Narcotics Team 1 with the execution of warrants. BURCHFIELD specifically recalled working a search warrant execution at 901 Bolton Road with Team 1. The information for the warrant came from ALEX WHITE. BURCHFIELD assisted by providing a marked patrol car.

BURCHFIELD worked an extra job at an apartment complex on Bolton Road with JR SMITH. He has spoken with JR two or three times since the shooting incident. He considers JR an acquaintance, not a friend. BURCHFIELD didn't know TESLER and couldn't point him out in a crowd. BURCHFIELD considers GREG JUNNIER a friend, but doesn't socialize with him outside of work.

ALEX WHITE has provided BURCHFIELD information on 18 or 19 cases. BURCHFIELD thought that WHITE was reliable, until the shooting incident.

SHORTCUTS

BURCHFIELD was questioned regarding his knowledge of any officers using "shortcuts" in obtaining warrants. BURCHFIELD advised that he had never heard of any police officers using INS or insurance drugs. He had never heard this terminology for throwdown drugs and had never known or observed anyone use such drugs. BURCHFIELD stated that he had never heard or known of any officer attributing information which came from an unreliable source to a known reliable source. He added that he was not privy to any conversations between officers JUNNIER, SMITH, BOND or other individuals involved in the shooting. BURCHFIELD had never heard of or observed the splitting of probable cause in order to do more searches or arrests. He had never known anyone to use drugs as a ruse, for example, pretending that drugs that an officer already had in his possession were recovered from or near a drug suspect. BURCHFIELD stated that he knew of no drugs obtained from one location being attributed to another location.

BURCHFIELD stated that there were no specific number of drug arrest goals set forth by management. He stated that officers in the Zone were to concentrate on whatever presented itself in the Zone at the time.

BURCHFIELD stated that the night after the shooting, he was working a second job at PUBLIX when JR SMITH showed up. ALEX WHITE had escaped from detectives trying to interview him about the shooting and BURCHFIELD had been trying to call WHITE to get him to look at some photos of potential suspects (SAM). SMITH told BURCHFIELD that he needed to pay WHITE for a previous drug buy. BURCHFIELD did not know which deal that SMITH was paying WHITE for, but it did not seem to be for the night of the shooting. BURCHFIELD didn't see that SMITH had any paperwork to document an informant payment. There is usually a second officer required to sign as a witness, but this rule commonly is ignored. SMITH did not mention needing BURCHFIELD to sign as a witness. WHITE never did show up that night.

BURCHFIELD stated that there never was any search warrant executed on Woods Street. BURCHFIELD did not know of any crack rock being split and attributed to two locations by himself or any officer.

GRADY DUKES then discontinued the interview pending his ability to speak with BURCHFIELD more in depth concerning issues raised.

Lieutenant STACIE GIBBS, Atlanta Police Department (APD), Narcotics Unit Commander, Criminal Investigations Division, was interviewed in her office on the 7th Floor at APD Headquarters, 675 Ponce De Leon Avenue, N.E., Atlanta, GA 30308, office (404) 853-3272; mobile [redacted]; e-mail [redacted]

GIBBS was advised of the identity of the interviewing agent and the nature of the interview, which was to discuss GIBBS' knowledge of APD policies and procedures concerning obtaining search warrants, use of confidential sources, and preparation and submission of payment vouchers. Additionally, GIBBS was advised the interview would include questions concerning allegations of quotas or performance measures instituted by APD and/or GIBBS. GIBBS confirmed that she understood that her statements would be voluntary and she was not being compelled by APD to answer questions. GIBBS provided the following information:

GIBBS confirmed that she took over as Lieutenant in the Narcotics Unit on January 26, 2006, replacing Lieutenant Robert Browning, who was transferred to the High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area (HIDTA) Task Force. She advised that she previously served as an Investigator and Sergeant in Narcotics.

GIBBS stated that during her tenure as an Investigator, Sergeant, and Lieutenant in Narcotics, she never knowingly witnessed or participated in any criminal activity. She described criminal activity as including anything that is an obvious violation of the law, such as stealing, planting drugs or other evidence, and making false statements on reports or affidavits. As Lieutenant, she was not aware of and would never condone criminal activity involving members of her staff. She would have immediately reported anyone who committed a crime.

GIBBS advised that she is not aware of situations wherein officers have lied on reports in order to receive credit for an arrest or search warrant. GIBBS never pressured anyone to make arrests or obtain search warrants, and is unaware of any circumstances where officers were pressured in that regard. She stated that police work in general is driven by statistics. Therefore, performance within the Narcotics Unit to a certain extent, is measured on the number of arrests and search warrants.

She is certain that no one under her command was ever punished for failing to meet certain numbers. However, the nature of work in Narcotics dictates that officers who are unable to make cases (arrests and search warrants) should not be assigned to the Narcotics Unit.

GIBBS provided a copy of the Performance Development Plans for Investigators Gregg Junnier and J.R. Smith and explained the content and structure of the documents. The Plans for Junnier and Smith, dated 08/01/2006, were identical and GIBBS explained that everyone in Narcotics had the same Plan. She actually prepared them in October 2006 but was instructed to have each employee list 08/01/2006 as the signing date. This was because the formal evaluation period began on 08/01/2006.

GIBBS pointed out that she established the following "performance indicators" in setting forth the rating requirements for the three Critical Job Elements for Narcotics Investigators:

Critical Job Element#1

DEPARTMENT POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Effective - no more than three incidents of not properly conforming to directives, policies and procedures.

Highly Effective - no more than two incidents.

Outstanding - No incidents.

Needs Improvement - more than 3 but less than 5 instances.

Unacceptable - more than 5 instances of failing to conform to directives, policies and procedures.

Critical Job Element #2

OPERATIONAL PROCEDURES

No more than three incidents during the annual evaluation period wherein an employee: (1) fails to turn in a complete and legible written correspondence when required; (2) fails to swipe/sign in and out for his or her tour of duty and notify a supervisor or designated person when he/she is going to be late/absent; (3) does not have all his/her equipment present, clean and updated during a monthly inspection; (4) fails to complete an assigned task within a prescribed deadline.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

Effective - two indicators must be met.

Highly Effective - three indicators must be met.

Outstanding - All four indicators must be met.

ENFORCEMENT OPERATIONS

Effective - employee averages at least two search warrants per month, clears 50% of their assigned lead sheets by arrest, and is within 30% of the yearly watch average in arrests.

Highly Effective - averages at least three search warrants per month, clears 60% of their assigned lead sheets by arrest, and exceeds the yearly watch average by 5%.

Outstanding - averages at least 4 search warrants per month, clears 70% of their lead sheets by arrest, and exceeds the yearly watch average by 10%.

Needs Improvement - averages 1 search warrant per month, clears between 30 and 49% of their lead sheets by arrest and fails to meet the watch average in arrests by 5%.

Unacceptable - no search warrants, clears less than 30% of lead sheets by arrests and fails to meet the watch average by 6% or greater.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

GIBBS advised that the above are performance standards, not quotas. There are no requirements to meet certain numbers in order to remain in Narcotics, and anyone who cannot meet the requirements for a rating of Effective is simply rated as Needs Improvement or Unacceptable.

GIBBS stated that she would be willing to discuss these performance standards with anyone who has the misunderstanding that officers in Narcotics were under pressure to perform. She disagrees that there was pressure, and again stated that it is not overwhelming to expect Narcotics Investigators to conduct a certain number of search warrants and make arrests. She stated that some officers, unfortunately, identified the minimum required in order to remain under the radar and then worked until they met that "goal". Having met the minimum, they would stop working as hard. These officers were never punished, although GIBBS believed they could have been according to departmental regulations.

GIBBS again advised that she was unaware of officers lying on reports and affidavits, padding vouchers, using unregistered sources, and other administrative violations. GIBBS confirmed that it now appears that certain officers may have been doing it, and she will need to take responsibility for not catching it, but it happened without her knowledge. GIBBS stated that officers who lied on reports and/or affidavits will have to deal with the consequences of their actions.

RAY has lived at [redacted] for approximately four years. His next door neighbor was KATHRYN JOHNSTON who lived at 933 Neal Street. JOHNSTON was a private person and mostly kept to herself. She did not tolerate anyone trespassing on her property and called the police on occasion to have them removed. RAY never noticed anyone hanging out at the back of 933 Neal Street. Some people used to walk through the backyard of JOHNSTON's property to cut through from Jett Street but that stopped when the house directly behind 933 Neal Street built a fence.

RAY was not at home when the shooting occurred on November 21, 2006, but his wife was home. She heard the shooting and laid down on the kitchen floor. RAY advised that his only contact with the Atlanta Police Department (APD) was when he came back to his home shortly after the shooting. An APD officer told him he could not reenter his house at that time. RAY further advised that no one from APD has spoken with him or interviewed him since then.

BRIAN JOSEPH SCHIFFBAUER, Atlanta Police Department Narcotics Unit Detective, was interviewed at his place of employment 675 Ponce De Leon Avenue, N.E., Atlanta, Georgia, 30308, cellular phone number [redacted], work phone number (404) 853-4250. SCHIFFBAUER'S attorney DONALD ENGLISH was also present during the interview. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agent and the nature of the interview, SCHIFFBAUER provided the following information.

On December 21, 2006, SCHIFFBAUER was working at his desk located at the Atlanta Police Department, when SCHIFFBAUER heard a call over his radio from Sargent STALLINGS advising a perpetrator and Investigators were "down." SCHIFFBAUER drove an undercover van to the crime scene. Once at the crime scene SCHIFFBAUER stated the injured officers were already in the ambulances. Different Detectives and Officers were putting up crime scene tape to secure the crime scene.

SCHIFFBAUER spoke to most of the narcotic's team 1 members to check on their well being. SCHIFFBAUER also helped secure the gun belts of the officers that were involved in the shooting.

Identification Technician ROBIN ANDERSON twisted her knee in a hole in the front yard of 933 Neal street, Atlanta, Georgia. SCHIFFBAUER stood by with ANDERSON until an ambulance was able to pick ANDERSON up and transport her to a hospital.

SCHIFFBAUER was then ordered by Lieutenant STACIE GIBBS to watch a prisoner FABIAN SHEATS. SHEATS was carried over to SCHIFFBAUER'S van and placed in the back of the van. SHEATS legs and hands were cuffed. SCHIFFBAUER was told not to speak to SHEATS. SCHIFFBAUER did not speak to SHEATS, nor did SHEATS attempt to speak to SCHIFFBAUER. SCHIFFBAUER watched SHEATS for approximately 3 hours before he was allowed to call a transport unit to take SHEATS to jail.

Once SHEATS had left the crime scene, Sargent SPARWATH told SCHIFFBAUER and Detective GRIFFIN to search the house with K-9 officer CARSON. SCHIFFBAUER was advised to search for drugs in the house. The K-9 unit started from the front door of the residence and walked through the house. SCHIFFBAUER and GRIFFIN would only search the areas the K-9 dog would alert on. The dog began to alert once they had enter the basement of the house. The basement was accessed through a doorway in the kitchen. The dog alerted toward the ceiling of the basement. SCHIFFBAUER and GRIFFIN began to search the duct work in the basement but, were unable to find any contraband.

The dog alerted again near the back door of the basement. SCHIFFBAUER and GRIFFIN noticed three small clear bags of marijuana lying on the floor near the back door. SCHIFFBAUER collected the three bags of marijuana and later placed the bags into evidence. The identification technicians photographed and filmed the recovered marijuana. GRIFFIN also climbed up toward the ceiling near the back door and looked for contraband, because the dog kept alerting toward the ceiling.

SCHIFFBAUER advised there was one or two 2X10 or 2X12 boards wedged long ways between the door and the wall in the basement. The boards would have to be removed in order to open the door. SCHIFFBAUER removed the boards from the door during the search of the basement. SCHIFFBAUER left the residence through the basement door and did not have to break any locks in the process.

SCHIFFBAUER has seen a few members of Team 1 since the shooting, however, SCHIFFBAUER has not discussed the case with any of the members of Team 1.

DEIRDRE ORANGE, Black female, Date of birth [redacted], Home address [redacted], Cell phone number [redacted], was located and interviewed. After being advised of the official identity of the interviewing agent and the nature of the investigation, she advised as follows:

ORANGE is employed by the FULTON COUNTY MARSHAL'S OFFICE and has attained the rank of a Corporal. She works at the FULTON COUNTY COURTHOUSE and has been so employed for the past three years.

In approximately April or May of 2006, ORANGE was working at the courthouse when she met a black male named ALEX WHITE. WHITE advised her that a sheriff had been to his house with some papers and he (WHITE) was now looking for the Sheriff's Department to straighten out his affairs. ORANGE told WHITE where he needed to go and he left. Later that same afternoon, she saw WHITE still in the building and they talked briefly.

Subsequent to this date, ORANGE was working at a part-time job at the UNIVERSITY HOMES complex. Someone drove by in a white car and beeped at her. ORANGE waved at the vehicle and the driver got out and approached her. The driver turned out to be WHITE. He asked her if she remembered him. He reminded her that she had helped him at the courthouse. She then recalled who he was and they talked. She realized that they had a mutual friend in common. After this date, ORANGE and WHITE formed a casual friendship.

ORANGE has never dated WHITE and has never met him for lunch, dinner or drinks. She is older than him and they talk on the phone occasionally. WHITE has never gone to the courthouse to visit with ORANGE while she has been on duty.

ORANGE was not aware if WHITE was employed or not. She had no idea that he was an ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) informant until she heard as much from the news.

On Tuesday, November 21, 2006, at approximately 7:00pm, ORANGE was at work at her part-time job and did not have her phone turned on. She later realized that WHITE had called her, so she called him back. He asked her if she had heard anything about some Atlanta police officers having just been shot. She told him yes, that three officers had been shot while serving a warrant. WHITE then tried to tell her that they (the police) were trying to put him in it. She told him that if he was involved in the shooting incident, then she did not want to know about it. She hung up on him and he tried to call her back. WHITE told ORANGE that he was at his mother's house. ORANGE did not want to hear any details about WHITE'S knowledge of or involvement in the police shooting incident.

Approximately one week later, which was on or about November 29, 2006, ORANGE was watching the news and saw WHITE'S picture on tv pertaining to the APD shooting incident. It was at this time that she realized WHITE was an APD informant. She called WHITE a couple of times and finally spoke to him. She told him she saw his picture on tv and she asked him why he allowed his face to be on tv. He said, "At least if they kill me, I die knowing I was telling the truth."

WHITE told ORANGE that after the shooting incident, some APD Internal Affairs officers came by to pick him up. They wanted him to look at some pictures. He rode around with them for a bit and then jumped out of their car and called 911. He told ORANGE that for some reason, the police department could not locate the 911 call he placed that evening.

WHITE kept trying to tell ORANGE about how the police were trying to involve him in the shooting incident, but she did not want to hear about it. They thereafter had a regular conversation and WHITE talked about going out to a strip club later that night.

ORANGE advised that this is the last time she has spoken to WHITE.

MAURICE GEURIN, JR., born [redacted], social security number [redacted], of [redacted] an Atlanta Police Department (APD) Investigator assigned to Narcotics Team 1, was interviewed at the Atlanta office of the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION. GEURIN was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and the purpose of the interview. Also present was his attorney DON ENGLISH, and ASSISTANT UNITED STATES ATTORNEY JON-PETER KELLY. GEURIN signed a consent form regarding a statement he provided to APD regarding the execution of a search warrant on November 21, 2006 at 933 Neal Street, Atlanta, Georgia. GEURIN voluntarily agreed to the interview and provided the following information:

GEURIN has been an APD officer since 1999, and has been with the narcotics division for approximately three years. Prior to being assigned to Team 1, GEURIN was on Team 3 and on the Weed and Seed team. GEURIN has been on Team 1 for one-and-a-half to two years, under the supervision of SERGEANT STALLINGS.

Team 1 consists of nine members. The team members work in smaller groups within the team, and although GEURIN usually works with GARY SMITH, he also frequently works with NATHAN LUCAS and HOLLY BUCHANAN. GEURIN, GARY SMITH, LUCAS and sometimes BUCHANAN, do their work covertly and use confidential informants to make drug buys. GREGG JUNNIER, J.R. SMITH (J.R.), BRUCE TESLER, and occasionally CARY BOND, work together. JUNNIER, J.R., and TESLER drive around in a patrol car and try to catch drug deals as they occur. Team 1's entire team comes together when they execute search warrants.

On November 21, 2006, GEURIN began work at about 9:00 a.m., when he took his informant to court. At about 12:00 or 12:30 p.m. GEURIN dropped off the informant at his house and headed back to work. GEURIN arrived at his office at about 1:30 p.m. and began working on a fugitive warrant. GEURIN then called STALLINGS, who was coming back from the shooting range along with LUCAS and BOND. STALLINGS told GEURIN that they needed to work on a kilo deal that LUCAS had in progress.

Sometime later, STALLINGS told GEURIN that the team was going to execute a search warrant, and that they would meet at the fire station for the briefing. GEURIN rode with LUCAS in an undercover car to the briefing, and they were the last ones to arrive. Already present was the team, the K-9 handlers, and an unknown male, who was sitting in the team van and was in custody. GEURIN later learned that the male's name was FABIAN SHEATS.

GEURIN was talking with his mother on his cellular phone when J.R. began the briefing. During the briefing, it became clear to GEURIN that SHEATS was the source of the information regarding the search location. SHEATS could hear the entire briefing, since he was sitting in the open van, and was right next to him and GARY SMITH. At the end of the briefing, GEURIN asked SHEATS if there were any guns in the house. SHEATS replied that there were no guns, since the drug dealer,"SAM," was a convicted felon. GARY SMITH asked SHEATS if there were any dogs at the house, and SHEATS again replied no.

The team left the briefing area divided up in three different vehicles: the team van, a marked patrol car, and the K-9 truck. GEURIN rode to the house in the van, while TESLER and STALLINGS rode in the patrol car, and OFFICER SPERL (phonetic) rode in the K-9 truck. GEURIN does not recall which of the three vehicles the other team members were in.

The assignments for the entry were as follows: GEURIN was the breacher with the ram, GARY SMITH had the shield, J.R. SMITH had the halogen tool, JUNNIER had the first cover position, and BOND was the second cover. LUCAS was in charge of making any arrests, and STALLINGS and TESLER were assigned to cover the rear perimeter of the house.

When they arrived at the house, J.R. and JUNNIER started to work on opening the burglar door with the halogen tool. J.R. and JUNNIER tried to pry the door at a couple of different spots, but could not get enough leverage to open it. After they called GEURIN up to seat the halogen with the ram, J.R. was able to pop the burglar door open.

With the burglar door out of the way, JUNNIER checked the handle to the front door and found that it was locked. GEURIN then hit the door once or twice with the ram to breach it, and the door opened approximately halfway. Immediately upon opening, GEURIN saw a person dressed in blue standing in the opening. GEURIN could not determine if the person was a male or a female, only that the person was holding a black gun.

GEURIN immediately dropped the ram and looked for cover. As GEURIN ran down the porch, he heard gun shots. GEURIN jumped over the railing of the wheelchair ramp, continued around the ramp, and found cover against the wall of the porch.

GEURIN saw GARY SMITH enter the doorway using his shield for cover, and heard GARY SMITH call out "person down." The team then assumed their entry positions, entered the house, and cleared it.

After they finished clearing the house, GEURIN heard someone say that the house had a basement that needed to be cleared. By this time, the APD REDDOG team was at the scene, and GEURIN went around the outside of the house with REDDOG to the back door. GEURIN does not specifically remember who breached the back burglar door or the back door, but does remember that both doors had to be breached. Upon entering the back room of the basement, they discovered another door that led to the rest of the basement. GEURIN thinks that he may have used the ram to breach either the outside (back) door or the inside basement door.

Sometime during the clearing of the house and basement, GEURIN learned that his teammates had been shot. GARY SMITH, JUNNIER, and BOND were taken by an ambulance to the hospital, where GEURIN later visited them.

GEURIN advised that he has used ALEX WHITE as an informant once or twice. On one of those occasions, GEURIN and GARY SMITH drove behind WHITE's car as he led them to a house. When WHITE parked in front of the house, GEURIN and GARY SMITH continued driving in order to avoid suspicion. By the time GEURIN turned the car around to observe the buy, WHITE was already walking back to his car with drugs. WHITE claimed that he made a drug buy at the house, but GEURIN was skeptical. GEURIN's skepticism was reinforced when he sent a female informant to the same house at a later time. The informant was unable to get anyone to answer the door, and told GEURIN that she thought the house was abandoned.

GEURIN further advised that he rarely uses the computer at the FULTON COUNTY JAIL to type out his search warrant affidavits and applications. Instead, he, GARY SMITH, LUCAS, and BUCHANAN usually go back to their office to write their warrants. In contrast, J.R., TESLER, JUNNIER, and BOND usually type out their warrant applications on the computer at the jail. GEURIN advised that using the jail computer for warrant applications is necessary when a search warrant is needed immediately.

HOLLY CHRISTINE BUCHANAN, Atlanta Police Department (APD)Narcotics Investigator assigned to Team 1, was interviewed at the Atlanta Police Department located at 675 Ponce De Leon Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia, 30308. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agent and the nature of the interview, BUCHANAN provided the following information:

BUCHANAN, started working with the Atlanta Police Department in approximately May 1996. BUCHANAN was recently assigned as an investigator on the narcotics unit Team 1. BUCHANAN started on the narcotics unit at the same time as investigator J.R. SMITH.

BUCHANAN has met APD informant ALEX WHITE on several occasions. BUCHANAN has used WHITE as an informant on approximately 7 occasions to buy drugs. BUCHANAN would follow WHITE to the drug location and watch him make his drug buys. WHITE was a reliable informant that was great at noticing details and identifying subjects in photo displays.

BUCHANAN had witnessed WHITE driving different vehicles on different occasions. WHITE has driven a white Grand Prix, a green four door vehicle, and a red car. BUCHANAN has dropped WHITE off near to the drug house and allowed him to walk to the house.

BUCHANAN stated that she would sometimes use test kits to test drugs. BUCHANAN would place all drugs into evidence. BUCHANAN stated when drugs test negative or "fake" she would have the drugs destroyed.

VIGNOLA was transferred to the Narcotics Team 1 in approximately 1998. While working on Team 1 he would occasionally use an informant named ALEX WHITE. VIGNOLA used WHITE approximately 10 times to make drug buys. WHITE appeared to be a reliable informant.

VIGNOLA stated that Team 1 investigator BOND and investigator JUNNIER used WHITE the most. VIGNOLA also stated that at one point WHITE had gotten into some trouble and the investigators quit using WHITE for a short period of time.

VIGNOLA recalls WHITE driving a white caprice and on some occasions the investigators would pick up WHITE at different locations. VIGNOLA never picked WHITE up from his house.

PAUL ANDREW SPARWATH, Sergeant, Atlanta Police Department (APD), 675 Ponce de Leon Avenue, N.E., Atlanta, Georgia 30308, was interviewed at his place of employment. Also present was his attorney, DON ENGLISH. After being advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the interview, he provided the following information:

SPARWATH has been employed by APD for almost 18 years, and has served as the sergeant of Narcotics Team 2 for approximately the past five years.

Sometime between 6:30 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. on November 21, 2006, while SPARWATH and the rest of Team 2 were getting ready to go out to APD Zone 3, they heard an officer call for help on their radio. Once it was determined that the shooting involved Narcotics Team 1, SPARWATH and his team drove immediately to the scene of the shooting.

Team 2 arrived near the scene approximately 20 minutes after they heard the original radio transmission. Due to the ambulances and the number of other vehicles crowding Neal Street, Team 2 parked their two vans on Ashby Street, and walked to Neal Street.

SPARWATH and Team 2 members immediately checked on the Team 1 officers who were being treated at the ambulances. After offering the injured officers words of encouragement, SPARWATH checked the status of the incident with either Lieutenant STACIE GIBBS or DEPUTY CHIEF ANDRESEN, who then told him to take charge of the injured officers' weapons. SPARWATH used his team to obtain the weapons and to secure them in one of their vans.

SPARWATH learned that a male who was in the custody of Team 1 was in one of the Team 1 vans. SPARWATH assigned a couple of his officers to take over custody of the man, and the rest of Team 2 went to the hospital. On the way to the hospital, SPARWATH dropped off the weapons at City Hall East, and bought pizza for the families of the injured officers who were at the hospital. At the hospital, SPARWATH was told by GIBBS to go back to the search location, and that Team 2 would be conducting the search as specified by Team 1's warrant.

By the time Team 2 returned to Neal Street, it may have been the early morning of November 22. In addition to the media, among those who were at the scene were personnel from the Homicide, Red Dog, ID, and K-9 units. Investigator WILSON from Homicide took SPARWATH into the house to provide an overview, and then turned the search over to SPARWATH and his team.

SPARWATH directed a K-9 team to go through the house and into the basement. During the search, while SPARWATH was on the front porch, Officer SCHIFFBAUER approached SPARWATH and told him he found three bags of marijuana. SCHIFFBAUER then brought SPARWATH to the basement to point out the location of the drugs. Although SPARWATH did not initially see the marijuana on the basement floor, he was able to spot them when he used his flashlight. SPARWATH advised that the bags of marijuana were photographed where they were, and were then processed by the ID squad. SPARWATH thinks that possibly SCHIFFBAUER or Officer GRIFFEN may have bagged the marijuana for submission to APD's Property Section.

The evidence taken by SPARWATH's team and turned in to Property were the bags of marijuana, calendars with pictures of KATHRYN JOHNSON's family members, and an envelope with a male's name as the addressee.

HOWARD was interviewed at his Attorney's office located at the HEALEY BUILDING, suite 240-G BALCONY, 57 Forsyth Street N.W., Atlanta, Georgia, 30303. Also present during the meeting was Attorney RANDALL STROZIER, Attorney BRADLEY MCMILLIAN and paralegal JAMES MERCIER. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview, HOWARD provided the following information.

HOWARD stated on approximately March 2, 2005, he and his girlfriend TIA CARTER had returned home from work. At this time HOWARD and CARTER had been living together at [redacted], for approximately six months. HOWARD'S three children also lived at this residence. HOWARD stated that same night he heard a loud noise in his house. When HOWARD checked on the noise he was confronted by Sargent STALLINGS and other police officers in his hallway. The police officers ordered HOWARD to the ground and placed him in handcuffs. The police officers along with Sgt. STALLINGS then took HOWARD downstairs to his living room and began to question HOWARD and search the house.

HOWARD was repeatedly asked where he hid his money and "KILOS". HOWARD advised the officers that he had a .45 caliber handgun which was located in the cabinet in the kitchen and an AK-47 in his bedroom closet. HOWARD also advised the officers that he did not have any felonies on his record and the guns were registered in his name.

HOWARD advised the search took approximately four to five hours and the officers ran a K-9 unit through his house during the search. HOWARD remained in handcuffs through the entire search. The officers told HOWARD that they knew he had money and he needed to tell them where it was located.

HOWARD was let out of his handcuffs when the officers were leaving the house. STALLINGS asked for HOWARD to help the police by giving him names of other people that had been dealing drugs in his neighborhood. HOWARD stated that he did not deal with drug dealers and he would be unable to assist the police officers.

HOWARD reported this incident to the Atlanta Police Department's internal affairs unit. The internal affairs unit investigated this incident and explained to HOWARD that there was not enough information to sustain HOWARD'S allegations of police misconduct. HOWARD eventually received his weapons and miscellaneous paper work back from the Atlanta Police Department.

Arthur Bruce Tesler was interviewed on January 4, 2007, at the United States Attorneys Office in Atlanta. His attorney, Bill McKinney was present for the interview. Also present were Assistant United States Attorneys Yonette Buchanan and Jon Peter Kelly, Department of Justice Attorney Page Fitzgerald, Fulton County Assistant District Attorney Shukura Ingram and Fulton County District Attorney's Investigator Jeff Holmes. Pursuant to a proffer agreement, Tesler provided the following information:

In the afternoon of November 21, 2006, the day of the shooting of Kathryn Johnston, Tesler, J. R. Smith (JR) and Greg Junnier were conducting a routine patrol in a marked patrol car in the vicinity of Simpson and Lanier Streets in Atlanta. At approximately 2:00 p.m., they pulled into a parking lot at 350 Lanier St. Tesler and Junnier checked on some vacant apartments at that address and JR went into the wood line near the apartments. Tesler and Junnier didn't find anything, but JR came back to the patrol car with a paper bag. JR said that he had found marijuana. Tesler didn't see the marijuana or the packaging. JR put what he had found in the trunk of the patrol car.

A K-9 unit was called to 350 Lanier St. Officer George Ramsey and his dog Max responded to the call. Ramsey would have been told by someone that marijuana was found in the woods. Ramsey did a search, but didn't find any more drugs. At about 3:00 p.m., Tesler, Junnier and JR departed 350 Lanier St. in their patrol car.

At approximately 3:30 p.m., JR received a telephone call from his informant, [redacted]. [redacted] told him that a guy wearing a yellow or gold jacket was outside of a store at 1143 Simpson St. selling marijuana. Probably about ten minutes later, Tesler, Junnier and JR arrived at 1143 Simpson St. They recognized the individual that had been described by [redacted] to be Fabian Sheats who they had previously arrested. Sheats saw the marked patrol car and he put something like a plastic bag in his mouth. Tesler exited the vehicle and confronted Sheats. While he was confronting Sheats, Junnier also got out of the vehicle. Shortly thereafter, Junnier got back in the driver's seat and Tesler and Sheats got in the back seat of the vehicle. Tesler is not sure where JR was at that entire time.

Junnier pulled the patrol car into the parking lot by 1143 Simpson. JR walked around the white house at 1141 Simpson where there is a trail in the wood line. JR was back there for a few minutes. JR came back to the patrol car later with a scale and 20 to 30 empty blue bags that looked like packaging for marijuana. Tesler decided to take the case against Sheats and he started to do some paperwork. This was the third time that Tesler's team had arrested Sheats and it was Tesler's turn to take the case.

Either JR or Junnier called for a K-9 unit to respond to 1143 Simpson. They had been at 1143 Simpson about five or ten minutes before the call was made for the K-9 unit. It took the K-9 unit about five minutes to get there after the call was made. Connie Carson with her dog Chad and Rich Sperl with his dog both responded to 1143 Simpson. Sperl did not get his dog out of his vehicle. Sperl and JR went with Carson and Chad back around 1141 Simpson to do a search. A couple minutes later, JR indicated that there were more drugs found. Tesler started to write a green ticket, that is, a citation, and he advised Sheats of his Miranda Rights.

At some point while at 1143 Simpson, JR showed Tesler a plastic bag containing approximately 45 blue bags of marijuana and a clear plastic bag containing approximately 10 yellow bags of marijuana and two $15 to $25 bags of crack cocaine. Tesler is not sure what color the bags were that the crack was in.

Sheats knows Tesler, Junnier and JR and he "knows the deal." Junnier was encouraging Sheats to help himself. Sheats volunteered that some of the drugs found at 1143 Simpson belonged to him and he said that he knew of another house where more "weight" could be found. He said that he'd take the officers to that house.

Tesler is not sure which officer put the drugs found at 1143 Simpson in the trunk of the patrol car and when they were put there. The drugs may have been in the visor of the patrol car for a while. The scale and the packaging that did not contain marijuana that was found at 1143 Simpson was never turned into the Atlanta Police Department (APD) evidence room.

The story that Tesler told the FBI in his first interview about field testing the crack cocaine found at 1143 Simpson was false. Tesler told that lie to cover for JR.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

After the shooting at 933 Neal St., Tesler went to the trunk of the patrol car that he had been riding in that day. Sheats was going to be locked up and Tesler had some paperwork to do before Sheats was taken to jail. Tesler began to write the ticket for Sheats, but he was having trouble doing it because of his mental state as a result of the shooting. Officer P.J. Roberson was near Tesler when he was at the trunk. Roberson saw that Tesler was having trouble and he offered to help him with the paperwork. Tesler gave Roberson the paperwork and Tesler looked inside the trunk for the drugs from 1143 Simpson. Tesler started to tell Roberson that the charges on Sheats would be possession of marijuana and crack cocaine with intent to distribute when Tesler realized that the crack from 1143 Simpson was not with the marijuana found at that address. Tesler told Roberson that there was no cocaine and therefore the charges would be just possession of marijuana with intent to distribute.

Tesler talked to JR on the Wednesday morning after the shooting in the narcotics office at APD. This was before they gave statements to APD Homicide. JR told Tesler what the story was going to be regarding Alex making a buy at 933 Neal St. and he told Tesler to get familiar with the warrant. Tesler read the warrant at that point. JR told Tesler that the story was going to be that Alex bought two hits of crack at 933 Neal St. He further stated that those two hits of crack would be the two hits from Fabian Sheats.

About five minutes after driving away from 1143 Simpson on the day of the shooting, Tesler, Junnier, JR and Sheats pulled into a parking lot in the 800 block of Simpson St. The three officers wanted to make it clear to Sheats that either he would take them to the house where the "weight" was or they would call a paddy wagon. The officers and Sheats were parked in the parking lot for about five minutes. Sheats told the officers that at about 3:00 p.m. that day, he saw a shoe box containing a kilo of cocaine at a house on Neal St. He described an individual named Sam as being in possession of that kilo. His description of Sam was: black male, heavy set, neatly trimmed beard, 6'0"-6'1" tall. He added that Sam was not from around Neal St.

At some point before the shooting, either while in the parking lot in the 800 block of Simpson or sometime after that, Sheats said that Sam didn't have guns because he was a convicted felon. He also said that there was an older female in the house where Sam was. Tesler didn't know how old that female was. Sheats also said that Sam had surveillance equipment and could monitor cameras from inside the house.

Continuation of FD-302 of Arthur Bruce Tesler , On 1/4/07 , Page 4

Sometime before Tesler, Junnier, JR and Sheats went to the jail for JR to swear out a warrant for 933 Neal St., the officers discussed doing a "knock and talk" at 933 Neal St. They also discussed getting an undercover vehicle from which to do surveillance. However, time was an issue because Sheats was in the patrol car and other members of Narcotics Team #1 were working on a warrant in another part of town.

Sometime before they parked in the lot in the 800 block of Simpson, JR and Junnier got out of the patrol car and had a private conversation. Tesler speculates that they discussed how to get into 933 Neal St. and how to verify Sheats' information. After leaving the parking lot in the 800 block of Simpson, Sheats directed the officers to 933 Neal St. They drove by 933 Neal St. and Sheats pointed out the house located at that address. They then drove down Jett St. and looked at 933 Neal St. from the back. Thereafter, they went back down Neal St. at which time JR asked Sheats if he meant the house with the red awning. Sheats told him that it wasn't that house; it was the house with the green shudders and wheelchair ramp. Junnier then confirmed with Sheats again that Sheats meant the house with the wheelchair ramp.

The next significant event that happened was that Tesler, Junnier, JR and Sheats arrived at the Fulton County Jail. Tesler looked at the clock when they arrived and it was 5:34 p.m. or 5:35 p.m. After JR exited the vehicle to go into the jail to apply for the search warrant for 933 Neal St., Junnier and Tesler made bets on how long it would take JR to get a warrant. Before JR got out of the vehicle, there was a discussion about who was going to do the warrant. JR said that he would do it.

Tesler didn't think there was enough probable cause from Sheats to get a warrant to search 933 Neal St. He suspected that when JR went into the Fulton County Jail to apply for the warrant, he was going to take a shortcut. Tesler didn't know at the time that JR went to apply for the warrant that Alex couldn't do a buy because he didn't have transportation to get there. However, Tesler pretty much knew that Alex hadn't made a buy. Tesler has no recollection of Junnier calling Alex to see if he was available to make a buy, but he would not dispute that Junnier made that call.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

Junnier telephoned Sargent Stallings while they were waiting for JR at the jail to tell Stallings that he needed to get the team together to do a raid at 933 Neal St. Tesler generally recalls Junnier receiving a telephone call while at the jail. Tesler also recalls that either Tesler or Junnier received a telephone call from JR who was inside the jail and who said that the warrant had been signed. Thereafter, JR returned to the vehicle and said that he had a signed warrant. They then proceeded to the fire station at Flowers and Simpson.

The tactical briefing to the rest of the narcotics team occurred at the fire station. JR pretty much read the warrant at the briefing. Tesler absolutely didn't believe that a buy had been done which is what JR briefed. He didn't challenge JR about the buy being done at the briefing because he was low man on the totem pole. There was a history of shortcuts being done in warrants, so it wasn't the first time he had been briefed when he knew something hadn't happened.

After the shooting, Tesler overheard Sargent Stallings ask JR if JR had done an operations plan. JR said that he hadn't, but that he would work on one.

Immediately before the shooting, Tesler covered the back of the house at 933 Neal St. Sargent Stallings was also there. Tesler showed Stallings a wire running up the back of the house. Tesler thought that that wire might be connected to a surveillance system.

After the shooting, Tesler helped clear the basement of 933 Neal St. with Officers Guerin, Sperl and a couple of REDDOG members and maybe also some Zone 1 officers. There were seven or eight officers total.

After he helped clear the basement, he went back toward the front of the house where he met up with JR. JR asked Tesler to walk to the back of the house with him which Tesler did. At the back of the house, JR rolled up his one sleeve and showed Tesler more than one clear baggie of marijuana. JR said, "What do you think," meaning about JR planting drugs in the house. Tesler shook his head no and walked away. Tesler did not observe what JR did next. Tesler had an idea at the time that the marijuana under JR's sleeve was from 350 Lanier. He hadn't seen all the marijuana recovered from that location. Later, Tesler discovered that the two hits of crack recovered from 1143 Simpson were missing from the trunk of the patrol car they had driven on the day of the shooting.

Sometime on the night of the shooting, after the shooting occurred, JR told Tesler that Tesler's name was in the warrant. On the night of the shooting or early the next morning, JR told Tesler that Alex made a buy at 933 Neal St. Tesler understood that that was what the story was going to be. JR said that the two hits of crack described in the warrant were from 1143 Simpson.

Tesler has no trust in the system at the APD. In October 2003, Tesler became aware of a bad officer, Officer English, in APD Zone 2 which is where Tesler worked at the time. Tesler observed English use excessive force and it was rumored that English had stolen some money. Tesler made a complaint to his supervisor. He told his supervisor that English was a liability. Tesler had to go to APD's Office of Professional Standards (OPS) to report English. Tesler's partner at the time was officer Baumeljay (phonetic) and Baumeljay was corroborating Tesler's information about English. Baumeljay was told by OPS that Tesler and Baumeljay were only coming forward because they had ulterior motives. Tesler got a reputation as a rat in the department. He took a lot of "crap" from his co-workers. OPS let English resign. Thereafter, Tesler was re-assigned to the airport. English got a job at the airport as a baggage handler.

Tesler was scared after the shooting that if he told the truth, no one was going to believe him over the more senior members of his team. Sergeant Stallings and Junnier got on the narcotics team at the same time and are close friends. After the shooting, Tesler went into a defensive mode.

After leaving the hospital on the night of the shooting, Tesler and JR went to the APD evidence room to turn in evidence. Tesler turned in the marijuana that he charged Sheats with. Tesler observed JR turn in the two hits of crack. At about 3:30 a.m. that same night, Officer Schiffbauer called Tesler on Tesler's cellphone and told him that marijuana had been found in the house at 933 Neal St.

Between midnight and 1:00 a.m. on the night of the shooting, Tesler spoke to Junnier at the hospital. If there was any discussion about a cover-up at that time, it was vague because Junnier's family was around. Tesler doesn't recall any such discussion.

On the day after the shooting, at JR's cubicle in the narcotics office on the seventh floor of City Hall East, JR told Tesler the details of the false story about Alex making a buy at 933 Neal St. Those are the details that Tesler gave to the FBI at his first interview with the FBI. JR wrote a diagram showing Tesler where they met Alex and where they and Alex parked their vehicles. At Junnier's suggestion, Tesler called Alex maybe twice before Tesler made a statement to APD Homicide. Alex was completely on board with saying that he did a buy at 933 Neal St. and with the cover-up.

After he gave his statement to APD Homicide, Tesler told Sergeant Stallings that the drugs from 350 Lanier hadn't been turned into the APD evidence room. Thereafter, JR and Tesler went to their patrol car, which had been part of the crime scene, and retrieved marijuana from the trunk. That marijuana was in a bag which in turn contained six green plastic bags of marijuana and many more clear plastic bags, maybe fifteen, of marijuana. JR told Tesler that the clear bags couldn't be turned in to the APD evidence room because he planted some of those bags at 933 Neal St. Tesler observed that the clear plastic bags matched the bags that he had seen hidden up JR's sleeve. JR told him to turn in only the green plastic bags. Thereafter, Tesler and JR went to a side street off of Glen Iris, not far from City Hall East. Both Tesler and JR got out of the vehicle they were in and they discarded the remaining clear bags of marijuana down a sewer.

The next day, Thanksgiving Day, Tesler noticed on his cellphone a missed call from Alex at about 10:30 p.m. the night before. Alex left no message.

On Friday, November 24, 2006, Tesler was working an extra job at the Buckhead Bread Company when he received a telephone call from Junnier. Junnier said that Alex was "freaking out." He warned Tesler that Alex might be recording telephone conversations. After that call, Tesler received a call from Alex. Alex asked Tesler why JR did this to him and why JR put him up to this. Tesler only said something like, "Alex, you got to do what you got to do." Next, Tesler received a call from Lt. Gibbs. She told Tesler that he was not to talk to Alex anymore. She said that Alex was acting strange.

On the following Monday, Tesler was called into OPS to turn in his gun and badge. Later that day, he met JR and Junnier at the parking lot of the Kroger on Howell Mill Road. They all agreed that they needed to stand by the false story regarding Alex making the buy. It was just a brief meeting. Junnier called the meeting.

A couple of days later, Tesler met JR and Junnier at My Cousin Vinnie's restaurant near Town Center Mall off Barrett Parkway. Tesler doesn't recall who called the meeting. Junnier said that he invited Cary Bond and he might have said that he also invited Sergeant Stallings, but they were not coming. Tesler didn't bring anything to this meeting. Junnier brought a pad of paper. JR showed up with a folder containing documents. He had notes, a script of what the false story was going to be, a copy of a buy report, other reports and other documents. There was more general discussion about how everyone needed to stand by the story.

The day after Tesler had his interview with the FBI on Thursday, December 7, 2006, he met with JR in the parking lot at Filini's on Ponce De Leon. They met in JR's personal car. JR gave Tesler a copy of the detailed script that he had written. It had a minute by minute description of Alex making a buy at 933 Neal St. Tesler read the script and then he threw it away. He later told JR to watch his time line when he was interviewed by the FBI. JR's script was five to ten pages of real dark typing.

Tesler knows that JR and Junnier got their own phone records at some point. They suggested to Tesler that he get his.

At the meeting at My Cousin Vinnie's, JR asked Tesler to sign a payment voucher to pay Alex for making a buy at 933 Neal St. Tesler refused because Tesler was at home with his family when JR paid Alex on Thanksgiving Day and because it just wasn't right.

Tesler met with Junnier before and after Tesler was interviewed the first time by the FBI. They met both times at Wade Green Road, Exit 273 off Interstate 75, at a parking lot in a shopping center. The discussion was pretty much that they had to stick with the false story about Alex making a buy. Junnier asked him how the interview with the FBI went.

Tesler also had a meeting with JR and Junnier at Target off of Moreland Ave, south of Little Five Points in Atlanta. The three of them drove the route that fit with the false story they created about Alex making a buy at 933 Neal St.

Jason R. Smith (JR) was interviewed on January 9 and 10, 2007, at the United States Attorneys Office in Atlanta. JR's attorneys, Ed Garland and John Garland, were present for the interview. Also present were Department of Justice Attorney Page Fitzgerald, Assistant United States Attorneys Yonette Buchanan and Jon Peter Kelly, Fulton County Assistant District Attorney Shukura Ingram and Fulton County District Attorney Investigator Tracey Brumfield. Pursuant to a proffer agreement, JR provided the following information:

(The interview was begun by reviewing the second paragraph of JR's affidavit for the search warrant for 933 Neal St. which JR obtained on November 21, 2006, and asking JR if each sentence were true or false) The first sentence of the second paragraph which reads, "Between the dates of November 20, 2006 and November 21, 2006 in the City of Atlanta, Fulton County, Investigator A. Tesler and I directed a confidential and reliable informant (CRI) to 933 Neal St NW, Atlanta, GA 30318, to enter the home and purchase from the resident cocaine," is not true. The second sentence which reads, "The CRI has proven to be reliable in the past and has provided information leading to the seizure of cocaine and numerous narcotics arrest [sic]" is true. The third sentence is "The CRI was searched and given $50.00 (city funds) to purchase the crack cocaine from the resident at 933 Neal St NW, Atlanta GA 30318." JR knows now that the informant was never searched or given $50 and he knew at the time that he wrote the affidavit that the informant was never searched or given $50. The fourth sentence in the affidavit which reads, "As the CRI approached the home and went to the front door the CRI was met by 'Sam,'" is not truthful information.

When JR's narcotics teammate Gregg Junnier does buys with Alex, who was the informant described by JR in the affidavit for 933 Neal St., Junnier just tells Alex to go make the buy and use his own money. There is no pat down or surveillance of the buy. JR has first hand knowledge of more than ten occasions when Junnier had Alex do buys without pat downs or surveillance. JR's teammates Cary Bond and Bruce Tesler do their buys with Alex the same way that Junnier does. JR does his buys with Alex the same way.

JR has never received any formal training on writing warrants. He was taught to do shortcuts by his teammates. Even members of Atlanta Police Department (APD) Narcotics Team #2 know that Alex does buys on his own. JR has done buys with another informant, known as [redacted], the right way. There is a lot of pressure by the APD for narcotics officers to get warrants.

When JR went into the Fulton County Jail to do an electronic search warrant application for a search at 933 Neal St., he pulled up an old warrant which had been saved on the system and he began to cut and paste. He had some information from informant Fabian Sheats, but he did not know how much or what kind of dope to say was purchased at 933 Neal St. He telephoned Junnier, who was waiting with Tesler and Sheats in the parking lot of the jail, and Junnier told him to use two $25 hits of crack and the same "78", that is, the same description of "Sam" that JR heard Sheats give earlier.

JR did not know everything that Sheats had told Junnier, because when Junnier was debriefing Sheats in the patrol car at 1143 Simpson, JR was outside the patrol car looking for dope. JR was only in the car with Sheats for about ten minutes before going into the jail to apply for the warrant.

When JR was at the jail applying for the search warrant, he did not know whether or not Alex made the buy at 933 Neal St. He suspected that the buy might not have been made. If Junnier would have said to him that with 100% certainty Alex did not make a buy at 933 Neal St., it is hard for JR to say what he would have done. He would never go into someone's house without thinking that he had probable cause. When he applied for the search warrant for 933 Neal St., he was not thinking, at the time, about the fact that he was lying to a magistrate. By that point in his career, it was routine for him to lie to a magistrate when applying for warrants.

The fifth sentence in the second paragraph of the affidavit for the search warrant for 933 Neal St. reads, "'Sam' and the CRI spoke briefly at the front porch." At the time that he was writing and then swearing to the information in the fifth sentence and all the sentences in the second paragraph after the fifth sentence, JR did not know that the information was true. Therefore, his swearing that all that information was true was a lie. In JR's mind at the time he was swearing to the affidavit, there was some possibility that some of the information in the affidavit was true. It is completely 100% untrue that he witnessed a buy at 933 Neal St. as was described in the affidavit.

Continuation of FD-302 of Jason R. Smith, On 1/9/07-1/10/07 Page 3

Anybody who used Alex to make buys probably did their affidavits just like JR did the affidavit for 933 Neal St. JR believes that Alex has been truthful with the FBI.

JR either heard Sheats say that "Sam" had surveillance cameras or he heard Junnier say that Sheats said that "Sam" had surveillance cameras. Based on all the information from Sheats, JR believed that there was dope at 933 Neal St.

At the briefing at the fire station before the raid at 933 Neal St., JR told his teammates that a drug buy had been done at 933 Neal St. Prior to the briefing, JR had started a written tactical plan, but he didn't finish it. After the raid, Sergeant Stallings told JR to finish the written tactical plan.

When JR submitted a voucher for paying Alex for a drug buy at 933 Neal St., JR knew that the buy had not happened. On the day after the shooting at 933 Neal St., Junnier repeatedly told JR to pay Alex. Junnier told JR to go to a particular Publix grocery store and meet Officer Burchfield from Narcotics Team #2 (Burchfield had an off-duty job at Publix) and pay Alex. JR did in fact meet with Burchfield that day at Publix, but Alex never showed up. The next day, which was Thanksgiving, JR picked up Alex by the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary and drove him to City Hall East. JR filled out a voucher and Alex signed it. Next, JR drove Alex to a store owned by an individual named Eddie. Junnier worked a second job for Eddie. Alex was paid $100 by Eddie that day.

The padding of vouchers is a common practice by the APD narcotics teams. JR has done it. Junnier has done it. Sergeant Stallings has said, "Cushion your buy," meaning pad your voucher. The practice works like this: an informant buys $20 worth of crack; the informant's handling officer might falsely tell the APD that the informant bought $100 worth of crack; the officer keeps $80; the officer then might use the $80 to tint windows in his city vehicle, buy gatorade for the narcotics team or throw a cookout for the team. This padding of vouchers works because it is hard for anybody to look at a particular amount of crack and put a definite street value on it. Some officers, including JR, get informants to sign a stack of blank vouchers in advance of doing buys which facilitates the padding. JR had a blank voucher that had been signed by Alex in his desk at City Hall East and after the shooting at 933 Neal St., he shredded it. JR has falsely witnessed vouchers and has asked others to falsely witness them.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

Sergeant Stallings knew that JR's statement to APD Homicide was not truthful. After the shooting at 933 Neal St. and while still at the scene, JR told Stallings at the back of the house that he (JR) didn't see the buy at 933 Neal St. Stallings said something like, "Yeah, I know." Much later, Stallings telephoned JR and told him that he should go to the FBI, make a statement and tell the truth. JR thought that Stallings told him to tell the truth because Stallings thought that the telephones might be bugged. Someone at APD Homicide told JR that the FBI agents who were going to interview him were good guys and that everything was going to be all right. JR thought it was possible that the FBI agents were in on the cover-up.

JR didn't know that Alex didn't have a car to use on the day of the shooting at 933 Neal St.

Not long after the shooting, JR made a written statement about the incident for Workman's Compensation purposes. The statement was vague. JR can't recall the details of that statement. JR gave that statement to Stallings.

Another report had to be done about the execution of the warrant at 933 Neal St. The report was done and APD Sergeant Guerrucci told JR that more detail about the drug buy at 933 Neal St. was needed. Lt. Gibbs typed the revised version of that report and JR signed it.

The very first report that JR made about the incident at 933 Neal St. was an oral report to Lt. Gibbs and Major Davis at Grady Hospital immediately after the shooting. JR told them that Junnier and Tesler watched the drug buy at 933 Neal St. from their patrol car. Junnier later told JR that he had to change that story to say that JR and Tesler watched the buy occur. In the parking lot at Grady Hospital, JR told Stallings that he (JR) needed to change his story from Junnier and Tesler in the patrol car to JR and Tesler in Alex' car. Stallings told him to pick one story and stick with it.

At 350 Lanier St on the day of the shooting, JR went to the back of that address and found two different sandwich bags containing marijuana. One bag contained forty to fifty blue $10 bags and the other contained different color $10 bags, possibly

After the shooting, JR took some marijuana from the trunk of his patrol car and took it into 933 Neal St. for the purpose of planting it. He did that because immediately after the shooting, Junnier told JR that dope needs to be in the house. JR interpreted that to mean that he needed to plant dope in the house. He went to the trunk of the patrol car he had been riding in that day and removed some blue bags containing marijuana that he had seized from 350 Lanier St. earlier that day. He took the marijuana into the kitchen of the house and put it in a cabinet next to the refrigerator. As you are looking at the refrigerator, the cabinet is the cabinet farthest to the right. He put the marijuana in or behind a bowl and closed the cabinet door. This all happened about five or ten minutes after the shooting.

At the time that he placed the marijuana in the kitchen cabinet, the house was full of people. After placing the marijuana in the cabinet, JR walked into the living room. He looked around and realized that an old lady lived in that house and nobody had been selling drugs there. Consequently, he went back into the kitchen and removed the marijuana from the cabinet. He put the marijuana in to his lower leg pocket and he returned it to the trunk of the patrol car.

At the time that he removed the marijuana from the kitchen cabinet to return it to the patrol car, APD Officers Lucas and Chambers were still in the house. Before JR left the kitchen, he took out his leatherman tool and popped the lock on the kitchen door which leads down to the basement. He asked if the basement had been cleared. Lucas said that he didn't know if it had been cleared and he suggested that they clear it. Lucas went down into the basement, but JR did not. JR was never in the basement of the house.

[At this point in the interview, JR was told that the FBI could prove that he was in the basement. Thereafter, it was agreed that JR would have some time to speak with his lawyers privately. After JR's private conversation with his lawyers, the interview continued.]

JR admitted to the interviewing agents that he lied about never being in the basement. In fact, he planted drugs in the basement. When he was at 350 Lanier St. on the day of the shooting, JR actually found three sandwich bags of marijuana, not two like he advised earlier in the interview. K-9 Officer Ramsey knows there were three bags. The third bag contained ten clear bags of marijuana. After the shooting, Junnier did tell JR that there's got to be dope in the house. JR did go to the trunk of the patrol car and he removed the sandwich bag containing the ten clear bags of marijuana.

Lucas and Chambers cleared the basement of the house. JR then went down the stairs from the kitchen into the basement. Tesler stepped in through the back door of the basement. That door had been breached by that point in time. JR took the baggies out of his pocket and wiped them off. He flicked them on to the floor, so as to not get fingerprints on the bags. Tesler watched him do that. Thereafter, Sergeant Stallings came by the basement door, in the backyard, and talked about a wire going up the back of the house and how it might be for a surveillance system.

Next, JR walked from the door of the basement, by way of the driveway of the house, to the black police van parked in front of the house. Sheats was in the black van and JR confronted him. APD Detective Keith Johnson was present. Sheats told JR that he hit the wrong house.

Previously in this interview, JR minimized his state of mind at the time he was handed the two hits of crack which were to be from a buy at 933 Neal St. JR was almost sure that the two hits of crack came from Sheats. It looked like the crack recovered from 1143 Simpson. JR really does not recall who handed him that crack.

At the time that he briefed his team before the raid at 933 Neal St., JR knew that Alex had not done a buy at that address. He had a "strong suspicion" that the crack came from 1143 Simpson. Nobody ever said anything about a drug buy being done at 933 Neal St. after JR got back into the patrol car after swearing out the warrant at the Fulton County Jail. That is another reason that he knew the buy hadn't happen.

On the day after the shooting, JR and Tesler took the rest of the marijuana that was in the third bag from 350 Lanier St. and threw it down a sewer near City Hall East. They had to do that because they didn't want anyone matching the marijuana planted by JR at 933 Neal St. to marijuana left in that third bag from 350 Lanier St. Throwing that marijuana down the sewer was completely JR's idea. It was actually Tesler who physically threw the marijuana in the sewer. The sewer that it was discarded in is located behind Masquerade, a nightclub about one block south of City Hall East.

JR deleted two photos from his cellphone that is currently in the possession of the FBI. One of the photos was of the two hits of crack that were submitted to the APD evidence room as being purchased from 933 Neal St.

[At this point, the interview was suspended until the next morning. When the interview was continued on 1/10/07, all the same people were present with the exception of Attorney Ed Garland.]

JR recently did a tour of duty with the Army in Iraq. At first he was stationed at a prison and then he was given a mission at the Port of Um Kasar (phonetic). He was a lieutenant commanding 32 soldiers. While at the Port of Um Kasar, his unit came under enemy fire. He was supposed to know what to do, but he got confused. He started running around trying to act like he knew what to do, but he didn't know what to do. When he was counted on to act under pressure, he failed.

When the gunfire stopped on the night of the shooting at 933 Neal St., JR was again confused like he had been in Iraq. When the shooting stopped, Officer Gary Smith said, "Let's go" to JR, but JR didn't want to go into the house. He did go into the house and he saw Ms. Johnston lying on the floor. He looked around the house and could tell that it was not a drug house. JR was thinking to himself, "Oh shit, oh shit." He saw that Junnier and Officer

Cary Bond were bleeding. JR's face was bleeding. Junnier, who was inside the house at the time, said to him that there needs to be dope in this house. He also told JR to calm down.

It is hard for JR to say what happened right after that. He does remember that he walked out of the house and saw other police officers and he didn't want to face them. He went back in the house and then back outside. He saw some of his friends who are assigned to REDDOG. He then walked to the patrol car he had been riding in that day and removed a bag of marijuana from the trunk. He went back in the house. Sergeant Stallings told him to handcuff Ms. Johnston. Lucas was "freaking out" saying something like, "Nothing like this has ever happened."

Next, JR planted marijuana in the kitchen. He then pried open the lock on the door leading from the kitchen to the basement. Lucas asked if the basement had been cleared, or maybe JR asked that question. It seemed to JR that he was receiving a lot of calls on his cellphone. At some point, Junnier telephoned him and told him to call Alex. JR understood that the purpose of calling Alex was to create a false story. [JR advised at this point that he is not sure that his recollections are in the correct chronological order.]

JR was at the top of the basement stairs when Chambers and Lucas went down into the basement to search it. JR took the marijuana that he had planted in the kitchen cabinet back out of the cabinet and walked downstairs into the basement. He may have then telephoned Tesler and told him to meet him around the back of the house. JR is 100% certain that he went down into the basement using the stairs from the kitchen. He walked through the basement and to the back door. He dropped the marijuana on to the floor. He is 100% certain that Tesler was there when he put the marijuana on the floor. Tesler would have seen him do that.

[JR interjects at this point in the interview that he is "done with this crap," meaning he is done lying.]

After JR planted the marijuana in the basement, he stepped out the back door into the backyard. Tesler was still with him and Stallings met them in the backyard.

While in the backyard, JR telephoned Alex and described to Alex the back of the house including the back door and the wires running up the back of the house. This is the point when it was established that Alex would say that he bought drugs at the back of the house at 933 Neal St. Actually, JR believes that he talked to Alex twice on the telephone from the back of the house. Both calls concerned putting a false story together.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

JR knew that Alex had not done a buy at 933 Neal St. When he telephoned Alex from the backyard, he filled Alex in on what had just happened. He told Alex that the story was going to be: that Alex made a buy at 933 Neal St., that he walked down the driveway to the back of the house, that he saw wires going up the back of the house, that he saw a barbeque grill, that he met with a guy named Sam and JR gave Alex Sam's description and that he bought the drugs at the back door. Alex told JR that he had a dark green Chevy Lumina. In JR's opinion, there was no twisting of Alex's arm for him to go along with the cover-up. Alex was plenty willing to adopt the story.

JR may have talked to Alex about creating a lie about doing a buy at 933 Neal St. in front of Stallings. JR is not sure. He is, however, 100% sure that he told Stallings that he didn't see a buy occur at 933 Neal St.

Next, JR went to the front of the house by walking back up the driveway. He doesn't recall if Tesler or Stallings went with him. He went to the van in which Sheats was sitting. He asked Sheats, "What the fuck happened?" Sheats told him that he hit the wrong house. JR felt as if Sheats had set up him and his teammates. Even though JR and his teammates had been after Sheats for some time, he didn't think that they and Sheats had a "hate-hate" relationship.

The next thing that JR can remember is that he went to the trunk of his patrol car and got something out. At about the same time, one of the crime scene investigators fell in a hole and broke her leg. JR next went to the back of the crime scene van and got his photo taken. Sergeant Sparwath of Narcotics Team #2 told him that he would give him a ride. Thereafter, Sparwath drove Tesler and JR to Grady Hospital.

JR heard that there may have been a lot of stolen property found in the basement of 933 Neal St.

On the way to Grady Hospital with Sparwath, JR had the two hits of crack from 1143 Simpson and the rest of the third bag of marijuana from 350 Lanier St. with him. At Grady, he looked for Junnier. He found Junnier with Junnier's family. JR also checked on Cary Bond who was with his wife. He then checked on Gary Smith and he got emotional when he was with Smith. Gary Smith doesn't know anything about the warrant for 933 Neal St. or the cover-up.

Officer Holly Buchanan of APD Narcotics Team #1 had a warrant on Simpson Road up from the Tasty Dog restaurant. The target of that warrant was a drug dealer who goes by the name "Hollywood." When Buchanan executed her warranted, there was an eighty-year-old lady in the house with a gun. The gun turned out to be fake. There was no dope in the house. Buchanan said that she made the buy from the house using an informant named [redacted] or [redacted]. Two hundred feet from the house where that warrant was executed a gun and some dope belonging to Hollywood were found.

After the shooting at 933 Neal St., Lieutenant Gibbs asked JR what happened. JR told her that Junnier and Tesler watched the drug buy that Alex made at 933 Neal St. JR does not know why he told her something that conflicted with what the search warrant affidavit said. Lt. Gibbs was asking him because, according to her, she wanted to know what to tell the news media about the shooting. JR told Lt. Gibbs that there was a buy. APD Major Davis was present when JR made that statement to Gibbs.

Thereafter, JR checked on Bond and Gary Smith again. He then went to talk to Junnier. Junnier's dad was present and JR shook his hand. (Sergeant Stallings, Junnier, Bond and Tesler went on a fishing trip on one occasion to Junnier's dad's condo in Florida.) Junnier gave JR Junnier's wife's cellphone number, because Junnier's cellphone battery was dead. JR went out into the hallway and telephoned Junnier. JR told Junnier what he had told Lt. Gibbs. Junnier told JR that that story was not going to work. He told JR that he needed to tell Lt. Gibbs that JR and Tesler were in Alex's car and watched Alex do a buy at 933 Neal St.

JR told Tesler what Junnier had said about changing the story. JR also told Sergeant Stallings in the parking lot of Grady that Junnier wanted JR and Tesler to be in Alex's car during the buy in the cover-up story. Stallings told JR to pick one story and stick with it. Lt. Gibbs drove JR and Tesler to City Hall East after Grady Hospital and dropped them off. JR couldn't bring himself to change his story with Gibbs.

After Gibbs dropped JR and Tesler off at City Hall East, JR turned in his weapon and made a discharge statement. Officer

Nathan Lucas and Detective A.C. Smith were there at the time. JR believes that he then went to the APD property room to get a different weapon to carry. There was a white female sergeant working morning watch at the property room. JR thinks that he turned in the two hits of crack to the property room at the same time. He believes that he went home after that.

On his way home, JR telephoned Tesler a couple of times. He asked Tesler if Tesler had Officer Schiffbauer's telephone number so that JR could find out if marijuana had been found at the house yet. Tesler and Schiffbauer were police academy classmates. When he talked to Tesler he said to him, "what the fuck are we going to do?" Tesler telephoned Schiffbauer to see if the drugs were found.

JR also talked to Alex on his way home. Alex wanted to get paid. He really didn't want to go over the concocted story. JR thinks that Alex is "a pretty honest guy." Tesler called JR later and told him that the planted marijuana had been found.

On Wednesday, November 22, 2006, JR went into his office. Junnier and Tesler and everybody else from his team were there. Sergeant Stallings told JR that he (JR) and Tesler needed to sit down and "work this out." JR then met with Tesler at JR's cubicle and they got their fictitious story together. Thereafter, Junnier joined the discussion. Off and on that whole morning, they worked to perfect the cover-up.

JR talked to APD's psychological services representative. He also talked to his PBA representative, Summer Benton, and his PBA attorney, Don English, at the narcotics office at City Hall East. He told them the fabricated story. Next, he went to APD Homicide and gave a statement. It was a question and answer, not a narrative. Tesler was "out of control nervous" about making a statement to Homicide.

Everything that Narcotics Team #2 found in the search of 933 Neal St., except the planted marijuana, was left on JR's desk at City Hall East. He did a new property sheet. JR told Tesler that he was going to the property room and Tesler said that he would take the drugs from 350 Lanier to APD Property. Before they went to Property, JR and Tesler went out to the parking lot and got in JR's truck. They drove to behind the Masquerade Club near City Hall East and disposed of the remainder of the third bag of marijuana from 350 Lanier. Tesler got out of the truck and placed that marijuana into the sewer. They then drove back to City Hall East and went to the property room. At the property room, Tesler turned in the remaining drugs recovered from 350 Lanier and JR turned in the other property from 933 Neal St. JR went back to the sixth floor of City Hall East. After that, he didn't want to go home because Junnier and Tesler were like a security blanket for him.

JR heard the story about Alex jumping out of APD Officer Duncan's car and running into the Varsity restaurant. Later that night, Junnier told JR that Alex had called Junnier. Junnier told JR that JR needed to get with Alex and pay him. JR then called Alex and told him that he had money for a buy at 933 Neal St. JR and Alex agreed to meet at the Publix grocery store where APD Officer Burchfield had a second job. JR went to Publix and met Burchfield, but Alex never showed up. Burchfield and Junnier are good friends. Burchfield has used Alex a lot.

After JR left Publix and was on his way home, Alex called him. Alex said that he couldn't meet at Publix, but he really needed the money. JR told Alex that he would meet him on Thanksgiving. [At this point in the interview, JR advised that the more he thought about it, he may not have talked to Alex on the night of the shooting.]

On Thanksgiving, which was Thursday, November 23, 2006, JR talked to Alex on the telephone. Alex asked JR to pick him up near the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary. JR picked up Alex and drove him to City Hall East. He wanted Alex to look at a photo line-up which had been compiled to try to identify Sam, the individual identified by Sheats as dealing drugs from 933 Neal St. JR doesn't know why he was thinking about that because he knew that Alex had not done a buy from Sam at 933 Neal St. Also, while in his truck at City Hall East with Alex, he filled out a voucher and paid Alex $30. Alex complained about the amount of money. While inside City Hall East, JR could not find anyone from the fugitive unit and he was never able to show Alex the photo line-up.

After leaving City Hall East, JR drove Alex to Donald Lee Hollowell Parkway to show him the car wash where they supposedly met before doing the buy at 933 Neal St. At about the same time, Alex told JR that Junnier was going to give Alex $100. JR telephoned Junnier to find out about that and Junnier told JR to take Alex to Eddie's store to get the $100. JR then drove Alex to Eddie's store. On the way, they went past Neal St. so Alex could see 933 Neal St. When they arrived at Eddie's store, Alex went in by himself. Later, JR dropped Alex off near Six Flags.

On Monday, November 27, 2006, Lt. Gibbs telephoned JR and told him that they needed to work on the incident report that JR had previously done. JR had turned in the original incident report to Sergeant Stalling and Officer Guerrucci. While JR was on his way to meet with Lt. Gibbs, Junnier called him and said that Alex was on the TV news saying that he never did a buy at 933 Neal St. Later, JR turned his badge and gun into APD OPS. Also, on the same day, Tesler told JR that Junnier wanted to meet at the Kroger on Howell Mill Road. JR, Tesler and Junnier met at that Kroger and Junnier talked about Alex coming forward and he went over the fictitious story which they had agreed to tell. Junnier was also "slamming" Alex. Junnier said to be careful talking on the telephone. After the meeting, JR went back to City Hall East and wrote another incident report. He then took it to APD Major Davis. She made JR add more information about the buy at 933 Neal St. and then she OK'd it. JR went home from there.

Sometime between Monday, November 27, 2006, and Saturday, December 2, 2006, Junnier called JR and called a meeting at My Cousin Vinnie's pizza restaurant near Town Center Mall. When JR, Junnier and Tesler met at the restaurant, Junnier had with him a typed statement of events which occurred on the day of the shooting. JR asked Junnier for a copy, but Junnier wouldn't give him one. Junnier said that if the FBI did a search warrant at JR's house, they might find the statement. JR brought a folder to that meeting which contained a buy report, the search warrant for 933 Neal St., an informant payment voucher, an incident report and his own telephone records. He didn't have a written statement at that meeting. He typed his statement a couple of days later. JR doesn't recall Tesler bringing anything to that meeting. The only thing that Junnier had was Junnier's statement. The three of them went over the details of the fictitious story they were going to tell as part of their cover-up. JR pulled out an informant voucher for the payment that he made to Alex on Thanksgiving for a buy at 933 Neal St. and asked Tesler to sign it as a witness. Tesler refused. Junnier also said that Tesler shouldn't sign it because it was Thanksgiving and Tesler wasn't present when JR paid Alex.

Sometime before Saturday, December 2, 2006, Junnier called a meeting at the parking lot of My Cousin Vinnie's. The gist of the conversation at that meeting was that Junnier asked JR and Tesler to cover for him regarding his warrant for a search at a

Rhodesia Road address. Junnier also said that he was going to talk to people who were close to the FBI investigation. He said that he knew that the focus of the investigation was on JR. Junnier further said that he would call Tesler and JR later and would tell them in code how the investigation was going. Junnier said that if he called and told them that his daughter's basketball game was good that would mean that the investigation was going well for them. Junnier went on to tell JR and Tesler what they should tell the FBI when interviewed and Junnier told them a detailed story about Alex doing a buy at the Rhodesia Road address. JR believes that Junnier learned about lying in warrants from APD Officer Doug Little.

Junnier established a code for JR, Tesler and himself to use when talking on the telephone. For example, if one of them said to meet at a certain time, then the actual meeting time would be two hours before the time given. If Junnier said to meet at his house, that would mean to meet at the Best Buy parking lot.

On Saturday, December 2, 2006, JR received a telephone call from Sergeant Stallings. Stallings asked him to call APD Officer Bobby Render to set up a meeting with the FBI. JR telephoned Bobby Render and talked to him. After that, he telephoned PBA attorney Don English. After that call, he called Junnier and told him about talking to Render regarding being interviewed by the FBI.

On the day that JR, Junnier and Tesler met together with Attorney Don English, Junnier used his code for talking on the telephone and he set a meeting at the Best Buy just south of Little Five Points in Atlanta for before the meeting with English. At that point in time, despite the fact that Junnier and Tesler were his good buddies, JR didn't know if he could trust them. At the meeting, Junnier suggested that they drive the route that they had driven on the day of the shooting and they all again went over the fictitious story they were going to tell. Junnier did a narrative the entire time that they were driving the route. After that meeting, JR followed Junnier and Tesler to meet with English. After the meeting with English, the three officers spoke briefly in a parking lot. At that time, JR told Tesler that he wanted to give Tesler a written version of the facts that he (JR) wrote.

A couple of days after the meeting with English, Junnier called JR and told him that he had money for JR from an extra job. Junnier said that he'd give that money to Tesler and JR could get it from him. Thereafter, JR met Tesler at Fellini's on Ponce De Leon in Atlanta. That meeting occurred after Tesler was interviewed by the FBI the first time. Tesler told JR how his interview with the FBI went. JR gave Tesler JR's written version of the facts from the day of the shooting. JR asked Tesler to let JR know if there were any conflicts between what Tesler had told the FBI and what JR had written. JR also collected the extra job money from Tesler that Junnier had called JR about earlier.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

After about the time that JR met with Tesler at Fellini's, Junnier quit talking to JR. On the day before JR first met with the FBI, there was a benefit held for the officers involved at 933 Neal St. at an Irish Pub off of 14th St. and Peachtree in Atlanta. Junnier did not show up. Junnier was the only one from the entire narcotics team that wasn't there. Tesler was a little standoffish toward JR at the benefit.

When JR telephoned Junnier from the Fulton County Jail where he was using the electronic warrant system to apply for the warrant at 933 Neal St., Junnier was very vague when telling JR about the two $25 hits of crack and Sam's description.

It is an element of the truth about what happened on the day of the shooting at 933 Neal St. that JR wasn't good at writing warrants. He did not know how to articulate the information that he had been given by Sheats. Moreover, JR admits that he is lazy when it comes to putting all the probable cause available in an affidavit. These are reasons why he did the warrant for 933 Neal St. the way he did it.

MICHELLE Last Name Unknown (LNU) was also present. After being advised of the identities of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview, ROZIER provided the following information:

ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) Sergeant PETE STALLINGS was [redacted] main APD contact. APD Investigator GARY SMITH told [redacted] not to work with some investigators because they did not do their paperwork correctly. [redacted] believes APD Investigators HOLLY BUCHANAN and SMITH and are straight.

For approximately two years, [redacted] was told by APD officers that they could not sign him up as a confidential informant (CI) because he had a pending criminal case. [redacted] purchased drugs approximately 100 times for APD. [redacted] and his son, [redacted], purchased drugs together approximately 30 times for APD, but [redacted] purchased drugs alone one time.

STACEY FAVORS was dating SHAYLA PITTS. FAVORS would not sell drugs to APD Investigator MAURICE GEURIN, acting in an undercover capacity. At some point, PITTS called STALLINGS and told him FAVORS had a handgun. STALLINGS told [redacted] to ride with FAVORS. STALLINGS said he was at home but would write his report as if he saw the entire incident. [redacted] talked to STALLINGS approximately two weeks ago, and STALLINGS told him not to bring up FAVORS when interviewed.

After the death of KATHRYN JOHNSTON, STALLINGS wanted [redacted] to say he bought drugs from 933 Neal Street, Atlanta, Georgia, but SMITH did not want [redacted] involved. SMITH told him not to get involved, not to lie, and that some officers messed up that day.

APD Investigator J.R. SMITH told [redacted] that he had a personal bank account, in which he kept APD funds.

SCOTT ALLEN KIDDER, date of birth, [redacted], Social Security Account Number [redacted], was interviewed at his residence. KIDDER resides at [redacted]

After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview, KIDDER provided the following information.

KIDDER stated he moved into 1056 Dill avenue, Atlanta, Georgia in approximately 2004. KIDDER originally moved into this duplex with a friend. However, soon after KIDDER moved into the duplex, his friend moved out. KIDDER stated that he lived at this residence by himself for approximately 1 ½ years. The landlords name was NAGI FRIDAY.

KIDDER stated two black males rented the duplex beside his at 1058 Dill avenue. One of the individuals went by the nickname "NUK". The other individual was possibly named DARREN SMITH. KIDDER believes the individuals used the space as a recording studio. KIDDER advised that people would come and go during the day but, does not believe anyone spent the night at the house.

KIDDER advised that he spoke to the individuals on several occasions because he would receive their mail and they would receive KIDDER'S. KIDDER stated that the mail would often be addressed incorrectly, showing KIDDER'S address as 1058 and SMITH'S as 1056.

KIDDER recalls on one occasion going to work at 3:00 pm and returning home at 9:00pm. KIDDER entered his house through the front door and soon noticed his back door had been knocked in. KIDDER described his back door as the frame being destroyed and he noticed a round circle on the outside of the door as if a ram had hit the door. KIDDER stated the door was not functional and he had to use boards and nails to secure his back door or someone could have easily push in his back door. KIDDER looked through his house to make sure nothing had been stolen. KIDDER advised that he had about $2,000.00 worth of "DJ" equipment in his house which had not been stolen. KIDDER stated that after he examined the house he did KIDDER walked next door and noticed a note attached to the front door and back door of 1058 stating that the Atlanta Police Department had seized items and had arrested individuals out of 1058. KIDDER advised that 1058's door had also been knocked in.

KIDDER advised that he did not have any documents attached to his door or in his house explaining why his door had been knocked in. KIDDER assumed the police had made a mistake and knocked in his door at 1056 instead of 1058. KIDDER did not report the incident because he did not want to get involved or associate his name with the individuals next door. KIDDER assumed that someone from the Atlanta Police Department would eventually return and interview him about the individuals next door. KIDDER was never interviewed about this incident.

KIDDER stated that he never saw his next door neighbors return to the house. KIDDER also got permission from FRIDAY to board up 1058 so homeless people would not move into the vacant house.

On June 15, 2007, Special Agents Matthew J. Ross and Brian Davis of the Federal Bureau of Investigation delivered a letter to Investigator HOLLY BUCHANAN, Atlanta Police Department, from the United States Attorney's Office, Northern District of Georgia. The purpose of the letter was to advise BUCHANAN that she is currently a subject of a federal criminal investigation. After advising BUCHANAN of the identity of the interviewing Agents and delivering the letter, BUCHANAN was told several times by the interviewing Agents that it would be best if she retained an attorney before speaking. Despite these admonitions, BUCHANAN voluntarily provided the following information:

BUCHANAN was advised by the interviewing Agents that the truthfulness of many of her search warrant affidavits were being called into question. BUCHANAN stated that she did not intend to do anything wrong.

BUCHANAN insisted on being told which search warrants were being questioned. Special Agent Ross then wrote the following four addresses as examples on a plain sheet of notebook paper:

[redacted]; and

Special Agent Ross then folded the paper in half and handed it to BUCHANAN. After looking at the addresses on the paper, BUCHANAN responded with one word, "Fuck."

After being advised of the nature of the interview and the identity of the interviewing Agent, ALI provided the following information.

ALI stated they had used an Atlanta Police Officer to provide security for their store for a few years. ALI stated he began using security after he met an Atlanta Police Officer JUNNIER. JUNNIER told ALI that he could provide a Police Officer for 3 hours one night a week for $60.00.

The first Atlanta Police Officer to work at the store was K-9 officer MILLER. According to ALI, MILLER did a bad job and he asked JUNNIER to provide another officer.

ALI stated that JUNNIER then introduced him to a second Atlanta Police Officer CRAWFORD. CRAWFORD began to work one night a week from 8:00pm through 11:00pm. ALI stated that CRAWFORD would work a second night at an apartment complex behind the store. On the second night CRAWFORD would come by the store two or three times during the night for approximately 10 - 15 minutes at a time.

ALI stated that a second police officer has began to work in CRAWFORD'S place. The second police officer drives a motorcycle to work on some occasions. The second police officer only works one night a week at the store.

CEPIN knew ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) Officer GREGG JUNNIER as a narcotics officer who patrolled around the M.A. SUPERMARKET. In approximately mid-2005, CEPIN began paying JUNNIER $100 a week to provide extra security at his store. As per their arrangement, CEPIN could call JUNNIER when he needed help with criminal activity at his store, and JUNNIER would either come by quickly, or arrange for other officers to come by.

At first, JUNNIER came by and collected $150 each week, $50 of which JUNNIER would then give to APD Officer JUHLS. Later at some point, JUNNIER would collect $100 a week for himself, and JUHLS would also come by to collect $50.

After JUNNIER was suspended as a result of the shooting death of KATHRYN JOHNSTON, JUHLS came by to tell CEPIN that he (JUHLS) would continue to keep an eye on the store, but that CEPIN did not have to pay him. CEPIN has not paid any APD officer since JUNNIER's suspension, nor have any officers come by to ask for payment.

MARIO JULIO JAQUEZ, of [redacted] cellular telephone number [redacted] was interviewed at his residence. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview, he provided the following information:

JAQUEZ owns a convenience store located at 617 Magnolia Street in southwest Atlanta. During the summer of 2006, JAQUEZ also managed a convenience store located at 320 Simpson Road. JAQUEZ was interested in buying the Simpson Road store, and knew ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) Officer GREGG JUNNIER through the security JUNNIER provided at another store on Simpson Road called THE GREEN STORE. The owners there, JUAN Last Name Unknown (LNU) and JOSE LNU, also known as "Manita," told JUNNIER that JAQUEZ might be interested in hiring him.

At the time, JAQUEZ was having trouble with people loitering around both the Magnolia Street store and the Simpson Road store. One day, JUNNIER approached JAQUEZ at the Magnolia Street store, and told him that he could patrol the area, keep the crowds under control, and clean up the crime.

JUNNIER did what he promised, and cleaned up around JAQUEZ's stores. JUNNIER patrolled the area and searched people who were loitering outside. JUNNIER would also enter the store pretending not to know JAQUEZ, and would look around before buying a soda. By doing this, JUNNIER would discourage people from hanging around inside JAQUEZ's store.

JAQUEZ paid JUNNIER $150 a week for his services, and JUNNIER usually came by on Fridays to pick up the money. JUNNIER sometimes came alone, and sometimes came accompanied by APD Officers J.R. SMITH and BRUCE TESLER. JUNNIER explained to JAQUEZ that he kept $50, and gave SMITH and TESLER $50 each.

Occasionally, JUNNIER came to pick up the money with another officer whose name JAQUEZ did not know, but who he described as a short and skinny white male, with short blond hair. JAQUEZ also recalled paying J.R. SMITH on a few occasions.

Shortly after the Neal Street shooting occurred, JUNNIER stopped showing up. Neither JUNNIER, SMITH, or TESLER called JAQUEZ to explain why they were no longer providing security, and it was not until later that JAQUEZ figured out that they were involved in the shooting at Neal Street.

After JUNNIER stopped showing up, the other officer came by and told JAQUEZ that he was taking JUNNIER's place. While the officer said that the security services would continue, he never indicated that JUNNIER was suspended or was in trouble. JAQUEZ continued paying the officer $150 each week, but thought the money was still going to JUNNIER, SMITH and TESLER.

JAQUEZ thinks he paid the officer at least twice, but no more than four times. JAQUEZ did not see the officer patrol around the area, nor did he see him come inside the store to deter loiterers.

In early 2007, JAQUEZ concluded that the reason JUNNIER stopped coming was that he was suspended. Since the security around the stores began deteriorating, JAQUEZ told the other officer that his services were no longer needed, and stopped paying.

JASON R. SMITH was interviewed at the PAULDING COUNTY DETENTION CENTER, 25 Industrial Way North, Dallas, Georgia 30132 pursuant to a guilty plea and a plea agreement. SMITH was aware of the identities of the interviewing Agents and was advised of the statements set forth on a consent to search form (FD-26). SMITH was provided with a copy of this form, which he read, acknowledged that he understood its contents, and signed the form, authorizing a complete search of the cellular telephone he surrendered to the FBI in December 2006. He thereafter provided the following information:

Sometime in 2004, shortly after SMITH was assigned to the ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) REDDOG team, the team targeted a house located at [redacted] Street as a drug house. During a drive-by of the neighborhood, an unknown male ran to the porch upon seeing the REDDOG vehicle. Officers RAMON RIVERS and FREDDIE WATSON chased the male and tackled him on the porch. After instructing SMITH to guard the restrained male, RIVERS and WATSON entered the house and performed a quick search, but did not find any drugs.

Afterward, RIVERS, who was SMITH's team leader on REDDOG, told SMITH to work toward getting a search warrant for the house. RIVERS told SMITH, who was new to REDDOG and had never written a search warrant affidavit before, that he needed to "pick off" someone who bought drugs there in order to get a warrant.

A few days later, SMITH, RIVERS, and Officer PERCY TOWNS arrested a male with crack in his pocket, approximately one block south of the house. RIVERS told SMITH to write the affidavit as if the male purchased the crack from [redacted]. RIVERS directed SMITH to do this even though there was no indication that he actually purchased drugs from the house. TOWNS was present during this conversation.

The first sentence reads, "On November 05, 2004 around 2130 hours, Investigator G. Junnier and I received information from a confidential source that he/she had observed Contrail Kitchens, A.K.A. Stacy Favors operating a vehicle on Simpson Road between Chappell Road and Ashby Street and believed he was distributing illegal narcotics to people in the area." It is untrue APD Investigator GREGG JUNNIER received the information.

The fourth sentence, which reads, "While checking the area in an unmarked vehicle, Investigator Junnier and I observed the described vehicle travelling on Simpson Road and later pull into the driveway of 1068 Simpson Road and park," includes information that is not true.

The sixth sentence, which reads, "As the vehicle backed out of the driveway, we followed the vehicle at a safe distance for approximately twenty minutes," includes information that is not true.

The eighth sentence, which reads, "As we circled the business and entered the parking lot, we observed the interior light of the vehicle to be on," includes information that is not true.

The tenth sentence, which reads, "As we parked in the parking lot, approximately two car lengths behind Mr. Kitchens, we observed Mr. Kitchens exit the vehicle and place what appeared to be a dark in color handgun in the front of his waist area," includes information that is not true.

The fourteenth and fifteenth sentences, which read, "We then exited the parking lot and requested assistance from Zone Four personnel via cell phone. To avoid being seen by Mr. Kitchens, I spoke to Lieutenant D. Little over the phone and provided him with the name I had on Mr. Kitchens and that we had observed him placing a handgun in his waist area," include information that is not true.

[redacted] was the source of the information about CONTRAIL KITCHENS's (KITCHENS) possession of a handgun. When STALLINGS received the first telephone call from [redacted] STALLINGS was driving home from work. When STALLINGS received the second telephone call, he may have been at his home. STALLINGS called APD Lieutenant DOUG LITTLE to give him the information from [redacted].

On the day after KITCHENS's arrest, STALLINGS interviewed [redacted] and went with him to 779 Ralph David Abernathy Boulevard to get additional details about the incident.

During a telephone call, STALLINGS told JUNNIER that he needed JUNNIER to cover him because he did not want to burn his source, [redacted] STALLINGS may have driven with JUNNIER to the location of the incident but may have only told him the details. STALLINGS does not recall modifying JUNNIER's and his own time cards to reflect that they were on duty at the time of the incident.

STALLINGS does not recall talking to anyone at the FULTON COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY's office about the KITCHENS case. STALLINGS spoke to APD Investigator PETERSON, who wanted the case prosecuted federally, but STALLINGS told him they would get KITCHENS another time. STALLINGS does not recall being subpoenaed to testify in federal court about this incident.

Investigator Holly Buchanan

STALLINGS was shown the paperwork for several search warrants obtained by APD Investigator HOLLY BUCHANAN. He recalled executing search warrants at 1109 Lookout Avenue and 2479 Abner Terrace. STALLINGS specifically remembered 2479 Abner Terrace because the subject had a snake in the apartment, and the search team found crack cocaine under the sofa in that apartment. STALLINGS did not recognize the witness signatures on the Confidential Source Payment Vouchers for 2479 Abner and 350 Lanier. It was common practice for APD officers to sign the witness line on vouchers without having actually witnessed a payment made to a CI. STALLINGS never observed BUCHANAN obtain ALEX WHITE's or any other CI's signature on a blank voucher. JUNNIER did get WHITE to sign blank vouchers for convenience.

STALLINGS recently spoke with BUCHANAN. They spoke about ROZIER, and during the conversation, BUCHANAN said she believes she will return to work after the investigation is over.

DURIE NATHANIEL BAKER, date of birth, [redacted], social security account number [redacted]. BAKER was interviewed at his residence located at [redacted], cellular phone [redacted]. After being advised of the identities of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview, BAKER provided the following information.

BAKER recently moved to [redacted], within the last two weeks. Previously BAKER had lived at 161 Rhodesia Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia, 30315, from approximately February 2006 through March 2007. BAKER stated that on one occasion he was returning home to 161 Rhodesia Avenue, when he noticed a black male standing in his front yard. BAKER stated that his girl friend LATISHA MICHELLE COLBERT and his two children were also with BAKER. The unknown male asked BAKER if they had weed. COLBERT told the unknown male that they did not have weed. The unknown male left BAKER's house. BAKER believes the unknown male may have got into a car but BAKER could not remember.

BAKER stated the Atlanta Police Department (APD) Officers raided his house approximately a couple weeks after the above mentioned incident. BAKER stated he had gone to sleep with COLBERT in their bedroom when he was awakened by someone yelling "let me see your hands." BAKER advised he thought at first he was being robbed and then noticed the people were Police Officers. BAKER stated that he was placed in handcuffs and the Police Officers began to search their house.

The Officers asked BAKER for his name and identification. The Officers found and seized BAKER's marijuana and approximately $1,200.00 cash out of his bedroom. BAKER stated the money was to be used to pay his bills. BAKER advised the marijuana was for his personal use and it was only one bud. BAKER stated he would usually buy approximately $20.00 worth of marijuana every weekend for his personal use. BAKER stated neither he nor anyone else has ever sold drugs out of his residence. BAKER stated the entire search lasted approximately 2 hours.

COLBERT repeatedly asked the Officers to see the search warrant, but the Officers never produced a search warrant nor left a copy with BAKER.

Atlanta Police Department (APD) Officer Cary Bond was interviewed at the Atlanta Office of the FBI on December 6, 2006. Bond's attorney, Rand Csehy, was present with him. Also present were APD Officer Bobby Render and Assistant United States Attorneys Yonette Buchanan and Jon Peter Kelly. Bond signed a consent form waiving his right to not have his written statement to APD Homicide concerning the shooting of Kathryn Johnston on November 21, 2006, used against him. Bond's date of birth is [redacted]3. He has been with the APD for fourteen years and on Narcotics Team #1 for three years. He provided the following information:

On the afternoon of the day of the shooting of Kathryn Johnston, Sargent Stallings told Bond that he would need to help on a warrant that Officer Greg Junnier was working on. Thereafter, Bond went to the fire station at Simpson and Flowers. He rode there in a van with Stallings and Officer Gary Smith. They met Officers Junnier, Bruce Tesler and J. R. Smith (JR) at the fire station. Fabian Sheats was with Junnier, Tesler and JR. Bond recognized Sheats because he locked him up once before around the 1140 block of Simpson Street. Sheats is one of the guys who hangs out near a green store on that block. Bond had spoken to Sheats before and had seen him on Simpson St.

At the fire station, JR briefed the execution of the warrant for the residence at 933 Neal St. JR described the residence in detail. He described burglar bars, a wheel chair ramp and gave the color of the house. It was briefed that there was supposed to be a kilo of cocaine in a shoe box at 933 Neal St. It was further briefed that a buy had been done and Bond cannot recall if it was briefed that crack was the drug purchased. A description of the seller of the drugs was also provided in the brief. There was also a tactical briefing. Gary Smith was going to carry the shield. Junnier was first cover. JR was third cover and had the halogen tool. Bond was fourth cover. Officer Maurice Guerin had the ram. Officer Nathan Lucas was also in the stack. Tesler and Stallings were to cover the back of the house.

At some time in the past, Bond was involved in raiding the house next to 933 Neal St., on the right as you're facing 933 Neal St. There was a father-son drug operation at that house.

When the raid on 933 Neal St. occurred, Officer Sperl, a K-9 officer, was at the scene. It was dark when the raid happened. There was a marked police car at the scene, but its blue lights were not flashing.

When the raid team approached the house at 933 Neal St., it approached it from the right side as you face the house. Gary Smith took a position at the front door. JR began working on the burglar bars with a halogen tool. At least a minute or two went by before JR got the burglar bars opened. Bond recalls someone yelling "Atlanta Police." Bond was not yelling anything at that point. Guerin hit the front door of the house with the ram. Until the front door was opened, Bond couldn't see inside the house. As soon as the door opened, Bond could see a silhouette of a person. He couldn't tell the age of that person. He saw a revolver pointed at Gary Smith. At about the same time, either before the first shot rang out or at the same time, Bond started yelling "Atlanta Police Search Warrant." When the door opened, Bond saw a muzzle flash and heard an eruption of gun shots.

After the first shot was heard, Bond saw Junnier go backwards down the steps of the front porch of the house. Bond was backing down and getting hit by shrapnel. Bond remembers firing one round, but he actually shot two according to APD Homicide. Bond continued down the stairs and around the corner. He saw that Junnier was injured and someone else was injured. Someone said that the shooter was down and then the team re-stacked and entered the house. The team did a security sweep of the house. After the house was cleared, Bond saw a gun by the victim and he moved it to a bed in a nearby bedroom. The victim was still moving at that point in time. About that time, Bond's arm started to throb, so he left the house to find some medical attention. Thereafter, he left the scene to go to the hospital.

After Bond made his statement to homicide, he talked to Junnier on the telephone. Bond is not sure who called who. Junnier told him that they took Fabian by 933 Neal St. and he identified that house as a place that he had, earlier that day, seen cocaine in a shoe box.

Bond has no information, besides what he has heard from the media, that Alex White (Alex) made a buy at 933 Neal St. Alex is a hustler. He is always on the move and in tune with the street. Bond arrested Alex on Martin Luther King on marijuana charges. It was a minor amount of marijuana, but Alex had an outstanding charge in East Point, GA. Alex just started talking (i.e. cooperating). Bond gave Alex his telephone number for after he got his East Point problem resolved.

Alex has had a number of different cars that he has used: a green Altima (which is his girlfriend's car), a Dodge Magnum, a Ford F-150, several Ford Crown Victorias, a bright blue Monte Carlo, and some rental cars. Alex makes money by selling Nike knock-offs and he might do some construction work with his father. Alex's main motivation in life, in Bond's opinion, is money. Lately, Alex has used just one cell phone number, (678)754-1933. Bond is not familiar with a Green Lumina that may have been used by Alex.

Bond has written up drug buys in a way to get gas money for the informant. For example, the informant might buy $45 worth of drugs, but Bond would submit a voucher for $50 and give the informant $5 for gas. The informant would also get an extra $20 for buying marijuana and $30 for buying cocaine. An informant would get a big payment if "weight" is found in a house where the informant made a buy. Bond has had Alex sign blank vouchers.

Bond has not paid Alex for the buy at 933 Neal St. In fact, Bond didn't pay Alex during the week of Thanksgiving for anything. Moreover, Bond doesn't know if anyone else paid him for anything. Bond would only pay Alex based on the police scale ($20 for marijuana, $30 for cocaine, etc.) and for gas money.

On the day that Bond gave his homicide statement, Alex told him in a telephone call that he didn't do the buy at 933 Neal St. Alex further stated that he was told by Junnier and JR that he should falsely say that he did do it. Bond reported that call to Sargent Stallings. Bond has never seen Junnier, JR or Tesler do anything like what Alex alleges and none of them has ever told him about doing any such thing. In addition, Bond is not aware of any effort by any officers to lie or have someone else lie about the facts surrounding the drug buy or the shooting.

Alex has a domestic violence arrest. The arrest was for aggravated stalking. The resolution of that case could affect Alex's reliability, but it is not yet resolved. In approximately September 2005, Alex failed to report to Bond that he was arrested for possession with intent to distribute. By selling marijuana, Alex violated his agreement with Bond and thereafter, he had to build his reliability back up.

IVANT TANNER FIELDS was interviewed at his current residence, [redacted]. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview, FIELDS provided the following information:

FIELDS, a black male, provided his date of birth (DOB) as [redacted]. FIELDS has a home telephone number of [redacted] and a cellular telephone number of [redacted]. FIELDS, an ordained and licensed minister, is the Associate Minister at Greater Travelers Rest Church located in Decatur, Georgia. FIELDS became a born again Christian in 2001.

FIELDS was hired as a Police Officer by the ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) in April, 1990. FIELDS was assigned to Zone 3 as a Patrolman after completing APD's six month officer training program. FIELDS worked in Zone 3 from 1991 thru 1998. In 1995, FIELDS was assigned to a plain clothes unit in Zone 3 called the Field Investigative Team (FIT). In January, 1998 FIELDS was promoted to Detective in the Narcotics Unit. In February, 2003 FIELDS was transferred from the Narcotics Unit to Zone 4. FIELDS worked in Zone 4 for one month before being promoted to Sergeant. In March, 2003 FIELDS transferred back to the FIT in Zone 3. FIELDS retired from the APD in May, 2005.

The Narcotics Unit supervisor when FIELDS joined the unit in January, 1998 was Lieutenant STANLEY SAVAGE. SAVAGE was the Narcotics Unit supervisor from 1998 thru 2000. Lieutenant ERNEST FINLEY replaced SAVAGE in 2000 and remained the Narcotics Unit supervisor thru 2003. FIELDS' direct supervisor in 1998 was Sergeant VICK LAWSON. LAWSON was FIELDS' direct supervisor for 6 - 8 months before being replaced by Sergeant WILBERT STALLINGS.

In 1998 the Narcotics Unit was comprised of four teams. Each team consisted of one Sergeant(direct supervisor) and approximately six Detectives. A Lieutenant was the overall supervisor of the Narcotics Unit. From 1998 thru early 2002 FIELDS worked on a Narcotics team which consisted of Detectives DOUG LITTLE, J.D. STEVENS, JAMES POSTEL, D.R. DUMAS, and FIRST NAME UNKNOWN (FNU) GILMORE. In 1999, STEVENS was transferred to Homicide and was replaced with GREGG JUNNIER. In January, 2002 LITTLE left the unit and was replaced with ALLEN AMBERCROMBIE (phonetic). In February, 2003 FIELDS transferred to Zone 4, POSTEL transferred to the Burglary Unit, DUMAS transferred to the Homicide Unit, AMBERCROMBIE transferred to the Fugitive Unit, and GILMORE transferred to the AUTO THEFT Unit.

The 9 arrest and 2 searches (9 & 2) quota was implemented by Lieutenant FINLEY. Each Narcotics Unit Detective was required to produce a minimum 9 arrest and execute 2 search warrants each month. FINLEY was all about having high numbers. The 9 & 2 quota was not a written policy but it was a communicated and understood policy. The 9 & 2 quota was only the minimum of what FINLEY expected from each Detective. FINLEY stressed that each Detective should produce more than the 9 & 2 minimum. FINLEY had the same high numbers mentality when he was a Sergeant in the Narcotics Unit. Whereas most teams would have 50 arrest and execute 5 -10 search warrants per month, FINLEY'S team would have 100 arrest and execute 13 - 15 search warrants per month. The incentives for each Detective to achieve the 9 & 2 include; good ratings on performance reviews, staying in good standing with FINLEY, not being transferred, and just keeping your job.

FINLEY unsuccessfully tried to get STALLINGS transferred off of the Narcotics Unit because STALLINGS had low arrest and search numbers. FINLEY's efforts to have STALLINGS transferred were rejected by Deputy Chief BROOKS. Another Narcotics Unit Team Sergeant who is close to BROOKS, KERY MILLS, was also instrumental with keeping STALLINGS in the Narcotics Unit.

Investigative Leads in the Narcotics Unit are distributed to the Detectives by the Team Sergeant via a lead sheet. Investigative Leads concerning suspected drug houses are normally received from community citizens. FIELDS primarily used a pick-off and/or a confidential informant (CI) to verify the validity of drugs being sold or stored in a house. A pick-off is when FIELDS would observe an individual leave a suspected drug house and have that individual stopped by a uniformed APD Officer. The uniformed APD Officer then tries to determine of the individual has drugs on their possession and if the drugs were purchased at the suspected drug house. FIELDS also utilized CI's to make drug buys from suspected drug houses. In some instances, FIELDS would accompany the CI on the drug buy or make the drug purchase himself. If FIELDS was not with the CI during the drug buy he would be close enough to observe the CI. FIELDS always searched the CI prior to making a drug buy as well as after the CI made the drug buy. When FIELDS obtained probable cause that drugs were being sold from a residence, FIELDS prepared and presented an affidavit before a municipal court Judge to obtain a search and/or arrest warrant.

In order to request a no knock search warrant, FIELDS had to have knowledge of a weapon being inside the suspected drug house. A no knock search warrant could not be obtained from a Judge strictly based on information that drugs are in a residence.

The APD Narcotics Unit did not have a written manual describing how Detectives should obtain search or arrest warrants. All new Detectives to the Narcotics Unit learned the process of obtaining search and arrest warrants from senior/seasoned Detectives. Newer Detectives also learned investigative techniques from the senior Detectives.

All CI's used by the Narcotics Unit are approved by the supervising Lieutenant. A CI can either be an official CI or an unofficial CI. An official CI is a paid informant that has been documented by APD. The official CI will normally be utilized to make several drug buys over a long period of time. An unofficial CI is an informant that is not paid and is used to make drug buys or provide drug related information on a short term basis. The unofficial CI is normally in the process of negotiating a plea agreement with the District Attorneys Office. The unofficial CI is generally trying to get their charges dropped, probation dropped or receive a lessor charge.

FIELDS and other Narcotics Unit Detectives were provided with $300.00 at any given time for the purchase of drugs. FIELDS paid his CI's $30.00 for the purchase of crack and $20.00 for the purchase of marijuana. The CI's had to sign a receipt for the money given to them to purchase drugs and for the money they were paid. A CI could get more money based on the quantity of drugs found in a house after the execution of a search warrant.

After the Atlanta motorcycle shop shooting in December, 1995, FIELDS and other FIT officers received a one week tactical training class at the Atlanta Police Academy. This is the only advanced training FIELDS has received from APD.

The APD allowed Officers to work extra jobs. In order to receive permission to work an extra job, each Officer had to complete and extra job permit and have it approved by any supervisor. The extra job permit needed to be updated annually. APD Officers were not allowed to work over 20 hours per week on their extra job. APD Officers were also not allowed to work extra jobs at strip clubs. FIELDS never worked any extra jobs.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

Since the 11/21/2006 KATHRYN JOHNSTON shooting, FIELDS has been providing spiritual counseling to STALLINGS. FIELDS talks to STALLINGS on a regular basis. They rarely talk about the shooting incident. FIELDS has been helping STALLINGS strengthen his relationship with Jesus. FIELDS described STALLINGS as a good supervisor and friend.

FIELDS has also provided spiritual counseling to JUNNIER since the 11/21/2006 JOHNSTON shooting. FIELDS does not talk to JUNNIER as frequently as he does STALLINGS. FIELDS only concern is helping JUNNIER with his spiritual walk with Jesus.

FIELDS has never seen any APD Officer plant drugs on an individual, in a residence, in a vehicle or any other location whatsoever.

FIELDS has no knowledge of any APD Officer making false statements on any affidavit in order to obtain a search warrant or arrest warrant.

Major ERNEST N. FINLEY, JR., Zone 3 Commander, Atlanta Police Department, 880 Cherokee Avenue, Atlanta, GA 30315, (404) 624-0674 (office), [redacted] (mobile), was interviewed at his office by Supervisory Special Agent (SSA) Michael McKinney.

FINLEY was advised of the identity of the interviewing agent and the nature of the interview, which was to discuss his tenure as a Lieutenant in the APD's Narcotics Unit. FINLEY was advised that his statements would be voluntary and that he was not being compelled administratively to answer questions. FINLEY thereafter provided the following information.

FINLEY advised that he has been with APD for approximately 21 years. He began his career with the APD on March 20, 1986, after serving four years in the Army and attending Rutgers University. He initially left college without obtaining a degree, in order to take a job with the APD, but he later returned and earned a Bachelors Degree of Science from Rutgers.

FINLEY began his APD career as a patrol officer in Zone 2 (9 months), and then Zone 6 (3 years). He was assigned to Red Dog ("Rid Every Drug Dealer Out of Georgia") (3 years), and Background & Recruitment (5 months). He was promoted to Sergeant in 06/1993 and transferred to Zone 6 (2 years). He was then assigned to Sex Crimes (1 year) and the Youth Squad (8 months).

FINLEY was transferred to Narcotics in 01/1996 where he worked as a Sergeant for 2 years under the command of Major Shannon. In 1998, he was promoted to Lieutenant and transferred to Zone 3. In 2001, he was reassigned as the Lieutenant in Narcotics. In 2003, he was promoted to Major and assigned as the Commander of Zone 3.

As a Sergeant in Narcotics (1996 - 1998), FINLEY developed an understanding of the scope of his job in law enforcement. Under Major Shannon, the Narcotics Unit was "lead sheet driven", and this required FINLEY to get involved with the community. He began attending community meetings and developed a stronger appreciation for the needs of the community. His team was assigned to work a zone and cover leads, and he was responsible for "hot spots" in an assigned area. This resulted in higher numbers of arrests, but the focus was on giving the community what it needed.

FINLEY stated that he applied this same structure when he took over as Lieutenant in Narcotics (2001 - 2003). He reported to Leander Robinson and then John Mathis while assigned as the Narcotics Lieutenant. Both Robinson and Mathis approved of Finley's methods of enforcement.

There were 5-8 investigators in each unit in Narcotics when FINLEY arrived, and a Sergeant served as the supervisor of each team. FINLEY made some changes based upon the strength of each team, focusing on the individual strengths of the people assigned. Some were great at surveillance, or undercover buys, performing administrative duties, or tactical duties such as raid planning and entry. FINLEY tried to put people where they could utilize their strengths, understanding not everyone was capable of producing in the area of arrests and search warrants.

The Narcotics teams were assigned to various zones, wherein FINLEY expected them to address all lead sheets (complaints from the community) and "hot spots". He advised that hot spots are open areas where there are problems, such as liquor stores, grocery stores, and the horseshoe areas within many apartment complexes. The members of Narcotics were expected to make arrests and execute search warrants, but just as important to FINLEY were community oriented issues such as building rapport and earning respect.

FINLEY would attend community meetings to hear the citizen concerns, which would help him identify where the problems were. He would then flood the target area with informants, undercovers, and Vice in order to determine who was selling drugs and to get them to identify their suppliers. This would give the Narcotics Unit a chance at the low and mid-level dealers.

FINLEY held weekly meetings with his Sergeants to find out what they were doing in the area. He could not recall who the Sergeants were when he arrived, but stated his staff consisted of the following Sergeants when he left in 2006: W. Stallings, J. Durant, C. Mills, Stacie Gibbs, G. Sanchez, Paul Sparwath, and Steve Keeble.

For the most part, each team had a zone to cover and FINLEY expected arrests and enforcement in that area. FINLEY expected them to identify problems from lead sheets, and expected them to focus on those within the zones that were in a cluster. They also discussed Unit operations, manpower issues, personnel problems and concerns, and there were often discussions concerning upcoming details.

FINLEY advised that he tried to personally review as many warrants as possible, but that was something the sergeants, judges, and attorneys were already doing. FINLEY advised that as a Sergeant in Narcotics he was very much involved in reviewing the team's paperwork, but he did not regularly review warrants and reports as a Lieutenant.

Regarding informants, FINLEY recalled that the policy required at least two buys and some surveillance or observation before a warrant could be obtained. FINLEY stated that he was very quick to deactivate any source for 6 months or 1 year who had issues. This was often unpopular among the sergeants and investigators who worked for him.

FINLEY advised that he has absolutely no recollection of anyone cutting corners during his tenure as a sergeant and lieutenant in Narcotics, other than that which was dealt with. He stated that he has a reputation for being by-the-book and it is unlikely that anyone would have voluntarily advised him of issues unless they wanted something fixed. Also, FINLEY stated that although he tried to get to know officers who worked under him, he was not their friend. He does not believe officers would have confided in him to discuss something improper, again, unless they were trying to official report it. FINLEY stated that it would not be worth risking his career to cover for anyone who is breaking the rules and/or the law.

FINLEY advised that the APD does not have quotas. Officers assigned to the Narcotics Unit during FINLEY's tenure were evaluated monthly on a performance system, and goals and objectives were set in place to measure their work performance. The system of evaluation was determined by APD, and the expectations were established by FINLEY using the performance averages from the previous year.

The performance evaluation that FINLEY established in Narcotics covered the following three critical job elements:

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

a) Law Enforcement - based on monthly and yearly averages, which includes arrest/search warrants, arrests, detail participation (2 out of 3 indicators must be met).

b) Operational Procedures - paperwork (reports and warrants) turned in on time; completing assigned tasks.

c) Departmental Policies and Procedures - sustained complaints, employee not conforming to written directive(s), failure to keep [superiors] updated.

FINLEY advised that the above evaluation system does not amount to pressure or quotas, but he believes it is the reason for the current statement of "nine and two". FINLEY stated that there has always been a "magic" number for officers to meet in order to stay under the radar, but it has never been a directive from management.

FINLEY stated that it was his goal to ensure that everyone working for him received a rating of "Effective" or higher, even though many officers were not great at making statistics in the form of arrests and warrants. This was accomplished by placing those officers in an assignment within Narcotics wherein they could succeed.

FINLEY stated that no investigators were ever disciplined for not meeting or going under the performance measures; no investigators were ever evaluated poorly based upon FINLEY's measures; no investigators were ever transferred because of their lack of productivity; no investigators were ever told to violate departmental policies, city ordinances, state laws, and or citizens' civil rights in order to make an arrest. FINLEY is not aware of the performance measures utilized by the three or four Narcotics Lieutenants who succeeded him.

Concerning the policy on informants, FINLEY advised that he tasked Gregg Junnier to assist in a re-engineering project to update the Narcotics SOP (standard operating procedure), including updating the policy concerning payments to CIs (informants). He selected Junnier because of his training and experience, and because Junnier was one of the hardest workers in the unit. FINLEY described Junnier as being a very knowledgeable leader who had the respect of everyone within the unit.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

FINLEY advised that the media reports that Junnier was poorly trained are foolish and absolutely ridiculous. FINLEY stated that Junnier worked in the Narcotics Unit for several years, having arrived during FINLEY's tenure as a sergeant. He described Junnier as a hard worker who knew what he was doing back then, which means he was even more experienced at the time of the Neal Street shooting. FINLEY stated he really did not know or work with Investigators J.R. Smith and Bruce Tesler, but there is no doubt Junnier knew what he was doing, and it was his character to speak up if he saw something he did not like.

Concerning a report that FINLEY punished Junnier for taking vacation at a time when the unit needed statistics, FINLEY remembered the following:

It was either Thanksgiving or New Years Eve and there was an upcoming detail where people were needed. Junnier routinely scheduled several weeks of vacation around the holidays, and possibly during the summer. FINLEY may have told Junnier or his Sergeant that he was needed, but it was because the Unit was short on personnel, not because there were quotas. FINLEY advised that he does not remember ever instructing Junnier or anyone else to cancel their vacation. If he wanted someone at work, regardless of the reason, FINLEY, as the Narcotics Commander, would have simply ordered them to report.

FINLEY believes he may have sent Junnier to work the detail because Junnier had never been assigned to work it, and FINLEY did not want to set a bad example by continually sending the less experienced officers. Junnier may have considered this a punishment only because he did not want to go on the assignment.

Regarding extra jobs, FINLEY advised that he recalls having one off-duty job while he was assigned as the Lieutenant in Narcotics. The job was at a liquor store and it had nothing to do with his position in Narcotics. He advised that he is puzzled that Junnier or another officer would state that he coordinated or participated in anyone having extra work, except where he had to approve it.

FINLEY stated that he remembers that Junnier had several extra jobs in apartment complexes, stores, and other places. FINLEY believes the APD was aware of the jobs because all or many were approved. FINLEY does not recall there ever being a conflict between the extra jobs and Junnier's job as a police officer.

FINLEY stated that Sergeant Pete Stallings was Junnier's immediate supervisor, and like Junnier, Stallings had several off-duty jobs. FINLEY then stated that he did not get along with Stallings and actually got into an argument with him on FINLEY's second day as Lieutenant.

According to FINLEY, on FINLEY's second day in Narcotics, Stallings made the claim that his team had a flexible schedule to which FINLEY responded "not any more". FINLEY advised that Stallings was lazy and too laid back to be a Sergeant, and he constantly challenged FINLEY during meetings. FINLEY stated that he distinctly remembers writing a two-page letter recommending Stallings' removal from Narcotics, but the request was denied. FINLEY advised that he would try to find the letter, but doubts he has a copy since it was written several years ago (2001).

FINLEY was shown a copy of an internal memorandum, dated August 5, 2003, entitled "Narcotics Unit Expectations" (copy attached hereto). FINLEY confirmed that he authored the memo and forwarded it to his superiors for approval. However, the changes proposed in the document never went into effect because FINLEY's boss (Major Brooks) rescinded the proposed changes the following day. In addition, FINLEY was promoted to his current position of Major a few days after drafting the memo. FINLEY had no idea he was going to be promoted when he drafted the document.

FINLEY advised that he has no recollection of officers cutting corners during his tenure as Sergeant and Lieutenant in Narcotics. Nor did he recall any instances of officers "padding" vouchers for payments of informants.

FINLEY did not initially understand when asked whether he was aware that Narcotics Investigators may have shared buys during his command. FINLEY was then advised that the concept includes one officer using an informant to conduct drug buys and then turning the work over to another officer. The second officer then writes an Incident Report and/or Affidavit which reads as though the second officer conducted the entire investigation. FINLEY advised that he has never heard of this concept, and he was absolutely unaware that it may have happened during his time in Narcotics.

FINLEY advised that he initially did not understand because he had not heard the term "sharing buys". He stated that you don't need training to know that it is clearly wrong to say you did something that you did not do. He advised that it is called lying.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

FINLEY was advised that some officers have stated that everyone in Narcotics does it or is aware of it. FINLEY stated then "everyone" will probably be in a lot of trouble. He advised that this is not something that an Investigator would do and then tell his or her Lieutenant about, and he advised that he doubts any of the Lieutenants were aware it was happening. FINLEY advised that he definitely was not aware of it.

ANDREW TODD GRIFFIN, a.k.a. Andy Griffin, was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and informed of the nature of the interview. Also present during the course of the interview was Sergeant KREHER, Atlanta Police Department Union Representative. GRIFFIN then provided the following information:

GRIFFIN has been a member of Narcotics Team 2 for one and one-half years. Prior to that, he had been a member of RED DOG for two and one-half years. He had been an officer in Zone 3 prior to that.

GRIFFIN was at East City Hall at 7:00 p.m. getting ready to go to work with Team 2. They heard over the police radio from STALLINGS that an officer was down. The team went to 933 Neal Street arriving at around 7:10 to 7:15 p.m. Many officers had already arrived and were roping off the scene. The wounded officers were already in the ambulances. GRIFFIN and his team worked on the perimeter. The Team 2 van was parked near the Team 1 van which had FABIAN SHEATS inside. At about 7:45 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., Lieutenant GIBBS asked GRIFFIN to sit with FABIAN SHEATS who was in the Team 1 van. They were told not to interrogate SHEATS, but that if he gave a spontaneous statement they were to record the information. They were also informed that once the homicide detectives were finished with the crime scene, Team 2 was to conduct a drug search in the house. A paddy wagon later arrived and took SHEATS to jail. Two RED DOG teams were posted in front of the address.

GRIFFIN recalled observing Team 1 members STALLINGS, JR. SMITH and TESLER down near a van giving statements to homicide investigators.

Several hours passed at the site, during which time an ID tech stepped in a hole near the water main of 933 Neal Street. She injured her knee and an ambulance was called. GRIFFIN stood by with her until the ambulance came and transported her from the scene. GRIFFIN spoke with Lieutenant ROBERTS, advising him that Team 2 was ready to conduct the search of the house. GRIFFIN did a "walk through" with Investigator WILSON and was shown the lay out of the house.

GRIFFIN and SCHIFFBAUER and Sergeant SPARWOTH accompanied K-9 officer CARSON and her dog downstairs to the basement during the search. GRIFFIN described the basement as a big basement filled with a "lot of stuff." He recalled a Jacuzzi, trash bags and lawn equipment among the items. During the course of the search, GRIFFIN observed a large board (possibly a six to eight foot long 2X6) which was barricading the back door. He stated that it wasn't nailed in, but was leaning up against the door, blocking it. He removed the board so that they could continue the search, as the board also was in the way of the search.

The drug dog seemed to be alerting up near the ceiling in the basement, so GRIFFIN looked near the ceiling. The dog then alerted near the base of the back door. GRIFFIN located one package of marijuana near the right lower corner of the doorway. It was packaged in a clear zip-lock bag. SCHIFFBAUER located two additional packages of marijuana a little to the left of GRIFFIN's bag. An ID tech had been making a video recording of the search. A second tech took photos of the marijuana in place. GRIFFIN could not recall whether the back door was open or closed during this time. GRIFFIN stated that during the search, both he and SCHIFFBAUER wore purple evidence collection gloves provided by homicide.

GRIFFIN and SCHIFFBAUER left about 45 minutes after locating the marijuana. They went back to East City Hall and put the evidence into property. SCHIFFBAUER then wrote up the report, using the original case number. GRIFFIN got home at around 6:30 a.m.

GRIFFIN stated that no Team 1 member was present during the search. He was not directed in any way regarding locations which were to be searched, nor was he directed by anyone regarding what he was to tell investigators. GRIFFIN has spoken to injured members of Team 1 regarding their well-being, but has had no substantive conversations regarding the incident.

GREGORY DERRELL HOLLIDAY was interviewed at the ATLANTA DETENTION CENTER, 236 Peachtree Street, SW, Atlanta, Georgia, 30303, telephone number 404-865-8030. Also present during the interview were TIM SAVIELLO, Attorney, Federal Defender Program, telephone number 404-688-7530, and Dorian Murry, Attorney, Johnson & Freeman LLC, telephone number 404-873-0093. Prior to the interview, HOLLIDAY signed and dated a Proffer Agreement. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents, HOLLIDAY provided the following information:

HOLLIDAY, a black male, provided his permanant address as [redacted], telephone number [redacted]. HOLLIDAY provided his date of birth (DOB) as [redacted] and stated his social security account number (SSAN) as [redacted].

On 01/15/2005, at approximately 12:00 noon, HOLLIDAY was inside his townhouse located at 316 Atwood Street, Atlanta, Georgia. HOLLIDAY was upstairs (second floor) when he heard glass breaking downstairs. HOLLIDAY immediately went downstairs to see what was going on when he encountered several ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) Officers carrying shields entering his residence. Some of the APD Officers were wearing standard APD uniforms while other APD Officers were wearing black APD Narcotics uniforms. There was a total of approximately 15 APD Officers. The APD Officers used a hand held Ram to bust through the front door. The APD Officers also threw bricks through two kitchen windows in the rear of the townhouse.

The APD Officers ordered HOLLIDAY to the ground where he was handcuffed with flex cuffs, frisked, and placed on the sofa. Sergeant FIRST NAME UNKNOWN (FNU) STALLNGS informed HOLLIDAY that they were executing a search warrant on his apartment. When HOLLIDAY requested to see a copy of the search warrant, Officer GREGG JUNNIER showed him a document but covered most of it up with his hands. HOLLIDAY could only see "apartment 316" on the left side of the paper. When HOLLIDAY asked the APD Officers what they were searching for, Officer JUNNIER replied, "drugs". HOLLIDAY told Officer JUNNIER that he was not selling any drugs from his apartment. The APD Officers did not leave or give HOLLIDAY a copy of the search warrant. The APD Officers did not show or give HOLLIDAY a copy of the affidavit used to apply for the search warrant.

While HOLLIDAY sat on the sofa, SGT. STALLING told HOLLIDAY that DANTE YOUNG was the individual that said HOLLIDAY was selling large quantities of drugs from 316 Atwood Street. HOLLIDAY and YOUNG have been friends for several years. APD Officers executed a search warrant at YOUNG's house on Alta (phonetic) Road in Atlanta approximately 2 weeks prior the search of HOLLIDAY's apartment. YOUNG's nickname is "Big Boy" and "TAY".

Officer JUNNIER told HOLLIDAY that he observed an APD informant make a drug buy at 316 Atwood Street on 01/14/2005. HOLLIDAY informed Officer JUNNIER that he was not home on 01/14/2005. HOLLIDAY spent the entire day with his daughters' ([redacted]) mother, [redacted].

During the search of HOLLIDAY's townhouse, APD Officers seized the following; 10 grams of marijuana (kitchen cabinet), 10 extasy pills (kitchen cabinet), 91 grams of cocaine (pantry), individual bags of marijuana (kitchen cabinet), and a highpoint 9mm handgun. The marijuana and pills seized were for HOLLIDAY's personal use. The 9mm handgun seized belonged to [redacted]. HOLLIDAY does not know how the 91 grams of cocaine got into his apartment. The cocaine does not belong to HOLLIDAY or his girlfriend, [redacted].

HOLLIDAY remained handcuffed during the entire search of his apartment, from approximately 12:30pm to 6:30pm. At approximately 6:30pm, an APD paddy wagon transported HOLLIDAY to the ATLANTA DETENTION CENTER. The APD Officers conducting the search did not leave HOLLIDAY's townhouse until approximately 10:00pm. The apartment maintenance man, FNU DAUPHIN (phonetic), repaired the windows and replaced the front door while the APD Officers executed their search warrant.

[redacted] was not home during the execution of the search warrant. However, HOLLIDAY did call [redacted] during the search to inform her that he was being arrested. SGT. STALLINGS told HOLLIDAY that [redacted] would also be arrested if she came back to the apartment. [redacted] did not come by the apartment during the search.

HOLLIDAY has sold drugs in the past. HOLLIDAY stopped selling drugs in 1998. HOLLIDAY was not selling nor has he ever sold drugs from 316 Atwood Street, Atlanta, Georgia. APD did not make a drug buy from HOLLIDAY at his townhouse on 01/14/2005.

HOLLIDAY described himself as 6'2", 225 lbs. HOLLIDAY's nickname is "RED". HOLLIDAY is a music producer for MDC RECORDS. MDC RECORDS is owned by RODNEY GRESHAM. HOLLIDAY also does landscape work. HOLLIDAY drives a white Pontiac Grand Prix and a black Coverlet Impala. HOLLIDAY resided at 316 Atwood Street from October 2004 thru January 20, 2005.

During the search, APD Officers also seized jewelry, televisions, and cash. HOLLIDAY had $2,000.00 cash in his apartment which was seized during the search. However, HOLLIDAY only received a receipt from APD for $1,011.00. SGT. STALLINGS told HOLLIDAY that they would not take any of HOLLIDAY's personal belongings if he gave them information on drug dealers. HOLLIDAY did not give the APD Officers any information concerning any drug dealer.

HOLLIDAY recalled Officer JUNNIER handwriting the affidavit for the search of his residence, 316 Atwood Street, while the other officers were conducting the search.

APD Officer FNU DAVENPORT was one of the officers assisting in the search of HOLLIDAY's apartment. HOLLIDAY remembered Officer DAVENPORT from DAVENPORT working security at CLUB 112. HOLLIDAY was a club member of CLUB 112 in 2003 and 2004.

HOLLIDAY did not file any type of formal complaint against SGT. STALLINGS, Officer JUNNIER, Officer DAVENPORT, or any of the other APD Officers conducting the search of his residence with APD, Internal Affairs.

JASON R. SMITH was interviewed at the Atlanta office of the FBI pursuant to a guilty plea and plea agreement. Also present was SMITH's attorney, JOHN GARLAND. SMITH was aware of the identities of the interviewing agents, and after being advised of the nature of the interview, SMITH provided the following information:

ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) Officer BRUCE TESLER stated in a police report he did surveillance on FABIAN SHEETS prior to his arrest on November 21, 2006, but SMITH's confidential informant (CI), [redacted], actually provided the information.

Before the execution of the search warrant at 933 Neal Street (933 Neal), APD Officers GREGG JUNNIER, TESLER, and SMITH did not discuss that it could be personally profitable to seize a kilo of cocaine.

While at 933 Neal after the shooting, SMITH told APD Sergeant STALLINGS that he (SMITH) did not see the buy. STALLINGS told SMITH to say ALEX WHITE came to the back door and to use the wires running up the back of the house as the reason for the belief that surveillance equipment existed. The night of the shooting at GRADY MEMORIAL HOSPITAL and again the next day in the narcotics office, STALLINGS told SMITH to pick one story and stick to it.

The squad did "jump outs" and "thunder runs." On jump outs, they stopped the team van, detained a person on the street, and searched his pockets. Officers did not ask questions before searching the person. If the person had drugs, then he was arrested. STALLINGS was present during jump outs and thunder runs. SMITH observed more than ten and possibly as many as 50 situations during which APD Officer CARY BOND detained someone, but based upon the facts observed by SMITH, SMITH would not have been able to legally detain that person. SMITH did not hear BOND say he needed to make up probable cause (PC).

SMITH is unsure whether or not BOND gave him drugs and told him the address from which a CI purchased them. SMITH did not hear BOND call WHITE, give him an address, and direct him to buy from that address. At least once, SMITH was with BOND, and then BOND said he had to meet WHITE. BOND was then gone 10 - 15 minutes and returned with drugs. BOND was not gone long enough to watch WHITE purchase drugs.

SMITH recalls an occasion when WHITE met JUNNIER and SMITH near the APD property room. WHITE gave them four packages of drugs and told them the locations from which he purchased the drugs. SMITH was present when JUNNIER later gave drugs from WHITE to BOND and told him the address from which WHITE had purchased those drugs.

After TESLER transferred to narcotics, SMITH and TESLER were almost always together while on duty. Other than two purchases of drugs by [redacted] that SMITH and TESLER observed, SMITH was not with TESLER when he observed other drug buys. SMITH did not give drugs to TESLER from buys made by Diamond that TESLER did not observe. At least one time, SMITH saw JUNNIER give drugs to TESLER, so he could get a search warrant.

APD Sergeant STALLINGS and Officer HOLLY BUCHANAN operated a CI named KIRK Last Name Unknown (LNU). KIRK LNU's son actually bought drugs, but the son could not be signed up because he was on probation.

During an evaluation, STALLINGS told SMITH to keep up with the watch average and said it was nine and two.

Fulton County Assistant District Attorney (ADA) DAVID KATZ sent letters to apartment complexes because crime at those complexes was high. Some apartment managers then contacted KATZ, who referred some to JUNNIER.

JUNNIER coordinated extra jobs at some apartment complexes. Whenever an apartment complex had an incident, the management contacted the officer it hired. If the officer was on duty, then he would go to the complex. While on duty, JUNNIER and SMITH patrolled apartment complexes whose management paid them. SMITH recalls stating they should patrol a certain complex, and JUNNIER stated the complex was not paying them. While off duty, SMITH worked one to two hours weekly at an apartment complex that paid him. Whenever JUNNIER was absent on a Friday, SMITH collected JUNNIER's pay from apartment complexes and stores. SMITH did not pay taxes on his extra jobs, and according to SMITH, no one liked "1099 jobs." JUNNIER told SMITH that STALLINGS was planning to start working extra jobs again. BOND did not work extra jobs, like SMITH's, at apartment complexes, but TESLER did work them on duty.

JASON R. SMITH was interviewed at the Atlanta office of the FBI pursuant to a guilty plea and plea agreement. SMITH's attorney, JOHN GARLAND, was also present. SMITH was aware of the identities of the interviewing agents, and after being advised of the nature of the interview, SMITH provided the following information:

On one occasion, ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) Officer PAT APOIN was assigned to drive the paddy wagon, and a defendant in the wagon was causing trouble. APOIN met APD Officer JEFF BRANHAM to get a person whom BRANHAM had arrested. When BRANHAM became aware of the defendant causing trouble, BRANHAM asked for APOIN's knife, which APOIN gave to BRANHAM. BRANHAM put the knife on the seat next to the defendant, put his handgun to the defendant's head, and told him to grab the knife. APOIN told SMITH about this incident.

During the execution of a search warrant, SMITH and APD Officer CARY BOND took several DVDs, and APD Officer NATHAN LUCAS took a lot of them. SMITH does not recall any APD officers taking guns or cash for personal use from subjects during the execution of search warrants.

On one occasion, APD Officers GREGG JUNNIER, BRUCE TESLER, BOND, and SMITH were in their vehicle on Donald Lee Hollowell Parkway. JUNNIER stopped the car, and they confronted some people in front of a business. SMITH went inside the business and asked to use the restroom, but an individual in the business told him he could not use it. TESLER told SMITH that he found marijuana on one of the people outside of the business and showed the marijuana to SMITH. BOND went to get a warrant to search the business, and when SMITH found out that BOND was getting a warrant, SMITH did a protective sweep of the business and to freeze the scene. BOND obtained a warrant to search the business.

Jason R. Smith (JR) was interviewed at his attorney's office on June 8, 2007. His attorney, John Garland, was present for the interview. JR provided the following information:

JR's cell phone number is [redacted]. His wife, [redacted], put the message on JR's voice mail.

Atlanta Police Department (APD) Team #2 worked a housing project at McDaniel Glen like Team #1 worked Bowen Homes. Team #2 also worked an extra job at Bedford Pines apartment complex. Bedford Pines paid the officers a bonus for arrests made at Bedford Pines. Team #2 worked their extra job at Bedford Pines while on duty which is common at APD.

JR provided a list of APD Officer Greg Junnier's extra jobs that JR knows about. There are 32 jobs on the list. JR also provided maps showing the locations of the extra jobs.

In addition to other investigative techniques described previously by JR, Team #1 also used "knock and talks." The way that Team #1 would do those was that an officer would knock on the door of a residence, an occupant would answer the door and Team #1 would flood the inside of the residence with officers. One officer would then coerce the occupant into signing a consent to search. JR advised that that technique was used at 2175 Lennox Road, Apt A-5, on 11/8/05. He further advised, however, that Spanish was spoken at the front door and he really didn't know whether the occupant gave the team consent to enter.

JR also cited a situation which started at 1640 South Gordon in approximately April 2006 as another example of a "knock and talk." The occupant at 1640 South Gordon was Keith Jones. Team #1 had a valid search warrant for Jones' residence and five pounds of marijuana was found there. Jones telephoned his supplier, Oscar Harris, and Harris unwittingly brought 15 more pounds of marijuana to Jones' residence where he was confronted by Team #1. Harris, in turn, told Team #1 that he would give up his supplier who had 50 pounds. Harris took the team to the apartment where his supplier lived. Sergeant Stallings and Officers Junnier and Carey Bond came up with a plan to get into the apartment. The team went to the door to do a "knock and talk." Officer Gary Smith took a shield and Officer Nathan Lucas took a battering ram. JR stayed in the police van with Oscar Harris. Some of the Team #1 officers said that they smelled marijuana and they forced entry. JR believes that the plan was to force entry whether or not there was a legal reason for it and he doubts that they actually smelled marijuana. Oscar Harris was released on a copy of charges for the 15 pounds of marijuana.

In an affidavit dated 8/9/06, APD Officer Bruce Tesler avers that he observed a drug buy on 8/1/06 at 850 Westmont Road. JR was there on 8/1/06, but Tesler was not. The buy did occur, but Tesler was not there to see it as he states in his affidavit. JR does not know of any other fact in the affidavit that is definitely false.

Tesler also swore to an affidavit dated 6/8/06 and related to 1247 Simpson Road, Apartment #34. Tesler described a drug buy that he observed. The chances are "slim to none" that Tesler actually observed that buy. Moreover, the real reason that Tesler got that warrant was that the manager of the apartment complex at that address, Randy Carbo, wanted the people in Apartment #34 to be evicted. Tesler, Junnier and JR had an extra job at that complex and were paid by Carbo.

GREGG JUNNIER, who has been interviewed previously provided the following information:

JUNNIER had previously explained that it was a common practice in the Narcotics Unit for JUNNIER and/or other detectives that are working informants to make a number of drug buys and to come back to the office and give buy information to other detectives and allow them to draft up affidavits and search warrants as if that particular detective had conducted the drug buy.

JUNNIER stated that Investigator N.L. LUCAS had seized 12 grams of cocaine from this search warrant and paid the informant a total of $200.00 dollars. JUNNIER stated this payment was above the payment guidelines. According to JUNNIER, LUCAS would often pay his informants outside of the guidelines. JUNNIER always questioned if LUCAS was keeping part of the money, because the informant would sign blank vouchers and never know the true amount he was suppose to receive. JUNNIER also stated that Atlanta Police informant ALEXIS WHITE would complain that LUCAS had not paid him the amount he should have for his work.

940 Bolton Rd. A-5,
Atlanta, GA

JUNNIER stated that Investigator C.A. BOND was not present at this drug buy, but allowed BOND to complete the incident report as if BOND had directed the informant in making a drug purchase at 940 Bolton road, A-5, Atlanta, Georgia, on 01/04/2006. BOND later signed an affidavit to the fact that he had observed this buy and received a search warrant for the above mentioned address.

Incident Number 051030927
31 Evelyn Way NW,
Atlanta, GA

JUNNIER stated that Sergeant STALLINGS was not present at this drug buy, but allowed his name to be included as having participated in directing the informant in making a drug purchase at 31 Evelyn Way NW, Atlanta, Georgia, on April 13, 2005.

Incident Number 051031009
2532 Hollywood Ct,

1595 North Ave,
Atlanta, GA

JUNNIER stated that Sergeant STALLINGS was not present at this drug buy, but allowed his name to be included as having participated in directing the informant in making a drug purchase at 1595 North Ave, Atlanta, Georgia, on February 19, 2005.

JUNNIER reviewed other drug buy reports and stated that he would need to see the property log book, the actual property and on some occasions the affidavit to refresh his memory if another investigator had been involved.

JUNNIER had previously explained that it was a common practice in the Narcotics Unit for JUNNIER and/or other detectives that are working informants to make a number of drug buys and to come back to the office and give buy information to other detectives and allow them to fill out the incident sheet as if they had directed the informant during the drug purchase which in some incidents lead to the detective obtaining a search warrant for a residence. JUNNIER stated that other detectives he had given buys to were ALLAN ABERCROMIE, DEXTER DUMUS, and DOUG LITTLE.

2479 Abner Terrace, #41,
Atlanta, Georgia

JUNNIER stated that Investigator HOLLY BUCHANAN was paying an individual under another sources code name. BUCHANAN was paying the individual in this manner because she had not opened the individual as a source. JUNNIER stated that Sergeant STALLINGS was aware of BUCHANAN'S activity and encouraged this type of behavior. Investigator JASON SMITH and Investigator ARTHUR TESLER would also conduct this same type activity.

GREGG JUNNIER, who has been interviewed previously provided the following information on May 3 and May 23, 2007:

He explained that the pressure of making the statistical numbers for each detective in the narcotics unit and in other units, such as weed and seed, as well as the FIT Teams in the Zones come from pressures that departmental supervisors receive from the COBRA meetings. The Narcotics unit quotas of 9 and 2 (Nine arrests and two search warrants per month/per officer) were initiated to build the numbers. An evaluation process was conducted on the detectives which is known as "Q Pai." The detectives would be evaluated and could receive a performance bonus.

JUNNIER stated that one Sergeant, Sergeant Fields, telephone number [redacted] (C) and [redacted] (H), quit the police department because he got tired of lying to make the numbers. Fields felt the pressure of making the numbers was compromising the integrity of the officers.

In addition, JUNNIER explained that he recalls Sergeant STALLINGS say on occasion that we, Narcotics Team 1, need to get the numbers up for or the unit would look like shit at the upcoming COBRA meeting. Also, after COBRA meetings Sergeant STALLINGS and/or Lieutenant STACIE GIBBS would have a meeting with the Team and express the need to get the numbers.

JUNNIER had previously explained that it was a common practice in the Narcotics Unit, as well as other APD units, for JUNNIER and/or other detectives that are working informants to make a number of drug buys and to come back to the office and give buy information to other detectives and allow them to draft up affidavits and search warrants as if that particular detective had conducted the drug buy. He also added that Sergeant STALLINGS would also participate in allowing him (STALLINGS) to be included in incident report writeups, as well as, allowing his name to be included in affidavits to obtain search warrants. STALLINGS would sign off as the supervisor on these incident reports, and other documents such as confidential source payment vouchers as a witness and as the supervisor stating he witnessed the payment to the source. STALLINGS as the supervisor would read and review search warrant affidavits. On occasion STALLINGS did participate on some of the drug buys with JUNNIER. These incidents would have been where STALLINGS would have been the passenger in the vehicle and he would have handwritten the buy report while JUNNIER was driving. Sergeant STALLINGS was aware that APD source ALEX WHITE also would be allowed to make drug buys on his own, using his personal funds, and would drive to the APD property unit to meet up with detectives to turn over the drugs and to be reimbursed for having used his personal funds. Below are incidents that have been identified by JUNNIER as incidents where Sergeant STALLINGS had specific knowledge about sharing of drug buys, not participating in drug buys, and/or was not out at the scene, but allowed his name to be used as having witnessed the drug buys, to include being used as a witness in affidavits for search warrants.

JUNNIER reviewed the APD drug log book for January 4, 2005, which listed the following incident numbers: 050042068, 050042066, 050041905, and 050041901. JUNNIER stated that the drug log book list the detective turning in the drugs from buys as being JUNNIER. JUNNIER stated that it is not his handwriting and that it appears to be STALLINGS handwriting. He also stated that he did not conduct those buys and did not touch or handle those drugs. These buys were done by STALLINGS.

Atlanta, Georgia

The date of the buy on this incident is January 4, 2005. JUNNIER reviewed the incident reports, buy report, the affidavit, and the drug log book. He stated that STALLINGS conducted the buy at this address, and that JUNNIER was not with STALLINGS. He recalled that STALLINGS asked him to write up the affidavit for the search warrant.

that JUNNIER and STALLINGS directed a confidential and reliable informant to the above address to make a purchase of drugs. STALLINGS would have reviewed the affidavit and warrant prior to the execution of the search warrant. The affidavit stated that on March 8, 2005, JUNNIER and STALLINGS directed a confidential and reliable informant to the above address to purchase drugs.

914 Bolton Rd. B-3
Atlanta, GA

JUNNIER explained that STALLINGS was with JUNNIER when a confidential and reliable informant made a drug purchase at this address. A review of the incident report, the affidavit, and the drug log book assisted JUNNIER in recalling that He and STALLINGS made three different buys on/or about March 24, 2005. STALLINGS filled out the drug log book listing buys associated to incident numbers 050831881 for CARY BOND, 050831876 for JUNNIER, and 050831877 for PAUL VIGNOLA. The drug buy report was filled out by JUNNIER who listed VIGNOLA as being the recovering officer. The affidavit is prepared by VIGNOLA. JUNNIER reiterated that drug buys are mostly conducted by two officers, and as rule they did not ride three to make a buy. He stated definitely not STALLINGS and two other officers.

Atlanta, GA

JUNNIER stated that Sergeant STALLINGS was not present at this drug buy, but allowed his name to be included as having participated in the directing the informant in making a drug purchase at 1366 Elizabeth Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia, on February 24, 2005. Subsequently, STALLINGS is included in the search warrant affidavit as having witnessed and assisted in directing the informant in making the drug purchase. A search warrant was issued on February 25, 2005, by Magistrate Judge Kim Warden. The return on the search warrant states that the inventory of narcotics found was done in the presence of Sergeant STALLINGS on March 3, 2005.

Incident Number 050550867
Atlanta, GA

JUNNIER stated that Sergeant STALLINGS was not present at this drug buy, but allowed his name to be included as having participated in the directing the informant in making a drug purchase at 1271 Elizabeth Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia, on February 24, 2005. Subsequently, STALLINGS is included in the search warrant affidavit as having witnessed and assisted in directing the informant in making the drug purchase. A search warrant was issued on February 25, 2005, by Magistrate Judge Kim Warden. The return on the search warrant states that the inventory of narcotics found was done in the presence of Sergeant STALLINGS on March 2, 2005.

As stated previously, it was common practice to share drug buys with other detectives wherein the other detective would write up the incident report and draft a search warrant affidavit as if they had directed the informant in making the drug buy. Below is a summary of these particular incidents associated to Detective PAUL A. VIGNOLA. JUNNIER explained that VIGNOLA did go with him occasionaly to direct an informant in making a drug purchase, but this was not frequent. VIGNOLA was burned out with the APD Narcotics Unit in regards to the 9 and 2 policy and the way the drug unit operated.

3775 Martin Luther King Jr. Dr. B-9
Atlanta, GA

JUNNIER reviewed the incident report, the drug log book, and the affidavit. He stated that the drug log for the above incident on March 30, 2004 is in STALLINGS handwriting and also lists incident number 040901641 for S. BELL. Incident number 040901643 is listed for VIGNOLA. STALLINGS turned in the drugs for VIGNOLA and BELL. The buy report appears to not have been written by VIGNOLA. JUNNIER believes the buy for made buy STALLINGS and BELL. VIGNOLA probably was not on this drug buy.

JUNNIER stated that he does not recall riding out to this location with VIGNOLA, and does not believe VIGNOLA was present at this drug buy. JUNNIER reviewed the drug buy incident report and explained that he had initially started handwriting the drug buy information and then gave it to VIGNOLA. He reviewed the drug log book and believes that the log book entries were written by STALLINGS.

914 Bolton Road, B-3
Atlanta, Georgia

JUNNIER reviewed the handwritten drug buy report, the incident report associated to this case, and the affidavit that was prepared by VIGNOLA. The address for this incident was 914 Bolton Road, B-3, Atlanta, Georgia, He explained that this was a drug buy that he (JUNNIER) had made using ALEX WHITE. He brought the drug buy report back to the APD and gave the paperwork to VIGNOLA, who prepared an incident report and drafted a search warrant affidavit. JUNNIER stated that he recalls this incident because there were certain areas that VIGNOLA worked and there were certain areas of Atlanta that JUNNIER worked and this area was an area worked mainly by JUNNIER, not VIGNOLA. Upon further review of the reports and the drug log book, JUNNIER believes that he and STALLINGS were the two that conducted the drug buy, not VIGNOLA. The drug log book entries were in STALLINGS handwriting.

2020 Allison Ct. B-10

JUNNIER reviewed the various incident reports and the drug log book regarding the above incident number. The drug log book entry for this incident on January 28, 2004 was in STALLINGS handwriting. JUNNIER was unsure who made the drug buy, but he did not believe it was VIGNOLA, for two reasons. The two reasons are: (1) This was not VIGNOLA's normal operating aream and (2) He usually did not work with STALLINGS on drug buys.

Incident Number 040701350
Atlanta, Ga

JUNNIER reviewed the various reports and the drug log book. He explained that he recalled that the drug buy was conducted by he and STALLINGS, and then handed off the drug report to VIGNOLA. The drug log book entry was written by JUNNIER on March 10, 2004. The pertinent information that explains who were on this drug buy is that the incident report was in STALLINGS handwriting and the drugs were turned in by JUNNIER, as well as they never rode with three, especially if STALLINGS is involved in the drug buy.

2020 Alison Ct., C-2

JUNNIER reviewed the incident reports and the drug log book. He stated that the buy report is in STALLINGS and JUNNIER's handwriting. STALLINGS and JUNNIER made the drug buy. This is a handoff to VIGNOLA. VIGNOLA turned in the drugs per the drug log book. Again, this was not an area that VIGNOLA would normally work.

This was not a normal area for VIGNOLA to work. JUNNIER recalled that he wrote the case number on the incident report. After JUNNIER made the drug buy he called in to get a case number. JUNNIER turned in the drugs and it is JUNNIER'S handwriting on the drug log book. The documents available were not complete, but JUNNIER stated the VIGNOLA did not make this drug buy. This was a handoff to VIGNOLA.

JUNNIER reviewed the incident reports and the drug log book. The drug log book is in JUNNIER'S handwrting and shows that he had done five different drug buys on April 13, 2005. The following are the incident numbers: 051031073, 051031067, 05101009, 051031070, and 051030921. JUNNIER made the drug buy on the above referenced incident, but this was an area that VIGNOLA would work. He believed that VIGNOLA had asked him while he was out making buys to stop off and get a buy from the above address. This was a handoff to VIGNOLA. The drug buy report is in JUNNIER'S handwriting. VIGNOLA was not with JUNNIER on this buy.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

GREGG JUNNIER, who has been interviewed previously provided the following information:

JUNNIER stated that Investigator DOUG LITTLE had explained that he was working with the District Attorney Office and the Federal Government to help clean up crime around stores and apartment complexes. LITTLE said that the District Attorney office and the Federal Government would begin to close down the stores and apartments if they did not hire off duty police to help fix the situation.

LITTLE was working at a convenience store across the street from 1575 Simpson road, Atlanta, Georgia. LITTLE was working 4 hours a night every night. LITTLE was making approximately $30.00 an hour. LITTLE was suppose to wear a uniform to work off duty, but did not wear a uniform when he worked at this store. JUNNIER began to work with LITTLE at this store. The above mentioned store could not pay the $30.00 dollars an hour for four hours every night so they began to split the cost with the convenience store located at 1575 Simpson road. Investigator LUCAS, Investigator POSTEL and Sergeant STALLINGS also worked at the 1575 Simpson road store.

LITTLE got promoted and turned over the off duty work to JUNNIER. JUNNIER would give everybody hours at the store and pay them for their services. STALLINGS, JUNNIER, LITTLE and LUCAS would work at the store while on duty. The investigators would also check out a marked unit that was assigned to the narcotics unit and drive it to the store. Using a marked unit while not in uniform and while stating you are only working at the store as a security consultant would have been against policy. STALLING told JUNNIER and LUCAS if they got caught driving the marked unit to work at the store while on duty, they would be on their own. POSTEL would take an unmarked city unit to work at the store.

JUNNIER stated that while he was working security at the store he was approached by management companies for apartment complexes. The management companies asked JUNNIER if he could help clean up the crime problems at their apartment complexes. JUNNIER told the management companies that he would charge them $120.00 a week for approximately four hours of work. JUNNIER would explain

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

that they could expect an narcotics investigator to stop by the complex before and after work everyday and the narcotics unit would also work hard in their complex to clean up crime. JUNNIER would also tell the managers to call him at anytime if they needed police response. JUNNIER advised that he would be able to get them a quicker response time than calling 911. If the complex requested an officer to work a third shift at the complex, JUNNIER would hire the officer and ask the complex to pay $30.00 an hour. JUNNIER stated he would pay the officer all of the money and not take a cut of the money.

JUNNIER would turn in his off duty request to the Atlanta Police Department. JUNNIER would write up the request as if he were a consultant. JUNNIER would do it this way so he could work more jobs and not have to be in uniform nor could anyone keep track of his hours.

When JUNNIER received calls from the apartment complex late at night after JUNNIER had finished working he would have different patrol officers that were on duty respond to the problems. If the officer responded to the problem, JUNNIER would pay the officer $50.00 for the quick response. Different officers that JUNNIER would call late at night were Officer BURCHFIELD, Officer JUHLS, Officer BRIAN MURPHY and Officer VAUGHN.

BURCHFIELD was working for an apartment complex at 3775 Martin Luther King Highway, and was trying to take apartment complex 1020 Bolton Road, Atlanta, Georgia, from JUNNIER. LUCAS also worked his own apartment complex located at West Lake Manor, Atlanta, Georgia.

JUNNIER stated that he also worked in the past with Officer FIELDS and DAVENPORT at the apartment complexes and stores.

JUNNIER stated that the narcotics unit would still respond to other apartment complexes that did not pay however, he stated he would not be over zealous to respond.

JUNNIER stated that on one occasion an apartment complex located at 377 Westchester Boulevard, Atlanta, Georgia, approached him to work security at their complex. The manager stated that District Attorney KATTS had called him and stated if he did not take care of the crime problem the District Attorney's Office would be forced to seize the apartment complex. KATTS then referred the apartment manager to JUNNIER. JUNNIER does know KATTS and does not remember ever having any conversations with KATTS. JUNNIER also got referred to other apartment complexes by another Assistant District Attorney. JUNNIER could not remember this Attorneys name.

JUNNIER stated that he, Investigator J.R. SMITH and ARTHUR TESLER began working a lot of extra jobs together. JUNNIER stated that he would normally collect extra job money on Fridays. JUNNIER would normally collect approximately $1,000.00 to $2,000.00 dollars a week. This money would normally be split between JUNNIER, J.R. SMITH, TESLER, and STALLINGS. STALLINGS would normally allow JUNNIER and the other officers to collect their money while on duty. STALLINGS would also order other investigators to ride with JUNNIER for safety reasons while JUNNIER would collect the money and do routine patrols of the apartments and stores. STALLINGS would not work at the complexes as much but would receive a portion of the money by allowing JUNNIER and the other investigators to work the extra jobs while on duty. JUNNIER stated that other Investigators that were not receiving money from the apartment complexes, began to complain about putting their work on hold to assist JUNNIER on his extra jobs.

JUNNIER stated a normal day in vice would consist of arriving at work grabbing another investigator and begin to make his rounds of his different extra jobs. If JUNNIER found someone selling drugs while making his rounds he would arrest them and then spend most of his day dealing with that one arrest. JUNNIER also stated that if he arrested someone on one of his properties he would write the citation and incident report as if he arrested them at another location. STALLINGS would also write people citations on their off duty properties and ask JUNNIER what address to put on the citation. JUNNIER stated that they would change the arrest location to make the District Attorney Office think the apartment complex was no longer a crime haven.

JUNNIER stated on several occasion they would stop to interview a potential drug dealer on the side of the road. If the team found the dealers drugs hidden in a location close to the dealer, STALLINGS would ask JUNNIER to write the report to sound as if they had seen the dealer with the drugs. JUNNIER stated that on a recent occasion Investigator HOLLY BUCHANON was interviewing a potential drug dealer and found drugs hidden close to the suspect. STALLINGS turned to JUNNIER and stated "she does not know how to write this." Investigator GARY SMITH then volunteered to write the citation and the incident report as if the drugs had been seen by the officers in the suspects possession. The incident took place on Simpson road near the TASTY DOG.

JUNNIER stated that he originally met FABIO TAVARES at the convenience store located at 1545 Simpson Road. JUNNIER ran into TAVARES approximately two years later at 533 Griffin Road, Atlanta, Georgia. JUNNIER stated that TAVARES owned the store at 533 Griffin and TAVARES' son JORGE TAVARES-CEPIN owned a store located at 2185 Martin Luther King Drive, Atlanta, Georgia. TAVARES told JUNNIER he could pay $100.00 a week for JUNNIER to help clean up the crime problem around both stores. JUNNIER accepted this offer and began to patrol the stores. JUNNIER advised that the father could not always pay for JUNNIER'S services but JUNNIER would still patrol the store.

JUNNIER spoke to the son(CEPIN) about his father TAVARES sending baby formula to New York. JUNNIER discussed with TAVARES that he had two stores that were his main competition. The two stores were referred to as the green store and the yellow store located on Simpson Road. TAVARES stated that these two stores were receiving stolen baby formula and shipping it to New York for resale. JUNNIER watched these other stores and made at least one bust of a baby formula shipment coming to the yellow store.

TAVARES was eventually arrested for possession of stolen baby formula. CEPIN told JUNNIER that the police had missed the their main stash of stolen baby formula. CEPIN stated that they had moved it to a storage building in Douglasville. JUNNIER stated that he reported this information to Atlanta Police Department Investigator CONDLAND, that had been working on this case. Investigator CONDLAND told JUNNIER that they had gotten all of the formula.

TAVARES also on one occasion asked JUNNIER to find out what had happened to one on his truck drivers that had supposedly gotten arrested in New York while transporting baby formula. JUNNIER acted as if he had looked up the information and told TAVARES that everything was good with the driver.

TAVARES told JUNNIER that he would pay him $500.00 a week if he would protect TAVARES and one of his friends store from being hit by the police again. JUNNIER told him that he could not help him. JUNNIER witnessed large amounts of baby formula in the back of CEPIN'S store after TAVARES was arrested. JUNNIER stated that

TESLER, BOND and SMITH would have seen the large amounts also in the back of CEPIN'S store.

JUNNIER stated that BOND would not do the extra jobs because he did not feel like it was ethical.

779 Ralph D Abernathy Blvd. SW,
Atlanta, Georgia

JUNNIER stated that on November 6, 2004, STALLINGS had received information that one of the narcotic team fugitives was spotted by an Atlanta Police Department informant at 779 Ralph D Abernathy Boulevard. The informant told STALLINGS that the fugitive was carrying a concealed weapon. STALLINGS went to the above mentioned location and called for a marked unit to detain the suspect. The officers found the weapon. STALLINGS called Lieutenant DOUG LITTLE to the scene for assistance. Atlanta Police Department Officer R.E. JOHNSON took the report and arrested the subject.

After this incident STALLINGS called JUNNIER and asked JUNNIER to be a witness to this case. STALLINGS showed JUNNIER where the incident took place and then told JUNNIER everything that happened in case JUNNIER was ever questioned about the matter. JUNNIER explained to STALLINGS that his time sheet would show that he had gotten off work before the arrest occurred. STALLINGS told JUNNIER he would fix his time sheet to reflect that JUNNIER was still at work when the incident occurred.

1058 Dill Avenue,
Atlanta, Georgia

On 10/11/2005, Narcotics Team 1 made a buy at 1058 Dill Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia. On 10/19/2005, Narcotics Team 1 served a search warrant on the above mentioned address. JUNNIER advised 1058 is one side of a Duplex, the other address is 1056. JUNNIER stated that the people living in 1058 had a connection with 1056. STALLINGS told JUNNIER that they needed to get into 1056 and look around. STALLINGS told JUNNIER to kick in the back door of 1056. JUNNIER stated that he did kick in the back door of 1056 and then JUNNIER and STALLINGS searched the house. When they were finished searching the house. STALLINGS told JUNNIER just to shut the back door and the people that lived at 1056 would just think someone had broke into their house. JUNNIER also advised if the people from 1058 did own 1056 they would assume the police had a search warrant for both sides.

GREGG JUNNIER, who has been interviewed previously provided the following information:

STEVE KEEBLE

JUNNIER stated that Atlanta Police Department Sergeant STEVE KEEBLE was aware that narcotics investigators were turning in false vouchers. JUNNIER explained that KEEBLE was aware the investigators would use this money to buy vests, tint for the car windows or get extra money to give to the informant. JUNNIER has asked KEEBLE in the past if he needed to get a receipt for an item and KEEBLE would respond you could or you could "voucher it."

ERNEST FINLEY

JUNNIER stated in 1997 through 1998 he was working in background and recruitment. JUNNIER advised after putting in a full day he would join the narcotics unit which was run by Atlanta Police Department Sergeant FINLEY. FINLEY allowed JUNNIER to help the narcotics unit with their detail "Street Heat." The "Street Heat" detail was mainly used to clean up high drug trafficking areas. FINLEY would tell the investigators once they had arrested approximately twenty bodies everyone could go home. JUNNIER stated they were suppose to work from 4:00 pm through 4:00 am. However, FINLEY would send them home most nights by 12:00 am and then sign the sheets as if they had worked a full twelve hour shift.

JUNNIER stated that eventually he was transferred to narcotics. FINLEY at this time was the Lieutenant over narcotics. FINLEY at one point was mad that JUNNIER had taken almost four weeks of vacation. FINLEY did not want JUNNIER to take vacation because JUNNIER was FINLEY'S biggest producer. FINLEY punished JUNNIER by putting him on a uniform patrol in Buckhead.

RED DOG

According to JUNNIER, at the end of 2005 or the beginning of 2006 he was invited to a party by two Atlanta Police Department Officers that were assigned to the Red Dog. JUNNIER believes the two Red Dog officers were GUNTER and SCHMIDT but JUNNIER could not be for certain. JUNNIER spoke to the two officers while he was turning property into the Atlanta Police Departments Evidence room. The officers stated that the party was going to be held in a parking lot close to the Police Department. The Red Dog officers bragged that they had many cases of beer and liquor. The Red Dog officers stated they had just got the alcohol form a seizure. JUNNIER stated that Zone 1 Fit Team Officer BRAD BURCHFIELD had also spoken about the party and was possibly involved in the seizure of the alcohol.

Narcotics Teams 1 and 2

Both narcotics teams would use a technique called "freezing the scene." Freezing the scene meant the investigators would enter a house and then detain everyone while one member would attempt to obtain a search warrant. JUNNIER stated normally they would have Questionable probable cause to be in the house.

JUNNIER stated that both narcotics teams, and many other Atlanta Police Department units would completely trash houses while serving a search warrant. JUNNIER stated if the people cooperated they would normally not tear their house up during the search. However, if the person would refuse to cooperate the officers would destroy the house by breaking out windows, putting holes in wall, breaking televisions and dumping the trash cans out on the floors or on furniture.

GREGG EDWARD JUNNIER, having been previously interviewed, provided the following information:

JUNNIER could not specifically remember any falsified drug buys or unlawful search warrant affidavits in which ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) Sergeant PAUL SPARWATH was the reporting officer or affiant, respectively.

SPARWATH and APD Lieutenant STACIE GIBBS wrote incident reports for Narcotics "detail" arrests and reverse buys, and distributed them to various investigators, even though the investigators did not actually do the buys.

Regarding the "nine and two" policy at APD, JUNNIER advised that it was common knowledge to the investigators that if you did not pull your weight, there were other squads that you could go to. JUNNIER could not recall any officer being transferred from Narcotics due to a failure to get nine arrests and two search warrants, but generally recalls officers choosing to leave Narcotics before they were forced to leave by management.

GIBBS and APD Sergeant STALLINGS told officers that if they could not get the nine and two, then they were not getting their jobs done, and would not be able to work their second jobs. No one complained about the nine and two guideline because working in Narcotics was viewed as a great assignment due to the hours and working conditions.

JUNNIER advised that after he retired from APD in the wake of the shooting at 933 Neal Street, Officer BRAD BURCHFIELD took over as the officer who collected money for second jobs. BURCHFIELD even paid JUNNIER his portion of the second job money for a short time after JUNNIER left APD.

Gregg Edward Junnier was interviewed at the Atlanta Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on December 11, 2006. His attorney, Rand Csehy, (404)688-1395 (office), [redacted] (cell), was present for the interview. Also present for the interview were U.S. Department of Justice Attorney Page Fitzgerald, Assistant United States Attorneys Yonette Buchanan and Jon Peter Kelly, Fulton County Assistant District Attorney Shukura Ingram and Fulton County District Attorney Investigator Cameron Crandall. Junnier has been an officer with the Atlanta Police Department (APD) for about eighteen years. He has been on APD Narcotics Team #1 since 1998. His date of birth is [redacted]. The interview of Junnier was conducted pursuant to a proffer agreement. Junnier provided the following information:

In the afternoon of November 21, 2006, Junnier was on duty working narcotics with APD Officers Jason R. Smith (JR) and Arthur Bruce Tesler. JR and Tesler are also members of APD Narcotics Team #1. The three of them were riding together in a marked police car on the west side of Atlanta. Shortly before 4:00 p.m., JR received a telephone call from an informant known as Diamond. Diamond told JR about a black male in a gold coat selling drugs near 1143 Simpson St. The three officers responded to that address and found an individual matching the description given by Diamond who they knew to be Fabian Sheats. They knew Sheats because they had previously arrested him on drug charges.

Tesler confronted Sheats, Junnier stayed near the car and JR went around the green store located at 1143 Simpson St. to the place where Diamond told him that Sheats was hiding his drugs. JR came back around the green store with blue baggies which did not contain drugs and a scale. Junnier called for a drug dog. Shortly thereafter, the drug dog arrived and searched behind the green store. JR came back around the green store again with a clear sandwich bag full of $5 bags of marijuana. In an attempt to negotiate with the officers, Sheats told them that he was just in a house where he observed a kilo of cocaine broken into smaller quantities in a shoe box. Sheats said that he went to that house a lot and that he could make a buy there. He described the individual in possession of the cocaine as a black male, 30-35 years old, well-trimmed beard, using the name "Sam."

After getting the description of Sam from Sheats, the three officers, with Sheats in custody with them, started driving in the general direction of the neighborhood where Sam had the kilo according to Sheats. At about the same time, Junnier telephoned informant Alexis White (Alex), to see if he could make a buy that day. Alex told Junnier that he could, but he did not have transportation. On the way to Sam's neighborhood, Sheats started to have second thoughts about cooperating against Sam. Junnier, who was driving, stopped the police car and there was further discussion for about five minutes with Sheats about his cooperation. Sheats was told that he was going to jail if he didn't cooperate. Sheats was also told that even after he identified the house where he had seen Sam earlier, he would stay with the officers until they raided the house. He was told that he would be going to jail if they didn't find any drugs. Sheats changed his mind again and agreed to take the officers to the house where he'd seen Sam.

Next, Sheats directed the officers to Neal St. and he pointed out the house located at 933 Neal St. They drove to the next street, Jett St., and looked at 933 Neal St. from the back. They could see the back of the house from Jett St. Sheats confirmed that 933 Neal St. was the drug house from the back. They then drove back down Neal St. and JR asked Sheats if the drug house was the one with the red awning and Sheats said no it was the one with the green shudders and the wheel chair ramp, which again identified 933 Neal St. They then drove down Joseph Lowery to the jail to write up the warrant.

While stopped with Sheats before going by Neal St., the officers had a discussion about who was going to write up the warrant. Junnier made the comment that they needed to do a buy at 933 Neal St. first. JR responded, "Or not." Junnier said that in that case he was not going to do the affidavit and Tesler also said that he would not. JR said that he would write it. This discussion was had in front of Sheats.

Before confronting Sheats at 1143 Simpson St., the officers were at 350 Lanier St. JR said that he found all kinds of drugs at that location. At 1143 Simpson St., Junnier saw Tesler with some cocaine. Junnier believes that there was some cocaine found at that location.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

Five or six days after the shooting, Junnier met with JR and Tesler at a pizza shop near Town Center. Other officers were invited, but none showed up. JR had a binder with him. He had police reports including a buy report. He also had his telephone records. JR and Tesler tried to get their stories straight. Junnier told them that he didn't have to memorize a story because he only contacted Alex. He told them that that was his only part in the story.

Later, immediately before meeting with the PBA attorney, Don English, the three officers met again in a vehicle at Target on Moreland Ave, south of Little Five Points. Only Junnier, JR and Tesler were invited to this meeting. The purpose of the meeting was to go over the details of the fictitious buy at 933 Neal St. Junnier recalls that certain fictitious details were agreed upon including: the moldy smell of Alex's car, Alex's car had a lot of trash in it and his car was green. There was talk that Alex's car was a Lumina or a Monte Carlo, but it was settled upon that they would just say that it was green without committing to a make or model. Junnier told the others at that meeting that he agreed to the fictitious details.

By the meeting in the vehicle at Target, Junnier still had not decided if he were going to carry out the cover-up. He wanted to tell the truth, but he was afraid of going to prison. He also heard the United States Attorney, David Nahmias, on the news warn witnesses, "don't come in here and lie." Ultimately, Junnier couldn't lie. Before coming to his proffer with the FBI, Junnier's teenage son said, "Dad, I'm praying for you." And, his son suggested an outfit that he might wear for the occasion.

At the meeting at the Target, it was agreed that Alex's car was a four-door. It was also agreed that Alex walked down the side of the house at 933 Neal St. before making the buy. Hearing JR and Tesler talk, Junnier was confused about how Alex would have met Sam at the porch. The story was good in his opinion up until that point.

Sheats had told the officers that when Sam is not at 933 Neal St., he has somebody watch the house for him from outside to turn people away. This is a fact that was discussed at the pizza shop meeting as well as at the meeting at Target.

Junnier met with Tesler last Thursday after Tesler was interviewed by the FBI. He met him at Highway 92 and Wade Green

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

Road. Junnier wanted to pay Tesler at that time for a side job that both he and Tesler work at. Tesler told Junnier that the meeting with the FBI went well and that he was able to explain the time-line before the shooting. Junnier told Tesler that he would not be using the PBA attorney. Tesler told Junnier that that was not a good idea. Junnier spoke to Tesler again the next day before Junnier's daughter's 6:30 p.m. basketball game. It sounded to Junnier as if Tesler had been to talk to JR about Junnier not using the PBA attorney.

Junnier thought that maybe JR could have gotten a warrant based on just Sheats' information. At one point, he questioned JR about why he hadn't put the information from Sheats in the affidavit and JR responded that Sheats was not reliable.

Based on looking at his telephone bill, Junnier believes that he called Alex at about 5 p.m. on the day of the shooting. He called Alex as he, JR, Tesler and Sheats were leaving 1143 Simpson St. After that, they drove down Simpson at Sheats' direction and went to Simpson and Joseph Lowery. It took five minutes or less until they pulled into a parking lot on Simpson St. across Joseph Lowery. Five to ten minutes later, they pulled out of the parking lot and then spent ten to fifteen minutes looking at 933 Neal St. After they finished at Neal St., they proceeded to the Fulton County Jail and parked, which took about another five minutes total. Junnier thinks that they were at the jail at 5:30 p.m. JR went into the jail and then Junnier and Tesler joked about how long it would take JR to get the warrant. They each made a guess about what time he would come back out of the jail. Junnier believes that JR in fact exited the jail at about 6 p.m. JR has a thumb drive on which he stores old warrants and he can cut and paste affidavits fairly quickly.

When JR came out of the jail, JR said, "They got the buy." Junnier thinks that JR said that for Sheats' benefit.

If there were drugs turned in from a search of 933 Neal St. which weren't found there legitimately, then they were probably from JR's stash of throw-down drugs. Junnier does not know where else they would have come from.

Junnier believes that it was after Tesler's interview with the FBI that Tesler told him about field testing some cocaine at 1143 Simpson St. Junnier did not observe Tesler field testing any drugs at 1143 Simpson and he didn't hear anyone mention it while they were there or shortly thereafter.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

JR never expressed a reason why he didn't want to do the buy at 933 Neal St. Junnier speculates that JR may have been worried about time passing. Junnier believed when JR went into the jail to write the affidavit for the warrant, he was going to include the information from Sheats.

The meeting at the pizza shop was about three or four days before the meeting at Target which was probably on a Wednesday. After Junnier, JR and Tesler left the meeting with the PBA attorney, they sat together in the parking lot for ten minutes. Junnier can't recall any other attempt at that time to get their story straight regarding the events preceding the shooting.

After the officers met at Target, the three of them drove the entire route that they had driven with Fabian Sheats on the day of the shooting. JR and Tesler got their story straight on meeting Alex and Alex doing the buy at 933 Neal St. JR and Tesler were unsure what their story should be regarding when they first met Alex on the day of the shooting. However, they decided that they would say that when JR got out of the car to take his police gear off, he saw Alex.

At the tactical briefing at the fire station on Flowers St. before the raid at 933 Neal St., JR briefed the raid team that a buy had been done at 933 Neal St. Junnier knew that that was not true, but it didn't bother him that much because he knew that they had verified the address with Sheats and he believed Sheats when he said he had bought drugs at that address earlier in the day.

Junnier called Sargent Stallings before JR came out of the jail and told Stallings to have everyone rally at the fire station which was a common rally point. Junnier thinks that they drove straight from the jail to the fire station and most of the team was there when they got there. He recalls that Nathan Lucas and Maurice Guerin were not there yet.

When the raid briefing was conducted, Sheats was in a position to hear it. He had plenty of opportunity to say that he had lied about buying drugs there if it didn't happen. In addition, Sargent Stallings confronted Sheats at the time of the briefing telling him that there had better be a lot of drugs at 933 Neal Street. Sheats replied that there were a lot of drugs there.

At the pizza shop meeting, JR came into the restaurant last. Tesler told JR that he noticed that JR had shaved and was wearing a nice shirt and glasses. JR responded that he had to put on a good image. All three officers brought written statements to that meeting. JR read his to Tesler. Junnier heard parts of it while he was getting up and down to get food off of the buffet.

Junnier talked to Alex the day after the shooting. Alex told Junnier that he had made the buy. That is, Junnier was trying to instill in Alex's mind that he needed to say that he had made the buy. Alex told Junnier at one point that JR told him that he would get $300 from JR for the buy and Alex added that that wouldn't be enough. Junnier told Alex to tell the truth when he was talking to Alex on the telephone because he thought the FBI might be listening. Junnier later arranged for a store owner named Eddie, who he worked a second job for, to pay Alex $100 to keep Alex happy. JR told Junnier that he paid Alex $250. Junnier thinks that that was $50 of the City's money and $200 of JR's money.

At the pizza shop meeting, JR wanted to know when Junnier called Alex on the day of the shooting. Also, JR was going to ask Alex something like, "Hey, didn't you make that buy?" JR wanted to flip the problem back on to Alex.

The reason that Junnier arranged for Eddie the store owner to give Alex $100 was because Alex was asking for money, which was not uncommon for Alex to do. Junnier hoped that the money would encourage Alex to continue to say that he had made the buy at 933 Neal St. The $100 from Eddie to Alex did not relate to the raid on Rhodesia Road.

When JR went to write the affidavit at the jail, Junnier thought that JR was going to falsely say that a buy happened at 933 Neal St. On the other hand, he also thought that JR was going to include the information received from Fabian Sheats and attribute it to Sheats.

Regarding the raid that Junnier's team did on Rhodesia Road in November 2006, no buy was made there either. Junnier's team received information from a drug dealer that marijuana was being sold at 161 Rhodesia Road. Junnier and Officer Cary Bond sent Alex there to make a buy. Alex told one of the occupants of the house that he wanted to buy marijuana and that person told him that they were packing up and to come back later. Alex smelled marijuana in the house. JR also attempted to make a buy at 161 Rhodesia Road using his informant, [redacted] but for some reason [redacted] couldn't make the buy. Junnier subsequently swore out an affidavit including the information from Alex's attempt to make a buy but also including the false assertion that a buy had been made. JR provided the marijuana that was falsely turned in as evidence. JR's handwriting is on the property sheets for that raid.

JR keeps extra drugs called INS drugs. INS stands for insurance in case you don't find drugs on a raid. JR told Junnier that he learned about INS drugs while working with REDDOG. Junnier believes that JR may have planted drugs on people who were later prosecuted for possessing those drugs.

Nathan Lucas has taken videos from homes that the narcotics team has raided. Sargent Stallings will not let Lucas count cash because he doesn't trust him. Junnier has no knowledge of anyone on his team ever stealing cash from the site of a raid or anywhere else.

Junnier is aware of a number of different shortcuts used by APD officers related to warrants. First, affidavits will state that an officer observed an informant go to the door of a house to buy drugs when in fact the officer was not in a position to see the informant go to the door or in some cases the officer was not even in the vicinity of the house approached by the informant. Junnier has used that shortcut several times.

Second, officers will pad vouchers for buy money to include gas money for the informant. That is, an officer may say an informant bought $50 worth of drugs when he really bought $40 worth of drugs. The ten dollar difference will be given to the source for gas when he uses his own vehicle. The Fulton County District Attorney's Office never charges defendants with the buys used for probable cause to get warrants so officers don't have to falsify testimony when they pad buy money for gas. Additionally, officers have had to pad vouchers just to get city cars repaired.

Third, it is common practice on Junnier's narcotics team for an officer to make a number of buys with an informant and then give those cases to other officers who need cases. Those officers will then write affidavits stating that they witnessed the informant make a buy when in fact they had not. This practice is motivated by the fact that the department has a quota: nine arrests and two search warrants per narcotics officer per month. Promotions and pay increases depend upon the quotas being met or exceeded.

Fourth, most of the time informants will drive themselves to make a buy. However, officers will falsely state in affidavits that they rode with the informants to make buys.

Fifth, often times an affidavit will state that the swearing officer patted down the informant before and after he makes a buy when in fact that did not happen. With an informant like Alex who Junnier has a lot of experience with, he would not pat him down but he would say he did in an affidavit.

Sixth, if a buy gets stale, Junnier will often write a surveillance paragraph. That paragraph states that additional buys were observed. Those buys would be fictitious.

Seventh, sometimes an unreliable informant will make a buy. When the handling officer writes the affidavit for a warrant, he attributes the buy to a reliable informant. Thereafter, the unreliable informant and the reliable informant might split the money for the buy.

Junnier learned those seven shortcuts from other narcotics officers over the years. Many of those shortcuts were used with Alex who may have done as many as 300 buys for Junnier's team. Many times Junnier used shortcuts simply to make sure that the bad guys went to jail. He has never once believed that he was framing an innocent person.

Regarding the marijuana found in the search of 933 Neal St. after the shooting, Junnier believes it was planted by JR. Possibly at the meeting that Junnier, Tesler and JR had at the pizza shop, JR said that he heard that drugs were found at 933 Neal St. He further said something like, "Let's say a few bags of weed fell out of my pants." Junnier believes that JR may have gotten that marijuana at 350 Lanier St. earlier in the day before the shooting. At the hospital after the shooting, JR told Junnier that everything was good, he had it worked out, but he had to talk to Junnier later.

Junnier, Tesler and JR arrested Fabian Sheats three times in the last several months. Sheats never before gave up his supplier, but when he was arrested on the day of the shooting, he already had two pending cases. The two previous arrests of Sheats were legitimate as far as Junnier knows.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

Eddie the store-owner pays Junnier $100 per week for security at the store. Junnier has no regular hours. Eddie has paid Alex before but with Junnier's money.

Junnier has had pre-signed vouchers from Alex in the past. Maybe some of Junnier's teammates also had some.

Recently, Alex provided information about drugs at an apartment at 1155 Simpson St., Building C. Tesler got a warrant. There were no drugs at that location when the warrant was executed. An old man and a kid lived there.

On the APD radio, a "38" is a drug matter. 6545 is Junnier's call sign. 6548 is Tesler's call sign. And, 6541 is JR's. Any call sign beginning with 18 is a REDDOG member.

Sheats can corroborate that JR and Tesler weren't with Alex making a buy after Sheats was arrested and before the shooting.

ALEXIS A. WHITE was interviewed in Atlanta, Georgia. WHITE was a confidential informant (CI) for officers of the ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT's (APD) narcotics unit. During a previous interview, WHITE stated he attempted, at the direction of APD officers, but did not purchase drugs from 161 Rhodesia Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia (161 Rhodesia). A warrant was executed at 161 Rhodesia by APD officers, and in the affidavit, it was stated an APD CI purchased drugs from 161 Rhodesia. WHITE was aware of the identities of the interviewing agents, and after being advised of the nature of the interview, WHITE provided the following information:

During November, 2006, APD Officers CARY BOND and J.R. SMITH picked up WHITE in a red pickup truck with tinted windows, and they drove by 161 Rhodesia. When WHITE saw the house, he told BOND that [redacted] but had not told BOND about it. [WHITE was aware of 161 Rhodesia because he drove an unidentified male known as FLORIDA there to buy marijuana. When WHITE entered the house, there were three or four unidentified black males, and WHITE observed two handguns. FLORIDA bought one to two ounces of powder cocaine.] BOND told WHITE to call [redacted] told BOND it was okay for APD to attempt to purchase drugs from 161 Rhodesia.

BOND parked at the SOMETHING SPECIAL RESTAURANT, 1665 Jonesboro Road, Atlanta, Georgia, and WHITE got out of the pickup truck. WHITE walked to 161 Rhodesia. There was a little boy on the front steps, and WHITE told him to get his mother. A female and approximately three men came out, and one of them was smoking marijuana. None of them looked familiar. WHITE asked for MARIO and said he wanted to get a sack of "purple." Someone responded that MARIO did not live there. WHITE did not purchase drugs from 161 Rhodesia. BOND and SMITH drove by in the red pickup truck while WHITE was in the yard. As WHITE walked on Rhodesia Avenue toward SOMETHING SPECIAL, the girl from 161 Rhodesia walked on Rhodesia Avenue in the same direction, and one of the men drove by WHITE on a scooter.

WHITE met BOND and SMITH at SOMETHING SPECIAL. WHITE told them he was not able to buy anything, and BOND told him to keep the $100 for other purchases of drugs that day. WHITE told them that the people at 161 came on to the porch, and one was smoking marijuana. SMITH stated he (SMITH) smelled weed and that WHITE smelled weed. WHITE never saw SMITH in a position in which he could have smelled marijuana. WHITE never went back to 161 Rhodesia to purchase drugs.

WHITE talked to [redacted] and told him that WHITE did not purchase drugs from 161 Rhodesia, but APD officers were going to get a warrant based upon smelling weed. [redacted] responded that he told WHITE that APD does things differently.

On March 21, 2007, SAs DAVIS and VAN EPPS reinterviewed WHITE, and WHITE provided the following information:

WHITE drove FLORIDA to 161 Rhodesia between six months and a year prior to the day he attempted, at BOND's direction, to buy drugs from 161 Rhodesia.

BOND told WHITE to ask for MARIO at 161 Rhodesia.

WHITE's pants pockets were felt by an APD officer before he got out of the red pickup truck to attempt to purchase drugs from 161 Rhodesia, but neither officer felt his pockets after he returned to the truck.

After WHITE attempted to purchase drugs from 161 Rhodesia, SMITH stated he would get a warrant for the residence that night. BOND was quiet when SMITH made that statement.

WHITE did not see APD Officer GREGG JUNNIER on the day WHITE attempted to purchase drugs from 161 Rhodesia.

On November 23, 2006, at East Atlanta City Hall, SMITH paid WHITE $100 for work on Payne Street, but WHITE does not recall work on a street with that name. SMITH stated he was paying WHITE with his own money. WHITE signed a blank voucher, and SMITH said it was for the work on Payne Street. JUNNIER telephonically told WHITE that the $100 payment from [redacted] who owns a market on Martin Luther King, Junior, Boulevard, was for WHITE's work at 161 Rhodesia.

ALEXIS A. WHITE was interviewed in Atlanta, Georgia. The Atlanta Police Department (APD) executed a search warrant at 834 Brookline Street, Georgia, 30310, and according to the affidavit, an APD Confidential Informant (CI) purchased drugs from 834 Brookline Street. WHITE was the APD CI credited with the drug purchase from 834 Brookline. WHITE was aware of the identities of the interviewing agents, and after being advised of the nature of the interview, WHITE provided the following information:

WHITE stated he had been by 834 Brookline Street on two different occasions. On the first occasion WHITE was riding around with a friend named [redacted] was driving and stated he needed to stop by his mom's house which resides at 834 Brookline Street. WHITE sat in the car and [redacted] ran inside of the house. WHITE stated [redacted]'S mom appeared to be selling drugs out of the house. WHITE watched several people pull up in their cars and then run into the house and leave within a few minutes. [redacted] stayed in the house for about ten minutes and then returned to the car and left the residence. WHITE has never met nor seen [redacted]'S mother.

WHITE told Atlanta Police Department investigator GREGG JUNNIER about 834 Brookline Street as being a possible drug house. WHITE and JUNNIER drove by the address and watched a few cars pull up to the house and then leave within a few minutes. JUNNIER told WHITE that he did not want him (WHITE) to buy from this house.

WHITE later heard from JUNNIER that they had raided 834 Brookline Street. WHITE was not positive if he was paid by JUNNIER for this house, because WHITE always signed blank vouchers.

ALEXIS A. WHITE was interviewed in Atlanta, Georgia. The ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) executed a search warrant at 3350 Mount Gilead Road, #48, Atlanta, Georgia (3350 Mount Gilead #48), and according to an affidavit, an APD confidential informant (CI) purchased drugs from 3350 Mount Gilead #48. WHITE was the APD CI credited with the drug purchase from 3350 Mount Gilead #48. WHITE was aware of the identities of the interviewing agents, and after being advised of the nature of the interview, WHITE provided the following information:

WHITE confirmed that approximately two years ago he told APD Officer GREGG JUNNIER about an individual known as MARCO. WHITE's [redacted] told WHITE that 3350 Mount Gilead #48 was MARCO's apartment. WHITE has not been inside of 3350 Mount Gilead #48.

WHITE drove by 3350 Mount Gilead #48 and saw MARCO's red Lexus. WHITE contacted JUNNIER about 3350 Mount Gilead #48 and gave him directions to the apartment. JUNNIER could not locate it, so WHITE met JUNNIER, and then JUNNIER and WHITE, in JUNNIER's vehicle, drove by 3350 Mount Gilead #48. WHITE does not believe any other officers were with them.

WHITE told JUNNIER that someone could not knock on the door and purchase drugs from the apartment. JUNNIER did not want WHITE to try to purchase drugs from 3350 Mount Gilead #48. WHITE has not attempted to purchase drugs from 3350 Mount Gilead #48.

WHITE does not recall being paid for purchasing drugs from 3350 Mount Gilead #48 or signing a voucher for a purchase from 3350 Mount Gilead #48. WHITE believes he was paid and signed a payment voucher for that payment after APD executed a search warrant at 3350 Mount Gilead #48.

WHITE does not recall attempting to purchase drugs from any other locations on the day that JUNNIER and WHITE drove by 3350 Mount Gilead #48.

ALEXIS A. WHITE, was interviewed in the parking lot of the Flipper Apartment Complex, 2479 Abner Terrace, Atlanta, Georgia 30318. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the interview, WHITE voluntarily provided the following information:

WHITE met Atlanta Police Department (APD) Investigator GREG JUNNIER at the M & A Supermarket [redacted], 2185 Martin Luther King, Jr. Drive, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia 30310, sometime in the Spring or Summer of 2006. WHITE was meeting JUNNIER to get paid for information that he had provided earlier. While at the store JUNNIER paid WHITE and had him sign several blank voucher forms. Before leaving, JUNNIER asked WHITE if he would make a controlled drug purchase for APD Investigator HOLLY BUCHANAN. WHITE agreed and JUNNIER and BUCHANAN both briefed him with the details. Investigator CARY BOND may have also been at the store. JUNNIER and BUCHANAN directed WHITE to go to the Flipper Apartment Complex, 2479 Abner Terrace, Atlanta, Georgia, and attempt to buy cocaine from a black male with tattoos. WHITE was unsure if the officers directed him to a specific apartment, but he remembered being directed to the lower backside of the complex.

After receiving instructions and buy money from JUNNIER and BUCHANAN, WHITE drove himself to the apartment complex. WHITE was never searched by the officers before leaving Eddie's Store. WHITE drove to the back of the apartment complex and saw a black male matching the description given to him earlier. The black male was standing in the court yard. WHITE approached the man and attempted to purchase cocaine. The man told WHITE that he was out and to come back some other time. WHITE then drove back to Eddie's Store and told JUNNIER and BUCHANAN that he was unable to make a buy. BUCHANAN commented that the suspect probably did not sell to WHITE, because he did not know him. WHITE was never paid for the attempted buy. Sometime later, JUNNIER told WHITE that the Narcotics team served a search warrant at the Flipper Apartment Complex and did not find anything. That was the only time WHITE ever made an attempt to buy drugs from the Flipper Apartment Complex.

WHITE began to talk about the APD shooting which occurred on Tuesday night, 11/21/2006. WHITE stated that he received several calls from two APD Officers beginning Tuesday night. The two APD Officers calling WHITE were JUNNIER and J.R. SMITH. The APD Officers told WHITE that they executed a search warrant on Tuesday night. The APD Officers began to feed WHITE the story that WHITE purchased drugs at a residence in Atlanta. The APD Officers gave WHITE a physical description of the residence as well as a physical description of the person WHITE supposedly purchased the drugs from. WHITE told the APD Officers that he had never purchased drugs from that residence. The APD Officers told WHITE that they needed him to cover for them on this one. The APD Officers further told WHITE that they would pay him for backing their story. WHITE was adamant about not doing a drug buy at the location described by the APD Officers.

Afterwards, DEGREE and JOSEPH dropped WHITE off back on Boulevard. DEGREE told WHITE that they would contact him later. DEGREE instructed WHITE not to answer the telephone if any of the APD officers tried to contact him.

DEGREE and JOSEPH returned to their office to further investigate WHITE's information. DEGREE researched news reports relating to the APD shooting which occurred on Tuesday evening, 11/21/2006. DEGREE also discussed WHITE's information with SA DANIEL (GOOCH) ARRUGETTA, and Supervisory Agent LEVINGSTON III.

At approximately 4:00pm, DEGREE called WHITE and told him that they wanted to pick him up and bring him back to their office. WHITE agreed to going back to the ATF office. Five minutes later, WHITE called DEGREE and said that he was with two APD Officers. WHITE stated that the APD Officers wanted to show him some pictures relating to the Tuesday night shooting. WHITE put APD Officer FIRST NAME UNKNOWN (FNU) DUNCAN on the telephone with DEGREE. DUNCAN told DEGREE that they needed to show WHITE pictures referencing the shooting. DEGREE asked DUNCAN to bring WHITE by the ATF office to complete some paper work when they were finished with WHITE.

WHITE called DEGREE approximately five more times while he was with APD. WHITE was trying to talk in code. DEGREE was able to determine that what WHITE was still with the two APD Officers and that WHITE was scared. On the final telephone call, WHITE said that he jumped out of the APD car and ran to the BP gas station on Spring Street and North Ave. DEGREE does not know the name of the second APD Officer that was with WHITE.

DEGREE and JOSEPH drove to the BP gas station to locate WHITE. When DEGREE and JOSEPH arrived at the BP gas station they saw WHITE standing beside the soda machine. WHITE told DEGREE that he ran from the APD Officers because he was nervous and scared. WHITE also called 911 after he jumped out of the APD vehicle. DEGREE and JOSEPH performed a precautionary "patdown" of WHITE before placing him in their car and driving back to the ATF office on West Peachtree Street. Once they got back to the ATF office, WHITE was placed in an interview room while the ATF contacted APD Internal Affairs.

Shortly afterwards, APD Internal Affairs Investigator FNU LESTER arrived and was briefed about the allegations made by WHITE. WHITE was moved to a conference room where LESTER began to interview him. Approximately one hour later DEGREE walked LESTER and WHITE outside to meet LESTER's partner. LESTER was going to take WHITE to the APD.

WHITE called DEGREE later Wednesday night, 11/22/2006. DEGREE did not answer WHITE's telephone call.

WHITE also called DEGREE on Thursday, 11/23/2006. WHITE told DEGREE that APD Internal Affairs finished interviewing him on Wednesday evening and took him home afterwards.

On Friday, 11/24/2006, WHITE called DEGREE for a status report. DEGREE informed WHITE that he was at work and that he had not followed up with APD, Internal Affairs. WHITE told DEGREE that he had received more calls form JUNNIER and other APD Officers.

[redacted]

DEGREE has executed a few search warrants with JUNNIER in the past. DEGREE knows JUNNIER to be a "stand-up cop". DEGREE can recognize some of the other Officers on JUNNIER's team by face but he does not recall their names.

Later this same evening, SA JOSEPH heard about a police shooting in Atlanta whereby three officers were shot and wounded and an elderly female was shot and killed.

The next day, which was Wednesday, November 22, 2006, SA JOSEPH received a phone call from SA DEGREE. SA DEGREE said that he had just received a phone call from WHITE. The call was received between 9:30 and 10:00 am. WHITE told SA DEGREE that he had some information pertaining to the APD shooting incident. SA DEGREE and SA JOSEPH met with WHITE at approximately 12 noon. They met him in the vicinity of his mother's house, located near the Atlanta Penitentiary.

WHITE told SA JOSEPH and SA DEGREE that he had received a phone call from APD OFFICER GREG JUNNIER, aka, "OLD JUNNIER", the previous day at approximately 5:00pm. OFFICER JUNNIER asked him if he would be available that evening to make a drug buy. WHITE said he would be available, but he never heard back from OFFICER JUNNIER until approximately 10:30pm that night. At this time, OFFICER JUNNIER called WHITE and gave him a description of the house he was supposed to have made the buy from and a description of the person he allegedly bought the drugs from. OFFICER JUNNIER told WHITE to go along with the story, even though WHITE had no knowledge of or participation in the alleged drug deal. OFFICER JUNNIER asked WHITE to lie about a drug deal he did not make.

WHITE seemed very scared of the ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT. He advised that this was not the first time that OLD JUNNIER had used his identity as an informant in an affidavit for a narcotics search warrant. He said that OLD JUNNIER had used his name in the past for drug purchases that he did not make. He went along with this in the past. He advised that APD had now been "burned" because a lady had been shot and killed.

WHITE told SA JOSEPH and SA DEGREE that he was scared. He told them that he trusted the "Feds", which is why he called them. SA JOSEPH and SA DEGREE told WHITE not to talk to anyone about the case and they took him back to the vicinity of his mother's apartment.

SA JOSEPH and SA DEGREE then returned to their office and talked to another agent, SA DANIEL ARREGETTA, about the allegation WHITE had made to them. They then discussed the matter with their supervisor, ROBERT LEVINGSTON III.

A few hours later on this same date (November 22, 2006), possibly between 2:00pm and 3:00pm, SA DEGREE received a phone call from WHITE. WHITE told him that he was in an APD police vehicle with two officers. One of the officers was OFFICER DUNCAN. WHITE did not recall the other officers name, but advised that he was a white male. SA DEGREE was concerned about WHITE'S safety and the fact that he was in a vehicle with two APD officers.

SA DEGREE shortly thereafter received another phone call from WHITE. WHITE told him that he had jumped out of the APD vehicle and had fled from the police officers because he was scared. WHITE said that he was at a BP Gas Station located at the intersection of Spring Street and North Avenue. SA DEGREE and SA JOSEPH drove to the BP Gas Station and located WHITE. They did a pat down search of him prior to putting him in their vehicle. They then drove him to their office on West Peachtree Street.

SA JOSEPH and SA DEGREE placed WHITE in an interview room and contacted the Internal Affairs Department of the ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT. WHITE stated that the APD officers were trying to take him to their office to do a photo line-up and he got scared. A detective arrived to interview WHITE. He was a black male. Once the interview was concluded (sometime between 7:00pm and 9:00pm), SA JOSEPH and SA DEGREE escorted WHITE out of their building and walked with him to the police vehicle. WHITE left with the detective and was taken to the police department located at City Hall East.

SA JOSEPH received a phone call from WHITE on Friday morning, November 24, 2006. SA JOSEPH asked WHITE if he was ok. He said he was. He then asked to speak with SA DEGREE.

SA JOSEPH was never contacted by anyone from the ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT regarding his association with WHITE.

Lieutenant STACIE GIBBS, Criminal Investigations Division, Narcotics Unit Commander of the Atlanta Police Department, was interviewed at the Atlanta Police Department located at 675 Ponce De Leon Avenue, N.E., Atlanta, Georgia, 30308, work telephone number (404) 853-4652, and cellular telephone number [redacted] After being advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the interview, GIBBS, provided the following information:

GIBBS became the lieutenant over narcotics on January 26, 2006. GIBBS has approximately 21 sworn law enforcement officers working for her in the narcotics section.

Sergeant W.T. STALLINGS is over 8 people on Team I. Team I normal work hours are from 12:00pm through 8:00pm. These hours can vary on a daily basis.

Sergeant PAUL SPARWATH is over 9 people on Team II. Team II normal work hours are from 4:00pm through 12:00am. These hours can vary on a daily basis.

Sergeant STEVE KEEBLE is the narcotic's squad administrative Sergeant. KEEBLE keeps all of the source information, payment vouchers, and money for source payments. KEEBLE'S normal work hours are from 7:00am through 4:00pm.

SPARWATH also has access to the money to pay sources for after hour drug buys.

GIBBS stated the narcotic investigators are suppose to use the Standard Operating Procedures(SOP) as the guidelines for how much money to pay informants for different drug buys. Informants have to sign a voucher for the money they receive and the investigator has to do a write up about the drug buy.

GIBBS stated there are no set rules for how many times to buy drugs from a house in order to receive a search warrant for the house. GIBBS advised you can receive a search warrant for a house after one drug buy.

The investigators do not have take home cars. The narcotic teams have specific cars assigned to their teams. The narcotic teams share undercover cars when necessary.

The narcotic teams normally administer their own search warrants. GIBBS does not remember a search warrant in which the narcotics unit had to request SWAT or Red Dog to serve. The narcotic unit has served 293 search warrants, year to date.

On 11/21/2006, GIBBS had knowledge of Team I attempting a possible "buy/bust". GIBBS went to lunch and when she returned she noticed Narcotics Investigator LUCAS and Investigator GEURIN, leaving the office carrying their raid equipment. GIBBS told LUCAS and GEURIN "Yall didn't call me." One of the investigators responded by stating "GREG and them have got a warrant on a location." GIBBS decided not to join the Investigators on the raid because she was not dressed appropriately to assist on a drug raid.

GIBBS heard over her police radio that her narcotics Team I was calling for assistance. GIBBS called STALLINGS' cell phone to check on Team I's status and STALLINGS informed GIBBS that his team had been involved in a shooting. When GIBBS arrived at the scene the investigation had been turned over to Atlanta's homicide investigators.

GIBBS has had contact with the Team I members that were involved in the shooting, but she has never discussed the shooting with the investigators. GIBBS was contacted by Investigator J.R. SMITH on 11/23/2006, to inform GIBBS that he (SMITH) had driven the Confidential Source to 675 Ponce De Leon Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia, to view pictures of suspects fitting the description of SAM. SMITH informed GIBBS of other investigators, and a custodian that had witnessed him and the informant in the building. SMITH also reminded GIBBS to check the video system to witness SMITH pulling into and out of the police department's parking lot.

JORGE TAVARES-CEPIN, also known as EDDY was interviewed at about 1:30 p.m. at his store, M.A. SUPERMARKET, 2185 Martin Luther King Drive, Atlanta, Georgia 30310, telephone [redacted]. He was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent by a display of credentials and informed of the nature of the interview. He then provided the following information:

Officer GREGORY JUNNIER had worked for TAVARES-CEPIN on an informal basis for about one and one-half years. JUNNIER provided a quick police response if there was suspected drug dealing or other types of criminal activity around the store. TAVARES-CEPIN also recalled that JUNNIER had helped him out regarding a licensing issue. The City of Atlanta had closed down M.A. SUPERMARKET for not having the correct license. TAVARES-CEPIN had paid for the proper license, but had not received it. He called JUNNIER who took care of the problem and TAVARES-CEPIN was back in business quickly. TAVARES-CEPIN paid JUNNIER $100 cash at the conclusion of each week, generally on a Wednesday, but sometimes on Monday.

TAVARES-CEPIN was aware that JUNNIER had been involved in a shooting on November 21, 2006. JUNNIER came into the M.A. SUPERMARKET the following evening, Wednesday, November 22, 2006 and showed TAVARES-CEPIN where he had been shot. TAVARES-CEPIN paid JUNNIER $100 cash for the week.

The following day, November 23, 2006, which was Thanksgiving, TAVARES-CEPIN received a telephone call from JUNNIER. JUNNIER told him that a man was going to come into the store. He asked TAVARES-CEPIN to give the usual $100 to this man.

Note: TAVARES-CEPIN acknowledged to the interviewing Agent that this would have been payment in advance for the following week. He did not recall discussing this issue with JUNNIER.

he did not know the man's name, but that he had seen him in the store a month or two before and believed that he worked with JUNNIER in drug investigations.

The man was not with anyone to TAVARES-CEPIN's knowledge. He stated that he knows a police officer named JR who has accompanied JUNNIER on occasion. He described JR as a tall, former Army guy. TAVARES-CEPIN did not see JR on Thanksgiving.

TAVARES-CEPIN stated that this was not the only time he had been instructed to give the $100 weekly payment to someone beside JUNNIER. He stated that previously, when JUNNIER was on vacation in Florida, he had called TAVARES-CEPIN and told him someone would pick up the weekly payment. TAVARES-CEPIN stated that an individual, believed to be another police officer, later came by and TAVARES-CEPIN gave him $100 cash.

TAVARES-CEPIN advised that he had received a call today (11/29/2006) from GREGORY JUNNIER. JUNNIER stated that he was going to be on leave because of the shooting and would be at his home.

TAVARES-CEPIN provided GREGORY JUNNIER's cell number as [redacted].

JORGE TAVARES-CEPIN was recontacted telephonically at about 4:15 p.m. and he provided the following information:

M.A. SUPERMARKET does have security cameras, however, they are not kept supplied with videotape, so no tape is available from Thanksgiving, 2006.

JORGE TAVARES-CEPIN stated that he had called JUNNIER about fifteen minutes ago and informed him that an FBI Agent had spoken with him.

SCOTT DUNCAN, Detective, Atlanta Police Department Narcotics Unit having previously been made aware of the identity of the interviewing Agent provided the following information:

DUNCAN had previously obtained the surveillance video from TERRY BROOKSHIRE at the VARSITY RESTAURANT on 12/01/2006 which depicts events on 11/22/2006. DUNCAN had reviewed these videos and determined that he (DUNCAN) was depicted at 16:21. He had reviewed the video before and after this time and was not able to identify ALEX SMITH in the video.

On 12/06/2006, DUNCAN had obtained the security camera surveillance CD-ROM from [redacted] for review of events from 11/22/2006. DUNCAN stated that he had reviewed the CD-ROM and identified his car, a gold Taurus, entering the parking lot at 3:18 p.m. He stated that he had backed his car up after entering the lot, which had put it out of the camera surveillance range. DUNCAN stated that he had identified his car leaving at 3:38 p.m. DUNCAN stated that this was the period when he and AURELIO FELEBRITY had just picked up ALEX SMITH and had gone to [redacted] located at Lakewood and Margaret Streets and obtained the initial information regarding the buy at 133 Neal Street. [redacted]

DUNCAN stated that sometime during the week of 11/27/2006, he had gone to the BP station located across the street from the VARSITY restaurant to determine whether ALEX SMITH was depicted in their surveillance tape. He had spoken with an employee at the BP station (name unrecalled) and determined that there was no surveillance tape showing ALEX SMITH.

DUNCAN provided two silver MAXELL CD-R discs from the VARSITY dated 11/22/2006. [redacted]

AURELIO FELIBERTY, JR., Atlanta Police Department investigator was interviewed at the Atlanta Police Department located at 675 Ponce De Leon Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia, 30308, desk phone number 404-853-4220 and cellular phone number [redacted]. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview, FELIBERTY provided the following information.

FELIBERTY has been employed by the Atlanta Police Department for approximately 14 years. FELIBERTY has worked as an investigator on the fugitive unit for approximately 4 years.

On 11/22/2006, FELIBERTY was contacted by Atlanta Police Department narcotics investigator DUNCAN. DUNCAN asked FELIBERTY to assist in an interview of a Atlanta Police Department informant ALEX WHITE. FELIBERTY and DUNCAN drove to a location in zone 3 and picked up WHITE.

DUNCAN drove WHITE to [redacted] and asked WHITE what had occurred on 11/21/2006. WHITE advised that on 11/21/2006, he drove his personally owned vehicle to 933 Neal Street, Atlanta, Georgia, to make a drug buy for the Atlanta Police Narcotics unit. WHITE stated two of the narcotics investigators hid in the back seat of his car. When WHITE pulled up to the above mentioned house a black male was standing in the door way. The subject told WHITE not to walk into the house and motioned for WHITE to walk toward the back of the house. The subject and WHITE walked to the back of the house and the subject walked into an unlocked basement and sold WHITE $50.00 worth of crack cocaine. The subject identified himself as "SAM". WHITE quickly walked back to his car so "SAM" would not be able to see the to police officers hiding in his back seat.

DUNCAN asked WHITE to give a description of "SAM" and a detailed lay out of the house and basement.

DUNCAN explained to WHITE that they were going to drive around Neal street, Atlanta, Georgia, to allow WHITE a chance to find "SAM". DUNCAN also advised WHITE that he (DUNCAN) wanted WHITE to look at a photo spread located at the Atlanta Police Department.

After driving around the Neal street area, DUNCAN began to drive WHITE back to the Atlanta Police Department. DUNCAN was going to meet with another Atlanta Police Department officer at the Police Headquarters to pick up the photo line up of subjects fitting the description of "SAM".

WHITE repeatedly stated he needed to meet with an ATF Special Agent by a certain time. DUNCAN repeatedly assured WHITE that they would be finished on time for WHITE to make his meeting. WHITE was acting as if he was talking on the phone with the ATF agent and at one point was speaking on the phone with a female. When DUNCAN was at the intersection of North Avenue and Spring street, Atlanta, Georgia, WHITE stated the ATF agent was right behind them and the agent had requested them to pull over and to walk toward his car. WHITE then got out of DUNCAN'S car and ran toward the VARSITY restaurant. FELIBERTY and DUNCAN quickly parked the car and tried to find WHITE in the VARSITY, but were unable to locate WHITE.

DUNCAN repeatedly called WHITE'S cell phone and eventually got in touch with WHITE. DUNCAN told WHITE that he was not in trouble and they just wanted to show WHITE a photo line up. WHITE told DUNCAN he was scared but that he would come back to the VARSITY. FELIBERTY and DUNCAN waited in the VARSITY for about thirty minutes and then drove back to the police department.

DUNCAN advised FELIBERTY that WHITE was not a good informant.

MCCOY stated that she use to be addicted to drugs and that she would purchase and use illegal drugs. MCCOY advised she had never sold illegal drugs. MCCOY also stated that she has never allowed anyone to sell illegal drugs out of her house or around her house.

MCCOY stated that on May 15, 2003, while MCCOY was residing at [redacted] Atlanta, Georgia, [redacted], the Atlanta Police Department served a search warrant on her residence. According to MCCOY the police did not find anything in her house nor did the police arrest MCCOY. MCCOY was kicked in the leg by one of the Police Officers. The officers did not leave a copy of the search warrant for MCCOY. MCCOY stated the only person living with her at that time was her 15 year old daughter. MCCOY has three sons, however they were all in jail during this time period.

On May 19, 2003, MCCOY filed a complained on the officers that raided her house with the Atlanta Police Department.

On or about June 30, 2003, the same Atlanta Police Officers raided MCCOY'S house a second time. The Officers on this occasion stated they had found cocaine in MCCOY'S house. MCCOY was arrested during this raid and charged with possession of cocaine. MCCOY stated she did not have cocaine in her house and she felt the officers had planted the drugs in her house. MCCOY'S charges were reduced to disorderly conduct.

MCCOY stated that drug dealers did sell drugs in an abandon lot beside her house but not out of her yard.

MCCOY received a letter on August 28, 2003, from the Atlanta Police Department Office of Professional Standards stating the investigation on the officers did not develop sufficient

GREGG EDWARD JUNNIER was interviewed at the United States Attorney's Office, Atlanta, Georgia on January 25, 2007. His attorney , Rand Csehy, (404) 688-1395 (office), [redacted] (cell), was present for the interview. Also present for the interview were Assistant United States Attorneys Yonette Buchanan and Jon Peter Kelly. The interview was conducted pursuant to a proffer agreement. JUNNIER provided the following information:

He explained that the affidavits for search warrants generally would include language regarding the searching of the confidential source (CI) prior to directing the source to make a drug buy and after the source returns. JUNNIER stated that as he had previously advised the confidential sources were not always searched; however, it was not uncommon to periodically search them to keep them in line. Usually once confidence was established with the CI the searching became less routine. The inclusion of the searching of the CI in the affidavit was mainly to pacify Atlanta Police Department (APD) policy, not to put anything over on the court.

JUNNIER stated that at APD it became the culture of the environment where they would on occasion contact a CI, such as ALEX WHITE, by telephone to go and make drug buys and to meet with him later in the day to get the drugs and to settle up with the CI. The locations where buys usually would be made came from lead sheets that had come from other sources such as complaint calls from people in the neighborhood.

In regards to the various warrants that JUNNIER obtained during his time in the narcotics unit he conducted a review and provided a summary explanation. This summary is being a made a part herein. There were no warrants/affidavits where JUNNIER was the affiant where a buy was not made except for 161 Rhodesia Drive. Drugs were found at this location, as well as the affidavit had some accurate probable cause, but a buy was not made. The people in this case took a plea and are already out of jail.

He was asked specifically about a warrant that was obtained and served at 1271 Elizabeth Avenue. JUNNIER explained that this was a good warrant. ALEX WHITE, the CI knew the subject at this location. There was a man and his wife at this location and they may have been in bed. He would have allowed the woman to get dressed. The subject may have still been in his boxer shorts. He stated that the people at this location were not mistreated. He believes APD K-9 Officer Connie Carson was present when this warrant was served. She as well as others at the scene would not have allowed anyone to be mistreated, especially a woman.

Another warrant he was asked about was at 1155 Simpson. He explained that this is a BRUCE TESLER warrant. JUNNIER stated he was told by TESLER that ALEX WHITE had made a buy from this address. He recalled that when the warrant was served there was an elderly man, with a light complexion and black child. They did not find any drugs at this location. JUNNIER advised that he did not review this warrant. He did recall that the property manager at this address had been complaining that drugs were being sold from this apartment.

He was asked about a warrant that was served at 395 Woodlawn. This involved a Federal prosecution. JUNNIER stated he testified truthfully regarding this warrant. The CI that was used on this warrant was [redacted] He stated this was a good case.

JUNNIER explained that he has testified at preliminary hearings and at suppression hearings. He believes he testified truthfully at these hearings. The preliminary hearings did not get into any specifics of the search warrant. At the suppression hearings he was never specifically asked any questions on pat downs and or observing drug buys. He stated that in his eighteen years in law enforcement he has had to testify about ten times in Superior Court. He has testified numerous times in Municipal Court. He believes he has testified truthfully. Most of his cases have pled out.

The area that he could provide the most assistance is when APD would do "details." This would involve serving numerous warrants on the same night. He explained that he and/or other narcotics officers would use various CIs to make numerous buys, and then in his case he would do get the drugs from the CI after the buys and he would do a property sheet. He would provide the drugs and the property sheet to other officers who would prepare an affidavit to obtain a warrant. He has not reviewed these warrants. It was how they did things at APD.

He also recalls that in regards to making buys with ALEX WHITE, it was usually JUNNIER, JASON R. SMITH, BRUCE TESLER, and sometimes CARY BOND. MAURICE GEURIN and GARY SMITH did not use ALEX WHITE to make buys. He may have given them drugs from a buy and a property sheet for them to do a warrant. He did recall NATHAN LUCAS using ALEX to go make a buy and getting with ALEX at the end of the day to get the drugs to settle up.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

As he has previously provided, vouchers are an area where there is padding. He explained that this has been the culture of APD for years and that he believes Lieutenant Stacie Gibbs and Sergeant Stallings may have padded vouchers and/or are aware. He recalled a retired Sergeant Brown made a statement one day to "just voucher it out." This has been a method to get extra money to purchase things for department use. He is not aware of anyone padding vouchers for personal use. The money from padding vouchers was used to fix APD vehicles, get the windows tinted, and to purchase other equipment.

Sergeant Stallings and Holly Buchanan, another Team 1 member may have padded a voucher to get a non documented source paid for information and/or drug buys. They had a source known as "KURT."

JUNNIER provided the names of the members APD Narcotics Team 2. They are Sergeant Sparwath, Billy Smart, P.J. Roberson, Andy Griffith, Deaton, Keith Johnson, C. Henry, and Tim Honeycutt. This team mainly works the buckhead area. They have used ALEX WHITE to make buys.

The biggest area of concern was that APD was pushing for getting the numbers. It was 9 and 2, arrest nine people and do two search warrants per officer, per month. Major Findley the Zone 3 commander, who was a former Sergeant and Lieutenant in narcotics was someone that pushed for numbers. One specific officer, Investigator GORYCA, felt so much pressure to have the numbers that he made up cases. He recently resigned.

JUNNIER stated that other APD units operate similar to the Narcotics Unit. Those units are Weed and Seed and Gangs. The REDDOG Unit operates on a less structured basis than Narcotics and the other units. JASON SMTIH got his idea of using INS drugs from when he was in REDDOG. INS stands for insurance. Major Sellers used to work/oversee REDDOG and may have knowledge of some obtaining warrants and the voucher system.

Gregg Edward Junnier was interviewed at the United States Attorneys Office on January 16, 2007. His attorney, Rand Csehy, was present. Also present were Department of Justice Attorney Page Fitzgerald, Assistant United States Attorneys Jon Peter Kelly and Yonette Buchanan, Fulton County Assistant District Attorney Shukura Ingram and Fulton County District Attorney's Investigator Cameron Crandell. Pursuant to a signed proffer agreement, Junnier provided the following information:

It was routine for Junnier to send his informant Alex White (Alex) to do drug buys without police surveillance and without being patted down before and after the buy. Alex would also sometimes use his own money instead of money from the police. Junnier estimates that he wrote twenty-five to fifty affidavits which were used to obtain search warrants which falsely reflected that surveillance and pat downs were done.

Junnier did not start out with Alex letting him do buys on his own. Over time he got more comfortable with Alex and then he let him go out on his own.

In the last eight years, Junnier probably wrote well over a hundred affidavits related to buys done by Alex and other informants in which certain details of the affidavits were false. This amounted to about 80% of the affidavits that he wrote. On the other hand, he probably wrote no more than three affidavits, in that time period, in which he stated that a drug buy occurred when in fact it had not occurred. One of those affidavits concerned an address on Rhodesia Road. Junnier cannot at this time recall other such affidavits. Additionally, he can't recall an affidavit in which he attributed a drug buy to Alex when the buy was actually done by another informant.

Junnier has never raided a house where he didn't think there were drugs in the house. He believed that there were drugs at 933 Neal St.

Junnier has had maybe four hours of formal training for writing warrants in his eighteen year career with the Atlanta Police Department (APD). The Narcotics unit has recently re-issued rules for obtaining drug warrants, but Junnier hasn't had the opportunity to read them. He has used "ponies" from other investigators for ideas on how to write warrants. He would not have taken shortcuts in affidavits if he hadn't seen other APD officers do it. That is how he learned to do it.

If an officer wants to stay in the APD narcotics unit, he needs to have a high quantity of warrants. For years, the rule has been "2 and 9," that is, every officer needed two search warrants and nine arrests per month. Currently, there is even more incentive to comply with the 2 and 9 rule, because there is performance based incentive pay at APD. Junnier has on occasion not put in for training that he needed because he had to make sure he got his 2 and 9.

[Junnier was advised by the interviewing agents that according to telephone records, he received a telephone call from JR Smith (JR), who was in the Fulton County Jail applying for the warrant for 933 Neal St., at 5:41 p.m. on the day of the shooting at 933 Neal St.] Junnier thinks that JR called him at 5:41 p.m. to tell him that he had gotten the warrant signed. Junnier is 100% certain that he did not discuss the details of Alex's fictitious drug buy at 933 Neal St. with JR during that telephone call.

There was never a time on the day of the shooting that Junnier thought that Alex made a buy at 933 Neal St. Junnier cannot see how it is possible that either Tesler or JR thought that Alex made a buy.

Junnier is pretty certain that he did not get out of the patrol car that he was riding in with JR, Tesler and Sheats on the day of the shooting between the time that they left 1143 Simpson and when they arrived at the Fulton County Jail for JR to do an electronic warrant. He therefore did not have a private conversation with JR outside the patrol car.

When JR got back into the patrol car after swearing out the warrant at the jail, he said in front of Sheats to Tesler that Tesler was in the warrant. JR added, "It is one of those cut and paste issues."

Junnier had a conversation with JR in the patrol car before getting to the jail in front of Tesler and Sheats wherein Junnier said that they needed to do a buy at 933 Neal St. to which JR responded, "Or not." Junnier and Tesler then told JR that they were not going to swear out the warrant. JR responded that he would do it.

Sheats may have concluded that a buy had been done at 933 Neal St. based on something JR said when he got in the patrol car after finishing at the jail. JR's comment was something like, "The A-team got the buy." Junnier believed that that comment was for Sheats' benefit in order to make him think that a drug buy had been done at 933 Neal St.

Junnier, JR and Tesler also had a discussion in the patrol car with Sheats present during which the question was asked whether they should do a knock and talk at 933 Neal St. or a buy. That is another reason that JR and Tesler would have known that no buy was made.

Junnier is 99% sure that he never had the two hits of crack from 1143 Simpson in his possession. He is 100% certain that he did not hand the crack to JR at any point in time.

Junnier suggests that it may be important to determine when JR telephoned the magistrate to tell her that the warrant application was ready for her to review.

The reason that Junnier told JR and Tesler that he wasn't interested in applying for a warrant for a raid at 933 Neal St. was because he wasn't comfortable with the probable cause. In his mind, if he didn't write the affidavit, he wouldn't get in trouble no matter what JR put in the affidavit. Also, JR didn't have to listen to what Junnier said or take orders from Junnier.

When JR went into the jail to apply for a warrant for 933 Neal St., there was no doubt in Junnier's mind that Alex had not done a buy at that address that day. Moreover, there was no doubt in his mind that JR was going to swear to an affidavit that would say that a drug buy occurred when in fact it had not.

Junnier suspects that anybody who used Alex to do drug buys would have used him like Junnier used him. That is to say that they would say in an affidavit that they did surveillance of Alex doing a buy when they did not.

Junnier did tell JR after the shooting, but not on the night of the shooting, that he (JR) had to pay Alex for a buy at 933 Neal St. JR told Junnier that he was going to meet Alex at

Publix with APD Officer Burchfield. That was not Junnier's idea for JR to meet Alex at Publix.

Alex would have been paid for a buy at 933 Neal St. even if the shooting had not occurred. It was, however, even more obvious that he needed to be paid because of the shooting.

The purposes for paying Alex for a buy at 933 Neal St. and having him sign a voucher for the money were: 1) there had to be a paper trail to make Alex a part of the fictitious story and 2) to keep Alex happy so that he would stick with the fictitious story that he made a buy at 933 Neal St. Junnier got Eddie Tavarez to pay Alex $100 to help keep Alex happy, even though Junnier didn't feel that it was his responsibility to keep Alex happy. It was JR's responsibility. Junnier was just helping out JR. Junnier thinks that JR paid Alex about $250 of his own money. JR told Junnier that $250 was all the extra cash that he had. As far as Junnier knows, JR doesn't have a lot of extra money.

If a kilo of cocaine had been found at 933 Neal St. and there hadn't been a shooting, Alex would have gotten about $2000 from the APD. Junnier would not have kept any of that money nor would JR have. Junnier suspects that his teammate Nathan Lucas may have pocketed money due informants. Junnier has no first-hand knowledge of that, but he does know that Alex has complained about not getting paid by Lucas what he should have been paid.

Junnier has heard Stallings say things like "cushion your buy" meaning request through a voucher more money than was actually used for a drug buy. The purpose of cushioning a buy is to give extra money to an informant or get some money for a business purpose, not to pocket money personally. APD Lt. Gibbs was a detective in the narcotics unit and she knows about cushioning buys. If you need something around the office for work purposes, some people will say, "voucher it out."

Junnior has no evidence that Sergeant Stallings knew that a buy didn't really happen at 933 Neal St.; however, Junnier believes in his heart that Stallings did know. If Stallings would have asked Junnier, Junnier would have told him that a buy didn't happen. If Stallings learned that a buy had not happened, he "would not have let it pass." Tesler told Junnier that Tesler told Stallings that a buy did happen at 933 Neal St. Initially, after the shooting, Stallings told Junnier, JR and Tesler to get together on their stories and stick with them. Later, when the subject of an interview with the FBI was discussed, Stallings told Junnier to tell the truth.

At Grady Hospital after the shooting, JR told Junnier that Lt. Gibbs asked JR about the buy at 933 Neal St. and JR told her that they used the patrol car to drive Alex to Neal St. and they watched the buy happen from the patrol car. Junnier cannot recall if JR said that it was Junnier and Tesler with Alex in the patrol car. Junnier told JR that he couldn't use the patrol car in the story because Sheats was with them the entire time in the patrol car. Junnier remembers talking to JR and Tesler about this subject in person at the hospital. Junnier's family was at the hospital, but they were in and out of his room. Junnier recalls discussing the fact that they needed to use Alex's car in the story.

After the shooting, but while they were still at the scene, Junnier told JR that he had better have his "shit together" on this one. He did tell JR that he had better hope that there was dope in the house. Junnier had no intent when making that statement for JR to plant dope in the house. That statement has been made before by both Junnier and Sergeant Stallings. Junnier said it to Tesler on an "Alex warrant" for 1155 Simpson, Building C. There is no reason that JR would have thought that Junnier was telling him to plant drugs in the house. Moreover, when Junnier saw the inside of 933 Neal St., it didn't look like a drug house. It was a well-kept house.

Junnier does not recall telling JR to calm down at the scene of the shooting. Junnier never got the impression that JR was having a mental breakdown after the shooting.

Junnier was never going to write the affidavit for Neal St. with a fictitious buy in it. If it were up to him, he would have taken his time, gotten Alex and made a buy. There have been times in the past when he has been told by someone that a house had a kilo in it when it turned out not to. Therefore, if JR would have said that he wasn't going to do a warrant for 933 Neal St., then Junnier would have walked away from the situation until he could have gotten a buy made or done a knock and talk.

Alex is motivated by money. He has turned in uncles and cousins for money. Before the shooting, Alex's reliability was starting to come into question. Junnier didn't feel as comfortable using Alex as he had. Alex had recently supposedly done buys by himself, but he sometimes couldn't provide the details that Junnier thought he should be able to. Junnier's team had some "zeroes" (i.e. no drugs were found) on some of Alex's warrants. Junnier also received some information, from maybe the Field Investigative Team in APD Zone 3, that Alex was selling drugs. Junnier questioned Alex and he denied it.

In the days after the shooting, JR, Tesler and Junnier had about three meetings where all three of them were present and where all three were fully involved in discussions of a cover-up.

Junnier originally thought before the shooting occurred that a bad warrant was on JR because he decided to write it. Immediately after the shooting, he thought that he would get in trouble for knowing about the bad warrant before it was executed. He didn't, however, think that the trouble that he would be in would be serious. He knew that because of the death of Ms. Johnston the matter was very serious, but he didn't think, based on what he had done, that he would be faced with losing his job or going to jail. Later, on the night of the shooting, he started to think that he might be charged with murder. He decided then that it was a better option to lie and say that a buy had occurred. He was thinking at that time that he didn't want to lose his reputation with his peers by squealing on JR and Tesler. Ultimately, before meeting with the FBI and after talking to his priest, wife and his friend Rand Csehy, he decided that he couldn't live with telling a lie. And, he decided to cooperate with the government's investigation.

[At this point in the interview, Fulton County Assistant District Attorney Shukura Ingram left the room for the remainder of the interview.]

Junnier saw marijuana at 350 Lanier in JR's hands. There were at least three sandwich bags with multiple bags inside them. He doesn't know how much of that marijuana was turned in as evidence. He also doesn't know about any of that marijuana being disposed of.

To this day, Junnier doesn't know where the crack cocaine attributed to 933 Neal St. came from. He has never discussed that matter with JR or Tesler. He suspects that it came from Sheats.

When Junnier met Tesler and JR at Kroger, he probably did tell them to be careful talking on the telephone. He also probably did criticize Alex. He went over what Alex had been saying in the media.

The first meeting at My Cousin Vinnie's restaurant was called by Tesler. It had previously been agreed to by all that they had to meet at some point. Junnier did take a typed statement that he had written to that meeting and he did tell the others that he would not give them a copy. By that point in time, he was already having second thoughts about being part of a cover-up and he didn't want to give anyone evidence that he was engaging in a cover-up. He does not recall telling the others that the reason he was not going to give them a copy of his statement was because the FBI might do a search warrant. He did tell Tesler not to sign the voucher for paying Alex for a buy at 933 Neal St. and JR was bothered by that. Junnier told JR that Tesler wasn't at City Hall East on Thanksgiving when JR paid Alex and Tesler didn't need to be in any more trouble.

Tesler is more of a follower. Tesler supported JR more than Junnier ever did. On a personal basis, Junnier is more friendly with Tesler than he is with JR. JR and Tesler worked together more than Junnier and Tesler.

At the second meeting at My Cousin Vinnie's, Junnier told JR and Tesler that he'd cover them on the 933 Neal St. warrant, but they needed to cover him on his Rhodesia Road warrant. Junnier can't think of any other time when there was a shortcut used in an affidavit and somebody got hurt.

Junnier did tell JR and Tesler at one point that he might be able to hear something about the federal investigation of the shooting at 933 Neal St. and he would call them and tell them what he heard in code. He would talk about his daughter's basketball game and if he said the game was good, that would mean the investigation was going good for the officers. At the second My Cousin Vinnie meeting, Junnier laid out the false story he wanted told about his Rhodesia Road warrant.

JR did bring a written false statement of facts about the events surrounding the shooting to the first My Cousin Vinnie meeting. All three of the officers had a written statement with them, but none of them passed out copies.

Doug Little is an APD lieutenant. He trained Junnier. Little's warrants are just like Junnier's.

At the Best Buy parking lot meeting, Junnier did drive the route that the three officers were going to say they took on the day of the shooting. Tesler was really concerned about knowing the details of that route. Tesler probably did the most talking while they were driving the route.

Junnier does not know who put the marijuana from 350 Lanier in the trunk of the patrol car he was driving on the day of the shooting.

While Junnier was at Grady Hospital, Junnier asked JR if any drugs had been found at 933 Neal St. JR said, "It's taken care of." JR said that he didn't know if the drugs would be found because it was just a little bit.

Junnier did see Tesler push Sheats' whole body into the wall at 1143 Simpson. It was a pretty hard push. Junnier didn't see Sheats' head hit the wall.

Junnier is pretty sure that he is the one who called the K-9 unit to come to 1143 Simpson.

Sheats mentioned that there was a female in the house at 933 Neal St. when he was telling the officers about the drugs there. Sheats talked about the female in the patrol car in front of JR, Tesler and Junnier. Junnier thought Sheats was talking about Sam's girlfriend, not an elderly woman.

Junnier does not recall telling Tesler to call Alex before Tesler gave his statement to APD Homicide. He also does not recall calling Tesler on Thanksgiving or the day after to tell him that Alex was freaking out and to be careful about Alex recording telephone conversations, but it is possible that he did.

Junnier met Tesler in the parking lot of a Mexican restaurant on Wade Green Road before Tesler had his interview with the FBI. Tesler was concerned about Junnier getting his own attorney and not using the PBA attorney. Junnier's new attorney, Rand Csehy, told Junnier to just play along with Tesler, so he continued to assure Tesler that he would stick with the fictitious story they had come up with. Tesler told Junnier to meet him after Tesler's interview with the FBI. Junnier met Tesler at the same parking lot after Tesler's FBI interview. Tesler was up beat and he said that his interview with the FBI had gone well. He told Junnier that the FBI was focusing on the time line leading up to the raid at 933 Neal St. Tesler felt that he had explained the time line well and he was not worried. This second meeting at the Mexican restaurant parking lot was fairly short. Junnier continued to play along with the fictitious story.

When JR was conducting the tactical briefing for the narcotics team just prior to the raid at 933 Neal St., Junnier heard JR tell the team that a buy had been made at 933 Neal St. Junnier didn't expect anybody to get hurt during the raid. Sheats had told them that there would not be any guns in the house, because Sam was a convicted felon and didn't want to get caught with a gun. Junnier didn't want to put the rest of his team in a bad spot by letting them know that the warrant was bad. Junnier thought that he would not want to know if he was executing someone else's bad warrant. JR also briefed the team about there being surveillance cameras at 933 Neal St. Junnier doesn't recall JR saying what the source of that information was. Junnier also doesn't recall JR briefing the team about a female being present in the house.

Junnier believed that Sheats was telling the truth about drugs being at 933 Neal St. because he never backed down from the story and he knew that he'd be going to jail if no drugs were found in the house. Sheats had never "snitched" before on his drug sources and he told a detailed story this time. Sheats seemed genuinely concerned about Sam seeing him when they drove by 933 Neal St. and he had cold feet about cooperating.

ALEXIS A. WHITE was interviewed in Atlanta, Georgia. WHITE was a confidential informant (CI) for the Investigators of the ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT's(APD) narcotics unit. WHITE was interviewed in reference to his CI drug buy from 1994 Bent Creek Way apartment D-103, Atlanta, Georgia. WHITE was aware of the identities of the interviewing agents, and after being advised of the nature of the interview, WHITE provided the following information:

WHITE stated Investigator BOND had asked WHITE to go to 1994 Bent Creek Way apartment D-103, Atlanta, Georgia, and attempt to purchase drugs. WHITE advised that he did not meet with BOND before he drove to the above mentioned apartment. WHITE was attempting to purchase the drugs by using his own money. WHITE was driving his friend KATRINA STRICKLAND's car a burgundy Saturn. WHITE approached the apartment and knocked on the door. WHITE stated that no one was home so he left the area. WHITE called BOND and explained no one answered the door at the apartment. WHITE never met with BOND on this day.

On a later date WHITE was contacted by BOND to go back to 1994 Bent Creek Way apartment D-103. WHITE met with BOND at a prearranged location and BOND gave WHITE approximately $100.00 to make a drug buy. WHITE was driving his friend [redacted] burgundy Saturn.

WHITE left BOND after receiving the hundred dollars and went to the Bent Creek apartments. WHITE recognized a friend named FERNANDO that WHITE had attended middle school with standing outside of the apartment. WHITE started a conversation with FERNANDO. WHITE was able to meet other people that were standing outside of the apartment and eventually WHITE asked an unknown black male, if he could buy some crack. The subject went inside of apartment D-103 and came back out with what appeared to be the drugs in his hand. The subject then ran to the top floor of the apartment complex and went inside of another apartment. The subject was inside of this apartment for approximately 30 seconds and then came back down the stairs. WHITE was not sure why the subject had gone upstairs. The subject sold the crack cocaine to WHITE for $100.00.

WHITE was paid by Investigator Bond for completing the drug purchase.

WHITE stated he only made one drug purchase from 1994 Bent Creek Way Apartments for the Atlanta Police Department.

On a later date APD Investigator GREGG JUNNIER asked WHITE to go by 1994 Bent Creek Way Apartment and see if a Monte Carlo SS was parked close to Apartment D-103. WHITE spotted the car and informed JUNNIER. JUNNIER asked WHITE watch the car and to call him if it moved. WHITE witnessed a female get into the car and leave the apartment complex. WHITE followed the unknown female until he watched JUNNIER and BOND pull the car over. JUNNIER then told WHITE to return to the apartment and watch for the unknown black male to return to apartment D-103. WHITE stated that the investigators eventually returned to the apartment complex and searched the apartment.

WHITE could not recall if he received money for the search of the apartment.

REMBERTO "RANDY" CARBO, owner, 1247 Simpson Road NW, Atlanta, Georgia 30314, was interviewed at his apartment complex. Also present was the apartment complex manager, [redacted] After being advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the interview, he provided the following information:

Sometime in early 2005, CARBO observed ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) Officer JR SMITH (JR) arresting a drug dealer on CARBO's property. After CARBO approached JR to comment that it was about time that APD did something about the crime problem, a conversation ensued between the two regarding onsite security. When CARBO commented that he could not afford paying a security company, JR asked him if he could afford $150 a week. Within two weeks of their initial conversation, CARBO began paying JR for his security services.

For $150 per week, JR along with APD Officers TESLER and JUNNIER, would drive by CARBO's property and provide a quick response to any criminal issues at his property. Additionally, JR would call APD to assist in any big problems happening at CARBO's complex. JR gave CARBO the impression that between 15-20 officers were available to help, but CARBO only saw JR, TESLER, and JUNNIER during that time.

JR would come by every Friday to collect $150. JR requested to be paid in cash, and although CARBO was uncomfortable with that, he agreed because he saw the results of JR's attention. In early 2006, 32 people were arrested on CARBO's property in a period of about 60 days.

After the shooting at Neal Street and the suspension of JR, TESLER, and JUNNIER, APD Officer BURCHFIELD began picking up the money. When BURCHFIELD collected the money, he arrived in either plain clothes or in uniform, and drove a tan Taurus.

The crime problem worsened when BURCHFIELD became involved, since BURCHFIELD provided little, if any service. CARBO confronted BURCHFIELD by telling him that whatever he was doing to keep CARBO's apartments safe was not working. CARBO asked BURCHFIELD what services he was providing, and BURCHFIELD responded by saying that he does drive bys and numerous arrests at CARBO's property. CARBO did not believe BURCHFIELD, and told him that he should call JR for advice.

After CARBO confronted BURCHFIELD, the crime problem seemed to get better. However, CARBO still felt that BURCHFIELD, (and then later, APD Officer BETTS) mainly came by his complex to pick up the money.

It was CARBO's understanding that he had an agreement with JR, and not with BURCHFIELD. CARBO was given cellular telephone numbers by JR, TESLER, and JUNNIER, who would respond quickly whenever CARBO called. BURCHFIELD and BETTS also provided their cell phone numbers to CARBO, but they gave a much different response. BURCHFIELD never seemed to answer his phone, but was prompt to collect his money. While BETTS did answer his phone, he always seemed too busy to do anything for CARBO. Neither BURCHFIELD nor BETTS provided an adequate response for CARBO.

CARBO last paid BETTS $300, since BETTS missed picking up his previous payment. BETTS arrived in uniform, driving his APD patrol car.

CARBO eventually hired a new security guard, and there was a short period of time when he paid both BETTS and the new guard. In an effort to curb the crime on the property, the new security guard advised CARBO to change his outdoor lighting, to post "no trespassing" signs, and to establish tow away zones.

STEPHANIE NOLAN, born [redacted], social security account number [redacted], of [redacted], cellular telephone number [redacted], was interviewed at her residence. NOLAN, who was previously made aware of the identities of the interviewing Agents, was advised of the the nature of the interview, and thereafter provided the following information:

NOLAN has owned the QUALITY PLAZA (QP) shopping center, located at 1217 through 1241 Simpson Road, Atlanta, Georgia since 1991. Sometime in late 2005, NOLAN met ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) Officer GREGG JUNNIER through [redacted]. [redacted] told NOLAN that due to the efforts of APD, drug dealers where being pushed away from a nearby apartment complex and were starting to hang around the QP. As a result, drugs were being sold around [redacted] store. [redacted] advised NOLAN that JUNNIER could help with the crime problem at the QP, and introduced JUNNIER to her.

JUNNIER told NOLAN that for $600 a month, he would clean up the area and keep drug dealers from doing there business there. JUNNIER requested that the $600 be paid in cash, and advised her that the money would be split between four officers. The officers would patrol around the QP during both on-duty and off-duty hours. NOLAN agreed to JUNNIER's proposal, and began paying him sometime in late 2005.

NOLAN described the four APD officers as follows:
- APD Officer GREGG JUNNIER;
- a white male with brown hair who would get out of the patrol car and look around; and
- two other white male officers who would stay in the patrol car.

NOLAN felt that JUNNIER and his group did a good job at ridding the QP of crime. NOLAN had JUNNIER's cellular telephone number, and may have called him to take care of a problem from time to time.

In October 2006, the QP tenant who operated a coin laundry advised NOLAN that she should not have to pay for JUNNIER's

Sometime before the KATHRYN JOHNSTON shooting that occurred in November 2006, NOLAN stopped paying JUNNIER. After the shooting incident, NOLAN called JUNNIER to offer her support.

The situation at QP started worsening after JUNNIER stopped patrolling the area. It now takes APD hours to respond to complaint calls from the QP.

Sometime in 2007, NOLAN met APD Officer DANIEL BETTS while he was sitting in his car at the QP. NOLAN asked BETTS if he could patrol around the area more often, and he responded by telling her to call him to discuss it further. NOLAN later called BETTS, but since he was injured at the time, he could not provide any service. NOLAN and BETTS did not discuss payment for his services.

BULTRON met Atlanta Police Officer TESSLER in approximately May 2006. TESSLER introduced himself to BULTRON and asked if he could speak to her boss. TESSLER told BULTRON that he and some other officers could supply security for the apartment complex. BULTRON explained to the agents that they needed security because the apartment complex had a high crime rate. BULTRON also said the convenience store at the top of the apartment's driveway had a lot of drug dealers coming in and out of the apartment complex and staying around the convenience store.

BULTRON had a number to call TESSLER if she needed his assistance, but she would have to leave a message for TESSLER. TESSLER did not patrol the complex at night. TESSLER would come by every Thursday to pick up money. BULTRON would hand TESSLER the money in an envelope. TESSLER would drive a patrol car with another officer to pick up the money. BULTRON stated that TESSLER was not in his uniform when he would drive the patrol car.

Also present at the interview was Assistant United States Attorneys JON PETER KELLY and KURT EURSKINE. After being advised of the nature of the interview and the identity of the interviewing agents, BETTS provided the following information.

BETTS advised Atlanta Police Officer BRAD BURCHFIELD began to pick up money from apartment complexes and convenience stores after Atlanta Police Officer GREGG JUNNIER was suspended. JUNNIER gave all these jobs to BURCHFIELD after JUNNIER'S suspension. BETTS would ride with BURCHFIELD while on duty to help pickup the money. BURCHFIELD had a list from JUNNIER of at least 6 different locations to pickup money. One apartment owner named "JAY" paid one time and then quit paying.

BETTS stated that most of the jobs quit paying BURCHFIELD soon after JUNNIER was suspended.

PHILLIPS advised Atlanta Police Officer JUNNIER was providing security for her apartment complex located at 377 Westchester Blvd. Atlanta, Georgia, until JUNNIER was arrested in 2006.

After JUNNIER'S arrest Atlanta Police Officer BURCHFIELD began to pickup the money from PHILLIPS on every Friday or Monday. PHILLIPS gave BURCHFIELD $245.00 a week. PHILLIPS said BURCHFIELD was suppose to patrol through the area and help clean up the crime problem. PHILLIPS believes BURCHFIELD was splitting the money with Atlanta Police Officer CRAWFORD and possibly one other officer. BURCHFIELD would pickup the money while on duty.

SWARTZBERG met ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) Officer GREGG JUNNIER at one of SWARTZBERG's properties, a shopping center located at 2097 and 2079 Simpson Road. JUNNIER, who patrolled in the area, offered to provide extra security for the premises. SWARTZBERG agreed to JUNNIER's offer, and paid him or another APD Officer BRUCE Last Name Unknown (LNU) between $100 and $200 every few weeks. SWARTZBERG paid BRUCE LNU most of the time, and JUNNIER some of the time, and called them to meet him at one of SWARTZBERG's three locations they patrolled for him. Most of the time, BRUCE LNU or JUNNIER met SWARTZBERG either before or after work.

SWARTZBERG advised that he began paying them a couple of years ago and stopped paying them when they were suspended as a result of the shooting on Neal Street in November 2006. SWARTZBERG would call BRUCE LNU or JUNNIER to ask them to get rid of criminal activity at his properties, and they would effectively respond. Paying BRUCE LNU and JUNNIER for their services definitely helped with the crime problem. PAM HUNT, Southern Regional Manager, MB MANAGEMENT COMPANY, [redacted] was interviewed at the DUNKIN DONUTS on Highway 92, Woodstock, Georgia. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview, she provided the following information:

Sometime in 2006, CARL JOHNSON purchased a distressed property located at 350 Lanier Street, NW, Atlanta, Georgia known as the HERITAGE SQUARE APARTMENTS (HSA). In a letter JOHNSON received dated June 15, 2006 from the FULTON COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE (FCDA), the FCDA stated that HSA was the site of numerous drug arrests, and that the FCDA would like to meet to discuss how to reduce crime in the area. In response to this letter, JOHNSON hired HUNT as a property consultant whose responsibilities would include addressing crime prevention and safety concerns.

On August 15, 2006, based on recommendations from the FCDA, HUNT met with ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) Major DALLAS, and Officers GREGG JUNNIER, J.R. SMITH, and BRUCE TESLER. Just prior to that meeting, on August 9, 2006, HUNT asked JUNNIER to start providing security for HSA, with the understanding that the details of JUNNIER's services would be finalized at the meeting.

HUNT paid JUNNIER $650 per month in exchange for his off-duty security work, as well as for his presence and access during his on-duty hours. JUNNIER was given free rein to determine which officers would work with him, and to determine what he needed to do to establish a strong APD presence at HSA. HUNT saw JUNNIER one to two hours per week on site, but advised that site managers [redacted] had more interactions with the JUNNIER. HUNT saw JUNNIER primarily working with TESLER, although she also saw J.R. SMITH at HSA.

After the shooting incident at Neal Street in November 2006, HUNT received a call from either JUNNIER or TESLER, explaining that they could not provide security at HSA while they were on suspension. HUNT was told however that they (JUNNIER or

DANIEL BETTS was interviewed pursuant to a plea agreement at the office of the United States Attorney, Atlanta, Georgia. Also present were Assistant United States Attorneys Jon Peter Kelly and Kurt Erskine. After being advised of identity of the interviewing agent and the nature of the interview, BETTS provided the following information:

BETTS and ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT (APD) Officer BRAD BURCHFIELD were partners on the Zone 1 Field Investigation Team (FIT). During December, 2006, BURCHFIELD told BETTS that GREGG JUNNIER gave him some extra jobs. By the end of January, 2006, they lost extra jobs at most of the businesses, but they kept three: a grocery store on Simpson Road, 1247 Simpson Road, Atlanta, Georgia, and 377 Westchester Boulevard, Atlanta, Georgia. BURCHFIELD handled almost everything about the extra jobs. BURCHFIELD and BETTS stopped by the extra jobs while on duty. Sometimes property owners or managers said there were problems at certain times and asked for guidance. When that occurred, if BURCHFIELD or BETTS were on duty, then they would check it out, or one of them would call narcotics or an officer on patrol for assistance. They received payment in cash, generally on Friday, and both on and off duty. BURCHFIELD gave some of the money to JUNNIER.

BETTS believes BURCHFIELD arranged for some APD officers to work security when 377 Westchester had a festival.

After BURCHFIELD was suspended, BETTS gave BURCHFIELD half the money from the extra jobs to be kind.

BETTS provided the following justification for the extra jobs: JUNNIER worked them for a long time; three supervisors signed the extra-job request; and BURCHFIELD called the permit division about the extra jobs. BETTS's supervisor, RICK MASON, told them it was questionable, but if permits approved it, then he would approve it.

CONSTANCE M. CARSON, a.k.a. Connie Carson was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents by a display of credentials and informed of the nature of the interview. She then provided the following information:

CARSON is an Atlanta Police Department K-9 officer and has been employed by the department over twenty years. She has been a K-9 officer for the last twelve years. CARSON was interviewed at the RED DOG unit located at East City Hall, Atlanta, Georgia where she is assigned.

933 NEAL STREET SEARCH

CARSON was on-duty at East City Hall on the four to 12 shift when she heard the "officer down" call at around 7:00 p.m. on 11/21/2006. CARSON went with her dog "Chad" to 933 Neal Street. There were many police officers already at the scene when she arrived. She recalled seeing Officer SMITH standing against a police car and looking at his rights side where he had been injured. Officer GREG JUNNIER, who had also been wounded, was standing in the yard talking to someone on the telephone. BUNN and Lieutenant MITCHELL had already arrived and the officers were trying to get an ambulance close to the residence to pick up the injured officers. They were not able to get close, so a stretcher was sent from the ambulance for SMITH. The others walked down to the ambulance and CARSON believed that all were loaded on the same vehicle. Once the injured were loaded, the area was roped off.

CARSON went to the perimeter and waited to do the search. K-9 Officer SPEARLE was also in the area near Joseph Lowery (J. Lo) and Neal Street. SPEARLE had been originally scheduled to do the evidence search, but CARSON knew that she and her dog would be called to eventually search. She stated this was the procedure when the original search team was involved in a shooting.

CARSON recalled that the RED DOG team had already arrived on scene and had breached the back door of 933 Neal Street. CARSON was on stand-by. She went to get some dinner between 10:00 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. She came back and the search was not going to be conducted yet. SPEARLE, who would have been off-shift at 10:00 p.m. went to get something to eat. CARSON went back to East City Hall around midnight.

Around 3:00 a.m. on 11/22/2006, CARSON received a call to return to the scene and conduct the search. She drove back, waited around 30 minutes, then went to do the preliminary walkthrough with Sergeant SPARWATH who told her they were looking for a box with a kilo of cocaine. She checked the area to identify broken glass or things that might be dangerous or distracting (other animals) to her dog. She recalled turning off the television and doing a cursory search of the victim's room, the upstairs area and the basement. She recalled observing some glass near an interior door.

CARSON then got "Chad" and began the search upstairs. They were accompanied by Officer SCHIFFBAUER. They searched the victim's room, a second bedroom, the bathroom and the kitchen thoroughly, with no results. CARSON then went downstairs to the basement and was still accompanied by SCHIFFBAUER. "Chad" began alerting "high" and climbing a little bit. CARSON told SCHIFFBAUER and the other officers present (she could not recall exactly who else beside SCHIFFBAUER was present) to search up high near the ductwork or vents. Then, Chad alerted near the bottom right side of the basement doors. CARSON stated that he was pawing and sniffing at what was determined to be three or four bags of marijuana. Officer SCHIFFBAUER or the other officer present collected the evidence.

CARSON and "Chad" then went back upstairs and searched the living room with negative results. An officer weighed the marijuana. CARSON obtained the Case Number from one of the officers present and at about 4:00 a.m., completed her shift.

1143 SIMPSON AVENUE SEARCH

CARSON stated that she had been the K-9 officer present at 1143 Simpsom Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia earlier in the day. She began her shift at 4:00 p.m. at East City Hall. She received a call to go to 1143 Simpson Avenue at about 4:30 p.m. CARSON stated that, based on traffic during that time period, she estimated that it would take 10 to 15 minutes to travel to 1143 Simpson. Officer J.R. SMITH showed her an area near a small convenience store that he wanted searched for drugs. "Chad" did not immediately hit upon any drugs and J.R. SMITH was on the phone with someone who was providing direction. CARSON searched an area near a pathway and located a bundle of drugs near some pieces of broken concrete. She described this bundle as a large, clear bag containing little blue bags of marijuana. She continued to search and "Chad" hit on an old white door which was located across the path. CARSON looked under the door and saw another bundle. This was a large, clear bag containing several smaller, orange bags of marijuana. Among the bags of marijuana was what appeared to be crack cocaine. Officer SPEARLE, who was also present, took this bundle to J.R. SMITH. SPEARLE advised CARSON that they (SMITH and TESLER) were going to try to flip the guy (referring to FABIAN SHEATS). CARSON had obtained TESLER's cell phone number prior to departing. CARSON estimated that she had spent 10 to 15 minutes at 1143 Simpson before departing at about 5:00 p.m.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

On 11/22/2006, CARSON called TESLER to determine the amount of marijuana recovered. He stated that there had been 53 grams. She asked him how much crack cocaine and he told her that it had been "flex" which is fake crack cocaine.

CARSON stated that she has spoken to the injured officers to check on their well-being, but has not had any substantive conversations with the officers regarding the search or shooting.

SCOTT E. DUNCAN, Detective, Atlanta Police Department Narcotics, City Hall East, Atlanta, Georgia, (8-4 shift), cell phone [redacted] was interviewed at the offices of the FBI Atlanta. He was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent by a display of credentials and informed of the nature of the interview. He then provided the following information:

DUNCAN was not involved in either the search, shooting or associated investigation at 933 Neal Street on November 21, 2006. He reported to work on November 22, 2006 at about 10:00 a.m. or 10:30 a.m. He was directed by Major DAVIS and Lieutenant GIBBS to go with Sergeant KEEBLE to 933 Neal Street to re-search the house for any relevant documents or other evidence. He and KEEBLE went to the house, arriving at about 11:30 a.m. There was a marked unit from Zone 1 standing by at 933 Neal Street. KEEBLE called the Homicide investigators at about 11:40 a.m. to determine whether he and DUNCAN could enter the premises. The Homicide investigator said it was OK to enter. DUNCAN and KEEBLE searched the house, including the attic and basement until leaving at 1:10 p.m. They had previously been told that Detectives GRIFFIN and SCHIFTBAUER had found marijuana near the basement door. DUNCAN and KEEBLE found nothing of evidentiary value during their search.

Upon arriving at East City Hall, DUNCAN continued investigation, conducting a search of police records for booking photos of anyone using a Neal Street address. He obtained three pages of photos.

Lieutenant GIBBS then instructed DUNCAN to contact a confidential informant of Officer JR. SMITH regarding the events the previous day. DUNCAN obtained the telephone number of the CI (ALEX WHITE) from JR SMITH which was [redacted]. DUNCAN contacted the CI at about 3:00 p.m. and arranged to meet with him. WHITE gave DUNCAN directions to SAWTELL and RICHARD street and a description of what he was wearing (Blue Jeans, Black Shirt). DUNCAN told WHITE that he had photos that he wanted him to look at. Fugitive Unit Detective AURELIO FELEBRITY accompanied DUNCAN and they met with WHITE sometime between 3:15 and 3:30 p.m. When he got into the area of SAWTELL, he called WHITE on his cell phone. They picked him up and he got into the back seat. They drove to Lakewood and Margaret and went to the BUCKHEAD TAVERN parking lot.

DUNCAN asked WHITE to describe the circumstances regarding the controlled buy. DUNCAN took notes on the back of one of the photo sheets. WHITE provided the information which DUNCAN put into his report which he prepared on 11/22/2006. DUNCAN provided a copy of this report to the interviewing Agent which was reviewed with him. It is attached and made a part of this report.

DUNCAN did not show WHITE the photos which he had prepared at this point. He drove WHITE to 933 Neal Street in order to locate the individual known as "SAM." WHITE could not identify anyone as "SAM." During this time, DUNCAN received a call from Lieutenant GIBBS notifying him that a photo line-up was being created and that WHITE was to remain with DUNCAN until it was completed. WHITE was on the telephone during this time and said he was speaking with ATF Agent E. DEGREE with whom he had previously scheduled a meeting. DUNCAN knew DEGREE from a previous case, so called him and told him that WHITE was meeting with him and that he would contact DEGREE when finished so that WHITE could then meet with DEGREE.

DUNCAN was contacted by SERGEANT KREHER of the Atlanta Police Fugitive Unit and asked to meet him at 675 Ponce De Leon and have WHITE look at a line-up to identify the suspect from 933 Neal Street. He informed WHITE that they were going to look at some pictures and WHITE, who was on the phone with ATF Agent DEGREE relayed the information to DEGREE.

WHITE asked DUNCAN, in reference to Narcotics Team One "if they were OK," informing DUNCAN he had seen the news. DUNCAN told him they would be OK.

When DUNCAN stopped at a red light at North Avenue and Spring Street, WHITE fled from the car saying that "Eric was behind them and told him to get out." WHITE ran into the VARSITY restaurant and evaded DUNCAN and FELIBERTY. They searched for him, but were unable to locate WHITE. DUNCAN called WHITE several times and eventually contacted him. WHITE claimed he was scared. DUNCAN told him that he wanted him to look at some photos. WHITE agreed to return to the car, though he acted as if he didn't trust DUNCAN. He didn't return to the car and would not return DUNCAN's calls.

Note: DUNCAN advised that he had returned to the VARSITY and obtained the video of November 22, 2006. He had reviewed the video and identified himself and FELIBERTY entering at 4:21 p.m., but had not been able to identify WHITE entering the VARSITY. He stated that he would provide the videos to the interviewing Agent and would attempt to locate the segment with WHITE.

DUNCAN contacted Sergeant KEEBLE and Lieutenant GIBBS regarding the situation. He tried to contact ATF Agent DEGREE, but was unable to reach him. DUNCAN was informed that Detective JUNNIER also tried to contact WHITE, but hadn't been able to reach him with his messages going unreturned.

DUNCAN advised that no-knock warrants were common in drug searches, particularly when there was evidence easily disposed of or guns out on the table within easy access. DUNCAN advised that he recalls burglar bars on the front and back doors of 933 Neal Street. He did not recall if there was any alarm system or video surveillance in place.

DUNCAN provided copies of his police report, the photos he had taken to show WHITE (which included notes he had taken when speaking with WHITE), and a supplementary report regarding his investigation. Copies of all these documents are attached and made a part of this report.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA
ATLANTA DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	:	CRIMINAL ACTION
v.	:	NO.
GREGG JUNNIER	:

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The defendant admits that the Government could prove the following facts if the case proceeded to trial:

Background

1. From in or about September 1988 until December 2006, when he resigned, defendant GREGG JUNNIER was employed as a police officer with the Atlanta Police Department ("APD").

2. At all relevant times, from about October 1998 through about December 2006, JUNNIER worked in the narcotics unit of APD.

3. While working as a narcotics officer, JUNNIER and other officers would make false statements, in the form of sworn affidavits, to state magistrate judges in order to procure search warrants for residences and other locations, where JUNNIER and the other officers believed illegal drugs would be found.

4. To procure lawful search warrants from state magistrate judges, APD narcotics officers often present information concerning drug purchases that have been made by confidential, reliable informants ("CRI"s). APD keeps a record of informants who have provided useful information often enough that they can be certified as "reliable."

5. APD narcotics officers typically represent to state magistrate judges that certain procedures have been followed in the use of CRIs so as to support a finding of probable cause to believe that a crime has been committed and that illegal drugs and other evidence will be found in the location to be searched. Specifically, in the case of a drug purchase by a CRI, APD narcotics officers usually represent that: (a) the officer searched the CRI immediately prior to the CRI's making the purchase to ensure that the CRI did not possess any drugs beforehand; (b) the officer personally observed the CRI make, or directed the CRI to make, the purchase at the location; and (c) the CRI provided the officer with the purchased drugs immediately following the transaction and was searched again to ensure that the CRI was not keeping any drugs.

6. In some but not all cases, in an effort to procure search warrants, defendant JUNNIER, along with other officers, would make false statements of the following types: (a) false statements about purchases of drugs by CRIs that, in fact, never took place; (b) false statements representing that information was provided by CRIs when, in fact, the information was provided by non-certified, unreliable informants -- sometimes after officers threatened to attribute, falsely, illegal drugs to such informants; (c) false statements representing that they had personally observed a purchase by a CRI when, in fact, they had not observed the events described in the submitted affidavit; (d) false statements representing that CRIs were searched before and after drug purchases when, in fact, the CRIs were not searched; (e) false statements overstating the cost of drugs purchased by CRIs; and (f) false statements representing that the occupants of the residence had surveillance cameras, were armed with firearms, or were dangerous in other ways in order to obtain "no-knock" warrants.

7. In addition to false statements made to procure search warrants, defendant JUNNIER and other officers would also generate false documentation such as payment vouchers for CRIs which would (a) reflect drug purchases that never occurred; (b) indicate payment to CRIs for work they had not performed; or (c) indicate that CRIs purchased more drugs than they in fact purchased.

8. Once a search warrant was unlawfully procured through such false statements, defendant JUNNIER and other officers would execute the warrant. That is, the defendant and others would enter the location armed, and would detain, sometimes by force or physical restraint, any occupants. The officers would then search the residence. If drugs were found, the occupants would be arrested and charged with drug possession and/or distribution.

9. If defendant JUNNIER or other officers uncovered any contraband, such as illegal drugs, in the course of executing an unlawful search warrant, they would seize the contraband and submit it to the APD Property Management department, where the contraband would be maintained to be used as evidence in possible criminal prosecutions.

10. If ever asked about a search executed under a fraudulently procured warrant, JUNNIER and other officers would make statements consistent with whatever false statements were given to procure the warrant in the first place.

ATL APD

11. JUNNIER and other officers falsified affidavits for search warrants to be considered productive officers and to meet APD's performance targets. They believed that these ends justified their illegal "fluffing" or falsifying of search warrant affidavits.

12. Because they obtained search warrants based on unreliable and false information, JUNNIER and other officers had on occasion searched residences where there were no drugs and the occupants were not drug dealers.

The Killing of Kathryn Johnston on November 21, 2006

13. On November 21, 2006, defendant JUNNIER, along with JASON R. SMITH and Co-conspirator A, two fellow APD narcotics officers, committed and caused to be committed the following overt acts, among others, in Fulton County, which is in the Northern District of Georgia:

14. At about 2:00 p.m., JUNNIER, SMITH, and Co-conspirator A drove in a marked patrol car to a set of apartments located at 350 Lanier Street, a "hot spot" where they had recovered illegal drugs in the past. JUNNIER and Co-conspirator A entered the apartments while SMITH checked the wooded area behind the apartments. SMITH recovered three plastic sandwich bags in the wooded area; each sandwich bag contained smaller baggies, and each baggie contained marijuana. One bag contained approximately forty to fifty blue baggies; the second contained several baggies of various colors; and the third contained several clear baggies. SMITH placed all three sandwich bags in the trunk of the patrol car.

15. At about 3:30 p.m., SMITH received a phone call from a Confidential Reliable Informant ("Informant 1") advising that there was a man in a gold-colored jacket selling drugs in front of a store located on Simpson Road. JUNNIER, SMITH and Co-conspirator A proceeded to Simpson Road in the patrol car. Upon arrival, they saw a man ("X") in a gold-colored jacket. Upon seeing the patrol car, X appeared to put something in his mouth. Co-conspirator A leapt from the car and grabbed X by the throat. In doing so, X's face struck against a fence, bloodying it.

16. Co-conspirator A placed X in the patrol car. JUNNIER called for "K-9" officers with a drug-sniffing dog. SMITH planted under a nearby rock some of the marijuana found at 350 Lanier Street. When two K-9 officers arrived, they found that marijuana under a rock. Later, the K-9 officers found another plastic bag containing ten yellow baggies of marijuana and at least two baggies of crack cocaine. SMITH gathered both plastic bags and returned to the car.

17. After the officers told X that he would be charged for the recovered drugs, he told them that he could direct them to a house where he had observed illegal drugs -- specifically, a kilogram of cocaine -- earlier that day. Although X did not state the address, he had the officers drive him to the house, and pointed out the residence located at 933 Neal Street. X claimed that he bought crack cocaine in that house from a black male named "Sam," for whom he provided a physical description.

18. Without having a CRI make a purchase of drugs at 933 Neal Street, which would have confirmed that drugs were to be found at that location, and without checking any property records or engaging in any other investigation to verify the identity of any occupants of that house or otherwise try to corroborate what X had told them, JUNNIER, SMITH and Co-conspirator A instead sought to procure a search warrant from a state magistrate without a purchase's having been made.

19. Before the three officers drove to the Fulton County Jail, where an affidavit in support of a warrant could be submitted to a state magistrate, JUNNIER telephoned a CRI, "Informant 2," at about 5:05 p.m. However, JUNNIER did not instruct Informant 2 to proceed to 933 Neal Street. JUNNIER telephoned Informant 2 to find out whether he was available to make a drug purchase, but Informant 2 advised that he did not have transportation. The officers had made false attributions of drug purchases to Informant 2 in the past.

20. Once the three officers and X arrived at the Fulton County Jail, the officers did not book X into the jail, but instead kept him in the patrol car because they intended to release X if they found drugs at 933 Neal Street, making no record of X's arrest.

21. SMITH went inside the Jail and drafted an affidavit in support of a search warrant for the residence located at 933 Neal Street. SMITH included in that affidavit several material false statements, including: (a) that he and Co-conspirator A directed a CRI to the residence at 933 Neal Street, Atlanta, Georgia, for the purpose of buying illegal drugs; (b) that the CRI was searched to ensure that he did not have any drugs on his person before proceeding to the residence; (c) that the CRI was provided with $50 in APD funds to purchase drugs; (d) that the CRI went to the residence and was met there by an individual on the front porch who identified himself as "Sam"; (e) that "Sam" briefly went in the house, then returned with an object and gave the CRI the object in exchange for the money; (f) that the CRI immediately returned to SMITH and handed SMITH two bags of crack cocaine; (g) that the CRI was searched again; (h) that the CRI told SMITH that he bought the crack cocaine from a black male called "Sam" for $50; (i) that the CRI gave a physical description of "Sam"; and (j) that a "no-knock" warrant should be issued because the CRI stated that "Sam" possessed electronic surveillance equipment in the house, which "Sam" carefully monitored.

22. SMITH presented the aforementioned false affidavit to a magistrate and falsely swore to the truth of the statements contained in the affidavit. Based upon this false information, the magistrate issued a "no-knock"search warrant for 933 Neal Street at 5:53 p.m., which authorized the narcotics officers to enter the residence by force and with no prior identification of themselves as law enforcement officers. Had the magistrate been advised of the falsity of the affidavit, the search warrant would not have been issued.

5·291·723

23. After the search warrant was procured, Informant 2 called JUNNIER at about 6:00 p.m. to inquire as to whether he was still needed to make a purchase. JUNNIER told Informant 2 not to worry about it -- that he was not needed.

24. JUNNIER, SMITH and Co-conspirator A were then joined by other APD narcotics officers at a staging area. At this time, the officers still had X in their custody. SMITH gave a briefing to the other officers in which he recounted the false statements that were contained in his affidavit as if they were true. JUNNIER and Co-conspirator A were present for this briefing. JUNNIER and Co-conspirator A were aware that the substance of SMITH's briefing was false, but they did not express that fact to any of the other officers.

25. At approximately 6:40 p.m., JUNNIER, SMITH and Co-conspirator A, along with other APD officers, executed the search warrant, in violation of the Fourth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and JUNNIER and his co-conspirators' oath of office as APD officers. The officers were all armed with service weapons. JUNNIER, SMITH and other officers approached the front door of the residence. Co-conspirator A was stationed at the back door of the residence. SMITH and another officer were responsible for breaching the front door. They first had to pry metal burglar bars off a screen door, which took more than a minute. As they rammed open the wooden front door, Kathryn Johnston, an elderly woman and the lone resident of 933 Neal Street, fired a single shot from a .38-caliber revolver through the front door. The shot fired by Ms. Johnston did not injure any of the officers. JUNNIER, SMITH, and four other officers returned fire, with the initial shots going through the wooden front door as it opened. Five or six shots struck Ms. Johnston. One shot hit her in the chest and was fatal.

26. According to ballistics evidence, approximately 39 shots were fired by the six officers. Ballistics and other forensic analysis are unable to establish which of the six officers fired the fatal shot, or the four or five other shots that struck Ms. Johnston. Three officers, including JUNNIER, were injured by shots (or resultant shrapnel and debris) fired by the other officers, but all three officers were released from the hospital by the next morning.

The Attempted Cover-up

27. After the shooting of Kathryn Johnston, officers initially searched the house, and SMITH handcuffed Ms. Johnston. The officers found no other occupants and no drugs.

28. SMITH then planted three baggies of marijuana in the basement of the house at 933 Neal Street. Other than the drugs that were planted by SMITH, no illegal drugs were found at 933 Neal Street.

29. Later that same evening, SMITH called Informant 2, the same CRI whom JUNNIER had telephoned before procuring the warrant, and instructed Informant 2 to pretend that the three officers had sent him earlier to purchase drugs at 933 Neal Street and that he had purchased crack cocaine there. SMITH gave Informant 2 a description of the house at 933 Neal Street, a description of "Sam," the alleged drug dealer described in SMITH's false affidavit, and the details of the putative buy.

30. On or about November 21, 2006, Co-conspirator A drafted and filed an APD Incident Report which stated, falsely, that a purchase of crack cocaine had been made at 933 Neal Street that day.

31. SMITH informed JUNNIER that he had told superior officers that JUNNIER and Co-Conspirator A watched Informant 2 make the controlled buy from the patrol car. JUNNIER told SMITH not to use those details and, instead, to say that SMITH and Co-conspirator A watched the buy at 933 Neal Street from Informant 2's car.

32. APD records reflect that on or about November 22, 2006, SMITH submitted two bags containing crack cocaine to APD Property Management, falsely indicating that the drugs were bought by an informant at 933 Neal Street on November 21.

33. On or about November 22, 2006, JUNNIER telephoned Informant 2 and told him that he should not speak to another APD narcotics officer who worked with Informant 2.

34. On or about November 22, 2006, JUNNIER, SMITH, and Co-conspirator A, before meeting with APD Homicide detectives, met to fabricate a story that would explain the events leading up to the shooting of Kathryn Johnston at 933 Neal Street. SMITH and Co-conspirator A agreed that, if asked, they would claim that the following falsities, among others, were true: (a) they, SMITH and Co-conspirator A, along with JUNNIER, met with Informant 2 on November 21, 2006, at an abandoned car wash for the purposes of arranging a controlled purchase of drugs; (b) SMITH and Co-conspirator A rode with Informant 2 in Informant 2's car from the car wash to 933 Neal Street; and (c) SMITH and Co-conspirator A observed Informant 2 approach the house at 933 Neal Street, and then return with two pieces of crack cocaine.

35. On November 22, 2006, SMITH gave a statement to APD Homicide detectives that contained several false statements, including: (a) that, after a suspect identified 933 Neal Street as a location where a kilogram of cocaine could be found, SMITH contacted a CRI and instructed the CRI to make a controlled purchase at that address; (b) that SMITH witnessed the CRI approach the house; (c) that the CRI completed the transaction and reported back to SMITH with two pieces of crack cocaine, which had cost $50 in city funds; (d) that SMITH debriefed the CRI, at which time the CRI advised that the supplier had entered the house and returned a short time later with the crack cocaine; and (e) that the CRI provided a description of the supplier, which matched the description given by the suspect.

36. On November 22, 2006, Co-conspirator A gave a statement to APD Homicide detectives that only addressed the shooting at 933 Neal Street, but not the procurement of the warrant.

37. On November 22, 2006, JUNNIER gave a statement to APD Homicide detectives that contained several false statements, including: (a) that, after a suspect had identified 933 Neal Street as a house where a kilogram of cocaine could be found, JUNNIER contacted a CRI and set up a meeting to make a controlled purchase at that address; (b) that SMITH and Co-conspirator A met with the CRI to complete the transaction; and (c) that the transaction was completed.

38. On or about November 23, 2006, SMITH met Informant 2 and paid him $30.00 in APD funds. SMITH filled out an APD payment voucher as a record of the payment, in order to create the false impression that Informant 2 was being paid for a purchase of drugs at 933 Neal Street on November 21 -- a purchase which had not occurred. On that same date, SMITH took Informant 2 to a store at which JUNNIER worked a part-time job so that the store owner could pay Informant 2 on JUNNIER's behalf. SMITH took Informant 2 to the store and Informant 2 received $100 from the store owner, to encourage Informant 2 to go along with the false story.

39. On several occasions after the shooting, JUNNIER, SMITH and Co-conspirator A met at various locations to discuss and perfect the cover story and agreed that each of them would make false statements when they were questioned by law enforcement officials in order to conceal their criminal conduct. JUNNIER, SMITH and Co-conspirator A also obtained and reviewed their own cell phone records of calls to Informant 2 in order to try to make their story conform with those records.

40. When questioned by federal agents in a proffer session on December 11, 2006, defendant JUNNIER admitted his role in the conspiracy rather than giving a false statement pursuant to the cover story he had created with SMITH and Co-conspirator A.

FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	:	CRIMINAL ACTION
v.	:	NO.
JASON R. SMITH	:

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The defendants admit that the Government could prove the following facts if the case proceeded to trial:

Background

1. From in or about December 1999 through the present, defendant JASON R. SMITH has been employed as a police officer with the Atlanta Police Department ("APD").

2. From about June 2005 through about December 2006, SMITH worked in the narcotics unit of APD.

3. On many occasions, SMITH and other APD officers made false statements, in the form of sworn affidavits, to state magistrate judges in order to procure search warrants for residences and other locations, where SMITH and the other officers believed illegal drugs would be found.

4. Once a search warrant was unlawfully procured through such false statements, SMITH and other officers would execute the warrant. That is, the defendant and others would enter the location armed, and would detain, sometimes by force or physical restraint, any occupants. The officers would then search the residence. If drugs were found, the occupants would be arrested and charged with drug possession and/or distribution.

5. Because they obtained search warrants based on unreliable and false information, SMITH and other officers had on occasion searched residences where there were no drugs and the occupants were not drug dealers.

The Killing of Kathryn Johnston on November 21, 2006

6. On November 21, 2006, defendant SMITH, as well as GREGG JUNNIER and Co-conspirator A, both fellow APD narcotics officers, committed and caused to be committed the following overt acts, among others, in Fulton County, which is in the Northern District of Georgia:

7. At about 2:00 p.m., SMITH, JUNNIER, and Co-conspirator A drove in a marked patrol car to a set of apartments located at 350 Lanier Street, a "hot spot" where they had recovered illegal drugs in the past. JUNNIER and Co-conspirator A entered the apartments while SMITH checked the wooded area behind the apartments. SMITH recovered three plastic sandwich bags in the wooded area; each sandwich bag contained smaller baggies, and each baggie contained marijuana. One bag contained approximately forty to fifty blue baggies; the second contained several baggies of various colors; and the third contained several clear baggies. SMITH placed all three sandwich bags in the trunk of the patrol car.

8. At about 3:30 p.m., SMITH received a phone call from a Confidential Reliable Informant ("Informant 1") advising that there was a man in a gold-colored jacket selling drugs in front of a store located on Simpson Road. SMITH, JUNNIER, and Co-conspirator A proceeded to Simpson Road in the patrol car. Upon arrival, they saw a man ("X") in a gold-colored jacket. Upon seeing the patrol car, X appeared to put something in his mouth. Co-conspirator A leapt from the car and grabbed X by the throat. In doing so, X's face struck against a fence, bloodying it.

9. Co-conspirator A placed X in the patrol car. JUNNIER called for "K-9" officers with a drug-sniffing dog. SMITH planted under a nearby rock some of the marijuana found at 350 Lanier Street. When two K-9 officers arrived, they found that marijuana under a rock. Later, the K-9 officers found another plastic bag containing ten yellow baggies of marijuana and at least two baggies of crack cocaine. SMITH gathered both plastic bags and returned to the car.

10. After the officers told X that he would be charged for the recovered drugs, he told them that he could direct them to a house where he had observed illegal drugs -- specifically, a kilogram of cocaine -- earlier that day. Although X did not state the address, he had the officers drive him to the house, and pointed out the residence located at 933 Neal Street. X claimed that he bought crack cocaine in that house from a black male named "Sam," for whom he provided a physical description.

11. Without having a Confidential Reliable Informant ("CRI") make a purchase of drugs at 933 Neal Street, which would have confirmed that drugs were to be found at that location, and without checking any property records or engaging in any other investigation to verify the identity of any occupants of that house or otherwise try to corroborate what X had told them, SMITH, JUNNIER, and Co-conspirator A instead procured a search warrant from a state magistrate without a purchase's having been made.

12. The three officers drove to the Fulton County Jail, where an affidavit in support of a warrant could be submitted to a state magistrate. Once the three officers and X arrived at the Fulton County Jail, the officers did not book X into the jail, but instead kept him in the patrol car because they intended to release X if they found drugs at 933 Neal Street, making no record of X's drug arrest.

13. SMITH went inside the Jail and drafted an affidavit in support of a search warrant for the residence located at 933 Neal Street. SMITH included in that affidavit several material false statements, including: (a) that he and Co-conspirator A directed a CRI to the residence at 933 Neal Street, Atlanta, Georgia, for the purpose of buying illegal drugs; (b) that the CRI was searched to ensure that he did not have any drugs on his person before proceeding to the residence; (c) that the CRI was provided with $50 in APD funds to purchase drugs; (d) that the CRI went to the residence and was met there by an individual on the front porch who identified himself as "Sam"; (e) that "Sam" briefly went into the house, then returned with an object and gave the CRI the object in exchange for the money; (f) that the CRI immediately returned to SMITH and handed SMITH two bags of crack cocaine; (g) that the CRI was searched again; (h) that the CRI told SMITH that he bought the crack cocaine from a black male called "Sam" for $50; (i) that the informant gave a physical description of "Sam"; and (j) that a "no-knock" warrant should be issued because the CRI stated that "Sam" possessed electronic surveillance equipment in the house, which "Sam" carefully monitored. The CRI to whom SMITH referred was an individual whom SMITH did not believe was truly reliable.

14. SMITH presented the aforementioned false affidavit to a magistrate and falsely swore to the truth of the statements contained in the affidavit. Based upon this false information, the magistrate issued a "no-knock"search warrant for 933 Neal Street at 5:53 p.m., which authorized the narcotics officers to enter the residence by force and with no prior identification of themselves as law enforcement officers. Had the magistrate been advised of the falsity of the affidavit, the search warrant would not have been issued.

15. SMITH, JUNNIER, and Co-conspirator A were then joined by other APD narcotics officers at a staging area. At this time, the officers still had X in their custody. SMITH gave a briefing to the other officers in which he recounted the false statements that were contained in his affidavit as if they were true.

16. At approximately 6:40 p.m., SMITH, JUNNIER, and Co-conspirator A, along with other APD officers, executed the search warrant, in violation of the Fourth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and SMITH and his co-conspirators' oath of office as APD officers. The officers were all armed with service weapons. SMITH, JUNNIER, and other officers approached the front door of the residence. Co-conspirator A was stationed at the back door of the residence. SMITH and another officer were responsible for breaching the front door. They first had to pry metal burglar bars off a screen door, which took more than a minute. As they rammed open the wooden front door, Kathryn Johnston, an elderly woman and the lone resident of 933 Neal Street, fired a single shot from a .38-caliber revolver through the front door. The shot fired by Ms. Johnston did not injure any of the officers. SMITH, JUNNIER, and four other officers returned fire, with the initial shots going through the wooden front door as it opened. Five or six shots struck Ms. Johnston. One shot hit her in the chest and was fatal.

17. According to ballistics evidence, approximately 39 shots were fired by the six officers. Ballistics and other forensic analysis are unable to establish which of the six officers fired the fatal shot, or the four or five other shots that struck Ms. Johnston. Three officers, including JUNNIER, were injured by shots (or resultant shrapnel and debris) fired by the other officers, but all three officers were released from the hospital by the next morning.

The Attempted Cover-up

18. After the shooting of Kathryn Johnston, officers initially searched the house, and SMITH handcuffed Ms. Johnston. The officers found no other occupants and no drugs.

19. SMITH then planted three baggies of marijuana in the basement of the house at 933 Neal Street. Other than the drugs that were planted by SMITH, no illegal drugs were found at 933 Neal Street.

20. Later that same evening, SMITH called Informant 2, the same CRI whom JUNNIER had telephoned before procuring the warrant, and instructed Informant 2 to pretend that the three officers had sent him earlier to purchase drugs at 933 Neal Street and that he had purchased crack cocaine there. SMITH gave Informant 2 a description of the house at 933 Neal Street, a description of "Sam," the alleged drug dealer described in SMITH's false affidavit, and the details of the putative buy.

21. SMITH informed JUNNIER that he had told superior officers that Co-Conspirator A and JUNNIER watched Informant 2 make the controlled buy from the patrol car. JUNNIER told SMITH not to use those details and, instead, to say that SMITH and Co-conspirator A watched the buy at 933 Neal Street from Informant 2's car.

22. On or about November 22, 2006, SMITH and Co-conspirator A had a meeting at the hospital where JUNNIER and other injured officers were taken after the shooting. SMITH and Co-conspirator A agreed on certain false details that would be used to maintain a "cover story" consistent with the false statements in the affidavit.

23. APD records reflect that on or about November 22, 2006, SMITH submitted two bags containing crack cocaine to APD Property Management, falsely indicating that the drugs were bought by an informant at 933 Neal Street on November 21.

24. On or about November 22, 2006, SMITH, JUNNIER, and Co-conspirator A, before meeting with APD Homicide detectives, met to fabricate a story that would explain the events leading up to the shooting of Kathryn Johnston at 933 Neal Street.

25. On November 22, 2006, SMITH gave a statement to APD Homicide detectives that contained several material false statements, including: (a) that, after a suspect identified 933 Neal Street as a location where a kilogram of cocaine could be found, SMITH contacted a CRI and instructed the CRI to make a controlled purchase at that address; (b) that SMITH witnessed the CRI approach the house; (c) that the CRI completed the transaction and reported back to SMITH with two pieces of crack cocaine, which had cost $50 in city funds; (d) that SMITH debriefed the CRI, at which time the CRI advised that the supplier had entered the house and returned a short time later with the crack cocaine; and (e) that the CRI provided a description of the supplier, which matched the description given by the suspect.

26. On or about November 22, 2006, SMITH and Co-conspirator A retrieved the remaining clear bags of marijuana that had been seized from 350 Lanier Street on the previous day. It was from this batch of clear baggies that SMITH had selected the drugs that he planted in the home of Kathryn Johnston. SMITH and Co-conspirator A gathered the remaining clear bags of marijuana in the batch, and threw them into a sewage drain so that they could not be recovered and compared to the planted drugs.

27. On several occasions after the shooting, SMITH, JUNNIER, and Co-conspirator A met at various locations to discuss and perfect the cover story and agreed that each of them would make false statements when they were questioned by law enforcement officials in order to conceal their criminal conduct. SMITH, JUNNIER and Co-conspirator A also obtained and reviewed their own cell phone records of calls to Informant 2 in order to try to make their story conform with those records.

28. On or about December 20, 2006, SMITH met with federal agents in a proffer session and made false statements consistent with the false statements in the search warrant affidavit and consistent with the fabricated account that he had concocted with JUNNIER and Co-conspirator A.

29. On or about January 10, 2007, SMITH met with federal agents and admitted that he had made false statements during his November 22 interview with APD and during the December 20 proffer session with federal agents.

United States v. Wilbert Stallings
Factual Proffer

On October 19, 2005, defendant Wilbert Stallings, a sergeant in the narcotics unit and a 23-year veteran of the Atlanta Police Department, joined other APD officers in executing a search warrant at an apartment located at 1058 Dill Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia. At the time, Gregg Junnier was a member of the narcotics team under defendant Stallings' command. Junnier had obtained a search warrant for the apartment located at 1058 Dill Avenue. The apartment at 1058 Dill Avenue is part of a duplex, with an adjacent apartment -- 1056 Dill Avenue -- right next to it. No search warrant had been procured for 1056 Dill Avenue.

When the narcotics team executed the warrant, the officers arrested two individuals who tried to flee out of the back entrance to 1058 Dill Avenue. The officers recovered some marijuana in bushes behind the apartment, but found no drugs inside the apartment. Having not found what the expected to find inside 1058 Dill Avenue, Junnier and defendant Stallings discussed making a forced entry into the adjoining apartment at 1056 Dill Avenue. They reached an agreement to do so, even though they did not have a warrant authorizing them to enter that apartment. The officers used a ram to break into the back door of the apartment.

the apartment and searched it. No one was home at the time. They found no evidence of any illegal activity. On finding no evidence, defendant Stallings directed the officers to leave the apartment and shut the door that they had broken with the ram. He made a statement to the effect of: "Just shut the door. They'll just think it was a break-in."

Later that evening, the resident of 1056 Dill Avenue returned home to find that his home had been broken into through the back door. The back door and frame had been destroyed to the point that they were not functional; he had to use boards and nails to secure the back entrance.

Other Misconduct

If this case were to go to trial, the government expects that it would present evidence of other misconduct by defendant Stallings and the members of his unit while under his supervision.

(1) Specifically, there would be evidence that Junnier and other officers spent time while on duty for APD working at so-called "extra jobs," where private business owners paid the officers to provide police protection and services that should have been free of charge to all citizens. Defendant Stallings was fully aware that officers in his unit were working these jobs while on duty, and allowed them to do so.

ATL APD

Defendant Stallings also received a share of the money that business owners paid to the officers on his team for providing the aforementioned services.

There would also be evidence that some members of the team complained to defendant Stallings about how much time they were spending on these "extra jobs" -- time that was taken away from performing their regular duties as police officers.

(2) There would be evidence that officers on the defendant's team would swear out affidavits in support of search warrants, in which affidavits an officer would state that he witnessed an event when in fact he had not witnessed the event. In other words, officers would "trade" search warrants among themselves, and state to magistrates that they had observed events that another officer had observed. If one officer had a surplus of search warrants in a given month, he would "pass off" some of those warrants to another officer; the second officer would then swear out the affidavit as if he had seen everything described in the affidavit. Defendant Stallings was aware of this practice and did not stop or report it.

(3) The evidence would show that defendant Stallings allowed his team to use unregistered informants. The Atlanta Police Department requires that informants be registered and demonstrate a history of providing reliable information. Such informants are designated as "confidential and reliable." Unregistered informants cannot get paid for any information they provide. Also, if an informant is described as "confidential and reliable" in a search-warrant affidavit, there is a greater basis for a finding of probable cause by the reviewing magistrate.

The evidence would show that officers on defendant's team would use unregistered informants as sources of information, but would falsely identify them as "confidential and reliable" informants for the purposes of procuring search warrants.

Defendant Stallings was aware of this practice but did nothing to stop it.

(4) The evidence would show that officers inflated or "padded" the payment vouchers for informants who made undercover purchases of drugs. For example, if an informant purchased a certain amount of drugs, the officers would inflate the amount, so that a larger sum of money could be paid. The officers would sometimes use the extra money to cover incidental expenses incurred by the informant. Or the officers would keep the extra money to cover some of their own expenses, such as food, gas, or having windows tinted on a squad car.

Defendant Stallings was aware of this practice and allowed his team to engage in it. He took no steps to stop or report it.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	:
	:	CRIMINAL ACTION
v.	:
	:	NO. DRAFT 10-28-08
ARTHUR B. TESLER	:

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The defendant admits that the Government could prove the following facts if the case proceeded to trial:

Background

1. From in or about August 1999 until his suspension on or about November 27, 2006, defendant ARTHUR B. TESLER was employed as a police officer with the Atlanta Police Department ("APD").

2. On or about April 20, 2000, after graduating from the police academy, defendant TESLER signed the APD Oath Of Office, swearing that, as a police officer, he "will support and comply with the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Georgia; and the Law Enforcement Code of Ethics" and "in all cases conform to and enforce the criminal laws of the State of Georgia, . . . and obey the rules governing the Police Department and report all violations of same that may come to my knowledge. I will not persecute the innocent, nor help to shield the guilty, nor will I be influenced in the discharge of my duty by fear, favor, or affection, reward or the hope thereof; and in all my doings I will be governed by the laws, rules and ordinances applicable to the Police Department."

3. In or about January 2006, defendant TESLER was assigned to the Narcotics Unit of APD.

4. In the Narcotics Unit, TESLER generally worked on "Team 1" with Officer Gregg Junnier, who had been in the unit for about eight years, and Officer

Jason R. Smith, who had been in the unit for about three years.

5. TESLER, Junnier, and Smith worked primarily in the areas of Atlanta, Georgia, designated by APD as "Zone 1" and "Zone 4." Zone 1 includes 933 Neal Street. Both zones encompass many neighborhoods infested with illegal drug dealing and other criminal activity.

6. In order to search residences and other locations where illegal drugs were believed to be, and to arrest the persons in possession of the illegal drugs, APD officers would seek search warrants from state magistrate judges. Under the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution, a search warrant could be issued only if the officer presents a sworn affidavit supporting a finding by the magistrate that there is probable cause to believe that a crime has been committed and that illegal drugs and other evidence will be found in the location to be searched.

7. To obtain lawful search warrants following proper police procedure, APD narcotics officers often presented information concerning drug purchases that were made at the location by confidential, reliable informants ("CRI"s). APD kept a record of informants who had provided useful and accurate information often enough that they could be certified as "reliable." In addition to swearing that the source of information for a search warrant was a CRI, narcotics officers typically stated to the magistrate judge that certain procedures had been followed in the use of CRIs to corroborate further the controlled purchase of illegal drugs by the CRIs, such as: (1) the officer searched the CRI immediately prior to the CRI's making the purchase to ensure that the CRI did not possess any drugs beforehand; (2) the officer provided the CRI with APD funds to purchase drugs and personally observed the CRI make, or directed the CRI to make, the purchase at the location; and (3) the CRI provided the officer with the purchased drugs immediately following the transaction and was searched again to ensure that the CRI was not keeping any drugs or "buy money." Records, in the form of vouchers, were kept to track all payments to CRIs.

Illegal Searches and Seizures

8. On numerous occasions, the conspirators, including defendant TESLER, falsely swore in search-warrant affidavits that the conspirator officer had personal knowledge of the information presented, when in fact the warrant was "traded" or "handed-off" and used information gathered, or purportedly gathered, by other Narcotics Unit officers.

9. On numerous occasions, the conspirators, including defendant TESLER, falsely swore in search-warrant affidavits that the conspirator officer was accompanied by a second APD officer while the conspirator directed a CRI to purchase illegal drugs.

10. On numerous occasions, the conspirators, including defendant TESLER, falsely swore in search-warrant affidavits that they had followed proper procedures to corroborate that CRIs had purchased illegal drugs at the particular location to be searched, including falsely swearing that the conspirator officer had searched the CRI before and after the CRI purchased illegal drugs and that he personally observed the CRI make the purchase.

11. On some occasions, the conspirators, including defendant TESLER, falsely swore in search-warrant affidavits that they had conducted surveillance at a location and had personally confirmed (or re-confirmed) drug-dealing activity, when in fact they had not actually conducted such surveillance.

12. On some occasions, as defendant TESLER was aware from his participation in the conspiracy, co-conspirators made false statements in search-warrant affidavits and in CRI vouchers, inflating or "padding" the cost of the illegal drugs supposedly purchased by the CRI, in order to generate additional reimbursement payments from APD that could be used as the co-conspirators chose. The co-conspirators facilitated this practice by having CRIs pre-sign blank vouchers that the conspirators could fill in later.

13. On more than one occasion, as defendant TESLER was aware from his participation in the conspiracy, co-conspirators made false statements in search-warrant affidavits claiming that CRIs had purchased illegal drugs at the location to be searched, when, in fact, the co-conspirator knew that no such purchase had been made.

14. Once an unlawful search warrant was procured through these means, the conspirators, including defendant TESLER, and other APD officers executed the warrant. That is, the armed officers surrounded and entered the location, which was usually a residence, and detained any occupants, sometimes at gunpoint or by physical restraint. The officers then searched the location. If illegal drugs were found, some or all of the occupants were arrested and charged with drug possession and/or distribution. Contraband, such as illegal drugs, found during the execution of the unlawful search warrant was seized and submitted to the APD Property Management department, where the contraband was kept to be used as evidence in possible criminal prosecutions.

Payments from Businesses for On-Duty Services as "Extra Jobs"

15. The conspirators, including defendant TESLER, provided numerous businesses in Atlanta with "security" or "consulting" services in exchange for weekly cash payments. The services consisted primarily of providing more police presence and response by on-duty APD officers than was received by citizens who did not make such payments.

16. The conspirators, including defendant TESLER, normally while on-duty: regularly drove by or parked at the paying businesses, often in a marked patrol car and in police clothing; responded to address alleged criminal activity or to drive away unwanted persons from the paying businesses; or arranged for other officers to do so. This arrangement sometimes included providing the businesses with the cell-phone number of a conspirator, which could be called to obtain a police response faster than calling 911 or for matters that otherwise would not receive prompt police attention.

17. The conspirators, including defendant TESLER, would split the cash received, which generally amounted to several hundred dollars a week, among themselves, as well as with other officers who provided services, and with their supervisor for condoning the work.

18. The conspirators, including defendant TESLER, concealed the true nature of the payments by: claiming that they were working legitimate, off-duty "extra" jobs for some of the paying businesses in accordance with APD policy; not notifying APD at all that they were working some of the jobs.

19. The conspirators spent significant time performing these services and collecting payment while on-duty, detracting from time available to perform the work needed to follow the Constitution, laws, and proper police procedures to gather and truthfully present the evidence needed for lawful search warrants.

Concealment of the Conspiracy

20. The conspirators, including TESLER, would falsify incident reports, property forms, informant vouchers, and other official police documents to be consistent with the false statements used to obtain unlawful search warrants and to engage in other violations of law and policy.

21. The conspirators tacitly agreed not to report violations of the Constitution, laws, and APD policies to anyone who might take action against the conspirators as a result. They also tacitly agreed to corroborate each other's false statements to prevent detection of these violations if ever questioned about them.

Awareness of Danger Posed to Innocent Citizens During Execution of Search Warrants

22. On September 20, 2006, Narcotics Team 1 executed a search warrant, obtained by an officer who was not a co-conspirator, at 1425 Simpson Road, during which a member of the team almost shot a 79-year-old woman who was holding a lifelike toy gun.

Certain Overt Acts Before November 21, 2006

23. On or about August 22, 2006, defendant TESLER falsely swore in a search-warrant affidavit presented to a state magistrate judge that he and co-conspirator Gregg Junnier had directed a confidential reliable informant ("CRI") to an apartment at 2139 Martin Luther King Drive N.W. to purchase drugs; that the CRI was searched before making the buy; that, after making the buy, the CRI handed defendant TESLER a bag of marijuana; and that the CRI gave defendant TESLER a description of the person who sold him the marijuana -- when in fact TESLER had not been present for any of those events.

24. On or about August 22, 2006, defendant TESLER falsely swore in a search-warrant affidavit presented to a state magistrate judge that he and co-conspirator Gregg Junnier had directed a CRI to a house at 1370 Graymont Drive S.W. to purchase drugs; that the CRI was searched before making the buy; that, after making the buy, the CRI handed defendant TESLER a bag of crack cocaine; and that the CRI gave defendant TESLER a description of the person who sold him the crack cocaine -- when in fact TESLER had not been present for any of those events.

25. On or about November 3, 2006, defendant TESLER falsely swore in a search-warrant affidavit presented to a state magistrate judge that he and co-conspirator Gregg Junnier had directed a CRI to an apartment at 1981 Martin

Luther King Drive to purchase drugs; that the CRI was searched before making the buy; that, after making the buy, the CRI handed defendant TESLER a bag of marijuana; and that the CRI gave defendant TESLER a description of the person who sold him the marijuana -- when in fact TESLER had not been present for any of those events.

26. On or about November 14, 2006, co-conspirator Gregg Junnier falsely swore in a search-warrant affidavit presented to a state magistrate judge that he and co-conspirator Jason R. Smith had directed a CRI to a house at 161 Rhodesia Avenue S.E. to purchase drugs; that the CRI was searched before making the buy; and that, after making the buy, the CRI handed co-conspirator Junnier five bags of marijuana --when in fact Junnier had not been present for any of those events.

27. Between January 2006 and November 21, 2006, defendant TESLER repeatedly violated his oath of office by not reporting any of the violations of the Constitution, laws, and APD policies that he participated in and was aware of to his chain of command, APD's Office of Professional Standards, or otherwise as required by his Oath of Office and APD policy.

The Unlawful Search Warrant for 933 Neal Street on November 21, 2006

28. On or about November 21, 2006, defendant ARTHUR B. TESLER and co-conspirators Gregg Junnier and Jason R. Smith, while on duty in an APD patrol car, stopped to inspect an apartment complex at 350 Lanier Street in Atlanta, which was one of the businesses whose owner paid them to provide on-duty "extra job" security. While at this location, Smith found and took several plastic baggies containing marijuana.

29. At approximately 3:30 p.m., Smith received a phone call from a CRI who stated that an individual was selling drugs near a store located on Simpson Road in Atlanta. TESLER, Junnier, and Smith drove to the location. When they arrived, the individual who was supposedly selling drugs, F.S., appeared to place an object in his mouth. TESLER leapt from the car and forcibly detained F.S.

30. TESLER, Junnier, and Smith, with the assistance of a canine-handling officer, recovered drugs in the area where they encountered F.S.: several baggies of marijuana and some bags of crack cocaine.

ATL APD

31. F.S. told the conspirator officers that he could direct them to a house where he had observed illegal drugs -- specifically, a kilogram of cocaine -- earlier that day. Although F.S. did not know the address, he had the officers drive him through the area, and pointed out the residence located at 933 Neal Street. F.S. claimed that he had bought crack cocaine in that house from a black male named "Sam," for whom he provided a physical description.

32. During the drive-by, the conspirator officers observed no evidence of drug dealing at 933 Neal Street. Without having a confidential, reliable informant ("CRI") make a purchase of drugs at 933 Neal Street, which would have confirmed that drugs were to be found at that location; without conducting further surveillance; without checking any property records or engaging in any other investigation to verify the identity of any occupants of the house identified by F.S.; and without otherwise corroborating what F.S. had told them, the conspirators instead decided to procure a search warrant from a state magistrate judge without having a purchase of drugs made.

33. At approximately 5:35 p.m., the conspirators arrived at the Fulton County Jail. Co-conspirator Smith entered the jail and began drafting an affidavit in support of a search warrant for the residence located at 933 Neal Street, Atlanta, Georgia. Smith included in that affidavit several statements that he knew to be false, to wit: (1) that he and ARTHUR B. TESLER directed a CRI to the residence at 933 Neal Street, Atlanta, Georgia, for the purpose of buying illegal drugs; (2) that TESLER and Smith searched the CRI to ensure that he did not have any drugs on his person before proceeding to the residence; (3) that TESLER and Smith provided the CRI with $50 in APD funds to purchase drugs; (4) that the CRI went to the residence and was met there by an individual who identified himself as "Sam"; (5) that "Sam" gave the CRI an object in exchange for the money; (6) that the CRI immediately returned to Smith and handed Smith two bags of crack cocaine; (7) that the CRI was searched again;(8) that the CRI told Smith that he bought the crack cocaine from "Sam" for $50; (9) that the CRI gave a physical description of "Sam"; (10) that the crack cocaine had been turned in to the APD Property Management department; and (11) that "Sam" had several surveillance cameras in the home, which he monitored carefully.

34. Co-conspirator Smith presented the false affidavit to Fulton County Magistrate Judge Kim Warden, swearing to the truth of the statements contained in it. Based upon those sworn statements, the Magistrate Judge issued a no-knock search warrant for 933 Neal Street at approximately 5:53 p.m.

The Execution of the Neal Street Search Warrant and Killing of Kathryn Johnston

35. On or about November 21, 2006, the conspirators met the rest of their Narcotics Unit for a pre-search briefing a few blocks away from 933 Neal Street, during which co-conspirator Smith recounted, as if it were true, the substance of the falsified affidavit. Officer Smith specifically claimed, falsely, that a controlled buy had been made at the residence. TESLER was present for this briefing.

36. At approximately 6:49 p.m., TESLER, along with Junnier, Smith, and other APD officers, all armed, executed the unlawfully obtained search warrant at 933 Neal Street. TESLER was assigned to cover the back of the residence. As the officers forced the front door open, Kathryn Johnston, a 92-year-old woman who was the lone resident of 933 Neal Street and who possessed a revolver, fired one shot through the front door. The shot fired by Ms. Johnston did not hit any of the officers. Junnier, Smith, and other officers opened fire on Ms. Johnston, striking her several times and killing her. Junnier and two other officers were wounded by police fire and shrapnel.

The Cover-Up

37. On or about November 21, 2006, after the shooting of Kathryn Johnston, defendant TESLER saw co-conspirator Smith with several small plastic bags containing marijuana, which Smith had seized at 350 Lanier Street earlier in the day. Smith planted the marijuana on the basement floor of 933 Neal Street, where the drugs would later be discovered by other officers. Other than the marijuana that was planted by Smith, no illegal drugs were found at 933 Neal Street.

38. On or about November 21, 2006, Smith made multiple phone calls to A.W., a CRI with whom TESLER, Junnier, and Smith had worked in the past. Smith instructed A.W. to pretend that the three conspirators had directed him to purchase drugs at 933 Neal Street earlier that day, before they applied for the search warrant. Smith provided A.W. with a description of the house at 933 Neal Street and a description of "Sam," the drug dealer described in the false affidavit based on information provided by F.S.

39. On or about November 21, 2006, TESLER drafted and filed an APD Incident Report containing numerous false statements, including a statement that a purchase of crack cocaine had been made at 933 Neal Street that day, and that TESLER had conducted surveillance on Simpson Road and had witnessed F.S. engage in multiple drug transactions before TESLER and his co-conspirators arrested F.S.

40. On or about November 22, 2006, Smith submitted two bags containing crack cocaine to APD Property Management, falsely indicating that the drugs had been bought by a CRI at 933 Neal Street on November 21.

41. On or about November 22, 2006, Smith, TESLER, and Junnier, before meeting with APD Homicide detectives, conferred to fabricate a story that would explain the events leading up to the shooting of Kathryn Johnston. The conspirators agreed that, if asked, they would claim, among other things, that the following falsities were true: (1) they met with A.W. on November 21 near an abandoned car wash for the purposes of arranging a controlled purchase of drugs; (2) TESLER and Smith rode with A.W. in A.W.'s car from the car wash to 933 Neal Street; (3) TESLER and Smith observed A.W. approach the house at 933 Neal Street, and then return with two pieces of crack cocaine.

42. On or about November 22, 2006, TESLER telephoned A.W. to confirm the false story and determine what car the conspirators should falsely claim A.W. was using when they supposedly rode with him to 933 Neal Street.

43. On or about November 22, 2006, in order to conceal the source of the marijuana planted by Smith at 933 Neal Street, Smith took from the conspirators' patrol car the remaining clear bags of marijuana from which the planted drugs had been taken. Smith and TESLER then drove in Smith's private vehicle to a nearby street and threw the drugs down a sewage drain.

44. On or about November 23, 2006, Smith met A.W. and paid him $30 in APD funds, filling out an APD payment voucher in order to create the false impression that A.W. was being paid for a purchase of drugs at 933 Neal Street on November 21 -- a purchase that never occurred. Later that day, Smith and Junnier arranged for A.W. to receive an additional $100 from a store where Junnier worked an "extra job," in order to encourage A.W. to go along with the false story.

45. On or about November 27, 2006, a day when there was a public announcement that the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") was investigating the shooting of Kathryn Johnston, TESLER, Smith, and Junnier met in the parking lot of a supermarket and agreed again that, in any interviews related to the investigation of the shooting of Kathryn Johnston, they would make false statements pertaining to the fictitious buy made by A.W.

46. After that meeting and before on or about December 2, 2006, TESLER, Smith, and Junnier met again at a restaurant and reviewed the details of the false story they agreed to relate in any future interviews pertaining to the investigation of the shooting of Kathryn Johnston.

47. After that meeting and before on or about December 2, 2006, TESLER, Smith, and Junnier met again in the parking lot of the same restaurant. At that meeting, at Junnier's urging, TESLER and Smith agreed to make false statements concerning the unlawful search-warrant affidavit that Junnier had sworn out for 161 Rhodesia Avenue S.E.

48. After that meeting and before on or about December 2, 2006, TESLER, Smith, and Junnier met again in the parking lot of a shopping center on Moreland Avenue in Atlanta. The conspirators then drove the route they intended to describe in their false story -- a route that included a stop at the abandoned car wash where they were to claim, falsely, that they had met A.W. to arrange the controlled purchase of drugs on November 21. The route also included Simpson Road, so that TESLER could identify an area from which he supposedly conducted surveillance of F.S. before arresting F.S., as TESLER had falsely claimed in the incident report for F.S.

49. On or about December 7, 2006, TESLER was interviewed by FBI agents and others concerning the death of Kathryn Johnston. During that interview, TESLER made false statements consistent with the false statements contained in Smith's false search-warrant affidavit, and consistent with the fabricated story that he had concocted with Smith and Junnier.

United States v. Daniel Betts
Factual Proffer

On June 14, 2007, as part of the ongoing investigation following the shooting death of Kathryn Johnston, the Federal Bureau of Investigation interviewed an individual who had worked for an apartment complex in Atlanta and, per the complex owner's instructions, used to pay former Atlanta Police Officer Greg Junnier for police protection at the apartment complex. In other words, the owner of the apartment complex, which was in a high-crime area, could only enjoy the police protection to which all citizens are entitled, by paying Officer Junnier "protection money" for Officer Junnier's assistance while Junnier was on duty. The individual stated that he/she would pay Junnier approximately $400 to $700 dollars a week in cash. The individual further related that, under the terms of the arrangement, if they had a problem in the apartment complex they would never call 911, but, instead, would call Junnier because he could provide a quicker response time or a response to an incident for which a 911 call would not guarantee a police response.

Pursuant to his agreement to cooperate with the government, Junnier provided substantial additional information that detailed how many businesses had entered into such an arrangement, how and when he and other officers were paid, and the services that would be provided in exchange for payment. Junnier confirmed that many of the services that he and other officers provided were done while they were on duty and being paid by the City of Atlanta to provide services without favoritism.

On July 17, 2007, the owner of the aforementioned apartment complex spoke with FBI agents about his business relationship with Junnier. The owner explained that he/she bought the apartment complex, and shortly thereafter was introduced to Junnier. At that time, Junnier was providing police protection, such as routine patrols and incident response -- protection that should have been expected by any citizen without having to pay extra for it -- for the apartment complex for $120 in cash per week. The owner related that he/she also paid an additional $125 in cash for an officer to sit at a convenience store located near the apartment complex. Junnier would usually collect his money on Fridays and was sometimes accompanied by other officers when he came to collect payment.

The complex owner told the FBI that, on the Friday after Junnier had been suspended from APD for the Kathryn Johnston shooting, another APD officer collected the money from the owner. From that time, the owner explained he/she no longer saw the officers patrolling his apartment complex except on Fridays, when they collected money. The owner stated that he/she was apprehensive about stopping payments to the officers, however, even though he/she was now not getting anything for his/her money. Consequently, he/she continued to pay $245 in cash per week.

In July 2007, the complex owner permitted the FBI to place a closed-circuit television in his office to record audio and video of the officers collecting the money. The first recording was made when APD Officer Daniel Betts visited his/her office to collect money on July 20, 2007. Betts is a five-year veteran of the APD and was assigned to patrol the Bluffs area in Zone 1, which is not where the businesses are located.

Once the FBI started recording the meetings on July 20, there were multiple meetings between the complex owner and Betts, who was collecting money. During the weekly meetings, Betts made it clear that officers patrol the parking lot of the apartment complex and the surrounding area while they are on duty. Betts told the owner that they were pushing crime away from the owner's apartment complex and toward another nearby complex. Further investigation has revealed that the nearby complex was not making payments to APD officers. The investigation has revealed that, between July and October 26, 2007, Betts regularly collected the money from the complex owner while on duty for APD and that he provided no significant services to the complex while off duty.

On October 26, 2007, the complex owner, under the direction of the FBI, explained to Betts that he had a person visiting his apartment complex on October 26, 2007 regarding a development grant the owner was hoping to receive for the apartment complex. The owner told Betts the grant representative, who was in fact an undercover FBI agent, would arrive at approximately 11:00 am and would leave in the late afternoon after a site inspection. The owner asked Betts if he could provide as much police presence as Betts could while the person was at his apartment complex.

On October 26, 2007, at approximately 11:00 am, Betts arrived in a marked patrol car at the apartment complex. Betts patrolled through the complex on several occasions during the time period the grant representative was supposed to be present. The owner then contacted Betts and asked him to come into his office and meet with the grant representative. Approximately an hour later, Betts came to the office in uniform and met with the grant representative. This meeting was recorded. During the meeting, Betts discussed with the grant representative what the APD was doing to police the complex and immediate area. Betts was on duty throughout this time

At approximately 5:00 p.m. that day, Betts arrived at the apartment complex to collect his weekly $120 in cash. In addition to this money, Betts also accepted an extra $80 for the extra time he spent helping with the grant while on duty.

The apartment complex functions as a rehabilitation facility for recovering drug addicts. The complex therefore purchases drug-testing kits, which are administered to residents and sent away for testing. The drug-testing kits are manufactured outside the State of Georgia, and therefore travel through interstate commerce to get to the complex. The kits are also sent out of state for samples to be tested. During another recorded visit, Betts commented to the owner that he also is paid by a nearby store owner. The store owner sells groceries, many of which travel through interstate commerce in the course of their distribution. Accordingly, the payments that were extorted under color of law affected interstate commerce.

Betts has now resigned from the APD.

Jason R. Smith (JR) was interviewed on May 9, 2007, pursuant to a Guilty Plea and Plea Agreement executed on April 23, 2007. Also present for the interview was JR's attorney, John Garland. The interview was conducted at Garland's office, Garland, Samuel & Loeb, P.C., 3151 Maple Drive, N.E., Atlanta, GA 30305. JR provided the following information:

JR became a sworn officer on October 17, 2000, when Beverly Harvard was the Chief of the Atlanta Police Department (APD). His first assignment was Zone 6 foot patrol. While still at the police academy, he had field training which is when he first learned about the point system at the APD. An officer received four points for a green ticket (an arrest ticket) and two pints for a pink ticket (a traffic ticket). While JR was field training, Zone 6 required four points per day per APD Major Banda. Major Banda issued a memo that stated that if officers did not get their four points per day they could: 1) lose their regular off-days (i.e. their off-days would change regularly), 2) lose good assignments, and/or 3) have their permits to work extra jobs rescinded. APD Officer Mike Alban, who works in the APD Property Unit, told JR that he might still have the memo from Major Banda.

APD officers who would get four points or more per day would get better assignments. This was all related to "QPAI." QPAI stands for Quality Performance Appraisal Initiative. Some of the officers who trained JR would get their four points early in a shift and just hang out somewhere until their shift was over.

When JR came back to APD from his tour of duty in Iraq in 2004, the department was pushing "bodies in jail" instead of points for green and pink tickets. Handling 911 calls was secondary. Beat officers needed one body per day. There was a memo that said that four pink tickets count as a body. The department's focus was not to protect and serve, but rather to put bodies in jail even for the minor offenses that officers would not previously have bothered with. Disorderly Conduct was a charge often used to get a body in jail. The charge was commonly known as a DC-6. Municipal court judges routinely dismissed DC-6 cases, but officers didn't care because they got credit for a body in jail. JR only actually went to court a couple of times in his career with APD.

On many occasions while on duty, JR would see a suspicious individual that he wanted to stop and search and he would do so even without any legal cause. He would later lie about the cause in his police reports. For example, he might falsely state in his reports that he observed the subject drop something and then he did a search incident to an arrest for littering. He learned to lie about the legal cause to make a stop while on REDDOG. While he was on REDDOG from November 2004 to June 2005, it was a nightly occurrence that the team he was riding with would stop an individual or a vehicle without any legal cause to do so. Whoever wrote the incident report would lie about the cause for the stop. The percentages were that the case would never go to court anyway.

From his first day on Narcotics Team #1, JR heard about the requirement that each officer on the team had to have nine arrests and two search warrants a month. About a year ago, JR had a conversation with Sergeant Stallings who told him that to be rated "effective" under QPAI, he had to get his nine and two. JR asked Stallings if he could take a week for training. Stallings responded that he could take as many weeks as he wanted as long as he got his nine and two. Stallings didn't worry about the team covering lead sheets or doing follow-up investigations. He evaluated Team #1 based on nine and two. JR never discussed nine and two with Lieutenant Gibbs. Holly Buchanan kept all the stats for Team #1 and she may have some information about the nine and two requirement.

The APD academy is six months long. Maybe two-thirds of it is academics. There was zero information provided at the academy about writing warrants. In the six years of JR's career after his time at the academy, he had about one to two hours of training on writing warrants. His post-academy training was as follows: 40 hours of basic investigations, 8 hours regarding field testing narcotics, 16 hours of undercover training, 4 hours related to meth labs, 36 hours regarding tactical drug operations, 8 hours concerning criminal gangs and another 40 hours of basic investigations. It was during the basic investigation courses that he received some training regarding writing warrants.

JR wrote two warrants while on REDDOG. He wrote a lot of warrants while on Team #1.

JR never went with Alex White for White to make a buy. Greg Junnier gave those buys to JR. JR did go out with his informant known as Diamond to make buys. Both Carey Bond and Bruce Tesler took drugs from Junnier, which were from buys done by White, and wrote warrant affidavits falsely stating that they, not Junnier, supervised the buys. Both Bond and JR wanted to do warrants the right way, but they took drugs from Junnier and falsely claimed that they were responsible for supervising buys because of nine and two.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

During months when Team #1 was working a special detail, team members would be required to do nine arrests and four warrants. There was a special detail almost every month that JR was on Team #1.

JR, Junnier and Tesler normally worked three twelve-hour shifts and two eight-hour shifts per week while on Team #1. The extra four hours on the twelve-hour shifts were supposed to be for patrols at Bowen Homes housing project. JR thinks that the APD received federal funds to pay for extra patrols in certain housing projects. The Bowen Homes detail required that drug cases be made at Bowen Homes. On many of the twelve-hour days, there was not enough time to actually do any patrols at Bowen Homes. On some days when they couldn't get to Bowen Homes, JR, Junnier and Tesler would take some drugs seized from a location other than Bowen Homes and they would turn the drugs into the APD Property Unit claiming they were from Bowen Homes. JR did that two or three times himself.

JR drove to the fire station for the raid briefing on the night of the raid at 933 Neal St. with Tesler, Junnier and Fabian Sheats. JR saw Tesler at the fire station just before the briefing began. He didn't see Tesler leave the fire station until they departed to do the raid.

At the conclusion of the interview, JR provided to the interviewing agents a copy of Atlanta's Disorderly Conduct ordinance and a series of e-mails to a web-site known as [redacted]

Major STANLEY L. SAVAGE, Atlanta Police Department (APD), Communications Section Commander, office (404) 817-2370, mobile [redacted], was contacted by Supervisory Special Agent (SSA) Michael McKinney via telephone on May 30, 2007, at approximately 3:15pm.

SAVAGE was advised of the identity of the interviewing agent and the nature of the interview, which was to discuss SAVAGE's tenure as a Lieutenant in the Narcotics Unit. SAVAGE confirmed that his information would be voluntary and that he was not being compelled by APD to speak with the interviewing agent.

SSA McKinney asked SAVAGE when he would be available to meet in person, and SAVAGE then suggested having an initial discussion via telephone. The interviewing agent advised SAVAGE that it was a preference to meet in person to conduct the interview, and SAVAGE responded by stating that he would provide an overview by telephone but he would be happy to meet in person to discuss additional details. SAVAGE then provided the following information:

SAVAGE joined the APD in 1980 and was assigned as the Lieutenant in Narcotics from 1997 - 2000. He left Narcotics and worked in Larceny & Major Fraud and then in Accreditation until 2002, at which time he was promoted to Major. SAVAGE is currently in charge of the Communications Section, which includes the 911 Communications Center and the Validation Unit, among other units.

SAVAGE stated that he has never worked with Arthur Tesler and Jason R. Smith, but Gregg Junnier was transferred to Narcotics during the period that SAVAGE was there. SAVAGE recalled that Junnier had a good reputation. Also assigned to Narcotics was Sergeant Pete Stallings.

SAVAGE stated that "QPAI" was the evaluation system utilized during the period that he was in Narcotics, and the monthly "watch average" was the basis for determining the numbers that had to be met for each officer. This was not finite, because various circumstances caused the average to spike in one direction or another. For instance, if several officers were in training, the watch average for the month would be lower.

While SAVAGE was in Narcotics, there were approximately five teams in the unit, not including Weed & Seed, and a Sergeant and six or seven detectives were assigned to each team. SAVAGE had the teams covering zones and this sometimes created conflicts with the work of the Field Investigative Teams (FIT) assigned to each zone.

SAVAGE stated that he made sure the Narcotics teams focused on community related issues in addition to conducting traditional enforcement related issues. This meant officers such as Sergeant Stallings were involved in both enforcement and "Weed & Seed" issues. SAVAGE did things such as getting Narcotics Investigators involved with children's groups and they initiated a camp for kids. SAVAGE advised that he believes that enforcement is not the only way to get drugs off the street, and a presence within the community is just as important.

SAVAGE advised that they also conducted impact details with the Traffic Unit and Fulton County Sheriff's Office in order to demonstrate a visible presence.

According to SAVAGE, the allegations that officers cut corners in order to meet quotas is clearly an effort to deflect blame and responsibility among the individuals who have been involved in misconduct. SAVAGE did not recall any instances of corruption, misconduct, illegality, or complaints from the people who worked for him that would justify blame against him. He simply was not aware of any wrongdoing.

SAVAGE stated that his management style involved providing updates to his personnel through staff meetings with the Sergeants. He also occasionally went out on the street with the teams in order to observe their behavior. SAVAGE believes the officers acted differently when he was present, by following the rules much more closely, but he had no reason to suspect they were breaking the rules when he was gone.

SAVAGE advised that it is also unfortunate that members of Narcotics are using a supposed lack of experience as justification for very bad decisions. SAVAGE stated that Narcotics has traditionally been a unit where people are sent in order to get experience, an initial stop before moving to other investigative units. They arrive in Narcotics knowing the basics concerning investigations and informant development. If successful, they develop street experience and an informant base that will help them in more difficult assignments, such as Homicide or Major Fraud. Most of the officers in Narcotics are well trained, but these particular officers apparently did not use ethics, common sense, and discretion in conducting their affairs.

Therefore, SAVAGE advised that he disagrees with any officer who says pressure from management compelled them to break the rules. SAVAGE was not aware nor did he condone any criminal misconduct involving officers under his command while he was assigned as the Lieutenant in Narcotics. He is unaware of officers lying on reports and affidavits, padding vouchers, using unregistered sources, and/or other administrative violations.

SAVAGE advised that he would be happy to meet in person to further discuss his tenure as the Lieutenant in Narcotics from 1997 - 2000.

WILBERT TRACY "PETE" STALLINGS, who has been previously interviewed, was interviewed at the United States Attorney's Office, Atlanta, Georgia. Also present was STALLINGS' attorney, BRAD GARDNER and Assistant United States Attorney JON-PETER KELLY. The interview was conducted pursuant to a proffer agreement. STALLINGS provided the following information:

On the evening of November 21, 2006, after the execution of the search warrant and the shooting at 933 Neal Street, Lieutenant MITCHELL asked STALLINGS if the basement had been cleared. When STALLINGS responded "no," MITCHELL advised that he would get REDDOG members to clear it. When STALLINGS arrived at the rear of the house, he saw J.R. SMITH and BRUCE TESLER talking with each other at the rear of the house. STALLINGS did not see either J.R. SMITH or TESLER enter the basement.

On the following day, when TESLER called STALLINGS to inform him about having drugs that he did not turn in, STALLINGS became suspicious and asked TESLER if "they planted dope" at 933 Neal Street. TESLER replied that he had not, and would not have done something like that. STALLINGS could not specifically recall, but thought TESLER was with J.R. SMITH when he called.

Afterward, when TESLER had submitted the drugs and returned to the squad area, STALLINGS again asked TESLER if he planted drugs at 933 Neal Street. TESLER again replied that he had not. STALLINGS thinks that TESLER walked in to the squad area with J.R. SMITH.

WILBERT TRACY "PETE" STALLINGS, was interviewed at the United States Attorney's Office, Atlanta, Georgia on July 6 and July 13, 2007. His attorney Brad Gardner, (404) 758-1963 (offfice), [redacted] (cell), was present for the interview. Also present at the interview was Assistant United States Attorney Jon Peter Kelly. The interview was conducted pursuant to a proffer agreement. STALLINGS provided the following information:

STALLINGS advised that he was transferred on/or about October 1998 from road patrol, where he was a sergeant to the Narcotics Unit, where he was a sergeant for one of five narcotics teams. He explained that he did not receive any training to supervise one of the narcotics teams. He was told by one of his superiors at the time, to have fun, it will work itself out, learn as you go. He stated that in the Narcotics Unit there was alot of freedom, he was more accustomed to a structured environment when he worked road patrol. In 1998, there also were alot more veteran investigators in Narcotics than in 2006.

He stated that in 1998 there was a numbers system in place for arrests and search warrants per team. They were over 100 arrests and per team per month, and that each investigator had to do two search warrants per month. He could not recall if these numbers were written down on a memorandum or any other document, but he did recall that meetings were held and statistics were kept per investigator and per team. The type of daily activities that each team would conduct would include, buy/ bust, pick offs (this activity involved an undercover officer monitoring a particular drug area and calling in to have a traffic stop conducted after witnessing illegal drug activity), arrest warrants, consent searches, and search warrants. The Narcotics Unit normally used lead sheets to direct the teams to areas of concern. At the time STALLINGS came into the unit there were an overwhelming number of lead sheets, and they were always playing catch-up.

The lead sheets came from various sources and were kept in a database. Lead sheet that came from the Atlanta City Council took priority and would require an immediate response. There may be twenty or thirty different location on one of these lead sheets. STALLINGS advised that these lead sheets generated pressure and there had to be some type of response given back on these particular lead sheets. Lead sheets were initially received in by a secretary, but later it became a supervisors job to receive, distribute and track.

STALLINGS stated that in 1998 his Lieutenant in Narcotics was S. SAVAGE, who was latter replaced by E. N. FINLEY, who had been a Sergeant in the Narcotics Unit, and a team supervisor. FINLEY was promoted to Major and is presently the Major over Zone 3. His next Lieutenant was ROBERT BROWNING, and finally in 2006, GIBBS, who had been a narcotics investigator on Sergeant BROWN'S team on/or about 1998, when STALLINGS had come to narcotics.

Lieutenant SAVAGE held meetings once a month and the meetings would be with all the Sergeants. The meeting would be to discuss lead sheets and the number of arrests per team. SAVAGE was a person that was more mild mannered who would give compliments to the teams for getting the job done.

When FINLEY took over the Narcotics Unit sometime on/or about September 2001, a majority of the veteran investigators transferred out or were forced to transfer to other units. Under FINLEY the current numbers were not enough, the numbers had to increase. FINLEY changed periodic meetings to weekly meetings, and he also wrote memorandums laying out the minimum numbers that would be acceptable per investigator, one particular memorandum was the "9 and 2", which involved each investigator being responsible for nine arrests and two search warrants per month. FINLEY also started operating "details", which were to operate heavily in hot drug spots. These details were responsible for generating "numbers." Details could last one to two weeks, with the cancellation of off days for numerous officers. These details would average three to four search warrants a day for the two weeks. The lead time to get the number of search warrants was about two weeks, sometimes less. There would be about six details per month. Approximately three to four hundred people were arrested per detail. STALLING added that he did not really feel pressure until FINLEY took over as Lieutenant. FINLEY also came up with a plan to use specific investigators to make buys and then distribute these buys to other investigators for them to obtain search warrants. The two particular investigators STALLINGS recalled, were MASON and BURNS. This also was the time that veteran guys started leaving the narcotics unit and the number of narcotics teams were reduced as well. STALLINGS recalled that FINLEY had a unit meeting to discuss instituting his plan to have a two man buy team. He was not sure if GIBBS was still in the narcotics unit at this time. This meeting was held in a big open cubicle area. FINLEY operated this two man buy team for period of time. The buy team would come back to the unit and the buys would be equally distributed among the unit so that everyone would get an equal number of warrants. In addition, the narcotics teams also made buys. Alot of the investigators were not happy with it because they would be relying on the buy teams information.

STALLINGS also stated uniformed officers would attend these meetings when they were doing details or "street heat." Also, while FINLEY was the Lieutenant of narcotics he set up "hot spot details", which would be conducted each month, after he reviewed files to see where the hot drug areas were. He had two unit details monthly and required that each unit complete their lead sheets each month. STALLINGS stated that unit meetings became redundant under FINLEY.

FINLEY pushed details everyday. He constantly wanted the teams to hit hot spots everyday no matter what other things you had going. FINLEY was only interested in number arrests, doing details and hitting hot spots. FINLEY also set up "Zero Tolerance Details," which involved hitting locations and if there was only one hit of crack cocaine, but there were twenty people at the residence, all twenty people were going to jail.

At supervisor meetings conducted by FINLEY, he would have a list of things that he had discussed with the Chain of Command such as number of arrests, hot spots and areas of concern in various zones. They would talk about COBRA meetings which involved all of the Zones. No one wanted to attend COBRA meetings because if a particular Zone did not have any drug unit work, FINLEY would instruct his Sergeants to go into those Zones and get some arrests and search warrants. STALLINGS stated that FINLEY would tell the Sergeants to get all this done before the next COBRA meeting; however, there was not enough time to do a thorough investigation to provide to the COBRA meeting. Also, during these supervisor meetings if an investigators numbers were low you would hear about it from FINLEY. FINLEY would tell the Sergeants that if the numbers did not come up then the investigator may have his work hours changed and/or a change of assignment on the team. FINLEY would say something about, do we need to find another area for him/her to work. STALLINGS recalled that Investigator KELTON HILL, had his name called out about FINLEY going to send him to the airport. FINLEY also, did not want investigators to work controlled deliveries, because they took more time to work and they did not generate the numbers. FINLEY told the Sergeants that he did not want that type of work done, he wanted quick turnaround work done only. STALLINGS advised the amount of narcotics seized from controlled deliveries was more than from the quick turnaround work FINLEY preferred, but FINLEY really only cared about the number arrests and search warrants.

STALLINGS recalled that FINLEY was all about the numbers, and one time he disciplined GREGG JUNNIER for taking a vacation. FINLEY wanted you working, he did not like guys taking time off. FINLEY directed that JUNNIER be put on uniform patrol for a period of time to let him know FINLEY was not happy he was not bringing in the numbers, because he was on vacation. FINLEY frequently would go directly to JUNNIER to cover leads and/or hot spots, instead of talking to STALLINGS, JUNNIERS's Sergeant, because FINLEY knew JUNNIER would get the job done. JUNNIER would come to STALLINGS after FINLEY directed him to work some area and was pushing numbers to let STALLINGS know what FINLEY had ordered him to do. STALLINGS explained that he and other officer in the narcotics unit felt direct pressure to get the numbers. STALLINGS stated that he told his team that he was feeling the pressure from FINLEY to get numbers, and his team would go out and get the numbers they had to do.

STALLINGS added that FINLEY may have operated the same way when he was a Sergeant. He believed that Sergeant SPARWATH would have more specific information regarding FINLEY, because he had been an investigator on FINLEY's team.

Sergeant CARRIE MILLS, now assigned to Zone 3, formerly a Sergeant in the Narcotics under FINLEY expressed some of the same concerns STALLINGS had about FINLEY's push for numbers.

Buy/Bust debriefing reports were developed under FINLEY. This would be information received from the drug dealer that a buy was made from. FINLEY would say take the debriefing form information and get a search warrant. This information would be from a "Non Documented Source." The Narcotics Unit only had a limited number of "Documented Reliable Sources."

STALLINGS stated that equipment in the Narcotics Unit was limited, such as recorders and undercover vehicles. STALLINGS and some others would use their personal vehicles to make buys. SAVAGE and FINLEY were aware of the use of personal vehicles. But, when Lieutenant BROWNING took over Narcotics, sometime on/or about late 2003 and early 2004, the use of personal vehicles came to a stop.

BROWNING tried to get away from the number system, but numbers were still being worked, primarily due to the COBRA meetings. The number of details decreased. The Narcotics Unit was still getting lead sheets from the Atlanta City Council. STALLINGS heard that at the COBRA meetings the decrease in Narcotics numbers was discussed. BROWNING was a 9 to 5 kind of guy, that was very much by the book, and did not go out on search warrants, unlike FINLEY, who was always out on the streets during execution of search warrants. BROWNING also was cautious of how to use cooperating informants (CI). It was almost impossible to sign up a CI, that was why ALEX WHITE became more valuable as a CI. WHITE was almost the only CI available for Narcotics Team 1 to use.

Lieutenant GIBBS took over the Narcotics Unit on/or about January 2006. At this time there also was only two narcotics teams. GIBBS and Deputy Chief ANDRESEN wanted to do more large scale drug cases, but the numbers started to decrease. GIBBS cared for the officers, and would commend them on there job. In the later part of 2006, because the numbers had declined the Narcotics Unit started doing "details" more frequently again.

Initially there also was two officers set up to do controlled deliveries again. One of these officers for GREGG JUNNIER. GIBBS also tried to change lead sheets to get the Zones and REDDOG more accountable, because lead sheets were too numerous for narcotics. Sometime around the summer of 2006, details started kicking in again.

STALLINGS recalled meetings with ANDRESEN, Major DAVIS, GIBBS, and other SES supervisors, such as vice, safe neighborhoods, gang, gun, permits, intel, and the Zone units where it was advised that SES Details would be conducted on a more regular basis. SES Details were to assist in working cohesively together to get the numbers up.

He also recalled at Narcotics Unit supervisor meetings GIBBS would tell the Sergeants to get search warrants and do buy/bust details to prepare for the upcoming SES Details.

STALLINGS stated that he was pretty sure that GIBBS knew that the teams were doing shared buys, but he did not have any specific recall of him telling her. GIBBS had a very close relationship with the investigators in the Narcotics Unit. GIBBS was a hands on Lieutenant. She had an open door policy with the investigators. She frequently went on the execution of search warrants.

STALLINGS also explained that many in the Narcotics unit operate outside jobs, and some cases will do some of their second jobs while on duty. Extra job requests have to submitted annually. It primarily only lists who the contact person is at the second job. He stated that he, JUNNIER and Investigator FIELDS operated outside jobs with various apartment complexes in the Atlanta area that they worked in the Narcotics Unit. JUNNIER was contacted by the apartment complexes before or after they got to work. In some cases they found themselves spending more time at the second job location while on duty. This was brought to FINLEY's attention and he kind of blew it off. FINLEY's response was to keep the numbers going. STALLINGS recalled that FINLEY said "I don't care about it." No one got disciplined or moved and STALLINGS assumed it was alright to continue to operate the second jobs the way they had been. STALLINGS had felt like they were straddling the line, but they worked this way for several years.

STALLINGS added that these second jobs were approved by management, and they were not the first to set up second jobs like this, other narcotics teams, as well as other units in the Zones operate second jobs like this.

The pay they received from second jobs was about $200 a week per officer, which was paid in cash. JUNNIER primarily made the collection of cash which was received in an envelope. Sometimes he would go to the apartment management office. STALLINGS sometime went with JUNNIER to pick up the money.

STALLINGS explained that there were a limited number of informants being operated by the Narcotics Unit. Team One specifically was operating one main informant, and that was ALEX WHITE. WHITE primarily worked with JUNNIER, and occasionally with CARY BOND. STALLINGS explained further that he was aware that WHITE was making drug buys where investigators were not observing. He stated that the reasons were mainly that JUNNIER was a white male and could not get in a position in the drug area to observe the buy, and some of the locations the drug buys were occurring in investigators could not keep eyesight on WHITE to observe the buy.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

He also was aware that WHITE did make buys on his own, without the assistance of investigators, but he believes this was done infrequently. The team had a good working relationship with WHITE. He does not believe that GIBBS was aware of this. J.R. SMITH tried to allow his informant, DIAMOND, to make buys on his own, but STALLINGS told SMITH not to do that. They had not built a strong working relationship with DIAMOND, and SMITH could be a little careless.

STALLINGS advised that Team One also operated a non documented source by the name of CURT ROZIER, who lives in Bowen Homes. He has tried to get ROZIER opened as a documented source for some time, but has not be able to because he is on probation. ROZIER's son, JERMAINE ROZIER, is opened as a documented source. He sometimes paid CURT with his own money for making buys, but initially CURT did not get paid at all. To pay CURT they would prepare vouchers signed by JERMAINE, as well as they would increase buy amounts on reports. Instead of writing up a nickel bag, they would put down that a dime bag was purchased. STALLINGS does not believe that the Chain of Command was aware of this. ROZIER was used by Investigator HOLLY BUCHANAN to make buys, but BUCHANAN wrote up the reports that JERMAINE did the buys. On some occasions both the ROZIERS were together to make the drub buy, but they could not always get JERMAINE. STALLINGS signed off on these reports as the supervisor.

STALLINGS did a report on a subject known as STACY KITCHENS regarding carrying a concealed gun. The information came from CURT who was with KITCHENS in a vehicle. STALLINGS contacted Lieutenant DOUG LITTLE to get his Zone patrol units try to do a traffic stop. The Zone did not to it as a traffic stop, but did arrest KITCHENS for gun charges. STALLINGS had written the report to include JUNNIER being with STALLINGS, stating they observed KITCHENS with the gun. JUNNIER was not actually with STALLINGS. The purpose was not burn CURT. STALLINGS told LITTLE to drop the charges, because it would have burned CURT as providing the information.

He stated that pat downs did occur prior to and after sending in the informant, but not always. Padding of vouchers did occur on non warrant buys. He is aware of JUNNIER doing this to get equipment for the team, but does not recall others.

WILBERT TRACY "PETE" STALLINGS, was interviewed at the United States Attorney's Office, Atlanta, Georgia. STALLINGS' attorney BRAD GARDNER was present during the interview. Also present at the interview was Assistant United States Attorney Jon Peter Kelly. The interview was conducted pursuant to a proffer agreement. STALLINGS provided the following information:

STALLINGS stated the Atlanta Police Department Narcotics Investigators would turn in a package to their secretary GAIL TAYLOR when they had completed a drug buy or obtained a search warrant in order to receive credit on a monthly report. The package would possibly consist of a buy report, a search warrant report, evidence log sheets, and seized property report. TAYLOR would prepare a stat sheet to display Teams 1 and 2 stats for the month, which would include felony and misdemeanor arrest, cleared lead sheets, search warrants served and consent searches.

STALLINGS advised on a few occasions he heard Atlanta Police Department narcotics investigator GREGG JUNNIER state his confidential informant had made 4 or 5 buys. JUNNIER would then ask if one of the investigators could handle one or more of the write ups. This would mean the investigator would write up the buy as if they had completed the buy and would normally claim the stat. The investigator would possibly use this information to obtain a search warrant and write the affidavit as if they had completed the buy. STALLINGS has witnessed the following Atlanta Police Department narcotics investigators except the buys from JUNNIER and claim the stat for themselves, GARY SMITH, NATHAN LUCAS, HOLLY BUCHANAN, J.R. SMITH, and ARTHUR TESLER. STALLINGS could not remember if investigator CARY BOND had ever received one of JUNNIER'S warrants. STALLINGS had also asked JUNNIER to pass out some of his buys to other investigators that were low on that particular month.

STALLINGS stated he would go out to help his investigators on occasions. STALLINGS has helped BOND, BUCHANAN, MAURICE GEURIN, GARY SMITH, LUCAS, and JUNNIER make drug buys.

STALLINGS stated that after his (STALLINGS) father died he asked JUNNIER to step up and basically run the squad. STALLINGS asked JUNNIER to make sure everyone was producing enough stats each month.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

STALLINGS stated that he would look over buy reports and search warrants and make suggestions. However, STALLINGS did not look over all of the search warrants before the investigators took them to the magistrate.

STALLINGS knew that JUNNIER would use STALLINGS' name on buy reports even if STALLINGS was not present during the drug buy. STALLINGS believes that JUNNIER was the only investigator that would use STALLINGS' name on a buy report when STALLINGS was not present.

STALLINGS has taken Atlanta Police Department confidential informant ALEXIS WHITE out to purchase drugs without any other investigators involved. STALLINGS would then turn over all of the drugs and information to JUNNIER and allow JUNNIER to write up the information as if JUNNIER had done the buy himself. STALLINGS stated on some of these buys he would not follow WHITE to the house and would just sit at another location and wait for WHITE to return with the drugs. STALLINGS was aware that JUNNIER would write the report as if they were able to watch the drug buy. JUNNIER has told STALLINGS in the past if we need to get our numbers up then we need to trust WHITE.

STALLINGS stated that he has been with BUCHANAN, GARY SMITH and LUCAS when they would sit at a location and allow their informant to leave and bring the drugs back to their location. STALLINGS was aware that these investigators would write the reports as if they had witnessed the buys and on some occasions obtain search warrants by using the falsified information.

VOUCHERS

STALLINGS advised each investigator receives $300.00 to make drug buys. When the investigator had used their allotted money they would turn in all of their vouchers and then have another $300.00 re-issued. STALLINGS stated Sergeant BROWN changed the rules and made the investigators begin to turn their money in at the end of the month regardless of how much money they had spent and have the $300.00 re-issued each month. STALLINGS had signed vouchers as a witness for JUNNIER and BUCHANAN even when he did not witness the payment to the informant.

FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)

STALLINGS had knowledge of JUNNIER using vouchers to pay himself back if he ever spent money out of his own pocket for work related expenses. STALLINGS also remembers JUNNIER offering to reimburse STALLINGS for gas that STALLINGS had spent by using his own vehicle during a drug buy. STALLINGS remembers telling JUNNIER that he could reimburse him but, does not remember receiving money from JUNNIER. However, STALLINGS does recall JUNNIER giving money back to STALLINGS when he (STALLINGS) used his own money to give to ALEX WHITE to purchase drugs.

STALLINGS told J.R. SMITH that he could not tint his work vehicles' windows and then voucher the money.

JUNNIER

STALLINGS on one occasion witnessed JUNNIER confront a subject on North Avenue and Simpson in 2005 or 2006 and threaten to plant drugs on the subject. JUNNIER was interviewing the subject when JUNNIER held approximately a nickle bag of marijuana up and said "These drugs are yours." The subject became irrate and LUCAS had to restrain the subject. JUNNIER then pulled STALLINGS aside and said the drugs were not off of the subject and that he(JUNNIER) was just testing the subject. STALLINGS did not kmow where the drugs had come from and STALLINGS gave JUNNIER a verbal warning to never use that technique on a subject.

STALLINGS stated in 2006, JUNNIER was serving a search warrant located at Simpson road and Martin Luther King Boulevard. The house is on top of a hill and there is a convenience store located at the bottom of the hill across the street from the house. JUNNIER had found some drugs in the house and threatened to arrest the subjects wife and kids if he did not admit the drugs were his drugs. When the subjects mother walked into the house, JUNNIER told J.R. SMITH or TESLER to place her in handcuffs. STALLINGS told the investigator to take the Mom out of handcuffs and then gave JUNNIER another verbal warning about this incident.

933 Neal Street, Atlanta

STALLINGS stated on the evening of the shooting he had asked J.R. SMITH and JUNNIER to be on standby for a possible search warrant that LUCAS was trying to obtain. STALLINGS was with LUCAS at the District Attorney's office trying to obtain the warrant when JUNNIER called STALLINGS and told him that he had a search warrant they were trying to obtain for 933 Neal Street, Atlanta, Georgia. STALLINGS stated that he was mad at JUNNIER for not listening to his request.

STALLINGS advised that J.R. SMITH did not have an operational plan prepared for the search warrant that he had received for 933 Neal Street. STALLINGS was not certain if J.R. SMITH ever wrote a operational plan for the search warrant. STALLINGS stated after the shooting occurred, he ordered J.R. SMITH to place Mrs. JOHNSON in handcuffs. J.R. SMITH explained that JOHNSON had blood coming out of her back so J.R. SMITH handcuffed JOHNSON in the front. GARY SMITH had kicked the gun out of Mrs. JOHNSON'S hand and BOND later placed it on a bed.

STALLINGS later saw J.R. SMITH and TESLER behind the house speaking with some RED DOG Officers. STALLINGS never witnessed J.R. SMITH or TESLER entering the basement.

JUNNIER told STALLINGS that he was going to give WHITE approximately $150.00 to leave town. STALLINGS later received a call from WHITE explaining that he did not make a buy at 933 Neal Street, Atlanta. STALLINGS passed this information to Lieutenant GIBBS.

The day after the shooting STALLINGS received a call from TESLER stating that he still had drugs that needed to be turned into evidence. TESLER stated that it was five bags of marijuana that needed to be turned into evidence. STALLINGS told TESLER to call dispatch and get an incident number and turn the drugs into evidence. GEURIN and LUCAS were sitting with STALLINGS when he received this call. GEURIN and LUCAS both asked STALLINGS why TESLER called STALLING about placing drugs into evidence. STALLINGS thought TESLER should have turned the drugs in the night before while a few of the members of narcotics Team 1 were at the Hospital. STALLINGS informed Chief ANDRESEN that TESLER was turning his drugs in late and ANDRESEN explained to STALLINGS not to write TESLER up for being late. ANDRESEN stated that TESLER should turn in the drugs into evidence and write a detailed report.

STALLINGS asked JUNNIER if he knew that TESLER had not turned in the drugs from the day of the shooting. JUNNIER asked STALLINGS how much was TESLER turning into evidence. STALLINGS stated 5 bags of marijuana. JUNNIER stated he thought it was more but he had not counted the bags.

STALLINGS was never informed by JUNNIER, TESLER or J.R. SMITH or any other members of the narcotics team that the search warrant contained falsified information.

WILBERT TRACY "PETE" STALLINGS, was interviewed at the United States Attorney's Office, Atlanta, Georgia. STALLINGS' attorney BRAD GARDNER was present during the interview. Also present at the interview was Assistant United States Attorney Jon Peter Kelly. The interview was conducted pursuant to a proffer agreement. STALLINGS provided the following information:

1058 Dill Ave, Atlanta, Georgia

STALLING reviewed an incident report for 1058 Dill Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia. The date of the incident was October 19, 2005. STALLINGS stated that narcotics investigator GREGG JUNNIER had a search warrant for 1058 Dill Ave which was one side of a duplex. . During the search the investigators found some type of documents showing the subjects in 1058 Dill Ave, may have some type of ownership on 1056 Dill Ave. STALLINGS, JUNNIER and narcotics investigator HOLLY BUCHANAN, walked to the back door of 1056 Dill Ave, and decided to enter the residence to conduct a search. STALLINGS remembers discussing with JUNNIER the possibility of obtaining a warrant for 1056 Dill Ave, and they decided not to get a warrant. STALLINGS thinks that JUNNIER may have said they did not need to get a warrant. STALLINGS believes the door was forced open by the investigators and then they conducted a search of the house. The investigators did not find any contraband in 1056 Dill Ave. STALLINGS told the investigators to shut the back door as best as they could. STALLINGS remembers someone stating "maybe they will just think someone broke into the house." STALLINGS remembers thinking that he hoped no one would complain. STALLINGS does not remember anyone complaining about this incident.

Second Jobs

STALLINGS stated that JUNNIER would spend a lot of time patrolling the apartment complexes that he was suppose to be working off duty. When JUNNIER and other members of the narcotics team to include STALLINGS began to work second jobs at different apartment complexes, they initially patrolled the apartment complexes before and after work. However, the investigator began to only patrol the apartment complexes while on duty. STALLINGS and the other members of the narcotics team began to feel like they were working at the apartment complexes to much while on duty.

Most members of the narcotics team did not like to enforce "house rules." Enforcing "house rules" meant the narcotics team would patrol the apartment complexes and enforce non-criminal apartment rules, such as telling people they could not set up basketball goals in the parking lot or would tell residence living at the apartment complex to not hang out in the parking lot. The narcotics team would also make "DC"(disorderly conduct) arrest. STALLINGS stated that these arrest would be very weak arrest to help clean up the apartment complexes.

JUNNIER began to drive a marked unit while on duty. The other narcotics team members felt as if JUNNIER was driving the marked unit to help him patrol the apartment complexes.

STALLINGS stated that most of the members of the narcotics team had complained at different times about working the off duty jobs while on duty. According to STALLINGS, narcotics investigators ALLEN ABERCROMBIE and IVANT FIELDS were two officers that STALLINGS stated may have been moved out of narcotics because they were tired of assisting JUNNIER on his second jobs.

STALLINGS stated that FIELDS originally did work second jobs while on duty but stopped working the second jobs because he felt it was ethically wrong. ABERCROMBIE also started to complain about JUNNIER taking up so much time patrolling the apartment complexes while on duty. ABERCROMBIE would not work the second jobs, but would ride with JUNNIER to do his rounds through the apartment complexes. STALLINGS stated that JUNNIER wanted ABERCROMBIE moved off of the squad because he was not a producer. STALLINGS stated that ABERCROMBIE was a producer. However, FIELDS and ABERCROMBIE were both moved off of the squad without real cause by Lieutenant FINLEY.

DENNIS WILSON, Detective, Atlanta Police Department Homicide Division, was interviewed at East City Hall, Atlanta, Georgia. He was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents by a display of credentials and informed of the nature of the interview. Also present during the interview was Jeff Holmes, Investigator, Fulton County District Attorney's Office. WILSON then provided the following information:

WILSON has been employed by the Atlanta Police Department for 25 years. He has been a Homicide Detective for two years and four months. Prior to that, he was a detective in the Assault Unit and Sex Crimes Unit.

On 11/21/2006, WILSON was working a three to eleven shift or four to twelve shift from East City Hall. He heard an officer down call over the radio at about 6:53 p.m. and was called out to the scene of a shooting at 933 Neal Street very shortly thereafter. He determined that a subject was down in connection with the shooting. WILSON stated that he knew that Homicide would get the call, as any officer down call involving a shooting is assigned to Homicide. WILSON was assigned as lead investigator on the case, which is assigned on a rotational basis. When WILSON arrived on-scene at about 7:06 p.m., there were already a large number of officers and investigators present. He recalled that Detectives CHAMBERS and CAVALIER from Sex Crimes and Robbery were already there. Homicide Detective THOMAS AGAN also arrived at the scene and assisted WILSON in handling the crime scene, producing the crime scene sketch, including making measurements and processing the scene. Also on scene was Investigator SMITH who went to the hospital with O'CONNOR to check on the three injured officers. WILSON stated that there was also a "lot of brass" at the scene, including MAJOR WILLIAMS and various others.

When WILSON arrived, the three injured officers were already in the ambulance being treated. WILSON went inside the house and saw that a black female was still inside and the fire department was still working on her. Captain HOLCOMB said that she was already dead, but that they were still getting electrical impulses. WILSON had already determined that she had been shot in connection with the entry. He began speaking to officers to determine where the entry team had been, where the individual officers were in relation to others in the stack and the assignment of each officer. WILSON had also determined that R. SPERLE had been with his dog in the van when the initial entry was made. After the initial entry, the officers had restacked and reentered the house. The Red Dog team had arrived shortly after the entry. Detective TESLER and JR. SMITH, members of Red Dog and K-9 officer SPERLE went to the back door and breached the door with a ram. They then went inside from the back door.

Inside the house, WILSON looked at the black female, then looked around the house. During this initial survey, he had observed a revolver lying on the bed in a bedroom. He later had heard that G. SMITH had kicked the revolver away from the woman's hand, sending it under the bed. Detective BOND then picked up the revolver and placed it on the bed.

WILSON sent Detective CAVALIER to obtain a search warrant for the house. WILSON stated that, though a search warrant was not always obtained after a shooting, he thought that the search warrant was prudent as he believed that the woman who had been shot was the home owner. He discussed this with Detectives GUERICCI and PEAK and made the decision to obtain the warrant. WILSON expanded the crime-scene to three blocks and identified the people inside the house. He stated that there had been many people inside the house in the immediate aftermath of the shooting, so he had to establish the crime-scene area.

WILSON took each officer who had been involved in the shooting to the crime-scene van where they were photographed and the remaining live rounds in each of their magazines was counted. The pistols of the injured officers were recovered from them at the hospital and later provided to WILSON. WILSON stated that each officer had started with full magazines. He determined that G. SMITH had fired twelve shots, G. JUNNIER had fired six shots, C. BOND had fired two shots, LUCAS had fires seven shots and JR SMITH had fired twelve shots for a total of 39 shots fired.

WILSON called Detective CAVALIER at about 7:57 p.m. and confirmed that the warrant had been obtained. They began executing the warrant sometime between 8:05 p.m. and 8:10 p.m. They began processing the scene for evidence. WILSON noted that someone from the RED DOG team had decided that it would be helpful to put bricks near the spent shell casings outside, so the photos had been taken with the bricks in view. Technician T. MARTIN had taken still photos of the exterior and interior of the house. Technician SASNET had video-taped the exterior and interior. Detective AGAN had overseen the crime-scene processing.

WILSON left the revolver he had observed in place on the bed until the end of the search at about 2:30 a.m. to 2:45 a.m. He had Technician MARTIN photograph the 38-Special CHARTER ARMS revolver, including close-up shots. WILSON stated that the gun was perpendicular to the head of the bed with the muzzle pointing toward the head. The gun was lying on its right side and WILSON could observe three shells in the gun which appeared to be live and one spent round. He opened the cylinder and observed one live round under the hammer. WILSON noted that the cylinder rotated in a clockwise direction. WILSON removed the rounds and test fired the weapon against his thumb and noted that the gun operated properly and that there appeared to be enough force from the hammer to fire a round. WILSON also rotated the cylinder and determined that it functioned properly. WILSON stated that he had expected the fired round to be underneath the hammer, however, the spent round was actually in the first position counterclockwise from the hammer. WILSON noted that only one cylinder (that containing the spent round) had gunpowder residue in it. Technician MARTIN recovered the revolver and submitted it to evidence to perform fingerprint, tool mark and similar tests. WILSON stated that no additional rounds of .38 special ammunition were recovered in the search.

Detective WILSON noted that the basement contained a commercial grade lawnmower, an air compressor, and numerous tools. He recalled that the basement door had been standing open and he believed in opened inward. WILSON recalled that the burglar bars on the front door would swing shut on their own and had to be propped open.

WILSON stated that a neighborhood canvass was started that night and conducted by Investigator DUMAS. The neighbors at 929 Neal Street, among others, had been interviewed.

Regarding unusual aspects of this case, WILSON advised that the primary aspect he found unusual was the position of the spent round in the cylinder. He also stated that one round had gone into the victim's bedroom, through a box and into the wall behind. WILSON noted that rounds had also gone into the southwest corner of the room. A round had gone through the back of a cloth chair and another round had gone behind a hutch.

He stated that a black female who identified herself as KELLY HILL and claimed to be a granddaughter of the victim came to the door of 933 Neal during the search. WILSON spoke with her and obtained the following identifying information:

Name:	KELLY HILL
Address:	[redacted]
	[redacted]
	[redacted]
DOB:	[redacted]
GA DL#	[redacted]

HILL later said that she was a friend of the victim KATHRYN JOHNSTON and had known JOHNSTON four or five years. HILL stated that JOHNSTON was a professional lady who had worked in a factory in the North, possibly Philadelphia. HILL stated that she had recently had the revolver cleaned and oiled for JOHNSTON. HILL stated that JOHNSTON had told her that if anybody tried to break into her house, she would shoot them.

WILSON stated that there was a walking cane in the house and an easy-lift chair. He did not recall any hearing aids on the premises. He stated that there did not appear to be a lot of family photos, nor were they able to locate a purse containing identification for the victim.

Detectives GUERERRO and PEAK did a walkthrough of the crime-scene with Sergeant SPARWOTH prior to his beginning the drug search. WILSON released the scene to him at 2:53 a.m.

WILSON stated that interviews were conducted of JR. SMITH, NATHAN LUCAS, MAURICE GUERIN, TESLER, SPERLE and on 11/22/2006. A statement was taken from CARY BOND on 11/24/2006. FABIAN SHEETS was interviewed on 11/26/2006 and G.A. SMITH on 11/27/2006.

WILSON stated that the .38 special round fired from JOHNSTON's revolver has not been recovered. He stated that it may have been the round that hit GREG JUNNIER's badge case and ricocheted up into his neck. WILSON believed that the other injuries to officers were probably caused by their own bullet fragments.

I wish to provide a full accounting of the events leading up to the death of Kathryn Johnston on of November 21, 2007, the actual incident and all subsequent matters to date. I have looked through my notes, referenced phone records, spoken to my wife and even called upon my attorney, Rand Csehy, to refresh my memory as to everything in this statement in order to provide an accurate accounting of what occurred. I have thoroughly exhausted all resources in order to be as complete and accurate as possible. In the end, I must account for my actions, however, I would be lying if I did not acknowledge that I am also doing this to minimize any future punishment I will receive for my role in this matter. Since my last meeting with authorities I have come to realize that anything that I have suffered is nothing compared to that of Ms. Johnston, my fellow officers and the public trust. I am out of excuses, reasons and justifications. I feel that I am a better man today than the one who participated in the Neal Street investigation, but will never be the man my colleagues, friends and family thought me to be. With that, please consider the following:

On November 21, 2007, Investigator J.R. Smith ("JR"), Tesler and I met at APD to discuss the plan for the day. As nothing was planned for us to do as a team, we decided to go out "on the street" to see what we could find. Inv. Bond, who would go out with us, advised that he had other things to do and would meet with us later. JR, Tesler and I left in patrol car #25100 – I drove and Tesler and JR were passengers.

We arrived at [redacted]350 Lanier St. to check vacant units where local drug dealers would secret their supplies for sale. JR walked around the building while Tesler and I went into one of the apartments which had been broken into. When JR met back up with us he had a few plastic bags in his hands and said he just found some drugs in the woods next to the complex. I asked him what it was and he said "weed". We then drove to the store nearby to see if anything was going on in front of the store. Officer Ramsey from K9 drove up and we told him JR had just found some drugs in the woods across the street. He and JR went back to the wooded area and searched it with the dog. I don't think they found any additional drugs. While we were there, JR received a phone call from "Diamond", an informant of JR's who had provided information in the past regarding drug activity. Although I never dealt with him personally, Diamond's information had always proven correct with regard to drugs seized.

JR said "[redacted]" told him a guy in a gold jacket was selling drugs in front of the green store (1143 Simpson Rd) and that the drugs were packaged in yellow bags. JR also said "[redacted]" told him that the suspect was hiding the drugs near the black fence. We knew exactly where he was talking about and "joked" that it was going to be Fabian Sheats out there selling drugs again. When we drove up Sheats who was wearing a gold colored jacket was walking away. Tesler detained Fabian. I stayed with the car. JR walked off toward the fence. Tesler brought Fabian back to the car. I called for a K9 unit to assist JR with the search. Before K9 arrived, JR brought some packaging bags back to the car and said he was getting close. Carson and another K9 unit (Sperill I think) arrived and assisted with the search. A short time later, JR brought a bag containing marijuana packaged for resale in smaller bags and a small amount of cocaine.

Sheats admitted the marijuana was his but the cocaine was not. Sheats pleaded with me to give him a break. I told him that if he could get us more than drugs than he just got caught with that he could get a break. He sat back for a few minutes and then said he could get us a lot more. He also said that he was in a house down the street around 3pm and that he saw at least a kilo of cocaine inside. He said the guy inside selling it sells marijuana too. Sheats continued by saying that he purchased what he had from that same place while he was there. I called JR and told him to try to wrap up his search because we got some information on more drugs to follow up on. JR returned to the car and discussed the information with Sheats. Sheats agreed to show us the house and said he would make a purchase if we wanted him to. I told Sheats that he was not going free if we didn't get any drugs.

At approximately 1700 hours, we traveled to Neal Street, at Sheats direction (I was driving and Tesler was in the front passenger seat while JR and Sheats were in the back seat. Sheats said the seller was a guy named "Sam" He also said "Sam" had a neatly trimmed beard and that he was afraid to be around guns. While we driving, I called Alex and asked him if he was available to make a buy for us. Alex said yes. I asked him if he had wheels and he said "no". I told him "ok" and that I would call him back soon. Fabian changed his mind about showing us the house because we were planning on driving him past the house in the patrol car instead of a UC car. I pulled into a parking lot on Simpson near Joseph Lowery Blvd. I told Sheats I didn't care if he showed us the house or not and started to write out his citation. After a few minutes, Sheats said "come on let's go I'll show you the house." We left the parking lot and drove West on Simpson and turned North on Joseph Lowery. As we approached Neal St., Sheats said "that's it right there" and directed our attention to 933 Neal St. I then drove to the next street and turned left which put us behind the house Sheats was directing us to. Sheats again directed our attention to the same house saying that's it the one with the light on. I then drove around to Neal St. and drove directly in front of the house. We again verified with Sheats that it was the house with the green shutters and the ramp in front. I also saw that the address was 933. We briefly discussed getting a warrant or trying a "knock and talk". I said I felt we should get a warrant and we just needed to get a buy. JR said "or not". I knew what he meant was that he could make up the buy. (I knew it was wrong, but I justified it as (1) we were going to take a kilo of cocaine off the street and (2) although the information wasn't enough to get a warrant, we weren't just picking a house at random. Regardless, it was wrong and had I said no to the plan, Ms. Johnston would still be alive.) I asked who was going to write it then because I was not going to write it. Tesler said he did not need it (meaning that he had his quota of arrests for the months). JR laughed and said "fuck it I'll write it lets go to the jail". The jail is where we go to get electronic warrants.

At 1730 hours JR went into the jail to get the warrant while Tesler and I remained in the car with Sheats. I called Sgt. Stallings to let him know we would have a warrant to execute and that JR was inside the jail getting it signed. I told him it should be a good warrant involving at least a kilo. He seemed a little frustrated but agreed to get the team together and to meet at the fire station on Simpson Rd at 1830 hrs. Sheats told Tesler and I that the weed that was found at the store really was not his and that he had about 13

(yellow) bags or so hidden near the apartments behind the store. I told him that he would have to take us to it after we executed the warrant for Neal St. before we would let him go. Fabian agreed to show us where it was later. After about 25- 30 minutes, JR called me and told me that the warrant was signed and he was just waiting for it to print. JR came back out acting as though other team members (A team) made a buy from the house (obviously for Fabian's benefit) and said he got the warrant. He started to hand it to Tesler and I but I told him I did not need to see it. I figured if something went wrong with it that it was all on him because he is the one who obtained it. I don't think Tesler read it either. As we started to pull off, JR told Tesler "by the way you're in the warrant – a cut and paste thing".

We arrived at the firehouse at approximately 1820 hours for the warrant briefing. When we arrived, Sgt. Stallings, G. Smith & Bond were waiting for us. They were in the van. Lucas & Geurin showed up about 10 –15 min later and had to get geared up. Sgt. Stallings seemed to be a little angry. He told Fabian there better be some big dope in the house because he put other stuff that he was working on all day on hold to do this. Fabian told him there would be. JR briefed the team in front of Fabian who was sitting in the back of the van at this point. I drove the van upon Sgt. Stallings direction. Tesler drove the patrol car. Sperill drove his K9 truck and was assigned to perimeter. Sgt. Stallings and Tesler were assigned to the rear of the house. We (me, JR, G. Smith, Geurin, & Lucas) ran across the front of the house to the right side of the house and then down the driveway or concrete walkway. I expected there to be a door on the right side of the house for us to enter through but I saw no such door. JR was right next to me as we got to the stairs leading up to the front door from the right side of the house. I told him that it did not look right to me because there was no door down the right side. He said "I know, I know" with a sense of urgency like he was rushed. I asked him what he wanted to do. He pointed to the door and said hit it. I approached the door and saw that it appeared to be a sturdy burglar bar door. Geurin began using the tool to pry the burglar bar door open. He was having trouble getting the tool inserted into the door. I grabbed the burglar bar door to hold pressure on it as Geurin was prying the door. I think Lucas even had to use the ram to seat the tool into the door. It took longer than usual to open the burglar bar door. After the burglar bar door came open, I reached in and checked the main door to see if it was locked with my right (non-weapon) hand. I looked back to see Lucas moving in with the ram. I yelled "Atlanta Police search warrant" just as Lucas rammed the door. The door flew open. Immediately, I saw a person standing on the inside armed with a gun which discharged in my direction. I saw a bright flash and felt as though I just got punched in the face. I returned fire at the armed person as I backed away from the door. I then fell down the steps of the porch. It was at this point where everything went into slow motion. I was not sure how many times I fired, so I began to reload my weapon so I would not re-enter the battle with an empty gun. I could hear repeated gun fire and thought we were going to have multiple suspects. As I reloaded my city issued pistol I saw blood dripping onto my hands and felt the blood dripping down my face. I was truly terrified. I knew where I was and what was going on but at the same time I was afraid that I was mortally wounded and the it just had not taken its toll on me yet. I stood back up to see G. Smith still engaging the armed person at the door while standing toward the left side of the door along the wall. I fired one additional shot and then no longer saw the armed person. I then backed down the stairs to cover the windows along the side of the house while still maintaining a position to react to another threat from the door. Sgt. Stallings came to the front right side of the house and asked if everyone was ok. I told him that I was hit but I thought I was ok. Bond said the same thing. JR was on the porch to the left side of the door behind G. Smith who was grabbing his leg. I remember Sgt. Stallings saying that looks like friendly fire to me. I did not see Geurin or Lucas. Sgt. Stallings then said we have to clear the house. I said ok let's do it and the team reassembled behind G. Smith who was manning the shield. I could not see anyone from the doorway. I thought that we were going to be in another gun battle as soon as we made the right turn through the doorway after entering the house. Fortunately, that did not happen. I saw a person on the floor to the right side of the doorway with a gun a short distance away. G. Smith, JR and I cleared the right side of the house while other team members tended to the downed suspect. JR approached me as I was about to exit the house. I angrily told him that he better have his shit together on this one and that he better hope there was some dope here and walked out of the house to evaluate my injuries. I still thought I was seriously injured. My face was bleeding and felt like it was burning from two different areas. My leg was also burning. I walked out on to the porch where an officer who was already on the scene looked at me and said you have been shot in the chest and showed me the hole in my vest. I then discovered that I had also been shot in the left thigh, right side of the face, and was cut on the left side of the nose. The officers on the scene assisted me with getting out of the gear and directed me to the medical personnel who were arriving on the scene. Bond and G. Smith were also directed to the ambulance with me. We were all three transported together in the same ambulance to Grady Hospital.

All three of us were taken to the same trauma room which seemed to be prepared for us with three beds and what seemed to be three medical teams. Bond had a gun shot wound to his forearm. G. Smith had a gun shot to the back of his leg. It was in the trauma room at Grady Hospital that I learned that the armed person we encountered at the house was a woman not a man as I had originally thought and that she had been killed in the exchange of gunfire. Not only did I feel sick to my stomach about an innocent woman dying, I immediately realized that I either needed to tell someone what had happened or continue with the lie. For the time, I decided to wait it out and justify it all by "not having seen the warrant." Family members and officers were in and out of the trauma room. Our team members Sgt. Stallings, Lucas, JR, Geurin, and Tesler arrived at the hospital after a while. JR seemed to be upset and was telling me he had been trying to call me and that we needed to talk. I ignored him at first because it made me a angry that he thought I should be answering phone calls. He said it couple of times while standing with Tesler. I asked him if everything was ok and he said yes. I asked me if any drugs were found in the house and he responded that it was "taken care of." To be blunt, it was then that I believed that I was stuck with the lie and I did not believe that I could tell the truth. He also said he talked to Alex and everything is good but we needed to talk. I told him that I would call him when I get out and that I did not even know where my phone was at that time. I was released from the hospital and rode back to City Hall East with my brother.

While at the parking deck of City Hall East, both Tesler and JR called. JR said that he had called Alex and that Alex was good with everything and that he (Alex) was going to say he made the buy. JR also said everything was going to be ok if we just stick together on this. He told me to call Alex and be sure. I told him no that he needed to do it. He said he talked to Alex several times already and that he did not want to keep using his phone to call him. Tesler was just checking on me and said we will get together tomorrow.

The next day I was called by Sgt. Lacoss from homicide to make a statement. I hesitated at first, as I was still trying to process everything that had happened, was in pain, had not slept at all and was unsure about how to tell the truth and to whom. She said she did not think it would look good if I waited too long to come in and make the statement. Don English (PBA Atty) also called me to ask when I was going to make my statement to homicide. I agreed to come in that day. I went in around 12 or 1pm. Lt. Gibbs told me to call Alex because he was riding with Duncan in the bluff area looking for "Sam" and jumped out of the car and ran when they were bringing him to look at some possible pictures of "Sam" back at the office. Alex would not answer. Later Duncan came in and told me that he and Feliberty were riding Alex around the bluff looking for "Sam" and then he was told to bring Alex to the office to try to ID "Sam" from some pictures they pulled up. Duncan said that when they got to the intersection of Spring St. & North Alex jumped out and ran into the Varsity and could not be found. I made several attempts throughout the day to get in contact with Alex as Lt. Gibbs asked but I just kept getting his voice mail. At one point I did speak with Alex he said he was scared because he did not know Duncan and he thought Duncan was going to take him to jail. I reassured him that they only wanted to show him some pictures of somebody they thought might be "Sam" but he should not identify anyone unless he was sure it was "Sam". Alex agreed and said he would look at the pictures when he was asked to do so again. I later made my statement to homicide after waiting around for JR to finish his. Tesler and I went to make our statements at the same time. Tesler told me then that Sgt. Stallings asked him more than once point blank if Alex made the buy and he told him yes. I really did not feel comfortable making the statement but I did not want JR to get in trouble either. I was as vague as I could be and still cover for JR. Tesler told me later that he was relieved because he did not have to talk about the buy in his statement. I wished I was never asked anything about it either. In hind sight, I should have never even been there before getting my head cleared up. While I was making my statement JR kept coming by and standing around. He told me he got in touch with Alex and he was going to meet Alex at Burchfield's extra job and pay him for making the buy. JR said Alex told him that he was going to meet Burchfield to look at some pictures. JR called me later and said that Alex was not there yet and asked me to call him. I spoke to Alex a while later who said that he was going to meet with JR to get paid for making the buy from Neal St. JR. called later and said Alex never showed up. Spoke to Alex late at night. He was saying he really needed some money for Thanksgiving. I told him he should have met with JR earlier so he could get paid for the buy form Neal St. I told him that I was going out of town and I would get with him when I got back.

On November 23, 2007, I spoke to Alex who was begging for money. He asked me if there was any way I could get him some money because he was really broke and needed some money for Thanksgiving. He said he was going to meet with JR later. I told him I would try to get him 50.00 which he could pick up at the store on MLK. I then called Eddie and asked Eddie to give Alex 100.00 for me and we would settle up later. I was not worried about giving Alex extra as I had done this in the past and could justify it as a "thank you" around the holidays. In truth, though, I knew that the extra money would be viewed as a "thank you" for covering for us. JR was supposed to meet with Alex and get him to sign the voucher. Alex called me and said he was scared he was going to get in trouble. I tried to assure him he did nothing wrong. He asked if there was anyway we could just say somebody else made the buy. I told him "no" because he already told everybody he made the buy. I look back at this as another opportunity I had to come clean, yet failed to do so.

On November 24, 2007, Alex called me after I arrived home from Blue Ridge. He asked me again if JR couldn't just use another CI instead of him. I told him "no" and explained to him that he already told other people that he made the buy and it was not that easy anymore. I continued to speak to him as though he made the buy and I did not know differently as I had since I first talked with him after being shot. He always told me and acted that he made the buy from Neal St. when I spoke to him. He also told me he liked me and would do it for me but he did not like JR. Alex further said seemed frustrated and said JR was only talking about giving him a few bills and he needed more for this. I began to feel as though he was trying to get me to say something he could tape and use later so I told him I did not know what he was talking about. Alex has always been motivated by money so I also told him that we should be back to work next week and we were going to have to get up a bunch buys for warrants for the Zone 1 detail coming up and he could make plenty of money off that. He seemed to be high and said he thought he was just going to leave town because he didn't want to be part of this anymore.

I later saw Alex on the news saying he was asked to lie about making the buy.

Meetings with JR and Tesler: (between November 24 and December 1, 2007)

1st meeting

After speaking to JR and Tesler it was agreed to meet at My Cousin Vinney's Restaurant near Town Center Mall. Tesler picked the place and arranged the meeting with JR.

We met for lunch one day as agreed. I was first to arrive and then Tesler and then JR. Tesler and I were already inside when JR arrived. We really did not discuss the situation much before JR arrived but I do remember saying that he thought JR would be well prepared. JR was well prepared and even had a new appearance. He was clean shaven. His hair was neatly trimmed and he was wearing glasses. Tesler made fun of him about it. JR said it what his new look. He was also very prepared. He had copies of reports and had already prepared a statement which he had copies for Tesler and I. I told him I did not want to see it in case I was asked about something like that at a later time. I also reminded him that my part in this only concerned arranging for them to meet Alex and then driving them to meet him. JR wanted to clarify the type of vehicle Alex was in and where we met with me included to be sure we were together on that. He and Tesler discussed specific details of the buy. I did not really pay a lot of attention but participated by pointing out inconsistencies or problems when I heard something that did not sound right.

1) Where they were positioned in the vehicle
2) What was in the vehicle (trashy)
3) How the vehicle smelled (moldy)
4) The route they took (were not sure because they were trying to hide)
5) Where they parked at 933 Neal St
6) What they saw Alex do
7) What they saw Sam do
8) Route back to meet with me
9) Where they were dropped off

We discussed together

1) Phone calls
2) Future meetings this place would be called Tesler's place but JR wanted to find a place closer to him.
3) Money I Eddie and JR paid Alex. JR told me he paid Alex 250.00 and that was all the cash he had. I told him I did not want or need to know what he paid him. I did not want to have to explain it later.
4) Lie detector - JR said he had already been looking up information on them and found that they were not admissible in court, they are only reliable 50% of the time. He said you have to put yourself in a zone and focus on your breathing.
5) Perception of Alex's and Fabian's reliability
6) Accidental thoroughness of the story
7) Timeline
8) JR said we could not discuss this with anyone, not even our wives.
9) JR wanted Tesler to sign the voucher form as though he witnessed JR paying Alex for the buy I told Tesler not to sign it. JR seemed to get mad about that but I told him he would just have to deal with that because Tesler was not with him then. JR brought it up another time with the same outcome.
10) JR and Tesler brought the fact that they turned in some drugs late
11) Tesler was concerned that Carson K9 had seen cocaine in the bag of drugs which was found at 1143 Simpson Rd. He said she called him to get weights of the drugs and he told her that he field tested the stuff that looked like cocaine and it was negative so he threw it in the trash dumpster in front of the store. I never saw him test it. I also don't remember him having an opportunity to test the drugs without me seeing him do so because I was with him the whole time.

2nd meeting

After news that the Rhodesia warrant was in question, I called for a meeting back at My Cousin Vinny's to discuss it. We discussed the following:

1) JR and Tesler attempting buy with Diamond and son.

2) Buy attempts with Alex
3) Pedestrian stop during detail of men leaving the house smelling of marijuana.
4) Info Alex provided about seeing suspect selling at the gas station nearby.
5) Where we picked up Alex
6) Another common meeting place downtown
7) Tesler wanted to clarify how he arrested Fabian. This is when I found out that Tesler had said that he conducted surveillance and saw Fabian selling drugs before stopping him in front of the store.

On December 1, 2007, I spoke with Rand Csehy, who was not my attorney at that time. I called Rand and advised that the FBI wanted me to give a statement, but that the PBA had said I should not say anything at this time. Rand advised me that I was represented by counsel and that he represented Cary Bond, but that he would give me the names of other lawyers if I wanted other counsel. We spoke about other matters for a few minutes. As we were hanging up, Rand said that I was a good cop and a good person and if he thought I was lying or covering up anything he wouldn't have offered any help in the beginning (Rand had offered to represent me pro bono when he heard about the investigation, but I declined. Cary Bond accepted his offer). After speaking with Rand, I told my wife everything and she told me to ask Rand to help me. I asked him to confer with Cary Bond about meeting with me and Cary agreed that Rand could inquire if there was a conflict. I told Rand I wanted him to approach the FBI in order for me to tell the truth. He advised that he was going to meet with Cary and the FBI the following week and that I needed to proceed with PBA until he could make a decision regarding representing me. He did tell me not to engage in any more conversations regarding a cover-up, but that if JR or Tesler spoke about anymore lies, I should pay attention. The following events occurred after the meeting with my attorney:

3rd meeting – Post December 1, 2007

This meeting was arranged by Tesler. He had apparently been talking with JR because he said JR wanted to ride through the area again with him. I agreed to meet with Tesler and ride together to meet with PBA and meet with JR at the Target on Moreland Ave. JR was late because he said he went to homicide to get a copy of his statement but he could not because it had already been turned over to the FBI. When JR arrived Tesler mentioned to him that we needed to ride out to Law St. and Neal St. I said if we were going to do that we should just retrace the whole route as things happened on11/21. I suggested we drive in our separate vehicles but JR wanted to ride with Tesler and I and then return to the Target before going to PBA and that he would drive his own vehicle to PBA. JR's main focus seemed to be on where exactly I parked and where Alex parked at Law St. While there, I pointed out that there were no cameras facing the area where JR had chosen for the meeting. At one point JR said "So what's the worst case scenario?" "Let's say they find some dope that fell out of my raid pants in the house". Tesler wanted to clarify where he was when he was conducting surveillance of Fabian.

Meeting with PBA attorneys Grady Dukes and Don English and JR and Tesler: As I am unsure whether this would be attorney-client privilege, with regard to Tesler and JR, my attorney has a copy of this section available upon request..

Next meeting
At the Mexican Restaurant parking lot on Wade Green Rd. This meeting was just with Tesler and I so I could pay Tesler money I owed him. JR was not at this meeting. Tesler told me he was going to make his statement to the FBI with Don English. He told me that I needed to go in and make a statement to the FBI to clarify things. He told me JR was going to make a statement and JR thought we all needed to stick together and make statements. He said he felt comfortable and that he was looking forward to getting his statement out of the way. I told him that I did not know what I was going to do. Tesler told me he would call me on his way home after meeting with the FBI so he could tell me how it went. I did not ask him or even suggest that he call me.

Next meeting – Wade Green Rd
Tesler called me after his meeting with the FBI and wanted to meet. He was very upbeat and said everything went well. He said the focus of the meeting seemed to be the timeline but he was able to explain it without any problem. He again told me that I should go in and make a statement.

Next meeting - Wade Green Rd
Tesler called and wanted to meet. It seemed urgent. All he really told me was that he talked to his sister in law who is a lawyer. He said she told him that I should stick with the PBA because it shows weakness if we start to split up. He also told me about benefit at restaurant downtown and asked me if I was going I told him no because I did not feel like talking to anyone about the situation. He told me that he and JR were going to attend.

Meeting with Bond / JR phone call
Met with Bond at Hardees at 92 & 75 to give him money from the benefit and pd collection on the same day Tesler went in and apparently began to tell the truth. While meeting with Bond (discussing family and Christmas) JR called and said PBA had just called him and told him that they would no longer represent him and that there was some kind of new evidence. JR said he was also told that he should have told the truth and that he needed to hire the best criminal attorney he could get. JR said he was given Ed Garlands name and that he had an appointment with him the next morning but he had heard that Garland was going to charge him 50,000.00. JR seemed very distraught. I asked him what happened he told me he did not know. He mentioned that Tesler had a follow up meeting with the FBI on the same day. I asked him if he thought Tesler had said something. He said he did not know and that he did not know what to do. He was obviously very distraught. He said he heard Rand was handling my case for free and wanted me to ask Rand to help him or find another attorney who might not be so high.

The next morning, I woke up concerned for Tesler and knowing what he was going through and the sorrow, worry, pain and relief I felt after being able to open up and tell the truth to the authorities so I called Tesler. He was apparently going to avoid my call because he seemed surprised to hear my voice and later said my name showed up differently on his caller ID. When he answered, I told him he was doing the right thing. He was silent. I told him I was glad he told the truth. I also told him he picked up on the signals I was giving him to do so. He said he did and that he felt better. I told him about my conversation with JR. I told him that I'm sure he must be relieved to get all that weight off his chest. I asked him if he had told his wife what was going on he told me no and he was concerned about how she was going to take it so he was going to tell her after there visiting family came in. We also discussed our concern about the seriousness of the situation and the possible consequences and there effect on our families. Both of us were and still are very concerned. We also briefly discussed that JR should not of put us in this position and how we would come forward if the tables were turned so that so many others would not be involved. We also discussed concerns over what JR would do and how he was going to react. I asked Tesler how JR reacted when he found out I was no longer using PBA to represent me and he said that JR was concerned buthe did not elaborate on it. I asked him if he ever threatened to go after Alex. He said no but then told me the story of how JR squinted his eyes up, got in Alex's face and told him "look mother fucker you made that buy". This supposedly happened when JR met with Alex to pay him on Thanksgiving. Tesler acted like he was not there and that it was something JR told him. Tesler also suggested we get together to discuss the truth of the incident. I agreed but we did not meet to discuss the incident further. I did however call him to check on him and suggested we go to dinner with our wives because it might be good for them since they were going through the same thing. He agreed that would be a good idea but when I called him and invited him to dinner he said his wife was sick from her pregnancy and partially from hearing the truth that he could not make it that night. He said he would call to schedule it for another time but I have not spoken to him since. I did not call him because I figured his lawyer suggested to him we have no further contact and I did not want to interfere.

This 16th day of January, 2007.

This decision will be made by the on-scene commander during the operation and will be based on the information available at the time. Use attachments as necessary.

Type of Warrant: Search ☒ Arrest ☐

Case Number: _____ Date: 11-21-06

Case Investigator: J.R. Smith Co-Case Investigator: A.B. Tesler

Primary Radio Frequency: Narcotics Srv Secondary Radio Frequency: OTG 1

CASE BACKGROUND

→ On 11-21-06, made an arrest at Simpson & Mayson Turner, Suspect stated he purchased his marijuana at 933 Neal St. He also stated "Sam" was cutting cocaine up at the house so well we drove the suspect past the house to confirm the location.

→ On 11-21-06 contacted CRZ. myself along with Tesler went with the CRZ to 933 Neal St. The CRZ purchase (2) #25.00 bits of crack cocaine from "Sam" matching the description given to me by the suspect from the earlier arrest, and for the house pointed out to me by the suspect.

OBJECTIVE OF OPERATION / MISSION

Stage for warrant at a safe and distant location away from sight of target. Conduct briefing and check for proper equipment. Move to location keeping the perimeter team in front as a lead vehicle in order to secure the perimeter and ensure the safety of the entry team upon arrival to the target location. The entry team will arrive behind the perimeter team and stack up prior to making entry into the location. The entry team will then safely enter premises and secure all persons within. Once "all clear" is given via radio the perimeter team may enter the location to assist in the search and any administrative functions required therein. All persons will be thourouly search in order to search for potential hazards, weapons, and contraband. Once all persons are searched for hazards the team will conduct a search of premises and all curtilage therein for evidence with the assistande of K-9 if needed. Identify all personnel through ACIC within location and determine needed charges. Finally make all arrests accordingly. Complete citations, property sheets, and reports. Transport all person to the approprate detetion center. Secure the location and leave a copy of the warrant within.

PLAN OF ACTION

Details:

- Perimeter will arrive first and establish perimeter security to ensure the area is safe for the breach team and entry team. The entry team will follow the shield to the door, the breach team will follow. Once at the door the breach team will be called up and breach the door if required. The shield will be the first through the door followed by the stack and breach/arrest team to the rear. The shield will cover while the home is being searched for potential threats. The use of two persons to a room will be used throughout the execution of this warrant. Once all threats are identified and secured the all clear will be given to the perimeter team, who can then enter the location. The use of K-9 to assist in the search will be determined on the scene. All persons and evidence will be brought to one room to begin to process the warrant.
- One Investigator will begin citations and run all persons on ACIC to determine outstanding warrants.
- Another investigator will begin to process any property and evidence found.
- The remainder of the team will begin the initial search of the premises for any weapons, contraband, and documents.
- The two investigators working of citations and the processing of evidence will keep watch on the persons inside the location to prevent possible escape while the remainder of the team continues to search.
- When all the evidence is complete charges will be determined and citations will be written. Once all paperwork is complete the prisoners will be transported and the residence will be secured to the best of out ability. A copy of the warrant will be left in an open space.
- In the event of shots fired from the inside of the home the perimeter team will continue to monitor the outside while the officers inside the location handle the situation as it occurs. They will notify via radio to the perimeter team.
- In the event of shots fired from the outside the entry team will continue to secure the location while the perimeter team handles the situation outside. They will notify via radio to the entry team of the situation.
- All shots fired will be reported over the radio to ensure all persons are aware of any dangers.
- In the event a subject runs from the location while the warrant is being executed the perimeter team will detain that person, the perimeter team will not pursuit inside the location until the location is determined all clear and safe by the affiant.
- All injuries will be assessed by the supervisor and if transportation is needed emergency medical persons will be notified and started for the location. If the injury is server a list of local medical emergency locations and contacts is attached to this plan. The zone in which this warrant is being executed will be notified and emergency routs will be established.

Abort – If this word is used, the execution of the operation has ended. Investigators will move to their assigned perimeter locations. The Supervisor or Lead Investigator may give the abort order.

Barricaded Suspect/Hostage Situation – If there is a barricade gunman or hostage situation, whether civilian or Law Enforcement Officer as the hostage, the on scene commander will coordinate the establishment of a perimeter and contact SWAT personnel. No one will be allowed to enter or exit the perimeter. The perimeter will be held until the SWAT team and a hostage negotiation team arrives. The "Hostage Taker" will not be allowed to become mobile.

Civilians – If civilians are in jeopardy, the Supervisor may modify the tactical plan as needed.

Downed Investigator / Officer – If, during the operation, a law enforcement officer is wounded in any way, the team will extract the officer in the most expeditious and safe manner possible. The downed Investigator or Officer will be immediately rendered first aid. The commander will coordinate and establish a perimeter and contact SWAT personnel. All downed personnel will be provided the most expeditious and direct route to the designated hospital.

Note: Supervisors will ensure that firearms discipline is exercised at all times throughout the operation.

DEFINITIONS

In a dynamic entry situation law enforcement personnel show up unannounced and storm the alleged perpetrator's house with an overwhelming force (eg. No Knock Warrant/ Forcible Entry).

FIREARM USE POLICY

A firearm may be discharged when the Investigator/Officer believes that there is no other means of control and perceives an imminent threat of death or serious bodily injury to himself/herself or other innocent persons. Ability, opportunity and jeopardy must be present.

Warning shots are generally prohibited.

An employee shall not shoot at any person, except to protect his/her own life or the life of another person.

Discharging a firearm from or at a moving vehicle is prohibited, unless the occupants of the other vehicle are using deadly physical force against the employee or another person by means other than the vehicle.

Employees shall not point firearms at persons in any circumstance under which the discharge would not be clearly justifiable. If an employee finds it necessary to point a firearm at another, the employee should not interpret this necessity as an obligation to discharge the weapon.

The discharging of a firearm at dogs or other animals shall be an action employed ONLY when no other means to bring the animal under control exist

A firearm shall not be discharged if the lives of innocent persons may be in danger.

EMERGENCY DRIVING AND PURSUIT DRIVING POLICY

Except under extraordinary circumstances, high pursuits are expressly prohibited during this detail. Circumstances that may necessitate high-speed pursuit or emergency response may include but are not limited to, the threat of serious bodily injury or death to an Investigator/Officer or other party.

The following factors should be considered before driving at high speed or engaging in maneuvers that place anyone at risk or death or injury.

*Include attachments if necessary.

3. Weather and road conditions.
4. Availability of emergency equipment.

If the potential risk outweighs the benefits, the pursuit of response will not be initiated or will be terminated.

66. On November 21, 2006 at about 4:00pm I was conducting surveillance on the area store at 1143 Simpson Rd. This is a location where I and others have made many arrests for narcotics. I observed Sheats who has been arrested at this location before for illegal narcotics standing by the pay phone. Sheats flagged down a total of three unknown black males. Each time Sheats would get the money from the unknown male and then go over to a wooded area around the corner of the white house at 1141 Simpson Rd pick up a piece of wood and a plastic ag and bring it back to the unknown black male and give the unknown black male a plastic bag. After the third time I went up to Sheats who appeared to put some thing in his mouth and swallow it. I tried to detain Sheats and when he pulled away he jumped his head on a fence which belongs to the property next to 1143 Simpson Rd. Sheats had a small cut over his left eye and refused any medical attention. As Sheats was detained I went over to the wooded area with K-9 officer Connie and K-9 dog Chad, under the pile of wood was (55) $10 bags of marijuana and (1) $25 bag of marijuana. Sheats had $29 on him. The property was later turned into property management. Sheats was read his Miranda Rights and debriefed. Sheats wanted to take us to a house that had a kilo of cocaine. Sheats directed us to 933 Neal st NW where a bag of rock cocaine was later made and a search warrant drawn up for that location. Sheats did state he was in that house (933 Neal St) at about 3:00pm on November 21st and saw the kilo all broken up in a shoe box.

AFFIDAVIT FOR DETECTIVE G. JUNNIER
DET. G. JUNNIER, BEING DULY SWORN AS A POLICE OFFICER FOR THE CITY OF ATLANTA, STATE THAT:

I HAVE BEEN A POLICE OFFICER FOR THE CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT SINCE SEPTEMBER 9, 1988. I WAS PREVIOUSLY ASSIGNED TO THE UNIFORM SECTION IN ZONE 5 AND THE ZONE 5 FIELD INVESTIGATIONS TEAM ALONG WITH THE BACKGROUND AND RECRUITMENT UNIT. I AM CURRENTLY ASSIGNED TO THE NARCOTICS UNIT. I HAVE BEEN ASSIGNED TO THE NARCOTICS UNIT SINCE OCTOBER 1998. I HAVE ATTENDED SEVERAL TRAINING SESSIONS PERTAINING TO THE INVESTIGATION OF ILLEGAL DRUG SALES AND TRAFFICKING. DURING MY CAREER, I HAVE BEEN INVOLVED IN MULTIPLE INVESTIGATIONS INVOLVING ILLEGAL DRUG ACTIVITIES. SOME OF THESE INVESTIGATIONS INVOLVED INTERSTATE TRAVEL WHICH INVOLVED ILLEGAL DRUG ACTIVITY FROM STATES AS FAR AWAY AS CALIFORNIA. THE DRUGS INVOLVED IN INVESTIGATIONS I HAVE PARTICIPATED INCLUDE BUT WERE NOT LIMITED TO COCAINE, HEROIN, ECSTASY, MARIJUANA. I HAVE INTERVIEWED MULTIPLE DRUG TRAFFICKERS AND DEALERS. I AM FAMILIAR WITH METHODS OF OPERATION EMPLOYED BY DRUG TRAFFICKERS AND DEALERS ENGAGED IN THE DISTRIBUTION OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES. DURING THE COURSE OF SOME OF THESE INVESTIGATIONS, I HAVE HAD TO PREPARE SEARCH AND ARREST WARRANTS PERTINENT TO THE INVESTIGATIONS.

ON 11/10/06, INV. BOND AND I DIRECTED A CONFIDENTIAL AND RELIABLE INFORMANT TO 161 RHODESIA AVE SE ATLANTA, GEORGIA TO PURCHASE MARIJUANA. INV. BOND HAD RECEIVED INFORMATION DURING AN IN CUSTODY INTERVIEW OF DRUG SELLER THAT MARIJUANA WAS BEING SOLD AT 161 RHODESIA AVE SE ATLANTA, GEORGIA BY A BLACK MALE NAMED "MARIO". THE INFORMANT WHO WE DIRECTED TO THE LOCATION (161 RHODESIA AVE) HAS PROVEN TO BE VERY

RELIABLE IN THE PAST. THIS INFORMANT HAS PROVIDED INFORMATION TO THE ATLANTA POLICE NARCOTICS UNIT SINCE 2004. DURING THIS TIME INFORMATION HE HAS PROVIDED HAS LED TO THE SEIZURE OF MULTIPLE POUNDS OF MARIJUANA, COCAINE, & MDMA ALONG WITH MULTIPLE ARRESTS RELATED TO DRUG ACTIVITY. ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS THE INFORMANT HAS PROVIDED INFORMANT TOLD EXACTLY WHERE GUNS AND/OR DRUGS WERE FOUND IN THE TARGET LOCATION AND WHEN THE WARRANT WAS EXECUTED THE GUNS AND/OR DRUGS WERE FOUND EXACTLY WHERE THE INFORMANT SAID THEY WOULD BE. THE INFORMANT WAS SEARCHED AND GIVEN $40.00 (CITY FUNDS) TO ATTEMPT TO PURCHASE MARIJUANA AT 161 RHODESIA AVE SE ATLANTA, GEORGIA. THE INFORMANT WAS UNDER SURVEILLANCE AS HE WALKED TO THE RESIDENCE. THE INFORMANT KNOCKED ON THE DOOR. A BLACK MALE CAME TO THE DOOR. THE INFORMANT AND THE MAN SPOKE BRIEFLY AND THEN THE INFORMANT WALKED AWAY. AS THE INFORMANT WALKED AWAY, ANOTHER BLACK MALE CAME OUT OF THE RESIDENCE AND FOLLOWED THE INFORMANT AWAY FROM THE AREA. WHEN THE OTHER MALE BROKE OFF SURVEILLANCE OF THE INFORMANT, I PICKED UP THE INFORMANT. THE INFORMANT WAS SEARCHED AND DEBRIEFED. NO OTHER DRUGS WERE FOUND IN THE INFORMANT'S POSSESSION. THE INFORMANT SAID THE MAN WHO ANSWERED THE DOOR ASKED HIM WHAT HE WANTED TOLD HIM THAT THEY WERE PACKING UP NOW AND TOLD THE INFORMANT TO COME BACK LATER AFTER HE ASKED FOR MARIJUANA. THE INFORMANT ALSO SAID HE SMELLED A STRONG ODOR OF MARIJUANA COMING FROM THE HOUSE.

ON 11/14/06, I, V. J. SMITH AND I DIRECTED THE SAME CONFIDENTIAL INFORMANT BACK TO 161 RHODESIA AVE SE ATLANTA, GEORGIA. THE INFORMANT WAS SEARCHED AND GIVEN $40.00 (CITY FUNDS) TO PURCHASE MARIJUANA FROM THE LOCATION (161 RHODESIA AVE SE ATLANTA, GEORGIA). THE INFORMANT WAS UNDER SURVEILLANCE AS HE WALKED TO THE LOCATION. THIS TIME, THE DOOR WAS ANSWERED BY ANOTHER BLACK MALE WHO THE INFORMANT BELIEVED TO BE "MARIO" BASED ON THE DESCRIPTION WE HAD OF "MARIO" AND THAT HE HEARD SOMEONE INSIDE THE HOUSE SAY "MARIO GET THE DOOR" AS HE WAS WALKING UP TO THE RESIDENCE. THE INFORMANT SPOKE BRIEFLY TO "MARIO" WHO TOOK THE $40.00 FROM THE INFORMANT. "MARIO" THEN CLOSED THE DOOR. "MARIO" RETURNED TO THE DOOR WITHIN LESS THAN FIVE MINUTES AND HANDED THE INFORMANT SUSPECTED MARIJUANA. THE INFORMANT WALKED DIRECTLY BACK TO MY UNMARKED CITY VEHICLE AND HANDED ME THE FIVE BAGS OF MARIJUANA HE PURCHASED AT THE DOOR. THE INFORMANT WAS DEBRIEFED AND SEARCHED AGAIN. NO DRUGS OR ADDITIONAL CURRENCY WAS FOUND IN HIS POSSESSION. THE INFORMANT SAID HE CALLED THE MAN WHO ANSWERED THE DOOR "MARIO" AND THAT THE MAN DID NOT CORRECT HIM BY SAYING THAT WAS NOT HIS NAME OR ANYTHING LIKE THAT. THE INFORMANT SAID HE TOLD "MARIO" THAT HE WAS THERE A COUPLE OF DAYS AGO TO GET SOME "WEED" BUT THEY WERE PACKING IT UP. THE INFORMANT SAID "MARIO" ASKED HIM HOW MUCH HE WANTED AND HE TOLD THE INFORMANT HE ONLY HAD $40.00 WITH HIM. THE INFORMANT SAID "MARIO" TOLD HIM HE WOULD HOOK HIM UP AND GAVE HIM FIVE BAGS INSTEAD OF THE NORMAL FOUR. THE INFORMANT SAID "MARIO" TOLD HIM HE NORMALLY SELLS IN LARGER QUANTITIES AND TO PLAN ON SPENDING MORE NEXT TIME OR NOT TO COME BACK. THE INFORMANT FURTHER STATED THAT "MARIO" HAD A BLACK PISTOL STICKING OUT OF HIS WAISTBAND WHEN HE CAME BACK TO THE DOOR TO HAND HIM THE MARIJUANA.

BASED ON THIS INFORMATION AND MY LAW ENFORCEMENT EXPERIENCE, I BELIEVE MARIJUANA IS BEING SOLD AND STORED AT 161 RHODESIA AVE SE. THEREFORE, A SEARCH WARRANT WITH A NO-KNOCK PROVISION IS REQUESTED FOR THAT LOCATION.

If you are requesting no-knock approval, list facts justifying a no-knock entry:

THE INFORMANT FURTHER STATED THAT "MARIO" HAD A BLACK PISTOL STICKING OUT OF HIS WAISTBAND WHEN HE CAME BACK TO THE DOOR TO HAND HIM THE MARIJUANA. THE ITEMS BEING SEARCHED FOR CAN BE EASILY DESTROYED.

ON 11/16/6 NARCOTICS TEAM 1 EXECUTED A SEARCH WARRANT AT 161 RHODESIA AVE. BAKER AND COLBERT WERE PARTIALLY CLOTHED IN THE FRONT BED ROOM. THERE WAS A CLOUD OF MARIJUANA SMOKE IN THE BED ROOM ALONG WITH AN 18 MONTH OLD CHILD AND A 4 YEAR OLD CHILD. LOOSE MARIJUANA WAS FOUND ON THE DRESSER (EXHIBIT 1a). ANOTHER PACKET OF MARIJUANA WAS FOUND ON ANOTHER DRESSER IN THEIR BEDROOM ALONG WITH 3 MDMA TABLETS, AND PACKAGING BAGS. COLBERT AND BAKER WERE READ THEIR MIRANDA RIGHTS. BAKER SAID THE MARIJUANA AND PILLS BELONGED TO HIS FRIEND MS. COLBERT THEN BLURTED OUT "THEY ARE MINE TO, I WAS USING IT TOO." THERE WAS ALSO A SCALE ON THE DRESSER.

THE UNDERSIGNED, BEING DULY SWORN, UPON HIS OR HER OATH, DEPOSES AND STATES THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE, CORRECT, COMPLETE AND LEGIBLE TO THE BEST OF HIS/HER KNOWLEDGE AND BELIEF.

STATEMENT OF WITNESS

I, G. JUNNIER, ID#1583, the undersigned, under penalty of prosecution pursuant to O.C.G.A. §16-10-20 for the crime of False Statements and Writings, do state the following:

1.

I am over eighteen (18) years of age, am suffering from no legal disabilities; I make this Statement from personal knowledge.

2.

I am, and at all times relevant here have been, a duly certified law enforcement officer with the Atlanta Police Department.

3.

The facts set forth below are true to the best of my knowledge; and facts included in the police report, Agency Case Number 063201972, are incorporated herein.

4.

On the 16th day of November, 2006, the defendant(s) herein named:

Name	DOB
LATISHA COLBERT	[redacted]1982
DURIE BAKER	[redacted]/1981

did, in Fulton County, Georgia, commit the following acts:

1 POSSESSION OF MARIJUANA WITH INTENT TO DISTRIBUTE O.C.G.A. §16-13-30
2 POSSESSION OF MDMA O.C.G.A. §16-13-30

On November 16, 2006, at 2045 hours my team and I executed a search warrant at 161 Rhodesia Ave, Atlanta, Fulton, upon entering the residence I observed Latisha Colbert and Durie Baker who were partially clothed in the front bedroom with 2 minor children. In the bedroom there was a haze of smoke which smelt like burning marijuana. Loose marijuana, which I recognized from my training and experience, was located on the dresser in the bedroom. Further, on a different dresser in the bedroom we found a small packet of marijuana, which I recognized from my training and experience, as well as 8 tablets which I know from training and experience to be MDMA or ecstasy. Colbert and Baker were taken into custody and read their Miranda rights. Subsequently, Baker said the marijuana and pills were his and then Colbert blurted out "they are mine too, I was using it too." There was also a scale in the front bedroom. We also recovered 449.00 dollars in small bills as well as several small plastic bags. The marijuana totaled 3.3 grams in weight. Based on my training and experience I know that the presence of a scale, loose small plastic bags, and a large amount of cash in small bills is indicative of someone engaged in the distribution of marijuana. Therefore both suspects were arrested for possession of MDMA and possession of marijuana with intent to distribute.

JUDGE OF THE SUPERIOR COURT OF

AFFIDAVIT FOR DETECTIVE C. A. BOND

I Investigator C. A. Bond, being duly sworn as a Police Officer for the City of Atlanta, state that:

I have been a police officer for the City of Atlanta Police Department since June 11, 1993. I was previously assigned to the uniform division in Zone 1. I worked as a patrol officer and as a community oriented bicycle officer thru 1997. Up to 2004, I was assigned to the DUI Task Force. I have been assigned to the Narcotics Unit of the Special Enforcement Section as of April 2004. I have had extensive training in the interdiction and trafficking of illegal drugs, as well as the clinical effects of persons under the influence of these drugs. During my career, I have been involved in numerous investigations involving illegal drug activity. Some of these investigations involved the sale and distribution of these drugs, such as cocaine, heroin, marijuana, methamphetamine and MDMA.

On 12/10/2004, Inv. M. Guerin and I met with a reliable confidential informant (CI) to conduct narcotic investigations concerning narcotics sales at various locations. The CI advised that that he had information that marijuana is being sold at 674 Alta PL NW, Atlanta, GA. The informant has provided information to the Atlanta Police Narcotics Unit in the past that was reliable and resulted in the seizure of marijuana, cocaine, MDMA, stolen firearms and assets. The informant was searched and given $50.00 (city funds) to attempt to purchase marijuana from the house. The subject was released where the CI walked down the street turned into the yard at 674 Alta PL NW. The CI walked onto the porch where the CI was met by a subject called "Red" at the door. The CI requested $50.00 of "dro" marijuana. The CI was invited into the house where the CI handed him $50.00 of city funds .The CI stated the drugs were on a table in the front room along with a black revolver handgun on the table. The CI stated "Red" picked up a plastic sandwich bag which contained "Hydro" marijuana and gave it too the CI. The CI then left the house returning back to the release point. The CI then handed me one clear sandwich bag of marijuana. The informant stated a subject described as "Red", B/M, 510 height, 160 pounds, glasses, and gold teeth sold the CI the marijuana. The informant was searched again. No other drugs or currency were found in the informant's possession.

Based on this information I believe marijuana is being sold and stored at 2494 Bellview Ave. NW, Atlanta, GA. I further request that a search warrant be issued for this location. I also request a No-Knock Clause be added due to there being a firearm present.

On 12-22-04 Narcotics Team 1, Executed a search warrant for drugs at the listed location. Upon the team approaching the door we began to see movment inside the house. Shortly after that we could see more movement with people running back and forth infront of the doorway acting frantic. We announce police-search warrant and ordered that the door be opened. We could observe alot of movement as people ran from the livingroom to the left side of the house (Danta's Bedroom/kitchen area). We were then able to make forced entry and cleared the house locating all subjects in the livingroom area with the exception of Smith and Robinson who where in the front right bedroom. Once the residence was cleared we were able to secure and search all subjects. As we had moved thru the house we were able to observe drugs in plain view on the floor of the hallway and back left bedroom floor. As we searched the occupants of the house we found several with large amounts of money on their person. Hayes had $438 in cash in his left front pocket. Jones had $1016 in cash in his left front pocket. Smith had $1560 cash in his right front shorts pocket which was under a pair of sweat pants.

Once we completed the search of subjects we began a search of the residence. In the right front bedroom of Smith a small baggie of marijuana was located in a sweat shirt jacket belonging to Smith. Another small baggie was found in the TV cabinet drawer and a small amount of loose marijuana was found on a dresser. Smith claimed ownership of the marijuana found in his room. In the livingroom on a coffee table was a scale, razor blade and of baggies used to package dime bags. On the floor around the sofa was loose marijuana as well as under and behind the sofa. In the sofa a bag of app 7.8 grms of marijuana was found in the end along with a steak knife . On the other end was a S&W 38 cal handgun pushed in under the back cushion. Hayes claimed ownership of the marijuana and handgun giving a written statement. The handgun contained 5 rounds with one round of which had been fired. A check on GCIC showed the handgun stolen. In the center rear bedroom (Hayes) a Nike box was located containing $420 dollars of counterfeit 20.00 dollar bills. In the kitchen on top of the cabinet was a bag of 13 MDMA tablets. In the cabinet below was a sandwich bag of app 28 gms of "Hydro" marijuana. To the left of the sink was a metal measuring cup with app 2.5 gms of cocaine powder, a loose amount of marijuana app 10 gms. and 2 vacuum sealed bags that had been cut open but that had a white powder reside on them. In the left rear bedroom (Danta Young's) the floor leading in from the kitchen had alot of marijuna scatted on it leading to the floor vent. In the floor vent there was a mixture of contraband. The vent had had money, marijuana and a bag of powder cocaine all thrown into it. A vacuum sealed bag matching the ones in the kitchen was also found vent. $18,652 in cash, app 409 gms of cocaine, and 125 gms of marijuana were recovered from the vent. App 24 gms of marijuana was recovered from the floor area around the vent. While trying to retrieve the contents by removing the vent section, Invetigators Junnier, Davenport, Vignola, and Sgt Stallings were exposed to the airborne particles of cocaine and became covered on their clothing. In the closet of the bedroom a large ziplock bag of app 392 gms was located. A 22 magnum North American Arms handgun was located on the bed in a leather jacket along with the ID for Young. A Keltec 40 cal handgun loaded with 6 rounds was found in another jacket on the bed. A Ruger 9mm handgun was found under the sofa in the bedroom. The ruger was loaded with an extended magazine having 28 rounds. Young gave a written statement claiming the 22 magnum and stated that the coaine belonged to Jones. Jones gave a verbal statement that he had come to the location with $8000 dollars to purchase the cocaine from Shack for $6000 dollars. Jones stated they were in the process of the deal when we arrived. When Jones was asked to give a written statement he stated he felt he should maybe have his attorney present. Young states he does not sell cocaine he sells marijuana, he confirmed that Shack had brought the cocaine and Jones was going to make the purchase. Hayes stated he just sells marijuana and was being honest on what belongs to him. He stated thet the sell was being done in the kitchen between Shack and Jones, and that Young was aware and present while it was going on. He stated that Shack had brought the counterfeit money and Burris took it from him. Hayes stated that everyone there all run together and comes there a good bit. He confirmed that Young lives in the left rear room and Smith stays in the front right room. Hayes is the "Target" that my CI made the marijuana buy from. Shack stated he was only there to bring some childrens cloths to someone and denied having anything to do with the drugs. Burris stated Shack and Jones were in the kitchen conducting the deal for the cocaine and Young was back and forth between the bedroom and kitrchen. He stated that when the police arrived Young instructed everyone to dump thre drugs in the bedroom. Robinson was said to be there to visit Smith.

Investigator Peterson of the Gun Unit came to Assist on the firearm charges and see if the primary suspects were convicted felons. He stated that Young has pending felony charges and Smith is a convicted felon. Peterson took custody of the firearms at the scene. All listed property was turned in. I have observed the Ford Expedition to be located at the residence on several occasions when conducting surveillance, and to be driven by Young.

On 12-22-04 Team 1 narcotics executed a search warrant at 674 Alta Pl. In the right pocket of shorts worn on the inside of pants by Acheze Smith was $1560.00 dollars. In the left front pocket of Donald Hayes was $438.00 dollars. In the left front pocket of Demetrius Jones was $1016.00 dollars. In a vent in the left rear bedroom (Donta Young) $18,652.00 dollars was found. No one claimed possession of the 18,652. All Money is suspected to have been aquired thru drug operations. All money was towed into property.

$420.00 in 20.00 bills was located in the rear bedroom that is used by Donald Hayes. The money was counterfeit. The money used 2 serial #'s AF34274610E and AF56211509E. The money was located in a Nike shoe box.

AFFIDAVIT AND APPLICATION FOR A SEARCH WARRANT

IN THE MAGISTRATESW000144 COURT OF FULTON COUNTY
STATE OF GEORGIA

Docket No.: E000215

The undersigned CID-NARCOTICS G JUNNIER, being duly sworn, deposes and says:
I am a Georgia certified peace officer charged with the duty of enforcing the criminal laws, and that I have reason to believe that in FULTON County, Georgia, on the person, premises or property described as follows: (state detailed description of person, property, or location):

DRED
B/M 5'11" TO 6'1", 165-175LBS, APPROXIMATELY 25 YOA, WITH SHORT DREDS
3350 MT. GILEAD RD SW #48, ATLANTA , GEORGIA,
AN APARTMENT IN THE ENGLISH COLONY TOWNHOMES COMPLEX AT 3350 MT. GILEAD RD SW ATRLANTA, GEORGIA MARKED AS APARTMENT #48.

there is now located certain instruments, articles, person(s), or things, namely: (specify evidence, contraband, or person(s) to be searched for)

MARIJUANA AND THOSE ITEMS COMMONLY USED IN ITS SALE, DISTRIBUTION, MANUFACTURE, PACKAGING, PROTECTION, TRANSPORTATION, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WEAPONS, PROCEEDS, PHOTOS, COMMUNICATION EQUIPMENT, AND/OR RELATED DOCUMENTS

Which is (name the law being violated)

16-13-30 VGCSA

The facts tending to establish probable cause that a crime has been, or is being committed and the above described instruments, articles, or things described above are presently located at the above described premises or property are as follows: (state in detail the facts that you believe create probable cause, including statement of ownership, possession, or control if known)

ON 2/17/05, INV. BOND AND I DIRECTED A CONFIDENTIAL AND RELIABLE INFORMANT (CRI) TO 3350 MT. GILEAD RD SW #48 SW ATLANTA GEORGIA FULTON COUNTY. THE CRI HAS PROVEN TO BE RELIABLE IN THE PAST AND HAS PROVIDED INFORMATION LEADING TO THE SEIZURE OF BOTH COCAINE AND MARIJUANA WITH THE MOST RECENT INCIDENT BEING WITHIN THE LAST FOURTEEN DAYS. THE CRI WAS SEARCHED AND GIVEN 10.00 (CITY FUNDS) TO PURCHASE THE MARIJUANA FROM APARTMENT N6. THE CRI WAS UNDER SURVEILLANCE AS HE WALKED TO THE APARTMENT. THE CRI WAS ALLOWED TO ENTER THE APARTMENT. THE CRI REMAINED INSIDE THE APARTMENT FOR LESS THAN FIVE MINUTES BEFORE HE EXITED THE APARTMENT AND RETURNED TO ME. THE CRI IMMEDIATELY HANDED ME ONE SMALL PLASTIC BAG CONTAINING SUSPECTED MARIJUANA WHICH WAS LATER TURNED IN TO ATLANTA POLICE PROPERTY MANAGEMENT. THE CRI WAS SEARCHED AGAIN AND DEBRIEFED. NO OTHER DRUGS WERE FOUND IN THE CRI'S POSSESSION THE CRI TOLD ME THAT HE PURCHASED THE MARIJUANA FROM A BLACK MALE WHO HE NICKNAMED "DRED" FOR $10.00. THE CRI DESCRIBED "DRED" AS A BLACK MALE, 5'11" TO 6'1", 165-175LBS, APPROXIMATELY 25 YOA, WITH SHORT DREDS. THE CRI FURTHER STATED THAT "DRED" HAD SOMETHING BLACK TUCKED IN THE WAIST OF HIS PANTS WHICH THE CRI BELIEVED TO BE A PISTOL WHEN HE SOLD THE MARIJUANA TO THE CRI.

Judge of the MAGISTRATE, FULTON County

IN THE MAGISTRATESW000144 COURT OF FULTON COUNTY

Docket No.: E000215

The undersigned CID~NARCOTICS G JUNNIER, being duly sworn, deposes and says:
am a Georgia certified peace officer charged with the duty of enforcing the criminal laws, and that I have reason to believe that n FULTON County, Georgia, on the person, premises or property described as follows: (state detailed description of person, property, or location)
DRED
B/M 5'11" TO 6'1", 165-175LBS, APPROXIMATELY 25 YOA, WITH SHORT DREDS
3350 MT. GILEAD RD SW #48, ATLANTA , GEORGIA,
AN APARTMENT IN THE ENGLISH COLONY TOWNHOMES COMPLEX AT 3350 MT. GILEAD RD SW ATRLANTA, GEORGIA MARKED AS APARTMENT #48.
there is now located certain instruments, articles, person(s), or things, namely: (specify evidence, contraband, or person(s) to be searched for)

MARIJUANA AND THOSE ITEMS COMMONLY USED IN ITS SALE, DISTRIBUTION, MANUFACTURE, PACKAGING, PROTECTION, TRANSPORTATION, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WEAPONS, PROCEEDS, PHOTOS, COMMUNICATION EQUIPMENT, AND/OR RELATED DOCUMENTS

`6-13-30 VGCSA

The facts tending to establish probable cause that a crime has been, or is being committed and the above described instruments, articles, or things described above are presently located at the above described premises or property are as follows: (state in detail the facts that you believe create probable cause, including statement of ownership, possession, or control if known)

ON 2/17/05, INV. BOND AND I DIRECTED A CONFIDENTIAL AND RELIABLE INFORMANT (CRI) TO 3350 MT. GILEAD RD SW #48 SW ATLANTA GEORGIA FULTON COUNTY. THE CRI HAS PROVEN TO BE RELIABLE IN THE PAST AND HAS PROVIDED INFORMATION LEADING TO THE SEIZURE OF BOTH COCAINE AND MARIJUANA WITH THE MOST RECENT INCIDENT BEING WITHIN THE LAST FOURTEEN DAYS. THE CRI WAS SEARCHED AND GIVEN 10.00 (CITY FUNDS) TO PURCHASE THE MARIJUANA FROM APARTMENT N6. THE CRI WAS UNDER SURVEILLANCE AS HE WALKED TO THE APARTMENT. THE CRI WAS ALLOWED TO ENTER THE APARTMENT. THE CRI REMAINED INSIDE THE APARTMENT FOR LESS THAN FIVE MINUTES BEFORE HE EXITED THE APARTMENT AND RETURNED TO ME. THE CRI IMMEDIATELY HANDED ME ONE SMALL PLASTIC BAG CONTAINING SUSPECTED MARIJUANA WHICH WAS LATER TURNED IN TO ATLANTA POLICE PROPERTY MANAGEMENT. THE CRI WAS SEARCHED AGAIN AND DEBRIEFED. NO OTHER DRUGS WERE FOUND IN THE CRI'S POSSESSION THE CRI TOLD ME THAT HE PURCHASED THE MARIJUANA FROM A BLACK MALE WHO HE NICKNAMED "DRED" FOR $10.00. THE CRI DESCRIBED "DRED" AS A BLACK MALE, 5'11" TO 6'1", 165-175LBS, APPROXIMATELY 25 YOA, WITH SHORT DREDS. THE CRI FURTHER STATED THAT "DRED" HAD SOMETHING BLACK TUCKED IN THE WAIST OF HIS PANTS WHICH THE CRI BELIEVED TO BE A PISTOL WHEN HE SOLD THE MARIJUANA TO THE CRI.

BASED ON THIS INFORMATION AND MY LAW ENFORCEMENT EXPERIENCE OF MORE THAN SIXTEEN YEARS (SIX OF THOSE YEARS BEING ASSIGNED TO THE ATLANTA POLICE NARCOTICS UNIT), I BELIEVE MARIJUANA IS BEING SOLD AND STORED AT 3350 MT. GILEAD RD SW #48 ATLANTA GEORGIA FULTON COUNTY. THEREFORE, A SEARCH WARRANT IS REQUESTED FOR THAT LOCATION.

AFFIDAVIT AND APPLICATION FOR A SEARCH WARRANT

IN THE MAGISTRATE COURT OF FULTON COUNTY

Docket No.: E000235

The undersigned CID~NARCOTICS G JUNNIER, being duly sworn, deposes and says:
I am a Georgia certified peace officer charged with the duty of enforcing the criminal laws, and that I have reason to believe that in FULTON County, Georgia, on the person, premises or property described as follows: (state detailed description of person, property, or location)

"BLACK"
BLACK MALE, DARK COMPLEXION, GOLD COLORED TEETH, MUSTACHE, 5'10"-5'11", 200 TO 210LBS, 35-40 YOA
1271 ELIZABETH AVE SW, ATLANTA, GA,
SINGLE FAMILY HOME LOCATED AT 1271 ELIZABETH AVE SW ATLANTA, GA

there is now located certain instruments, articles, person(s), or things, namely: (specify evidence, contraband, or person(s) to be searched for)

MARIJUANA AND THOSE ITEMS COMMONLY USED IN IT'S SALE, DISTRIBUTION, TRANSPORTATION, MANUFACTURE, PROTECTION, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WEAPONS, COMMUNICATION EQUIPMENT, AND RELATED DOCUMENTS, PHOTOGRAPHS ETC.

Which is (name the law being violated)

16-13-30(J) VGCSA

The facts tending to establish probable cause that a crime has been, or is being committed and the above described instruments, articles, or things described above are presently located at the above described premises or property are as follows: (state in detail the facts that you believe create probable cause, including statement of ownership, possession, or control if known)

I DET. G. JUNNIER, BEING DULY SWORN AS A POLICE OFFICER FOR THE CITY OF ATLANTA, STATE THAT:

I HAVE BEEN A POLICE OFFICER FOR THE CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT SINCE SEPTEMBER 9, 1988. I WAS PREVIOUSLY ASSIGNED TO THE UNIFORM SECTION IN ZONE 5 AND THE ZONE 5 FIELD INVESTIGATIONS TEAM ALONG WITH THE BACKGROUND AND RECRUITMENT UNIT. I AM CURRENTLY ASSIGNED TO THE NARCOTICS UNIT. I HAVE BEEN ASSIGNED TO THE NARCOTICS UNIT SINCE OCTOBER 1998. I HAVE ATTENDED SEVERAL TRAINING SESSIONS PERTAINING TO THE INVESTIGATION OF ILLEGAL DRUG SALES AND TRAFFICKING. DURING MY CAREER, I HAVE BEEN INVOLVED IN MULTIPLE INVESTIGATIONS INVOLVING ILLEGAL DRUG ACTIVITIES. SOME OF THESE INVESTIGATIONS INVOLVED INTERSTATE DRUG TRAFFICKING FROM STATES AS FAR AWAY AS CALIFORNIA. THE DRUGS INVOLVED IN INVESTIGATIONS I HAVE PARTICIPATED IN INCLUDED BUT WERE NOT LIMITED TO COCAINE, HEROIN, ECSTASY, AND MARIJUANA. I HAVE INTERVIEWED MULTIPLE DRUG TRAFFICKERS AND DEALERS. I AM FAMILIAR WITH METHODS OF OPERATION USED BY DRUG TRAFFICKERS AND DEALERS ENGAGED IN THE DISTRIBUTION OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES. DURING THE COURSE OF SOME OF THESE INVESTIGATIONS, I HAVE HAD TO PREPARE SEARCH AND ARREST WARRANTS PERTINENT TO THE INVESTIGATIONS.

ON 2/24/05, SGT. STALLINGS AND I DIRECTED A CONFIDENTIAL AND RELIABLE INFORMANT (CRI) TO 1271 ELIZABETH AVE ATLANTA, GA FULTON COUNTY TO PURCHASE MARIJUANA AS A

FOLLOW UP ON A TIP THAT MARIJUANA WAS BEING SOLD AT THAT LOCATION. THIS CRI HAS PROVEN TO RELIABLE IN THE PAST. THE CRI HAS PROVIDED INFORMATION TO THE ATLANTA POLICE NARCOTICS UNIT LEADING TO THE SEIZURE OF MARIJUANA, COCAINE, AND ECSTASY THE MOST RECENT INCIDENT WHERE THE INFORMANT HAS PROVIDED INFORMATION LEADING TO A DRUG SEIZURE WAS WITHIN THE PAST 24 HOURS AND RESULTED IN THE SEIZURE OF MORE THAN TWELVE POUNDS OF MARIJUANA. THE INFORMANT WAS SEARCHED AND GIVEN $30.00 TO PURCHASE THE MARIJUANA. THE INFORMANT WAS UNDER SURVEILLANCE AS HE WALKED TO 1271 ELIZABETH AVE SW ATLANTA. THE CRI KNOCKED ON THE DOOR AND WAS ALLOWED TO ENTER BY A BLACK MALE (DARK COMPLEXION, GOLD COLORED TEETH, MUSTACHE, 5'10"-5'11", 200 TO 210LBS, 35-40 YOA) WHO THE CRI CALLED "BLACK". THE CRI EXITED THE HOUSE WITHIN LESS THAN FIVE MINUTES. THE CRI RETURNED TO ME AND HANDED ME A CLEAR PLASTIC BAG CONTAINING MARIJUANA THAT THE CRI SAID "BLACK" WHO ANSWERED THE DOOR SOLD TO HIM FOR $30.00. THE CRI WAS SEARCHED AGAIN. NO OTHER DRUGS OR CURRENCY WAS FOUND IN HIS POSSESSION. THE CRI ALSO SAID HE SAW A PISTOL ON A CHAIR NEAR THE FRONT DOOR WHEN HE ENTERED THE HOUSE. THE BAG CONTAINED APPROXIMATELY 6 GRAMS OF MARIJUANA AND WAS TURNED IN TO ATLANTA POLICE PROPERTY MANAGEMENT.

BASED ON THIS INFORMATION AND MY LAW ENFORCEMENT EXPERIENCE, I BELIEVE MARIJUANA IS BEING SOLD AND STORED AT 1271 ELIZABETH AVE SW ATLANTA, GEORGIA FULTON COUNTY. THEREFORE, A SEARCH WARRANT WITH A NO-KNOCK PROVISION IS REQUESTED FOR THAT LOCATION.

If you are requesting no-knock approval, list facts justifying a no-knock entry:

THE CONFIDENTIAL AND RELIABLE INFORMANT NOTIFIED ME THAT HE SAW A PISTOL IN THE RESIDENCE BY THE DOOR AS HE MADE THE MARIJUANA PURCHASE. THE NO-KNOCK PROVISION WILL ALSO PROVIDE A GREATER MEASURE OF SAFETY TO THE EXECUTING OFFICERS AND LESSEN THE CHANCE OF DESTRUCTION OF EVIDENCE BY ALLOWING THE OFFICERS TO PROCEED WITHOUT ANNOUNCING.

I swear or affirm that all of the information contained in this Affidavit and all other testimony given by me under oath is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

AFFIDAVIT AND APPLICATION FOR A SEARCH WARRANT

IN THE MAGISTRATE COURT OF FULTON COUNTY

Docket No.: E000236

The undersigned CID~NARCOTICS G JUNNIER, being duly sworn, deposes and says:
I am a Georgia certified peace officer charged with the duty of enforcing the criminal laws, and that I have reason to believe that in FULTON County, Georgia, on the person, premises or property described as follows: (state detailed description of person, property, or location)

"CHIN CHIN"
BLACK MALE, 5'10" - 5'11", 175+ LBS, 20-28 YOA, WITH LONG FACIAL HAIR ON HIS CHIN
1366 ELIZABETH AVE SW, ATLANTA, GA,
YELLOW HOUSE LOCATED AT 1366 ELIZABETH AVE SW ATLANTA, GA

there is now located certain instruments, articles, person(s), or things, namely: (specify evidence, contraband, or person(s) to be searched for)

MARIJUANA AND THOSE ITEMS COMMONLY USED IN IT'S SALE, DISTRIBUTION, TRANSPORTATION, MANUFACTURE, PROTECTION, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WEAPONS, COMMUNICATION EQUIPMENT, AND RELATED DOCUMENTS, PHOTOGRAPHS ETC.

Which is (name the law being violated)

16-13-30(J) VGCSA

The facts tending to establish probable cause that a crime has been, or is being committed and the above described instruments, articles, or things described above are presently located at the above described premises or property are as follows: (state in detail the facts that you believe create probable cause, including statement of ownership, possession, or control if known)

I DET. G. JUNNIER, BEING DULY SWORN AS A POLICE OFFICER FOR THE CITY OF ATLANTA, STATE THAT:

I HAVE BEEN A POLICE OFFICER FOR THE CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT SINCE SEPTEMBER 9, 1988. I WAS PREVIOUSLY ASSIGNED TO THE UNIFORM SECTION IN ZONE 5 AND THE ZONE 5 FIELD INVESTIGATIONS TEAM ALONG WITH THE BACKGROUND AND RECRUITMENT UNIT. I AM CURRENTLY ASSIGNED TO THE NARCOTICS UNIT. I HAVE BEEN ASSIGNED TO THE NARCOTICS UNIT SINCE OCTOBER 1998. I HAVE ATTENDED SEVERAL TRAINING SESSIONS PERTAINING TO THE INVESTIGATION OF ILLEGAL DRUG SALES AND TRAFFICKING. DURING MY CAREER, I HAVE BEEN INVOLVED IN MULTIPLE INVESTIGATIONS INVOLVING ILLEGAL DRUG ACTIVITIES. SOME OF THESE INVESTIGATIONS INVOLVED INTERSTATE DRUG TRAFFICKING FROM STATES AS FAR AWAY AS CALIFORNIA. THE DRUGS INVOLVED IN INVESTIGATIONS I HAVE PARTICIPATED IN INCLUDED BUT WERE NOT LIMITED TO COCAINE, HEROIN, ECSTASY, AND MARIJUANA. I HAVE INTERVIEWED MULTIPLE DRUG TRAFFICKERS AND DEALERS. I AM FAMILIAR WITH METHODS OF OPERATION USED BY DRUG TRAFFICKERS AND DEALERS ENGAGED IN THE DISTRIBUTION OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES. DURING THE COURSE OF SOME OF THESE INVESTIGATIONS, I HAVE HAD TO PREPARE SEARCH AND ARREST WARRANTS PERTINENT TO THE INVESTIGATIONS.

ON 2/24/05, SGT. STALLINGS AND I DIRECTED A CONFIDENTIAL AND RELIABLE INFORMANT (CRI) TO 1366 ELIZABETH AVE ATLANTA, GA FULTON COUNTY TO PURCHASE MARIJUANA AS A FOLLOW UP ON A TIP THAT MARIJUANA WAS BEING SOLD AT THAT LOCATION. THIS CRI HAS PROVEN TO RELIABLE IN THE PAST. THE CRI HAS PROVIDED INFORMATION TO THE ATLANTA POLICE NARCOTICS UNIT LEADING TO THE SEIZURE OF MARIJUANA, COCAINE, AND ECSTASY. THE MOST RECENT INCIDENT WHERE THE INFORMANT HAS PROVIDED INFORMATION LEADING TO A DRUG SEIZURE WAS WITHIN THE PAST 24 HOURS AND RESULTED IN THE SEIZURE OF MORE THAN TWELVE POUNDS OF MARIJUANA. THE INFORMANT WAS SEARCHED AND GIVEN $30.00 TO PURCHASE THE MARIJUANA. THE INFORMANT WAS UNDER SURVEILLANCE AS HE WALKED TO THE TO THE YELLOW HOUSE AT 1366 ELIZABETH AVE SW ATLANTA. THE CRI WAS MET IN THE FRONT YARD BY A BLACK MALE (5'10" - 5'11", 175+ LBS, 20-28 YOA, WITH LONG FACIAL HAIR ON HIS CHIN) WHO THE INFORMANT NICKNAMED "CHIN CHIN". THE CRI SPOKE BRIEFLY TO "CHIN CHIN". THE CRI HANDED "CHIN CHIN" THE CASH. "CHIN CHIN" THEN WALKED AWAY AND ENTERED THE HOUSE AT 1366 ELIZABETH AVE. "CHIN CHIN" RETURNED TO THE CRI WITHIN LESS THAN FIVE MINUTES AND HAND THE CRI A CLEAR PLASTIC BAG CONTAINING SUSPECTED MARIJUANA. THE CRI RETURNED TO ME AND HANDED ME THE CLEAR PLASTIC BAG WHICH "CHIN CHIN" HANDED HIM. THE CRI WAS SEARCHED AGAIN. NO OTHER DRUGS OR CURRENCY WAS FOUND IN HIS POSSESSION. THE BAG CONTAINED APPROXIMATELY 8 GRAMS OF MARIJUANA AND WAS TURNED IN TO ATLANTA POLICE PROPERTY MANAGEMENT.

BASED ON THIS INFORMATION AND MY LAW ENFORCEMENT EXPERIENCE, I BELIEVE MARIJUANA IS BEING SOLD AND STORED AT 1366 ELIZABETH AVE SW ATLANTA, GEORGIA FULTON COUNTY. THEREFORE, A SEARCH WARRANT IS REQUESTED FOR THAT LOCATION.

If you are requesting no-knock approval, list facts justifying a no-knock entry:

swear or affirm that all of the information contained in this Affidavit and all other testimony given by me under oath is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

NARRATIVE

Topic: narcotics

On 09-21-2005 I was contacted by a confidential reliable source. He informed me that there were narcotics sells going on at 3762 MLK apartment C9. He advised me that a black male by the nickname of "Q" lived there and sold marijuana. I advised me he would be able to make a buy for me. I searched him to make sure he had no narcotics or additional funds on his person; he did not. I gave him 25 dollars of City of Atlanta buy money after making copies of the two ten dollar bills and one five dollar bill. He went to apartment C9. While he was inside a male in a white chevy Camaro went into Apartment C9. The male in the Chevy Camaro came out and left. I recognized him as a male that lives at 940 Bolton Rd. Apartment A1. Just after the Chevy Camaro left my confidential reliable informant came out of apartment C9. He gave me the marijuana and told me the "Q" sold it to him. He asked me if I saw the male that came out right before he did and i told him yes. He advised me that "Q" sold him a half pound of marijuana and that the male concealed it in his very baggy pants. The marijuana was turned into police property as evidence.

AFFIDAVIT: 3762 Martin L. King Jr. Drive Apartment C9

City of Atlanta Police Officer B.J. Burchfield

I, B. J. Burchfield, being duly sworn as a police officer for the City of Atlanta, state that: I have been a Police Officer with the City of Atlanta Police Department since June 2002. This unit investigates illegal drug violations as well as weapons violations that occur in Zone One. I have attended the Georgia POST certification course as well as other training pertaining to the investigation of illegal drug trafficking. I have been assisting in several investigations resulting in the arrest of subjects for trafficking and sales of illegal drugs as well as weapons violations. These drugs include but are not limited to cocaine, heroin and marijuana. I am familiar with the methods employed by drug dealers engaged in the distribution of controlled substances. During the course of these investigations I have assisted in preparing both search and arrest warrants pertinent to the investigation. I have participated in this investigation from the onset. This affidavit is based upon my personal investigation of these matters, information from Confidential Informant as well as other law enforcement personnel. This affidavit does not contain all the information known to me about this investigation.

In 09-21-2005 & 09-22-2005, a reliable confidential source advised me that illegal drugs were being sold and stored from 3762 Martin L. King Jr. Drive Apartment C9. Based on this information, I planned to send a Confidential Informant (CRI) to the location to make an illegal drug purchase.

Between the dates of 09-21-2005 & 09-22-2005, I sent a Confidential Reliable Informant (CRI) to 3762 Martin L. King Jr. Drive Apartment C9 to purchase illegal drugs. The CRI was searched prior to leaving for the location for other contraband (search revealed none). The CRI was driven to the target location in an undercover vehicle. He entered walked to the apartment and entered apartment C9. Approximately one minute later the CRI exited the location and walked back to the street where I was waiting. The CRI was under constant surveillance entering and exiting the location. The CRI handed me 1.2 ounces of marijuana that was later turned into city property control as evidence. Since this CRI drug purchase I have placed 3762 Martin L. King Jr. Drive Apartment C9 under surveillance. I have seen mostly pedestrian traffic walking up to the location taking the same route as the CRI. Through my training and experience as a police officer this is an indication of drug activity.

NARRATIVE

Topic: search warrant

On 09-22-2005 I applied and received a search warrant for the apartment of 3762 MLK apartment C9. The warrant was signed by Judge Hicks at 1040 hours. At approximately 1710 hours today Myself and other officers executed the search warrant. Upon entering the residence we found two females inside the apartment. Both females were detained without incident. On the dresser inside the bedroom was Mrs. Newton's georgia ID. Right next to the ID were several bags of suspected marijuana. Inside the bathroom under the sink inside of a purse commonly carried by females were 20 hits of crack cocaine. A safe was found and inside the safe was a large ziplock bag of marijuana and more crack cocaine. Under a matress in the same room that I found Mrs. Newton's ID was a stolen Smith and Wesson revolver. It was reported stolen on 04-30-1992 in Los Angeles Ca. There case number was 921215488. Inside the closet of that same room was a 12 gauge shot gun. I asked Mrs. Newton where her boyfriend was and she refused to tell me. We found business cards for Mr. Eskew Jackson aka "Big Q". My informant identified him as the man that sold him the marijuana. I also found two polaroid pictures one with what looks like Mrs. Walker holding the shot gun I found. The other Picture was of Mr. Jackson holding the shot gun and stolen pistol. In the picture he is standing in front of his brown honda vehicle. It is register to him. All of the drugs, guns, scales and money were inventoried and transferred to atlanta police property. Both females were charged and transported to fulton county jail. Warrants were taken out for Mr. Jackson.

NARRATIVE

Topic: narcotics

On 09-21-2005 I was contacted by a confidential reliable source. He informed me that there were narcotics sells going on at 3762 MLK apartment C9. He advised me that a black male by the nickname of "Q" lived there and sold marijuana. I advised me he would be able to make a buy for me. I searched him to make sure he had no narcotics or additional funds on his person; he did not. I gave him 25 dollars of City of Atlanta buy money after making copies of the two ten dollar bills and one five dollar bill. He went to apartment C9. While he was inside a male in a white chevy Camaro went into Apartment C9. The male in the Chevy Camaro came out and left. I recognized him as a male that lives at 940 Bolton Rd. Apartment A1. Just after the Chevy Camaro left my confidential reliable informant came out of apartment C9. He gave me the marijuana and told me the "Q" sold it to him. He asked me if I saw the male that came out right before he did and i told him yes. He advised me that "Q" sold him a half pound of marijuana and that the male concealed it in his very baggy pants. The marijuana was turned into police property as evidence.

NARRATIVE

Topic: narcotics warrant

Upon arriving at the above listed location myself and other officers made entry to the rear of apartment A-1 at 940 bolton rd. Upon entering we found and detained mrs. Hankton. We notified her of the search warrant and put a copy of the warrant on the refrigerator door. Upon searching the apartment we found a ziplock bag of marijuana containing 2 ounces. No other narcotics were found in the apartment. A scale was found with marijuana residue on it in the bedroom of Mrs. Hankton. Everything seized was turned into property as evidence. Mrs. Hankton advised while sitting down that the marijuana was her's. The apartment is also her's. She was charged and transported to fulton county jail.

NARRATIVE

Topic: narcotics

I have been recieving information from different people in the community that narcotics is being sold from 940 Bolton Road Apartment A-5 by a male who goes by the name "Chuck". Between the dates of 12-3-05 and 12-6-05 I contacted a Confidential Reliable Source (CRI) in reference to the apartment. I met my CRI and asked my CRI to go to the apartment and attempt to buy narcotics from the location. My CRI advised me that "chuck was a familiar name and would be able to go to the apartment. I searched my CRI and did not find any narcotics. I gave the CRI 50$ and watched the CRI knock at the door. The door opened and my CRI entered the apartment. About 3 minutes later my CRI exited the apartment and walked to where I was waiting for him. He handed me a bag of marijuana weighing 1 ounce which is worth 50$. A warrant will be applied for with Fulton County Court for the searching of the apartment for additional narcotics and "chuck". The marijuana was transported to city of atlanta property control.

NARRATIVE

Topic: Narcotics Warrant

Under Fulton County Docket Number E000691 I executed a search warrant at 940 Bolton Road Apartment A5. Upon arrival with backup units I saw a male look out the front window as we were attempting to make entry on the apartment. When entry was made I saw a black male run into the kitchen. He was taken down to the ground a detained in the kitchen. After the apartment was searched for any other people in the apartment a search was began for narcotics. I noticed in the bedroom dresser a black bracelet that had the name "Chuck" on it. Right next to that bracelet was the Ga. Drivers licence for Mr. Rufus Brown, (the male detained in the kitchen). Also on the dresser was 168 Dollars in cash and other watches and chains. I started to look in the kitchen where Mr. Brown ran into when entry was made. On the counter was several baggies and two narcotics scales. On the table was a box containing bottles of Alcohol, Swisher sweets cigars, A garbage bag with about 500 empty cigarette packages (not taken into evidence), and small paper bags. As I was looking at them Mr. Brown advised me he sold them to people in the neighborhood. I looked in the trash and noticed a rolled up marijuana blunt. I recovered this and started looking in the trash more. I started finding bags of marijuana. I also found the cocaine, and extacy inside the same garbage can. I dumped to garbage out and recovered the rest of the marijuana that was in the garbage. I called a K-9 unit out to see if there was any more found. The dog came into the apartment and started scratching and sniffing at the corner of the couch. I found a small hole in the couch where things might be able to be stored. The dog then started doing the same thing on the speaker box. I opened the speaker box but did not find anything, but could smell marijuana very strongly from the box. No other narcotics were found other than the items pulled out of the garbage can that was inside the kitchen. Mr. Brown was the only person inside the apartment.

THE UNDERSIGNED, BEING DULY SWORN, UPON HIS OR HER OATH, DEPOSES AND STATES THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE, CORRECT, COMPLETE AND LEGIBLE TO THE BEST OF HIS/HER KNOWLEDGE AND BELIEF.

NARRATIVE

Topic: Narcotics Warrant

Under Fulton County Docket Number E000691 I executed a search warrant at 940 Bolt[on] Road Apartment A5. Upon arrival with backup units I saw a male look out the front window as we were attempting [to] make entry on the apartment. When entry was made I saw a black male run into the kitchen. He was taken down to t[he] ground a detained in the kitchen. After the apartment was searched for any other people in the apartment a sea[rch] was began for narcotics. I noticed in the bedroom dresser a black bracelet that had the name "Chuck" on it. Righ[t n]ext to that bracelet was the Ga. Drivers licence for Mr. Rufus Brown, (the male detained in the kitchen). Also on the dre[sser] was 168 Dollars in cash and other watches and chains. I started to look in the kitchen where Mr. Brown ran into whe[n e]ntry was made. On the counter was several baggies and two narcotics scales. On the table was a box contain[ing] bottles of Alcohol, Swisher sweets cigars, A garbage bag with about 500 empty cigarette packages (not taken into [ev]idence). and small paper bags. As I was looking at them Mr. Brown advised me he sold them to people in the neighbor[hoo]d. I looked in the trash and noticed a rolled up marijuana blunt. I recovered this and started looking in the trash mo[re]. I started finding bags of marijuana. I also found the cocaine, and extacy inside the same garbage can. I dumpe[d t]o garbage out and recovered the rest of the marijuana that was in the garbage. I called a K-9 unit out to see if there [wa]s any more found. The dog came into the apartment and started scratching and sniffing at the corner of the couch. I f[ou]nd a small hole in the couch where things might be able to be stored. The dog then started doing the same thing on th[e] speaker box. I opened the speaker box but did not find anything, but could smell marijuana very strongly from the [bo]x. No other narcotics were found other than the items pulled out of the garbage can that was inside the kitchen. M[r.] Brown was the only person inside the apartment.

THE UNDERSIGNED, BEING DULY SWORN, UPON HIS OR HER OATH, DEPOSES AND STATES THAT THE FORE[GO]ING IS TRUE, CORRECT, COMPLETE AND LEGIBLE TO THE BEST OF HIS/HER KNOWLEDGE AND BELIEF.

AFFIDAVIT FOR DETECTIVE C. A. BOND

I INVESTIGATOR C. A. BOND, BEING DULY SWORN AS A POLICE OFFICER FOR THE CITY OF ATLANTA, STATE THAT:

I HAVE BEEN A POLICE OFFICER FOR THE CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT SINCE JUNE 11, 1993. I WAS PREVIOUSLY ASSIGNED TO THE UNIFORM DIVISION IN ZONE 1. I WORKED AS A PATROL OFFICER AND LATER ASSIGNED AS A COMMUNITY ORIENTED BICYCLE OFFICER THRU 1997. UP TO 2004, I WAS ASSIGNED TO THE DUI TASK FORCE. I HAVE BEEN ASSIGNED TO THE NARCOTICS UNIT OF THE SPECIAL ENFORCEMENT SECTION SINCE APRIL 2004. I HAVE HAD EXTENSIVE TRAINING IN THE INTERDICTION AND TRAFFICKING OF ILLEGAL DRUGS, SUCH AS COCAINE, HEROIN, MARIJUANA, METHAMPHETAMINE AND MDMA. I AM ALSO TRAINED IN RECOGNIZING THE CLINICAL EFFECTS OF PERSONS UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF THESE DRUGS. DURING MY CAREER, I HAVE BEEN INVOLVED IN NUMEROUS INVESTIGATIONS INVOLVING ILLEGAL DRUG ACTIVITY. SOME OF THESE INVESTIGATIONS INVOLVED THE SALE, THE PURCHASE AND DISTRIBUTION OF THESE DRUGS. I HAVE PREPARED AND EXECUTED SEARCH \ND ARREST WARRANTS IN MANY OF THESE CASES.

ON 01/04/20065, INV. G. JUNNIER AND I MET WITH A RELIABLE CONFIDENTIAL INFORMANT (CI) TO CONDUCT NARCOTIC INVESTIGATIONS CONCERNING NARCOTICS SALES AT VARIOUS LOCATIONS. THE CI ADVISED THAT HE HAD INFORMATION THAT MARIJUANA IS BEING SOLD AT 940 BOLTON RD A-5 NW IN THE CITY OF ATLANTA, GA. THE INFORMANT HAS PROVIDED INFORMATION TO THE ATLANTA POLICE NARCOTICS UNIT ON A REGULAR BASIS THAT HAS BEEN RELIABLE AND RESULTED IN THE SEIZURE OF MULTIPLE POUNDS OF MARIJUANA AND COCAINE, MDMA, STOLEN FIREARMS AND ASSETS. THIS INFORMANT'S INFORMATION HAS ALSO LED TO PROBABLE CAUSE FOR MULTIPLE SEARCH WARRANTS WHERE ILLEGAL DRUGS WERE SUCCESSFULLY SEIZED. THE MOST RECENT INCIDENT WHERE THE INFORMANT HAS PROVIDED INFORMATION LEADING TO A DRUG SEIZURE AND ARREST WAS WITHIN THE LAST SEVEN DAYS. DURING THE SUMMER OF 2005 THE CI WAS ARRESTED FOR POSSESSION WITH INTENT TO DISTRIBUTE MARIJUANA. UPON THIS ARREST BEING DISCOVERED DURING THE CI'S BI-YEARLY REVIEW, THE CI WAS DEACTIVATED UNTIL THE CASE WAS ADJUDICATED. THE CI WAS REQUIRED TO ASSIST POLICE AS AN UNPAID INFORMANT FOR A PERIOD OF TIME AFTER HIS CASE WAS ADJUDICATED.

THE INFORMANT WAS SEARCHED WHERE NO MONEY OR DRUGS WERE FOUND. THE INFORMANT WAS GIVEN $25.00 (CITY FUNDS) TO ATTEMPT TO PURCHASE MARIJUANA FROM THE APARTMENT. THE SUBJECT WAS DRIVEN TO THE APARTMENTS AND RELEASED IN THE PARKING LOT. I OBSERVED THE CI WALK TO THE DOOR OF BUILDING A APARTMENT #5 AND GO TO THE DOOR. THE CI KNOCKED ON THE DOOR WHICH WAS ANSWERED BY A B/M. THE CI WAS ASKED IN THE APARTMENT AND GONE OUT OF SIGHT FOR ABOUT 45 SECONDS. THE CI THEN PROCEEDED BACK DOWN THE STAIRS AND RETURNED TO THE RELEASE POINT. THE CI STATED A B/M OPENED THE DOOR OF APARTMENT A-5 AND TOLD THE CI TO STEP IN WHERE THE B/M TOOK THE ORDER. THE CI REQUESTED $5.00 OF MARIJUANA FROM THE SUBJECT. THE CI STATED THE MALE TOOK THE $5.00 AND WENT INTO THE KITCHEN AREA TO RETRIEVE THE MARIJUANA. THE CI WAITED AT THE DOOR. AFTER A SHORT MOMENT THE SUBJECT CAME BACK AND GAVE THE CI A BAGGIE OF MARIJUANA. THE CI THEN LEFT THE APARTMENT RETURNING BACK TO THE RELEASE POINT. THE CI THEN HANDED ME ONE $5.00 BAGGIE OF MARIJUANA. THE INFORMANT STATED A SUBJECT DESCRIBED AS A B/M, 20'S, 200 POUNDS, 506 HEIGHT, CORN ROWS, DARK BROWN COMPLEXION, SOLD THE CI THE MARIJUANA. I KNOW THE OCCUPANT OF THE APARTMENT TO BE RUFUS BROWN DOB 4-3-76 WHOM IS A MATCH OF THE DISCRIPTION OF THE SELLER. THE INFORMANT WAS SEARCHED AGAIN. NO OTHER DRUGS OR CURRENCY WERE FOUND IN THE INFORMANT'S POSSESSION.

BASED ON THIS INFORMATION I BELIEVE MARIJUANA IS BEING SOLD AND STORED AT THE 940 BOLTON RD A-5 NW IN ATLANTA, GA. I FURTHER REQUEST THAT A SEARCH WARRANT BE ISSUED FOR THIS LOCATION. I ALSO REQUEST A NO-NOCK PROVISION BE ADDED. MR. BROWN ON A PRIOR SEARCH WARRANT ATTEMPTED TO DESTROY DRUGS BUT WAS UNABLE TO IN TIME SO HE CONCEALED THEM IN THE TRASH. HE ALSO HAS A VIOLENT CRIMINAL HISTORY WHERE HE WAS ILLEGALLY CARRING A HANDGUN DURING PREVIOUS DRUG DEALING.

If you are requesting no-knock approval, list facts justifying a no-knock entry:

I ALSO REQUEST A NO-NOCK PROVISION BE ADDED. MR. BROWN ON A PRIOR SEARCH WARRANT ATTEMPTED TO DESTROY DRUGS BUT WAS UNABLE TO IN TIME SO HE CONCEALED THEM IN THE TRASH. HE ALSO HAS A VIOLENT CRIMINAL HISTORY WHERE HE WAS ILLEGALLY CARRING A HANDGUN DURING PREVIOUS DRUG DEALING.

I swear or affirm that all of the information contained in this Affidavit and all other testimony given by me under oath is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

NARRATIVE

66. On 1-11-06, Team 1 narcotics executed a search warrant at the listed location. Upon arrival Mr. Brown was walking to his vehicle smoking a marijuana blunt. Upon entry no other subjects were found in the residence. K-9 unit (Miller / Murphy) was called to the scene to conduct a search. K9 Ofc Murphy showed alert of interest in an area in the bathroom that has a hole (open in the ceiling. No other drugs were found in the apartment. Baggies used to package marijuana and cocaine were found in the kitchen. The kitchen also showed Mr. Brown was a barber there selling hair, lights, and blunts/cigars. While in the kitchen, Mr Jordan came and knocked loudly on the back kitchen window. Upon unlocking and opening the back door, Mr Jordan stuck

5. his hand thru a small hole in the screen / burglar bar door. with a folded 5 dollar bill in his hand he said "let me get a 5" to a uniformed police officer. Mr Jackson then removed the officer as police and quickly stepped back from the door. Mr. Jackson was then brought in the apartment. He tried to explain he wanted to buy a beer was what he meant. He said he paid 1 dollar for a beer.

Mr. Brown had adimantly denied he sells drugs or anything else.

From my experience as a narcotics detective. Mr. Jackson was attempting to buy 5.00 of marijuana when he came to the back door, by the way he acted, what he said, then how he attempted to cover what he was doing. Mr. Brown sells 5.00 bags of weed.

NARRATIVE

Topic: narcotics

I have been watching apartment B5 in the King Gardens Apartment Community for several weeks now. Twan is a medium complected black male, heavy set about 5'9". I see him constantly from working in the area five day's a week. He stays there with another female. I have noticed in the time I've been watching the apartment a lot of pedestrian traffic coming and going from the location. I contacted a Confidential Reliable Informant, (CRI), to see if a buy could be made from the apartment. I met with my CRI prior to attempting to purchase narcotics from the location. I searched the CRI for any narcotics or currency. There was none present or found. I gave the CRI 50$ of city of atlanta buy funds. I hid in the woods facing the apartment. I watched the CRI go to the apartment, knock on the door, and enter the apartment. About 1 minute after entering the CRI exited the door. The CRI walked directly to me into the woods and gave me the crack cocaine weighing 2.1 grams. A search warrant will be applied for with Fulton County Court.

AFFIDAVIT AND APPLICATION FOR A SEARCH WARRANT

IN THE MAGISTRATE COURT OF FULTON COUNTY

Docket No.: E000729

The undersigned FOD-ZONE 1 B BURCHFIELD, being duly sworn, deposes and says:
I am a Georgia certified peace officer charged with the duty of enforcing the criminal laws, and that I have reason to believe that in FULTON County, Georgia, on the person, premises or property described as follows: (state detailed description of person, property, or location)

"TWAN", BLACK MALE, MEDIUM SKIN, HEAVY SET AROUND 5'7-5'9
3762 MLK B-5 SITS IN THE MIDDLE OF THE KING GARDENS APARTMENT COMMUNITY. IT IS ON THE SECOND FLOOR OF THE COMPLEX AND FACES WEST. IT IS THE MIDDLE RIGHT APARTMENT IN THE BUILDING, UP STAIRS.

there is now located certain instruments, articles, person(s), or things, namely: (specify evidence, contraband, or person(s) to be searched for)

LOOKING FOR ANY ILLEGAL NARCOTICS SUCH AS CRACK COCAINE, SMALL ZIPLOCK BAGGIES, SCALES, CURRENCY, GUNS, OR FRUITS OF THE CRIME

Which is (name the law being violated)

16-13-30(b) VGCSA Intent Distribute Cocaine

The facts tending to establish probable cause that a crime has been, or is being committed and the above described instruments, articles, or things described above are presently located at the above described premises or property are as follows: (state in detail the facts that you believe create probable cause, including statement of ownership, possession, or control if known)

I HAVE BEEN WATCHING APARTMENT B5 IN THE KING GARDENS APARTMENT COMMUNITY AT 3762 MLK FOR SEVERAL WEEKS. I WORK THAT AREA FIVE DAYS A WEEK AND SEE TWAN ON OCCASION. HE LIVES WITH A GIRL IN APARTMENT B5. I HAVE NOTICED IN THE TIME I HAVE BEEN WATCHING THE APARTMENT A LOT OF PEDESTRIAN TRAFFIC COMING AND GOING FROM THE LOCATION. SEEING ALL THIS PEDESTRIAN TRAFFIC WHICH IS A GOOD SIGN OF NARCOTIC SALES I CONTACTED A CONFIDENTIAL RELIABLE INFORMANT THAT I CONSTANTLY USE AND IS VERY, VERY RELIABLE. I SEARCHED THE CRI PRIOR TO GOING TO THE APARTMENT. THE WAS NO ILLEGAL NARCOTICS ON CURRENCY ON THE CRI. I GAVE THE CRI 50$ AND WATCHED THE CRI FROM THE WOODLINE. FROM THE WOODLINE I HAD A CLEAR VIEW OF THE APARTMENT. I WATCHED THE CRI WALK TO THE APARTMENT, KNOCK ON THE DOOR AND ENTER THE APARTMENT. APPROXIMATELY ONE MINUTE LATER THE CRI EXITED THE APARTMENT AND WALKED TO ME IN THE WOODLINE WHERE I WAS WAITING. THE CRI GAVE ME A PEACE OF CRACK COCAINE WEIGHING 2.1 GRAMS. I TURNED THE CRACK COCAINE INTO THE POLICE EVIDENCE LOCKER.

If you are requesting no-knock approval, list facts justifying a no-knock entry:

I swear or affirm that all of the information contained in this Affidavit and all other testimony given by me under oath is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

NARRATIVE

Topic: search warrant

Upon entering the above listed location under search warrant #SW000560 I found that no one was inside the apartment. I searched the apartment and found in the bedroom a bag containing the scale which had cocaine residue on it and two packs of small baggies. These are the type of baggies that are commonly used for packaging narcotics. Nothing else was found.

Which is (name the law being violated)

16-13-30 Vgcsa Posession Of Cocaine

Based upon the affidavit given under oath or affirmation and all other evidence given to me under oath or affirmation, I am satisfied that there is probable cause to believe that a crime is being committed or has been committed and that the property described above is presently located on the person, premises, or property described above.

You are hereby commanded to enter, search and seize within ten (10) days of this date the person, premises, or property described above. A copy of this warrant is to be left with the person searched, if no person is available, on the premises or vehicle searched, and a written return, including an inventory of any things seized, shall be made before me or a Court of competent jurisdiction immediately after the execution of this Search Warrant.

SO ORDERED 16 day of February, 2006 at 03:53:03 PM

JUDGE OF THE MAGISTRATE COURT

BETWEEN THE DATES OF FEBRUARY 15, 2006 AND FEBRUARY 16, 2006 CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE INVESTIGATOR G. JUNNIER AND I DIRECTED A CONFIDENTIAL AND RELIABLE INFORMANT (CRI) TO 834 BROOKLINE ST, ATLANTA GA 30310 FULTON COUNTY TO ENTER THE HOME AND PURCHASE FORM THE RESIDENT COCAINE. THE CRI HAS PROVEN TO BE RELIABLE IN THE PAST AND HAS PROVIDED INFORMATION LEADING TO THE SEIZURE OF BOTH COCAINE AND MARIJUANA. THE CRI WAS SEARCHED AND GIVEN $100.00 (CITY FUNDS) TO PURCHASE THE CRACK COCAINE FROM 834 BROOKLINE ST, ATLANTA GA 30310. THE CRI WAS ALLOWED TO ENTER THE RESIDENCE. THE CRI REMAINED INSIDE THE HOME FOR LESS THAN FIVE MINUTES BEFORE EXITING THE HOME AND RETURNING DIRECTLY TO ME. THE CRI IMMEDIATELY HANDED ME (1) CLEAR BAG CONTAINING A $100.00 PIECE OF CRACK COCAINE. THE CRACK COCAINE WAS LATER TURNED IN TO THE CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE PROPERTY MANAGEMENT SECTION. THE CRI WAS SEARCHED AGAIN AND DEBRIEFED. THE CRI TOLD ME THAT THE COCAINE WAS PURCHASED FROM A BLACK FEMALE NAMED PATRICIA HANDSPIKE FOR $100.00. THE CRI DESCRIBED MS HANDSPIKE AS A BLACK FEMALE 5'-07" - 5'-09" IN HEIGHT. WEIGHING 160-170 POUNDS BETWEEN 40-50 YEARS OF AGE WITH A BLOND SHORT LOW HAIR CUT.

BASED ON THE AFOREMENTIONED INFORMATION AND MY LAW ENFORCEMENT EXPERIENCE IN NARCOTICS, I BELIEVE COCAINE IS BEING SOLD AND STORED AT 834 BROOKLINE ST, ATLANTA GA 30310 FULTON COUNTY. THEREFORE, A SEARCH WARRANT IS RESPECTFULLY REQUESTED FOR THAT LOCATION.

If you are requesting no-knock approval, list facts justifying a no-knock entry:

I swear or affirm that all of the information contained in this Affidavit and all other testimony given by me under oath is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

5. Mr. Demars, C was located in the front right room of the home in his room he was found with (1) "Blunt" marijuana cigarette. Mr. Demars was acted for possession of marijuana and transported to the City of Atlanta pre-trial detention center via the zone 3 wagon. Z discovered (1) .357 revolver pistol with (5) rounds loaded in the second bedroom to right in the top of the closet. Z also located (1) Glock .40 cal pistol under the bed in Ms. Hardspikes bedroom. The Glock was loaded with (14) rounds. On the dresser, also in Ms. Hardspikes Bedroom Z discovered (1) box with (36) .40 cal rounds. Ms Hardspikes bedroom is the third bedroom to the right, the same room Ms Hardspike was discovered in flushing the toilet with the (4) bits of crack cocaine. Z read Ms Hardspike her rights, she declined on attorney signing a waiver of rights form. Ms Hardspike admitted in a written statement that she did flush the crack cocaine. However she stated the weapons and bullets belonged to her son Telly Hardspike who was not present and does not live at the location. Ms Hardspike does not know where Telly lives and has not seen him in several days. During the execution of the search warrant Ms. Hardspike, Charmeka had difficulty breathing and was seen by Grady EMS and released without transport. The Glock .40 cal pistol was reported as stolen from College Park Police Department on 8-26-05 original case # 05014326. Both weapons and all narcotics were taken to the Atlanta Police Department. Ms. Hardspike was transported to the Fulton County detention center via the zone 3 wagon. Ms. Hardspikes vehicle was impounded by South Metro towing. The home was secured and a copy of the warrant was left on the kitchen table. The home was left in the care of Ms. Hardspike, Charmeka.

Atlanta Police Department
Waiver of Counsel by Defendant in Custody

I, Patricia Hardwick, have been informed by the undersigned law enforcement officers prior to being questioned by them, that I am suspected of the offense of VGCSA in Fulton/ DeKalb County, State of Georgia, on the 22 day of Feb, 20 06 and have been informed of my constitutional rights, as follows:

(1) That I may remain silent and do not have to make any statement at all.
(2) That any statement that I make may be used against me in a court of law.
(3) That I have the right to consult with an attorney before making any statements and to have said attorney present with me while I am making a statement.
(4) That if I do not have enough money to employ an attorney, I have the right to have one appointed by the court to represent me; to consult with him before making any statement, and to have him present with me while I am making a statement.
(5) That if I request an attorney, no questions will be asked of me until an attorney is present to represent me.

After having my constitutional rights explained to me, I freely and voluntarily waive my right to an attorney. I am willing to make a statement to the officers. I (can) (can't) read and write the English Language and fully understand my constitutional rights to an attorney. I have read/(have had read to) me this waiver of counsel and fully understand it.
No threats or promises have been made to me to induce me to sign this waiver

x Patricia Hardwick

All of the above constitutional rights in the above waiver of counsel were read to the above defendant by me, and he/she freely and voluntarily waived his/her right to an attorney. No threats, promises, tricks or persuasions were employed by me or anyone in my presence to induce him/her to waive his/her rights to an attorney and to make a statement without an attorney. He/she freely and voluntarily signed the above waiver of counsel in my presence after having read it.

I served a search warrant at the above listed location under docket # E000955. Upon entering I found Mrs. Smith-wilcox. I detained her and advised her she was detained until the search was finished. I started in the bedroom and under the bed, between matress and box spring I did find a large peace of crack cocaine along with 3 fake twenty dollar bills. In the tv stand about 3 feet from where she was, well within arms reach I did find a glock 9mm pistol. In the drawer under the microwave I did find a scale with cocaine residue, and a large amount of small baggies. I advised her she was under arrest and advised her of her rights. She advised she did not want to talk and told me to book her and send her on her way. She then told me to get out of her house. In the bedroom where I found the cocaine and fake money I found several pill bottles with her name on it. I then sent her to fulton county jail and transported to cocaine, gun and fake money to property. I field tested the cocaine and it tested positive.

On 05-24-06 at 1500 hrs I did serve a valid search warrant under docket #E000956. In the front bedroom I located a male and female laying on the bed. Looking at the bed the male was on the right side and the female was on the left. I detained both suspects. I turned the male over and recognized him as the male that sold marijuana to my informant. I searched his immediate wingspan and in the night stand I found a cobra 380 auto pistol and small bag of cocaine. I advised him he was under arrest. I continued my search and in his white shoes I found another bag of cocaine. On the top of the nightstand was a large amount of cash. I looked through the cash and found the currency used to purchase the marijuana. I know it was the same currency because prior to sending my informant to the house I photo copied the cash and the serial numbers matched. I read both Mrs. Redding and Mr Brinson there rights. Both agreed to talk with me without a lawyer. Mr. Brinson advised me that he just got out of jail for a rape charge in December. He advised me he had previously been convicted of a felony. I asked him who's house were we in. He advised me he and Mrs. Redding were renting the house and moved in about a month prior. He advised he was paying Mrs. Redding rent to stay there. He advised the cocaine was Mrs. Redding's and she sells it. He advised he bought the gun from a "crack head" for 50 dollars about 2 weeks ago. In the bedroom both suspects were in I found perscription bottles for Mrs. Redding and Mr. Brinson. I did not take the perscription bottles because medicine was still inside the bottles. ACIC is down at this time so I was unable to check if the gun was stolen or not. I will run the gun on ACIC on 05-25-06 to see if it is a stolen gun. Both subjects were charged accordingly and transported to fulton county jail. I field tested the cocaine and it tested positive.

THE UNDERSIGNED, BEING DULY SWORN, UPON HIS OR HER OATH, DEPOSES AND STATES THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE, CORRECT, COMPLETE AND LEGIBLE TO THE BEST OF HIS/HER KNOWLEDGE AND RELIEF.

AFFIDAVIT AND APPLICATION FOR A SEARCH WARRANT

IN THE MAGISTRATE COURT OF FULTON COUNTY

Docket No.: E000956

The undersigned FOD~ZONE 1 B BURCHFIELD, being duly sworn, deposes and says:
I am a Georgia certified peace officer charged with the duty of enforcing the criminal laws, and that I have reason to believe that in FULTON County, Georgia, on the person, premises or property described as follows: (state detailed description of person, property, or location)
"BLACK"

2259 SISK ST., ATLANTA, GA, 30318
TAN HOUSE WITH BLACK BURGLAR BAR DOOR AND BLACK SHADES ON WINDOWS.
there is now located certain instruments, articles, person(s), or things, namely: (specify evidence, contraband, or person(s) to be searched for)

ANY NARCOTICS, MAINLY MARIJUANA AND COCAINE, BAGGIES, CURRENCY, GUNS, BULLETS, SCALES, FRUITS OF THE CRIME, RESIDENCE PAPERS

Which is (name the law being violated)

16-13-30(b) VGCSA Intent to Distribute Marijuana

The facts tending to establish probable cause that a crime has been, or is being committed and the above described instruments, articles, or things described above are presently located at the above described premises or property are as follows: (state in detail the facts that you believe create probable cause, including statement of ownership, possession, or control if known)

DID SEND A CONFIDENTIAL RELIABLE INFORMANT (CRI) TO 2259 SISK ST. TO MAKE A CONTROLED PURCHASE OF NARCOTICS. I WATCHED THE CRI WALK TO THE RESIDENCE, KNOCK ON THE DOOR AND ENTER THE RESIDENCE. THE CRI THEN EXITED WITH ANOTHER BLACK MALE AND WALKED NEXT DOOR TO 2251 SISK ST. THE CRI AND BLACK MALE ENTERED THE HOUSE AT 2251. THE CRI AND BLACK MALE THEN EXITED 2251 SISK ST. THE CRI WALKED BACK TO ME AND THE BLACK MALE WALKED BACK TO 2259 SISK ST. THE CRI HANDED ME A SMALL BAG OF MARIJUANA. THE CRI ADVISED ME THAT UPON ENTERING 2259 SISK ST. IN VIEW WAS A LARGE AMOUNT (SEVERAL POUNDS) OF MARIJUANA AND A LARGE AMOUND OF COCAINE. THE CRI ADVISED ME THAT "BLACK" ADVISED ALL HE HAD READY WAS LARGE AMOUNTS OF MARIJUANA. "BLACK" TOLD HIM THEY WOULD HAVE TO GO NEXT DOOR WHERE HE HAD SMALLER BAGS READY FOR SALE. MY CRI ADVISED ME INSIDE 2251 HE SAW A LARGE AMOUNT OF MARIJUANA AND CRACK CUT UP AND READY FOR SALE.

I swear or affirm that all of the information contained in this Affidavit and all other testimony given by me under oath is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

On 05-24-06 at 1500 hrs I did serve a valid search warrant under docket #E000956. In the front bedroom I located a male and female laying on the bed. Looking at the bed the male was on the right side and the female was on the left. I detained both suspects. I turned the male over and recognized him as the male that sold marijuana to my informant. I searched his immediate wingspan and in the night stand I found a cobra 380 auto pistol and small bag of cocaine. I advised him he was under arrest. I continued my search and in his white shoes I found anbther bag of cocaine. On the top of the nightstand was a large amount of cash. I looked through the cash and found the currency used to purchase the marijuana. I know it was the same currency because prior to sending my informant to the house I photo copied the cash and the serial numbers matched. I read both Mrs. Redding and Mr Brinson there rights. Both agreed to talk with me without a lawyer. Mr. Brinson advised me that he just got out of jail for a rape charge in December. He advised me he had previously been convicted of a felony. I asked him who's house were we in. He advised me he and Mrs. Redding were renting the house and moved in about a month prior. He advised he was paying Mrs. Redding rent to stay there. He advised the cocaine was Mrs. Redding's and she sells it. He advised he bought the gun from a "crack head" for 50 dollars about 2 weeks ago. In the bedroom both suspects were in I found perscription bottles for Mrs. Redding and Mr. Brinson. I did not take the perscription bottles because medicine was still inside the bottles. ACIC is down at this time so I was unable to check if the gun was stolen or not. I will run the gun on ACIC on 05-25-06 to see if it is a stolen gun. Both subjects were charged accordingly and transported to fulton county jail. I field tested the cocaine and it tested positive.

I served a search warrant at the above listed location under docket # E000955. Upon entering I found Mrs. Smith-wilcox. I detained her and advised her she was detained until the search was finished. I started in the bedroom and under the bed, between matress and box spring I did find a large peace of crack cocaine along with 3 fake twenty dollar bills. In the tv stand about 3 feet from where she was, well within arms reach I did find a glock 9mm pistol. In the drawer under the microwave I did find a scale with cocaine residue, and a large amount of small baggies. I advised her she was under arrest and advised her of her rights. She advised she did not want to talk and told me to book her and send her on her way. She then told me to get out of her house. In the bedroom where I found the cocaine and fake money I found several pill bottles with her name on it. I then sent her to fulton county jail and transported to cocaine, gun and fake money to property. I field tested the cocaine and it tested positive.

On 05-24-06 at 1500 hrs I did serve a valid search warrant under docket #E000956. In the front bedroom I located a male and female laying on the bed. Looking at the bed the male was on the right side and the female was on the left. I detained both suspects. I turned the male over and recognized him as the male that sold marijuana to my informant. I searched his immediate wingspan and in the night stand I found a cobra 380 auto pistol and small bag of cocaine. I advised him he was under arrest. I continued my search and in his white shoes I found another bag of cocaine. On the top of the nightstand was a large amount of cash. I hooked through the cash and found the currency used to purchase the marijuana. I know it was the same currency because prior to sending my informant to the house I photo copied the cash and the serial numbers matched. I read both Mrs. Redding and Mr. Brinson there rights. Both agreed to talk with me without a lawyer. Mr. Brinson advised me that he just got out of jail for a rape charge in December. He advised me he had previously been convicted of a felony. I asked him who's house were we in. He advised me he and Mrs. Redding were renting the house and moved in about a month prior. He advised he was paying Mrs. Redding rent to stay there. He advised the cocaine was Mrs. Redding's and she sells it. He advised he bought the gun from a "crack head" for 50 dollars about 2 weeks ago. In the bedroom both suspects were in I found perscription bottles for Mrs. Redding and Mr. Brinson. I did not take the perscription bottles because medicine was still inside the bottles. ACIC is down at this time so I was unable to check if the gun was stolen or not. I will run the gun on ACIC on 05-25-06 to see if it is a stolen gun. Both subjects were charged accordingly and transported to fulton county jail. I field tested the cocaine and it tested positive.

THE UNDERSIGNED, BEING DULY SWORN, UPON HIS OR HER OATH, DEPOSES AND STATES THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE, CORRECT, COMPLETE AND LEGIBLE TO THE BEST OF HIS/HER KNOWLEDGE AND RELIEF.

On 05-24-06 at 1500 hrs I did serve a valid search warrant under docket #E000956. In the front bedroom I located a male and female laying on the bed. Looking at the bed the male was on the right side and the female was on the left. I detained both suspects. I turned the male over and recognized him as the male that sold marijuana to my informant. I searched his immediate wingspan and in the night stand I found a cobra 380 auto pistol and small bag of cocaine. I advised him he was under arrest. I continued my search and in his white shoes I found another bag of cocaine. On the top of the nightstand was a large amount of cash. I looked through the cash and found the currency used to purchase the marijuana. I know it was the same currency because prior to sending my informant to the house I photo copied the cash and the serial numbers matched. I read both Mrs. Redding and Mr. Brinson there rights. Both agreed to talk with me without a lawyer. Mr. Brinson advised me that he just got out of jail for a rape charge in December. He advised me he had previously been convicted of a felony. I asked him who's house were we in. He advised me he and Mrs. Redding were renting the house and moved in about a month prior. He advised he was paying Mrs. Redding rent to stay there. He advised the cocaine was Mrs. Redding's and she sells it. He advised he bought the gun from a "crack head" for 50 dollars about 2 weeks ago. In the bedroom both suspects were in I found perscription bottles for Mrs. Redding and Mr. Brinson. I did not take the perscription bottles because medicine was still inside the bottles. ACIC is down at this time so I was unable to check if the gun was stolen or not. I will run the gun on ACIC on 05-25-06 to see if it is a stolen gun. Both subjects were charged accordingly and transported to fulton county jail. I field tested the cocaine and it tested positive.

THE UNDERSIGNED, BEING DULY SWORN, UPON HIS OR HER OATH, DEPOSES AND STATES THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE, CORRECT, COMPLETE AND LEGIBLE TO THE BEST OF HIS/HER KNOWLEDGE AND RELIEF.

AFFIDAVIT AND APPLICATION FOR A SEARCH WARRANT

IN THE MAGISTRATE COURT OF FULTON COUNTY

Docket No.: E000962

The undersigned CID~NARCOTICS H BUCHANAN, being duly sworn, deposes and says:
I am a Georgia certified peace officer charged with the duty of enforcing the criminal laws, and that I have reason to believe that in FULTON County, Georgia, on the person, premises or property described as follows: (state detailed description of person, property, or location)

TATOO
BLACK MALE APPROX 5'10 170 POUNDS. HE HAS A TATOO OF A CROSS ON HIS LEFT FORE ARM. HE IS MEDIUM BROWN IN COLOR AND HAS A LOW HAIRCUT.
2479 ABNER TER. #41, ATLANTA, GA, 30318
FLIPPER TEMPLE APARTMENTS A 3 STORY BUILDING COVERED IN WHITISH GRAY SIDING AND APARTMENT # 41 IS LOCATED IN THE REAR OF THE BUILDING ON THE BOTTOM LEVEL CLEARLY MARKED #41.

there is now located certain instruments, articles, person(s), or things, namely: (specify evidence, contraband, or person(s) to be searched for)

POWDER COCAINE, WEAPONS, MONEY, SCALES, PACKAGING MATERIALS, ELECTRONICS, AND ANY OTHER PROPERTY USED IN THE MANUFACTURING AND SELLING OF COCAINE.

Which is (name the law being violated)

6-13-30(b) VGCSA Sale Cocaine

The facts tending to establish probable cause that a crime has been, or is being committed and the above described instruments, articles, or things described above are presently located at the above described premises or property are as follows: (state in detail the facts that you believe create probable cause, including statement of ownership, possession, or control if known)

WE RECEIVED INFORMATION THAT ILLEGAL DRUGS WERE BEING SOLD OUT OF APARTMENT 41 LOCATED AT 2479 ABNER TER. THIS IS THE FLIPPER TEMPLE APARTMENT COMPLEX. WE INSTRUCTED A CONFIDENTIAL RELIABLE SOURCE (CRS) TO THE LOCATION ADVISING THEM OF THE INFORMATION RECEIVED. I SEARCHED THE CRS LOOKING FOR MONEY AND DRUGS. I FOUND NOTHING, SO I GAVE THE CRS $40.00 CITY ISSUED FUNDS AND WE TOOK THE CRS TO THE LOCATION. ONCE AT THE LOCATION THE CRS EXITED THE VEHICLE AND WALKED TO THE DOOR. THE CRS KNOCKED ON THE DOOR AND "TATOO" ANSWERED. THE CRS ASKED TATOO FOR A "40 SOFT" ($40.00 OF POWDER COCAINE) THE MALE "TATOO" TOOK THE MONEY AND WALKED INTO THE APARTMENT. THE MALE THEN RETURNED TO THE DOOR AND HANDED THE CRS 1 BAG OF POWDER COCAINE AND $20.00 CASH. THE MALE TOLD THE CRS THAT HE HAD TO "RE-UP" GO PURCHASE MORE COCAINE AND THE $20.00 BAG OF POWDER COCAINE WAS ALL HE HAD. THE MALE TOLD THE CRS TO CHECK BACK WITH HIM LATER AND HE WOULD HAVE SOME MORE. THE CRS RETURNED TO THE VEHICLE AND HANDED ME $20.00 AND 1 BAG OF POWDER COCAINE. WE THEN LEFT THE LOCATION. THE CRS WAS SEARCHED AGAIN AND NO MONEY OR DRUGS WERE FOUND IN THEIR POSSESSION. THE CRS PROVIDED WAS WITH ALL OF THE INFORMATION PROVIDED IN THIS AFFIDAVIT. I AM REQUESTING THE COURTS PERMISSION TO ENTER THIS PARTMENT LOCATED AT 2479 ABNER TER. #41 AND SEARCH THE LOCATION FOR POWDER COCAINE AND ANY OTHER ITEM THAT MAY BE USED IN THE MANUFACTURING AND DISTRIBUTION OF THE ILLEGAL CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE.

[ ]OTHER PARTY PROVISION (Not Valid Unless Signed)

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the executing officer has the authority of the Court to search any and all persons who are on or within the described premises or who may enter after the search begins based upon probable cause as stated herein.

AFFIDAVIT FOR DETECTIVE G. JUNNIER
I DET. G. JUNNIER, BEING DULY SWORN AS A POLICE OFFICER FOR THE CITY OF ATLANTA, STATE THAT:

I HAVE BEEN A POLICE OFFICER FOR THE CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT SINCE SEPTEMBER 9, 1988. I WAS PREVIOUSLY ASSIGNED TO THE UNIFORM SECTION IN ZONE 5 AND THE ZONE 5 FIELD INVESTIGATIONS TEAM ALONG WITH THE BACKGROUND AND RECRUITMENT UNIT. I AM CURRENTLY ASSIGNED TO THE NARCOTICS UNIT. I HAVE BEEN ASSIGNED TO THE NARCOTICS UNIT SINCE OCTOBER 1998. I HAVE ATTENDED SEVERAL TRAINING SESSIONS PERTAINING TO THE INVESTIGATION OF ILLEGAL DRUG SALES AND TRAFFICKING. DURING MY CAREER, I HAVE BEEN INVOLVED IN MULTIPLE INVESTIGATIONS INVOLVING ILLEGAL DRUG ACTIVITIES. SOME OF THESE INVESTIGATIONS INVOLVED INTERSTATE TRAVEL WHICH INVOLVED ILLEGAL DRUG ACTIVITY FROM STATES AS FAR AWAY AS CALIFORNIA. THE DRUGS INVOLVED IN INVESTIGATIONS I HAVE PARTICIPATED INCLUDE BUT WERE NOT LIMITED TO COCAINE, HEROIN, ECSTASY, MARIJUANA. I HAVE INTERVIEWED MULTIPLE DRUG TRAFFICKERS AND DEALERS. I AM FAMILIAR WITH METHODS OF OPERATION EMPLOYED BY DRUG TRAFFICKERS AND DEALERS ENGAGED IN THE DISTRIBUTION OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES. DURING THE COURSE OF SOME OF THESE INVESTIGATIONS, I HAVE HAD TO PREPARE SEARCH AND ARREST WARRANTS PERTINENT TO THE INVESTIGATIONS.

ON 8/1/6, I RECEIVED A LEAD SHEET INDICATING A BLACK MALE NAMED AYENDI KEMP AKA "DAY" WHO LIVES AT 1994 BENT CREEK WAY SW #D103 ATLANTA, GEORGIA IS POSSIBLY

INVOLVED IN SHIPPING NARCOTICS TO THE POST OFFICE ON FAIRBURN RD. IN MAY 2005. THE LLER ADVISED A FEMALE WAS ARRESTED IN MAY 2005 FOR SHIPPING NARCOTICS THROUGH THE POST OFFICE ON FAIRBURN RD. THE CALLER FURTHER ADVISED THAT THE MALE SUSPECT LISTED ON THE LEAD SHEET (AYENDI KEMP) WAS WITH THE FEMALE BUT GOT AWAY AND HAS CONTINUED WITH THE PREVIOUS NARCOTICS TRADE. THE LEAD SHEET ALSO INDICATED THAT KEMP DRIVES A BLACK CHEVY MONTE CARLO.

ON 8/4/6, I DROVE TO 1994 BENT CREEK WAY AND CONDUCTED SURVEILLANCE FOR APPROXIMATELY TWO HOURS. DURING THE SURVEILLANCE PERIOD, I SAW A BLACK MALE WHO I BELIEVE TO BE KEMP EXIT APARTMENT D301 AND WALK TO A BLACK MONTE CARLO, WHICH WAS BACKED IN SO I COULD NOT SEE THE TAG, AND REMOVE A BLACK TRASH BAG AND THEN ENTER D103 WITH THE BAG USING A KEY.

ON 8/9/6, I DIRECTED A CONFIDENTIAL AND RELIABLE INFORMANT TO 1994 BENT CREEK WAY SW #D103 ATLANTA, GEORGIA TO ATTEMPT TO PURCHASE COCAINE. THIS INFORMANT HAS PROVEN TO BE RELIABLE IN THE PAST. INFORMATION THIS INFORMANT HAS PROVIDED HAS LED TO THE SEIZURE OF MULTIPLE POUNDS OF MARIJUANA, COCAINE, AND ECSTASY. MANY TIMES THIS INFORMANT HAS PROVIDED INFORMATION AS TO WHERE DRUGS OR GUNS WERE BEING HIDDEN INSIDE A LOCATION AND WHEN THE LOCATION WAS SEARCHED THE DRUGS AND GUNS WERE FOUND EXACTLY WHERE THE INFORMANT SAID THEY WOULD BE. THIS INFORMANT HAS WORKED WITH SEVERAL INVESTIGATORS THROUGHOUT THE NARCOTICS UNIT AND OTHER UNITS. NO INCONSISTENCIES HAVE BEEN NOTED IN INFORMATION THIS INFORMANT HAS PROVIDED. THE INFORMANT WAS SEARCHED AND GIVEN 100.00 TO PURCHASE THE COCAINE. THE INFORMANT WAS UNDER SURVEILLANCE AS HE WALKED TO 1994 BENT CREEK WAY SW #D103. THE INFORMANT MET WITH A BLACK MALE HE CALLED "DUDE" IN FRONT OF THE D BUILDING. "DUDE" HAD JUST EXITED UNIT D103. "DUDE" DIRECTED THE INFORMANT TO WAIT NEAR THE FRONT BUILDING AFTER TALKING WITH THE INFORMANT AND KING THE $100.00 CITY FUNDS. "DUDE" THEN WALKED INTO APARTMENT D301. MOMENTS LATER "DUDE" EXITED D301. "DUDE" THEN WALKED OVER TO THE INFORMANT AND HANDED HIM THREE PIECES OF SUSPECTED CRACK COCAINE. THE INFORMANT RETURNED TO ME AND HANDED ME THE CRACK COCAINE THAT HE PURCHASED FROM "DUDE". THE INFORMANT WAS SEARCHED AGAIN AND DEBRIEFED. THE INFORMANT SAID "DUDE" TOLD HIM THAT HE HAD TO BE CAREFUL BECAUSE THE POLICE HAD BEEN CHECKING OUT THE BUILDING. THE COCAINE WAS FIELD TESTED (POSITIVE) AND WAS TURNED INTO ATLANTA POLICE PROPERTY MANAGEMENT.

ON 8/19/06, I DIRECTED A CONFIDENTIAL AND RELIABLE INFORMANT TO 1994 BENT CREEK WAY SW #D103 ATLANTA, GEORGIA TO ATTEMPT TO PURCHASE MARIJUANA. THE INFORMANT WAS SEARCHED AND GIVEN $30.00 TO PURCHASE THE MARIJUANA. THE SAME INFORMANT WHO WAS USED ON 8/9/6 WAS USED AGAIN. THE INFORMANT WAS UNDER SURVEILLANCE AS HE WALKED TO 1994 BENT CREEK WAY SW #D103. THE INFORMANT MET WITH A BLACK MALE IN FRONT OF THE D BUILDING. THE INFORMANT LATER SAID THE PERSON TOLD HIM HIS NAME WAS "DAY". "DAY" TOOK THE $30.00 CITY FUNDS. "DAY" THEN WALKED INTO APARTMENT D103 WITHOUT USING A KEY. MOMENTS LATER "DAY" EXITED D103. "DAY" THEN WALKED OVER TO THE INFORMANT AND HANDED HIM SMALL BAGS CONTAINING SUSPECTED MARIJUANA. THE INFORMANT RETURNED TO ME AND HANDED ME THE MARIJUANA THAT HE PURCHASED FROM "DAY". THE INFORMANT WAS SEARCHED AGAIN AND DEBRIEFED. THE MARIJUANA WAS TURNED INTO ATLANTA POLICE PROPERTY MANAGEMENT.

ON 8/19/6, I AGAIN DIRECTED A CONFIDENTIAL AND RELIABLE INFORMANT TO 1994 BENT CREEK WAY SW ATLANTA, GEORGIA TO ATTEMPT TO PURCHASE MARIJUANA. THE INFORMANT WAS SEARCHED AND GIVEN $30.00 TO PURCHASE THE MARIJUANA. THE SAME INFORMANT WHO WAS USED ON 8/9/6 WAS USED AGAIN. THE INFORMANT WAS UNDER SURVEILLANCE AS HE ALKED TO 1994 BENT CREEK WAY SW. THE INFORMANT MET WITH "DAY", WHO IS BELIEVED TO BE AYENDE KEMP, WHO HAD JUST EXITED UNIT D103. "DAY" SPOKE BRIEFLY TO THE INFORMANT. "DAY" TOOK THE MONEY FROM THE INFORMANT AND THEN WALKED INTO APARTMENT D301. MOMENTS LATER "DAY" EXITED D301. "DAY" THEN WALKED OVER TO THE INFORMANT AND HANDED HIM SMALL BAGS OF SUSPECTED MARIJUANA. THE INFORMANT RETURNED TO ME AND HANDED ME THE MARIJUANA THAT HE PURCHASED FROM "DAY". THE INFORMANT WAS SEARCHED AGAIN AND DEBRIEFED. THE MARIJUANA WAS TURNED INTO ATLANTA POLICE PROPERTY MANAGEMENT..

BASED ON THIS INFORMATION AND MY LAW ENFORCEMENT EXPERIENCE, I BELIEVE MARIJUANA AND COCAINE IS BEING SOLD AND STORED AT 1994 BENT CREEK WAY SW #D103 ATLANTA, GEORGIA FULTON COUNTY. THEREFORE, A SEARCH WARRANT IS REQUESTED FOR THAT LOCATION.

If you are requesting no-knock approval, list facts justifying a no-knock entry:

I swear or affirm that all of the information contained in this Affidavit and all other testimony given by me under oath is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

NARRATIVE

66. Between the dates of 11-16-06 and 11-18-06 I sent a confidential reliable informant to the yellow house on Ward St. Between 822 and 836. There was no address on the house, mail box, or street anywhere. I was unable to get the address. the house is a residential house; yellow with green shutters. I watched the informant go to the location and knock on the door a medium complexion black male answered the door. a quick hand to hand transaction occurred and the informant returned to me. the informant stated he could not receive the weed was bought for 10 dollars. the informant was searched prior to going and had no illegal narcotics. A search warrant will be applied for.

66. On the above listed date and time myself and another undercover Investigator instructed this City registered Confidential Reliable Source to the location. This Source was Searched for money and drugs and when nothing was found, the Source was Given $25.00 City issued funds and allowed to walk up to the house. The CS walked to the front door but was not allowed to enter. The CS described "Bigboy" Listed above as the person who "Served the Marijuana" To the CS. The CS then returned to us who handed me 1-Bag of Marijuana. The CS was then Searched and No drugs or Money were found. The CS described the house as having No Burglar bars, 1 dog and a Light Blue door.

Docket No.: E001116

The undersigned FOD~ZONE 2 A TESLER, being duly sworn, deposes and says:
I am a Georgia certified peace officer charged with the duty of enforcing the criminal laws, and that I have reason to believe that in FULTON County, Georgia, on the person, premises or property described as follows: (state detailed description of person, property, or location)

KABUKI
KABUKI IS A BLACK MALE ABOUT 5'8" TO 5'10" IN HEIGHT ABOUT 150-170 POUNDS WITH SHORT BLACK HAIR.
1370 GRAYMONT DRIVE SW , ATLANTA , GEORGIA,
1370 GRAYMONT DRIVE IS A SINGLE FAMILY HOUSE WITH BURGLAR BAR FRONT DOOR. THE HOUSE IS BLUE GRAY IN COLOR AND DOES NOT APPEAR TO HAVE A BASEMENT.

there is now located certain instruments, articles, person(s), or things, namely: (specify evidence, contraband, or person(s) to be searched for)

COCAINE, OR ANY CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES, AND THOSE ITEMS USED IN IT'S SALE, TRANSPORTATION, MANUFACTURE, PROTECTION, PACKAGING, COMMUNICATION EQUIPMENT, DOCUMENTS OF OCCUPANCY, WEAPONS, MONIES, OR PROPERTY DERIVED FROM THE SALES AND DISTRIBUTION OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES.

16-13-30(b) VGCSA Intent Distribute Cocaine

The facts tending to establish probable cause that a crime has been, or is being committed and the above described instruments, articles, or things described above are presently located at the above described premises or property are as follows: (state in detail the facts that you believe create probable cause, including statement of ownership, possession, or control if known)

YOUR AFFIANT, INVESTIGATOR ARTHUR B. TESLER, CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT, HAS BEEN A LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER FOR THE PAST 6 YEARS AND IS CURRENTLY ASSIGNED TO THE CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE NARCOTICS SECTION. THIS AFFIANT'S DEDICATION AND COMMITMENT HAS ALLOWED HIM TO SERVE AND ASSIST THE CITY OF ATLANTA IN VARIOUS WAYS WITHIN THIS DEPARTMENT. THIS AFFIANT HAS BEGUN HIS DRUG INVESTIGATION CAREER AS A BEAT OFFICER IN NORTHWEST ATLANTA WHILE ASSIGNED TO ZONE TWO MORNING WATCH. THIS AFFIANT, WHILE A POLICE OFFICER WITH THE CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT HAS PARTICIPATED IN SEVERAL NARCOTICS RELATED DRUG INVESTIGATIONS RESULTING IN THE MULTIPLE ARRESTS OF VIOLATORS. THIS AFFIANT HAS PARTICIPATED AND/OR EXECUTED SEVERAL SEARCH AND SEIZURE WARRANTS INVOLVING NARCOTIC AND ARRESTS FOR FIREARMS/WEAPONS VIOLATIONS WITH THE CITY OF ATLANTA. DURING MY TENURE WITH THE ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT,

ON AUGUST 19, 2006 CITY OF ATLANTA INVESTIGATOR G. JUNNIER AND I DIRECTED A CONFIDENTIAL AND RELIABLE INFORMANT (CRI) TO 1370 GRAYMONT DR. SW ATLANTA GA FULTON COUNTY TO ENTER THE HOUSE AND PURCHASE FROM THE RESIDENT COCAINE. THE CRI HAS PROVEN TO BE RELIABLE IN THE PAST AND HAS PROVIDED INFORMATION LEADING TO THE SEIZURE OF BOTH COCAINE AND MARIJUANA. THE CRI WAS SEARCHED AND GIVEN $50.00 (CITY FUNDS) TO PURCHASE THE COCAINE FROM 1370 GRAYMONT DR SW, ATLANTA GA. THE CRI WAS ALLOWED TO WALK UP TO THE FRONT DOOR AND ENTER THE HOUSE. THE CRI REMAINED INSIDE THE HOUSE FOR LESS THAN

FIVE MINUTES BEFORE EXITING THE APARTMENT AND RETURNING DIRECTLY TO ME. THE CRI IMMEDIATELY HANDED ME (1) BAG CONTAINING A SINGLE HIT OF CRACK COCAINE TOTALING $50.00. THE CRACK COCAINE WAS LATER TURNED IN TO THE CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE PROPERTY MANAGEMENT SECTION. THE CRI WAS SEARCHED AGAIN AND DEBRIEFED. THE CRI TOLD ME THAT THE CRACK COCAINE WAS PURCHASED FROM A BLACK MALE NICKNAMED "KABUKI" FOR $50.00. THE CRI DESCRIBED "KABUKI" AS A BLACK MALE,5'8"- 5'10" IN HEIGHT ABOUT 150 TO 170 POUNDS WITH SHORT BLACK HAIR. KABUKI IS ABOUT 20 TO 30 YEARS IN AGE.

BASED ON THE AFOREMENTIONED INFORMATION AND MY LAW ENFORCEMENT EXPERIENCE IN NARCOTICS, I BELIEVE COCAINE IS BEING SOLD AND STORED AT 1370 GRAYMONT DRIVE SW, ATLANTA GA FULTON COUNTY. THEREFORE, A SEARCH WARRANT IS RESPECTFULLY REQUESTED FOR THAT LOCATION.

If you are requesting no-knock approval, list facts justifying a no-knock entry:

BASED ON THE CRI HE INFORMED ME THAT ALL PARTIES THAT STAY AT THIS HOUSE ALWAYS CARRY PISTOLS. THE CRI ALSO BELIEVES THAT THEY STORE GUNS AT THIS LOCATION.

I swear or affirm that all of the information contained in this Affidavit and all other testimony given by me under oath is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

AFFIDAVIT AND APPLICATION FOR A SEARCH WARRANT

IN THE MAGISTRATE COURT OF FULTON COUNTY

Docket No.: E001211

The undersigned FOD~ZONE 2 A TESLER, being duly sworn, deposes and says:
I am a Georgia certified peace officer charged with the duty of enforcing the criminal laws, and that I have reason to believe that in FULTON County, Georgia, on the person, premises or property described as follows: (state detailed description of person, property, or location)

SHORTY
SHORTY IS A BLACK MALE, DARK COMPLEXION, 5'6"-5'7" IN HEIGHT, WEIGHING ABOUT 140-150 POUNDS WITH SHORT BLACK HAIR. SHORTY IS ABOUT 18-22 YEARS OLD.
1981 MARTIN LUTHER KING JR DR #8, ATLANTA, GEORGIA,
TWO STORY BRICK APARTMENT BUILDING. APARTMENT # 8 IS AN UPSTAIRS APARMENT AND IS CLEARLY MARKED.

there is now located certain instruments, articles, person(s), or things, namely: (specify evidence, contraband, or person(s) to be searched for)

MARIJUANA, OR ANY CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES, AND THOSE ITEMS USED IN IT'S SALE, TRANSPORTATION, MANUFACTURE, PROTECTION, PACKAGING, COMMUNICATION EQUIPMENT, DOCUMENTS OF OCCUPANCY, WEAPONS, MONIES, OR PROPERTY DERIVED FROM THE SALES AND DISTRIBUTION OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES.

VGCSA Intent to Distribute

16-13-30(b)

The facts tending to establish probable cause that a crime has been, or is being committed and the above described instruments, articles, or things described above are presently located at the above described premises or property are as follows: (state in detail the facts that you believe create probable cause, including statement of ownership, possession, or control if known)

YOUR AFFIANT, INVESTIGATOR ARTHUR B. TESLER, CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT, HAS BEEN A LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER FOR THE PAST 6 1/2 YEARS AND IS CURRENTLY ASSIGNED TO THE CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE NARCOTICS SECTION. THIS AFFIANT'S DEDICATION AND COMMITMENT HAS ALLOWED HIM TO SERVE AND ASSIST THE CITY OF ATLANTA IN VARIOUS WAYS WITHIN THIS DEPARTMENT. THIS AFFIANT HAS BEGUN HIS DRUG INVESTIGATION CAREER AS A BEAT OFFICER IN NORTHWEST ATLANTA WHILE ASSIGNED TO ZONE TWO MORNING WATCH. THIS AFFIANT, WHILE A POLICE OFFICER WITH THE CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT HAS PARTICIPATED IN SEVERAL NARCOTICS RELATED DRUG INVESTIGATIONS RESULTING IN THE MULTIPLE ARRESTS OF VIOLATORS. THIS AFFIANT HAS PARTICIPATED AND/OR EXECUTED SEVERAL SEARCH AND SEIZURE WARRANTS INVOLVING NARCOTIC AND ARRESTS FOR FIREARMS/WEAPONS VIOLATIONS WITH THE CITY OF ATLANTA. DURING MY TENURE WITH THE ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT,

ON OCTOBER 28, 2006 CITY OF ATLANTA INVESTIGATOR G. JUNNIER AND I DIRECTED A CONFIDENTIAL AND RELIABLE INFORMANT (CRI) TO 1981 MARTIN LUTHER KING JR DR. APARTMENT #8 ATLANTA GA FULTON COUNTY TO ENTER THE APARTMENT AND PURCHASE FROM THE RESIDENT MARIJUANA. THE CRI HAS PROVEN TO BE RELIABLE IN THE PAST AND HAS PROVIDED INFORMATION LEADING TO THE SEIZURE OF BOTH COCAINE AND MARIJUANA. THE CRI WAS SEARCHED AND GIVEN $15.00 (CITY FUNDS) TO PURCHASE THE MARIJUANA FROM 1981 MARTIN LUTHER KING JR DR

APARTMENT #8, ATLANTA GA. THE CRI WAS ALLOWED TO WALK UP TO THE FRONT DOOR AND ENTER THE APARTMENT. THE CRI REMAINED INSIDE THE APARTMENT FOR LESS THAN FIVE MINUTES BEFORE EXITING THE APARTMENT AND RETURNING DIRECTLY TO ME. THE CRI IMMEDIATELY HANDED ME (1) BAG CONTAINING 1.5 GRAMS OF MARIJUANA TOTALING $15.00. THE MARIJUANA WAS LATER TURNED IN TO THE CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE PROPERTY MANAGEMENT SECTION. THE CRI WAS SEARCHED AGAIN AND DEBRIEFED. THE CRI TOLD ME THAT THE MARIJUANA WAS PURCHASED FROM A BLACK MALE NICKNAMED "SHORTY" FOR $15.00. THE CRI DESCRIBED "SHORTY" AS A BLACK MALE,5'6"- 5'7" IN HEIGHT ABOUT 140 TO 150 POUNDS WITH SHORT BLACK HAIR. SHORTY IS ABOUT 18 TO 22 YEARS IN AGE. SURVEILANCE WAS ALSO CONDUCTED THERE ON OCTOBER 26, 2006. TWO MALES WERE OBSERVED GOING TO THE APARTMENT COMING OUT AND LATER STOPPED WITH MARIJUANA THAT THEY HAD PUCHASED FROM SHORTY.

BASED ON THE AFOREMENTIONED INFORMATION AND MY LAW ENFORCEMENT EXPERIENCE IN NARCOTICS, I BELIEVE MARIJUANA IS BEING SOLD AND STORED AT 1981 MARTIN LUTHER KING JR DR APARTMENT #8, ATLANTA GA FULTON COUNTY. THEREFORE, A SEARCH WARRANT IS RESPECTFULLY REQUESTED FOR THAT LOCATION.

If you are requesting no-knock approval, list facts justifying a no-knock entry:

I swear or affirm that all of the information contained in this Affidavit and all other testimony given by me under oath is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

66. At about 12:30 pm on October 28, 2006 I directed a confidential and reliable (CRI) to the above location to purchase marijuana. The CRI was allowed to the apartment, enter the apartment, and remain inside for less than 5 minutes before returning, directly to me. The CRI was searched and briefed before entering the apartment and given $15.00 (City funds). The CRI returned to me and was debriefed and gave me one bag of marijuana about 1-5 grams. The Marijuana was turned into Property Management.

NARRATIVE

66. At about 2:00 pm on November 7, 2006 Atlanta Police Dept Narc team #1 executed a search warrant at the above locate As we arrived at the location and walked up to the door that goes to the stairways which leads up stairs to apartment #8 Miles slammed the burglar bar door shut. We were able to get the door open with no damage and Miles ran into a vacant apartment which was open. We found Miles in the vacant apartment trying to hide 7 bags of marijuana in the heating unit. We then went upstairs to apartment #8. the door was open and

APARTMENT #8, ATLANTA GA. THE CRI WAS ALLOWED TO WALK UP TO THE FRONT DOOR AND ENTER THE APARTMENT. THE CRI REMAINED INSIDE THE APARTMENT FOR LESS THAN FIVE MINUTES BEFORE EXITING THE APARTMENT AND RETURNING DIRECTLY TO ME. THE CRI IMMEDIATELY HANDED ME (1) BAG CONTAINING 1.5 GRAMS OF MARIJUANA TOTALING $15.00. THE MARIJUANA WAS LATER TURNED IN TO THE CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE PROPERTY MANAGEMENT SECTION. THE CRI WAS SEARCHED AGAIN AND DEBRIEFED. THE CRI TOLD ME THAT THE MARIJUANA WAS PURCHASED FROM A BLACK MALE NICKNAMED "SHORTY" FOR $15.00. THE CRI DESCRIBED "SHORTY" AS A BLACK MALE,5'6"- 5'7" IN HEIGHT ABOUT 140 TO 150 POUNDS WITH SHORT BLACK HAIR. SHORTY IS ABOUT 18 TO 22 YEARS IN AGE. SURVEILANCE WAS ALSO CONDUCTED THERE ON OCTOBER 26, 2006. TWO MALES WERE OBSERVED GOING TO THE APARTMENT COMING OUT AND LATER STOPPED WITH MARIJUANA THAT THEY HAD PUCHASED FROM SHORTY.

BASED ON THE AFOREMENTIONED INFORMATION AND MY LAW ENFORCEMENT EXPERIENCE IN NARCOTICS, I BELIEVE MARIJUANA IS BEING SOLD AND STORED AT 1981 MARTIN LUTHER KING JR DR APARTMENT #8, ATLANTA GA FULTON COUNTY. THEREFORE, A SEARCH WARRANT IS RESPECTFULLY REQUESTED FOR THAT LOCATION.

If you are requesting no-knock approval, list facts justifying a no-knock entry:

I swear or affirm that all of the information contained in this Affidavit and all other testimony given by me under oath is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

THE CRI REMAINED INSIDE THE APARTMENT FOR LESS THAN FIVE MINUTES BEFORE EXITING THE APARTMENT AND RETURNING DIRECTLY TO ME. THE CRI IMMEDIATELY HANDED ME (1) BAG OF MARIJUANA TOTALING $5. THE MARIJUANA WAS LATER TURNED IN TO THE CITY OF ATLANTA POLICE PROPERTY MANAGEMENT SECTION. THE CRI WAS SEARCHED AGAIN AND DEBRIEFED. THE CRI TOLD ME THAT THE MARIJUANA WAS PURCHASED FROM A BLACK MALE NICKNAMED "DRED" FOR $5.00. THE CRI DESCRIBED "DRED" AS A BLACK MALE, 5'10" IN HEIGHT ABOUT 160 POUNDS WITH SHORT DREDS IN HIS HAIR AND 2 GOLD TEETH. DRED WAS ALSO SAID TO BE ABOUT 20 TO 25 YEARS OLD.

BASED ON THE AFOREMENTIONED INFORMATION AND MY LAW ENFORCEMENT EXPERIENCE IN NARCOTICS, I BELIEVE MARIJUANA IS BEING SOLD AND STORED AT 2139 MARTIN LUTHER KING JR DRIVE NW APT #7, ATLANTA GA FULTON COUNTY. THEREFORE, A SEARCH WARRANT IS RESPECTFULLY REQUESTED FOR THAT LOCATION.

If you are requesting no-knock approval, list facts justifying a no-knock entry:

I swear or affirm that all of the information contained in this Affidavit and all other testimony given by me under oath is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

NARRATIVE

66. At about 12:50 pm on August 19, 2006, I directed a confidential and reliable informant (CRI) to the above location to purchase marijuana. The CRI was searched prior to the buy and was given $5 in city funds. The CRI was allowed to enter the apartment and remained inside for less than 5 minutes and then returned directly to me. The CRI was searched again and debriefed. The CRI turned over to me 1 bag of marijuana. The marijuana was later turned into Property Management.

Q: Prior to or during your narcotics assignment, were you trained how to write a police report?

A: Yes.

Q: Prior to or during your narcotics assignment, were you trained how to write an arrest warrant?

A: Some basic training on it, yes.

Q: Prior to or during your narcotics assignment, were you trained how to write a search warrant?

A: I don't really recall having too much on the search warrant. I remember the arrest warrant from one of the Homicide Detective during the investigator's course. During the two week training one of the Homicide Detective came out and talked about warrants. He talked some about arrest warrants for people, but I don't remember him saying about search warrants. I don't think he went too much in depth on that.

Q: So when did you learn how to write a search warrant?

A: That would be really the only time that I had any training on it.
(Interview stopped by IBPO Rep.)

I have read or had read to me the above statement and I swear or affirm that it is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Q: Ok, repeating the question, prior to or during your narcotics assignment, were you trained how to write a search warrant?

A: I had had very minimal training on that before.

Q: So when did you learn how to write a search warrant?

A: As I said, I think they covered it briefly during the two week investigator's school before I became a detective but that was well before maybe a year and a half before I became a detective. At the academy, I don't even remember if they covered it at all.

Q: Well let me ask you this, while you were in narcotics, did you even write search warrants?

A: Yes I did.

Q: Ok, so how did you learn how to write search warrants, who taught you?

A: Inv. Junnier and Inv. Vignola.

Q: Prior to or during your narcotics assignment, were you trained in the area of evidence handling?

A: Yes.

Q: Prior to or during your narcotics assignment, were you trained in the area of police integrity?

A: Yes.

Q: During your time as a Narcotics Investigator, did you attend training, either mandatory or voluntary, that was applicable to your job description as a Narcotics Detective?

A: Yes.

I have read or had read to me the above statement and I swear or affirm that it is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Q: Prior to or during your Narcotics assignment, were you trained how to use a confidential informant?

A: I don't recall any training before that, but when I got there I received a one hour instruction on how to use an informant, basically on how to pay the informant.

Q: Who taught you that?

A: Sgt. Keeble

Q: Did you feel that you were adequately trained to be a Narcotics Investigator?

A: No.

Q: Did you feel that the rest of the team was adequately trained to be Narcotics Investigators?

A: I really can't answer that for the different people about different experiences. Some people had been over there for a while, and may have had certain training. Some people had only been over there for a short time and may not have quite the training.

Q: During the course of your police career with APD, have you ever used a confidential informant?

A: Yes.

Q: Explain how you would use an informant to make a drug buy, in order to obtain a search warrant. What steps would you take during this process?

A: If it's a reliable informant, which is mainly what I work with, someone with established credibility. If they had specific knowledge of a location, you could generally get a warrant based on that by it self. You would direct the informant to go and make a purchase or find a way to collect some corroborating information about drugs at the location.

I have read or had read to me the above statement and I swear or affirm that it is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Q: Would you always search the informant before they made a drug purchase?

A: That's a requirement; well…can I confer with my rep for a second.

Q: Ok, repeating the question, would you always search the informant before they made a drug purchase?

A: No. I was advised that is was a common practice to not always conduct a physical search of the person.

Q: Who advised you that?

A: Investigator Junnier.

Q: Would you always search the informant after they made a drug purchase?

A: No, based on the common practices that were going on there at the time. I was told by them that it was required to be in the warrant, but never told what exactly the policy for Atlanta was on that.

Q: Did you ever read the SOP?

A: Not verbatim.

Q: Did you ever ask your supervisors what were the policies, Sergeant, Lieutenant, or Major?

A: I'm trying to think. I know I took several issues to Sgt. Stallings in reference to the way things were being done, but I don't know if I specifically discussed that with him.

Q: So you're saying that if you had an issue with something, you went to Sgt. Stallings and you just stopped right there?

A: Not always, a lot of times I would also discuss things with Junnier about the way things were going.

Q: But nobody outside of the team?

A: No, not about that.

Q: Did you always see the informant go to the address to make the drug purchase?

A: No.

Q: Was it common to get a confirmation buy prior to executing the warrant?

A: No I was not aware of any requirements to do that.

Q: How did Alexis White began to work for you as a confidential informant?

A: We had met him on MLK, just as a contact. He seemed to be very cooperative and had a lot of information. I gave him my name and number and he contacted me back saying that he wanted to work.

Q: Approximately how many times did you use informant Alexis White to purchase illegal drugs for you?

A: I couldn't even begin to tell you, probably more than twenty.

Q: Who taught this to you?

A: Junnier, as which again is an issue where I was continually on Junnier about this is not. We got to do this better. This is not the way we need to do business.

Q: Other than Junnier and as far as supervision, was anyone else aware?

A: I talked to Sgt. Stallings about it too.

Q: Was your Lieutenant aware?

A: I don't know, I didn't take it directly to them myself.

Q: How was informant Alexis White paid for making a drug buy for you?

A: I used city funds.

Q: Was it common to have Alexis White or any other informant to sign blank vouchers?

A: Sometimes yes.

Q: What was your purpose for having informants to sign blank vouchers?

A: My purpose was strictly making it easier to get them paid. Say we served a search warrant and recovered drugs and I had to get him paid. That way I didn't have to go meet them if I didn't have vouchers or whatever. It helped me to clear my paperwork when I had to clear it.

Q: Are you familiar with the term "Padding Vouchers"?

A: Yes.

Q: Have you ever heard the term "Cushion you're Buy"?

A: No.

Q: Have you ever been instructed or encouraged by your supervisor to "Pad Vouchers"?

A: I know that Junnier was involved in it, I don't know how much Sgt. Stallings was involved in it, I just don't recall. I had been on a buy with Alex and I thought I had picked up the practice from before, but then it was explained to me about padding vouchers and that's the way it was done in narcotics. I had taken Alex out and I think I had gotten him something to eat from McDonalds because we had been out for a while. I came back in and wrote the report for taking him to eat and I did an extra voucher for getting him something to eat. Then I was told that's not how we do it. If it was five dollars for something to eat, just add five dollars to you buy and turn it in. I tried to do it the way it was supposed to be done and then I was told that's not how we do it. I mean it was a common practice; a lot of people did that.

Q: Were there other people, excluding your team?

A: I'm not even sure what tem they were assigned to.

Q: Who was in charge of the vouchers?

A: Sgt. Keeble was in charge of the vouchers.

Q: Was he aware that investigators were padding vouchers?

A: I don't know. I mean I never discussed it with him.

Q: But you said that it was common to pad vouchers?

A: I mean I'm not aware of people using it for anything personal; it was always for something dealing with the department.

Q: Can you give me some examples of something other than food?

A: Like if you used an informant all day long and he was driving his car, to compensate him for using his gas and stuff you might pad it to give him some extra money to pay for his gas.

I have read or had read to me the above statement and I swear or affirm that it is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Q: Have you ever used your personal vehicle to make a drug buy, before or during work?

A: I have not.

Q: Do you have any personal knowledge of any other officer or investigator using their personal vehicle to make drug buys?

A: Yes.

Q: Who?

A: Sgt. Stallings, Gregg Junnier, Gary Smith, and Curtis Davenport. When I went to narcotics we had two undercover cars.

Q: So they pretty much used their cars because of lack of resources?

A: Yes, lack of resources.

Q: To your knowledge, were your supervisors aware of investigators using their personal vehicles to make drug buys?

A: Yes.

Q: How far up the chain of command are we talking?

A: At least Sgt. Stallings knew because he was one of the people. I don't know past that.

Q: Have you ever used any other confidential informant to make a drug buy other than Alexis White?

A: Yes, I used "Toy" which was one of Junnier's informants. During that time I may have used somebody else's at one time, but Toy and Alex were to two principle ones.

Q: Did you use informant Alexis White to purchase drugs from 674 Alta Place on December 10, 2004? (Case #04-345-1398)

A: Yes I did use Alex to make this buy.

Q: Who else was present with you during the drug buy?

A: I think it was just Alex and myself, we were by ourselves. Just Alex White and my self, I was driving a green Ford Explorer. I don't know if I picked him up at the Marta station or at Collier and H. E. Holmes.

Q: Looking at the warrant here in the second paragraph, can you explain why you said that Investigator Maurice Geurin was also with you and Alex?

A: Because I had been told that anytime we write a warrant that policy require that we always had to have two people to go and make a buy. Anytime you go make a buy with an informant, you always had to have two people by policy. It was a lot of times because of manpower issues and such; you had to do stuff with the informant by yourself. You just couldn't get everybody coordinated to go with you. I was told by Vignola and Junnier to always have a second investigator to go with me, whenever I do the paperwork for a buy because that's what the policy says. But on this particular day it was just Alex White and myself.

Q: So actually what you put in the warrant was not true? I mean the part about having Inv. Geurin with you?

A: It was not accurate, no.

Q: Can you tell me why Alex White would tell the FBI that he never made a drug buy at all from 674 Alta Place on December 10, 2004?

A: Probably because he knows some of these guys. I mean I searched him and I watched him go to this location, so I know he made the buy. I parked on the street perpendicular to Alta and watched him walk right up to the house and make the buy.

I have read or had read to me the ~~above~~ statement and I swear or affirm that it is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Q: So it is your statement that Alex White did make a buy, even though he said that he didn't?

A: Yes, that's correct.

Q: There was no one else that could have witness that, because you were alone with him?

A: That's correct.

Q: Did you use informant Alexis White to purchase drugs from 940 Bolton Road, Apt A-5 on January 4, 2006? (Case #06-004-1863)

A: Yes.

Q: Do you remember any details about that one?

A: Not really, it was kind of a generic thing and I remembered the other one because it was kind of a big hit.

Q: Is there any reason why former APD Investigator Gregg Junnier would say that he took Alex White to 940 Bolton Rd. on 01/04/06, to make the drug buy and you were not present?

A: Is there any reason that he would say that. I would like to talk to Rachael for a second if you don't mind. (Took a break)

A: Yes sir.

Q: Is there any reason why former APD Investigator Gregg Junnier would say that he took Alex White to 940 Bolton Rd on 01/04/06, to make the drug buy and you were not present?

Q: Is it your recollection, or are you saying that you took Alex to that location for a drug buy? Can you say that?

A: No I can't say that, because I don't really remember. I mean nothing about it makes it stand out from other warrants. We did several warrants around 940 Bolton

Q: Are you saying that the details in the warrant or in the buy report, could they be false?

A: Again I really don't specifically remember this one to really say.

Q: If you, in fact, did take Alex on this drug buy would you be the person to turn the drugs into property?

A: Well it says that the drugs were recovered by Junnier, it just depends on how we were working it that day.

Q: Can you explain why police reports records show that former APD Investigator Junnier turned in the drugs seized from 940 Bolton Rd, A-5 to police property on 01/04/06?

A: Well the drug report turn in is in my hand writing.

Q: What about the name for reporting officer?

A: It's got reporting officer Gregg Junnier, his name is on it.

Q: Did he write his name or did you write it?

A: I wrote his name.

A: Yes, according to the voucher.

Q: Is there any reason why former APD Investigator Gregg Junnier would say that he took Alex White to 3775 M.L.K. Jr. Drive apartment C-2, to make the drug buy and you were not present?

A: Again this one doesn't stand out to me for any particular reason, I mean if you got the affidavit of the warrant so I could look at. It says here that the informant was directed to the location to make a buy.

Q: Do you have any recollection of that particular day?

A: No.

Q: Can you explain why records indicate that former APD Investigator Junnier turned in the drugs seized from 3775 M.L.K. Jr. Drive on 03/30/05?

A: Not specifically, I mean sometimes when we worked together we would pretty much do paperwork together. Then after we did the buys, we would figure out which ones we wanted to handle.

A: Yes.

Q: How many times?

A: I don't know

Q: Do you want to explain your reasoning why you did it?

A: Again, if I wrote an affidavit saying that I was with another officer because it was common practice to make sure that you had two people on your search warrants and obviously that's not factually correct. But every search warrant I ever wrote I confirmed the buy with the informant, to make sure that the facts were true. That they had been to the place where they said that they had been that they bought from who they said that they bought.

Q: Other than to confirm that there was another investigator was there was there anything else?

A: I want to talk to her for a second. (Rachael)

Q: I asked you if there were any others incidents where you would falsify an affidavit or a police report to obtain a search warrant.

A: In the area of searching people, and I still don't know the policy for APD, obviously if an investigator went and made the purchase and past that on to me and I said that I searched them, then that would be inaccurate. If I said I was with somebody and they're weren't with me or if I wasn't with them, then that would be inaccurate too, which were common practices. Somebody might do something and pass it to somebody else.

Q: Was it common practice to have one investigator to make a drug buy and give the information to another investigator so that they could draft the affidavits and search warrants as if they conducted the drug buy? (This practice is known as a "Hand-Off")

A: Yes.

Q: Was this just common with your team?

A: I know it was certainly common with our team, I don't know about the other team I didn't work with them enough to know how they did things. Again this is an issue I stayed on Gregg about, you know I said that this is not the way we need to do it. In my case I would meet with Gregg the night before, set up when to come in to work the next day to meet the informant together to go out and make the buys. I would come in to work and find out that Gregg had been out two hours earlier already with the informant and made the buys.

Q: Then he would just give you the information.

A: Right, he would past that on to me and I would confirm it with the informant.

Q: Did you ever think about writing the warrant up as being third party information?

A: I did but I was told by Vignola and Junnier to write it that way because if you keep putting everybody's name in it, everybody will have to go to court, then you'll be tying everybody else in court and the logic was that you were trying to spread the workload among the team. I mean everybody wasn't in court on a warrant that you did a buy on; of course there was no justification for it. At the time it seems like the way things were being done and it was the way things were being done at the time.

Q: Are you familiar with the term "Nine and Two", within the Narcotics Division?

A: Yes

Q: Did this term only apply to Team One?

A: From my understanding, that was the bottom requirements for the entire narcotics unit to make nine arrests and two search warrants per month. I found it hard to do that in narcotics because you could hardly get people to work. It was easier to write 200 tickets a month in DUI.

Q: Did you ever fall short of the requirements?

A: I don't know.

Q: Were there any other team members that fell short of the requirements?

A: I'm not sure, but I know at the end of the month people would scramble because they didn't have their numbers. I know Sgt. Stallings spoke with me about helping other people out who didn't have their numbers. If I had a search warrant and had a lot of arrests in it, to pass some of them off to other people.

Q: What were the consequences for people who didn't make the nine and two requirement?

A: I don't know who didn't make it, but I know that if they didn't think that you were doing a good job up there, they would try to get rid of you. You would be reassigned somewhere else.

Q: Are you aware of the tactic "Knock and Talk"?

A: Yes.

Q: Explain exactly how the "Knock and Talk" tactic worked?

A: Basically you would talk to somebody and try to get consent to conduct a search for narcotics.

Q: Do you have specific knowledge of incidents where a "Knock and Talk" was used to gain access to a person's home and conduct searches for drugs without probable cause or a warrant?

A: Yes.

Q: Share that with me please.

A: From my understanding there was no requirement for probable cause to do a knock and talk. If you had a suspicion about a place and if you talked to the person and they give you consent to search it that was all you needed from my understanding.

Q: Yes consent, but I'm saying without probable cause. You didn't have a warrant, you didn't have consent, but you searched the place anyway.

A: No, I never did the knock and talk without consent

Q: Do you recall an arrest you made on a Mr. Oscar Harris on April 20, 2006, where he turned you and your team members on to his supplier who had an additional twenty pounds of marijuana? (Case #06-110-1318)

A: I remember some of it yes.

Q: Tell me about that particular incident and how the arrest went down?

A: We executed a search warrant at 1640 S. Gordon, I think that canine hit on a car outside, which was Mr. Jones' car. Mr. Jones gave us information on Mr. Harris, and we called Mr. Harris I think. Yes, Mr. Jones called Mr. Harris and asked to bring an additional 20 pounds or so of marijuana to the location. He brought the marijuana and we took him down at the location. He then gave us the location where he got the marijuana from. We went to that location. We actually conferred with the District Attorney's Office, and we got a couple of different answers on how to handle this one. We went to the resident where this buyer was supposed to be at, to conduct a knock and talk, and upon knocking they ran out the back door and took off. I think we got 50 more pounds.

I remember we went there to do the knock and talk, the guy ran out the back door, and I think we did go. I don't know if it was me or whoever but I think we did go and get a warrant.

Q: Do you remember the location?

A: I remember it was zone four but I don't remember the exact address.

Q: So the question was did you or any of your team members get a search warrant for that location?

A: I don't specifically recall, but I would have thought that I would have secured a search warrant after we tried to do the knock and talk.

Q: Are you familiar with the phrase "Freezing the Scene"?

A: Yes.

Q: Have you ever entered anyone's home or business without probable cause and detained everybody until someone from your team could go and secure a search warrant?

A: That's kind of a hard question to answer, because Inv. Junnier was usually pretty good at talking himself into somewhere. Basically if you're freezing the scene like on the knock and talk that we did on the other incident. If you go there you're asking for consent, if people start running out the back they're showing you that they are not planning on. I mean it obvious that there is something going on that rises up to reasonable suspicion or probable cause. So at that point and time you're able to freeze the scene. If you go somewhere under a tip from somebody or if somebody gives you information on a place and you go there to talk to them, depending on what rises there when you talking to them may provide you the probable cause to go freeze it and go get a search warrant. If you smell marijuana or see drug paraphernalia or whatever, I can't tell you what

Q: Have you witnessed instances where other team members would take DVD movies from homes or apartments during a drug search warrant and keep them for their own personal use?

A: I'm not sure.

Q: Have you answered these questions truthfully and accurate?

A: Yes.

Q: Would you like to add anything else to your statement at this time?

A: Let me talk to Rachael for a second. Yes, before I went to narcotics, I asked somebody I knew from the DA's office, "Who I need to learn from when I go there". They told me Gregg Junnier was the person who does an outstanding job in narcotics. That was the team I ended up getting assigned to. When I went over there the team was very fractured. People came to work when they wanted to; they left when they wanted to. Have of the team didn't show up for the first several hours. So anytime you tried to get together with anybody and work, it was like pulling teeth. You could never find anybody. We had two undercover cars for the whole team and the cars had been there for a while. One of them ran some times, one of them ran most of the time and people were unfamiliar with me and didn't know who I was. I was kind of straight-laced and nobody wanted to work with me. Junnier was the only one that took me under his wings and worked with me. He introduced me to "Toy" and showed me how to do things, and they seemed to be legitimate the way he was doing them. I do wish going over there that I had more training. Basically it was on the job training with the people you were with and them telling you how to do stuff. So out of this tragedy, training has been made an issue over there. We were short on people; we were down to two teams and expected to cover six zones of area. Issues I saw, I took to my Sergeant and he took me aside several times and talked to me about trying to fit in better with the team. Issues I saw, I took to Gregg, and I said this is not. As I did get to go to training I said this is not how we need to do it. It needs to be changed, we need to change and you need to change it. Gregg was out of control on his extra job stuff, that seem to be what drove him, but also it was like a 80 to 90 percent split. He basically ran the team, I mean Sgt. Stallings was a great person, but he didn't manage the team or do the things that he needed to do to keep it in check. He was aware of the things that were going on. I felt that because of the assignment and working with people serving warrants and things like that, it was better to go with what I was being told, instead of trying to question things. It appeared that these things had been going on for a long time, but I did try to get Gregg to do things differently. I tried to get Sgt. Stallings to rein Gregg in and bring him under control. I had a talk with Sgt. Stallings and he told me, "I don't care how we got these people as long as they were dirty just get them". At that point and time I knew that I was over my head but also for about the first year and a half that I was over there, narcotics was a very gray area of an assignment, you're often right on the edge of stuff. You were pushing things to the edge, so for me it was a difficult assignment because I'm a very kind of black and white person. That's kind of all I have to say.

Q: So you're saying that you never went to anyone about your issues other than Gregg Junnier and Sgt. Stallings. You never consulted with anyone with higher rank or lateral rank.

A: No, I was always told to keep things between the team. Sgt. Stallings said to keep things between the team.

Q: So you never went to your Lieutenant?

A: No, well the Lieutenant we had at the time acted like he was there on retirement and he was not engaged or involved at all.

Written Notice of Allegations

Employee: Cary Bond APD ID # 0630 OPS#: 09-I-0206-SOP

Allegation:

The department requires an investigation into the allegations that Investigator Cary Bond failed to follow Atlanta Police Department guidelines, policies, and procedures while working as a Narcotics Investigator and during narcotics investigations.

APD.SOP.2010:WR/4.2.33

According to APD.SOP.2020 your responsibilities, restrictions, and rights as an employee are:

3.4 Employee Responsibilities

- All employees must answer questions and/or make available any relevant materials or sworn statements concerning an investigation of employee misconduct when directed to do so by a disciplinary authority or duly appointed investigator. Employees will provide all relevant information and materials and answer all questions honestly, completely, and to the best of their ability. An employee's refusal to cooperate and provide sworn statements, answers, or relevant materials during an authorized administrative investigation will result in disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.
- Any employee reporting for duty under the influence of any substance such as prescription medications, alcohol, over the counter medications, or other substances that, while legal, may adversely affect the judgment or performance of that employee during duty hours, must notify his or her immediate supervisor prior to commencing work.

3.5 Employee Restrictions

Except as authorized, in an investigation into employee misconduct, employees may not:

- Interfere with the complaint investigation in any manner
- Independently participate in the investigation
- Be present during any investigative contact with a complainant or with witness involved in the investigation
- Contact the complainant or witness concerning the allegations; or
- Discuss the existence or facts of a complaint with anyone except designated Department authorities conducting the investigation. This restriction will not be construed to prohibit an employee from discussing any aspects of a complaint with his or her attorney or other representative, or to prevent his or her attorney from developing information for his or her defense.

3.6 Employee Rights

- All employees have the right to have an attorney or other representative present during questioning in an administrative investigation. However, any employee who is either an accused employee or a witness in a complaint investigation may not act in the capacity of representative for any other employee being questioned as an accused or witness in that complaint investigation. An employee's representative shall be allowed to consult with the employee, and to object to questions, but shall not delay or interfere with the questioning process. Any objections to the form or content of the questions will be noted, but the employee shall still be required to answer fully and completely any and all questions presented during the investigation. An employee cannot delay questioning for more than three hours beyond the time he or she was given notice to appear for the questioning.
- All employees will be issued a written statement of the allegations (i.e., complainant's statement or preliminary complaint form) and the employee's rights and responsibilities relative to the investigation against him/her prior to any questioning.
- All employees who are subject to any form of discipline, whether non-adverse or adverse action, will be given written documentation of the disciplinary action taken. This written documentation must state the work rule which applies to the disciplinary action taken, information and/or documentation supporting the alleged work rule violation, and the disciplinary action that was taken. Employees must sign the written documentation stating that they have been notified of the disciplinary action taken. The employee's signature does not constitute an admission of guilt or wrongdoing, it serves only as receipt of the written documentation of disciplinary action and notification of the same.
- The employee against whom a complaint has been filed may review the investigative folder upon completion of that investigation. The OPS commander will designate the area where the folder is to be reviewed and establish rules governing the review of the folder.
- If the employee is being questioned as a suspect in a criminal investigation, the employee will be afforded complete Miranda Rights.
- Administrative statements made by employees and evidence gained as a result of such statements shall not be used against the employee in criminal proceedings involving the employee except in cases of perjury.

I have received a copy of the allegation(s) and my rights and responsibilities relative to the investigation against me as the accused prior to any questioning.

Q: During your time as a Narcotics Investigator, did you attend training, either mandatory or voluntary, that was applicable to your job description as a Narcotics Detective?

A: Yes

Q: Prior to or during your Narcotics assignment, were you trained how to use a confidential informant?

A: Yes.

Q: Did you feel that you were adequately trained to be a Narcotics Investigator?

A: Yes and no.

Q: Can you explain that statement?

A: I felt that there was much more information that I needed before my first buy or executed my first warrant or my first search warrant. I feel like from guidance from my teammates and my supervisor, I was able to learn as I went. I'm sure you have read pretty much everything that I've done and if you look at my first search warrant I wrote and the last search warrant I wrote, you can see the difference, as far as better written or better details.

Q: Looking at your first search warrant that you wrote, I mean you weren't so inexperience that you had to go to your supervisor and say, "I'm not ready to write a warrant". I mean did you feel that at least you were ready to do some on the job training?

A: Well my very first search warrant was given to me by my team leader, Gregg Junnier, and he walked me through exactly what to put in my search warrant. He read over it and made sure it was perfect, I typed it up and went over and got it signed, and then we executed it.

Q: Did you feel that the rest of the team was adequately trained to be Narcotics Investigators?

A: Yes, maybe with the exceptions of the people who came in with me the same time that I did.

I have read or had read to me the above statement and I swear or affirm that it is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Q: During the course of your police career with APD, have you ever used a confidential informant?

A: Not until I got to narcotics.

Q: Explain how you would use an informant to make a drug buy, in order to obtain a search warrant. What steps would you take during this process?

A: What do you mean?

Q: I mean what steps would you take if you had an informant and you wanted to purchase drugs from a house?

A: We would meet and discuss the details of the information, which would be sometimes vague, and sometimes very detailed. I would tell them what I knew about the location, weather it was weed, crack, or meth. If I had a description of the seller, I would tell them who that is. We would go through that interview.

Q: Would you always search the informant before they made a drug purchase?

A: The best I could yes.

Q: Would you always search the informant after they made a drug purchase?

A: The best I could.

Q: Did you always see the informant go to the address to make the drug purchase?

A: No.

Q: Was it common to get a confirmation buy prior to executing the warrant?

A: At first no. I wasn't told that this was something that I needed to do. Later on, when I begin to grow and learn form my mistakes and experiences, I knew that it was the thing to do, especially if

Q: As far as supervision goes, did they require you to do confirmation buys?

A: No, I was never told that I had to do a confirmation buy.

Q: Not from your team leader, Sergeant, Lieutenant, or anyone else in your chain of command?

A: No, nobody require me to do confirmation buys.

Q: Are you aware of what the SOP says?

A: Vaguely now, that all this has happen; I would say that I know a whole lot about it now, than I did then.

Q: How did Alexis White began to work for you as a confidential informant?

A: He never worked for me; he assisted me a few times.

Q: Approximately how many times did you use informant Alexis White to purchase illegal drugs for you?

A: I couldn't tell you, I would say more than five times, but less than ten.

Q: Did you ever allow informant Alexis White or any other informant go and make drug buys on their own?

A: No. I always double checked everything. I couldn't tell you that I always saw everything and saw him go to the door and make a hand to hand transaction, because that was not easy for me to do. I mean by me being a white female and we bought drugs from a predominantly black neighborhood.

Q: How was informant Alexis White paid for making a drug buy for you?

A: There was a set amount, maybe ten dollars for marijuana and twenty dollars for cocaine.

Q: Was it common to have Alexis White or any other informant to sign blank vouchers?

A: I mean I know from the FBI that it did happen, but that was not a common practice for me. The only time that I would have my CI to sign a blank voucher is if we were moving from place to place and I was trying to jot everything down and he would look at it a see that it was cool. It was not a common practice for me to say here is a stack of vouchers and sign them. I always tried to make time to document everything, including the police report.

Q: Did you ever use [redacted] as a documented registered informant?

A: No. He wasn't a registered informant.

Q: Did you use him?

A: Yes.

Q: How did you use him, if he wasn't a registered informant?

A: He was introduced to me by supervisor Sgt. Stallings and I was told that he was trying to help clean up his neighborhood, and he just liked working with the police. I didn't have any reason to doubt what my supervisor was telling me so I was like ok. I was told that he was trustworthy and that he would give really good information.

Q: Did Lt. Gibbs know about [redacted]?

Q: Have you ever had [redacted] to sign a blank voucher?

A: Only if they weren't completely filled out it wasn't just here are a stack of vouchers, sign these. I mean there might have been a time when I had him to sign four of these and then we would go out and make four buys and fill them out as we go along, but he never signed a voucher that left his possession without being filled out.

Q: Did you ever use [redacted] as the informant and pay [redacted] for actually making the drug buy?

A: No, him and [redacted] would come and ride together and to me I thought it was a good idea. The two them seem to be more safe in my opinion because I had to keep my distance from them and I'm not always able to see if somebody would open up with a baseball bat or something. With two of them being there side by side, I figured I couldn't go wrong, I got better descriptions, and better protection for them, but when the money changed hands it went straight from my hand to Jermaine's hand. If Jermaine gave his money to his daddy, then that was on him.

Q: Are you familiar with the term "Padding Vouchers"?

A: No.

Q: Have you ever heard the term "Cushion your Buy"?

A: Yes, I heard it from Sgt. Stallings

Q: Have you heard any other supervisors' use the term "Cushion your Buy"?

A: No

Q: What did Sgt. Stallings mean by saying "Cushion your Buy"?

A: He wanted me to mark up the amount of the dope. For instance, if the dope was a $30 hit, he wanted me to say that it was a $50 hit.

Q: What would you do with the other $20?

A: Give it to him.

Q: Give it to whom?

A: Sgt. Stallings, but I wasn't comfortable doing that and when he told me to do it I was like "What for". Apparently he had given Curt some money out of his pocket and he wanted it back. I mean I felt like that was stealing, so I didn't do it. I took $20 out of my own pocket and handed it to him. It was my money, now whether the thinks that I padded it or cushioned it, I don't know, but I handed him $20 of my money. He never asked me to do it again.

Q: Have you ever written a drug voucher in a way so that you could get extra money for you or your informant?

A: No.

Q: Have you ever used your personal vehicle to make a drug buy, before or during work?

A: It depends, are you referring to a buy, or picking up drugs. We use to get phone calls from Fed X about recovering a box of marijuana and they would call us and we would go and get it. We would make an attempt to deliver it. Sometimes it worked and sometimes it didn't, the Fed X hub is out at the airport and I live in Jonesboro. I would stop and pick up the drugs on my way to work.

Q: Once you got to work would you use your personal vehicle?

Q: Do you have any personal knowledge of any other officer or investigator using their personal vehicle to make drug buys?

A: No.

Q: To your knowledge, were your supervisors aware of investigators using their personal vehicles to make drug buys?

A: No, I have no idea.

Q: Have you ever used any other confidential informant to make a drug buy other than Alexis White or [redacted]?

A: Yes, I only know their first names, [redacted] and Gurein was his handler, [redacted] and she was working with Lucas. Another one was "[redacted]". The three of them are all registered CI.

Q: Did you use informant Alexis White to purchase drugs from 3575 Boulder Park Drive?

A: I went with Alex White to that location and he was instructed to make a buy from that apartment. I can't remember what the circumstance was, but the buy was not made from the apartment and he went with somebody who he was talking to and they made a hand to hand transaction in the park area. He was paid because he did make a purchase from that person. I didn't want to be an asshole because he did come out and he made an attempt for me. He did buy from a hand to hand transaction, I didn't have a take-down team and there was no way I could make an arrest without blowing his cover as well as my own. I always want to protect the CI at all cost, but he was paid for making a hand to hand transaction and another CI was used to make a purchase from that apartment and the warrant was executed.

The FBI wouldn't let me see any of this stuff, so I'm going totally off memory from a long time ago. That's the best I can explain that.

Q: Did you use informant Alexis White to purchase drugs from 350 Lanier Street Apt. C-6 on August 05, 2005?

A: I personally did not.

Q: You did not?

A: No, the purchase was made by Gregg Junnier. That was the warrant that I was previously speaking of that was given to me. If I can recall correctly, that was my very first narcotics search warrant I ever written.

Q: So, in this particular case, you're saying that you were not even in the vicinity, you were in fact somewhere else?

A: I could not tell you where I was at. I could have been there, I may not have. I do not remember specific details about it, so I can not tell you honestly where I was at, but I know that the information provided in that warrant was provided by Gregg Junnier. He told me exactly what I needed to put in that warrant and I put it in there, I signed the voucher, gave Junnier back his money, everything, but I was not the person who said, "Alex go to 350 Lanier Street to whatever apartment you said and make a buy." That was not me.

Q: As far as you swearing out the warrant, in the affidavit did you say that it was you. I mean were you taught to do that?

Q: So you're saying that you made the mistake of leaving it out or you didn't have knowledge of what you were supposed to do?

A: I did not know that that was supposed to be in there. I've been told that I've been told that that was supposed to be in there. But being told that it was supposed to be in there and typing it up and my team leader proof reading it after it was typed up and it wasn't in there then. He said that it was perfect; I didn't really believe that there was anything wrong with the warrant. I didn't know that there was anything wrong with until the day the FBI handed me a letter saying that I was a person of interest, and what I was a person of interest for. I had no idea that what I did was wrong, because I've always been taught, even in court, that I can testify as a police officer to what my partner saw. I had no reason to question, not to mention the fact that I didn't think that he would give me false information. I had no reason that anything that I wrote was out of the ordinary, against SOP, breaking policy, nothing. I had no reason to doubt him, he had been in the unit for however many years, much longer that me, and Sgt. Stallings told me from the get go, if I have any questions, Junnier was the person to ask, so I said ok.

Q: Here's a copy of the warrant package, take a look at that if you don't mind?

A: It's written as if I was there, but like I told the FBI, I can't say for a fact that I wasn't there and I can't say for a fact that I was there. I know that this warrant is written exactly the way he said to me it happen. He used the word, "I", and I wrote the word, I. He used the words "I did", then that's what I wrote. Whatever he said, that's what I wrote, and I know why I'm being questioned on this. The FBI tore me apart with it, but it is nothing more than a mistake. I mean right here, he wrote up the property sheet. I wrote up the police report. The police report is his words and my writing, therefore had it said the above listed information was provided by Gregg Junnier, we wouldn't be in here having this conversation, but I didn't know that it had to be in there. I didn't realize that what I had written was wrong, I had no idea that the statement had to be in the affidavit or police report. I do know that know. He dictated every word and as he said it I wrote it. It didn't occur to me that I should be writing that Inv. Junnier, Inv. Junnier, instead of I, I, I. It just didn't occur to me; call me stupid or whatever but this was the first warrant I ever wrote.

Q: Ok, even when you took the warrant affidavit to the judge to be signed before the execution and the judge would ask you if you swear that everything that's in the affidavit is true and accurate, your saying that you in no way felt that you were deceptive or deceiving the judge in order to get them to sign the warrant?

A: No, and I mean I don't think if the statement was in there or not, it would have changed the judges decision to sign the warrant, I mean up until now. Gregg Junnier was a very well known investigator and I had no reason to doubt that what he was telling me was true. I swore to the facts being true and accurate to best of my beliefs. I mean had the judge said are you the person that did all of this, is this you, I would have said no that it was my partner Gregg Junnier. She probably would have said well that needs to be incorporated into the warrant in some form or fashion. I don't know exactly because I can't speak to how the judge would react or say anything, but it was not done intentionally. I did not intentionally try to deceive anybody or lead anybody in the wrong direction. I just, it was a rookie mistake that, I'm not going to do it again, that's for sure.

Q: So that warrant was in September of 2005, when did you start feeling comfortable, that you could write your own warrants?

A: I don't know the exact date, I mean if you could pull all the warrants maybe one by one I could go through them and maybe tell you, but I think there are three or four, hell there maybe even five. I don't know for a 100% fact. Every time I used Alex, except for the one where he made the hand to hand by the apartment, it could have very well been that Junnier was there. I had to be fairly close, I may not have been the person who did all of this, and it's a possibility that I was. I can't say that for a 100% fact, but this doesn't even sound like, I don't even remember the warrant. Did we execute it? Yes, ooh yea I do remember this. We lost the element of surprised something fierce because the guy walk outside just as we were pulling up. I do remember executing the warrant, but I do not remember the buy though.

Q: So was that one a "Hand Off" from Gregg Junnier?

A: It could be I don't want to say for a 100% fact that it is, but it could be yes.

Q: This one is 580 Mayland Ave, did you do this one?

A: I was in the vicinity on this one. Mayland Ave if this is where the house is and there is a row of houses and this is Metropolitan Pkwy. There is a street that circles around to Mayland Ave and I was on this side, so I could see the back of the house. I don't remember if somebody took him up to the house or… This may very well be a "Hand Off" too. It doesn't make sense the way it's written. It says prior to my arrival I search to CS for money and drugs and found nothing. The CS was then given $50 of city issued funds and allowed to go to the location. The CS returned and handed me a large piece of crack cocaine. There's reference to time or whether the CS ever left my sight.

It doesn't sound like I witness it because there's not enough detail, and I can't tell you where I was at or whether I was there or not. I understand that this is frustrating and crazy, but I swear to you that I didn't know that this was wrong. He wrote the property sheet, I wrote this, but I didn't write this. I didn't sign my name to that either, I couldn't tell you who did. I've had my identity stolen a couple of times and I realized that if you can't read my signature, then it is hard to duplicate it. I wrote the warrant, and there's all that "I" crap again. If I had just known, if I had just known that the statement needed to be in there, it would have been there, I guarantee you it would have been there. I just did not know that what I was doing was not correct.

Q: We have one more and this is from 2479 Abner Terrance #41 on May 25, 2006?

A: Is this the one Alex is saying that he didn't make the buy from the house? See if I would have just wrote in there Alex's number or something so I could distinguish one from the other. To the best of my knowledge, and like I said that this has been some time ago, Alex White was paid for a hand to hand transaction and not for a buy out of the apartment.

Q: Ok that was on Abner Terrence?

A: Yes.

Q: Ok the first one I asked you about was on Boulder Park?

A: This is the one I thought you were talking about.

I have read or had read to me the above statement and I swear or affirm that it is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Q: No, the first warrant was 3575 Boulder Park?

A: Who was the suspect in it?

Q: I don't have that one. That is the one warrant package that I don't have.

A: Because this is the one I thought you were talking about.

Q: This is the one that Alex said that he did not make a buy.

A: I certainly see where there is conflicting information here, because it says on here tattoo and the address and everything. I can straight up be wrong on this one. It may well be that the other CI couldn't get the buy and Alex did. Like right here there's not an apartment number listed and down here there is. I could have very well just screwed the pooch on this one. This was me, I do know this. This was me, but I could have just very well just absolutely screwed this all up because the information here is not coinciding with what I was thinking. The voucher and the buy report and the affidavit for the warrant all go together. I could be wrong but they all go together. I know what Alex accused me of doing, so do you want me to answer that.

Q: Ok, go ahead.

A: Alex accused me of getting a voucher that he had signed that was blank and paying another CI using his number. That's what I was accused of doing, but there was nothing to justify that and the FBI told my attorney that it was dismissed with prejudice and the City of Atlanta attorney called me and told me that Alex couldn't sue me anymore, and I was removed from the lawsuit. I know what he accused me of doing, but I can tell you right now that this right here was signed by him and this right here was filled out on the computer, for the simple fact that my name here was done on the computer. That part was filled out before I ever went to him and had him to sign this and Bond was with me apparently. Well I can't say that he was with me, with me, but he signed it as a witness. Now I may be wrong about everything I told you a few minutes ago and I may be wrong about what I'm telling you here but to the best of knowledge. I don't want to give you any false information and I don't want to mislead you no further than I already have with the leaving the statement out of the warrant. It was not intentional

Q: So just to clear some things up I'm going to ask you some questions that we kind of danced around. Have you ever made a false statement on an affidavit or police report, to obtain a search warrant or an arrest warrant?

A: Not intentionally no.

Q: Was it common practice to have one investigator to make a drug buy and give the information to another investigator so that they could draft the affidavits and search warrants as if they conducted the drug buy? (This practice is known as a "Hand-Off")

A: As far as if they conducted it, I don't know about that. I know that I wrote it up word for word the way Gregg Junnier told me and it was in his words, but it made it sound like it was in my words, because my name is at the bottom of the warrant and the top of the warrant. I know for a fact that mine are screwed up, but it was not done intentionally. That one statement was left out solely by mistake, and it's just inexperience on my part that I did not add that one statement. As far as everybody else goes, I don't know. I can't comment on that.

Q: Have you ever accepted a hand-off from another officer or investigator in order to obtain a search warrant for drugs at a particular address or location, besides Gregg Junnier?

A: No I don't think so. I think that he is the only person.

Q: Have you ever given a hand-off to another officer or investigator and they used the information to obtain a search warrant for a particular address or location?

A: Not where a buy was made, I have provided or given information, but not where a buy was made.

Q: Are you familiar with the term "Nine and Two", within the Narcotics Division?

A: Yes.

Q: Explain the "Nine and Two system?

A: Nine bodies and two search warrants.

Q: What happen if investigators didn't come up with nine bodies and two search warrants within a month? What happen to them?

A: Nothing that I know of.

Q: So there was no type of counseling, discipline, or taking of their off days?

A: No, definitely not taking of the off days because I would have noticed that, and as far as the other stuff goes I never heard anybody say that they got their butt chewed out or anything like that. I know that it didn't happen to me.

Q: Was this "Nine and Two system just word of mouth or was there something in writing?

A: I understand that it is somewhere in writing, but it was word of mouth to me, from my team leader.

Q: How far up the chain of command did everybody know about the "Nine and Two" system? Did your team leader, Sergeant, and Lieutenant know about this system?

A: I would imagine so, but I don't know. I know for a fact that my supervisor knew because he would be standing there. I flat out asked "What's our quota", jokingly you know and Junnier told me nine bodies and two search warrants.

Q: Is that what Junnier told you?

A: No, before we go to the next question I think I was called to assist on freezing the scene but it was not my case. I didn't start it or get the warrant, but I do think I was called to the scene to assist on that.

Q: Ok, do you have any knowledge that what was happening was illegal or a violation of somebody's rights?

A: No, I mean I didn't know why they were there, I was just told to come and assist. I don't know who went to get the warrant, all I know is that I just stood by the door. I do know that Junnier and J. R. were there. I don't know if Tesler was there. I remember that we were on Simpson Road, and it was a very small apartment complex. Are you asking me this question specifically to the Dill Ave thing?

(Comment: No.)

Q: Have you answered these questions truthfully and accurate?

A: As best as I could yes, I mean I can't say that I didn't make mistakes in my statement, but I did not lie to you though.

ATLANTA POLICE DEPARTMENT
Written Notice of Allegations

Employee: Holly Buchanan APD ID # 2283 OPS#: 09-I-0206-SOP

Allegation:

The department requires an investigation into the allegations that Investigator Holly Buchanan failed to follow Atlanta Police Department guidelines, policies, and procedures while working as a Narcotics Investigator and during narcotics investigations.

APD.SOP.2010:WR/4.2.33

According to APD.SOP.2020 your responsibilities, restrictions, and rights as an employee are:

3.4 Employee Responsibilities

- All employees must answer questions and/or make available any relevant materials or sworn statements concerning an investigation of employee misconduct when directed to do so by a disciplinary authority or duly appointed investigator. Employees will provide all relevant information and materials and answer all questions honestly, completely, and to the best o their ability. An employee's refusal to cooperate and provide sworn statements, answers, or relevant materials during an authorized administrative investigation will result in disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.
- Any employee reporting for duty under the influence of any substance such as prescription medications, alcohol, over the counter medications, or other substances that, while legal, may adversely affect the judgment or performance of that employe during duty hours, must notify his or her immediate supervisor prior to commencing work.

3.5 Employee Restrictions

Except as authorized, in an investigation into employee misconduct, employees may not:

- Interfere with the complaint investigation in any manner
- Independently participate in the investigation
- Be present during any investigative contact with a complainant or with witness involved in the investigation
- Contact the complainant or witness concerning the allegations; or
- Discuss the existence or facts of a complaint with anyone except designated Department authorities conducting the investigation. This restriction will not be construed to prohibit an employee from discussing any aspects of a complaint with his or her attorney or other representative, or to prevent his or her attorney from developing information for his or her defense.

3.6 Employee Rights

- All employees have the right to have an attorney or other representative present during questioning in an administrative investigation. However, any employee who is either an accused employee or a witness in a complaint investigation may not act in the capacity of representative for any other employee being questioned as an accused or witness in that complaint investigation. An employee's representative shall be allowed to consult with the employee, and to object to questions, but shal not delay or interfere with the questioning process. Any objections to the form or content of the questions will be noted, but the employee shall still be required to answer fully and completely any and all questions presented during the investigation. An employee cannot delay questioning for more than three hours beyond the time he or she was given notice to appear for the questioning.
- All employees will be issued a written statement of the allegations (i.e., complainant's statement or preliminary complaint form) and the employee's rights and responsibilities relative to the investigation against him/her prior to any questioning.
- All employees who are subject to any form of discipline, whether non-adverse or adverse action, will be given written documentation of the disciplinary action taken. This written documentation must state the work rule which applies to the disciplinary action taken, information and/or documentation supporting the alleged work rule violation, and the disciplinary action that was taken. Employees must sign the written documentation stating that they have been notified of the disciplinary action taken. The employee's signature does not constitute an admission of guilt or wrongdoing, it serves only as receipt of the written documentation of disciplinary action and notification of the same.
- The employee against whom a complaint has been filed may review the investigative folder upon completion of that investigation. The OPS commander will designate the area where the folder is to be reviewed and establish rules governing the review of the folder.
- If the employee is being questioned as a suspect in a criminal investigation, the employee will be afforded complete Miranda Rights.
- Administrative statements made by employees and evidence gained as a result of such statements shall not be used against the employee in criminal proceedings involving the employee except in cases of perjury.

I have received a copy of the allegation(s) and my rights and responsibilities relative to the investigation against me as the accused prior to any questioning.

A: No.

Q: During your tenure as a Narcotics Commander did you feel that your investigators were adequately trained in the area of handling confidential informants?

A: Yes.

Q: During your tenure as a Narcotics Commander do you recall instances where you denied investigators training in any or all of these areas?

A: I don't recall any specifically. There may have been an outside training request that could have been denied, due to the fact that we did training in-house. But everyone received training that covered all of those categories when they became an investigator.

Q: While serving as a commander, did you feel that your investigators were adequately trained to carryout narcotics investigations?

A: absolutely.

Q: While serving as a commander, did you feel that your unit had proper equipment and resources to carryout their daily assignments? (Examples: undercover cars, buy money, raid equipment, etc.)

A: I will say that cars were always a concern; however we had plenty to do the job that we needed to do. My concern with cars was that some of them became burned on the street and we would have to move them to another area.
