CASE SUMMARY

On Tuesday, April 8, 2014, OPS Director Angie Holt received an allegation of misconduct against LT Donald Dixon Smith (Assistant Troop Commander, Troop E) from retired Georgia State Patrol (GSP) SGT Perry Hobbs (Exhibit #2). Hobbs alleged that Smith had worked a second job when he reported himself as being on duty with the Georgia State Patrol (GSP). Hobbs claimed that Smith was listed on the GSP Duty Roster as being on duty when he was at the Masters Golf Tournament (MGT) dressed in civilian clothes and driving a non-departmental vehicle (Exhibit #2). Hobbs said this occurred during the week of the MGT located in Augusta, Georgia, while Troop E CAPT Allen Marlowe was detached attending the FBI National Academy (FBINA) at Quantico, Virginia, and Troop E LT Doug Wilson was on annual leave. Holt informed Major Eddie Grier, (GSP Commanding Officer) about the contents of Hobbs' call and he requested that OPS conduct an administrative investigation. On April 10, 2014, CPL Jason Ellis and SFC James Morgan (OPS) were assigned to conduct the investigation.

On April 8, 2014, Holt verified that Marlowe was detached from Troop E attending the FBINA in Quantico, Virginia, and that Wilson was on annual leave on vacation out of state (Exhibit #2). Holt also verified that Smith was listed on the GSP Duty Roster on April 8, 2014, as being on-duty when Hobbs alleged that Smith was at the MGT attired in civilian clothes and driving a non-departmental vehicle. Hobbs said that Smith appeared to be working a private security job at the MGT when he was reflected on the DPS computer assisted dispatch (CAD) system as being on-duty with the GSP (Exhibit #2). On April 8, 2014, Holt discussed the allegations against Smith with OPS Assistant Director CAPT Dennis Dixon (Exhibit #2). Dixon provided the following information associated with his observation of Smith on April 7, 2014 (Exhibit #2).

On April 7, 2014, at approximately 8:00 a.m., Dixon arrived at the MGT in an off duty status and met Smith at 1018 Northwood Road, Augusta, Georgia (Exhibit #2). Dixon purchased tickets from Smith to attend Monday's practice round at the MGT. Smith told Dixon the address belonged to a sports hospitality company named Augusta Sports & Travel (AST) with which Smith is affiliated that provides lodging, accommodations, and sports tickets to clients, especially during the MGT (Exhibit #2). Smith was attired in civilian clothes and invited Dixon into the residence for food, but Dixon declined. Smith drove Dixon and his companion from AST to the Augusta National Golf Club in a Ford Expedition. Smith told Dixon he would be upstairs at AST if he needed anything from Smith.

On April 8, 2014, Holt verified that 1018 Northwood Road Augusta, Georgia, is listed to AST (Exhibit #2). Dixon confirmed the address was the house where he met Smith on April 7, 2014. On April 8, 2014, Holt verified that Spiro A. Papadopoulos was listed as the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), Chief Financial Officer (CFO), and Secretary of AST.

Holt verified that the property of 113 Cherry Street is owned by Papadopoulos, and is the business location for Augusta Communications (Exhibit #2). Holt determined that Augusta Communications is owned by Papadopoulos who is listed as the CEO, CFO, and Secretary of that business. A further query revealed that Michael E. McDonnell of 3475 Sapphire Drive Augusta, Georgia, is the owner of the address of 1018 Northwood Road, Augusta, Georgia (Exhibit #2).

Holt telephoned Tracy Sanders (DPS Records Management Unit) and determined that Smith's address was 3124 Whaley Road, Augusta, Georgia. Sanders verified that Smith had no approved DPS Request For Off-Duty Employment or DPS Secondary Employment Request Forms on file associated with AST (Exhibit #2).

On April 10, 2014, at approximately 1:50 p.m., Ellis and Morgan interviewed Hobbs at his residence and obtained the following information (Exhibit #3A). On April 7, 2014, Hobbs received a telephone call from an individual whose name he would not disclose. The caller told Hobbs that on April 7, 2014, Smith had been working an off duty security job all day transporting dignitaries at a house near the MGT while Smith was shown on the GSP CAD as being on duty (Exhibit 3A). The informant told Hobbs that Marlowe was detached to the FBINA, Wilson was on annual leave, and that Smith was the only Troop E commissioned officer on duty that day.

The informant told Hobbs that Smith had worked at the MGT on April 7, 8, 9, and 10 (Exhibit #3A). Hobbs also alleged that Smith had been "getting away with things" a long time and he did not think it was right. Hobbs reported Smith for allegedly working an off-duty job while on-duty as a troop officer because he viewed that as "stealing from the state". Hobbs said that in past years Smith had taken pre-approved annual leave from the DPS while working off-duty or secondary employment in the area of the MGT. Hobbs said what was different this year was that Marlowe was attending the FBINA, and that LT Wilson was on annual leave in Florida during the week of MGT. Hobbs believed that Smith had become bold and considered himself as “too slick to get caught” (Exhibit #3A). During the interview, Hobbs received a phone call and a text message from his informant which stated that Smith was driving a charcoal gray Ford Expedition (Exhibit #3A).

Hobbs’ informant told him that Smith had arrived at the AST residence on April 10, 2014, between 7:00 – 7:15 a.m., to greet guests and provide security (Exhibit #3A). The informant told Hobbs that Smith had left the residence on April 10, 2014, at approximately 1:00 p.m., probably to go to Post 25 Grovetown (Exhibit #3A). Hobbs would not disclose if his informant was a DPS employee. Hobbs described Smith as being a vindictive person who would retaliate. Hobbs also warned Ellis and Morgan that Smith’s significant other was the current Richmond County District Attorney, and he suspected that if his informant was compromised “would never win another case in court” (Exhibit #3A).

On April 10, 2014, at approximately 2:45 p.m., Ellis and Morgan arrived at Post 25 Grovetown to verify if Smith or his DPS issued departmental vehicle was present at the post. Ellis and Morgan did not see Smith’s DPS issued vehicle (Exhibit #3).

On April 10, 2014, at approximately 3:26 p.m., Ellis and Morgan verified that Wilson’s DPS issued 2013 Dodge Charger was parked at Smith’s residence (Exhibit #3). On April 10, 2014, at approximately 3:30 p.m., Ellis received a text message from Hobbs that read “just notified that Smith just returned to the house (meaning AST) in same clothes, but off CADS now – R168” (Exhibit #3).

On April 10, 2014, at approximately 3:37 p.m., Ellis and Morgan arrived in the area of AST and surreptitiously observed TFC2 Ben Rollins (Post 25 Grovetown) attired in the Class B Trooper Uniform and campaign hat at the location. Rollins appeared to be providing security at AST and occasionally transported guests via golf cart (Exhibit #3). At approximately 3:59 p.m., Ellis received a text message from Hobbs that read “said they were checking on what he was driving, have not heard back yet. Sorry to keep you holding – R168”. Minutes later, Ellis and Morgan observed Smith at AST attired in khaki pants and a golf style pullover shirt as he greeted guests that arrived in a white Ford Econoline passenger van (Exhibit #3).

Ellis made several photographs of vehicles parked at Post 25 Grovetown, Wilson’s vehicle parked at Smith’s residence, and the residence and activities at AST for the case file (Exhibit #3C).

On April 11, 2014, at approximately 6:45 a.m., Ellis and Morgan verified that Wilson’s DPS issued vehicle was located at Smith’s residence (Exhibit #5). At 6:50 a.m., Ellis and Morgan arrived in the area of AST and observed Rollins, attired in the Class B trooper uniform and campaign hat, present standing post in the driveway area of AST.

Rollins appeared to be providing security at the location and occasionally transported guests via golf cart. Shortly after 7:00 a.m., Ellis and Morgan observed Smith exit the side door of the AST residence where he greeted guests who had arrived in a white Ford Econoline passenger van in the driveway area. Smith was attired in khaki shorts and dark colored golf style pullover shirt. Ellis and Morgan remained in the area of AST until 11:00 a.m., but did not see Smith after he re-entered the AST building at approximately 7:15 a.m. At 11:06 a.m., Ellis received a text message from Hobbs that read "Been told he (Smith) has been at the hospitality house since 6:30 a.m. Driving POV (personal vehicle) today. Working on second floor. Not sure if on CADS or not – R168". At 11:07 a.m., Ellis received a text message from Hobbs which read "Just drove off in his POV – R168".

On June 11, 2014, Ellis and Morgan interviewed CPL Richard Fischel and Rollins separately (Exhibits #11 & #12). On June 17, 2014, Ellis and Holt interviewed Smith. Ellis obtained the following information as a result of those interviews.

Fishel was on annual leave the week of the MGT and worked off duty police employment for a company named "Sports Court" from April 7, 2014, through April 13, 2014, (Exhibits #11, #13, #15). Sports Court provides transportation services for clients who are attending the MGT. (Exhibit #11). Fishel had been previously approved by the DPS to work in an off duty status with Sports Court (Exhibit #15).

Rollins reported that he takes leave each year for the week of the MGT and works off duty police employment (Exhibit #12). This year Rollins worked parking lot security at the "Legends Club" on April 7 - 9, 2014. While employed by the Legends Club, Rollins had stopped by AST on occasion to eat and finally to see when he needed to report for duty at AST on April 10, 2014. The dates of April 10 – 13, 2014, Rollins worked off duty police employment for “Executive Marketing” a company that provided security service and food for AST. Rollins arrived for his assignment at AST each day between 6:00 – 6:15 a.m., and worked until he was released (Exhibit #12). Rollins’ responsibilities at AST included directing traffic, providing security, dumping the trash (Exhibit #12). Rollins was previously approved by the DPS to work off duty for the Legends Club and for Executive Marketing and submitted a DPS Off Duty Timesheet to his supervisors for the hours he worked off duty police employment at the MGT (Exhibit #14).

On April 8 & 9, 2014, between 10:00 a.m., and 1:00 p.m., Rollins witnessed Smith attired in civilian clothes at AST. On April 10 – 13, 2014, Smith was present at AST from the time that Rollins arrived for duty until he was released from duty in the late evenings between 6:00 p.m., and 10:00 p.m. (Exhibit #12). Rollins said that April 7 – 9, 2014, AST had no officers employed for off duty police employment because they did not have many clients (Exhibit #12). On April 13, 2014, Rollins witnessed Smith at AST from 6:00 a.m., until 10:00 or 11:00 p.m. (Exhibit #12). On April 13, 2014, Rollins assisted Papadopoulos and Smith as they counted and sorted MGT badges (Exhibit #12).

Rollins never witnessed Smith consume any alcoholic beverages at AST (Exhibit #12). Rollins witnessed Smith driving his personal vehicle (Nissan Murano) during the week of the MGT. Rollins never saw Smith’s DPS issued vehicle or computer in his possession during the week of the MGT (Exhibit #12). Rollins perceived that Smith’s duties at AST included assisting clients. Rollins had verified through Fischel that Smith was listed as on duty on the CAD system on April 8-10, 2014 (Exhibit #12).

Fischel said it was common knowledge among DPS employees that were present working around the MGT that Smith was listed on the CAD system as being on duty when he was attired in civilian clothes at AST (Exhibit #11). Rollins and Fischel had become frustrated with Smith violating DPS policies and said they contacted Hobbs to discuss the matter (Exhibit #11). Fischel said several other DPS employees were tired of Smith seemingly doing whatever he wished (Exhibit #11). Fischel and Rollins went outside the chain-of-command and approached Hobbs to report Smith's behavior in an attempt to avoid retribution (Exhibit #11). Fischel explained that in the past Smith seemed to do whatever he wanted, but if a subordinate did something wrong he could be hard on them (Exhibit #11).

During the week of the MGT, Fischel received a telephone call from Hobbs who asked if he could verify if Smith was listed as on duty on the CAD system (Exhibit #11). Fischel verified for Hobbs that Smith was listed as being on duty on the CAD system. Fischel disclosed that there have been other occasions when he has provided Hobbs information about Smith such as CAD information of where Smith was located (Exhibit #11). Fischel said he never saw Smith in a state vehicle the week of the MGT (Exhibit #11).

On Monday or Tuesday, April 7 or 8, 2014, Fischel received a telephone call from Rollins who stated that he was working an off duty job at the AST location (Exhibits #11 & #12). Rollins asked CPL Fischel to verify if LT Smith was on duty at GSP. Fischel telephoned the Troop E Communications Center at Post 25 Grovetown and verified that Smith was listed as on duty on the CAD. Fischel told Rollins that Smith was listed as being on duty on the CAD system.

During their interviews, Fischel and Rollins expressed that they were concerned about retribution from Smith, particularly if it was ever discovered that they had reported him (Exhibits #11 & #12).

During his interview, Smith said knew he was the only Troop E commissioned officer on duty during the week of the MGT (Exhibit #16). Smith claimed that prior to the week of the MGT, he discussed with Marlowe that he was in a bad situation (Exhibit #16). Smith denied that Marlowe had mentioned to him the possibility of having a troop officer from another troop to cover for Smith. Smith did say that Marlowe had previously been good to him previously by making his work hours flexible.

Smith described Papadopoulos as his friend, and said that Papadopoulos owns a corporation and several businesses to include AST. AST recruits companies to do business with them to purchase entertainment packages such as MGT tickets, etc.

Smith said he had recruited Molson Coors out of Canada for AST. Molson Coors had formerly done business with a company out of New York named "American Corporate Events" (ACE) during the week of the annual MGT. Molson Coors executives had asked Smith who they should do business with since ACE had dissolved, and Smith recommended AST. When Molson Coors contracted with AST for the 2014 MGT, Papadopoulos paid Smith a "finder's fee" in December 2013 (Exhibit #16).

For the past ten years, Smith has worked for the owners of ACE (Arch Galloway & Mike Taylor). Smith claimed that he had no financial interest in ACE other than paying their employees out of his pocket. Smith tracked and recorded the employees' time and rate of pay for ACE. ACE had always paid Smith directly for his work time and services managing the company's employees. ACE historically paid their employees based on the report submitted by Smith that outlined their work hours and rate of pay.

After several months, ACE had not paid their employees for their services rendered during the 2013 MGT. When ACE went out of business in 2013, Smith personally borrowed $20,000.00 to compensate the company's employees for services and labor (Exhibit #16). At the time Smith believed he would be compensated for this expenditure. In June 2013, the owners of ACE called Smith and informed him that they could not reimburse him and filed bankruptcy. Smith filed a legal claim for the company's assets, but the company had no assets. The hospitality house ACE owned was repossessed by the owner that financed it.

Smith claimed that he has no financial interest in AST or Executive Marketing. Executive Marketing is owned by Louis Blanchard (LT, Richmond County S.O.). Smith explained that Michael McDonnell (Retired LT, New Jersey State Police) is a partner with Papadopoulos in AST. Smith also denied having any responsibilities assigned to him by AST and he was not compensated by the company during the week of the MGT.

Smith claimed that the AST owners were his friends and that the Molson Coors group did not arrive until April 9, 2014, and their program did not begin until April 10, 2014. Smith claimed that all he did was “hang out and shoot the shit” with Papadopoulos and people that were present at AST during the week of the MGT. Smith said “in the old days we called it fucking off”. Smith denied being an employee of Papadopoulos or McDonnell. Smith said that in his nine years as a GSP Lieutenant, he had never submitted a DPS Off Duty Timesheet and never completed a DPS Request For Outside Employment or DPS Request For Secondary Employment Form for the income he generated from the MGT.

Smith said Papadopoulos is the front man who greets clients, orchestrates, and opens up and closes and that McDonnell is the “organizer” of AST. Smith said the only group of AST’s clients that he greeted was the Molson Coors group. The Molson Coors group arrived at staggered times on different planes. Some of the Molson Coors group arrived by vehicle and they had arranged in their contract and paid for two vans for transportation. The vans were driven by Mr. & Mrs. Mark Bringleston (Probation & Parole) (whom Smith had recommended to Papadopoulos) handled the transportation of the Molson Coors group. Mr. Bringleston also coordinated the off duty police employment at AST.

Smith said that he enjoyed hanging out at AST during the week of the MGT because they had an upstairs area that had two leather sofas, “you can hang out, be comfortable, talk on the phone and nobody bothers you.” Smith said he welcomed other law enforcement officers from out of town when they came by AST from directing traffic to cool off, eat free and watch TV like he did previously when he was at ACE.

Smith provided the following information associated with his on duty and off duty activities on Monday, April 7, 2014. Smith claimed he took four hours GA COMP for the morning of April 7, 2014, which he said he did not submit a leave request for the four hours GA COMP through his chain-of-command. On April 7, 2014, according to DPS records, Smith reported himself as being on duty at 6:52 a.m., and being off duty at 3:34 p.m. (Exhibit #6). According to the DPS LAS Timesheet dated 3/31/2014 – 4/27/2014, Smith carried four hours GA COMP and four hours' work time on this date (Exhibit #8). The inconsistency noted between the work hours that Smith reported on his DPS LAS Timesheet and the times he reported himself as being on and off duty to GSP on April 7, 2014, is profound.

Smith claimed he was not compensated by AST for the hours he spent there that day. Smith claimed he had been on duty with GSP, but drove his personal vehicle all day. Smith claimed that he had left his DPS issued vehicle at his residence in the event that the DPS Executive Protection Unit were to call and need to utilize his DPS issued vehicle.

Smith said it rained on April 7, 2014, and he met Dixon between 7:00 – 8:00 a.m., and sold him two tickets to the MGT practice round. Smith initially claimed he could not remember when he worked on duty for GSP that day, or what time he began his tour of duty. Smith said he did remember that he notified Troop E Communications via cellular phone when he began his shift and that he always telephoned the radio room at the end of his shift because he had left his DPS issued computer (MDT) in his office the entire week of the MGT. Smith said he was unable to use his MDT because the MCCD pool car he had been issued did not have a computer stand.

Smith claimed that the hours he reported as his work time on this date were his GSP work hours. On April 7, 2014, according to DPS records, Smith reported himself as being on duty at 6:52 a.m., and being off duty at 3:34 p.m. (Exhibit #6).

On April 7, 2014, Smith drove his personal vehicle to the AST house where he had lunch, but he could not remember what he did after lunch. Smith thought he remembered that he talked to CAPT Gay (Richmond County S.O.), checked emails, and “hung around on call”. Smith later said that he had “fucked off at Spiro’s” (AST) during the time he reported that he was on duty with the GSP for this date.

Smith provided the following information associated with his on duty and off duty activities on Tuesday, April 8, 2014. Smith said that he reported himself to the Troop E Communications radio room as being on duty at either 6:00 or 8:00 a.m. (he claimed he could not remember). On April 8, 2014, according to DPS records, Smith reported himself as being on duty at 6:35 a.m., and being off duty at 3:02 p.m. (Exhibit #6). According to the DPS LAS Timesheet dated 3/31/2014 – 4/27/2014, Smith carried eight hours work time on this date (Exhibit #8). Smith did remember that after he called in that he was on duty, he went to AST for breakfast. After breakfast, Smith went to the Augusta National Golf Course and met Gay and they discussed the parking arrangements for Speaker of the House David Ralston. Smith remembered that he purchased a shirt at the golf course and then he was not sure where he went for a while. Smith said he returned to AST where he had lunch with Papadopoulos.

On April 8, 2014, Smith remembered he had driven Papadopoulos' vehicle and visited Louis Blanchard at Executive Marketing. Smith said he responded to an email that he received from SFC David Herring (DPS Executive Protection Unit). Smith said that any work he performed for GSP on this date was MGT related, but the GSP did not have any role in the MGT other than the limited role of troopers working off duty police employment. Smith estimated that he had worked with GSP eight hours on this date in and around the MGT area. Smith estimated he spent four hours at AST on this date, and called in to Troop E Communications that he was off duty sometime that afternoon. Smith said that he met Papadopoulos for dinner at 6:30 p.m., and accompanied him to Costco. Smith disclosed that he carried eight hours work time for this date, but didn't do much of anything for GSP. Smith said he did not have any assignments pending that day at GSP. Smith claimed he was not compensated by anyone else.

Smith provided the following information associated with his on duty and off duty activities on Wednesday, April 9, 2014. Smith estimated that he would have called in to Troop E Communications that he was on duty at 6:00 or 8:00 a.m. On April 9, 2014, according to DPS records, Smith called in that he was on duty at 7:14 a.m., and that he was off duty at 3:38 p.m. (Exhibit #6). According to the DPS LAS Timesheet dated 3/31/2014 – 4/27/2014, Smith carried eight hours work time on this date (Exhibit #8).

Smith said he spent the majority of his time on duty with the GSP on this date "hanging out at AST watching golf". On this date the Par 3 Tournament was held, and Smith could not remember conducting any GSP business. Smith said he was uncertain as to who coordinated the off duty police employment at the MGT, but he had not handled any of the scheduling for off duty officers at the MGT or the AST. Smith estimated that during his eight our shift at GSP on this date, he spoke with Herring by telephone and Gay for approximately one hour combined, and the remaining seven hours of his shift he performed no duties associated with the GSP.

Smith provided the following information associated with his on duty and off duty activities on Thursday, April 10, 2014. On April 10, 2014, according to DPS records, Smith called in that he was on duty at 6:04 a.m., and that he was off duty at 2:27 p.m. (Exhibit #6). According to the DPS LAS Timesheet dated 3/31/2014 – 4/27/2014, Smith carried eight hours work time on this date (Exhibit #8). The MGT was initiated on this date and Smith said he was still utilizing his personal vehicle while on duty with the GSP. Smith said any work he performed for the GSP on this date was completed at AST. Smith said he attended the MGT, purchased a tie there, and “shot the breeze with the police there”.

Smith said he telephoned Brandy Cochran (State Patrol Command) and informed her that he wanted to request four hours GA COMP for Friday, April 11, 2014. Cochran informed Smith that MAJ Grier and CAPT Louis Young (State Patrol Command) were not available and for him to submit his request via email.

On April 10, 2014, Smith went to the MGT during the middle of the day and then went to his residence at some point and donned his GSP uniform. Smith said he traveled to Post 25 Grovetown to his office and checked in at the Troop E Communications regarding a prior issue with the computers or radios. Smith said he emailed Young his leave request, checked his emails, and left his office at approximately 6:30 p.m. Smith said he then went to eat dinner at Luigi's with Papadopoulos and Jake Busby. Smith estimated that he worked for the GSP approximately three hours, from 3:00 – 6:30 p.m., on this date.

Smith provided the following information associated with his on duty and off duty activities on Friday, April 11, 2014. Smith claimed he could not remember the hours he took for GA COMP this date. Smith said he was pretty sure that he had taken GA COMP during the afternoon hours and that he had worked for GSP during the morning hours this date. On April 11, 2014, according to DPS records, Smith called in that he was on duty at 11:03 a.m., and that he was off duty at 3:14 p.m. (Exhibit #6). According to the DPS LAS Timesheet that Smith submitted dated 3/31/2014 – 4/27/2014, Smith carried four hours GA COMP leave on this date and four hours working on duty (Exhibit #8). Smith remembered that he went to breakfast in his personal vehicle because he was fairly certain that he would be going to the airport to take someone that was going home. Smith said he did not want to be in his DPS issued vehicle or have to go home to change clothes. Smith said it turned out that he did not have to go to the airport.

Smith finally disclosed that for the week of April 7 – 11, 2014, he worked no more than five hours for the GSP, and he was in uniform only three to four hours of that time. Smith said he did not maintain a daily journal of his activities in his employment with the DPS. Smith disclosed that with the exception of April 10, 2014, he “did very little work” with the GSP.

Smith said he had been at AST because it was fun, there was free food, he had hung out with his friends and it was a “frat kind of place”. Smith admitted he was wrong for his behavior, but asserted he had not been employed by anyone else; he used his personal vehicle that week, had been in civilian clothing, and had not been contractually obligated to do anything or provide any services during the MGT.

At the end of his interview, Smith verified for Ellis that the hours reflected on his DPS Leave Accounting System (LAS) Timesheet, the Troop E Communications CAD Reports, and the GSP Unit History Report for the dates of April 7 – 11, 2014, were the hours he reported himself as being on duty with the GA State Patrol (Exhibits #6, #8 & #10).

On June 18, 2014, Ellis received from Johnson items that he secured from Smith on June 11, 2014. On June 11, 2014, Johnson completed (2) GSP Evidence Sheets to memorialize the items he secured from Smith (Exhibit #17).

On June 18, 2014, Ellis received from Johnson a Motorola Cellular telephone, (2) Georgia State Patrol shirt badges (#43), (1) Georgia State Patrol hat badge (#43), (Georgia State Patrol identification card for Smith, (1) office key for Post 25 Grovetown, (1) Gateway computer (serial #0036971290), and (1) Dell laptop computer (DPS#7M0410) (Exhibit #17).

During the week of July 1-3, 2014, SFC Adam Howell (MCCD) performed a forensic analysis of clones of the hard drives removed from Smith’s DPS issued computers (Exhibit #19). Howell recovered numerous images of sexually suggestive images from emails and files stored on both of Smith’s DPS issued computers (Exhibit #19A).

FINDINGS

ALLEGATION: Hobbs alleged that during the week of April 7-11, 2014, LT Donald Smith worked a second job when he had reported himself as being on duty with the Georgia State Patrol. Hobbs claimed that Smith was listed on the GSP Duty Roster as being on duty when he was at the Masters Golf Tournament (MGT) dressed in civilian clothes and driving a non-departmental vehicle.

FINDING: Sustained.

During his interview, LT Smith disclosed that in December 2013, the owner of Augusta Sports & Travel (AST) (Spiro Papadopoulos) paid him a finder's fee for assisting Papadopoulos in securing a contract with Molson Coors for the week of the 2014 Masters Golf Tournament.

During the week of April 7-11, 2014, Smith reported to Troop E Communications each day when he was on duty and off duty as a Troop E commissioned officer. Smith disclosed that he had operated his personal vehicle on each of those days during the time he had reported himself as being on duty with the Georgia State Patrol (GSP).

Smith disclosed that with the exception of about 3-5 hours during that 40 hour work week, he did not report for duty and performed virtually no duties as a DPS employee. Smith said he spent most of the week "hanging out" at AST with friends and having at some point received a massage during the hours that he had reported himself as being on duty with the Georgia State Patrol. It stretches the imagination that Smith would spend more than 10 hours per day at AST without compensation.

Smith verified that the DPS Leave Accounting System (LAS) timesheet he signed and submitted for the work period of 3/31/2014 – 4/27/2014, was an accurate depiction of the work time he submitted. Smith also verified the times he reported to Troop E Communications that he was on and off duty represented on the GSP Unit History Report and the Troop E CAD Unit Status Change Log were accurate depictions of his reported status to Troop E Communications.

The case facts support that during the week of April 7-11, 2014, Smith violated numerous DPS Policies when he intentionally made a false report to Troop E Communications regarding his duty status as a Troop E commissioned officer, when he falsified his DPS LAS timesheet, he was derelict when he failed to report for duty and when it was discovered that in 2012-2013, he utilized his DPS issued computers to view sexually suggestive images.

Smith also violated state law and his Oath of Office when he falsified his DPS LAS timesheet and received compensation for virtually no services rendered to the citizens of the State of Georgia. Smith's conduct is unbecoming of a Georgia state trooper and violated the special trust that exists between members of the Georgia Department of Public Safety and the public it serves.

INVESTIGATIVE SUMMARY

On Thursday, April 10, 2014 at about 9:00 AM, OPS Director Angie Holt briefed CAPT Dennis Dixon, SFC James Morgan and CPL Jason Ellis regarding a telephone call Holt on Tuesday, April 8, 2014. Holt explained that after she informed Major Eddie Grier, GSP Commanding Officer about the contents of the call, he requested OPS conduct an administrative investigation. SFC Morgan and CPL Ellis are assigned to conduct same.

On Tuesday, April 8, 2014 at about 3:13 PM, Holt received a call in her office from SGT Perry Hobbs (GSP Retired), cell # 706-564-1750. Hobbs posed a "hypothetical" question to Holt when he asked if it is against DPS policy for an employee to work a second job while on duty from the Department. When Holt confirmed the action is against DPS policy and possibly against Georgia law, Hobbs gave the following information.

GSP Troop E Captain Allen Marlowe is currently detached, attending the FBI National Academy at Quantico. Troop E LT Doug Wilson is on annual leave. (Holt confirmed this from personal knowledge posted on Wilson's Facebook page that he is out of state in Florida on Spring break with his family.) Troop E LT Donnie Smith is listed on the GSP Duty Roster as being on duty, when, according to Hobbs, Smith is at the Masters Golf tournament dressed in civilian clothes and driving a non-departmental vehicle. Hobbs described it as a Suburban. Hobbs said Smith is "on duty" in the CAD (computer aided dispatch program). Smith appears to be working for GSP on paper and is actually working a private security job at the Masters.

Hobbs offered to file an official complaint regarding his allegation. Holt told Hobs she will get back with him for further information.

After hearing Hobbs' complaint, Dixon gave the following information about contact he had with Smith on Monday..

On Monday, April 7, 2014 at about 8:00 AM, Dixon arrived in Augusta and met with Smith. Dixon had purchased tickets from Smith to attend Monday's practice round at the Masters. Dixon travelled to 1018 Northwood Road, Augusta, to meet Smith. Smith told Dixon the house at this address belongs to a sports hospitality company with which Smith is affiliated that provides lodging, accommodations, and sports tickets to clients, especially during the Masters. Dixon saw a sign in the yard of the residence that contained the name of the company, but Dixon could not remember the name. Smith was attired in civilian clothes and Dixon did not see Smith's patrol unit. Smith invited Dixon into the residence for food but Dixon declined. Smith drove Dixon and his companion from this address over to the Augusta National Golf Club in a Ford Expedition. Smith stated he would be upstairs at 1018 Northwood Road, if Dixon needed anything from Smith.

During the briefing Holt queried the Google search engine and determined the address of 1018 Northwood Road is listed to Augusta Sports and Travel, website www.augustasports.net. Upon viewing the photos on the website, Dixon confirmed this is the house where he met Smith.

Holt queried the Georgia Secretary of State web site for a corporation by the name Augusta Sports and Travel. The results listed the Chief Executive Office (CEO), Chief Financial Officer (CFO), and Secretary, as Spiro A. Papadopoulos, 113 Cherry Street, Augusta, GA 30907-2362. Holt queried the Augusta Richmond Tax appraiser on line search which revealed the property at 113 Cherry Street is owned by Papadopoulos, and is the business location for Augusta Communications. A further query found 1018 Northwood Road is owned by Michael E. McDonnell, 3745 Sapphire Drive, Augusta.

Holt then queried the Georgia Secretary of State website for corporate information on Augusta Communications. That business name lists CEO, CFO and Secretary as Spiro A. Papadopoulos at the Cherry Street address.

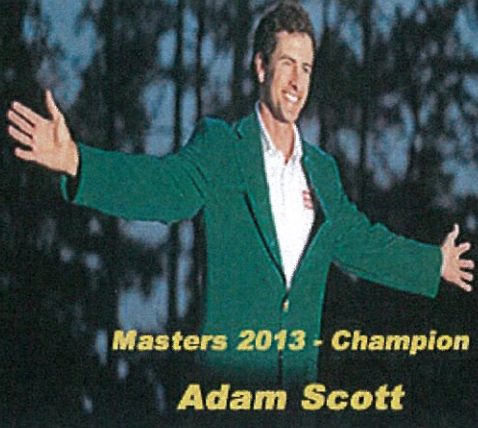

Holt learned from DPS Human Resources that Smith's employee identification number is 00312220 and his home address is 3124 Whaley Road, Augusta.

Holt contact Tracy Sanders in the Records Management Unit and asked her for a list of all approved outside employment for Employee ID 00312220 (Smith). A copy of the list is attached to this exhibit. Holt found Augusta Sports and Travel is not on Smith's list of approved off duty employment. Sanders found no record of any secondary employment request(s).

Copies of the internet queries are attached to this summary, and marked as Exhibit 2.

IA-0035-2014

INTERVIEW SUMMARY

On April 10, 2014, at approximately 1:50 p.m., CPL Jason Ellis and SFC James Morgan of the Department of Public Safety (DPS) Office of Professional Standards (OPS) interviewed Perry Wayne Hobbs (Retired Sergeant First Class, GSP) regarding case number IA-0035-2014. This interview was conducted at Hobbs' residence at 196 Meadow Wood Drive Thomson, Georgia, 30824. Hobbs provided the following information regarding an allegation of misconduct against LT Donnie Smith (Assistant Troop Commander, Troop E) associated with his working an off-duty police employment or secondary employment while on duty with the Georgia State Patrol (GSP).

On April 7, 2014, at approximately 2:30 p.m., Hobbs received a telephone call from an undisclosed individual that asked Hobbs if it would be against policy for a DPS employee to work an off-duty job while on-duty with the GSP. Hobbs informed the caller that had been against DPS policy for about as long as he could remember. The caller told Hobbs that LT Donnie Smith had been working an off duty security job at a house near the Masters Golf Tournament. The informant said that LT Smith had been transporting dignitaries all day on April 7, 2014, while being shown on the GSP Computer Assisted Dispatch (CAD) as being on-duty as a GSP troop officer. The informant told Hobbs that CAPT Allen Marlowe (Troop Commander, Troop E) was away at the Federal Bureau of Investigation National Academy (FBINA) and that LT Doug Wilson (Assistant Troop Commander, Troop E) was on annual leave and that LT Smith was the only Troop E commissioned officer listed as on duty that day. The informant alleged that LT Smith had been working off duty security at the Masters Golf Tournament the entire day. The informant told Hobbs that LT Smith had worked at the Masters Golf Tournament on April 7, 8, 9, and on April 10th up until being notified by the undisclosed individual at 1:00 p.m., that LT Smith had just left the house where he had been working off duty or secondary employment.

Hobbs warned CPL Ellis and SFC Morgan that if they had told anyone like "Brenda" (Brenda Walker, Troop E Command Confidential Secretary) that she may have contacted former Troop E Captain Bill Ashburn who would definitely "tip off" LT Smith about an internal affairs investigation. Hobbs claimed that former Troop E CAPT Ashburn had previously "covered" for LT Smith for a long time.

Hobbs' informant told him that LT Smith sometimes would not turn his computer (meaning Mobile Data Terminal or MDT) on so that he could not be found or would start his computer and would leave it on his office desk at the state patrol post so that it would appear that he was at work all day long. Hobbs' informant said Troop E CAPT Marlowe had previously counseled LT Smith about improper use of his DPS issued MDT to which LT Smith just provided the excuse of "he just forgot" and similar excuses.

Hobbs also alleged that since being elected as a county commissioner in 2012, LT Smith had attended Richmond County Commission meetings while on duty as a troop officer. Hobbs said the commission meetings are usually held on week days after noon. Hobbs said he had previously sent CAPT Jason Johnson (Legislative Liaison, DPS Commissioner's Office) a text to request information about when the Richmond County Commission Meeting was held last month. Hobbs said that since troop officers have the discretion to wear plain clothes while on-duty with the GSP, it would be easy for LT Smith to attend commission meetings while on-duty as a troop officer without anyone knowing it. Hobbs claimed that LT Smith had been “getting away with things” a long time and he did not think it was right. Hobbs said troop officers are not required to sign in and out like anyone else and believed there was little accountability for work time and the opportunity for abuse existed. Hobbs also alleged that LT Smith had in past years played golf while on duty as a state trooper. Hobbs clarified that he had not personally witnessed any of LT Smith’s recent activities that he had reported.

Hobbs said he had reported LT Smith to OPS Director Angie Holt instead of anyone else because it seemed that everyone else was “scared of LT Smith and wouldn’t do anything to him”. Hobbs said LT Smith had previously “run off” Emilio Lampkin for having a part-time landscaping job. Hobbs said that with LT Smith it is “do as I say, not as I do”.

Hobbs claimed he reported LT Smith for working an off-duty job while on-duty as a troop officer because he viewed that as “stealing from the state”. Hobbs said that LT Smith had previously been a trained investigator with the Richmond County Sheriff’s Office. Hobbs reported that more than one confidential informant had seen LT Smith at the house where he had been working off duty near the Masters Golf Tournament. The confidential informant reported to Hobbs that LT Smith “snuck out the side door” when he saw him, and that LT Smith had been driving a silver sport utility vehicle like a Suburban.

Hobbs explained that LT Smith's residence was just over one mile from the location where he had been working off duty or secondary employment. Hobbs explained that if LT Smith were to receive a GSP related call, he could clandestinely leave the location where he had been working off duty or secondary employment and arrive at his residence within a short time to acquire his DPS issued vehicle to respond to the call.

During this interview, Hobbs sent his informant a text message to get a better description of the vehicle that LT Smith had been driving. While sending the text, Hobbs said in past years, LT Smith had pre-approved annual leave while working off-duty or secondary employment providing shuttle and hospitality services for clients or guests who were attending the Masters Golf Tournament. Hobbs said what was different this year was that CAPT Marlowe was attending the FBINA, and that LT Wilson was on annual leave in Florida during the week of the Masters Golf Tournament. Hobbs believed that LT Smith had become bold and considered himself as "too slick to get caught".

Hobbs received a telephone call during the interview from someone that he referred to as a state trooper that he had previously worked with him in the area that he had mentored. The call was terminated fairly quickly and the interview with Hobbs resumed. After a couple of minutes, Hobbs received a text message from his informant and read from his cellular phone the following words "a charcoal gray Ford Expedition – not here currently". Hobbs said that local automobile dealers such as Bobby Jones Ford or Fairway Ford in the Augusta, Georgia, area loaned vehicles to the Masters Golf Tournament for transporting spectators and dignitaries to and from the golf tournament.

Hobbs clarified that the allegations he made against LT Smith to OPS Director Angie Holt was information he obtained from a confidential informant that had personally witnessed LT Smith working off-duty or secondary employment performing hospitality/security duties all day on April 7th and 8th, 2014, at a house near the Masters Golf Tournament at the while simultaneously being reported on the CAD as being on-duty as a troop officer. The informant told Hobbs that LT Smith had been working in the second story office area and the driveway area of that house greeting guests on those days. The informant told Hobbs that LT Smith had arrived at the house on April 10th between 7:00 – 7:15 a.m., to greet guests and provide security. Hobbs' informant told him that LT Smith left the guest or hospitality house on April 10th at approximately 1:00 p.m., probably to go to the GSP Grovetown Post.

CPL Ellis asked Hobbs if he was willing to disclose whether or not his confidential informant was a current DPS employee. Hobbs hesitated and replied "I'm gonna have to let you read between the lines on that one – I aint saying". Hobbs said he did not want his informant to get into trouble because he feared that LT Smith would retaliate. Hobbs added that even if his informant was a Richmond County Deputy, LT Smith and was a vindictive person that would retaliate. Hobbs warned that LT Smith's significant other was the current Richmond County District Attorney, and he suspected that if his informant was compromised "would never win another case in court".

Hobbs claimed that in 1995 when LT Smith was a trooper assigned to the GSP Thomson Post, he would have a radio operator cover for him on the radio log while he played golf on-duty as a trooper. Hobbs also claimed that when LT Smith was a post commander, he would have golf clubs in his DPS issued vehicle and play golf on state time.

Hobbs' final comment during the interview was "well...if there is a department employee working at the same spot LT Smith is....yall' can Garrity them and they got to tell you the truth...that's up to yall' I aint saying one way or the other....I can't tell you and I am not going to tell you...you aint got to look hard....".

INVESTIGATIVE SUMMARY

On April 10, 2014, Director Angie Holt of the Department of Public Safety (DPS) Office of Professional Standards (OPS) assigned case number IA-0035-2014 to CPL Jason Ellis and SFC James Morgan (OPS). The case involved an allegation made by retired SFC Perry Wayne Hobbs against LT Donnie Smith (Assistant Troop Commander, Troop E) for working off duty police employment or secondary employment with Augusta Sports & Travel (AST) primarily on April 7 & 8, 2014, while on duty with the Georgia State Patrol (GSP) as an Assistant Troop Commander. On April 10, 2014, Director Holt dispatched CPL Ellis and SFC Morgan to Augusta, Georgia, to obtain additional information associated with LT Smith's alleged employment at AST.

On April 10, 2014, at approximately 2:45 p.m., CPL Ellis and SFC Morgan arrived in the area of Post 25 Grovetown to see if LT Smith or his DPS issued Dodge Charger was present at Post 25. At approximately 2:55 p.m., GSP helicopter #N407GB landed at Post 25 and only the pilot exited the helicopter and entered Post 25. LT Smith's DPS issued vehicle was not present at Post 25.

On April 10, 2014, at 3:26 p.m., CPL Ellis and SFC Morgan observed LT Doug Wilson's (Assistant Troop Commander, Troop E) silver 2013 DPS issued Dodge Charger parked at LT Smith's residence located at 3124 Whaley Road Augusta, Georgia, 30907.

On April 10, 2014, at approximately 3:30 p.m., CPL Ellis received a text message on his DPS cellular telephone from Hobbs. Hobbs' text read "Just notified that Smith just returned to house in the same clothes, but off cads now – R168".

On April 10, 2014, at approximately 3:37 p.m., CPL Ellis and SFC Morgan arrived at AST located at 1018 Northwood Road Augusta, Georgia. CPL Ellis and SFC Morgan observed TFC2 Ben Rollins at the location attired in the Class B trooper uniform and campaign hat. TFC2 Rollins appeared to be providing security at the location and occasionally transported guests via golf cart.

At approximately 3:59 p.m., Hobbs sent a second text message to CPL Ellis that read "Said they were checking on what he was driving, have not heard back yet. Sorry to keep you holding – R168". Within a few minutes of receiving Hobbs' text message, CPL Ellis and SFC Morgan observed LT Smith at the location attired in khaki pants and a golf style pullover shirt as he greeted guests that had arrived in a white Ford Econoline passenger van.

CPL Ellis and SFC Morgan departed the area at approximately 5:00 p.m.

David,
I was just given this information:

They will fly into the Thomson McDuffie airport. Wheels up from Jeff City is at 8:15 AM, which is wheels down at Thomson McDuffie Airport at 10:45 AM EST. I do not know the return wheels up time, but expect it to be around 7:45 PM EST. This would mean a 8:15 PM wheels down in Jeff City.

David,

Our governor's scheduler is now telling us they will have 8 people on the plane traveling to the Masters in Augusta this Sunday April 13.
We will have our Suburban there, but this won't be enough.
Would it be possible to have a Trooper assist us with transportation? They would not have to be one of your detail.

David,
I was just given this information:

They will fly into the Thomson McDuffie airport. Wheels up from Jeff City is at 8:15 AM, which is wheels down at Thomson McDuffie Airport at 10:45 AM EST. I do not know the return wheels up time, but expect it to be around 7:45 PM EST. This would mean a 8:15 PM wheels down in Jeff City.

David,

Our governor's scheduler is now telling us they will have 8 people on the plane traveling to the Masters in Augusta

RICK ALLEN

U.S. CONGRESS

Friend,

Election day is rapidly approaching, but did you know that you can vote for conservative small-businessman Rick Allen right now?

Local Boards of Election have started sending out absentee ballots. The first step to defeating John Barrow is to print out your absentee ballot application here.

After filling out the application, mail it to your County Registrar's Office. If you're unsure of where to send it, this website can help you.

Within one week, you will receive your absentee ballot and have the opportunity to vote for someone who will take his 35+ years of balancing budgets and creating jobs to Washington. Then simply mail it back with the address provided.

Every vote counts. Help do your part to send a conservative businessman to Congress who will fight for you and for fiscal responsibility. We can take our country back.

Sincerely,

Lauren

P.S. Find your absentee ballot here. We need to send someone to Washington who will stop this reckless spending!

April 7, 2014

On Saturday, April 5, Troop I troopers from Post 23, Brunswick and Post 11, Hinesville held a Child Safety Seat Checkup at the Wal-Mart Supercenter in Brunswick. This was in conjunction with William Hutchinson, the program director for the child safety seat program for the Atlanta Fire-Rescue Department and TFC Steve Black of the Georgia State Patrol. The Troopers distributed 79 convertible car seats, 17 child booster seats, and educated parents on the proper way to buckle up their children. Expired car seats were the number one problem during the event. The old seats were collected for destruction and a new seat was issued in return. The citizens in the community were very thankful and appreciative to the troopers and Director Hutchinson for having the event in the coastal area.

The personnel listed below will be detached from your Troop. SFC Gary Mills will be the lead Instructor for the class, and the attendees involvement will serve your Troop in several ways. In addition to the normal curriculum, the attendees will receive detailed instruction in reference to the new P. T. Program that will be implemented in the early summer. In your Troop, they will be a point of contact and will assist the Troop Lieutenant in the implementation of the new P. T. Program as it progresses in the future. I will be working on this, this afternoon and in the morning. Yesterday Ashley started looking but did not find anything. She did find a previous stop on the boyfriend. This last stop was not recorded on DVD, so I will need for you to help me try and pull the "event" from the hard drive. I don't know how much has been recorded since the stop. I know yesterday he was told not to stop anything else until I got back with him. He is on pass for a couple of days. I should be able to give you more before lunch tomorrow. Not knowing specific dates and times are a little difficult.

Rick Allen Announces Emanuel County Chair

AUGUSTA - Today, businessman and Congressional candidate Rick Allen announced Zac Frye as his Emanuel County Chair.

Said Rick, "Zac is a leader in his community. He knows that he can continue to make his community a better place with hard work and determination—not by some government program. I'm honored to have his support, friendship and prayers."

Zac Frye resides in his hometown of Swainsboro, Georgia, since graduating from Georgia Southern University with a degree in Business Administration with an emphasis in Finance. He is currently employed by Durden Banking Company, Inc. as a loan officer, and enjoys interacting and helping his community grow and prosper. Zac currently serves as the president of the Swainsboro Rotary club for the 2013-2014 Rotary year and is very involved with his church, First United Methodist Church of Swainsboro, the Emanuel County Chamber of Commerce, the Emanuel County Arts Council and the Emanuel County Eagle Club. Community involvement is important to him and his wife, Leah Lanier Frye, and he strives to make Emanuel County a desirable location for its current citizens and newcomers. Along with enjoying time with his family, helping with church and community projects, he also spends time hunting, golfing and fishing.

Praising Rick's experience as a small business owner, Zac said, "I am supporting Rick Allen in his campaign for U.S. Congress due to our shared moral values and opinions of government. Rick's experience as a successful small-business owner will represent our area well and get our government back on the right track."

Zac continued, "Rick Allen understands business, sound finance practices, community banks and farmers. I feel as though his genuine sincerity for this district, the state of Georgia and this country are unique and unparalleled."

Everyone,

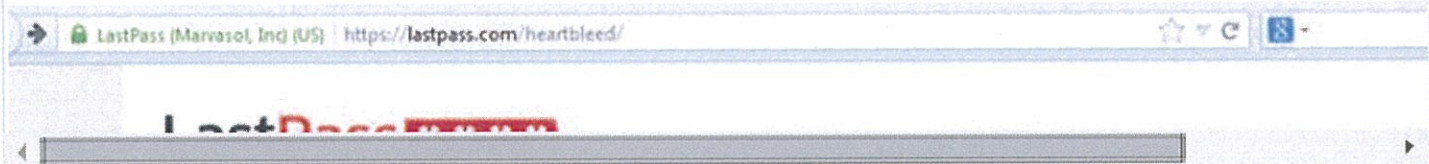

You have probably heard by now on the news about the Heartbleed Website vulnerability that was discovered on April

There are a lot of technical details that could be shared but the gist of it is that it a vulnerability may exist in websites a daily basis for multitudes of things. If you want the technical details you can read them at <http://heartbleed.com/>

The vulnerability exists on the server side (not your web browser or your computer) and until the service provider patch your username and password could already be compromised.

Currently there is a "website checker" tool that you can use to see if some of the websites that you may go to are vul This is a private company and is in no way affiliated with GA DPS but provides this tool free of charge to the public. open a web browser and navigate to <https://lastpass.com/heartbleed/> and put in the complete website address of the want to check for the vulnerability. You can then make a better informed decision if you need to reset you password i email account at yahoo.com, or your online banking account at abcbank.com or your legal advice account at deweyc or any other website that you want to check.

Screenshots of the checker website are below:

INVESTIGATIVE SUMMARY

On April 11, 2014, at approximately 6:45 a.m., CPL Jason Ellis and SFC James Morgan of the Department of Public Safety (DPS) Office of Professional Standards (OPS) arrived in Augusta, Georgia to obtain additional information associated with case number IA-0035-2014. CPL Ellis and SFC Morgan obtained the following information as a result of this investigative act.

On April 11, 2014, at approximately 6:45 a.m., CPL Ellis and SFC Morgan verified that LT Doug Wilson's (Assistant Troop Commander, Troop E) DPS issued Dodge Charger was parked at LT Donnie Smith's residence located at 3124 Whaley Road Augusta, Georgia, 30907 (photograph attached).

On April 11, 2014, at approximately 6:50 a.m., CPL Ellis and SFC Morgan arrived in the area of Augusta Sports & Travel (AST) located at 1018 Northwood Road Augusta, Georgia. CPL Ellis and SFC Morgan observed TFC2 Ben Rollins (Post 25 Grovetown) present in the driveway of the business attired in the Class B trooper uniform and campaign hat. TFC2 Rollins appeared to be providing security at the location and occasionally transported guests via golf cart.

On April 11, 2014, shortly after 7:00 a.m., CPL Ellis and SFC Morgan observed LT Donnie Smith exit the side door of the AST building where he appeared to greet guests who had arrived in a white Ford Econoline passenger van in the driveway area. LT Smith was attired in khaki shorts and a dark colored golf style pullover shirt.

CPL Ellis and SFC Morgan remained in the area of AST until 11:00 a.m., but did not see LT Smith after he had re-entered the AST building at approximately 7:15 a.m. At 11:06 a.m., CPL Ellis received a text message from retired SFC Perry Wayne Hobbs. Hobbs' text message read "Been told he has been at the hospitality house since 6:30 a.m. Driving POV today. Working on second floor. Not sure if on Cads or not – R168". At 11:07 a.m., CPL Ellis received a text message from Hobbs which read "Just drove off in his POV – R168".

INTERVIEW TRANSCRIPT

CPL Ellis: Corporal, I'm gonna go over a couple of little forms right quick before we get started. Ah, I mentioned earlier that I'd have you review the Garrity Warning. Let's see, I'm gonna go ahead and have you kind of read over that. And if you have any questions about it just feel free to ask me.

(Whereupon, form is read and signed.)

CPL Ellis: All right. I've already witnessed that one for you. Today's date is June 11th, 2014. The time is about 9:51 a.m. This interview is gonna be with Cpl. Richard Fishel currently assigned to Post 25, Grovetown. My name is Cpl. Jason Ellis with OPS and also present for this interview is SFC James Morgan with OPS. The interview is taking place here at Headquarters. Ah, Corporal, are you aware that the interview is being taped at this time?

CPL Fishel: Yes.

CPL Ellis: Okay. And you swear or affirm that the statements that you will make today will be truthful and correct to the best of your knowledge?

CPL Fishel: Yes.

CPL Ellis: Are you familiar that this is an administrative procedure and not a criminal procedure?

CPL Fishel: Yes.

CPL Ellis: Okay. And you reviewed the Garrity rule?

CPL Fishel: Yes, sir.

CPL Ellis: Any questions about it at all?

CPL Fishel: No.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Let's see, the employee under investigation today is Lt. Donnie Smith, Troop E officer. And the allegations in that case are basically misconduct or working a secondary employment while on duty with GSP or DPS. Ah, I'm gonna just lay your forms over here out of the way. We -- we gonna have several questions today. But to just kind of preface our interview a little bit, ah, we understand -- we received some allegations or an allegation of misconduct against Lt. Smith from Retired SFC Perry Hobbs. And during the course of the case we -- once we spoke with him about it we realized that he really didn't have any firsthand information. That -- that pretty much everything that he had to provide us was pretty much hearsay.

So at that point we did a little bit further investigation and we realized that you and Trooper Rollins happen to be working in the area the week of the Masters Golf Tournament and that you two would be very likely to have witnessed Lt. Smith's activities that week, where he was, what he might be doing. So that's our purpose for having you here today is to see if you can help shed some light on the allegation that Retired Sgt. Hobbs made.

I guess to begin doing that can you just tell me what your involvement was during the week of the Masters Golf Tournament.

CPL Fishel: With Donnie?

CPL Ellis: Just in general. Ah, did you work off-duty that week?

CPL Fishel: I worked -- I worked for a separate company --

CPL Ellis: Okay.

CPL Fishel: -- from what Ben and Donnie were doing. And I'll just -- I'll just preface mine by saying that my knowledge, all my information -- and that's why I was telling you I probably need to go first -- I got from Ben. Ah, if you actually seen, actually seen Donnie with my own two eyes I never did. Ah, so I -- a lot of what I got, well everything I got was straight from Ben, so.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

CPL Fishel: Because I wasn't working that week obviously or with Ben or Donnie that week, so. Ben I believe may have texted me initially to start this thing, something to the effect of guess who is here, working down here. It's one of them things that I mean I don't want to go outside the scope of this but it's one of those things that we've known about for a long time, some other things.

And then that's where my involvement in it started. I -- I wasn't affiliated with them two in anyway, so. Ben called or texted me. It may have been a phone call. I don't remember. But anyway we spoke, texted and he alerted me initially to the fact that Donnie was -- Donnie was down working in civilian clothes at the place where Ben was working.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

CPL Fishel: Same -- same house.

CPL Ellis: All right.

CPL Fishel: And I'll tell you my next -- my next -- I can tell you where I got sort of involved in it was, ah, in the course of our either text or conversation Ben asked me if -- if Donnie was off or 10-8 and did I know? I said, Ben, I don't know. I didn't have my computer obviously with me. And so he wanted me to find out. And I -- I'm trying to, you know, not get drug into this thing but I said well why don't you do it? He -- he didn't want to do it, so I called the Post. And after I did I said I probably shouldn't have called the Post, especially when you've got a Lieutenant involved. But anyway I did and I spoke to the operator and I just nonchalantly said, hey, is Donnie 10-8? Is Donnie working? And she said yes. And I said, you know, he's 10-8? She said, yeah, he's on the CAD. I said okay. And that was the end of that to which I told Ben he's -- he's 10-8.

This was either a Tuesday -- I believe it was a Tuesday maybe. It may have been a Monday but I'm thinking it was a Tuesday. And I relayed to Ben he's 10-8. To which he responded, well he's down here in civilian clothes driving an SUV around or working down here on the phone and all this other stuff, so.

CPL Ellis: All right. I tell you before we -- just tell me who were you working for that day? Just kind of --

CPL Fishel: Sports Court.

CPL Ellis: Did you work with the same people all week?

CPL Fishel: Yeah.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Just tell me about what your involvement was during the Masters week to kind of give me somewhere to start.

CPL Fishel: What do you mean, just what I did?

CPL Ellis: Yeah. And who -- what company you worked for?

CPL Fishel: Sports Court.

CPL Ellis: Sport Court.

CPL Fishel: And it's just a private company that drive around, drive folks around, their clients around.

CPL Ellis: I gotcha. It's kind of like a transportation service?

CPL Fishel: Yeah.

CPL Ellis: Ah, the -- ah, you worked for that company pretty much the whole week?

CPL Fishel: Yes, sir.

CPL Ellis: Okay. And did that put you -- where -- I guess in terms of location where were you located at that week?

CPL Fishel: Well, their -- their -- they've got two areas. Ah, the main area I was at is in Mount Vintage, which is in South Carolina over the bridge. We transport guests. It's, ah, I'd say it's about -- I don't know -- 15 or 20 miles from where Donnie was at.

CPL Ellis: Uh-huh.

CPL Fishel: But they've got a secondary place that occasionally we would pick up from on Washington Road at Eisenhower Drive at Scottish Rite.

CPL Ellis: I gotcha.

CPL Fishel: And we would go there occasionally to pick up guests. But most of us that were on what they called the house program we just transport guests from the houses and Mount Vintage to golf at various locations.

CPL Ellis: So you really just don't have any proximity to where Ben in that job?

CPL Fishel: Well, if I was going to the Scottish Rite for something or another, which I may have done two or three times, now that's -- that's a couple of blocks away. But I -- I -- I made it a point not to go -- I didn't want to go over there. I knew Ben was there. Ben was eyes the whole week. He's -- he's gonna -- he saw everything. So I -- there was no purpose in me driving by there and getting spotted. So I said I'm not -- I'm not gonna do it, so.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

CPL Fishel: All of my -- all of my information is gonna be phone calls and text from Ben.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

CPL Fishel: Like I said, could -- I can verify that he was 10-8 on the CAD that day that Ben called me whenever that was, Monday or Tuesday. And maybe another day he called me and said he's down here again. Well he was there the whole week but, you know, he just wanted me to check to see if he was 10-8 on the CAD but I didn't call the operator that time for that, so. I thought better of that because I didn't want somebody to find out about it and try to hang me out to dry, anyway.

CPL Ellis: Ah, just tell me what -- if you can start at the beginning of the week. You're doing a pretty good job about telling -- just telling the story. Ah, just kind of begin with the beginning of the week like Monday to the best of your recollection and tell me, just relay to us everything that -- that, ah, that you know about Lt. Smith working down there during that time, you know, particularly the text or what they said or what Ben told you. Just tell us the story.

CPL Fishel: That about sums it up what I -- I mean it -- I'm trying to remember the days we initially contacted each other. I want to say it was a Tuesday, ah, that I received a text or a phone call. Again I'm not sure. It's -- it's been awhile back. I would say initially it was a text to the fact that, you know, Ben is working at a certain house and he saw Donnie down there as well in civilian clothes. And, ah, I may have really or something like that. I -- I don't remember what all was said. But anyway the point of the matter is my next main involvement was to find out if he was 10-8 for Ben. Which I didn't want to do initially but I did it. And I called and he was 10-8 on the CAD, which, you know, I guess that's pretty easy to verify.

Ah, and I told Ben that and Ben then basically throughout the rest of the week he was the one telling me, hey, he's down here again or he's here. I think toward the end of the week there might have been some days when he was down there and, ah, that he was not on the CAD. I don't know whether he got wind of something or another. But -- and -- and -- that -- so that's really -- I mean that covers the part that.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

CPL Fishel: I mean our conversations with each other, ah, I never laid eyes on Donnie.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Has anybody else come to you and said anything about it over the course or from the time this started until today, any other employees or?

CPL Fishel: As far as I mean I've spoken to some people, yeah, that are kind of familiar with what's going on.

CPL Ellis: Just lay it all out for us.

CPL Fishel: Okay. Ah, well it's some of the people that worked with me during Masters Week. I hate to throw names out there but I guess that's what I need to do.

CPL Ellis: Yeah.

CPL Fishel: I worked with Jason Johnson. I worked with Paul Cosper. I worked with I think maybe Paul Waller.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

CPL Fishel: But I just mentioned to him in brief passing or it came up in conversation. I don't know whether he asked me or heard about it and asked me. But that's -- that's the three main ones. I wouldn't even call Paul a main one. But that's the first two Paul and Jason they were familiar with it the whole week this was going on as well.

CPL Ellis: Would you call it common knowledge that everybody kind of knew about it?

CPL Fishel: Oh, yeah. Yeah, once it got -- once it -- once the door was opened and it started going out there then, ah, you know, like I said I got phone calls. We spoke, people spoke, you know, at least the ones I'm telling you.

CPL Ellis: Right. I got a -- I got me a long prepared list of questions here and I told you that earlier.

CPL Fishel: Yeah.

CPL Ellis: Ah, I'm gonna kind of look over them and see what ones will apply to you --

CPL Fishel: Okay.

CPL Ellis: -- and just ask you a few questions. Now do you know Perry Hobbs at all?

CPL Fishel: I do know Perry Hobbs.

CPL Ellis: Just tell me how you know him.

CPL Fishel: He was my -- he was my Sergeant in Thompson until he went out on medical retirement.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right. Ah, have you had any conversations with him about all this?

CPL Fishel: I have. I -- ah, we spoke that week. He was -- we initially spoke. Ah, I believe he had already had some information given to him. I think he was wanting me to verify some stuff. And I told him I said he's down here. He's on the CAD 10-8. I believe Ben spoke with Perry as well. And I don't know who else Perry spoke with.

CPL Ellis: Right.

CPL Fishel: But he wasn't wanting to say much about that. But, ah, I did speak with Perry probably a couple of times that week. I probably called him and he may be called me. I didn't initiate both conversations.

CPL Ellis: Right.

CPL Fishel: But, yeah, Perry was aware of it. And I'm guessing that's why Perry filed the complaint. I don't know if I want to say that it was from us but it could have been from information from us. But, yeah, I did speak with Perry. Uh-huh.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Let's see, some of these we've already covered so I'm gonna kinda breeze through them here. Let's see, ah -- CPL Fishel: I'll just tell you this, Perry has called us about some other things. I mean I don't want to broaden this out but.

CPL Ellis: We're gonna be asking you about that in a minute anyway.

CPL Fishel: Oh, okay. Because I mean there are some other things.

CPL Ellis: Right.

CPL Fishel: Perry calls --- I don't know where he's getting some of his stuff from but he calls me or asks me, hey, is Smith as he calls him -- there's no love lost -- at such and such meeting or something? If I'm working I can -- I can help him out. But if I'm not, you know, it's simply pull the CAD up. Where is he? So those sort of things. But, yeah, I do talk to Perry.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Ah, we'll -- we'll talk more about if there are other things in a little bit.

CPL Fishel: Okay.

CPL Ellis: I'm gonna stick with this one just for right now.

CPL Fishel: Gotcha. That's why I didn't want to go out too far.

CPL Ellis: Do you remember what days that you actually worked that week just in a off-duty capacity or?

CPL Fishel: Monday through Sunday.

CPL Ellis: You worked the whole week?

CPL Fishel: Yes, sir.

CPL Ellis: Okay. With that company you mentioned earlier?

CPL Fishel: Yes, sir.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Ah, let's see, is that a company that you normally work with them every year the Masters rolls around or?

CPL Fishel: Just the last two years. Lt. Cody got me -- he -- he's the one that got us all on with them.

CPL Ellis: I gotcha.

CPL Fishel: Excellent, Lt. Cody, retired.

CPL Ellis: Let's see, a lot of these won't pertain to you since you worked for a different company other than what Ben was working for over there. And a lot of them you've answered. But, ah, did you ever happen to see Lt. Smith in a State vehicle when he was off or anything like that during that week?

CPL Fishel: Not during that week, not in a State vehicle, no. Now I'll tell you this as well, another thing I got from Ben -- I'm just giving you what I got from Ben. Sometime during the week he said he observed Donnie in a Ford Expedition I believe. Again, apparently he's working on-duty with us and driving around in a Ford Expedition or some another. I believe it was a Ford Expedition but a SUV, so.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

CPL Fishel: But I don't believe -- I never got any information from anybody that said that he was in a State vehicle that week so I don't know about that.

CPL Ellis: Have -- have you received any information about him being in uniform over there at that other place at that residence or that business where he was working, supposedly working off-duty?

CPL Fishel: Not in uniform.

CPL Ellis: All right.

CPL Fishel: It was -- from what I understand he was in civilian clothes all week. I'm pretty sure. That's all I know about that, the dress code or the dress.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Ah, do you know anything about what his duties were over in this other capacity in this other job?

CPL Fishel: Don't know.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Ah, has Lt. Smith approached you in any kind of way before the week of the Masters or during that week or even after at all? Has he talked to you anything about this?

CPL Fishel: Not at all.

CPL Ellis: Nothing?

CPL Fishel: No, which is -- that's -- that's the main thing a lot of people were concerned about when this started, you know, the retributive effects or anything like that. But nothing, I noticed nothing. I talked to him about it. As a matter of fact every conversation we've had has just been run of the mill stuff, so.

CPL Ellis: All right. Ah, you think it was probably that Tuesday when you first became aware of him over there --

CPL Fishel: I believe it was.

CPL Ellis: -- when -- when Ben reached out to you?

CPL Fishel: I believe it was a Tuesday.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

CPL Fishel: It could have been Monday but like I said I'm not exactly sure.

CPL Ellis: Okay. So far as conversation with other employees about it you think it's pretty well limited to the folks we talked about a while ago?

CPL Fishel: Yeah.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right. As far as your part of talking to everybody?

CPL Fishel: Yeah. Well that's when the buzz started going about that he's doing this people started talking and asking questions and calling each other. But, yeah, the main two that I spoke with about it was Jason and Paul Cosper.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right. Can you -- which -- how did it go now, did Perry Hobbs contact you first or did you contact him first about this?

CPL Fishel: Ah, I initially spoke with Perry.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right. I mean you called him?

CPL Fishel: Yeah.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

CPL Fishel: I believe he had already had information.

CPL Ellis: Okay. I guess what I'm trying to say is did you -- did somebody tell you to call him or did you just decide to call him on your own?

CPL Fishel: I don't think -- me and Ben spoke. I don't know who got him first but I think -- I don't know. But, you know, it's just one of those things that you just kind of get -- I mean you just kind of get tired of the things that you see going on. And, you know, if you try to do something about it it might not turn out well for you so you try to figure out which route you're gonna go with this. So, ah, but like I said when I spoke with him he was, yeah, I got some information. That's what I'm hearing. So, you know, I just whatever you want to do with it there it is.

CPL Ellis: Right.

CPL Fishel: But anyway. And I don't know whether it was just me and Ben spoke with him or other people but, yeah.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Ah, did you ever -- did you happen to approach any of your supervisors at work about it at all?

CPL Fishel: No. I, ah, I may have mentioned it after the fact to probably Richie just letting him know what was going on about it.

CPL Ellis: It's very important now if you can clarify for me if you did talk to him or not. Ah, I mean just if you did just tell me you did.

CPL Fishel: No, I mean I probably, I mean, maybe not that week.

CPL Ellis: Right.

CPL Fishel: But, yeah, just we've spoken about it.

CPL Ellis: Right.

CPL Fishel: Just to kind of let him know what he was doing down there.

CPL Ellis: Do you have any idea what he did with the information?

CPL Fishel: I don't think he did anything with it.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right.

CPL Fishel: As far as I know. And I don't know that I said it to him in a way that I was wanting him to do anything with it or whether he took it that a way. It may have been just one of this, ah, hey such and such is at it again. Here, you know, I mean I don't know that I mentioned it any other way than that.

CPL Ellis: Would you say that it was pretty clear what you meant by what you said though what Lt -- what you felt Lt. Smith was doing?

CPL Fishel: Well, yeah, I felt it was wrong.

CPL Ellis: He understood, right?

CPL Fishel: I would say so. I mean, but I'm just telling you. I mean you asked me. I'm not doing it to --

CPL Ellis: I understand.

CPL Fishel: -- you know, for him. I mean I'm my own person.

CPL Ellis: Right.

CPL Fishel: I don't, you know, the situation -- I don't know. You may know. There's a -- there's a dynamic in this -- in that Troop with him, Lt. Smith.

CPL Ellis: For my benefit tell me what you're talking about.

CPL Fishel: And it's just -- I mean if you do the wrong thing in his eyes and you step on his toes it could -- it could turn out not good for you. And Ben will tell you that's where he's -- I mean he's done everything in his power. For some reason he just don't, you know, like certain people. I don't know if he just wants to get them in trouble or what. And, ah, you see that and, you know, he just does what he wants to. You just get tired of it.

CPL Ellis: Right.

CPL Fishel: And so to keep -- to try to put a buffer between me and him, you know, you may need to go tell somebody else --

CPL Ellis: Right.

CPL Fishel: -- or share it with somebody else to get this ball rolling because you just. He -- he does things and he just gets away with it, does what he wants to. But gosh you go find something on a traffic stop you did wrong and, gosh, it's World War III. Ah, so -- and that's why I mentioned, you know, I mentioned to Richie what was going on but not to -- not to tell Richie just so Richie could tell. I'm just, hey, you know, here it is again.

CPL Ellis: Let -- let me clarify something now. I'm not trying to put you in a corner on this stuff in asking some of these questions what my intent is because I don't know what the dynamics are over there. You know, I'm from a long way off from that area.

CPL Fishel: Yeah.

CPL Ellis: I mean I have some idea but not -- I don't know it like you know it. So that's why I'm asking you these questions is to -- I'm gonna have to explain it all. And what your, how you perceive, you know, what the climate is over there and what's going on. The only way I can do that is just to ask you some real pointed questions sometimes.

CPL Fishel: Yeah. Well I mean it's a good Troop. But, ah, over the years we had a -- we had a Captain that just kind of , not kind of but let Donnie do what he wanted to do.

CPL Ellis: Right.

CPL Fishel: And I mean I don't know -- I don't know how much you want -- I mean just, you know, from going to play golf on dadgum Friday afternoon to doing whatever he wanted to do. I mean it's just common knowledge. Anybody can tell you that. I mean it's a big joke around there.

CPL Ellis: Right.

CPL Fishel: You can interview any trooper that's been there for long enough. But, gosh, I mean if you do or say the wrong thing he'll come down on you like a doggone ton of bricks. And you just -- you're kind of worried about doing anything. You know, but after a while you get tired of this, you know. Right is right and wrong is wrong. And it's just -- it's just been that a way for years. He just -- he just does what he wants to. And I mean I just -- Ben's tired of it. I got tired of it. And Perry -- he treated Perry like that. That's why Perry don't like him. That's probably why Perry filed a complaint too but, ah, just him, not me. But, you know, he -- it's just sometimes you say this needs to be stopped, so.

CPL Ellis: I get -- what I'm hearing you say is what you -- is double standard.

CPL Fishel: Oh, yeah.

CPL Ellis: That's what I'm hearing you saying.

CPL Fishel: I mean, you know, I know you're limited on the Masters and maybe we'll go to the Commission, maybe we'll go ride in cars. We may go out there later. But you could interview anybody in any Post that's been there in Troop E for any amount of time. I'm talking about that's been there. They will tell you that no Don -- they'll tell you, you know, he just does his own thing. So, ah, and I don't know. And that's just -- that's kind of why I think we felt -- we, me and Ben felt like that, you know, I'm not gonna -- I'm not gonna open this thing on my own. I'm just gonna, you know, put it out there. I mean let somebody else do it. But like you said I don't know when I spoke with Perry, whether somebody else or Ben or somebody already spoke with him but, yeah, he was.

CPL Ellis: Would you -- would I be accurate in saying that the reason you contacted Perry Hobbs was to kind of insure that it would get reported and that something would -- something would --

CPL Fishel: That's why I would have done it.

CPL Ellis: -- it would be addressed?

CPL Fishel: I would think so.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right.

CPL Fishel: And, you know, because if I'd a done it and it doesn't go anywhere or he cuts it off, finds out -- cuts it off before it gets to somebody that needed to know --

CPL Ellis: Right.

CPL Fishel: -- ah, I don't know. That, you know, could have maybe turned out where I'd a had a bad time there for as long as he was here, so -- or Ben or anybody else, so.

CPL Ellis: Ah, other than yourself and Rollins do you know anybody else that might have helped provide information to Perry? Because what I'm trying to do in asking this question is if there is anybody else that we need to interview that had firsthand information, you know, other than you two?

CPL Fishel: From what I understand Ben has got some names.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

CPL Fishel: Firsthand I don't.

CPL Ellis: Yes, sir.

CPL Fishel: Me and Ben -- I've got -- everything I got was from Ben, either through phone call or text.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

CPL Fishel: Ah, and seeing him or verifying that he's 10-8 on the CAD that time. That's -- that's my -- from what I understand Ben has got folks that worked down there that seen him, ah, so anyway.

CPL Ellis: Look here, to be completely fair on both sides of the fence that -- that off-duty that you worked have you got a letter in for that and approval and all to be working over there too?

CPL Fishel: I should.

CPL Ellis: Because these are the same questions I'm gonna have to ask Lt. Smith.

CPL Fishel: I gave it to David Cody to do.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right.

CPL Fishel: Now I haven't -- I haven't checked it so maybe I should.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

CPL Fishel: But being that you asked me that maybe that -- maybe there -- I don't know.

CPL Ellis: Ah, okay. Tell me the name of that company one more time.

CPL Fishel: Sports Court.

CPL Ellis: Okay. I'll check on it. But being I got to ask him those questions I'm gonna ask everybody just to be fair. Ah, you pretty much worked the whole week, right?

CPL Fishel: Yeah.

CPL Ellis: Okay. And do you norm -- I -- I think it's standard practice now. I've been out the field now for about four years or a little better. Ah, the off-duty time sheets do y'all still do those?

CPL Fishel: Yes, sir.

CPL Ellis: Okay. So it --

CPL Fishel: I've got that.

CPL Ellis: That will all be reported?

CPL Fishel: Yeah.

CPL Ellis: Ah, I'm gonna ask you to try and just email me a copy of that information to put in with your interview.

CPL Fishel: Okay.

CPL Ellis: Ah, and the -- I'll check to see if I can get a copy of the request to work it and all that and make sure that that's all squared away.

CPL Fishel: Okay.

CPL Ellis: Ah, okay. I've asked you some of these already. Let's see, do you -- what other concerns do you have about any policies or laws or procedures or anything like that?

You kind of touched on a while ago earlier. I told you we'd revisit it. Ah, any other things going on that you are aware of that Lt. Smith is doing that he shouldn't be doing?

CPL Fishel: Again, I had people call me and telling me that he's going to Commission meetings allegedly while he's working. And I've seen his car on the CAD. I don't know whether he's at a Commission meeting or paying a water bill but he's down at the Municipal Building which is where they conduct those meetings at and, ah, his car is down there, so. This has been long ago.

CPL Ellis: Right.

CPL Fishel: He hadn't -- that hadn't come up in a while, so.

CPL Ellis: All right. So attending -- basically attending a -- attending to county business or Commission business, County Commission business --

CPL Fishel: I've seen it in the past.

CPL Ellis: -- while on-duty would be.

CPL Fishel: I -- I've seen it in the past.

CPL Ellis: Ah, do you know about when that took place. I mean do you have an idea about how long we're talking about this?

CPL Fishel: Probably -- probably within the first year.

CPL Ellis: So in the -- in the current year, anyway?

CPL Fishel: No, not this year. When he -- I think when he first started getting it.

CPL Ellis: I gotcha. I gotcha.

CPL Fishel: Whenever that would have been. But I don't know. I haven't seen that lately.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right. Anything else?

CPL Fishel: No, that's the main thing. Seeing him, you know, seeing his car there. I can't think of anything else. That's about it.

CPL Ellis: Did, ah --

CPL Fishel: Now I never saw his car actually in the parking lot if that's what you're asking me. I'm going by what's on the CAD.

CPL Ellis: Right. Okay.

CPL Fishel: I'm -- I'm not going down there.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Ah, let's see, did Perry Hobbs tell you that we interviewed him at any time?

CPL Fishel: Yeah, he told me.

CPL Ellis: Do you remember --

CPL Fishel: It may have been in the conversation, one of the other conversations he called me.

CPL Ellis: Do you remember about when he told you that?

CPL Fishel: Later in the week maybe.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right.

CPL Fishel: I think we probably spoke maybe twice.

CPL Ellis: Ah, let's see, who else would you recommend that we talk to about this other than Rollins? Anyone else that you can recommend that could kind of help clear it up?

CPL Fishel: That's about all I will be able to know besides the people I spoke with about it like I told you. But I don't know that they would be able to help you out any.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

CPL Fishel: Capt. Johnson or ex-Captain Cosper.

CPL Ellis: Cosper.

CPL Fishel: But I don't know that they would be any help to you.

CPL Ellis: We have been trying to keep it as focused and as narrow as possible. But we do want to, you know, if there is someone in particular that would hold firsthand information we want to be sure and ask everybody that would have that. Ah, Sergeant, do you have any other questions?

SFC Morgan: I don't have any. I think you pretty much cleared it up.
Ah -- yeah, I do have one?

CPL Fishel: Okay.

SFC Morgan: The week that you were off and you worked the Masters were you on annual leave?

CPL Fishel: Yes.

SFC Morgan: You take annual leave? Okay.

CPL Fishel: Yes, they let us take the week off.

SFC Morgan: Okay. All right.

CPL Ellis: I want to ask you to bring one other part -- email me one other thing. Will you send me your 617 for that reporting period? And that's gonna be the 31st of March through the 27th of April and just send me your off-duty time sheet.

CPL Fishel: Yeah.

CPL Ellis: That'll work.

CPL Fishel: Okay. Scan it and email it to you?

CPL Ellis: Yeah, that'll be great. Just, ah, it's on that card right there. Let me put, this is my telephone number here. And I got that other one too but it's forwarded to that one. But either way whichever is best for you. But, ah, I really don't have anything else. And what we'll do is we'll go ahead and close the interview.

CPL Fishel: Okay.

CPL Ellis: I'll go ahead and talk with Rollins. The time is about 10:26 a.m. and that concludes this interview with Cpl. Fishel.

INTERVIEW TRANSCRIPT

CPL Ellis: Ben, I'm gonna -- I've got a recorder on in there but I always use a backup in the event that one fails.

TFC2 Rollins: Okay.

CPL Ellis: It will help me be able to do the summaries at the end. Ah, Ben, I'm gonna just kind of give you a rundown here. The first thing I'm gonna do right quick is just let you look at the, ah, review this Garrity Warning. This is an administrative case. And basically we're compelling you to answer the questions.

TFC2 Rollins: Okay.

CPL Ellis: You don't get much choice about it. But, if you'll review that.

TFC2 Rollins: Okay.

CPL Ellis: If you have any questions about it at all. It's not a criminal case, okay.

TFC2 Rollins: Okay.

(Whereupon, TFC2 Rollins read and signed document.)

CPL Ellis: All right. I'm gonna kind of open us up here right quick. Today's date is June 11th, 2014. The time is about 10:40 a.m. This interview is gonna be with TFC2 Ben Rollins who is currently assigned to Post 25, Grovetown; is that right?

TFC2 Rollins: Yes.

CPL Ellis: And conducting this interview will be myself,

Cpl. Jason Ellis of OPS, and also present for this interview will be SFC James Morgan of OPS. And this interview is being conducted today at DPS Headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia. Ben, are you aware that the interview is being taped at this time?

TFC2 Rollins: Yes.

CPL Ellis: Do you swear or affirm that the statements you'll make will be truthful and correct to the best of your knowledge?

TFC2 Rollins: Yes.

CPL Ellis: Ah, you're familiar that this is an administrative case and not a criminal case, right?

TFC2 Rollins: Yes.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Ah, you have reviewed the Garrity Warning?

TFC2 Rollins: Yes.

CPL Ellis: Any questions about it at all?

TFC2 Rollins: No.

CPL Ellis: Okay. As you know we've already interviewed Cpl. Fishel associated with the case too and that the employee under investigation today is Lt. Donnie Smith of Troop E. And the allegations that we have to investigate are basically misconduct and working a secondary employment job while on-duty with DPS.

TFC2 Rollins: Okay.

CPL Ellis: Ah, that's pretty much what we're about here today.

I've got a list of questions that I'm gonna ask you at some point. But just to kind of give you to preface an interview a little bit, the interview today is being conducted along -- ah, regarding that allegation of misconduct on Lt. Smith. We received the allegation from Retired SFC Perry Hobbs --

TFC2 Rollins: Okay.

CPL Ellis: -- is how this all got started with us. Now we interviewed Hobbs a little while back and what were able to determine was is that he really -- the information that he provided was hearsay basically because he didn't witness any of it firsthand. Ah, now we have an idea that you were present in some capacity the week of the Masters Golf Tournament at a location where Lt. Smith was -- we know that he was present at at the same time and that's why we have you here today.

TFC2 Rollins: Okay.

CPL Ellis: Ah, we had to bring you in, you and Cpl. Fishel based on our observations there. We know that somebody had to -- had to talk to Perry Hobbs in order for him to get the information that he got. So we're trying to kind of clear -- so that I can tell this story properly, we're trying to get all that information.

TFC2 Rollins: Okay.

CPL Ellis: Ah, just tell me -- I guess the way to begin is I'm gonna let you just go through everything, just tell us the story, you know, what you know about this.

TFC2 Rollins: Okay.

CPL Ellis: And then I'll -- after that I don't want to interrupt you.

TFC2 Rollins: Okay.

CPL Ellis: I want you to tell it the way you know how to tell it.
And then after that you probably gonna answer a lot of the questions that I had on this page here anyway, okay?

TFC2 Rollins: All right.

CPL Ellis: So let's just let you talk, okay. Ah, just begin with -- tell me how it is you became aware of all this in the beginning, you know, whether you was on with the State Patrol or whether you was working secondary employment or off-duty or whatever you want to call it.

TFC2 Rollins: Okay.

CPL Ellis: Just kind of tell me the whole story.

TFC2 Rollins: All right. Well, every year of Masters week I work off-duty and a lot of troopers and deputies and police officers do because it's our one week a year to make money extra. You make pretty good, you know. So I worked at the Legends Club the Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in the parking lot security. And then, Thursday through Sunday I worked at Augusta Sports and Travel which is on Northwood, 1018 Northwood Drive.

And I worked there -- I'm actually working for Executive Marketing Services but they contract to A, I guess Sports Travel for security and food and a couple of other things. So Executive Marketing pays me but they just have several companies they do that for.

CPL Ellis: Uh-huh.

TFC2 Rollins: So they have a, you know, I own the company and I'll get y'all to work for me. And I say, okay, you're gonna be at my house but you're gonna be at one of my client's houses, you know, or whatever, that kind of thing. So Executive Marketing paid me but I was assigned over there, my assignment for the week. And I worked, ah, every morning I got there about 6:00 a.m. give or take. It kind of got a little bit later in the week, a long week. But, ah, usually between 6:00, 6:15, I'd get there and I'd leave whenever they told me they didn't need me anymore.

CPL Ellis: What location are we talking about right now?

TFC2 Rollins: 1018 Azalea.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right.

TFC2 Rollins: And that was -- I mean, 1018 Northwood, I'm sorry, Augusta Sports and Travel.

CPL Ellis: I gotcha.

TFC2 Rollins: A white brick house up on top of a hill. Ah, but so I worked there Thursday through Sunday. However throughout the week they kind of feed us if I need something and I'm not working there. So I went by once or twice to get something to eat and make sure what time they wanted me to come in on Thursday and make sure that things are good to go and that kind of stuff.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: So, anything else? So I was there. I do security so I'm in uniform and a little bit of traffic control. I mean it's not a lot of traffic control, more just kind of security making sure that nobody is supposed to be in there and there's not. I help them dump the trash or whatever, you know, because it gets boring sometimes. But Lt. Smith was there every day that I was there. Ah, and then when I went by there Tuesday and Wednesday he was there during the daytime. I can't tell you what time it was. It would be in the morning probably or around lunch time because that's when I go over there.

And then I usually come up that way to go into the -- Northwood runs perpendicular to Washington Road. Northwood runs north and south. Washington Road runs east and west. The Legends Club is in the National Hills Shopping Center which is right here. And then if you come out the back entrance to National Hills Shopping Center where the Legends Club is that's Northwood Drive and there's two gates. And then, ah, 1018 is the second house on the right. There's a little strip but it's the second house. I live back in that neighborhood and I drive that way every morning to go to the Legends Club.

So I would pass by Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. I think Tuesday is the first day I saw Lt. Smith but it may have been Monday. I'm not quite sure which day it was. Ah, I'd lean towards Tuesday would be the first day for sure. I don't -- I don't -- I can't recall Monday. And then Wednesday he was there both times around lunch, if I recall the time correctly. And then Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday he was there when I got there and until I left or he may have been there after I left. And one of the nights I rode by it. It was dark is all I can tell you and he was still there. It was on like a Thursday night or a Friday night.

CPL Ellis:

Okay. All right. Ah, April 7th was a Monday.

TFC2 Rollins: Yes.

CPL Ellis: The -- let's see, do you remember where you were working April 7th?

TFC2 Rollins: The Legends Club.

CPL Ellis: The Legends Club?

TFC2 Rollins: And I believe Monday was the day it got rained out.

CPL Ellis: Okay. And the Legends Club is a different -- it's not AST?

TFC2 Rollins: No, completely different.

CPL Ellis: But it's next door pretty much?

TFC2 Rollins: You know, a couple hundred feet away.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right. So --

TFC2 Rollins: From here to the garage.

CPL Ellis: Uh-huh. Can you confirm or do you know if Lt. Smith was there on that Monday?

TFC2 Rollins: I -- I can't say 100% sure. You'd have to ask somebody that was working at the house that day.

CPL Ellis: Do you know of any other officers that may have been?

TFC2 Rollins: There wasn't any other law enforcement officers at the house on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday full-time because they were very low on their numbers this year, meaning that they didn't have a lot of clients and they didn't feel the need for security the first three days. Thursday through Sunday the days picked up and they wanted some security there. They have badges and cash and, you know, and they just don't want folks that are in there that ain't supposed to be in there.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right. Here's what I got right here. Monday through Wednesday they didn't have any officers, no security officers?

TFC2 Rollins: Correct.

CPL Ellis: At AST?

TFC2 Rollins: Right.

CPL Ellis: But Thursday through Sunday they were?

TFC2 Rollins: And I was there.

CPL Ellis: Those were your days?

TFC2 Rollins: Correct.

CPL Ellis: Okay, Rollins. And, ah, but in your travel and going to eat occasionally -- do you remember which days that you may have -- I guess what I'm -- I'm -- TFC2 Rollins: Monday I didn't. I'm 99% sure I didn't because it was raining Monday and we were in the parking lot seeking shelter.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: So, ah, I can't say for 100% sure that he was there on Monday.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right. Tuesday and Wednesday?

TFC2 Rollins: Tuesday I saw him and Wednesday I saw him.

CPL Ellis: All right.

TFC2 Rollins: Now the exact times I can't say but I would venture to say they were around lunchtime between 10:00 and 1:00 somewhere in there. But I mean I didn't really look at my clock. You know, I kind of didn't think nothing of it.

CPL Ellis: Right. About the same time on both days you think?

TFC2 Rollins: Uh-huh. Yes, sir.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right. Just what else can you tell me about it?

TFC2 Rollins: About Masters week?

CPL Ellis: Yes.

TFC2 Rollins: Ah, well I mean he was in plain clothes while he was there, I mean just normal golf attire. I mean I just figured he would -- he'd worked for American Corporate Events in years past and something happened with the business. I don't know the details but they went out of business. So I guess some of the clients that he had with them that he had dealings with he took them over to Augusta Sports and Travel because he knew those guys. And, ah, I guess he was entertaining the clients. I mean I don't know. I didn't see him -- I mean he wasn't drinking or nothing like that. I mean I didn't see him do anything like that. I mean he was just there all day every day and every now and again he'd leave and come back. But I mean that was it. And he just walked around inside and stood outside and sat upstairs and sat in the office and sat out back and just hung out.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right.

TFC2 Rollins: And that was -- Thursday through Sunday I mean I can say he was there at 6:00 in the morning, roughly 6:00 in the morning because that's the time I got there.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: And I usually left anywhere between 6:00 and 10:00. It kind of depended on what they needed.

CPL Ellis: P.M. at night?

TFC2 Rollins: Yes. And, ah, you know 1800 to 2200 because, you know, they got the badges coming in. They still got clients in the house. They just want to have somebody there. And then there's a couple nights that I stayed because one of the owners would have to leave and they kind of wanted two people there. And so I'd stay, you know, while one of the owners went and handled business and then when they came back then I'd leave. And I had to take an employee home, one of their employees home one night and stuff like that. And then Sunday night I didn't leave until 11:00 probably give or take.

CPL Ellis: Was he still there then on Sunday?

TFC2 Rollins: Yes.

CPL Ellis: All right. Okay. All right. Anything else?

TFC2 Rollins: As far as Masters week goes? Ah, ugh-ugh. I mean I can't -- somebody said he was 10-8 on the CAD but I never confirmed that. I mean that's not -- I don't know that for sure but that's what somebody told me.

CPL Ellis: Do you know what days that he was allegedly 10-8 on the CAD?

TFC2 Rollins: I heard Monday through Thursday but I don't know.

CPL Ellis: Do you know about what times?

TFC2 Rollins: Day shift.

CPL Ellis: Day shift?

TFC2 Rollins: (inaudible). Again, I didn't check my CAD on that but the folks that told me that had no reason to lie to me.

CPL Ellis: All right. Anything else? I'm gonna ask you several questions but I'm just trying to get you to tell me what you can think of without me having to bother you.

TFC2 Rollins: I mean I covered I mean the times. I mean he was in plain clothes. Ah, I don't -- I did not see him drive his State car if that's what y'all are wondering. I didn't see that. But I don't know for sure. I can tell you I didn't see the State car Thursday through Sunday --

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: -- there where we -- we -- we don't have our folks park at that house. The guy that owns this house owns the house next to it as well. And I didn't see it at either one of the houses. And I didn't see it across the street where we park. Ah, I think he was driving a rental one day or something. I -- I'm just assuming it was a rental because there's a lot of SUVs they rent and vans. I think he drove that one day and I think he was in his POV a couple of days. So I mean he did not --

CPL Ellis: What is his POV?

TFC2 Rollins: It's a blue Nissan Murano.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: I think I'm saying that right, one of those little crossover SUV looking things.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: So I mean he was in that a couple of days and I know that because he parked on the corner of Northwood. And I think it's Northwood Court or something.

CPL Ellis: All right. I'm gonna ask you to just run through some things here that I kind of prepared. Ah, you were present that week in an off-duty capacity. Did you have leave for that week?

TFC2 Rollins: Yes.

CPL Ellis: Preapproved leave and all?

TFC2 Rollins: Yes.

CPL Ellis: All right. Let's see, you just -- what you described the company that you was working with subcontracted to AST basically?

TFC2 Rollins: Correct.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: And they've done that for years, so.

CPL Ellis: Right. Did you have your MDT with you that week at all?

TFC2 Rollins: Ugh-ugh. I was at the house. I mean if I -- if I needed it I would just run and go get it because I don't live far.

CPL Ellis: Okay. And your duties were just security and a little bit light traffic control and that kind of thing?

TFC2 Rollins: Yeah.

CPL Ellis: At that location when you working there?

TFC2 Rollins: Yes.

CPL Ellis: Ah, let's see -- let's see, all right, Thursday through Sunday if I understood you correctly -- some of these things you've already answered so I'm gonna make sure I got it right.

TFC2 Rollins: Yeah, sure.

CPL Ellis: Ah, Thursday through Sunday when you did work there at AST you witnessed him arrive somewhere around 6:00 in the morning and he would be there up to 10:00 or 11:00 at night or something like, Sunday particularly at 11:00?

TFC2 Rollins: Sunday I know, yeah, because we got out real late because they were getting all the badges back in.

CPL Ellis: Right.

TFC2 Rollins: Me and him and the owners and a couple of the other guys were counting and sorting the badges out.

CPL Ellis: I gotcha. Ah, did not witness him in a DPS vehicle at all that week?

TFC2 Rollins: I didn't see him in one.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Ah, did you happen to ever witness him in -- Lt. Smith in his uniform when he was at any time around AST location or anywhere during the week of the Masters?

TFC2 Rollins: No, I didn't see him in uniform.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: He was wearing like golf clothes, you know, like khakis and a golf shirt and golf shoes.

CPL Ellis: I heard you say a while ago that you perceived his duties around there in that capacity of working at AST was kind of, ah, dealing with the dignitaries if you want to call that or the visitors.

TFC2 Rollins: Clients.

CPL Ellis: Clients. And, ah, but did you -- were there any observations that you had about any DPS duties that he conducted there during that time at that location?

TFC2 Rollins: Not that I know of. I mean I saw him on the phone but I mean I don't know what he was talking about or anything. Ah, but, no, I mean I didn't see him do any work -- I mean, you know, State work when we were there.

CPL Ellis: All right.

TFC2 Rollins: He didn't have his computer or nothing like that if that's what you're asking. I didn't see that.

CPL Ellis: You didn't see any State equipment in his possession or anything?

TFC2 Rollins: I mean he may have had his State phone on him but that's kind of common for everybody to carry their State phone, so.

CPL Ellis: Right. Okay. Ah, did he -- did Lt. Smith or has Lt. Smith made any direct comments to you before the Masters week or during or even after about any of this?

TFC2 Rollins: I'd hardly seen him.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: He hadn't -- I mean he just acted normal Masters week.

CPL Ellis: Right.

TFC2 Rollins: But he's a Lieutenant so I don't try to talk to him too much anyway so I just, you know.

CPL Ellis: Okay. What was the first time that you became aware that he, that something was going on, that he was present over there? When did you first become aware of that?

TFC2 Rollins: Ah, probably Tuesday.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right. And what was the circumstances when you first became aware, you know, of suspecting that something wasn't right?

TFC2 Rollins: Ah, well I talked to somebody and we were just kind of --

CPL Ellis: Tell me who you talked to now.

TFC2 Rollins: Cpl. Fishel.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: And, ah, we were just kind of shooting the bull, you know, like we always do. At the Masters everybody is always jiving and talking and pranking and stuff like that, at times usually. But, ah, then I said something about I saw him over there when I went by for lunch or something. And he said I think he's working today. I said I mean he might but he's in plain clothes. Ah, I think he's working. So after that -- after that, ah, you know, he was apparently working the rest of the week. I don't know if he was -- I don't -- I don't -- if I remember correctly and, you know, it's been a little while, I don't -- I don't think he was on the CAD Friday, Saturday or Sunday. But he was Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right. Has there been anybody else, any other DPS employees particularly that you've talked with other than Cpl. Fishel about any of this?

TFC2 Rollins: No.

CPL Ellis: Just him?

TFC2 Rollins: Yeah, I mean, in depth. I mean other folks know what's going on. But I mean --

CPL Ellis: All right. How do they know what's going on?

TFC2 Rollins: Well I mean they were down there Masters week. Ah, Capt. Johnson was down there and I don't know if he saw him or not but he come by and visited me, kind of said hey. You know, he used to be my Post Commander and he's always been nice to me and, ah, always treated me right. And so we have a friendly relationship. Even though he's got some rank now he still treats me like a person and a friend and he come by and said hey and ate lunch with me one day and all that, so.

CPL Ellis: You talked to him about it?

TFC2 Rollins: Ah, he asked me if he was there. I told him he was.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right. Ah, did you -- have you talked with Hobbs directly about it, Perry Hobbs?

TFC2 Rollins: Yes.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Just tell me about that.

TFC2 Rollins: Perry was calling me and asking me if he was down there and I said he was.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: And I said, why? He said, don't worry about it. And I said okay. And, ah, so he said, I just want you to tell me whether or not he's there. And I said, all right. So if he asked me I told him.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Ah, I didn't ask you think. I don't know if I asked you this or not a while ago? Tell me how you know Perry Hobbs because I don't know.

TFC2 Rollins: He was my buck sergeant --

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: -- when I was in Thomson.

CPL Ellis: All right. Okay. So you worked with him back earlier in your career?

TFC2 Rollins: Yes, the beginning of my career he was my buck sergeant.

CPL Ellis: Okay. That's how he would know to call you is y'all -- y'all have a relationship outside of probably outside of work and all that now that he's retired and still friends?

TFC2 Rollins: I mean we're friends. I don't -- I feel bad because I don't go by to see him as much as I should. Ah, but I try to stop by and say hey when I'm up there. I try not -- we try not to forget the retirees, you know. But I try and to talk to him, you know, when I can. But it's not often.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Did he call you first about this or did you call him first?

TFC2 Rollins: I think he called me. I'm not 100% sure though.

CPL Ellis: All right. Did you mention -- I know you talked to Fishel. Is there any other supervisors in the Department that you talked to about it other than -- well we talked about Fishel and Johnson, Capt. Johnson but is there anybody else that you can think of?

TFC2 Rollins: My SFC knows I'm coming up here. So I mean my other Lieutenant called me to come up here.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: But, ah --

CPL Ellis: I mean the week of the Masters is what I'm talking about.

TFC2 Rollins: Oh.

CPL Ellis: Pretty much what I'm saying is anybody in your chain other than --

TFC2 Rollins: Oh, in my -- no.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right.

TFC2 Rollins: I was trying to think of who all was down there.

CPL Ellis: Tell me exactly what you told Perry Hobbs, you know, exactly what you relayed to him, what he asked you and what you told him.

TFC2 Rollins: He just asked me if, ah, if he was there yes or no, if the Lieutenant was there. And I said yeah. And he said, well let me know when he leaves and I said okay. So I mean I don't care. I mean me and Perry are friends. I mean I didn't know all this was gonna come out of it. But I mean obviously it has. Ah, you know, on the same note what's right is right and what's wrong is wrong. And doing something that's wrong I mean you shouldn't be doing it if it's, you know.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Did he tell you where he got a hold of the information or where he was coming from with it?

TFC2 Rollins: Ugh-ugh, not that remember.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Ah, does anybody else on the Department or outside of the Department provided you with any information about Lt. Smith at all about that week or any other week, anything else that he might be into or doing wrong?

TFC2 Rollins: Ah, well I mean it's common knowledge he goes to Commission meetings while he's working, but.

CPL Ellis: When you say common knowledge, tell me how you know that?

TFC2 Rollins: I mean we got GPS trackers on our car. I mean, you know, we're always looking at the -- all of us down there are looking at the map to see where we're all at because we're jumping wrecks and seeing what's going on. And he's seen at the Commission Chambers or the building where the Commission Chambers is, I mean, you just figure that's what he's doing because the Sheriff's Office ain't in there and the Marshal's Office. I -- I don't know why else he'd be there, so. I hadn't seen him at a meeting but I would assume that's where he's at.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Do you remember the last time that you might have, you know, deducted that that was where he was based on where -- what you were seeing on the CAD?

TFC2 Rollins: Well, his car wasn't on the map for a long time. And then it started popping up on the map after Masters week for whatever reason. Ah, I -- I couldn't say for sure when the last time I saw his car down there but it's been within the last six months to a year for sure several times. And, ah, the last time I would say that that was possible was about a -- when was Memorial Day? A week ago?

CPL Ellis: Ah, probably. Well, it ain't been long ago.

SFC Morgan: About two weeks ago.

TFC2 Rollins: Two weeks ago. Ah, I'm a TFO, y'all know a Tactical Flight Officer and I got called out at 2:00 in the morning the Tuesday before Memorial Day I think. I'd have to look at the dates but recently. And, ah, we went to Tallapoosa which I didn't know where that was until.

But anyway --

CPL Ellis: It's on the west side, isn't it?

TFC2 Rollins: Sure is, northwest on up there too especially at 2:00 in the morning. But we had called up there for a (inaudible) callout and by the time I got back to Augusta it was after 11:00. And I was in my patrol car. I left the hangar and was going home and I had to leave that evening to go to, ah -- scratch that -- it was the Tuesday afternoon Memorial Day. I had to leave to go to Gainesville that evening because I had a class in Gainesville for aviation Wednesday and Thursday. And, ah, I was just kind of looking at the CAD seeing what was going on. I was going to the Wendy's on the 2700 block of Washington Road which is near my house. And I was just kind of looking to see if anybody was in a wreck and see if I could avoid a wreck because I wanted to get something to eat. Anyways I saw that Lt. Smith's car was at his house, which was fine. And there was a couple other guys out and I was in the drive-thru at Wendy's and then he pulled in behind me in his POV in plain clothes.

CPL Ellis: Okay. So his car was on the CAD but he was in his -- at his residence -- his car was on the CAD located at his residence but he was in his POV behind you at Wendy's?

TFC2 Rollins: Uh-huh.

CPL Ellis: And that was the Tuesday after Memorial Day?

TFC2 Rollins: I'll have to look up the date real quick if you want me to.

CPL Ellis: Yeah, if you can. I got it kind of written down here.

TFC2 Rollins: I think I left my phone in the other room.

CPL Ellis: Was he going to Wendy's to get him?

TFC2 Rollins: Yeah, he was behind me.

CPL Ellis: He was in --

TFC2 Rollins: Yeah, right behind me.

CPL Ellis: All right.

TFC2 Rollins: I don't got my phone on me. Y'all got something with a calendar on it?

CPL Ellis: Yes. Let's see here. You know how to run one of them things. I hardly do.

TFC2 Rollins: Ah, well I was in school the 28th and 29th. And the 27th is when we got called out so it was the 27th of May.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: So I don't know what he was doing. Maybe he had a doctor's appointment, I mean who knows. But I just found it kind of weird because if I have to go to the doctor I just run over there and go to the doctor usually. You know what I mean?

CPL Ellis: The, ah -- did he see -- did you talk to him at all that day?

TFC2 Rollins: I was -- I was in the front and he was the car right behind me. But I just happen to look over and see him pulling in and I thought oh.

CPL Ellis: Was he in that Murano thing then?

TFC2 Rollins: He was.

CPL Ellis: And you know it's him?

TFC2 Rollins: I know it was him.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right.

TFC2 Rollins: I kind of have a eye for your bosses. You know what I mean?

CPL Ellis: I imagine so.

TFC2 Rollins: You have to avoid them sometimes.

CPL Ellis: All right. Anything else about that day that you can tell me?

TFC2 Rollins: No, I just didn't get no sleep.

CPL Ellis: On the 27th?

TFC2 Rollins: Yeah, it was a long, long day. But we found the people and that was good.

CPL Ellis: All right. Let's see here. Is there anything else -- a lot of these we have already taken care of. You've already told us about. Let's see, ah, yeah, you've pretty much got a lot of them taken care of. So far as the off-duty employment that you were working tell me again what that company's name was?

TFC2 Rollins: Executive Marketing Services.

CPL Ellis: Executive Marketing. Now, let me ask you -- because I'm gonna have to ask Lt. Smith these same questions and I asked Cpl. Fishel the same -- you got a off-duty request for them, right?

TFC2 Rollins: Yes.

CPL Ellis: That's approved?

TFC2 Rollins: Yeah, but it's old. But it's my understanding we don't have to renew them.

CPL Ellis: That's right, that's right. But what I'm saying is -- TFC2 Rollins: I'm approved for that and for the Legends Club, yes, sir.

CPL Ellis: All right. And for that I assume that everybody is still doing the off-duty time sheets. I've been out of the field a little while, so. Y'all do one of those every month, each trooper?

TFC2 Rollins: I don't know. I can't speak for everybody else but I've done mine.

CPL Ellis: That's what I'm saying, have you got one for that one?

TFC2 Rollins: I've got one filled out.

CPL Ellis: Okay. I'm gonna ask you to forward me a copy of just your 617. You know, you can go back on the CAD and print that off.

TFC2 Rollins: 617?

CPL Ellis: That's your monthly time sheet for the 31st -- I'll get it. Don't worry about that. Your off-duty time sheet, do you keep a copy of those?

TFC2 Rollins: I just keep them all, yeah. I've got them on my computer.

CPL Ellis: Okay. If you'll just email me a copy for that week of the Masters or that month of the week of the Masters, you know. It'd be the 31st of March to the 27th of April. If you'll just email that to me I can get your 617 from Personnel and just put that in the file.

TFC2 Rollins: Okay.

CPL Ellis: To show you were where you were supposed to be doing what you were supposed to be doing. All right.

TFC2 Rollins: Right. I took vacation that Monday through Sunday for seven days straight.

CPL Ellis: Right. Okay. Ah, let's see, other than Corporal did you report any of your concerns to anybody else in your chain? Did I ask you that already?

TFC2 Rollins: Um, you asked me if I talked to anybody else.

CPL Ellis: Yeah, nobody else.

TFC2 Rollins: It's kind of different but I didn't.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right. Do you have any -- other than the County Commission thing and the day on the 27th of May, is there any other observations that you've had of any laws or policies or procedures that you know of that Lt. Smith has deviated?

TFC2 Rollins: Ah, I mean nothing that I've seen other than, you know, Commission meeting and stuff.

CPL Ellis: Okay. All right.

TFC2 Rollins: That's kind of -- I mean everybody kind of knows about that to be honest with you.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Has, ah, did Perry Hobbs ever tell you anything about us talking to him?

TFC2 Rollins: Well, yeah, but I don't remember when it was. He said that after everything -- after Masters week he said that he had filed a complaint. And I said, um. I didn't wanna -- I don't want to be in the middle of anything like that, you know. And I said, okay. And what do you say then? When she tells you she's pregnant what do you do then? All right. You know, I mean you can't undo it, so.

CPL Ellis: Is there anybody else that worked up there at AST that you know of other than yourself that's departmental employees?

TFC2 Rollins: I mean there's a New Jersey trooper there.

CPL Ellis: All right. As a visitor or?

TFC2 Rollins: No, he was working there too, not as security, he drives. His brother just retired as a New Jersey trooper, a Lieutenant and he's a Lieutenant now. And, ah, his brother --

CPL Ellis: How'd he -- how'd he get down here?

TFC2 Rollins: Which one?

CPL Ellis: The New Jersey trooper.

TFC2 Rollins: Well, they're both troopers or they were. The retired one, he's been doing it for a while. And he met up with the fellow named Spiro Papadopoulos and they're partners in AST. And, ah, Mike McDonnell is a partner and he just retired from New Jersey State Patrol or State Police last year and they moved down here. It's cheaper and they like the weather. They got their little business. And he works, he got a job. He works for Saks Fifth Avenue maybe doing inventory or loss prevention. Because he was over their Major Cargo Theft Unit or whatever up there for New Jersey State Police and he was on CNN and all that. It's pretty neat. But he told me some stuff. And then his brother Eddie McDonnell, I believe he's a Lieutenant now with them, and he does a lot of their IT stuff and cameras and all that kind of stuff. So they were both there.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: And then of course, you know, the waitresses and bartenders and stuff like that they were all there that week.

CPL Ellis: Do you happen to know what the nature of Lt. Smith's arrangement is? Is he a partner of these -- in that AST or?

TFC2 Rollins: Well he's not a partner. Mike and Spiro own it. They're partners in it. They own that. I would, ah, and I don't know because I didn't ask. But it is my understanding that he brought some folks from Molson, the beer company.

CPL Ellis: Yes.

TFC2 Rollins: You know, like the corporate people and that's a common thing. Ah, if I had some friends that owned a company and they said, hey, I want to go to the Masters then I could say okay. And I put them in touch with those guys or the guys from Executive Marketing and they'll set everything up. Now if that happens with me -- and really don't never happen with me because I ain't that lucky -- I would just say here you go. These ten guys want to come down for these days. And they'd say okay. And then they'd sell them the package. And then they might said, hey man, here's a $100. Thanks for sending them my way, you know. And that's just, you know, I mean that's normal.

But a lot of the way the smaller companies work or the guys that come in with multiple clients or larger group, 10, 20, 30 is they arrange a payment. So like, ah, you know, whatever company, AZT comes down or whoever that is -- Acme Corporation comes down and they know me so I go to you and I say this but I'm gonna take care of them because I know them.

CPL Ellis: Uh-huh.

TFC2 Rollins: So then you work out a deal. It's all corporate hospitality. It's the same thing at the Super Bowl and Kentucky Derby. It's everywhere. And these companies do -- Executive Marketing is in North Carolina doing Pinehurst right now, doing the Open Pinehurst.

CPL Ellis: Uh-huh.

TFC2 Rollins: So they're up there. They had a small group. I -- I didn't go up there with them for that. So they'll come down and they'll say, you know, you negotiate a price of what they would pay. I wouldn't venture to say and I don't know. But I've known him for a long time and I would venture to say he did not do it for free. That would be my guess. Because all of the stuff that he did I wouldn't do it for free.

CPL Ellis: Uh-huh.

TFC2 Rollins: I'm not gonna go stand 8, 10, 12, 14 hours and open doors for people and tote bags and all that for free. That's just me.

CPL Ellis: Do you know where -- ah, you can't -- you never -- did you say you didn't ever see him consume any alcoholic beverages?

TFC2 Rollins: I didn't see him consume any.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: I'm not saying that he didn't.

CPL Ellis: Just the chief complaint or if you will the thing that you observed was he was just there working, appeared to be working?

TFC2 Rollins: He was there, appeared to be working, appeared to be working hospitality stuff.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: And I've been working that for a long time and, ah, that's what he appeared to me to be doing.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

TFC2 Rollins: He wasn't -- he wasn't lieutenanting.

CPL Ellis: All right. Sergeant, have you got anything else?

SFC Morgan: I'm good.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Anything else you want to add?

TFC2 Rollins: No. I mean if y'all ain't got no other questions I kind of feel like I covered everything you asked me. I hate to be in this situation, but.

CPL Ellis: I know one more I was gonna ask you if I hadn't already. Is there anybody else you can think of that we need to talk to other than you and the Corporal?

TFC2 Rollins: With the State Patrol or in general?

CPL Ellis: Well, if there's anybody that you know of that just really, ah, that could provide any firsthand information that they saw themselves about Lt. Smith.

TFC2 Rollins: Well, there were waitresses and bartenders. I mean they were all there. So I mean if you want to get in contact with them I mean I hadn't.

CPL Ellis: We're trying to kind of keep this --

TFC2 Rollins: Department folks only?

CPL Ellis: -- kind of department folks and not get all into that.

TFC2 Rollins: Right. Yeah, I mean contact Eddie McDonnell, a Lieutenant with New Jersey.

CPL Ellis: All right.

TFC2 Rollins: I mean that's -- or Uncle Bobby, ah, I can't remember his last name. It might be McDonnell but they just call him Uncle Bobby because it's their uncle. He reminds me of somebody from the Sopranos. He's a really nice guy. "Hey, how you doin'?", but ah that's the only -- some many people in and out, you know, that week.

CPL Ellis: All right. Well I pretty much -- I think we pretty well covered everything. I'm gonna -- if that's about it I'm gonna just close the interview out and we'll kind of go from here with it.

TFC2 Rollins: Definitely an area to, um.

CPL Ellis: The is about -- is 11:22 a.m. I'm gonna go ahead and conclude this interview. We appreciate you coming in today. Ah, and that will conclude this one, all right.

INTERVIEW TRANSCRIPT

DIR Holt: Today's date is Tuesday, June 17th, 2014. The time is about 9:52. This is OPS Director Angie Holt with the Office of Professional Standards and Investigative Corporal Jason Ellis and we're in the OPS interview room at DPS Headquarters. Also present is Troop E Lieutenant Donnie Smith. We're here today to interview Lt. Smith regarding allegations that he has carried work hours for the Georgia State Patrol -- that as he carried work hours for the Georgia State Patrol he was also working a second job during the Masters tournament in Augusta, specifically the dates of Monday, April 7th through Sunday, April 13th.

We will discuss only information about the issue of improper use of work time and not any information related to the ongoing investigation being conducted by Lisa Maier in the Human Resources Division. Before we go any further I got to go over a couple of things. This is an administrative investigation not a criminal investigation that is related to your employment with the Georgia State Patrol. Please look over this form as I explain it to you.

You're being questioned as part of an official investigation of the Georgia Department of Public Safety. You will be asked questions specifically, directly and narrowly related to the performance of your official duties or fitness for office. You are entitled to all the rights and privileges guaranteed by the laws and the Constitution of this state and the Constitution of the United States including the right not to be compelled to incriminate yourself.

I further wish to advise you that if you refuse to testify or to answer questions related to the performance of your official duties or fitness for duty you will be subject to departmental charges which could result in your dismissal from the Georgia Department of Public Safety. If you do answer neither your statement nor any information or evidence which is gained through such statements can be used against you in any subsequent criminal proceeding. However these statements may be used against you in relation to subsequent administrative charges.

As the Garrity Warning states this is an administrative investigation at this point. That's not to say that it can't become a criminal investigation at some point later especially if a DA or the AG decides it needs to be investigated for possible criminal prosecution. If that happens as long as you're truthful and forthcoming in this interview any information that you give in this interview can't be used against you in the matter. Do you understand?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: All right. If you would sign and date that.

(Whereupon, Lt. Smith complies.)

DIR Holt: We're gonna ask you general questions as well as specific questions about your activities during the Masters. Donnie, I want you to be as open and honest as you can be.

LT Smith: That's all I know how to do, Angie.

DIR Holt: Ah, you've got to give full disclosure. I -- I -- I don't expect you to withhold any information or peel the onion or -- and when I say peel the onion give us part of the truth and make us dig and dig and dig. I expect you to tell me what went on and not what you think I want to know, okay. Because we -- we've spent a good deal of time investigating and I want to hear your side of what's going on. Ah, the investigation was begun when we received an allegation from a retired employee, a retired DPS employee that you were supposedly on duty with the State Patrol when you were also working at the Masters. So I want you to tell me what went on the week of the Masters.

LT Smith: All right. Ah, I was the only Troop officer here because Allen was gone. What's his name -- Doug was gone. He was on vacation. Ah, a friend of mine owns a hospitality house over there on Azalea Drive and I would go over there. It's about a mile from my house. It's right across the street. I'd go over there and I'd eat breakfast in the morning time. I'd hangout over there. I'd watch TV over there. I'd eat lunch over there. I'd leave, I'd go back, ride around. I went to see some of the Sheriffs deputies. And I -- I hung out and everyday was a different day.

Monday it was raining. I met Capt. Dixon. He came over. I went and got two tickets for him and gave them to him. Ah, he stayed for a little while and it rained all day long. I went back over there and tried to get him to go have lunch with me but he and his girlfriend had already left. Ah, I don't remember a lot about Tuesday.

DIR Holt: Okay. Well let's stop for a second. Ah, a friend of yours owns a hospitality house. Is that what you said?

LT Smith: Uh-huh.

DIR Holt: Who is your friend?

LT Smith: Spiro Papadopoulos.

DIR Holt: Okay. And, ah, does he own it personally or is it through a corporation?

LT Smith: I -- I and I'm not 100% sure but I think that he has a corporation but he owns several businesses. But I know he owns the house and I know he runs the business Masters week through there.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh. Ah, Augusta Sports and Travel, does that mean anything to you?

LT Smith: I think that's the name of it but I've only seen that name one time.

DIR Holt: Okay. Are you employed by Augusta Sports and Travel?

LT Smith: The only thing I've ever done for them, Angie, is last year -- well for like the last ten years I've worked for a company out of New York called Ace, American Corporate Events. And they went belly up. They went broke and they left me with $20,000 worth of -- I paid all of our employees when I was with Ace and they were supposed to give me a check back and they didn't. I went broke.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh.

LT Smith: So, ah, American -- I mean Sports and Travel, whatever they're called they recruit companies to come and do business with them, to come buy packages from them and tickets and that kind of stuff. So one of the companies that did business with Ace is out of Canada. They're friends of mine from the years I knew with Ace. They called me last year after Ace went broke and said who should we do business with? And I said, you know, I don't really know. I said I'll try to find somebody that I think you can deal with. It turned out it was Spiro.

And so they came down in 2013, met with Spiro. He told -- he said, Donnie, if you can get this done he said I'll pay you a finder's fee. I said okay. So I talked to them all through 2013 from like July to I don't know maybe October and November. And they finally settled with Spiro on a contract. And so he paid me a finder's fee for recruiting them to come to his company.

DIR Holt: Okay. And what was the Canadian company's name?

LT Smith: It's Molson Coors is the name of the company.

DIR Holt: Okay. The beer company?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Okay. Did you have a financial interest in Ace other than paying the employees out of your pocket?

LT Smith: No, I didn't.

DIR Holt: Okay. So you paid them out of your personal funds?

LT Smith: Uh-huh. What happened was the way it would work is Ace -- I would keep track of everybody's time, whoever worked for us. We had some employees from the Department working for us. At the end of the Masters 2013 back for however many years it was I would submit each one of them "Angie Holt for 60 hours at X amount of dollars" or whatever and they in turn would write a check to that employee.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh.

LT Smith: And then they would pay me for my work which was managing all those people. When Ace left last year -- because they're not from Augusta. They're from New York. When they left town, the two owners, they were having financial problems and they kept calling me saying, you know, we're gonna send you some checks. Just hold them. Don't cash them. So April goes by, May goes by and the employees are saying, you know, where's our money. And I'm the only local face. And they said, ah -- you know, I kept calling and calling and calling and finally there was a lot of -- a lot of hard feelings because they hadn't got paid. Because some of these people depend on that money for different things.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh.

LT Smith: So I went to the bank and I borrowed $20,000 to pay off our employees thinking that Ace was gonna make it good. Well in June 23rd or something like that, sometime in the middle of June they called me up and said it's not gonna happen and they filed bankruptcy and closed up.

DIR Holt: Okay. And did you file any legal claim --

LT Smith: I did.

DIR Holt: -- to any of their assets?

LT Smith: I did but they didn't have any assets. The house, the hospitality house that they owned in Augusta was repossessed by the owner who owner financed it. And then, ah --

DIR Holt: And where was that house located?

LT Smith: It was on Azalea Drive across the street from Spiro Papadopoulos' place.

DIR Holt: Okay.

LT Smith: Ah, so they didn't have any assets. One of the guys he lived in New Jersey. When my attorney filed suit against them he filed a bankruptcy thing which stopped any collections.

DIR Holt: What were their names?

LT Smith: Arch Galloway and Mike Taylor.

DIR Holt: Okay. All right. So let's fast forward to 2014. And so you -- do you have a financial interest in AST?

LT Smith: No.

DIR Holt: Ah, what about Executive --

LT Smith: Marketing?

DIR Holt: Ah, yeah.

LT Smith: That's -- I don't have any interest in that. That's Louis Blanchard who is a lieutenant with the Sheriff's Department in Augusta. That's his business.

DIR Holt: Okay. Do you work for them at all?

LT Smith: No, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Okay. Do you know Michael McDonnell?

LT Smith: Ah, he may -- I'm not sure -- I'm not sure that -- that may be Spiro's partner at AS, ah, Augusta Sports and Travel -- that may be. He's a retired trooper from New Jersey I believe, if that's his last name.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh. Okay. All right. So on Monday you were at -- is it -- is it Azalea Drive or is it Brook --

LT Smith: No, Azalea Drive.

DIR Holt: What's the address?

CPL Ellis: 2018 Northwood.

DIR Holt: Northwood Drive?

LT Smith: Yeah, that's right. I'm sorry. It's not Azalea. Ace house was of Azalea. Northwood is where Spiro's place is. I'm sorry, that is correct.

DIR Holt: Okay. All right. Ah, so Monday what time did you get to the AST house on whatever -- whatever the address is?

LT Smith: Ah, I think I met Capt. Dixon over on the road over there in front of that place. It was early in the morning because he was trying to get over there around the gate. And I think it was probably -- I --I don't recall the exact time but it was somewhere between 7:00 and 8:00.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, were you on duty for the Patrol or off-duty with the Patrol? What was your work status?

LT Smith: I don't remember. And here's -- let me explain why I say that. There were some days I went to work because I was the only one around. And Allen kind of was always good to me about letting us come and go whenever we, you know, wanted to work as long as we worked eight hours if we worked 6:00 to 2:00, 7:00 to 3:00, 8:00 to 4:00 or whatever.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh.

LT Smith: Ah, I don't remember that day if I came to work at 10:00, if I actually signed in at 10:00 or if I came out at 8:00. I -- I don't remember and I don't want to tell you one time and it be the other.

DIR Holt: Okay.

LT Smith: But I know it was some time that morning.

DIR Holt: Okay. Well, how do you normally report for duty?

LT Smith: Sometime -- at this particular time I called the radio room and told them I'm 10-41.

DIR Holt: Okay.

LT Smith: Because I had been involved in a wreck in the end of, ah, during the ice storm --

DIR Holt: Uh-huh.

LT Smith: -- and totaled my car. And so I didn't -- the MCCD car they gave me, plain car did not have a holder nor did it have the stuff to hook your MDT computer up with.

DIR Holt: Okay.

LT Smith: So my MDT computer was at my house -- not at my house, at my office.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh.

LT Smith: And so I would call them and say I'm 10-41. And then I'd call them at the end of the day and say I'm 10-42.

DIR Holt: Okay. So your MDT was at the office?

LT Smith: At my office, yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Ah, during April; is that right?

LT Smith: I think I got my car back in the middle of April. It came back from the paint and body shop in the middle of April.

DIR Holt: Okay. So, ah, for the week of the Masters your MDT was at the office?

LT Smith: It was.

DIR Holt: And you -- to report for duty you went 10-41 on the radio or on cell phone?

LT Smith: On cell phone.

DIR Holt: Okay.

LT Smith: And the reason I did that is because I would call them and I'd say I'm 10-41. Is there anything going on or anything I need to know about so they could tell me in the morning time.

DIR Holt: Okay. All right. And then when you were off-duty you called them and said 10-42?

LT Smith: Uh-huh.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, and the hours between the time you went 10-41 and 10-42 those were when you were on the clock for GSP?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Okay. So --

LT Smith: But now let me clarify that for a bit too.

DIR Holt: Okay.

LT Smith: Because there are some -- there are some days -- and I don't remember what day it was, ah, I went to work and then I went to the golf course and went out on the golf course and bought some stuff and I worked later. I think I didn't get off until 6:30 or 7:00 that night is when I called the radio room and told them I was off, which would have looked on paper like I had been there for twelve hours but I think I only carried eight hours on my time sheet.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, all right. Now, let's go day by day. Monday you called and went 10-41 with the radio room.

LT Smith: Uh-huh.

DIR Holt: And were you in your, ah, in a department issued vehicle?

LT Smith: I was not.

DIR Holt: Okay. So you were on-duty with the Patrol but in?

LT Smith: I drove my car because, ah, during Masters week a lot of people -- and Dog called me that week too -- they call me and say the Governor of Ohio is coming or this Governor is coming or this dignitary is coming or whatever. And so I live about a mile from Northwood Drive and from the golf course. And so I left my car there in case they called me and said somebody is coming today at 1:00 or 2:00. I can say my key is on the front, you know, go get my car and go to the airport and pick them up.

DIR Holt: All right. So you're in your POV at the AST house?

LT Smith: Not all the time, some of the time.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, where are you the other part of the time that you're not at AST?

LT Smith: I --

DIR Holt: This is Monday now. I'm talking about Monday.

LT Smith: I don't remember all of the day Monday. It was pouring down rain all day long and the Masters closed, the golf tournament closed.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh.

LT Smith: Ah, I had lunch at the AST house. I remember it rained all day. And I -- but I don't remember. I -- I truly can't tell you what I did after I ate lunch. I just simply don't remember.

DIR Holt: Okay. Did you stay at the AST house or did you get in your POV and go somewhere or were you using the -- the AST vehicle?

LT Smith: I'm -- I'm not trying to avoid you. I swear I just don't remember that particular.

DIR Holt: Okay. Well, let's make it a little bit easier. What did you do for the State Patrol that day?

LT Smith: Let's see, checked my email. Ah, I think I talked to Capt. Gay from the Sheriff's Department about some dignitaries that were coming. And I don't -- and I think I was just hanging around on call. I don't think I did much of anything after that.

DIR Holt: So did you hang around at the AST house on call or where did you -- where did you catch call from?

LT Smith: I'm -- I'm sure that I was at -- I told you I was at the AST house. I mean I ate lunch there but I don't remember what time I left there. But I was there for I would say probably four hours that I know of.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, now if I remember correctly your timesheet on the leave accounting system carried you four hours Georgia Comp -- is it Jason -- and four hours worked. My question to you is, ah, where did you work for those four hours? Did you ostensibly hang out at the AST house waiting for the Patrol to call you?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Okay. All right. My -- my question to you then a follow-up would be were you compensated in anyway, other than the finder's fee, for the time that you spent at the AST house for the time that you spent there?

LT Smith: No. Everything that I got was in that one lump sum.

DIR Holt: Okay. So that finder's fee, as part of that finder's fee was -- there's a responsibility for being there at AST house?

LT Smith: No. Ah, there were some people that got hired to do that. I mean that was a -- I got a lump sum.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh.

LT Smith: And it didn't have any other responsibilities with it. But those folks were my friends. Now the Coors people didn't come to town until Wednesday. And I don't think their program started until Thursday. So I -- I mean I went up there and just hung out, watched TV and I talked to Spiro. Ah, I shot the shit with the people up there. I'm sure I discussed a lot of different things.

And if -- I think in the old days they use to call it fucking off but that's pretty much what I was doing.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, this lump sum payment did it come before the Masters or after the Masters?

LT Smith: No, I got it in December.

DIR Holt: Okay. December of 2013?

LT Smith: Uh-huh.

DIR Holt: Okay. So what you're telling me is that on Monday for the four hours of Comp time that you took and the four, probably the four hours that you carried as work time they were all spent in and out of the AST house --

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am, or somewhere in that vicinity.

DIR Holt: But with no compensation from anyone other than the Patrol?

LT Smith: Correct.

DIR Holt: So you did not receive a paycheck from anyone else for your work on Monday?

LT Smith: No, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Okay. All right. Now let me go back just a minute. I know that Lt. Wilson when he got promoted to Lieutenant from Post 46, it's my understanding that he already had a leave request in while he was the Post Commander for that particular week. And, ah, that Capt. Marlowe was originally scheduled to attend the National Academy in the --

LT Smith: In the fall, in the winter.

DIR Holt: Right, in the fall. But that was postponed due to sequestration?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: And that created an issue where there would be no one in the Troop but you?

LT Smith: Correct.

DIR Holt: Ah, did you discuss with Capt. Marlowe any sort of arrangements during that week?

LT Smith: The only thing that I ever discussed with him he said -- I told him I said that's put -- made a bad situation. And he said, ah, well why don't you just -- I'll be on call?

And I said, well I think the policy is that you can't let everybody off. He said, yeah, I didn't think about that. And that was the only discussion we ever had. Ah, I did not -- I mean I didn't involve him in anything. I did not.

DIR Holt: Okay. Well did he, ah, talk to you about the possibility of having another troop officer or a troop officer from another troop to cover?

LT Smith: No, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Okay. All right. Ah, so -- well, let me ask you this. Do you keep a diary or a log of your daily activity?

LT Smith: I don't.

DIR Holt: Okay. All right. So that was Monday, April 7th?

LT Smith: Uh-huh.

DIR Holt: Okay. So on Tuesday do you remember what time you went 10-8 or approximately what time?

LT Smith: I -- I don't. Either it was 6:00 in the morning or it was 8:00, one of those two. Because I know some mornings I go to work at 6:00 and some I go at 8:00. But I know it was then.

DIR Holt: Okay. And, ah, when you called in and you went 10-41 where did -- what did you do that day?

LT Smith: I rode down to, ah, I went and ate breakfast at the ST -- whatever --

DIR Holt: AST.

LT Smith: I'm -- I'm not use to the acronym.

DIR Holt: Right.

LT Smith: Ah, I went and ate breakfast there and then I went to the golf course. And I talked to Capt. Gay at the gates. Ah, we talked about the Speaker of the House coming and where he was gonna park. Ah, I went inside and I bought a shirt and some other stuff. I think I left there and I think I went to, ah -- I'm not sure where I went for a while. I know I wound up back at AST, whatever it is and I had lunch with Spiro. Ah, I -- I -- again I didn't do a whole lot of nothing. I mean I just was basically in and around up there. I went to -- I think I may have went over to Louis Blanchard's place and talked to him for a minute.

CPL Ellis: Who is that?

LT Smith: He's the owner of Executive Marketing but he's a lieutenant with the sheriff's office down there. I -- I don't remember very much of the rest of the day, nothing that stuck out in my mind.

DIR Holt: All right. Were you in your POV or were you in --

LT Smith: Same, ah, I think I was driving Spiro's car that day. I think.

DIR Holt: Okay. And would it be accurate -- well, no, let me go back. What work did you do for the Patrol that day?

LT Smith: I went and talked to Capt. Gay. Ah, I made sure of where the dignitaries were gonna park which was Gate 5A or some business like that. Ah, I shot the breeze with Emilio Lampkin who is a lieutenant with the Sheriff's Department. I really didn't -- again it was just

I didn't have any pending work, you know, it was just one of them.

DIR Holt: Okay. So, ah, all right. Did the Patrol have an official capacity at the Masters that week?

LT Smith: Semi, we provide off-duty guys there.

DIR Holt: No, I'm talking about -- I'm talking about regular?

LT Smith: Okay. Ah, other than when setting up for -- what do you call it, dignitaries -- no.

DIR Holt: Okay. And who handled the dignitary details?

LT Smith: Ah, the Speaker of the House his driver came. I'm not sure which one it was. Dog called me from the Governor's Office and gave me a couple of them. I called Richie Howard had Richie setup whoever was supposed to do it. There was some confusion because Dog reached out to Sgt. Howard in Madison. Ah, I told him, no, that was the wrong one.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh.

LT Smith: Ah, and that was -- that was what I did.

DIR Holt: Okay. So, ah, same deal on Tuesday as it was on Monday?

LT Smith: Uh-huh.

DIR Holt: Any work that you did for the Patrol that day was Masters related?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Okay. And were you compensated by anyone other than the Patrol for your work that day?

LT Smith: No, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, so -- and -- and I'm gonna ask you this for every day?

LT Smith: I understand.

DIR Holt: Ah, you did not work for -- you were not working a second job. You were not compensated by anyone other than that lump sum payment that you got in December for the finder's fee?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: You weren't paid an hourly wage?

LT Smith: No, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Ah, there won't be a 1099 for any work done?

LT Smith: No.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, how long did you stay at the AST house that day?

LT Smith: It was probably four hours again.

DIR Holt: Okay.

CPL Ellis: What -- what was the four hours when you say you were there? Was it off working or hanging out around there or was that GSP time? That's my -- I was -- I was unclear.

LT Smith: All right. I'm -- I'm confused now myself.

DIR Holt: Wait a minute. Okay. Ah --

LT Smith: What day are we talking about?

DIR Holt: This is Tuesday.

LT Smith: Okay.

DIR Holt: And you went, ah, 10-41 at 6:00 a.m. or 8:00 a.m.?

LT Smith: Sometime in the morning, yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Went 10-41, you went to AST house had breakfast, hung out. Ah, and if you weren't at the AST house you were over at the golf course. Ah, you may have been talking with Capt. Gay who was there working the Masters, Emilio who was there working the Masters.

LT Smith: He was over at -- Emilio was over at, ah, at Lt.
Blanchard's house when I saw him. What he was doing
I don't know. He was just over there and I talked to him.

DIR Holt: Okay. But Lt. Blanchard's house is much like AST house.

LT Smith: Yes.

DIR Holt: It's a hospitality house and it's affiliated with the Masters --

LT Smith: Correct.

DIR Holt: -- with Masters' clients or whatever?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Ah, and you went 10-42 either at 2:00 p.m. or --

LT Smith: Sometime in the afternoon.

DIR Holt: -- or 4:00 p.m. But you still hung out at the AST?

LT Smith: I know I had dinner that night with Spiro sometime or 'nother. Ah, I don't remember. I think late in the afternoon we went to Costco and then we went to dinner that night around 6:30 or so.

DIR Holt: Okay. So is it an accurate description to say that Tuesday was pretty much a reflection of Monday in as much as, ah, except for there was eight hours of GSP time that was spent in and about the Masters area?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Okay. All right. Some of it was GSP related because you helped to coordinate the dignitary logistics if you will, but for the most part it was just hanging out?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Okay. Wednesday?

LT Smith: Same thing.

DIR Holt: Ah, 10-8, 10-41 either at 6:00 a.m. or at 8:00 a.m.?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am. I don't remember the exact time but that would be about right.

DIR Holt: Okay. And the majority of that eight hours for the Patrol was spent hanging out at AST -- LT Smith: And watching golf.

DIR Holt: -- and watching golf?

LT Smith: Because there was the -- there was the Par Three Tournament. And I remember I was watching the golf -- I was watching golf.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, so the Par Three Tournament was that part of the actual -- is that what you said Par Three?

LT Smith: Par Three. I mean it's held -- it's held at the national --
I mean they show it on TV.

DIR Holt: But it's not part of The Masters or is it a qualifying or?

LT Smith: No, no, no. It's part of the -- Par Three is just nine little holes that are not part of the regular tournament.
It's a --

DIR Holt: That's what I'm trying to get at, it's not part of the regular tournament?

LT Smith: That's right, it's not.

DIR Holt: It's affiliated but not a part of the --

LT Smith: Correct.

DIR Holt: -- The Masters?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, do you remember anything you did for the Patrol that day?

LT Smith: To be honest with you I don't.

DIR Holt: Okay.

LT Smith: And I would venture to say that it probably wasn't a whole lot of any damn thing because it wasn't much going on.

DIR Holt: Okay. All right. Something just popped in my mind. Ah, it's my understanding that there are numerous law enforcement officers both local and State who have off-duty or secondary jobs during the Masters?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Do you know who coordinates those kinds of things?

LT Smith: I do not.

DIR Holt: Did you -- as you did for Ace, did you do any of that for Spiro or any other company affiliated with that?
Did you, ah --

LT Smith: Did I handle police off-duty stuff? No, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Right. Did you schedule anybody?

LT Smith: No. All the stuff that I did for Ace were civilian. They were drivers. They drove for people. I didn't do any police business at all.

DIR Holt: Okay. So you've never -- you did not in 2014, you didn't contact any other department employee or any other employee and say, hey, you wanna earn some extra money? You can do this by working for this person. Call this person.

LT Smith: I -- I -- that doesn't stand out in my mind, Angie. I mean, I --

DIR Holt: Okay.

LT Smith: -- I mean it truly doesn't stand out. I'm not saying I -- people call me all the time about stuff but I don't remember saying call this person and ask them for a job. Ah, there was a girl that called me and asked me for a job but I told her I didn't. But she's not law enforcement. She works as a secretary in a jail.

DIR Holt: Okay. But you didn't do for anyone in 2014 what you had done for Ace in previous years --

LT Smith: Ugh-ugh.

DIR Holt: -- like coordinate a schedule of people working?

LT Smith: No, there was a -- what's his name? Mark Bringleson who works for Probation and Parole a month or so beforehand he had worked for me at Ace. And I called him and I said look, I said they're gonna need somebody to run their program. Would you and your wife be interested? And he said, yeah. And I said, well you know the people from Coors. Ah, you know them pretty good. They'd probably be okay with you. And, ah, so Mark handled all of that stuff with them. I mean he was their -- he was their person in charge of their program --

DIR Holt: Okay.

LT Smith: -- he and his wife. Ah, then Spiro supplied two bartenders I believe for that Coors group.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh. Okay. So anyone who worked off-duty or secondary job or whatever Mark would have been the one that scheduled them?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am, not me.

DIR Holt: Okay. And would it have been for AST or would it have been for another company?

LT Smith: No, it'd have been -- it was through -- AST is who paid them.

DIR Holt: Right. But is there a middle man so to speak?

LT Smith: No. Like me?

DIR Holt: Like --

LT Smith: Are you trying to say me?

DIR Holt: No, no, no. Like Executive Management?

LT Smith: Executive Marketing?

DIR Holt: Yeah, Marketing.

LT Smith: I -- I -- I don't know anything. I know that Spiro and, ah, Louis Blanchard are friends and they may even do some Masters business together but I don't -- those are run as separate operations. And I don't think that one has to do anything with the other to be. But I don't know the inner financial workings or relations.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, but you have no financial interest in either company?

LT Smith: No, ma'am.

DIR Holt: You're not a part owner?

LT Smith: I'm not.

DIR Holt: You're not an executive, you're not a registered agent or anything like that?

LT Smith: No, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Okay. We've been through Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday.

LT Smith: Now we're at Thursday.

DIR Holt: Now we're at Thursday.

LT Smith: And the tournament starts.

DIR Holt: Okay. Same thing?

LT Smith: Same thing.

DIR Holt: Okay. So you're still in your POV?

LT Smith: I am in my car.

DIR Holt: Okay. And anything that, ah, that you do that day whether it's for the Patrol or not is done in that location?

LT Smith: Uh-huh. And I -- I -- again I remember I went to the golf course that day because I went and bought something else. As a matter of fact I bought this tie that I'm wearing. And I shot the breeze with the police over there. Ah, I followed up that day to make sure that whoever was gonna be there that that had gotten setup because I knew we were -- I called Brandy and told Brandy I wanted to take off the next day. I wanted to take four hours of Comp the next day. And she said the Major is not here. The Captain is not here. Just submit it, I'm sure they'll approve it.

DIR Holt: Okay. And did you do that?

LT Smith: I did.

DIR Holt: And how did you send that email? On your phone or --

LT Smith: No, I went -- that day I went -- I went to the golf in the middle of the day. I went home. I changed clothes. I put my uniform on. I went to my office. I went to the radio room. Ah, I checked on something at the radio room. I can't remember what it was. We'd had -- we'd had problems with either the computers or the radios themselves. I went to my office. I sent it via the computer. I checked all my emails. Ah, I did a little bit of stuff. I think I left -- it was getting dark, not dark but, you know, it was getting dusk so to speak. It was probably I want to say 6:30ish or so.

DIR Holt: So you actually did some State Patrol work on Thursday?

LT Smith: I did.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, after lunch maybe?

LT Smith: It was sometime in the afternoon, yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Okay. And again were you compensated for any of the time that you spent?

LT Smith: I got all the money I got in December.

DIR Holt: Okay. You submitted a leave request on Thursday for four hours of compensatory time on Friday?

LT Smith: Uh-huh.

DIR Holt: What time did you take that compensatory time?

LT Smith: I don't remember.

DIR Holt: Morning, afternoon?

LT Smith: It was in the afternoon because I went 10-8 that morning I'm pretty sure.

DIR Holt: Ah, so same Friday morning or same?

LT Smith: I went to breakfast.

DIR Holt: In your POV?

LT Smith: Uh-huh.

DIR Holt: Hanging out?

LT Smith: Because I knew -- because I knew that day there -- there was a chance that I was gonna go to the airport to pick -- to take somebody to the airport that was leaving to go home and I didn't want to be in my patrol car. I didn't want to have to go back home and change clothes.

DIR Holt: Okay.

LT Smith: So I drove my car down there and I was gonna -- but it turned out I didn't have to go to the airport.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, let me see if this is correct. With the exception of Thursday, Monday through Friday --

LT Smith: I did very little work.

DIR Holt: Well, you were in civilian clothes --

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: -- in your personal vehicle. With the exception of Thursday when sometime in the afternoon you drove your POV to your residence, changed into your uniform, got into your patrol car and went to the Post in Grovetown?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: And that's where your office is?

LT Smith: It is.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, so you had no arrangement with Capt. Marlowe, Capt. Young or Major Grier to -- for anything that you did?

LT Smith: Right.

DIR Holt: Okay.

LT Smith: And I was wrong.

DIR Holt: Were they -- well, yeah. Ah, were they aware of any of the VIP State officials, our involve -- our, "the State Patrol" involvement in that?

LT Smith: I don't know that they were or not because normally what happens for the last number of years everybody knows if you need something in Augusta related to Masters people just call me.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh.

LT Smith: When Capt. Ashburn was around he did the same thing. He'd just say call Donnie. Donnie will take care of it.

DIR Holt: Okay.

LT Smith: So most of those requests just came straight to me.

DIR Holt: Okay. So it is your statement, ah, that you were not working a second job during the Masters?

LT Smith: No. I -- I was there.

DIR Holt: Yeah, I got that.

LT Smith: You got that. Ah, and those people are my friends and I hung up there a lot and I shouldn't have been up there. But, you know, all the money I got for that deal I got in December. The only other money I got involved the sale -- the buying and selling of tickets. But that's something that I did January, February, March. I mean people call me all the time and sell me tickets and I buy tickets and sell tickets, so.

DIR Holt: You're a scalper?

LT Smith: A legal scalper.

DIR Holt: Oh, okay. Well, again I want to clarify the finder's fee that you were paid in December did -- were you contractually obligated -- LT Smith: To do anything?

DIR Holt: -- to provide services during the Masters?

LT Smith: No.

DIR Holt: So, ah, it is -- but because of the finder's fee and your relationship with Spiro you felt an obligation or a commitment to hangout without compensation?

LT Smith: Because he's my -- I mean he's my -- and the police that work around there, the ones that are wherever they're from there is two or three hospitality houses; Executive Marketing, Spiro's place. They feed them for free. You know, these guys are from out of town. They're from Green County. They're from -- some of them from the Patrol from Atlanta or wherever. And it's like a -- it's like a big frat kind of place for lack of a better term. People come in and out. People come and eat. People shoot the breeze. People watch TV, they cool off. When they've been out directing traffic.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh.

LT Smith: I mean both -- both places -- we did it at Ace when I was over there. You know, we welcomed them in. We fed them, so on.

DIR Holt: Ah, so would you characterize it as just some place you wanted to be as opposed to being obligated to be there or being compensated to be there?

LT Smith: Because it was fun.

DIR Holt: Okay.

LT Smith: I mean and that's just the truth of the matter. You know, they got big screen TVs. There's an upstairs up there. We have two leather couches. You can go up there. You can hang out. You can talk on the phone. You can be comfortable. There wasn't anybody bothering you. Ah, I mean it was just, you know, it was just a place to hang out.

DIR Holt: All right. Are you an employee of Spiro Papadopoulos?

LT Smith: No, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Are you an employee of Michael McDowell -- McDonnell?

LT Smith: No.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, and the compensa -- the only compensation you received from AST was in December?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: And it was that finder's fee for helping them, ah --

LT Smith: For sending this --

DIR Holt: -- contract the client Molson Coors?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: The buying and selling of tickets, is that done in affiliation with anyone else?

LT Smith: No, I mean --

DIR Holt: Does anybody pay you other than the ticket buyers?
Do you pay anyone else other than the ticket sellers?

LT Smith: No, it's a one on -- it's a hand-to-hand exchange.

DIR Holt: All right. Ah, have you ever submitted a request for secondary employment with AST?

LT Smith: No, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Ah, you've already said that your normal hours are either from -- as a troop officer, 6 a. to 2 p. or 8 a. to 4 p.?

LT Smith: Allen's been always good to us and he would say just work whatever you want to work.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh.

LT Smith: I mean there's times when Doug and I both -- and I -- I don't want to bring Doug into that. Let me retract that because that's Doug's business. There's times when all of us have maybe worked four hours and then we had something to do in the middle of the day and we took off and then we came back and worked four hours that night. A lot of times when we have special details we'll work in the morning, we'll go home and come back that night.

DIR Holt: Well, that's called part of the job. I mean I get all that. That's -- that's good. Did you -- ah, well I won't even go there. The hours that you carried on your leave accounting system timesheet formerly known as the 617, those were the -- is it accurate to say those were the hours that you considered yourself to be on-duty --

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: -- or on call for the Patrol when in actuality you did --

LT Smith: I didn't do anything.

DIR Holt: Okay. All right.

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Ah, assing off that's what we called it.

LT Smith: You know, Angie, as well as I do that's not what we called it.

DIR Holt: That's what I called it. Ah, all right. Well let me ask you this, are there -- have there been times that you as a County Commissioner have attended county commission meetings on-duty or in uniform or in your government vehicle?

LT Smith: I've never attended a county commission meeting in uniform.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh.

LT Smith: I don't recall ever attending one while I was on-duty.
Ah, I think I drove my car down there a couple of times because Marshall Steve Smith was looking to buy a new car and he wanted to look at my black Charger that I had.

DIR Holt: Okay. All right. Ah, when did you get your regular vehicle back? Was it -- you said maybe April or May?

LT Smith: It was in the middle of April. As a matter of fact I think it was right after Masters if I'm not mistaken. I -- I -- I don't remember the exact date but it was -- the shop obviously can tell you that information.

DIR Holt: Okay. All right. Well, let me ask you this. Your MDT do you have any other computer other than your MDT?

LT Smith: I do. I have a desktop Dell that's been -- but it's at my office.

DIR Holt: When you, ah, get out at your office do you take your MDT out of your patrol car and take it into the office?

LT Smith: No, because I have my -- my Dell thing, my Dell computer.

DIR Holt: Okay.

LT Smith: The only time that my MDT was in my office was the six weeks or however long it was I had my -- I had that spare car from MCCD.

DIR Holt: Okay.

LT Smith: I -- I truly have a hard time with the MDT. And I've been so accustomed to that old Dell that I always used in my office.

DIR Holt: Yeah. All right. I may need to look up something and clarify it before I -- before I end the interview completely. But, ah, your turn.

CPL Ellis: Okay. Lieutenant, going back to some of the days there's been a couple of things in my note taking here that I just -- I'm not real clear on, okay. Ah, give me just a second here to kind of speed read back through it. Particularly on -- really on Thursday I do remember we were talking about Thursday and ,ah, now one thing about AST who is considered the front man -- I mean I know -- or the front person? I shouldn't say front man. That's a sexist remark but the front person that handles all these guests.

LT Smith: Spiro.

CPL Ellis: Spiro. Okay. How available was he for AST that week, that entire week?

LT Smith: I mean he was there from early in the morning until -- I mean he -- he's a hands-on guy. He -- he shuts everything down. His partner McDonnell who I didn't -- I had never met until Masters. I didn't know him at all. I think McDonnell is kind of the, an organizing guy. I'm not really sure what his role is because I didn't have a lot of interaction with him.

CPL Ellis: Okay. So Mr. Papadopoulos he's the -- he's the front person?

LT Smith: Uh-huh.

CPL Ellis: In your observations what does he do in that role?

LT Smith: I mean he's the owner. I think he's kind of like the -- I think he runs -- I mean he does everything. He tells people what to do and he greets his clients and he does, ah, he's just kind of like -- it's kind of like orchestrating ants or something. I mean he's kind of like the guy that does all that stuff.

CPL Ellis: At any time during that week did you perform any of those duties that he would normally perform there? I mean the greeting or anything like that.

LT Smith: The only people I would greet were the guys that I knew from, ah, from Molson. When they came down on Thursday when they flew in from Canada, you know, I met them and talked to them and hugged them and they told me about their families and we shot the crap and that kind of -- that kind of stuff.

CPL Ellis: All right. When the Molson Group came in do you remember what time they got there?

LT Smith: I don't because they came at staggered times. I mean they didn't all come at one time. They came -- some flew in on one plane. Some flew in on another plane. I mean they didn't all just like show up at one time.

CPL Ellis: Okay. And how did they arrive when they arrived there; do you remember?

LT Smith: Ah, and I wasn't there when every one of them arrived.
I know that one or two had a car. Ah, arrangements had been made in their contract for them to have transportation so there were two vans that they paid for. And Mark and Tammy were the drivers of those vans.

CPL Ellis: Okay. I know you remember that day you went and bought a tie. You remember, you know, talking with different people during the day. You remember talking to Ms. Brandy about the leave request. There's a fair amount of details for Thursday that you can remember. Ah, I'm --

LT Smith: Because I was actually doing, you know, doing something other than just hanging out doing nothing. You know, when you're bored and you got nothing going on there ain't a whole lot to remember.

CPL Ellis: And that was your group that Molson that you got the finder's fee for?

LT Smith: Uh-huh.

CPL Ellis: What I'm -- what I'm searching for is about what time do you remember doing these activities at AST that day?

LT Smith: Ah, it's probably -- I know I ate breakfast over there. I mean I ate breakfast there every morning. I ate lunch there just about every day. Ah, it was -- I -- I don't remember.

CPL Ellis: Let me -- let me shift back to the GSP business. That may be easier for you to remember. The actual times that you were doing the GSP business on that Thursday can you help me with that.

LT Smith: Whatever time I went to work. But it wasn't a great deal of stuff. I mean I admitted and told y'all that.

DIR Holt: Well, and I think what he's trying to get is just an approximation of the number of hours you actually performed GSP work, ah, four hours, two hours?

LT Smith: I probably would think around 10:00 because I was eating breakfast and shooting the shit. Ah, I -- I would -- if I had to guess I would say around 10:00.

DIR Holt: A.M.?

LT Smith: Uh-huh.

DIR Holt: So about two hours, four hours?

LT Smith: Reading the paper -- I read the paper.

DIR Holt: No, no. I'm talking about that you actually -- what time -- from the time you went home and changed into your uniform, got in your G-ride until the time you came back to the AST house, how many hours was that?

LT Smith: Maybe somewhere around three as best I can.

DIR Holt: Okay. All right.

CPL Ellis: 10:00 to 3:00 roughly?

DIR Holt: No, three hours.

LT Smith: No, three hours.

DIR Holt: Three hours.

CPL Ellis: Oh, I gotcha.

LT Smith: I went out to the Post after 3:00.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

LT Smith: I was at -- it was after 3:00 because the evening shift to the radio room had already come on duty.

CPL Ellis: I gotcha. All right.

DIR Holt: Okay. So, but -- and you probably hung around there until around 6:00 maybe?

LT Smith: 6:30 or 7:00. I -- I know that it was getting dusk.

DIR Holt: And then you went home, changed back into your clothes, your civil clothes.

LT Smith: And went to dinner at, ah, Luwigi's I think.

DIR Holt: Um. I love Luwigi's. Ah, so you went with Spiro that night to dinner?

LT Smith: Uh-huh. And a guy named Jake Busby. And I can't remember who the other one was. But it seems like it was somebody else who went with us but I don't remember who it was to be honest with you.

DIR Holt: Do you know how to spell Mark's last name, Brimleson?

LT Smith: Bryngelson.

DIR Holt: B-R --

LT Smith: B-R-Y-N-G-E-L-S-O-N.

DIR Holt: B-R-Y-N-G-E-L-S-O-N?

LT Smith: B-R-Y-N-G-E-L-S-ON.

DIR Holt: Got it. Ah, did you go to the airport to pick up any of the Molson people at any time?

LT Smith: Ugh-ugh.

DIR Holt: Okay. And you didn't drive the van. You drove Spiro's vehicle once or twice during the week?

LT Smith: I went and put gas in it one time.

DIR Holt: What kind of vehicle does he have?

LT Smith: It was a -- what is that thing -- it was some kind of SUV. I don't remember.

DIR Holt: SUV that's -- that's good enough for me. Ah --

CPL Ellis: Let me ask one other thing too. That leave request on the Monday, was there a leave request for that four hours of Comp?

LT Smith: No.

CPL Ellis: What would have been different about not having a leave request there versus the?

LT Smith: When I did my time sheet I mean that -- the truth of the matter is 90% of the time unless we're asking for vacation a long period away we don't do leave requests as much as I would like -- I know that's a policy violation but that's a fact.

CPL Ellis: Okay.

DIR Holt: Ah, have you ever submitted an off-duty time sheet for any of the time that you've been, any of the times that you've worked off-duty?

CPL Ellis: I hadn't submitted an off-duty time sheet since I've been a Lieutenant because I don't think that I've worked in, you know, police off-duty time in nine years I've been Lieutenant. I don't think I've ever done that. Because I don't know that I've ever worked any off-duty. I hadn't worked like at the Congress Center or any of that business. I hadn't done any of that.

CPL Ellis: What -- what is your thought about the finder's fee, your opinion if you will, about the finder's fee does that qualify to you as a secondary employment job or how would you classify it?

LT Smith: I never really gave it any thought to be honest with you.
Ah, I -- I never gave that any thought that I should have filled out an off-duty request or anything of that nature, no, I did not.

DIR Holt: All right. Ah, to sum up this part of it -- and like I said I've got to go check on one more thing that I've got nagging in my brain but I got to check a fact -- to sum it up the dates Monday through Sunday associated with the Masters, Monday through Sunday, April 7th through 13th you did not work an off-duty job nor a secondary employment job?

LT Smith: No.

DIR Holt: Okay. You were not compensated in any way for the time that you spent at the -- in and about the Masters Golf Tournament?

LT Smith: The only compensation I will have received was that check that I got in December.

DIR Holt: Okay. All right.

LT Smith: And the sale of any badges or tickets that I would have done leading up to that.

DIR Holt: Right. And the finder's fee that you were paid had no implied or understood, written, verbal, anyway shape, form or fashion obligation for you to be at the AST?

LT Smith: Ugh-ugh.

DIR Holt: You were there because you wanted to be and hang out and have fun?

LT Smith: Yes, ma'am. Okay. All right. Ah, let's take -- it's about 10:58. Let's take a break because I need to check on something.

(Whereupon, recording ends.)

DIR Holt: All right. We're resuming the interview at about 11:10 a.m. I just want to go over one more time to get it straight in my mind what we've talked about as far as the time that you spent actually on-duty for the State Patrol. On Monday you said you carried four hours compensatory time. Did you carry that in the morning or the afternoon or did it matter?

LT Smith: In the morning.

DIR Holt: Okay. So then in the afternoon what I've understood you to say is that even though you were on the GSP clock, ah, you really didn't do anything for the State Patrol?

LT Smith: Correct.

DIR Holt: Ah, on Tuesday you carried eight hours worked but you didn't really do anything for the State Patrol?

LT Smith: Correct.

DIR Holt: On Wednesday, is that the day that you talked with Capt. Gray about the dignitaries?

LT Smith: Gay.

DIR Holt: Gay -- Gay, not Gray, Gay. Is that -- is that the day you think it was on Wednesday?

LT Smith: I think so.

DIR Holt: So, ah, even generously saying that that took you an hour to do talking with Dog and talking with Lt. Gay or Capt Gay, ah, there's probably seven hours you were on the clock that you didn't do GSP work. And then on Thursday what I've heard you say -- and I'm just trying to, correct me if I've misinterpreted, that probably you worked three hours for the Patrol?

LT Smith: Maybe four at the most.

DIR Holt: Four at the most. And that's on Thursday because you went home at around 3:00, changed your clothes, got in your G-ride and drove to Grovetown and, ah, made some calls, did some work on your computer, asked for four hours comp time and then went home around dusk, changed your clothes and went back to AST?

LT Smith: And went to dinner.

DIR Holt: Went to dinner. That's right you went to --

LT Smith: Luwigi's.

DIR Holt: Luwigi's, that's right. That's what you said. And then on Friday, ah, you had four hours compensatory time that you took in the afternoon. But the four hours that you carried on GSP time for that morning didn't really work a whole lot of GSP --

LT Smith: Correct.

DIR Holt: -- probably none? It is -- again the, ah -- my phone is ringing and it -- and it made me lose my train of thought. Okay. So Monday through Friday probably at the most you worked four hours, five hours the entire week? And only probably three to four of those hours were you actually in uniform?

LT Smith: Correct.

DIR Holt: Ah, would Mr. Papadopoulos be able to verify that information?

LT Smith: I -- I don't know what he will -- I mean certainly you can ask him. I don't know what he's gonna tell you.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, are you affiliated with his Motorola Company in anyway?

LT Smith: No, ma'am.

DIR Holt: Okay. Is -- does he have the contract for either Department of Public Safety or for the Augusta Richmond County government?

LT Smith: I don't know the answer to that. I know that Motorola does the work on -- but now whether that's a contract for what I -- I don't know. I do know Motorola works on both our Department stuff and the county stuff. But now what the -- have I ever seen a contract? No. Do I know what their contract calls for? No, I don't.

DIR Holt: Okay. So you as a County Commissioner would not have enacted any official action or entered in any contract through the commission with Mr. Papadopoulos?

LT Smith: Since I've been a Commissioner?

DIR Holt: Uh-huh.

LT Smith: I personally would not have. I mean the government may have but, you know, that would have been the Administrator or something like that. I know that we proposed in the last SPLOST initiative to buy a new radio system for $13 million dollars but SPLOST was voted down.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh. Okay. Ah, does the Commission have to approve expenditures over a certain amount?

LT Smith: Anything over, ah -- well, it depends -- anything over $25,000 we do if it's a capital project. There a bunch of different spending things that are different ways that we do things. But typically I think it's $25,000.

DIR Holt: Okay. All right. I have two more questions after you finish. What else do you have?

CPL Ellis: I'm gonna let you take a look at your time sheet right here, Lieutenant. The time that was recorded through the Leave Accounting System and just let you verify that right for me. What you'll notice this is like the grid or the old 617 type format. If you'll just look over that and verify that work time for me.

LT Smith: It looks -- it looks okay to me.

CPL Ellis: Okay. That'd be the time -- everything looks as submitted?

DIR Holt: That's what you submitted and when you clicked on there --

LT Smith: Yeah.

DIR Holt: -- submit you said?

LT Smith: Yeah.

DIR Holt: Yeah, this is true and accurate. Okay.

CPL Ellis: The next form that I have here, ah, I got this form from computer services. Basically what it is -- one of the fundamental things we all have to do as troopers call in our 10-8 and 10-7 times.

LT Smith: Uh-huh.

CPL Ellis: This should run from January 23rd to it looks like May 13th. And I just highlighted the week in question there.

Will this be an accurate depiction of when you called in?

LT Smith: Uh-huh. That's probably right because I told you it was in four hours and it was in the -- in the middle of the day. That looks right. That looks right. That looks right. That looks right. The only thing I would say -- and I do this all the time is I forget like on the 7th it shows -- what day is that Friday?

CPL Ellis: I think that's Monday.

LT Smith: It's going back. Oh, it's going that way?

CPL Ellis: Yes, sir.

LT Smith: Okay. I'm sorry. I was looking at it the wrong way. It is what it is. The only discrepancy I would say is there is sometimes I forget to -- the radio room will -- if you'll look on here sometimes the radio room calls me at 9:00 or 8:00 at night and say you're still in the CAD because I will have gotten out of the car and forgot to tell them. I'm talking on the phone to somebody and get out the car and forget, so.

DIR Holt: Okay.

CPL Ellis: It looks to me like when I review the form that it's within about a eight hour window from the time you went 10-8 to the time you went 10-42. So would you say that there's any of those times during the timeframe we're talking about between the 7th and 11th that you didn't remember to go 10-42?

LT Smith: No, it's pretty accurate.

CPL Ellis: Yes, sir. All right.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, we ask -- generally ask everyone that we interview is there anyone that you think we should interview that could provide us additional information in this matter?

LT Smith: No, because I think I've told you the -- I mean I've told you the truth and I've told you I haven't hid anything from you. So I can't imagine y'all know -- you know, y'all have done your stuff beforehand because you knew what questions to ask. I -- I can't think of anybody at this particular moment, no.

DIR Holt: And the only issue that I think may be questioned by someone is whether or not you were compensated for the time that you spent there during that week while you were on the Patrol clock. Ah, if it's deemed that you should would you be willing to take a polygraph on that particular issue?

LT Smith: I -- I guess. I mean I don't have a choice in the matter because you're gonna fire me if I don't.

DIR Holt: Well, and -- and I don't know that it's necessary. Ah, I want to discuss it with the Major and see if -- because that's the choice that we give everybody. The issue from the very beginning has been are you double dipping.

LT Smith: I understand.

DIR Holt: And you say that you were compensated not for your time during that week but for the finder's fee and that you spent from early in the morning 'til often late in the evening at or about somewhere affiliated either with the Masters or Mr. Papadopoulos. And it -- it may stretch the imagination for someone to believe that you spent all of that time there without any compensation. And short of, you know, making a really big deal by subpoenaing all your financial records and Mr. Papadopoulos' financial records let's, you know, if -- if it's deemed necessary or if it's deemed appropriate would you be willing to take a polygraph?

LT Smith: Ah, yeah. Let me ask you this, can I just show you the check that I got in December. Will that help you?

DIR Holt: Ugh-ugh.

LT Smith: Okay.

DIR Holt: No.

LT Smith: Because I'm willing to -- I'm willing to show you my -- I'm willing to show you anything, Angie.

DIR Holt: And -- and I get that, okay. All I'm saying is if it is deemed that it's beyond what's reasonable for you to spend --

LT Smith: 30 hours or whatever up there.

DIR Holt: -- ah, probably 12 hours a day give or take just hanging out?

LT Smith: Here's the deal, my girlfriend was out of town. She was in France. I don't have a lot of friends. All my friends were up there. The guys I play golf with.

DIR Holt: Uh-huh.

LT Smith: I mean, I'm just telling you the truth, Angie. I told you the truth from the get-go. I mean I'd go up there and I'd hang out. There's -- they even had a masseuse up there one afternoon I got a massage when I was there. I mean it's just a -- that's the way it is.

DIR Holt: Okay. And -- and -- and like I said I'm not questioning --

LT Smith: I know.

DIR Holt: -- that you were, ah --

LT Smith: I know what you're getting to.

DIR Holt: -- were -- were there. I'm just saying that the whole issue --

LT Smith: You think that I got paid for being there.

DIR Holt: I don't think that.

LT Smith: Well, I'm just saying that's --

DIR Holt: I'm -- I'm just saying that that's the allegation that was made and if it's determined that we need just a little bit more that may be a possibility. Ah, and the other thing that I just want to say is that you are not to discuss this investigation with anyone inside the Department or outside the Department. No, ah, you know, I always feel dumb saying that because I know that most people discuss it with their significant other. But I -- I -- I just want to say that -- that -- I'm saying don't.

LT Smith: Well, I wish that the other people that you have interviewed would have adhered to that too because the press was calling me at my home last night telling me that I was gonna be arrested for theft and that people -- that y'all had come to my house on Saturday and got my guns and my car and that I was double-dipping. They used the exact terms that you used.

DIR Holt: Um.

LT Smith: And that I was sexually harassing somebody. I mean the press is calling me so whoever is in Augusta, whoever y'all have interviewed -- and I know you can't stop that but it's disappointing that that has occurred. It wasn't your fault. It wasn't your fault.

DIR Holt: Well, and again, ah, I -- I think the Department can somewhat control current employees because if they are giving information in violation with an order they received they can be disciplined for that. Someone who is a former employee or is a civilian or not affiliated with the Department in any way we don't have a whole lot of control over that.

LT Smith: I understand. But it was -- it was obviously an employee because there were details that they told people that you asked me about. So I'm just saying it's disappointing that there are employees that are discussing this stuff.

DIR Holt: Okay. Ah, I would be interested in knowing if there is anyone specific that you think -- ah, not think, that you believe or have reason to believe and what that reason might be if a current employee has discussed this since this investigation has begun.

LT Smith: Well it would just have been since Thursday since I got put on leave.

DIR Holt: Okay. And I mean --

LT Smith: I -- I don't know who it was. I'm just saying that I'm disappointed that that happened.

DIR Holt: I am -- I think I would be too. But if you think or if you find or if you get any information as to who that might be and if it's a current employee I'd appreciate you letting me know that. I usually give somebody a card with my contact information but you already have that.

LT Smith: No. Since I don't -- you know, they took my State phone from me. I don't have anybody's contact --

DIR Holt: Well, in that case I'll get you a card and give you my cell number and all that stuff so you can contact me.
Ah, do you have any additional questions of us?

LT Smith: No.

DIR Holt: Okay. Well, this interview is ending at 11:29 and for real this time.

On June 27, 2014, Director Angie Holt of the Department of Public Safety (DPS) Office of Professional Standards (OPS) received from Nigel Lange (DPS Technology Director) a clone of a Gateway laptop computer hard drive and a clone of a Dell computer hard drive that had been issued to LT Donald Smith #43 (Assistant Troop Commander, Troop E). The clones had been created by Lange for forensic analysis by SFC Adam Howell (MCCD Region 5).

On June 25, 2014, Lange prepared DPS Receipt For Property #A-003905 when he created the clones of the above mentioned hard drives (attached). On June 27, 2014, Director Holt memorialized her receipt of the hard drive clones from Lange on DPS Receipt For Property #A-003905 (attached).

CASE SUMMARY

On June 27, 2014, a request for a forensic analysis was submitted by OPS Director Angie Holt and OPS CPL Jason Ellis for Region 5 SFC Adam Howell (Forensic Tech) to conduct an analysis of two cloned hard drives: one 3.5" HD from a Gateway desktop computer and one 2.5" HD from a Dell MDT assigned to LT Donnie Smith. Ellis requested Howell to obtain emails, possible inappropriate visual images, and anything that "seemed out of compliance with DPS policies" to be recorded onto CD's for Ellis to review for his investigation.

During the week of July 1-3, 2014, Howell reported to the OPS forensic lab and processed data from the hard drives. Howell had to obtain the original 2.5" SDD that was from the MDT from DPS Computer Services due to an unresponsive SDD clone. Howell processed the 3.5" HD first and found several visual images of nudity from a "dsmith" folder. Howell also found over 2,000 emails and/or email fragments pertaining to Smith. Both Images and emails were collected and placed onto a CD for investigative viewing along with a FTK Investigative report. Findings from the 3.5" HD are attached to case #IA-0035-2014 as exhibit #19A.

On July 3, 2014, Howell returned both cloned HDs to Director Holt and the MDT and Original 2.5" SDD to Brentwood Smith in Computer Services.

On July 3, 2014, Howell began the processing of the MDT clone and returned to sort items of interest on July 14, 2014. 20 visual images of nudity/sexually suggestive that appeared to be attachments from emails were discovered. Howell collected every email that was on the drive for further investigative review. The visual images and 11,189 emails/email fragments found on the 2.5 SDD were placed onto the FTK investigative report and also attached to case #IA-0035-2014 as exhibit #19B.

FORENSIC SOFTWARE USED

FORENSIC TERMINOLOGY

The following forensic terms are used in this report and are explained in the glossary below:

Computer Terminology

Image	(1) In computer science an image is an exact replica of the contents of a storage device (a hard disk drive or CD-ROM for example) stored on a second storage device. See also disk image. (2) The term image is also used in place of the term digital image, which is an optically formed duplicate or other reproduction of an object formed by a lens or mirror. See also graphics.
E01 Image	A file (imaging) with the E01 file extension is an EnCase Forensic Image file. for security reasons the the E01 files contain additional information to prevent changes to the file.
HDD or HD	In a personal computer, a hard disk drive (HDD) is the mechanism that controls the positioning, reading, and writing of the hard disk, which furnishes the largest amount of data storage for the PC. Although the hard disk drive (often shortened to "hard drive") and the hard disk are not the same thing, they are packaged as a unit and so either term is sometimes used to refer to the whole unit.
SSD	Stands for "Solid State Drive." An SSD is a type of mass storage device similar to a hard disk drive (HDD). It supports reading and writing data and maintains stored data in a permanent state even without power. Internal SSDs connect to a computer like a hard drive, using standard IDE or SATA connections.
