IV. Description of Incident: [] Allegation [X] Inquiry [] Commendation

Chris called wishing to file a complaint of harrassment by our officers. He said he was stopped and 'spotlighted'. I explained the light was to provide visibility for officers for their safety, and he accepted that. He then said he produced his license, and then he was repeatedly asked what he was on probation for, and he said he was never on probation. I explained that it sounded as though radio had told the stopping officer that he was on probation, and then the license run came back not on file, also creating the need for additional inquiry by the officer. Chris appeared to understand all of this, and satisfied that he was not being harassed. I asked if he needed to be contacted again by the appropriate precinct commander, and he stated no, that I had explained everything to him.
