

GARRITY WARNING (Garrity V. New Jersey, 385 US 493, 87 S. Ct. 616 (1967))

This Garrity Warning is being administered consistent with an Internal/Administrative Investigation Policy of The Cherokee County Sheriff's Office.

You are being interviewed as part of an Official, Internal, Administrative Investigation which is being conducted on behalf of Cherokee County Sheriff's Office by an investigator who is a Designee of the Sheriff.

You will be asked questions specifically directed and narrowly related to the performance of your official duties and/or fitness for duty. You are entitled to all of the rights and privileges guaranteed by The Constitution and Laws of The State of Georgia, and The Constitution and Laws of The United States of America, including the right not to be compelled to incriminate yourself.

You are advised that if you should refuse to answer any questions(s) relating to the performance of your Official Duties and (or) your Fitness For Duty, you shall be subject to departmental charges which could result in disciplinary action or the termination of your employment.

Neither your statements or any information or evidence which is gained by reason of such statements can be used as evidence against you in any subsequent criminal proceedings. However, these statements and any information or evidence which is gained by reason of such statements can be used against you in subsequent departmental charges.

In addition to the above rights, you have the rights to have counsel present during this questioning.

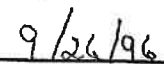

Do you understand these rights as they have been read to you?
