Give a brief narrative of events that lead to the complaint. You may add additional sheets if necessary.

Annease Kinard stated she was walking down Broad St. with a friend, Amber Suber, and they had plastic cups. Kinard stated Sgt. Trimmingham asked what was in the cups. Kinard stated she advised water and Red Bull were in the cups. Kinard stated Sgt. Trimmingham asked to smell the cups. After smelling the cups Sgt. Trimmingham advised he was writing them a ticket for public drinking. Kinard stated Sgt. Trimmingham made a comment to Suber that Suber could thank her friend for being stupid. Kinard stated she does not feel like she should have gotten a ticket and Sgt. Trimmingham was rude.

Suber also called and stated she admitted to Sgt. Trimmingham that her cup contained beer. Suber also stated she does not feel like she should have gotten a ticket and Sgt. Trimmingham was rude.

Case #22-265258

Supervisor/Investigative Comments.

Deferred to supervisor

Sgt Trimmingham was not rude but I think that he could have handled this differently. I have spoken to him about the incident.

RE: Complaint Control # 21-06-30

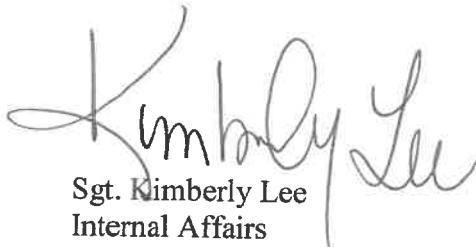

Mr. Naber,

The Richmond County Sheriff's Office and its members are firmly committed to providing professional services to the community and all citizens in general. To this end, Citizen Complaints and Concerns are taken seriously and are investigated.

Your complaint on Sgt. Trimmingham from an incident that occurred on August 16, 2020 at Limelight Café in Richmond County where you were charged with Obstruction of an Officer. Your complaint and the video you submitted with your complaint, Sgt. Trimmingham's body worn camera video as well as the responding Deputies body worn camera videos were reviewed by Internal Affairs and Sgt. Trimmingham's Lieutenant. Sgt. Trimmingham did not violate policy while he worked his Special Duty assignment at Limelight Café.

Your complaint is Not-Sustained and is closed with the Internal Affairs Division.

I have returned your jump drive you submitted with your complaint.

Sgt. Kimberly Lee
Internal Affairs

Good Afternoon,

This is the UOF from that complaint I sent you on Sgt. Trimmingham a couple of weeks ago. I am going to go with the disposition of Not-Sustained. If you disagree with me, please let me know. Nabor's actions escalated the response from Sgt. Trimmingham. I do not see where Sgt. Trimmingham violated any RCSO policy while working his special at Limelight.
