NARRATIVE

ORIGINAL CALL TYPE: PHYSICAL DOMESTIC IN-PROG

ADDRESS: [redacted] KINGDOM HALL RD

TELEPHONE:

CASE REPORT NUMBER: 23-09-0085-S

NARRATIVE TYPE: NARRATIVE

Due to the nature and severity of the call being a physical domestic in progress Deputy Jaramillo was unaware if the subject had any weapons. Deputy Jaramillo retrieved his service weapon. Upon making entry to the residence Deputy Jaramillo saw Jodeci and Kentraey sitting in the living room and kitchen area. Deputy Jaramillo asked Kentraey if he was "Trey" to which Kentraey stated he was and that if he needed to leave then he would. Deputy Jaramillo advised Kentraey to place his hands behind his back. Deputy Jaramillo done this so he could detain Kentraey and ask questions and to pat him down for weapons. When Deputy Jaramillo placed hands on Kentraey, he had moved his hands away from him. Kentraey attempted to walk away from Deputy Jaramillo while he attempted to place hands on Kentraey once again. Deputy Jaramillo used a takedown to take Kentraey to the ground after he refused to place his hands behind his back. Then an altercation had ensued. Deputy Jaramillo had repeatedly asked Kentraey to place his hands behind his back and to stop resisting. BPD Sergeant Robinson arrived to assist due to other Deputies being several minutes away from the scene. BPD Sgt Robinson advised he saw Kentraey take a pipe from his pocket and throw it. Deputy Jaramillo and Sgt. Robinson began to try and gain control over Kentraey so where he would place his hands behind his back. Kentraey refused and Deputy Jaramillo deployed his service taser on the lower left of Kentraey's back. Kentraey still refused. Deputy Jaramillo placed the taser away from the initial probes onto his lower right side of his back to gain compliance and control over Kentraey. Kentraey did give his hands up and was placed in cuffs. While patting him down Kentraey broke free from the left hand cuff and was immediately taken to the floor. Kentraey was placed back in handcuffs and was escorted to the patrol vehicle of Sgt. Robinson.
